

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Ex Parte: Tara Dawn Shurling, Appellant,

In Re:
State of South Carolina, Respondent,

v.

Bejay Harley, Defendant.

Appellate Case No. 2013-001298

ORDER

After the court granted three extension requests, Appellant's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter were due on October 3, 2013. The order granting the third extension provided that "any further extension request must show the existence of extraordinary circumstances [and] state what actions are being taken to insure that no further extension will be required." On October 7, 2013, the court received Appellant's motion for a fourth extension. We are concerned with what appears to be an inadequate explanation of the extraordinary circumstances that would necessitate this extension. Nevertheless, we will consider a motion to file Appellant's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter out of time as long as it is received within 15 days of this order.
