Dear Ms Kitchings:

Thank you for acknowledging my email. In addition I wanted to know how to proceed.

In a telephone call to the court today (6/16/2025) I spoke to Jacquelyn (Clerk) telling her the family circumstances of getting the fee for case no.#2025 000762.

Ms Jacquelyn (clerk) advised that Mr. Jeter file a motion for 15 days extension to the court for sending the fee. In addition the fee can be mailed to the court at 1220 Senate St. Columbia, SC. and payable to the Court of Appeal as soon as possible, and there is an additional $50 fee to file the motion.

However, Mr. Jeter seeks to proceed with the case No 2025 000762. I along with other family members have the filing fee that will satisfy and protect the case. Again, Mr. Jeter is seeking 15days to protect his case.

Thank you.

Dear Ms Kitchings:

I am reaching out in effort to be informed of how I may satisfy the court's filing fee for the filing of Alonzo C. Jeter, III's case. I have attempted to pay this fee online, however, I am being led to the E-Filing System which is for attorneys only. In the alternative I planned to mail a check or money order to Mr. Jeter; however, I have been informed that the Lee Correctional Institution's mailroom declines to allow the check or money order to be mailed to Lee C. I. and that Mr. Jeter be allowed to attend the mail room with a pre-addressed postage prepaid envelope to your office.

Please inform me how I shall proceed.

Thank you,

Ms Black
