Supreme court ruling on james brown

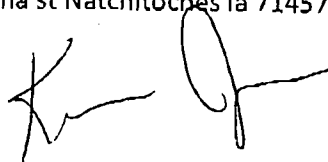

To jean toal chief justice

My name is Kevin Jones the brother of James Joseph Jones aka Brown the Godfather of Soul music, my complaint is that you gave a ruling on my brother James Brown that his last will & trust must remain the same, after South Carolina Attorney General Judge Doyet Early and all the other attorneys went on a high jacking looting spree a free for all that deprived under privileged children to go to college, since your ruling you handed down to the lower court which it was Judge Doyet Early he since refused to follow your ruling, all of his money must be put back in order with interest, all court cost and attorney fees must be waived, the persons who he had named on his last will & trust must remain as what my brother James has stated, you have also stated in your ruling that Russell Bauknight must be removed he as over stepped his bounds as a trustee of my brother James's estate, and also my brother James's children who he named also attacked and contested my brother James's last will & trust, which states if his last will & trust is contested they are automatically disinherited, note Tomi Rae is not my brother James's legal wife she was married to another man the same time the marriage is invalid, I had filed social security fraud charges on her with the US Inspectors General Office, for marriage fraud and social security fraud which the case is being investigated, Chief Justice Toal my family wants assurance for you that your ruling is carried out fully, this is sad to say it appears that South Carolina's justice system has issues among black who writes their own last will & trust, and have no rights to do what they wish as to help under privileged kids go to college to get an education which this is what my brother James had wanted but he was deprived, the money was looted by all parties I have stated in my complaint Judge Doyet Early must be removed from making any more ruling regarding my brother James Brown, since he completely ignored your ruling and refused to comply that what he had done by rewriting my brother James's last will & trust along with the Attorney General Office, this far nothing has been amended by Judge Doyet Early, that you the honorable Chief Justice Toal justice must prevail so this does not happen to any one on matter what their race is,

Sincerely Kevin Jones
