

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
IN THE COURT OF APPEALS

Michael Goins, #302385,
Appellant,

Appellant Case No. 2013-000960

v.

MOTION TO PRODUCE
DOCUMENTS

South Carolina Department of Corrections, Respondents.

The Appellant, as a pro se litigant, pursuant to the South Carolina appellate Court rules, Motions the respondents to Produce the Documents of the above captioned case within 30 days.

The Appellant makes this motion on the grounds that he has never received the records of this case throughout the whole proceeding, including but not limited to, the Transcript of the disciplinary hearing, the SCDC policy / procedure DP-22.14 "Inmate Disciplinary System", S.C. DC policy / procedure GA-01.12 "Inmate Grievance System", etc.

The Appellant can not adequately and effectively prepare his initial Appellants Brief without the foregoing records & documents. the requested documents are essential to the case in chief.

October 18th , 2013
Pelzer, South Carolina

Respectfully Submitted,
Mr. Michael Goins

RECEIVED

OCT 23 2013

SC Court of Appeals