Re: Town of Six Mile vs. Danny Ray Ward
Our File No: 5532.001

Dear Dan:

As you know we have made a Motion in the South Carolina Court of Appeals to be relieved as your lawyers in your case. You have declined to sign a Consent relieving us. I had written you several days ago notifying you of your right to file a return to our Motion, which according to the rules, should probably have already been filed as of today.

Nonetheless, in my mail today I received the original of the attached letter from the Clerk of the Court of Appeals dated September 18, 2013. You will see that the Court requests that returns to the Motion be filed not later than ten (10) days from the date of the letter. It does not appear that the Court sent you a copy of this letter, and I am therefore providing you with a copy in order that you can determine whether you will file a return or not. If you do not file anything, it is likely that the Court will grant the Motion.

Please be careful to note the filing dates and govern yourself accordingly.

Sincerely yours,

CALLISON TIGHE & ROBINSON, LLC
