

To the Honorable Court:

My name is Kong Jian Lin (孔建林), plaintiff in case number 2024CP4601346. I respectfully submit this statement regarding the difficulty I encountered in serving court documents to the defendant, Lin Yi Tong (Tony Lin).

On June 23, 2025, at approximately 6:30 PM, I went to Tony Lin's restaurant to deliver the documents in person. A male staff member told me that "Tony said to leave the documents at the front counter." I showed the documents and the receipt to a female staff member (photographed), and requested that Tony sign for them. I then walked to the kitchen door and asked Tony directly. He replied, "Just leave it here. If you don't want to, you can go." When I told him that court documents need his signature, he replied, "This has nothing to do with me. If you don't leave, I will call the police."

He refused to sign or take the documents. I had no choice but to leave.

The next day, June 24, 2025, I mailed the documents via certified mail. As of today (June 26), the postal tracking shows no reply yet.

I respectfully request the court to consider this as valid service under Rule 4 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, or to approve alternate service by mail, photo evidence, or public notice.

Sincerely,

Kong Jian Lin

SC Court of Appeals

I, Kong Jian Lin, certify that on June 23, 2025, I personally attempted to serve court documents related to case number 2024CP4601346 to the defendant Lin Yi Tong (Tony Lin) at his restaurant.

A male employee said Tony instructed him to leave the documents at the counter. I showed the documents and receipt to a female employee and asked for a signature. Tony refused to accept or sign. He said, 'This has nothing to do with me. If you don't leave, I'll call the police.' I then left peacefully.

On June 24, 2025, I sent the same documents by certified mail. As of June 26, no reply has been received.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
