

South Carolina
Court of Appeals

Herbert Alonzo Robinson,

Petitioner,

v.

Sheriff Al Cannon,

Respondent.

Appellate Case #2013-

002043

Lower Court Case #2012-

CP-10-00929

Petition for

Rehearing or Reinstatement

RECEIVED

OCT 28 2013

S.C. Supreme Court

The * Remittur in this case is Dated:

* October 8, 2013.

The Petitioner-Plaintiff, Robinson,

respectively state that his Petition

Writ of Certiorari to the State

Supreme Court was Pre-mature.

He respectively Prays this Honorable Court would Rehear or Reinstatement this case since it is a Meritorious one and involves Constitutional Issues both State and Federal which would possibly require a Waiver of * the $100 Filing Fee, since it also involves Denial of Access to Courts, when Defendant and/or Respondent, employees Destroyed some 1,500 pages of Legal Materials they knew were needed in his Criminal and Civil Defense during a Shakedown

RECEIVED

OCT 28 2013

SC Court of Appeals

and/or Cell Search.

Petitioner Legally Threatened the employees with Grievances and Lawsuit during the Course of seizure of his property.

In retaliation an employed threatened she'd see to it the seized legal materials needed in his Defense at Trial would be Destroyed. Respondent, Cannon's employees were Served with Grievance and Lawsuit while Petitioner was still Confined as a Pre-Trial Detainee at the Charleston County Detention Center. when he Transferred out of said Facility, his Legal documents had been Unlawfully Destroyed or mysteriously gone or Lost. Petitioner could not proceed to Trial without his seized property he pleaded with Respondent, Cannon Employees to Return that he needed for Court. Petitioner received 15 years Imprisonment of which he's required to do 51% service.

Fore the Afforementioned Reasons, He prays this Court Grant this petition.

Respectfully,

Date: 10.18.13
