

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

DeQuincey G. Simmons, Appellant,

v.

South Carolina Department of Employment Workforce and Bridgestone Americas Tire Operations, LLC, Respondents.

Appellate Case No. 2024-001608

ORDER

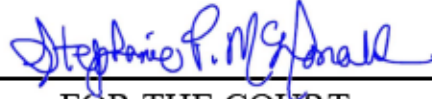

On May 7, 2025, this court issued an order denying Appellant's April 8, 2025 "motion to clarify court orders, require judicial authentication, and stay proceedings pending resolution." On May 12, 2025, Appellant filed a "motion for judicial review by full panel and clarification of judicial authority." After careful consideration, we take no action on Appellant's motion as it is meritless and not properly before this court. See Rule 221(c), SCACR ("The appellate court will not entertain petitions for rehearing on a motion or petition unless the action of the court on the motion or petition has the effect of dismissing or finally deciding a party's appeal."); Rule 240(i), SCACR ("The court will not entertain petitions for rehearing on a motion or petition unless the action of the court on the motion or petition has the effect of dismissing or finally deciding a party's appeal.").

On May 23, 2025, Appellant filed a motion to stay the appeal pending resolution of his May 12, 2025 motion. On June 3, 2025, Respondents filed a return to Appellant's motion to stay, requesting this court deny the motion to stay, dismiss the appeal, and award sanctions. After careful consideration, we conclude Appellant's motion to stay the appeal is moot in light of our decision to take no action on his May 12, 2025 motion.

At this time, we deny Respondent's joint requests to dismiss the appeal and award sanctions; however, the court acknowledges Appellant's pattern of meritless filings.

The filing of further frivolous or successive matters will result in dismissal of this appeal.

Within thirty days of the date of this order, Appellant shall serve and file the record on appeal. Failure to timely comply will likewise result in dismissal of the appeal.
