

IN THE COURT OF APPEALS, SOUTH CAROLINA

RECEIVED

THE STATE V. STEVEN FRANTZ

JUL 07 2025

SC Court of Appeals

CIVIL CASE NUMBER 880295

On Appeal from the Judgement of the Magistrate Court in Jasper County, South Carolina

APPELLANT'S REQUIRED FILING OF A RECORD ON APPEAL
BRIEF IN SUPPORT

STEVEN FRANTZ, PRO SE
536 SOUTH SUMMIT STREET
SMITHVILLE, OHIO 44677

Mr. Alan Wilson, Attorney General, South Carolina
Andrew D. Powell, Assistant Attorney General, South Carolina
Honorable Henry McMaster, Governor, South Carolina
Senator Lindsey Graham, United States Senator
Congresswoman Nancy Mace, United States Representative
Congressman Max Miller, United States Representative
Jasper County Legislative Delegation
South Carolina BAR Association

- I do not accept the merit of this Criminal Case as no Notice was given informing me how this case magically became Criminal from a Civil case.
- I have tried to defend myself upon the mercy of this court but, seemingly, no avail. It is clear concern lie within following the Court's form and rules, not simply presenting the truth, thus making the Court blind. My phone calls to the Court remain unanswered, with no return phone call courtesy. Based upon The Attorney General's latest Motion to Strike I question why the Attorney General is involved at all. This is the first time an attorney has been involved at all in this Civil Case. All I have provided to the Court, it seems obvious, to me, you wish not to see the truth of this case. I would, however, like to still clarify some points along this journey.
- I had an unidentifiable man (later identified as Robbie Smith) with a gun approach me while I was stopped along the side of a road. Myself and my family were threatened with his violence, to even find us in Ohio if I did not concede myself to his demands. Terrified of him, I did, under duress. Therefore, nothing I may have said or done can be held against a man under duress.
- Robbie Smith asked for identification, of which I gave him my US military ID. This upset Mr. Smith because of my military affiliation. He then took pictures of my US military ID with his phone, in violation of Federal Law.
- Robbie Smith held me with the threat of a gun, to the point of not allowing a Sheriff deputy to perform his duty, instead waiting for a South Carolina Department of Natural Resources Officer (Carter DuPree) to arrive. I later found out Robbie Smith, a former SCDNR officer was working in collusion with current SCDNR employee Carter DuPree.
- Officer Carter DuPree got involved in a Civil matter, no wildlife or wildlife lands were involved. The Sheriff Deputy informed myself, Officer Carter Dupree, and Robbie Smith there was no probable cause. Furthermore, there was no witness to any alleged Civil offense. Even after searching our van, Officer Carter DuPree concluded there was no wildlife violations, agreeing with the Sheriff Deputy.
- Even though there was no trespass warning or verbal warning given, standing alongside on the road, Officer Dupree wrote a ticket for $260.00 (a "potential clerical error" according to Mr. Powell), over two and a half times the maximum allowable $100.00 fine for simple trespass. This "potential clerical error" is a clear violation of my 8th and 14th Amendment Rights. It seems

- Magistrate S. Joanne McDonald upheld, without jurisdiction or probable cause. even though there was no trespass warning or verbal warning given, standing alongside on the road, "potential clerical error" of a $260.00 fine, in violation of my 8th and 14th Amendment rights.
- This obvious clerical error has vacillated many times between being a Civil offense (originally) to a Criminal offense (presently) even at one point calling it a Civil offense and Criminal offense on the same sheet of paper. Nowhere is it possible to magically change a Civil offense, at the stroke of a pen or wand, to a Criminal offense.
- Circuit Judge R. Keith Kelly upheld, even though there was no trespass warning or verbal warning given, standing alongside on the road, "potential clerical error" of a $260.00 fine, violating my 8th and 14th Amendment rights.
- Officer Carter Dupree's supervisor, FSGT Pope, stated "potential clerical error" fines over 2 ½ times the maximum allowed, which violate the 8th and 14th Amendments, are the normal way of doing business with the South Carolina Department of Natural Resources.
- FSGT Pope has stated the normal way this is addressed is to simply sign a letter promising to not do what you are accused of doing, in this case stopping along the road to take pictures of flowers. FSGT Pope also stated Officer Carter DuPree is pursuing this is because he is retaliating against my complaint. This is a 1st Amendment violation.
- Mr. Powell is presenting the Court with a False Legal Argument; the facts of this case must remain and not be changing. The appeal is based upon the facts at the time of the hearing.
- Mr. Powell has rescinded the "potential clerical error" $260.00 fine, then requested the "potential clerical error" to be reinstated because rescinding the $260.00 fine was also a "potential clerical error," again, further violating of my 8th and 14th Amendment rights.
- The original charge by Officer Carter Dupree was as a Civil charge (Civil Case Number 880295). The State of South Carolina was not injured. Who was the injured party? Officer Carter DuPree should not and cannot represent the Okeetee Hunting Club or the State of South Carolina as he did during the Civil Trial. By pretending to be an attorney, Officer Carter DuPree committed unauthorized practice of the law.
- Somehow Mr. Alan Wilson, Attorney General for the State of South Carolina and Mr. Andrew Powell have, evidently, in error, changed this to the Court from a Civil Case (880295) to a Criminal Case (2023-0007909) with no notice to me, no jurisdiction, no probable cause. How did this magically change?
- Attorney General Alan Wilson was not at the Civil Case, why is he involved now? I do not understand why Attorney General Alan Wilson is allowing the unauthorized practice of law by Officer Carter DuPree. Attorney General Alan Wilson has little concern for probable cause, lack of jurisdiction or unauthorized practice of the law as well as using this law to punish me more than they are allowed to, even rewriting the law. This all seems a little strange to me.

- Mr. Powell, and now including Mr. Alan Wilson, Attorney General for South Carolina are, once again, praying to this Court. I believe this to be a clear violation of the 1st and 14th Amendments. Mr. Powell has elevated this Court as his god, making this Court his religion. Mr. Powell clearly shows there is no separation between his church (Court) and his state (South Carolina).

- Because I am from out of state, and a 35-year veteran of the United States Army is no reason to try to change established legal doctrine. As someone who has sworn to uphold the Constitution for 35 years of my adult life, I expected the system to work, not just for me, but for everyone, regardless of race, creed, religion, or military affiliation.

- It is my wish this entire case be dismissed. There is no violation on my part due to the aforementioned statements.

Sincerely,
