Dear whom it concern

SC Court of Appeals

I'm writing to ~~the~~ Petition for a PCR rehearing due to the fact that my attorney James Falk passed away in 2023 before I got a judgment on my PCR. After Mr Falk passed I was appointed a attorney from SCCID. I told that attorney that I wanted to file a (59.E) motion so all my evidence would be taking in consideration to make a judgment on my PCR. But before I could file my 59.E motion a judgment of denial was found on my PCR. so then I put a notice of appeal for my PCR denial and was given attorney Joanna Delany from SCCID to represent me for my petition for writ of certiorari filed on July 22 2024. I notify Ms Joanna Delany of SCCID that I was trying to file a 59.E motion for my PCR but my attorney James Falk passed away before I could file my 59.E motion. she told me that she would bring up the facts of my (59.E) motion not being filed in time for my PCR judgment was handed down. Now on June 25, 2025 I receive a notice saying that the court of appeals denying my petition for writ of certiorari by court of appeals and that means I have now exhausted my state remedies and I trying to figure out how this judgment was found when I haven't talked to my attorney in over 6 months. Can you please look into this matter for me.
