

RECEIVED

Jul 21 2025

SC Court of Appeals

IN THE COURT OF APPEALS
STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

Christopher Lawton, Appellant

v.

Discover Bank, Respondent

Appellate Case No. 2025-000833

MOTION TO ACCEPT LATE FILING

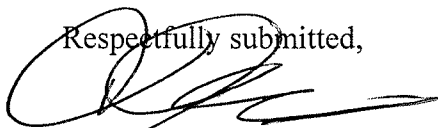

COMES NOW the Appellant, Christopher Lawton, appearing in propria persona, and respectfully moves this Honorable Court pursuant to Rule 208(b)(1)(E) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules to accept the late filing of the Initial Brief of Appellant and Designation of Matter.

This motion is necessary because of unforeseen technical difficulties that hindered timely submission. Despite diligent efforts, the documents could not be finalized and filed within the original time period due to formatting complications and software issues.

Appellant affirms that the delay was not intended to cause prejudice or delay to the Court or to the Respondent. The final documents are complete, accurate, and are being filed immediately along with this motion.

WHEREFORE, Appellant respectfully requests that this Court accept the Initial Brief of Appellant and Designation of Matter as timely filed under the authority of Rule 208(b)(1)(E), and allow the appeal to proceed on its merits.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Christopher Lawton

Christopher Lawton

In propria persona

Dated: July 19, 2025