Re: Michael T. Braxton v. Don A. Thompson
Appellate Case No. 2025-000172

Dear Mr. Braxton:

Upon review of our file, it does not appear that the transcript has been ordered in accordance with Rule 207, SCACR. You must provide proof of having ordered the transcript, including making satisfactory arrangements to pay the court reporter to produce the transcript. You must also include a proof of service showing you sent a copy of your communications with the court reporter to opposing counsel and the Office of Court Administration. The Court will not take action on your motion seeking permission to order the transcript out of time or your motion for an extension of time until you provide proof of having paid the court reporter to produce the transcript. You must provide proof of having paid the court reporter to produce the transcript, as well as a proof of service showing all communication with the court reporter was provided to opposing counsel and the Office of Court Administration, within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or your appeal will be dismissed.

Very truly yours,
