Subject: Lemuel A. Giviens v. SCDOT (App. Case #2025-000313) - Correct Mailing Address

Mr. Giviens –

Good morning.

I received the attached email and correspondence yesterday morning (Wednesday, 6/26) from the Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

After reviewing it, I checked the status of your appeal using the on-line portal for the Court of Appeals, which is called “C-Track.” C-Track Public Access - South Carolina Judicial Branch

In doing so, I learned that you had submitted filings to the Court of Appeals and served them upon me using an incorrect mailing address.

I’ve attached a file-stamped copy of your motion dated 6/18/25, and the “Affidavit of Service by Mailing” you included with the same reflects my mailing address as 339 Heywood Street, Columbia, SC 29201.

However, my correct mailing address is 339 Heyward Street, Columbia, SC 29201. To avoid any further confusion, please use my correct mailing address going forward.

Very respectfully,

Lake Summers
