RE: Case No. 2024-CP-46-01346 (Kong Jian Lin v. Lin Yi Tong)
Request for Defendant's Residential Address for Service

Dear Honorable Court,

I am the appellant in the above case. I respectfully request the Court's assistance in obtaining the home address of the defendant, Mr. Lin Yi Tong (Tony Lin), from York County Sheriff James Voytko.

The defendant refused to receive certified mail at his business location, and I have reasonable concern that further delivery attempts may be obstructed. The Sheriff previously agreed to cooperate if the Court contacts him.

Please consider contacting the York County Sheriff's Office to retrieve the defendant's residential or driver's license address for proper legal service if necessary.

Respectfully,

Kong Jian Lin

SC Court of Appeals

On Wednesday July 5, 2023 I was dispatched to speak with a one Kong Jian Lin of Fort Mill, SC, regarding a past assault that occurred on March 29, 2021 at the Chery Sushi Bar located at 4034 Charlotte Highway Clover, SC, York County. Kong reported that his boss, "Tony", Yi Tong Lin, hit him in the ribs and caused injury that lasted for several weeks. Kong had to go to the doctor and prescribed medicine for pain. Kong reported that he confronted Tony about it and Tony had him lie to an insurance company that he got hurt from a door hitting him. Kong also reported that Tony said that he has recordings of him, though it is not certain what the recordings contain. Tony denies hitting Kong.

There is a language barrier. Kong is now an American citizen but was born in China and speaks limited English. It appears that this incident has effected Kong's life in several ways. It is unknown why Kong is now coming forward with this information but it is very apparent that it has caused him emotional distress and anxiety. Kong brought with him several papers from the hospital, an affidavit in Chinese, instructions that he is looking to make a police report in English, and a recording of a conversation on a cassette tape. That tape contains a conversation of some sort between him and Tony, but, it is all in Chinese.

I will have to turn this report over to CID to look into further. A Chinese interpreter will be needed.
