Council Policy

Re: Council Members Directing County Employees, Investigations, Facility Access

Date: August 21, 2007

Whereas, several incidents have been reported in which a member of the County Council inappropriately intervened with County staff and attempted to direct employees in regard to their work activities under the pretext of being a Council member or as some investigation; and

Whereas, these incidents are in breach of proper roles and procedures and have caused some employees to feel threatened and make it more difficult to carry out their assigned duties; and

Whereas, it is our responsibility, as a Council, to ensure that the proper and correct roles, as provided by State Law, under our Council-Administrator Form of Government, and Council Rules, are maintained between the County Council members and County Administrator, as well as County staff and employees; and

Whereas, in a further effort to ensure that there are no misunderstandings among Council members, County Council feels that it has become necessary to adopt the following policy in line with the law and rules governing Council/staff relationships.

Now, Therefore, the following is hereby adopted as the policy of Greenville County Council and Greenville County Government:

1. Neither County Council nor individual council members have authority to direct, give orders or instructions to county employees. In compliance with the Home Rule Act and Section 4-9-660 of the Code of Laws of South Carolina, as amended, the supervision of County employees and direction of all staff activities are sole responsibilities of the County Administrator, together with the duly appointed supervisors reporting to the Administrator.

County Council is a policy making body and has no supervisory authority over employees. In no situation does authority devolve to individual council members. It is the Administrator's duty to carry out policies and ordinances enacted by County Council. Any Council member dissatisfied with the performance of a County employee, must take the matter up with the County Administrator. County employees and staff members are within their rights to refuse to acknowledge any Council member violating these procedures, or any interference or improper demands by any Council member or members.

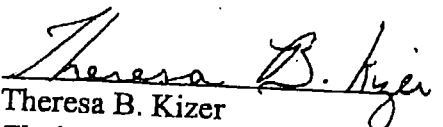

2. In compliance with State law and Council policy, only County Council as a whole can authorize and initiate an investigation. Without prior County Council approval, individual members of Council carry no official authority to conduct investigations.

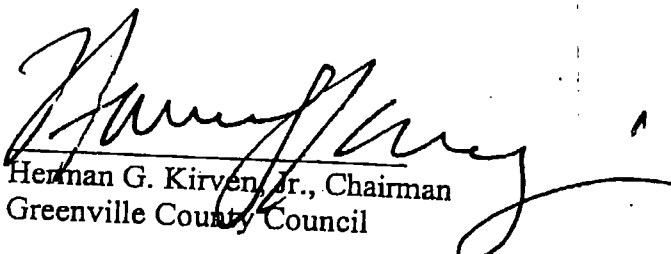

3. Certain County facilities contain activities that require important and serious restrictions to maintain the safety and well-being of County employees, citizens and visitors. County Council members have no greater ability to enter County facilities than any other member of the public. Should a Council member wish to access a County facility restricted to the public, the member should contact the County Administrator to arrange entry.

4. It is important to note that Council has already put a proper and effective method for any County employee to express concerns, complaints, or grievances. This includes the ability of employees to freely address concerns with Supervisors, Human Resources and the County Administrator. This is included in the Greenville County Personnel Handbook adopted by County Council Resolution No. 1098 on August 3, 2004.

Adopted by the Greenville County Council this 21st Day of AUGUST, 2007.

This provision shall supersede any previous limitations on issuance for Commission projects."

Dr. Taylor stated the total amount of GO Bonds was capped at 40% of "available bonding capacity" for bonding of Greenville Tech projects. He stated when the initial wording was inserted, it was interpreted by the County as available capacity, but the Bond Lawyer had interpreted available capacity as unused capacity. Dr. Taylor provided a handout illustrating the interpretation by the County of "total capacity" and the lawyer's interpretation of "unused capacity".

Ms. Gibson accepted Dr. Taylor's motion as part of her amendment.

Mr. Payne asked what was Greenville Tech's outstanding bond.

a. Council Roles with Employees and Facilities

Kirven: I would like to take this opportunity to address Council with a serious matter. County Council works as a body under state law and under state government authority that set up the County Council. We are authorized to exercise whatever powers that are granted to us by the State as a body, not as individual Council members. I represent District 27 and it is one of the 12 districts in the County and individually I have no authority to tell Mr. Kernell what to do at any time of the day or night, or the Clerk or any other County employee. The reason we have that system set up that way to maintain the integrity of the Administrator and the system of supervision and the good work of all our employees do for the County. That's not to say that there is no oversight. Council has the duty to set policies and make changes. We have the authority to hire the Administrator and fire the Administrator just for cause, anytime we wanted to, but we would have to do that as a body as a group after due process and heavy deliberation. And we can't do that as individuals because too many individuals are tempted to conduct personal agendas and personal attacks that are inappropriate and destructive to our system. I wanted to bring this matter to Council to give you the opportunity tonight to consider reaffirming, in one document that I passed out, and each one of you has a copy of it, is the Council policy relating to our directing County employees, investigations and facility access, which actually just reaffirms the policies that are already in existence, authorized by State Law, and in the Rules of County Council. I think this will send a clear signal to all of our employees that we stand up for their rights and we respect them, and that due process is carried out with proper oversight by the proper levels of government. That we have nothing to hide and that we are proud of the work that our administration and all of our County departments do. And if there are problems, as there always are in any organization, when we find out about it, corrections are made according to law and according to due process. I am asking Council tonight to consider supporting this policy by voting on it. I would like to make a motion to approve this policy documents that I have set out for you tonight. Madam Chair.

Gilstrap: Thank you Mr. Kirven. The floor is now open for discussion. The motion is on the floor by Mr. Kirven.

Payne: Ms. Chairman, I would like to say I've read this and it is easy to understand and very justified, and I intend to vote positively for this.

Taylor: Councilman Kirven has already mentioned that this is really current policy we are really not introducing anything new, it's just gathering some of these things together. There is a grievance procedure that is available to employees if they have any concerns where they can go to their supervisors, Human Resources and the County Administrator. These procedures are procedures that Council, through the Public Safety Committee has instituted and reviewed periodically. So there is nothing new in this document it is just reaffirming and reminding each one of us of the conduct.

Dill: I fully support this. The only negative that I have is there is no penalty. There should be... If I'm going 70 in a 55 mile zone there is a penalty. If anybody wants to micromanage and get involved in disruptive behavior, what is the penalty for breaking this, I mean we are reaffirming what the State Law is.

Kirven: I thought about that to and State Law doesn't give us any authority to levy a penalty for violations of these rules or policies, but what this does is send a strong signal to our Administrator, for our supervisors and department heads and all of our employees that we have a due process system, and that we, as Council, expect that to be respected and honored. And that they are not obligated to respond to any coercion or force exerted by any one individual outside the boundaries prescribed by this policy and law.

Flint: I have a similar concern, and that is how are we going to enforce it.

Gilstrap: Mr. Kirven would you like to address that issue?

Kirven: I would just say the same thing, that this would empower the Administrator, the supervisors and the department heads to identify when things are outside the bounds and to protect the integrity of our system by personnel operations so that they are not violated and not subject to over-political pressure by individuals working not on behalf of County Council. That's about all we can do. I think that is a strong measure and a strong statement as taken by County Council by approval of this tonight.

Flint: I would like us to ask our County Attorney to see what further strategy could be made about enforcement. If a problem like this didn't go away, there would have to be some way to remedy it.

Tollison: I'll be glad to look at that and follow through.

Flint: Thank you.

Payne: Madam Chairman, I would hope that wouldn't delay a vote on that item.

Flint: No, that's just a Hopefully we won't need it.

Dill: The public really doesn't have an accurate perception of what happens when I get actively involved in the Administrator's everyday operation, or in the Attorney's everyday operation. And I come up with ideas that would be busy work for the Clerk and for the other department heads. We are talking about thousands of dollars that are wasted on frivolous whatever just to pacify me, as an example. And I learned a hard lesson a long time ago what the rules are and I don't cross that line. If I have a problem with what goes on here, this is very clear what the law says. I am sick and tired of seeing our people waste taxpayer's money doing busywork. This should send the message to our administration once we approve this, that if they are not directed to do that, they don't do that. Is that true?

Kirven: Yes sir, if they are not directed by the authority of Council as a body. There are a lot of routine communications that have to take place through the Administrator from Council members on behalf of our constituents and districts. There is nothing in this that prevents you from ere that would prevent that, but there is a distinction there between what is normal and routine and what is onerous and above and beyond, and personal attacks and personal vendettas. And we have to make that distinction.

Dill: Exactly, that gives them the ability to say no. Is that true?

Kirven: Yes sir.

Dill: So that will add some teeth to the issue. That makes me feel a little more comfortable.

Flint: The policy is clear and it is up to the administration and the other officials to enforce if they have any trouble then they come back to us.

Kirven: Any Council member who has any kind of an issue, problem or wants anything done, investigations, bring it to Council. Council can authorize those kinds of things. That is the due process we're talking about. They just can't march out there and make attacks as individuals.

Dill: Exactly.

Payne: I call for the question.

Gilstrap: Ms. Norris had her hand up.

Payne: Ok.

Norris: I agree with what has been stated here tonight. But I did want us to understand also, that we all, as our Chairman has said, we have the right to ask our County Administrator or whatever person, administrative head of a particular department to go and ask... I think sometimes we might just want to sit by and not investigate. I don't mind calling and asking for a time and I've never been denied an opportunity to go and question something that some of my constituents may have asked of me. It's not that I am not doubting the integrity of the employees, but I just like to know from a first hand point of view, what they have to say. I think we are all concerned about something that has occurred. And I was a part of the culprit that went with one of our County... with one of my colleagues to investigate something, but I don't regretted that I should do that. If we don't give guidance and sometimes leadership to persons who are involved and definitely say to them you need to be more professional in your way that you go and ask for things. I have no problem with my going with someone, and I do this all the time. I did this with the school system and I will continue to do this. When I find that someone might need a little help, might need my help in going and making sure that something is done right. And of course I have found out that sometimes people don't know how to be professional and don't know how to do things. And we can sometimes just ... we sit around here talking about voicing ... pull that person aside and talk with them. Sit down and have a meeting with them. Make the County Attorney talk to the person and let them say, you are going over your rights. We just sit up here and act like, hey we have to accept this, saying we can't do anything about it, we can. As a County Council we can demand of our colleagues to have them to talk with us. I don't mind saying something to anybody about something that I disagree with what you are doing. So, I think in the name of helping our brother, in the course of religiously, or whatever it might be, that we should sit down and talk with them and say to them, you don't do this this way. Say that to them. I'm not talking about getting the Administrator and talking about all that. I think that we just need to sit down and talk about this. So yes I did go with one of my colleagues and I hope that I was able to get him to see some things that he should do and hopefully that will help him out. I can't promise that because I have found that with students all through these years, that with some of them you meet their needs and with some of them you don't. And I'll have you to know that some of the ones that I've met 25 years later thanked me for what I did and there were some that it never did work. So be willing to talk to people and say to them, this is not the way you do it. They'll listen, sometimes. Thank you.

Gilstrap: We have Mr. Kirven's motion on the floor to adopt this policy. If there are no other discussions we are ready to vote. All those in favor say "Aye". All opposed "No". And the motions carries.

MOTION

WHEREAS, County Council Rule III. D. 11 provides that no Council member may make any request of a Council employee if fulfilling the request would require more than a de minimis expenditure of County funds or require more than a reasonable amount of any County employee's time, without the approval of Council;

WHEREAS, Council wishes to ensure that the Rule is being followed; and for that purpose needs to provide direction to the County staff in order to assure compliance with the Rule, and limit any lost County productivity and interference with staff in the performance of their assigned duties;

WHEREAS, Council recognizes that the staff and county could not operate effectively if each council member sought to keep the staff busy on personal research virtually full-time, that the staff must have time to carry out council policies and its work daily and to respond quickly to citizens' requests, and that the County staff time has been increasingly absorbed by demands for voluminous and pointless research by one council member in particular -- and that is unfair to other council members, the staff, and the County citizens;

WHEREAS, Council members often have legitimate disagreements with council policies, the floor of the council is the proper place to bring-up and discuss those differences in an orderly and fair manner prescribed by law and council rules. It is plainly not acceptable to inject county employees and staff into differences between elected officials as one council member persists in attempting to do; AND

NOW THEREFORE, the council is compelled to make sure that the Rule is adhered to, proper procedures are followed, and that county staff and employees are protected from the overbearing, bullying, tactics, and unreasonable demands and/or the continual interference of the administration of this organization by a council member; and moves that:

"The County Administrator is authorized, at his sole discretion and determination, to decline a request from a Member of County Council that would require more than a de minimus expenditure of County funds or require more than a reasonable amount of any County employee's time. If the Administrator declines a request, the Council member making the request may take that request to a Regular Meeting for consideration by full Council.

Further, since it is state law and County Council's policy, that County staff works for the County Administrator, not council members and the County Administrator works for the County Council as a whole, not individual council members, Council members can not direct staff members who report to the County Administrator in the performance of their jobs."

Mr. Kingsbury stated an amendment would be added at the next meeting and he would not support Mr. Trout's motion.

Mr. Trout questioned if a decision would be made and brought back before full Council at the next meeting?

Mr. Bedingfield stated members were distributed copies of the amendments and the item would be placed on the PSPD agenda for the next meeting. He stated the Committee would vote on the amendments but he did not know whether the item would be voted out to full Council at that time.

Mr. Trout withdrew his motion to suspend.

(b) Zoning Ordinances

1. CZ-2006-13, Arbor Engineering (Henderson Property), located on Woodruff Road, requesting rezoning from R-S to S-1 to PD with amendments that were approved July 18. The Planning Commission and Committee recommended approval as amended.

ACTION: On behalf of the Committee, Mr. Bedingfield moved approval of the ordinance at second reading.

Mr. Burns stated he had emphasized at the previous meeting the rezoning of this property would further commercialize Woodruff Road and he encouraged his colleagues not to support the request.

Mr. Bedingfield questioned Mr. Kirven if he had met with the developer?

Mr. Kirven stated he met with the property owner and the proposed developer for the housing portion, Mr. J.W. Roberts. He stated he visited the site and studied the history of the Henderson property and traffic around the Five Forks area. Mr. Kirven stated after many subdivisions had been built on Woodruff Road, people started to create a demand for commercial services to be located nearby. He stated in 1996,

Planning Commission organized an area plan on Woodruff Road due to intense criticism from citizens regarding the amount of growth taking place and the report recommended for this area to remain a transitional area with uses such as residential or office. Mr. Kirven stated the subject property consisted of 26 acres and he would be voting against the request until Planning Commission revised their area plan and more citizens got involved.

Mr. Bedingfield stated he felt the majority of the project fit a transitional area as laid out by the Planning Commission and he would be in support of the docket.

Mr. Burns requested a roll-call vote.

Motion to approve the request was denied by a vote of six in favor (Bedingfield, Gilstrap, Taylor, Case, Kingsbury, and Dill) and six opposed (Gibson, Flint, Norris, Burns, Trout, and Kirven).

3. CZ-2006-42, WITHDRAWN BY THE APPLICANT.

4. CZ-2006-47, Property of James and Ulyssess Sweeney, located on Barker Road, requesting rezoning from R-S to R-12. The Planning Commission recommended approval and the Committee recommended denial.

ACTION: On behalf of the Committee, Mr. Bedingfield moved for approval of the ordinance at second reading.

Mr. Bedingfield stated this property is in his district and was surrounded by Morning Mist Farms subdivision which was also zoned R-12. He stated the subject property surrounded this subdivision on three sides and the developer was desirous of developing this property as part of Morning Mist Farms. He stated he supported the request.

Mr. Flint stated the request was denied in PSPD because the Committee felt R-15 would be more appropriate, but the developer felt R-12 was more suitable.

Motion as presented carried by a vote of seven in favor (Gilstrap, Bedingfield, Gibson, Case, Dill, Taylor, Norris) and five opposed (Kingsbury, Trout, Burns, Flint, Kirven).

4. CZ-2006-58, Property of Evelyn Angeletti esq. located on Jonesville Road, requesting rezoning from R-S to R-15. The Planning Commission recommended approval and the Committee recommended denial.

ACTION: On behalf of the Committee, Mr. Bedingfield moved for approval of the ordinance at second reading.

Mr. Kirven stated this property was in his district and citizens had expressed overwhelming opposition. He stated the applicants made no attempt to modify their request or compromise with the citizens. He requested his colleagues deny the request.

Mr. Bedingfield stated he would support the request.

Motion as presented was denied.

He stated he had researched and could not find an ordinance or policy that made this section part of the agenda and also stated he could not remember voting on such.

Mr. Kirven stated when he was elected Chairman of County Council in January 2005, he drafted the criteria that he thought would be useful for Council to hear. He stated Mr. Kernell agreed with the criteria and it became part of the agenda.

(Item 12) REQUESTS AND MOTIONS BY COUNCIL MEMBERS

Request for Prayers / Ed Haskins, Auditor

Mr. Kirven asked for thoughts and prayers for the County Auditor, Ed Haskins, who was in the hospital in grave health.

Requirement of County Council Rule III. D. 11

ACTION: Mr. Flint moved to authorize the County Administrator, at his sole discretion and determination, to decline a request from a Member of County Council that would require more than a de minimus expenditure of County funds or require more than a reasonable amount of any County employee's time. If the Administrator declines a request, the Council member making the request may take that request at a Regular Meeting for consideration by full Council.

Further, since it is a state law and County Council's policy, that County staff works for the County Administrator, not Council Members and the County Administrator works for the County Council as a whole, not individual Council Members, Council Members can not direct staff members who report to the County Administrator in the performance of their jobs."

Mr. Trout stated he had been the one digging and begging for information regarding the paving program and now his colleagues had come up with this motion to prevent him from getting the information he was seeking regarding the road program. He stated he had only requested two or three things and the problem was he would not get anything and when he did it would take staff two or three weeks to get him an answer and then their reply would be ridiculous and something he did not want. Mr. Trout stated this had been going on now for about six months and the last information staff gave him was the same paper given to him three months earlier.

Mr. Kirven advised Mr. Trout his information was not germane to the motion on the floor and he would be ruled out of order.

Mr. Bedingsfield called the question. Motion carried.

Home Depot Corporation Community Center Make-Over

Mr. Burns announced Greenville County and one of Greenville's community centers was chosen by the Home Depot Corporation for a community center make-over as a television show, and the center will be destroyed and completely rebuilt beginning September 17th, 18th and 19th. He encouraged his colleagues to attend this event and show their support for this worthwhile project.

Comments regarding the Greenville News

Mr. Trout stated Council was aware of the newspaper having a good time with character assassination and it was being perpetrated by the "KKK". He stated the "KKK" he was making reference to was Kernell, Kirven and Kingsbury.

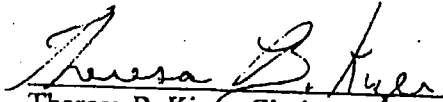

Mr. Kirven thanked Mr. Trout for his illuminating remarks.

Mr. Kernell,

I have tried to reach Mr. Jason Gillespie since last week, and also Mr. Keith Drummond. Both of these employees have refused to answer my calls or return my calls.

I am working on the dog ordinance, and the sign ordinance, for next weeks council meeting, and I also needed to follow up with Gillespie on the storm water issue for the citizens of district 18.

State Law 4-9-660 gives me the authority to make inquiries and investigations of county officers and employees.

I don't have time to play their games, and if they don't get the picture, then I suggest you find someone that does.

Subject: RE: Allen Kent Lane

Good Morning Mr. Trout,

In researching Allen Kent Lane and in talking with Judy I have found that this road is a private road and as such is not included in the county inventory. Based on our maintenance operating ordinance in order to do any work on the road, it must be accepted into our system by council after the current property owners have brought the road up to county standards including access. Mr. Hall as you are aware and Judy have been in contact regarding the acceptance of the road into the county system. Based on our policy the homeowners are responsible for the cost of construction and engineering to bring the road up to county standards in order for it to be considered by council for inclusion into our inventory. I will put a copy of the correspondence Judy sent to Mr. Hall regarding the requirements and process for upgrading a private road to a public road. Acceptance of a private road is not predicated on the number of homes but by the condition of the road.

Many thanks for your inquiry. We will be glad to meet with Mr. Hall and explain the process if he is interested.

Paula

Paula/Judy

Please look into paving Allen Kent Lane.

I have seen were Judy and Robert Hall have had a lot of contact over the years, and I believe that there are more homes been built since then.

I figured if you could repave a road with only one house on it (James Dr.), then you could drop a little asphalt on Allen Kent Lane.

Thank you,

Tony

MEMORANDUM

DATE: July 3, 2006
TO: Council Member Tony Trout, District 18
VIA: Joseph M. Kernell, County Administrator
FROM: Paula G. Gucker, Assistant County Administrator for Public Works
SUBJECT: District 18 Road Paving Report from 2000 to 2006 including Special Projects

The following is a list of the road paving projects completed in District 18, beginning in 2000 and ending with the current year 2006 projects slated for paving this summer. This list includes not only strictly paving but the Special Projects that have been completed in District 18.

During the time frame that you requested, a number of events took place, that merit discussion in person. Redistricting was completed in November of 2001. This resulted in district lines changing and in some cases, such as District 18 and 21; roads were paved in 2000 and 2001 that actually became part of Districts 17 and 22 after redistricting. The OCI's were updated in 2000 and 2004. The paving threshold for the 2000 OCI list was 40 while the paving threshold for 2004 is 70. This is due to the differences in the way the roads were assessed by the two different companies that performed the OCI assessments. The 2004 OCI's were done during 2003 from March 2003 through January of 2004. During that period of time, paving was performed and some of the 2004 OCI's do not accurately reflect the paving that was completed during that same time period. In other words, the OCI assessment was completed before a number of roads were paved that particular summer. Roads paved in 2004 were determined based on 2000 OCI data as the 2004 data was not available when the road lists were approved in 2003.

Special Projects:

1. Ansel School Road Improvements: $ 472,515
Intersection at Johnson Road
Intersection at Holliday Road Rubberized Asphalt

MEMORANDUM

DATE: March 10, 2006 and March 13, 2006
TO: File
FROM: Paula Gucker
SUBJECT: Phone Conversations with Mr. Trout

Friday, March 10, 2006, Mr. Trout called regarding the installation of speed humps and wanted an update on whether Teresa Kizer and I had gotten the funding worked out for Old Wagon Road. I told him that we had worked out what he and I had discussed that he would pay 1,205 now and 2,410 after July 1, 2006 since he had spent most of his discretionary funding. He said in a suggestive voice Now you owe me two humps after July don't forget. He also told me that what I should be doing is looking pretty, staying at my desk, filing and painting my nails and delegating more. I told him I am not paid to do that. He said I worked for him and I reminded him that I worked for the County Administrator, the citizens and 11 other council members.

He then complained about staff not returning his calls and I told him that he needed to make to his requests through me per Joe Kernell and that I would follow up with him. He did not like that answer and got agitated telling me I was the mother hen protecting her brood and staff lied to him. I asked him if he wanted people calling his staff and telling them what to do and he said no that was different. It wasn't government and he had a right to do that. He then started talking about opening up his swimming pool and the conversation ended.

Monday, March 13, 2006 approximately 10: 25 am. I called Mr. Trout after receiving an email regarding problem Mr. Jr. Dorsey wanted him to resolve regarding drainage. The email said don't send me the information you are sending Dorsey, I just want to know when they are unhappy. I told him on the phone Mr. Dorsey was not going to be happy when he received my information because he had to fix the ditch. He said so. Mr. Trout then proceeded to yell loudly at me regarding a phone call he made to John McLeod and that John had not returned his call. I told him he wasn't going to as I explained on Friday, all calls would need to come through me or Joe Kernell. He said that was bullshit that he had the right when doing to an investigation to talk to anyone he wanted. He also accused Joe and I of being a Mother and Father Hen, protecting our broods. He also explained that he did not agree with the Zoning Administrators ruling on the Bose case, that John and the attorney were always looking for ways out, that they sat on their ass all the time, couldn't read black and white, always reading something into to something that was not there and lying. I told him that was not fair, that staff worked hard, that we had been at the borse location on several locations and not heard any problems, that we had met with all parties. I explained the ruling allowed Mr. Bose to go to BZA for a formal ruling and this was a good thing. He said he was going with Mr. Bose to represent him. I told him he may want to check with the Attorney's office as I felt sure that he in his position could not do that based state reg's. He said the Attorney here only has two brain cells and did I know how many good attorney's there were that would do the right thing instead of looking for loopholes. I just listened. He told me to mind my own business, I could not tell him what to do, he did not work for me, I work for him. I reminded him that I work for Mr. Kernell, County Administrator, 11 other council members and the citizens. He said Bullshit, he was tired of all of these redneck dog people putting out flyers degrading him and Mr. Bose, putting his telephone number on the flyers and the rednecks calling his house and threatening his wife. He said he had enough and he was going to change the ordinances, get rid of some of the people here and see to it that we did our jobs, quit sitting around and lying.

He then changed the subject to his pool again. I told him I had not opened mine and that he needed to trust and respect staff at that point he said I have had enough of this conversation he was going to get things changed, laws and ordinances and see to it that we all did what he expected. He would change things with or without us in secret if he had to, He also said he did not need our opinions or suggestions. I just listened and then he said this conversation is over and hung up the phone.

Throughout the conversation he was raising his voice, talking very loudly and very disrespectful of the staff and administration of the county. He accused staff of lying, hiding behind the ordinances and rules and regulations and working against him.

Greenville County Councilman Tony Trout District 18

107 Silver Ridge Court

Greer, SC, 29651

Reference: The Violation of My Civil Rights.

For two Years I have investigated our Road Dept., after finding out that a lot of the roads that were paved and paid for, were only half as long as our road Dept. Stated.

I also took pictures of roads that they said they paid to have paved, and come to find out, the road was only dirt and grass.

I sent the below to the Corruption task force, but nothing came of it.

July 11, 2006

Brian D. Lamkin, Special Agent in Charge

The Public Corruption Task Force

Columbia, South Carolina 29210-3857

Dear Mr. Lamkin,

I am writing you because the "good o'l boy" system is alive and well here in Greenville County. I have been on County Council for a year and a half, and I have discovered that the road program is the most guarded top secret program that I have ever seen. I have tried to talk to the road and bridge engineer, Judy Wortkoetter, who has been there about 12 years. Instead I was placed in a meeting with her, Paula Gucker and the County Administrator. Every time that I asked Judy a question about the roads; Ms. Gucker or the Administrator always answered it. Judy Wortkoetter just sat nervously at the table. I have requested an audit on the road department, but the council refuses to look into it. I have asked why the same paving company gets the bid every time, and they have no comment. I called three other paving companies in our local area and asked them why they don't bid on our contract. They all said, "What's the use?" It's common knowledge that Ashmore Bro's has the inside track. It is a fact that by contract, all the roads that were suppose to be paved in a certain time; the present paving company has always been late. The R&B Director has always waived any liquidated damages that the company acquired.

I finally demanded a list of the roads that have been paved in my district since 2000.

It took the county two weeks to come up with the report (Hard Copy). While I was waiting on the reports, I tracked down the Company that did our OCI's in 2003. They are in Arizona now. I asked them to send me a copy of what he gave to the road dept., which he did. (Included on CD) Please notice that while you go over the files that I generated, you will notice a lot of discrepancies in the lengths that the road department said were paved.

The feet that were stated by R&B Director were paved is in the first column, then the District number, the OCI number that they had in 2000, and the real ft., according to the company in Arizona. The last column indicates the OCI rating of 2003 that was applied to the roads in 2004.

In looking at this you will notice that they paved some roads in 2003, and the same year Infrastructure Management services (IMS) checked all the roads in Greenville County marking off each road, by feet and were given an OCI number.

The roads that were paved in 2002 and 2003 had low OCI numbers by IMS. Even though they had just been paved a year before (as so the records reflect)

Two roads that were paved in my district, nobody lives on. (James St and Brown Dr.- Pictures included)

Rockcrest Cir. Is rated with an OCI of 77 (a 77 is rated by the R/B dept. as very good!) but my car got stuck on the road. (See photos)

A lot of the road that were paved, I got out and used a traffic wheel to measure the lengths.

They paved my road in front of my house in 2004, they said they paved 2,485 ft, but the true measurement was only 1448 (Silver Ridge Ct.)

Williams Rd was paved last year, and that road is in violation of the DOT guidelines (see photos and copy of the DOT guide on CD)

Roger Cir. is another road that the R&B Dept. says that 1000 ft were paved in 2004. I personally looked at, and measured the road and found that only half of the road was paved. They paved 597 ft of the road, but left 442 feet as dirt. (See photos)

In talking to County Personnel, the County is paying for what the records reflect as being paved.

I have not been able to obtain any original bills for any specific roads and was told they didn't keep track of them.

My District is one of the smallest of the 12 Districts; others are over twice as large as mine.

If I found this much discrepancy in my smaller District, then you would think, that the over all picture of the Paving Program would lead to Millions lost for our taxpayers.

Please look into this matter as soon as possible. If you have any questions, please call me.

Thank you in advance,

Retaliatory Actions. For almost a year the County Administrator along with the Council Chairmen has refused my numerous request for reimbursements for my County Expense.

SEPT, 5 2006

Requirement of County Council Rule III. D. 11

ACTION: Mr. Flint moved to authorize the County Administrator, at his sole discretion and determination, to decline a request from a Member of County Council that would require more than a de minimus expenditure of County funds or require more than a reasonable amount of any County employee's time. If the Administrator declines a request, the Council member making the request may take that request at a Regular Meeting for consideration by full Council.

Further, since it is a state law and County Council's policy, that County staff works for the County Administrator, not Council Members and the County Administrator works for the County Council as a whole, not individual Council Members, Council Members can not direct staff members who report to the County Administrator in the performance of their jobs."

Mr. Trout stated he had been the one digging and begging for information regarding the paving program and now his colleagues had come up with this motion to prevent him from getting the information he was seeking regarding the road program. He stated he had only requested two or three things and the problem was he would not get anything and when he did it would take staff two or three weeks to get him an answer and then their reply would be ridiculous and something he did not want. Mr. Trout stated this had been going on now for about six months and the last information staff gave him was the same paper given to him three months earlier.

Mr. Kirven advised Mr. Trout his information was not germane to the motion on the floor and he would be ruled out of order.

Mr. Bedingfield called the question. Motion carried.

Motion as presented carried. (Ms. Gibson abstained).

Item 10) ADMINISTRATOR'S REPORT

Mr. Kernell stated there was no report.

Mr. Trout stated in the August 15th meeting there was a report by Mr. Kernell that this section of the agenda was added in January 2005. He stated he had researched and could not find an ordinance or policy that made this section part of the agenda and also stated he could not remember voting on such.

Mr. Kirven stated when he was elected Chairman of County Council in January 2005, he drafted the criteria that he thought would be useful for Council to hear. He stated Mr. Kernell agreed with the criteria and it became part of the agenda.

Trout stated he would like to ask Mr. Kernell a question.

Mr. Kirven advised Mr. Trout he was out of order.

SECTION 61-8-70. Solicitor's failure to prosecute. [SC ST SEC 61-8-70]

When a solicitor neglects or refuses to perform a duty or to take any steps required of him by a provision of this chapter, the Attorney General, on his own motion or by request of the Governor, must, in person or by an assistant, proceed to the locality and perform the neglected duty and take steps as are necessary in the place of the solicitor. The Attorney General may, in his discretion, cause a prosecution to be instituted not only in the matter neglected but also against the solicitor for malfeasance or misfeasance in office, for official misconduct, or for other charges justified by facts, and may pursue the prosecution to the extent of a conviction and dismissal from office of the solicitor. In this event, the Attorney General may appoint one or more additional assistants who must each receive while actually employed the same compensation, to be paid from the litigation fund of the Attorney General. Any duty imposed in this chapter upon a solicitor may be performed by the Attorney General or other person authorized by him to perform the duty.

I'm sorry, but I really can't help you.

I don't know the precise law in South Carolina . . . but in some states a citizen can bring a matter directly to a grand jury's attention, while in others the citizen has to go through a prosecutor (sounds like that may be the SC model). And I usually point out to people that it's best to get a prosecutor onboard anyway, since an indictment won't go anywhere unless there is a prosecutor who wants to pursue it to a conviction or a plea.

So, you might try contacting the local prosecutor (which you may already have done, with no luck).

You can also try contacting the state Attorney General's office. I do not know the precise scope of their jurisdiction, but state AG's offices can sometimes investigate local corruption of the type you are concerned about. And I do know that South Carolina has a state grand jury system which, I believe, is run by the state AG's office.

Finally, you can try going to a federal prosecutor. Federal officials will, if the facts warrant, open an investigation of local corruption and, if the evidence is available, seek criminal charges. So that's another possibility.

In each instance, though, you're really going to need a prosecutor to get results.

Best of luck,

To: The Honorable Members of the Greenville Grand Jury

It was brought to my attention by an employee of Greenville County that Mrs. Kizer had been using her Charge Card for years, to buy large purchases for the county.

Thus in doing so violated the County Purchasing Laws. Kizer had stated that she could receive points on her credit card that later was turned into a monetary gain. After I saw an overview of expenditures, I requested a copy of her expense report. This is when I discovered that she had been using the citizen's tax money to buy gift certificates for her friends.

Mrs. Kizer,

I request a detailed list of your expenses, and reimbursements from July 1, 2005 thru Sept 01 2005. Thank you in advance,

Tony Trout

The Racket At The County Jail Isn't The Sound Of Tin Cups Clanging <<http://www.tonytrout.com/?p=116>>

Posted by Tony Trout under News <<http://www.tonytrout.com/?cat=1>>

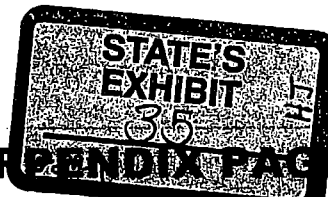

Here's more news to consider about chronic mismanagement within our county government that should appall you. Sadly, it involves the Greenville County Detention Center so few people will care. But once you finish reading this, I believe you will care and understand why this is your business.

After three decades in law enforcement, I've learned many lessons. One of them is that the jailhouse is the best place to observe people doing things they might otherwise try to hide. There are few secrets in the jailhouse so if you want to see someone's true colors, you'll see them shine through at the jail.

Government leaders are especially prone to revealing their true colors there because they think that what goes on in the jailhouse is hidden from public view. Even when it's seen, they assume nobody will ever care.

This is exactly why you should care what happens at the jail. It helps us see the character of the people who run it. When those managers also make decisions that affect you – as they do in Greenville County – you're wise to observe what they think they can get away with and whether they are people who – given an unobserved opportunity – would just as soon betray your trust to get ahead.

One of the biggest problems at the Greenville County Detention Center is the nonchalant attitude toward MRSA outbreaks – an antibiotic resistant and sometimes deadly strain of staph that county administrators brush off as “commonplace” and do little to detect, isolate or eradicate. Their attitude should give you no confidence that they will be effective when facing health crises outside the jail.

2/17/2011 1:52 PM

These same administrators aren't just indifferent to an emerging health catastrophe. Consider what we learn about them from the financial practices at the Detention Center.

My investigation reveals that the county, through the Detention Center, has strong-armed money from families of inmates. In 2006, they charged these families $119,329.18 for inmates' outbound calls. These charges aren't billed through the phone company. They get billed to the families by the county – arguably putting the county in the position of running an unregulated phone business.

Instead of asking why the county jail is in the telephone business, or how the jail could be more efficient and decent to these families, or how the jail might cut costs, the County Administrator's reaction was to demand a piece of the action. His office receives $118,456.58. That adds up to $307,785.76 a year paid by inmate families.

Similarly, food prices in the canteen are so high that the Detention Center cleared $116,061.21 last year. For example, despite the epidemic of MRSA, the canteen charges $2.60 for antifungal cream it should be giving away. One bar of soap – also vital to stopping MRSA – costs $1.00.

In return for providing transportation for work-released inmates – which helps cover ongoing expenses from rent for the family to child support – the Detention Center skims 25% of the inmates' pay. This rate is the same no matter how much they earn. The rate is based on what they can get away with instead of the actual transportation costs. The county's take came to $133,891.54 last year.

Inmate-generated income for the Detention Center totals over a half million dollars each year. Not all of it is accounted for and far too little of it finds its way back into the county budget where it would be subject to oversight and control.

The Detention Center uses inmate-generated revenue as its private, off-budget petty cash fund for internal expenses from pizza parties and frequent TV repair calls to security items that should be paid for from capital improvement accounts. Administrators claimed inmate revenue was used to purchase medicine and health care equipment for the inmates, but no such expenditures appear on records they later provided to me.

This occurs because of apathy and opportunism. The public – and even the inmates themselves – are apathetic. The administrators recognize that as an opportunity.

Few of you will be outraged to hear about mismanagement at the Detention Center. Now consider that the people who you and your loved ones count on for the quality of life in Greenville are the same people who think nothing of establishing secretive financial practices, shirking their responsibility to promote a healthy environment and prefer to run up fees instead of cutting costs.

The administrators might make you think they can change colors on a dime and give fair treatment to Greenville's non-inmate population. I'm proposing that what you see at the Detention Center reveals the true colors of the administrators. It's as true today as it's been for the past thirty years.

mauldincritic Corruption at it's best. Why not look at neighboring states (NC & GA). Compare the bidding process along with the rates for Asphalt. It's not uncommon for a company outside the state to come in with a lower bid. After all once they get the required permits anyone can work in Greenville (If the boys let them in). They can get the Asphalt from the same plant Ashmore uses or truck in their own. Our taxes at work again helping the "Good Ole Boys". ☹ mauldincritic Posted: Sun Oct 07, 2007 8:26 am

ColonelRogers It would seem to me that this all began back in the early 1980's when Grandpa Ashmore was a member of the Greenville County Council. Now, could it be that Greenville County is still paying off an OLD debt to Grandpa Ashmore's business and maybe Ole Grandpa Ashmore himself? When you go into a Sub-Division in the County and pave the roadway for the County owned road with an upkeep maintenance contract on the road for three years, of which they'll get around to it after the three years has expired, but then you pave a State Interstate which is for the most part straight, narrow, and bumpy, it doesn't take a rocket scientist to do the math on which costs more money. And could someone please explain to me why it is that every time Ashmore pours a new road, three months later they come back out to dig a hole in the new road and end up creating a square 2 X 2 speed bump that they don't even know how to repair. But yet the County has been convinced by Grandpa Ashmore that they're getting the cheapest possible rate. There's much more I can state here on how the County and Grandpa Ashmore, along with The Dishonorable Butch Kirven are cheating the County Taxpayers out of our hard earned money each year however, I really think SLED should "COME ON DOWN" and become the next contestant on the "PRICE IS WRONG" with either Bob Barker or Drew Carey before we all start having to play "KLINKO" and end up spinning the "BIG WHEEL." and when SLED begins to clean house, just as I've stated in these Forums many times before, they should begin by taking out the OLD and allow the Greenville County Voters to bring in the NEW at the next election.

ColonelRogers Posted: Sun Oct 07, 2007 8:09 am saraannundcver So let me get this straight.....the hired help, Paula Gucker, Department Head for Public Works, said the county won't cancel the contract or seek repayment because Ashmore states that state and county contracts are "apples and oranges." (Even though the roads are paved with the same exact asphalt.) Then he Department Head says that she does not track what Ashmore charges other cities and counties and that she believes the county is getting the cheapest possible price. But we still give them a Million Dollars free every year even if they pave 2 feet or 200 ft of our road with no late charges.

The paving contract that Chairman Kirven signs yearly, states that we can get the same rate that the other counties get, if he had the backbone to ask for it.

But.... Instead of Chairman Kirven asking for the same rate, and upsetting the ...Good o...l e boy... system, (and one of his largest campaign supporters) he is coming back to us, the taxpayers and wanting to raise the sales tax again this year.

I believe that by drinking the Kool-Aid that they have received from the hired help and Kirven; 95% of the County Council has been brainwashed to the point of no return.

Our last hope for this county is the Grand Jury and I pray for the Almighty to give them insight and wisdom, and to put a hedge of protection around each of them.

And the sub-story to all of this; is to see if Ben Szobody (Greenville News) will A-Print the true facts, B- Whitewash the Facts in favor of Kirven, C- Or his usual route, blame it all on Councilman Trout.

The Greenville News has known for years that the county roads program is a cess pool of corruption. The News even killed an investigative effort by one of its own staffers to expose the dirty dealing. But, now that Tony Trout has shown he has the backbone the editorial directors of The Greenville News do not, The News discovers there might be a story in the fact county taxpayers have been played for chumps year after year after year by evil, conniving county officials. Of course, The Greenville News won't take an editorial stand in favor of exposing the dirty dealing, but you can bet your booties the county grand jury will. We can only hope to God the guilty parties are made to pay for their dirty work. But, don't expect to read much about that in The Greenville News.

Grand jury subpoenas county finance official Administrator told to bring 10 years of documents related to road maintenance

Published: Thursday, October 4, 2007 - 9:38 pm

By Paul Alongi
STAFF WRITER
palongi@greenvillenews.com

Greenville County...s deputy administrator for finance was subpoenaed today to testify before the county...s grand jury and to bring 10 years of documents related to road maintenance.

John Hansley said he believes his subpoena is directly related to County Councilman Tony Trout...s Sept. 26 appearance before the grand jury. Trout said he is "110 percent" sure it is.

Trout, who has been critical of the county...s road maintenance program, said he went to the grand jury in hopes of pressing his fight against "fraud, waste and abuse with our tax dollars."

Council Chairman Butch Kirven said "this is a very sad and unfortunate attempt to politically manipulate the judicial system" about a policy matter.

Advertisement

"I think it...s misguided, misdirected and inappropriate."

Trout said he is sorry that Kirven "feels that way."

"This has never been done before," Trout said.

The county...s road system has been one of Trout...s primary targets since he ran for office in 2004.

Trout, a former Mauldin police officer, accused county staffers last year of manipulating the road program, the system the county uses to determine which roads get paved.

County Attorney Mark Tollison said the county won...t fight the Hansley subpoena. He said it is "about the road maintenance program," which he said has held up under court scrutiny.

"The county has been approved to use the process," Tollison said.

A copy of the subpoena orders Hansley to appear in the grand jury room at the Greenville County courthouse at 9 a.m. Oct. 10.

While Hansley said he is supposed to go to an out-of-town conference that day, he welcomes "the opportunity to go share whatever information they would be requesting."

It is unusual for anyone but a law enforcement officer to testify before the county...s grand jury. The panel of 18 citizens usually decides whether police have enough evidence to indict suspects, sending their cases to trial.

Thirteenth Circuit Solicitor Bob Ariail said in a written statement that he "has no information or knowledge" that the grand jury had subpoenaed Hansley.

Seventh Circuit Solicitor Trey Gowdy, the chairman of the state Prosecution Coordination Commission, said that if the grand jury issued indictments as a result of its inquiry, Ariail wouldn...t be under any obligation to prosecute them.

"I love the fact that a grand jury is taking its investigative powers seriously," Gowdy said. "I would prefer to see it done in concert with a law enforcement agency or a prosecutorial entity. Otherwise, you may wind up with an exercise in futility."

The subpoena calls for Hansley to bring road maintenance service contracts from 1997 to 2007, along with invoices, reports and documents related to fees, penalties, negotiations and service payments.

County Administrator Joe Kernell said he doesn...t see any cause for concern, saying the road program has been tested.

"We...ve sat down with Mr. Trout on numerous occasions and tried to get him to understand it," Kernell said. "But obviously we weren...t successful, and he continues to criticize the program."

In a message dated 10/25/2007 1:34:41 P.M. Eastern Daylight Time, danruck2000@yahoo.com writes:

To the Editor

The citizens of Greenville County need to understand why the work of the county grand jury's special investigative unit is being delayed, and who is responsible for that delay.

The guilty party on both counts is Judge Few.

Here's some background: Members of the county grand jury early this year (late last year?) began agitating for some real power to investigate alleged wrongdoing on the part of county officials who oversee the county jail, the roads program and more. They knew jurors in other parts of the U.S. routinely conduct such investigations and wanted to know why they couldn't do the same.

Members of the jury repeatedly asked Judge Few for guidance as to what they could do and not do. Repeatedly Judge Few ducked these requests -- an act of judicial misconduct which along with other missteps on his part I suspect the judge is soon going to come to regret.

Rather than discourage the grand jurors, Judge Few's highhandedness only infuriated them, with the result that the county grand jury now has a special investigative unit which is determined to get answers to the questions it asks.

County officials who think they can ignore subpoenas and other inquiries from the investigative body ought to best think again, because the grand jury has the power to throw public officials, no matter how high their standing, into the clink for (What is the term for when you insult a judge or jury? I'll think of it in a minute.)

Juries in other jurisdictions have jailed public officials for such behavior, and the Greenville County Grand Jury might well, too!

So, why has Judge Few acted as a roadblock to justice in this instance? It's because Judge Few has a secret to hide.

Namely, it is that for years he has quietly acted on behalf of Greenville County and the Ashmore Brothers road paving company in denying plaintiffs access to jury trials in the cases where county road paving contracts have been challenged in court.

Time after time Judge Few has denied requests for jury trials, insisting that these legal matters be adjudicated be he, himself. And almost without fail, Judge Few has found in favor of the county and the Ashmore Brothers.

Is this justice? Hardly so!

Judge Few needs to (what? Remove himself. I forget the legal term, but I'm sure you know it). in the cases of all road paving legal challenges.

Furthermore, Judge Few needs to stop interfering with the legal proceedings of the Greenville County Grand Jury before he finds himself having to defend his actions before the state bar association on a charge of judicial misconduct.

Grand Juror InformationTHE IMPORTANCE OF THE GRAND JURY

This handbook is intended for citizens of South Carolina who have been chosen to serve on a county grand jury. It will explain some of the terms, as well as the duties and powers of the grand jury.

Serving on the grand jury is an important responsibility and should be taken seriously and honestly. Grand jurors are watchmen stationed by the law to survey the conduct of their fellow citizens and to inquire where and by whom public authority has been violated or our constitution and laws infringed. A grand jury is an informing and accusing body rather than a judicial trial. It does not try a case nor does it hear both sides. The grand jury's function is to evaluate the evidence presented by the prosecution to determine if an indictment should follow, which is afterwards to be heard and determined in a court of law. However, the grand jury is not part of the solicitor's (prosecutor's) office; it answers only to the court. This independence is important for the grand jury so that they may reach a fair decision. The purpose of the grand jury is to bring to trial persons accused of crimes, upon just grounds, and to protect innocent people from being required to appear in response to improper accusations.

Unlike a state grand jury, which has statewide jurisdiction, a county grand jury is limited to investigating wrongful acts occurring within the county where the grand jury is sitting.

THE ORIGIN OF THE GRAND JURY

The grand jury originated in England during the twelfth century. It was recognized in the Magna Carta, granted by King John in 1215, and can be traced as far back as 1164. The idea of the grand jury was brought to America by the English settlers and, with other concepts of English Common Law, has become a part of the judicial system in this country. It is provided for in the federal judicial system in the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution, and most states have created a state grand jury system in their state constitutions. South Carolina provides for grand juries in each county in Article V of the State Constitution, adopted in 1895 and amended in

THE NATURE OF THE GRAND JURY

The grand jury has two main functions. First, it is the principal body that decides whether a person charged with a serious crime will be tried. In South Carolina, no one can be prosecuted for a crime where the punishment exceeds thirty days in jail or a fine up to five hundred dollars unless the grand jury decides there is good reason for an accusation and a trial, based on evidence presented to it by the prosecution. Only the defendant may waive this requirement.

When the grand jury decides that a case should be tried, its finding is called a TRUE BILL. In order to find a true bill, at least twelve members of the grand jury must agree that probable cause to indict exists after evaluating the evidence. The probable cause determination is a two-step process. First, the grand jury must determine that a wrongful act did, in fact, occur. Second, the grand jury must determine that it is more probable than not that the accused committed the wrongful act. When the grand jury finds that probable cause does not exist, the finding is a NO BILL, and the case is not presented for trial.

The grand jury should bear in mind that its interest in a case extends only to the decision of whether or not to make someone stand trial, based on the evidence before it. The grand jury does not try cases. Its duties are different from those of a trial (or petit) jury. The grand jury considers only whether there is good reason or sufficient evidence to present a person for indictment and for a trial. When the grand jury finds for a true bill of indictment, it should be careful to refrain from any expression of opinion on the guilt of the person, or any words of condemnation. It is the duty of the trial jury, not the grand jury, to decide guilt or innocence.

No one has the right to approach a grand juror to try to persuade a vote or decision. Anyone doing so should be reported to the solicitor or the judge immediately. When you serve on the grand jury, you are a public official with a duty to follow the law as it is written. Whether you agree with a certain law does not matter. You must perform your duties and make your decisions using the law as a guideline, not your personal feelings. As a public official, you must obey the law as it exists.

The second duty of the grand jury is to perform and make such investigations and recommendations relative to the government affairs in your community as you deem appropriate. With this said, the power of the grand jury to investigate matters as to which no formal charge has been laid before them is narrowly limited. While grand juries have large inquisitorial powers, those powers are not unlimited. The grand jury is an integral part of the machinery of the court, all of which is under the control and direction of the presiding judge.

The grand jury is authorized to employ one or more expert accountants to aid them to examine and investigate the offices, books, papers, vouchers, and accounts of any public officer of their respective counties and to fix the amount of compensation or per diem to be paid therefore, upon the approval of the presiding or circuit judge given before any expert is employed.

If in any general investigation the grand jury encounters facts, which may constitute criminal conduct on the part of any person, the grand jury should immediately consult the solicitor for guidance. Keep in mind that in a presentment reporting on an investigation, the grand jury should not name anyone as responsible for the problem, as they would in an indictment, because the person would not be able to answer the charge as he could in an indictment. All the grand jury can do relating to an investigation is present the facts and suggest a remedy. It is advisable that a grand jury consult the solicitor's office or judge before making any investigation.

THE ORGANIZATION/OATH/CHARGE TO THE GRAND JURY

When you report for service, the court will consider any reason you may have for needing to be excused from duty. This is the time to present any request for being excused.

When all members of the panel are present, you will be taken into court, where the judge will select a foreperson or permit the members to elect a foreperson. The foreperson will preside over the grand jury like a chairman at a meeting and will act as a spokesperson for the group although his vote will be counted the same as the other jurors' votes. An oath or affirmation will be administered to the foreperson and then to the other members. After that is done, the judge may make a formal address to the grand jury, explaining how to conduct the duties of the panel. This is called the CHARGE TO THE GRAND JURY.

After receiving the charge by the judge, you will go into the grand jury room where evidence in each case will be presented for your consideration.

COMMON TERMS

Quorum. The Constitution of the State of South Carolina states that the grand jury panel will be made up of eighteen members; at least twelve of the eighteen must be present and in agreement before the grand jury can return an indictment or presentment to the court.

Witnesses. Most of the work of the grand jury is concerned with hearing witnesses. The witnesses may appear voluntarily, or they may appear at the request of the solicitor or the grand jury, or by subpoena from the court. Typically, the state's witnesses will be listed on the back of the indictment which is given to the grand jury for determination. The grand jury should advise the court of any properly notified witness' failure to appear as requested. Further legal questions may arise as to whether certain evidence to be considered is proper or obtainable. The law of evidence is very technical; therefore the grand jury may look to the presiding circuit court judge or the solicitor's office for legal guidance.

Indict or dismiss. When all the evidence has been heard concerning a possible indictment and everyone, except the members of the grand jury have left the room, the foreperson will ask the grand jury to discuss and vote on the question of whether to present the indictment as a true bill or as a no bill. Every grand juror has the right to comment on the evidence and express his views on the matter. After discussion, the grand jury will vote. No indictment may be returned unless at least 12 members agree. The outcome of the vote should be indicated by writing either "True Bill" or "No Bill" on the front of the indictment, accompanied by the foreperson's signature.

SECRECY

Secrecy in every aspect of the proceedings is very important because:

1. Secrecy protects grand jurors from being subjected to pressure by persons who may be interested in the outcome of the grand jury action.
2. Secrecy may prevent the escape of the persons who are under consideration for an indictment.
3. Secrecy encourages witnesses to speak the truth freely before the grand jury.
4. When an indictment has been dismissed, secrecy protects the innocent from the public disgrace of being accused of criminal activity.

It is imperative that grand jurors not say anything to an accuser's family, friends or to anyone about what took place in the grand jury room. Secrecy should be maintained even after the term of service is over, unless the court says otherwise.

PROTECTION OF GRAND JURORS

The secrecy of the grand jury proceedings is a protection for the grand juror. Being accountable only to the court further protects the grand jury. It is against the law to make any inquiries as to how a grand juror voted or to what he may have said during the discussion of a case. The law gives the grand juror complete immunity for official acts performed while serving on the grand jury.

PRACTICAL SUGGESTIONS

1. Attend the sessions of the grand jury regularly. If you are unable to attend a session of the grand jury, contact the clerk of court or the foreperson of the grand jury, depending on the county, prior to the scheduled date of the session so that an alternate grand juror may be contacted.
2. Pay close attention to the evidence presented.
3. Be courteous to the witnesses and to your fellow jurors.
4. Remember, the hearing is a serious judicial proceeding, and should be handled as such.
5. Listen to the opinion of your fellow jurors, but make your own decisions.
6. Be independent, but not stubborn; try to see other points of view.
7. Be as fair as you can.
8. Remember, all grand jurors have an equal voice and an equal vote.
9. Do not keep silent when a case is being discussed, and then begin to talk about it after a vote has been taken.

10. Do not discuss cases with your fellow jurors out of the grand jury room.
11. If members of the grand jury have questions or run into problems, they should seek assistance from the presiding circuit court judge or the solicitor's office.
12. Your membership on the grand jury is a high honor; you are among a small number of citizens in your community who are chosen to serve on the grand jury. Discharge your duties responsibly.

Excerpt from November 20, 2007 County Council meeting.

Requests and Motions – Road Program

Meadows: I have some concerns about our road program that I would have preferred to discuss in the Committee of the Whole, but since we didn't have a Committee of the Whole, and since we aren't meeting in December, I thought this was important enough for us to look at and be concerned with as a Council. You might ask what brought this to your attention. I must say it wasn't the Grand Jury, it wasn't anything Tony Trout did or this type thing. On August 17th we had a meeting of the Committee of the Whole at which the road program was presented to us, it was design/build. As you know design/build is a legal program to do, we've done it for years here. After the meeting Mr. Cates asked Mr. Kernell to explain a little bit more about the program. When he explained it, he explained that with the design/build, you are given a price and the price does not go up also, he said, the price doesn't go down. The price is guaranteed to be the lowest price that you can get. If the contractor or the manager of our program gives a lower price from someone else then that price has to be given to us. Mr. Chairman, that is really not what I'm here to talk about tonight. I did check asphalt, full-depth patching and resealing. I would like to ask that we do have time on Committee of the Whole to discuss this in January if possible, if you would make that an agenda item. Like I said that is not basically what I would like to discuss tonight. As some of you know, I've been on the Greenville County Legislative Delegation for eight years, so I do know a little bit about road building and what we do with roads. As you know, as I've said before, we have the design/build program. This is allowed by Greenville County Procurement Code. It is also allowed by the State Procurement Code. The criteria that it must meet is that it must be more economical than other programs. In other words, whoever does our program must be able to do it cheaper than what we can do it for ourselves. They must allow completion of the project quicker than what we can do ourselves. In a letter to the Council, this was the letter from the 17th of June, I mean the 17th of August from Mr. Kernell to the Council. In this letter, of course he gives the reasons that we should have it to comply with the law. One of his statements was, should the sealed proposal turn-key method not be used, the County would need to hire or contract six additional employees as well as a contract for design, testing, field inspection in order to maintain the same level of service received under the current private/public partnership. The cost of the six new employees plus the required professional services is approximately $1,101,000. What we are saying is that if we did it ourselves, and did the same thing that our contractors are doing, it would cost us $1,101,000. Additionally, in August, if we tried to do it with another contractor or if we tried to do it ourselves, we wouldn't have time to do it, which is, there again, my past background would tell you that that was true. I did look at the $1,101,000, it's the only thing I can draw on from my past experience of how we did it before, and if you take the numbers that are in the contract and do the same thing, I came up with $1,129,000. I think we are pretty close. I think we can do it for $1,101,000. According to the contract this past year, for 2006 and 7, the cost for these services was not $1million. It was $1,883,000. I have not been able to or have not taken the time or had the time to look at the actual cost. My first perusal of it or looking at it is that I think it might even exceed that, or that it might even be closer to $1,900,000. Since it would take us almost a year if we did it ourselves to do our own training and do our roads, then I would like to make a motion tonight, since the County can save over $700,000 by administering the road program, I move that for the Year 2008 and 2009, the County administer the road program. We've already signed the contract or I guess we have. I don't know whether we've chosen or if we've signed a contract for anyone or not, but we have voted as a Council to go ahead and do this for 2007 and 2008, so I think while there might be some negotiations that would lower that price, that I think it would do harm to our road program. So that is the reason I make the motion that we do this, and that maybe, Mr. Chairman, you would send this motion back to Committee of the Whole also.

Taylor: Point of order, Mr. Chairman.

Kirven: Yes sir, Dr. Taylor.

Taylor: Without talking about the merits of his motion, my question is, can we bind a future Council with a vote like this? In other words we are talking about doing something.... when is the date we are talking about doing this? I want to see if we are dealing with this Council or with a future Council.

Meadows: We are dealing with this Council, Dr. Taylor.

Taylor: This is something we would do next summer?

Meadows: Yes sir. This would give Council time or Mr. Kernell time to put his six people in place or the group that he has in place and assess the roads, which would have to be done. All these things would have to be done for the contract next November. So we are not binding another Council, it would be this Council.

Taylor: I call the question, Mr. Chairman.

Kirven: Thank you Dr. Taylor. I for one, I'm just hearing this from Mr. Meadows for the first time, I think he has probably done a pretty good job, but I don't know the veracity of his information. I'm not prepared to vote on something as drastic as changing the whole methodology of the County's road program right at this time, just really on no notice. I think that we need to step back and take a more deliberate look at this and get the facts assembled before us and be able to ask the questions and get explanations before we take a giconian step of changing everything right here on the spur of the moment. Mr. Dill.

Dill: Mr. Chairman, I think what I heard him say was he wanted it sent to the Committee of the Whole.

Meadows: Committee of the Whole

Kirven: What I heard was him making a motion that we change it tonight.

Dill: Mr. Chairman, would it be wise to send it to a committee and let's see if it has any merit?

Kirven: That's what I'm asking for. We don't need a motion for that. We've had this in committees in the past and I would be glad to put it on a Committee of the Whole. No Council member asked me for a Committee of the Whole on this for tonight. Did you call me to ask me?

Meadows: I did not ask you, I asked the

Kirven: Well, if you call me, you'll get what you want.

Meadows: I'm learning.

Kirven: If you don't call me.... You didn't ask for it, so... Anyway I'll be glad to do that, we'll schedule that. I'll look forward to that, and that way we'll have the amount of time to answer everybody's questions, and lay out all the information and do all the comparisons. I think it's a good thing that you are suggesting. We will do that.

Thanks for the name and number. I have left a voicemail message for him to give me a call. Yesterday morning I saw the infection for myself. There was no doubt in my mind whatsoever that it could be anything other than staph. His knee looked EXACTLY like the place on the guy's side in the power point presentation. And it just so happen that they had to take him to the ER at Memorial yesterday afternoon. Of course they said it was staph and changed to bactrim to another antibiotic. They sent him back to the infirmary I believe because his nose hasn't healed yet. It just makes me sick to think that nobody gives a crap about what they're spreading down there. I'm mean its going to be a big battle when it really does hit the community because like you say they act like its no big deal. The old jail is just plain out filthy where you go for visitation. You have CO's that are to lazy to check the sanitizers and that in itself is risky knowing what's being passed around. They just don't care one bit. I just don't understand it. I guess when Dorriety or Bodiford catch it then maybe they'll decide to do something about. Who knows. Thanks again for the name and number.

Excerpt from November 20, 2007 County Council meeting.

Requests and Motions – Road Program

Meadows: I have some concerns about our road program that I would have preferred to discuss in the Committee of the Whole, but since we didn't have a Committee of the Whole, and since we aren't meeting in December, I thought this was important enough for us to look at and be concerned with as a Council. You might ask what brought this to your attention. I must say it wasn't the Grand Jury, it wasn't anything Tony Trout did or this type thing. On August 17th we had a meeting of the Committee of the Whole at which the road program was presented to us, it was design/build. As you know design/build is a legal program to do, we've done it for years here. After the meeting Mr. Cates asked Mr. Kernell to explain a little bit more about the program. When he explained it, he explained that with the design/build, you are given a price and the price does not go up also, he said, the price doesn't go down. The price is guaranteed to be the lowest price that you can get. If the contractor or the manager of our program gives a lower price from someone else then that price has to be given to us. Mr. Chairman, that is really not what I'm here to talk about tonight. I did check asphalt, full-depth patching and resealing. I would like to ask that we do have time on Committee of the Whole to discuss this in January if possible, if you would make that an agenda item. Like I said that is not basically what I would like to discuss tonight. As some of you know, I've been on the Greenville County Legislative Delegation for eight years, so I do know a little bit about road building and what we do with roads. As you know, as I've said before, we have the design/build program. This is allowed by Greenville County Procurement Code. It is also allowed by the State Procurement Code. The criteria that it must meet is that it must be more economical than other programs. In other words, whoever does our program must be able to do it cheaper than what we can do it for ourselves. They must allow completion of the project quicker than what we can do ourselves. In a letter to the Council, this was the letter from the 17th of June, I mean the 17th of August from Mr. Kernell to the Council. In this letter, of course he gives the reasons that we should have it to comply with the law. One of his statements was, should the sealed proposal turn-key method not be used, the County would need to hire or contract six additional employees as well as a contract for design, testing, field inspection in order to maintain the same level of service received under the current private/public partnership. The cost of the six new employees plus the required professional services is approximately $1,101,000. What we are saying is that if we did it ourselves, and did the same thing that our contractors are doing, it would cost us $1,101,000. Additionally, in August, if we tried to do it with another contractor or if we tried to do it ourselves, we wouldn't have time to do it, which is, there again, my past background would tell you that that was true. I did look at the $1,101,000, it's the only thing I can draw on from my past experience of how we did it before, and if you take the numbers that are in the contract and do the same thing, I came up with $1,129,000. I think we are pretty close. I think we can do it for $1,101,000. According to the contract this past year, for 2006 and 7, the cost for these services was not $1 million. It was $1,883,000. I have not been able to or have not taken the time or had the time to look at the actual cost. My first perusal of it or looking at it is that I think it might even exceed that, or that it might even be closer to $1,900,000. Since it would take us almost a year if we did it ourselves to do our own training and do our roads, then I would like to make a motion tonight, since the County can save over $700,000 by administering the road program, I move that for the Year 2008 and 2009, the County administer the road program. We've already signed the contract or I guess we have. I don't know whether we've chosen or if we've signed a contract for anyone or not, but we have voted as a Council to go ahead and do this for 2007 and 2008, so I think while there might be some negotiations that would lower that price, that I think it would do harm to our road program. So that is the reason I make the motion that we do this, and that maybe, Mr. Chairman, you would send this motion back to Committee of the Whole also.

Taylor: Point of order, Mr. Chairman.

Kirven: Yes sir, Dr. Taylor.

Taylor: Without talking about the merits of his motion, my question is, can we bind a future Council with a vote like this? In other words we are talking about doing something.... when is the date we are talking about doing this? I want to see if we are dealing with this Council or with a future Council.

Meadows: We are dealing with this Council, Dr. Taylor.

Taylor: This is something we would do next summer?

Meadows: Yes sir. This would give Council time or Mr. Kernell time to put his six people in place or the group that he has in place and assess the roads, which would have to be done. All these things would have to be done for the contract next November. So we are not binding another Council, it would be this Council.

Taylor: I call the question, Mr. Chairman.

Kirven: Thank you Dr. Taylor. I for one, I'm just hearing this from Mr. Meadows for the first time, I think he has probably done a pretty good job, but I don't know the veracity of his information. I'm not prepared to vote on something as drastic as changing the whole methodology of the County's road program right at this time, just really on no notice. I think that we need to step back and take a more deliberate look at this and get the facts assembled before us and be able to ask the questions and get explanations before we take a giconian step of changing everything right here on the spur of the moment. Mr. Dill.

Dill: Mr. Chairman, I think what I heard him say was he wanted it sent to the Committee of the Whole.

Meadows: Committee of the Whole

Kirven: What I heard was him making a motion that we change it tonight.

Dill: Mr. Chairman, would it be wise to send it to a committee and let's see if it has any merit?

Kirven: That's what I'm asking for. We don't need a motion for that. We've had this in committees in the past and I would be glad to put it on a Committee of the Whole. No Council member asked me for a Committee of the Whole on this for tonight. Did you call me to ask me?

Meadows: I did not ask you, I asked the

Kirven: Well, if you call me, you'll get what you want.

Meadows: I'm learning.

Kirven: If you don't call me.... You didn't ask for it, so... Anyway I'll be glad to do that, we'll schedule that. I'll look forward to that, and that way we'll have the amount of time to answer everybody's questions, and lay out all the information and do all the comparisons. I think it's a good thing that you are suggesting. We will do that.

(This ends the verbatim transcript.)

Dear Mr. Trout, I'm contacting you out of my concern and my fiancé's concern over her son, Ryan Douglas Sherwood, that is incarcerated in the Greenville Detention Center. Mr. Trout, Ryan turned himself in on Oct.4,2007. While incarcerated, he contracted the MRSA staff infection from another inmate. He phoned us from the detention center and said that it was running rampant through the area that he was being held. He also told us that the facility wasn't spraying down the cells as they should; 3 times daily he said. He told us they sprayed once a week if that, and within the first 2 weeks he had contracted the staff infection. His mother read your web site on the staff infection and was appalled by the lack of human decency and lack of care that the Greenville Detention Center has shown to inmates. Since then, her son has been looked at by physicians concerning his staff infection. They found a large lump in his chest and they wanted to have it looked at by an internal medicine physician. Waiting for word of his diagnosis, Ryan started complaining to officials of stomach cramps, pain in the abdomen, and fever. He complained for several days of this and no one would do anything to help him. Tuesday night he was rushed to Greenville Memorial for an emergency appendectomy. The doctor that treated him told his mother that it was almost too late before they brought Ryan into the hospital. I don't have to tell you Mr. Trout; his mother is at the end of her rope worrying about her son and his well-being due to the negligence of the Greenville Detention Center. It's enough to worry about them being stabbed, raped, and humiliated while incarcerated, but to have to worry about their well-being and treatment by the detention personnel is totally absurd! I'm sure there are other parents out there worrying about their children and family members as well. Yes, they have broke the law; but that doesn't mean that they aren't human beings and they have to be treated with such negligence and disrespect. Mr. Trout, what can we do as concerned parents to help Ryan and other inmates? Ryan is going to be seen by Dr. Hartley today concerning the lump on his chest and his mother is worried that Dr. Hartley will not take the necessary concern of making sure that it is not cancerous. She had spoken with him earlier this morning; she called me to give me an update on Ryan. We know that we can't trust in anything that is affiliated with the Greenville Detention Center and we want to know that Ryan is being taken care of and that his human rights aren't being violated as they have been recently. Can you help us and give us some direction as to what we need to do or who we need to talk to on making sure Ryan is taken care of? Thank you for anything you can do; feel free to use this in any way possible to help anyone who is going through the same scenario. I look forward to your reply.

Sincerely, Kim D. Owens / Patti Mashburn

DETENTION CENTER INMATE EXPENSES CHARGES

ACTION: Councilor Trout made a motion for the Public Safety, Administration and Human Services Committee to study inmate charges at the Greenville County Detention Center and to come back with an ordinance regarding these charges. Motion carried.

Minutes of the June 26 Public Safety Meeting

Investigation of Jail/ 8-13-07 Greenville County Detention Center.

I meet with Councilor Norris at about 4PM

We went to the old part of the jail to get in, we were refused entrance at that time, Ms Norris called Dorriety on her cell phone and he wanted to know why I drug her in this, but please drive around to the new jail and he would her us there.

We arrived at the Administrator's area, and Dorriety was all over Ms. Norris, falling at her feet, asking her if anything he could do for her.

We first went to the Kitchen, and to look at the food that was being prepared, a large portion of peas had fell out of a can and was under the railing.

I asked one of the cooks 30% complaintsif everyone received meat everyday, and before he could respond, Dorriety ran over and got about 2 in's from my face and told me that I will not talk to any of his people, and if I didn't comply with his orders he would march me out of there. He kept hollering for Ms. Norris and asking if she was going to allow this. At that time we all walked out into the hallway, again Dorriety jumped in my face like a school yard bully and told me that he didn't work for me or the council and if I had a problem, then go see Kernell.

I then asked to see the canteen 50 % complaints, and we were told that it was closed for the day; I again asked to see the canteen, that I was sure they had a key; again we were denied access to the Canteen.

We went into one of the female pods and I was told that I was not allowed to talk to anyone, but then Mr. Dorriety asked Ms. Norris if she would like to sit with a group of Inmates and talk to them. I asked about the five dollar charge 50% states they are charged, but get no treatment and asked to see some of the printouts with just the $5 showing and how often, but I was told no one knew how to operate the computer. One girl walked up and tried to talk to me but was scolded and was told no.

All during this investigation, Dorriety walked with Ms. Norris and introduced her to all of the staff and inmates but completely ignored my presents. Dorriety had a Lt. Smith to stay by my side during the full investigation, to run interference when I wanted to see anything.

One of the major concerns from the inmates was no soap on the showers. 30%

In one of the men's area, I found only 2 showers that had soap. The infirmary's showers had no soap, mental ward had no soap in any of their showers, red pod also had no soap any any of there showers.

As a matter of fact out of the scores of showers I checked, only two had soap in them.

Subject: Detention center lawsuits

Council Members,

Ms. Gibson and myself are having to give our deposition about the lawsuits to the Detention Center.

I gave mine two days ago. It seems that the only thing Dorriety wanted to know was who gave us the information. Instead of saying what he was doing to clean up his mess, he was only interested in who told on him.

I have investigated how many lawsuits that are coming against the Detention Center and your not going to believe this.

There are 5 Attorneys that has or will be filing class action lawsuits representing Detention Officers and inmates , a total of 331 people. One of the victims has already died from this Mersa epidemic, so when the staff gives us the watered down version, I hope you will take a good look at what is really going on at the jail.

Tony

Dear Mr. Trout,

I wanted to let you know that I spoke with Joe Dill last night. He called me after receiving the email. I told him of all of my concerns over the jail and how I felt after watching that video on YouTube.

Mr. Dill did tell me the next meeting regarding the jail would be on Tuesday, August 14th at 12:00pm. I told him that I would be at this meeting.

After speaking with him a while, he proceeded to tell me that this would be the "last meeting" regarding the jail because there are other issues that need to be dealt with. He said that he has been to the jail by himself. I asked him why the committee didn't go down to the jail as a group like was stated in the video. I didn't get a clear answer on this question. Mr. Dill said that he will be looking for any "ordinances" regarding the jail but if none are presented, then this will be the end of the discussion of the jail. In the video, I heard Ms. Norris or Ms. Gibson say that the committee should go to the jail as a group. Has or is this going to happen? Mr. Dill also said that regarding Jim Dorriety's comments about his employees are being harrassed by you (which by the way - I don't believe that for one second!) mentioned something about a law suit in which an employee has or maybe has against you.

I want to get involved in this before it is "glossed" over for more years! I read in the newspaper a while back where some African American women were complaining about Jim Dorriety and one lady even called Jim Dorriety at home after not getting any help at the jail or one the phone and he cussed her out and hung up on her. I am asking you to please (!) give my name and cell phone to anyone that would be willing to come to this last meeting and to discuss their concerns, etc. at the jail. I will get involved in any way that I possibly can to help. Jim Dorriety does not intimidate or scare me. As Joe Dill mentioned last night when Jim Dorriety sees me at this next meeting - the look on his face will be a "Halmark moment."

I'm not quite sure if you remember me or not but I am the one who contacted you when you were first elected to congratulate you and to let you know how I felt about property taxes. I was a part of the group working with Senator David Thomas for almost two years. At this time, you told me that your number one priority was to get my then father-in-law more money for the jail because they had overcrowding issues. By now, I'm sure that you know that the real problem at the jail is not overcrowding it is poor Management by the Administrator (s) at the jail.

I have heard back from News Channel 4 and from Larry Wilson at WROQ. His email is below. Could you please contact him?

Good Afternoon Mr. Baldwin and Mr. Trout,

Mt. Vernon road is scheduled to be paved this upcoming season, it was included in the list that council approved on 6/19/07 to be paved during the 2008 paving season which begins typically in March of each year. County Council approves road paving lists one year in advance, before the actual paving season is to start. Our contract period typically runs from November 1 of each year to October 31, of each year. By approving the paving list one year in advance, the roads are then available when the new contract begins to be assessed and scheduled.

Mr. Baldwin, our staff will be working with Don Hollerman in processing the request and coordinating the work. Don is aware of the project and that it will be taken care of in this year's program. If I can be of any further assistance please feel free to contact me at 467-7007 or by email at pgucker@greenvillecounty.org.

County Administrator Joe Kernell stated "This is privileged information. A few weeks ago our Public Safety Committee was commissioned to look into the MRSA Staph infection at the jail. Since then, instead of any investigation into this epidemic, Chairman Joe Dill has done nothing but meet behind closed doors with the Jail Administration, County Administrator and Council Chairman Kirven. Then we were notified that our committee meeting would be in executive session for the sole purpose of the dog and pony show that the detention center administration, and the county administrator put on for us. First we were shown a power-point presentation that told us what MRSA was, and then they made numerous excuses for the MRSA epidemic being so prevalent in our jail.

1. Joe Kernell started off by saying that overcrowding was the main problem.

FACTS: Joe Kernell was given the money and the go ahead with building the new jail approximately 3 years before a court order finally got him motivated enough to start construction on the jail.

2. Jail Director James Dorriety stated that by the South Carolina State Correction's policies, every inmate who is admitted is required to take a shower and is checked for contrabands and any types of diseases.

FACTS: After I questioned him in more detail, Dorriety admitted that if an inmate didn't want to take a shower, then they didn't have to, thus bringing in any type of diseases they are carrying without any type of examination.

3. Jail Director Dorriety stated that all inmates receive clean jumpsuits and clean linen every day.

FACTS: All inmates who enter the detention center have to wait 72 hours, before they are issued any type of hygiene package (soap, toothpaste, etc....)

4. I asked Mr. Dorriety why, when Judge Few requested that an inmate be sent to the hospital, he refused that request? He said he didn't remember that.

FACTS: When I asked who makes the determination on who goes to the hospital, Mr. Dorriety stated that they have no-one on staff that is authorized to make that call, but if they suspect MRSA then a swab is taken from the sick inmate and sent off to a lab to be checked.

The facts are that the only reason Chairman Kirven wanted to go into executive session yesterday was to keep the public out and to keep this epidemic covered up.

We have over 100 inmates with MRSA, and over 25 detention officers with MRSA.

Also over 84 lawsuits against the detention center.

It is a fact that, according to many detention officers, Joe Kernell has made it clear to them that they will lose their jobs if they are suspected of talking to the public or anyone about this epidemic.

The real question is... When is this disease going to make the jump to the Greenville County Citizens? The answer is "sooner than it should" as long as "Typhoid Joe Kernell" keeps sweeping this problem under the carpet. Right now Kernell is presiding over a MRSA incubator — and he seems content to keep things that way. Will Greenville wait until MRSA leaps into the general population before demanding action?

The other problem is by charging outlandish rates for the inmates to call their families.

The Detention Center is clearing over $100,000.00 a year through the new phone service. Knowing that the phone company makes a great deal more.

This is extortion plain and simple.

As an ex-police officer, I always felt that inmates always got what they deserved.

But after growing up, and being an elected official for Greenville County, SC, it is my responsibility to report the below violations to you. Not only the Guards are getting this disease, but two have taken it home and infected their children.

SECTION 15. Right of bail; excessive bail; cruel or unusual or corporal punishment;

SECTION 16-3-1050.... abuse, neglect, or exploitation of vulnerable adults

What ever you can do, would be very much appreciated

Thanks,

CITYBEAT: The Human Face of Jailhouse Rot
Living with the Detention Center Staph infection

BY DAN RUCK

<<http://www.metrobeat.net/gbase/Expedite/Archive?author=oid%3A3612>>

Meet Cassandra Green. She's a perky, 28-year-old black woman who from last Friday until late Monday afternoon was under armed guard at Greenville Memorial Hospital.

Why?

Because, says Ms. Green, in 2004 she contacted "Staph," or Methicillin-resistant Staphylococcus Aureus (MRSA), while serving time in the Greenville County Detention Center. Since then she has had 13 operations for removal of "Staph"-infected tissue, resulting in long, ugly scars on her backside, lower stomach, leg, and arms.

Last Summer, the young woman adds, she was convinced to have an abortion because she was pregnant and Greenville Hospital medical personnel feared the baby might be born with "Staph."

The bacterial infection, one of the most common in the US and a cause of growing alarm among medical personnel treating servicemen returning with wounds from Iraq, can grow into open, oozing sores. If not treated properly, the infection can spread to the bones, joints, heart and lungs, and possibly result in death.

There have been reports of hundreds of inmates and guards infected with "Staph" over the last three years at the Greenville County Detention Center, where 1,500 or more prisoners are crammed into a facility designed for 800.

Five guards have filed workers' compensation claims, according to Milford O. "Chip" Howard III, an Anderson attorney familiar with the detention center matter, and as many as 84 lawsuits have been filed against Greenville County of behalf of inmates.

In one case, according to detention center employees who spoke anonymously because they fear they will be fired for talking to the press, a guard had to have part of her nipple removed in a MRSA operation. "We have guards walking around who have MRSA, but for whom the infections have not yet erupted," said one employee, speaking anonymously.

Greenville County Attorney Mark Tollison said Monday afternoon nine MRSA lawsuits have been filed against Greenville County, but he did not know how many inmates those suits represented.

Ms. Green's newest surgery at Greenville Memorial was last Friday, and today she has a gaping wound in her back, stuffed with hospital bandaging as can be seen in the photo accompanying this article.

"I'm a nurse and I've seen 'Staph' before, but I've never seen it as bad as what Cassandra has," says her mother, Nancy Martell of Spartanburg. "The first time she showed me it was on her leg and it looked like raw hamburger."

Of course, Cassandra Green's story is not one that is going to attract a lot of sympathy in almost-all-white Simpsonville, along Augusta Road and in other upscale portions of the Upstate. A poor, moderately-educated black woman, she's been jailed twice for breaking and entering, and for obtaining a driver's license under false pretenses and then violating her parole.

She's in the Greenville County Detention Center today because, she says, she was having MRSA surgery at Greenville Memorial when she was supposed to be checking in with her parole officer.

"I called and my mother called, but we couldn't get any answer," Ms. Green says. Mrs. Martell adds, "I left four or five messages but no one ever called me back."

So, the issue here is not one really of a single, young black woman who might have been dealt a bum fate in life and kicked to the sidelines by a society hell-bent in its rush to glory. No, the story is of a Greenville County leadership under the direction of administrator Joe Kernell that has tried to pretend the crisis at the detention center does not exist and has attempted to crush all evidence to the contrary.

Kernell must have been in serious denial about what was going on at the detention center Oct. 17, 2006 when he told The Beat, "There isn't any problem at the jail." That was after the Greenville News had reported a lawsuit had been filed against the county on behalf of 25 disease-infected prisoners.

Worse, the Staph outbreak at the jail seems to have prompted an outbreak of prevarication at County Square. Kernell told a Greenville County Council Committee of the Whole on Jan. 16, 2007 that special security doors had been installed at the detention center. That was after Councilman Tony Trout posted a video on his personal website showing a jail guard being assaulted by an inmate.

Kernell was forced to recant his testimony under questioning by Trout, admitting the doors had not been installed but were still in the process of being manufactured.

Councilman Joseph B. Dill got caught out at the same meeting, asserting that he had seen the doors in place. Under questioning by Trout, he conceded he'd only seen pictures of the doors.

Kernell and detention center administrator Scottie Bodiford did not return calls Monday in search of an update about the current situation at the jail. Nor did Butch Kirven Jr., chairman of the council. But other members were not so reticent.

Noting that Ms. Green has been convicted, at worst, of breaking and entering, Councilman Tony Trout said, "That isn't the sort of offense that warrants the death penalty - yet this is what this woman may have had."

Councilwoman Lottie Gibson said, "This is terrible. I really hate it. We need to get this situation under control."

Councilwoman Xanthene Norris added, "We really need to do an in-depth study on that. I can't always depend on what Joe Kernell tells me is so."

Councilman Dill said his Public Safety and Health Services Committee will be taking a closer look at health risks in the detention center when the committee meets again Feb. 13.

CITYBEAT: Jailhouse Rot

Cruel and unusual health problems in the Greenville County Detention Center

BY DAN RUCK

<<http://www.metrobeat.net/gbase/Expedite/Archive?author=oid%3A3612>>

Something stinks in Greenville, and it is more than just the foul aroma of festering sores and unwashed feet that permeates the county jail.

There is a stench of cover-up. It starts in the office of county administrator Joseph Kernell and seeps through public offices downtown into the locker rooms of the Greenville County Detention Center where guards who have become infected through their work in the crowded jail are afraid to complain for fear they'll be fired for speaking out.

Kernell gave voice to the seeming cover-up when he told a Beat reporter before the Oct. 17 county council meeting that "there isn't any problem at the jail." That was after the Greenville News had reported a lawsuit had been filed against the county on behalf of 25 disease-infected prisoners, prompting US District Court Judge G. Ross Anderson Jr. to order an inspection of the jail by a doctor at the request of the attorneys who filed the lawsuit.

"It appears to this court that the Detention Center, through its administrator, Scotty Bodiford, has not been kept clean in accordance with such standards applicable to detention centers," Anderson said in his order granting the inspection.

When asked about complaints by guards who are members of a police union about working conditions at the detention center, Kernell said, "There isn't any union. We don't recognize unions in this (Greenville) county." In fact, the International Union of Police Associations (AFL-CIO) in Sarasota, FL lists 65 Greenville police officers as active members of its Local 2803, the Greenville Police Association, and 22 Greenville County sheriff's deputies as active member of its Local 2304, the Greenville County Public Safety Association.

Of course, Kernell's relationship with the truth is often subject to the political whims of his masters. Recall his wildly over-inflated estimates of the cost to Greenville County of the Martin Luther King holiday at a time when the ruling faction on County Council who hired him were adamantly opposed to the holiday. Kernell was only too happy to take up arms in the fight against honoring Dr. King. So Kernell's declaration there are "no problems" at the Detention Center should be taken with a grain – make that a shaker – of salt.

The health problems at the jail concern Methicillin-resistant Staphylococcus Aureus (MRSA), a bacteria resistant to certain common antibiotics and one of the most common causes of skin infection in the US.

The bacteria can cause skin infections that might start out looking like a pimple or boil, but can grow into open, oozing sores. If not treated properly, the infection can spread to the bones, joints, heart and lungs.

County residents who spoke with a Beat reporter on the steps of the detention center after visiting inmates inside the jail told of prisoners with large sores on their arms and legs.

"It won't kill you, but it always is a problem in a place like this where people are crowded together and you have those who won't take a shower or even wash their hands," one visitor said.

Jail crowding contributes to the problem. Lee Polowczuk, Greenville County information officer, did not respond to repeated inquiries about how many inmates currently are housed in the detention center, but a jail worker who spoke informally outside the facility said the total is close to 1,500.

That would mean the center is over capacity. The county worker added that in the newest portion of the jail, inmates are housed three to a room that was designed for two.

Rich Roberts, Florida spokesman for the police union, charges there have been as many as 200 Greenville County inmates infected with Staph over the last two years, and Greenville County Councilman Tony Trout claims there have been 21 reported outbreaks among jail guards.

The actual number of guard infections may be as high as 30 or 40, he alleges, adding that guards are afraid to complain for fear they will be fired.

Roberts alleges in an e-mail to The Beat that "one officer was just recently placed on disability and wrongfully terminated." He adds, the jailer "has MRSA all over his face so bad that he has to try not to utilize his facial muscles or his skin will crack and bleed. He may also have it in his lungs."

On August 22, Dunaway & Associates, an Anderson, SC law firm, sued Greenville County on behalf of 25 jail inmates who allegedly contacted Staph at the jail. Chip Howard, Dunaway associate who took part in disclosure leading to the lawsuit, says five jail guard also have filed workers' compensation claims on account of their infection.

Inmates and their jailers have reported sores on their hands, feet, faces, scalp, arms, legs and back, according to the lawsuit filed by Dunaway & Associates. Some have had to go to the hospital and one had to have a finger amputated, according to the petition to the court.

James Dorriety, assistant county administrator for the Department of Public Safety, told the Greenville News, "We are very comfortable with our actions, as far as our control of infections," but Roberts charges county officials "would rather overlook the problem rather than clean it up."

Howard says the county "has taken some steps to make it look like they're dealing with the problem, but really they're not doing anything to correct it."

Asked last Saturday night if he thinks the Staph problem at the detention center has been corrected, Greenville County Councilman Joe Dill said, "No, I don't think so." He added, "I have a lot of questions about what's going on at that jail," and "You can't coddle people who are in jail, but at the same time we (public officials) have an obligation to protect them."

Trout says he means to bring the matter up at meetings of county council and his public safety committee, and Roberts says his police union is seeking an inspection of the jail by the federal Occupational Safety and Health Administration.

CITYBEAT: Jailhouse Rot II
Detention Center infection imperils prisoner's life.

BY DAN RUCK

Dwight Jeter

A former prisoner of the Greenville county jail is in danger of losing his life due to a deadly Staph infection he contracted at the detention center.

At least 20 jail employees quit their jobs in September for fear they would contract that same infection, which has run rampant through the overcrowded detention center for more than two years, and guards who have remained at their stations are so afraid they'll be hunted down and fired if they speak out about the peril that they insist their comments be filtered through a union spokesman in Florida.

So high is the level of tension running between Greenville County Detention Center supervisors and the jail personnel they oversee that one jail worker who dared speak with a reporter said he feared his comments would be traced back to him even if they were attributed to a jail guard who had once worked at the detention center and was still familiar with the situation there.

"It makes me think of a police state," says Rich Roberts, spokesman for the International Union of Police Associations in Sarasota, FL.

The AFL-CIO affiliated union of police associations is the parent organization of the Greenville Police Association, Local 2803, and Greenville County Public Safety Association, Local 2304.

Roberts says one Greenville County jail employee complained he "felt like he had a target on his back," and had been warned to "keep your head down." Another said a lieutenant was assigned to "watch every move he made" and feared if he spoke out about jail conditions that "there would be a witch hunt" and "he would be hunted down," according to the Florida spokesman.

While county jailers fear infection and loss of their jobs, Dwight Jeter lay in Greenville Memorial Hospital Monday night, scratching nervously at what he said was eczema on his arms and wondering what his future holds.

The 38-year-old homeless black man may be the most severely infected of those persons most recently housed or employed at the Greenville County jail.

He is believed to be suffering from Methicillin-resistant Staphylococcus Aureus (MRSA), a bacteria resistant to certain common antibiotics and one of the most common causes of skin infection in the US.

The bacteria can cause skin infections that can grow into open, oozing sores. If not treated properly, the infection can spread to the bones, joints, heart and lungs, and in Jeter's case, it is alleged to have affected his brain.

Roberts says Greenville jailers tell him outbreaks of the so-called Staph infection have been a problem at the detention center for almost three years.

Jeter is officially listed in stable condition, but Roberts says Greenville jail employees tell him Jeter was released from detention recently because he is not expected to survive his stay in the hospital. Until recently a jail guard was assigned to sit outside Jeter's isolation hospital room. The soft-spoken black man occupies a suite on the hospital's third floor. Signs outside his room warn visitors to wash their hands before leaving and advise hospital personnel to wear gowns and gloves while attending to the patient.

In a Monday night interview in his hospital room, Jeter says he was arrested for petty larceny and malicious injury to property and contracted MRSA while incarcerated in the Greenville County Detention Center.

"It was rampant in the jail," he says. When he was suspected of being infected, the slender Jeter says he was placed in an isolation cell where he developed a melon-sized ball of pus behind one knee.

"It was horrible," he recalls. "No one would help me. I tried to go to the bathroom and I fell and the ball broke, and that's when they sent me to the hospital."

About his condition now, Jeter says, "I have so many doctors I don't know them all." He also says he was released from jail detention, meaning no jail guard keeps watch over him any longer from a sitting room adjoining Jeter's private hospital room, "because the county didn't want to pay my hospital bill any longer."

While Dwight Jeter battles for his life in a Greenville Memorial Hospital bed, perhaps as many as two dozen or more county jail inmates occupy isolation cells at the detention center while jail employees try to determine if - and how seriously - they might be infected with MRSA.

"The number varies every day," Roberts says he has been told. "One employee said there might be 18 to 20 in isolation right now, but that was only in two (jail) units."

Meanwhile, the union spokesman insists he has been told several times that 20 or more jail employees quit their jobs in September for fear that would contact the Staph infection.

"It was astonishing that we would lose that many officers in one month," Roberts says.

Roberts charges there have been as many as 200 Greenville County inmates infected with Staph over the last two years, and Greenville County Councilman Tony Trout says there have been 21 reported outbreaks among jail guards.

The actual number of guard infections may be as high as 30 or 40, Trout believes. Roberts alleged in an e-mail to The Beat that "one officer was just recently placed on disability and wrongfully terminated." He adds the jailer "has MRSA all over his face so bad that he has to try not to utilize his facial muscles or his skin will crack and bleed. He may also have it in his lungs."

Dunaway & Associates, an Anderson, SC law firm, on Aug. 22 sued Greenville County on behalf of 25 jail inmates who allegedly contacted Staph at the jail. Chip Howard, a Dunaway associate who took part in preparing the lawsuit, says five jail guards also have filed workers' compensation claims on account of their infection.

Greenville County responded to the Dunaway suit, but Howard says the response alleges the county did not violate the rights of prisoners, and stops short of claiming the Staph problem has been corrected.

Roberts charges that families of some jail guards also have been infected. He claims the bacteria threatened the eyesight of one guard's young daughter and that another guard's wife was fired from her job due to her infection.

Inmates and their jailers have reported sores on their hands, feet, faces, scalp, arms, legs and back, according to the lawsuit filed by Dunaway & Associates. Some have had to go to the hospital and one had to have a finger amputated, according to the petition to the court.

James Dorriety, assistant county administrator for the Department of Public Safety, has been quoted in the Greenville News saying, "We are very comfortable with our actions, as far as our control of infections," but Roberts charges county officials "would rather overlook the problem rather than clean it up."

Howard says the county "has taken some steps to make it look like they're dealing with the problem, but really they're not doing anything to correct it."

I've mentioned the firewall the staff puts up and how it has even come to the point where people are trying to tell me – through the newspaper and other roundabout ways – that I shouldn't speak directly with county workers (even though many of them are just waiting for us to ask them the right questions...). Well, here's a "firewall" issue that has concerned me greatly: the sanitized way that zoning votes are presented to the entire County Council. It all started innocently enough...as these things always do. I was leaving the Council Chambers one evening after a meeting that had us voting on several zoning changes. On my way out, I saw some papers in the gallery area where people sit. Naturally, I picked them up so they could go in the trash. But these papers looked important. Three pages full of signatures is, in my mind, important.

Perhaps I'm crossing some line of propriety and violating some obscure law, but I consider a petition on a zoning change something well worth seeing. I expect that the people who signed the petition believe it is worth being delivered to every councilman who will be voting on the matter. In fact, if I were a betting man, I'd bet that these people addressed their petition to "County Council," and not to "Just a few people on County Council and the staff who advise them."

But if you were to send in a petition to County Council objecting to the big Amalgamated Chemical Incineration factory that wants to locate next to your neighborhood, guess who would get to see it?

Not me, for starters.

No sir and no ma'am. Tony Trout's been known to actually visit with the people who object to such projects and take pictures and get their side of the story. Did you know that that actually rattles people....it gets people annoyed when I do the job I was elected to do? Seriously. Some people in my district get upset if I do that and talk about things that are outside of my district. Others complain that I'm showing them up if I go visit with people in "their" district.

"So..., " I asked, "who does get to see these petitions anyway? It seems to me that when the Sheriff's deputies deliver our packets of papers and materials for the next Tuesday's meeting, we should be getting the petitions along with all the developer's papers."

Apparently the Planning Commission and the Zoning Appeals Board get the petitions. And then they are seen by the Council's five-member Public Service, Planning and Development (PSPD) Committee <http://www.greenvillecounty.org/County_Council/Committees/Public_Service_Planning_Development.asp> (Eric Bedingfield, Chair; Joe Dill, Vice Chair; Mark Kingsbury, Jim Burns and Cort Flint). And that's where they get derailed.

What we get in our Friday-before-Tuesday packets are summary sheets telling us what the staff recommends and what the PSPD Committee has recommended. We already know what the developer wants – because that's why we're getting this matter in the first place.

So, naturally, I asked the staff to include all petitions in my packet from now on.

Uh-oh, there goes Tony, causing trouble once again....!

Sure enough I was called to the County Attorney's office a week later for a conversation about my request.

When I walked in his office, he closed the door and told me that giving the full council copies of the citizen's petitions was not how the staff does things. He said that we should make up our minds on the matter based on the recommendations from the staff, and the worthiness of the request -- and not on what the citizens think. He explained that if the developers found out that we might be making our decisions on what the people want, they could sue us.

And that is why the staff decided to leave petitions off from the full council.

So what he was saying, we should base our decisions from the developer and the staff's point of view, and screw the people.

Grand Juror Information

THE IMPORTANCE OF THE GRAND JURY

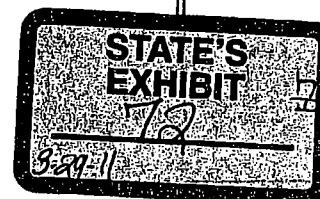

This handbook is intended for citizens of South Carolina who have been chosen to serve on a county grand jury. It will explain some of the terms, as well as the duties and powers of the grand jury.

Serving on the grand jury is an important responsibility and should be taken seriously and honestly. Grand jurors are watchmen stationed by the law to survey the conduct of their fellow citizens and to inquire where and by whom public authority has been violated or our constitution and laws infringed. A grand jury is an informing and accusing body rather than a judicial trial. It does not try a case nor does it hear both sides. The grand jury's function is to evaluate the evidence presented by the prosecution to determine if an indictment should follow, which is afterwards to be heard and determined in a court of law. However, the grand jury is not part of the solicitor's (prosecutor's) office; it answers only to the court. This independence is important for the grand jury so that they may reach a fair decision. The purpose of the grand jury is to bring to trial persons accused of crimes, upon just grounds, and to protect innocent people from being required to appear in response to improper accusations.

Unlike a state grand jury, which has statewide jurisdiction, a county grand jury is limited to investigating wrongful acts occurring within the county where the grand jury is sitting.

THE ORIGIN OF THE GRAND JURY

The grand jury originated in England during the twelfth century. It was recognized in the Magna Carta, granted by King John in 1215, and can be traced as far back as 1164. The idea of the grand jury was brought to America by the English settlers and, with other concepts of English Common Law, has become a part of the judicial system in this country. It is provided for in the federal judicial system in the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution, and most states have created a state grand jury system in their state constitutions. South Carolina provides for grand juries in each county in Article V of the State Constitution, adopted in 1895 and amended in 2003.

THE NATURE OF THE GRAND JURY

The grand jury has two main functions. First, it is the principal body that decides whether a person charged with a serious crime will be tried. In South Carolina, no one can be prosecuted for a crime where the punishment exceeds thirty days in jail or a fine up to five hundred dollars unless the grand jury decides there is good reason for an accusation and a trial, based on evidence presented to it by the prosecution. Only the defendant may waive this requirement.

When the grand jury decides that a case should be tried, its finding is called a TRUE BILL. In order to find a true bill, at least twelve members of the grand jury must agree that probable cause to indict exists after evaluating the evidence. The probable cause determination is a two-step process. First, the grand jury must determine that a wrongful act did, in fact, occur. Second, the grand jury must determine that it is more probable than not that the accused committed the wrongful act. When the grand jury finds that probable cause does not exist, the finding is a NO BILL, and the case is not presented for trial.

The grand jury should bear in mind that its interest in a case extends only to the decision of whether or not to make someone stand trial, based on the evidence before it. The grand jury does not try cases. Its duties are different from those of a trial (or petit) jury. The grand jury considers only whether there is good reason or sufficient evidence to present a person for indictment and for a trial. When the grand jury finds for a true bill of indictment, it should be careful to refrain from any expression of opinion on the guilt of the person, or any words of condemnation. It is the duty of the trial jury, not the grand jury, to decide guilt or innocence.

No one has the right to approach a grand juror to try to persuade a vote or decision. Anyone doing so should be reported to the solicitor or the judge immediately. When you serve on the grand jury, you are a public official with a duty to follow the law as it is written. Whether you agree with a certain law does not matter. You must perform your duties and make your decisions using the law as a guideline, not your personal feelings. As a public official, you must obey the law as it exists.

The second duty of the grand jury is to perform and make such investigations and recommendations relative to the government affairs in your community as you deem appropriate. With this said, the power of the grand jury to investigate matters as to which no formal charge has been laid before them is narrowly limited. While grand juries have large inquisitorial powers, those powers are not unlimited. The grand jury is an integral part of the machinery of the court, all of which is under the control and direction of the presiding judge.

The grand jury is authorized to employ one or more expert accountants to aid them to examine and investigate the offices, books, papers, vouchers, and accounts of any public officer of their respective counties and to fix the amount of compensation or per diem to be paid therefore, upon the approval of the presiding or circuit judge given before any expert is employed.

If in any general investigation the grand jury encounters facts, which may constitute criminal conduct on the part of any person, the grand jury should immediately consult the solicitor for guidance. Keep in mind that in a presentment reporting on an investigation, the grand jury should not name anyone as responsible for the problem, as they would in an indictment, because the person would not be able to answer the charge as he could in an indictment. All the grand jury can do relating to an investigation is present the facts and suggest a remedy. It is advisable that a grand jury consult the solicitor's office or judge before making any investigation.

THE ORGANIZATION/OATH/CHARGE TO THE GRAND JURY

When you report for service, the court will consider any reason you may have for needing to be excused from duty. This is the time to present any request for being excused.

When all members of the panel are present, you will be taken into court, where the judge will select a foreperson or permit the members to elect a foreperson. The foreperson will preside over the grand jury like a chairman at a meeting and will act as a spokesperson for the group although his vote will be counted the same as the other jurors' votes. An oath or affirmation will be administered to the foreperson and then to the other members. After that is done, the judge may make a formal address to the grand jury, explaining how to conduct the duties of the panel. This is called the CHARGE TO THE GRAND JURY.

After receiving the charge by the judge, you will go into the grand jury room where evidence in each case will be presented for your consideration.

COMMON TERMS

Quorum. The Constitution of the State of South Carolina states that the grand jury panel will be made up of eighteen members; at least twelve of the eighteen must be present and in agreement before the grand jury can return an indictment or presentment to the court.

Witnesses. Most of the work of the grand jury is concerned with hearing witnesses. The witnesses may appear voluntarily, or they may appear at the request of the solicitor or the grand jury, or by subpoena from the court. Typically, the state's witnesses will be listed on the back of the indictment which is given to the grand jury for determination. The grand jury should advise the court of any properly notified witness' failure to appear as requested. Further legal questions may arise as to whether certain evidence to be considered is proper or obtainable. The law of evidence is very technical; therefore the grand jury may look to the presiding circuit court judge or the solicitor's office for legal guidance.

Indict or dismiss. When all the evidence has been heard concerning a possible indictment and everyone, except the members of the grand jury have left the room, the foreperson will ask the grand jury to discuss and vote on the question of whether to present the indictment as a true bill or as a no bill. Every grand juror has the right to comment on the evidence and express his views on the matter. After discussion, the grand jury will vote. No indictment may be returned unless at least 12 members agree. The outcome of the vote should be indicated by writing either "True Bill" or "No Bill" on the front of the indictment, accompanied by the foreperson's signature.

SECRECY

Secrecy in every aspect of the proceedings is very important because:

1. Secrecy protects grand jurors from being subjected to pressure by persons who may be interested in the outcome of the grand jury action.
2. Secrecy may prevent the escape of the persons who are under consideration for an indictment.

3. Secrecy encourages witnesses to speak the truth freely before the grand jury.

4. When an indictment has been dismissed, secrecy protects the innocent from the public disgrace of being accused of criminal activity.

It is imperative that grand jurors not say anything to an accuser's family, friends or to anyone about what took place in the grand jury room. Secrecy should be maintained even after the term of service is over, unless the court says otherwise.

PROTECTION OF GRAND JURORS

The secrecy of the grand jury proceedings is a protection for the grand juror. Being accountable only to the court further protects the grand jury. It is against the law to make any inquiries as to how a grand juror voted or to what he may have said during the discussion of a case. The law gives the grand juror complete immunity for official acts performed while serving on the grand jury.

PRACTICAL SUGGESTIONS

1. Attend the sessions of the grand jury regularly. If you are unable to attend a session of the grand jury, contact the clerk of court or the foreperson of the grand jury, depending on the county, prior to the scheduled date of the session so that an alternate grand juror may be contacted.
2. Pay close attention to the evidence presented.
3. Be courteous to the witnesses and to your fellow jurors.
4. Remember, the hearing is a serious judicial proceeding, and should be handled as such.
5. Listen to the opinion of your fellow jurors, but make your own decisions.
6. Be independent, but not stubborn; try to see other points of view.
7. Be as fair as you can.
8. Remember, all grand jurors have an equal voice and an equal vote.
9. Do not keep silent when a case is being discussed, and then begin to talk about it after a vote has been taken.

10. Do not discuss cases with your fellow jurors out of the grand jury room.

11. If members of the grand jury have questions or run into problems, they should seek assistance from the presiding circuit court judge or the solicitor's office.

12. Your membership on the grand jury is a high honor; you are among a small number of citizens in your community who are chosen to serve on the grand jury. Discharge your duties responsibly.

When something stinks, it is usually rotten. And, the stench emanating from this investigation is more than "We The People" should stomach, the grand jury has been overly criticized and underutilized for years in this county. While much of the existing rhetoric about the grand jury is wrong, some criticism of the Grand Jury is certainly due. I'm proposing reforms within the bounds of law that would re-invigorate the Greenville County grand jury, most of which that would protect our individual civil liberties as citizens of this county. This will put a stop to further collusion against the people of this county that has come in the form of unelected dictatorial local bureaucracies - is this not the same kind of taxation without representation that our forebears were so upset with? As the county government has become more embolden to take away our rights, the grand jury has lost its role as "the voice of the community" and become instead a melting pot in which each community's voice is lost amid the de facto court system machine which appears to be in the same league with the money changers (floating bonds and levying fines as well as the taking of exorbitant legal fees, making it a crime for profit venture for the state. This system being set up as a commercial or debtor court system should be fully challenged with a functional, lawful Common-law court system; that can and will either peacefully supplant the old system or use the remedial remedies given in the Declaration of Independence measures, so as to create an effective instrument for change by enforcing current delinquencies in the performance by public officials until they are ready to be up front and quit flaunting the law they ask us to live by.) Since no jurisdiction is just one community and no grand jury can serve its purpose of representing any community if it is drawn from all communities. The proper way to restore the grand jury is neither to manipulate grand jury evidentiary rules nor to adopt any other reforms that have been proposed in recent years, but instead to insure that the grand jury represents an actual community. Grand juries must be reconstituted so that each grand jury represents a neighborhood, an actual community of people who are concerned about local issues of criminal justice.

Call Detail/Toll Records: BST07110572*NOTE:

On an incoming call search, if the calling number is a cellular number, this is normally not the actual cellular customer's number; it is the cellular provider's trunk number. It is the trunk billing number AT&T uses to identify calls originating from a particular cellular telephone carrier. Please contact the cellular carrier to identify the actual originating cellular telephone number. The cellular carrier will have to conduct a search for all calls terminating to the target number. If you have questions on a carrier code, you can access the following web site for information: <http://davis-company.com/pic/dbsearch.html>

1 BY MR. STUDART:

2 (Inaudible) two months ago. I don't know if you remember.

3 BY MR. TROUT:

4 Yeah.

5 BY MR. STUDART:

6 But we just couldn't get anything through back then. And I
7 think we had an opportunity to take a look at what you have 8 over there right now.

9 BY MR. TROUT:

10 Uh-huh (affirmative response).

11 BY MR. STUDART:

12 And what I had asked the court was to have you come in for 13 30 minutes to kind of go over some of the things that you
14 mentioned to me before.

15 BY MR. TROUT:

16 Right.

17 BY MR. STUDART:

18 This is kind of new to the rest of the grand jury. So what 19 they know, we brought it up. We had a vote before.

20 BY MR. TROUT:

21 Uh-huh (affirmative response).

22 BY MR. STUDART:

23 Nothing happened. But we did not talk before. Me and you
24 never talked about this before.

25 BY MR. TROUT:

1 No.

2 BY MR. STUART:

3 Okay? So whatever you have, you know, I would ask you to 4 bring it in as, you know, this is the first time you've
5 presented anything besides that letter that you gave us.

6 BY MR. TROUT:

7 Yeah.

8 BY MR. STUART:

9 You gave us a letter to -- only a few people at the grand
10 jury read it.

11 BY MR. TROUT:

12 Uh-huh (affirmative response).

13 BY MR. STUART:

14 Most people decided not to look at it. And I was one of 15 the individuals that looked at that letter. But I would 16 ask if you could just maybe, you know, 15 minutes just 17 present your case, what you have in a summary form with the 18 evidence. And anything that you have, just get everything
19 down on the table at one shot, because I don't know if we 20 can get through this again this way.

21 BY MR. TROUT:

22 I've got -- I've made up, you know, the real nice
23 pamphlets, 18 for everybody.

24 BY MR. STUART:

25 Okay.

1 BY MR. TROUT:

2 And you know, I'll hand them out like -- I've got three to 3 four charges here.

4 BY MR. STUDART:

5 Okay.

6 BY MR. TROUT:

7 I'll hand it out, and then I'll go through that -- go
8 through it, just thumb through it and point out, you know,
9 just a few points there and bring it to their attention.
10 And then I'll -- you know, then they can read it later on 11 at their own leisure, or after I'm gone. You know what I'm 12 saying?

13 BY MR. STUDART:

14 Yeah, I understand. But all we can do is bring some -- one 15 to indict somebody. That's all we can do.

16 BY MR. TROUT:

17 Yeah. Well, that's enough.

18 BY MR. STUDART:

19 And so you know, I mean, I'm not looking for anything, 20 little charges here and there, you know. If you have 21 anything that's substantial that's what I think would bring 22 the attention of the group.

23 BY MR. TROUT:

24 Uh-huh (affirmative response).

25 BY MR. STUDART:

1 You know, and ---

2 BY MR. TROUT:

3 Well, the big thing is roads.

4 BY MR. STUDART:

5 Yeah. If it's the roads, if it's the school system,
6 whatever it is that you would like to bring in, that --
7 this is your chance to speak your mind and then we can act
8 upon it, you know. So what I suggest to do was bringing 9 him in and we'll ask all the questions. You'll present and 10 then we'll ask questions. Then the grand jury has to vote
11 on what actions we need to take.

12 BY MR. TROUT:

13 Right.

14 BY MR. STUDART:

15 This has not been done in 40 years.

16 BY MR. TROUT:

17 Really?

18 BY MR. STUDART:

19 Yes. So it's kind of new what we're trying to do here, you
20 know. So ---

21 BY MR. TROUT:

22 Well, my hats off to you because I tell you, I'm sure y'all
23 have had a lot of pressure ---

24 BY MR. STUDART:

25 To drop this whole thing.

1 BY MR. TROUT:

2 Yeah.

3 BY MR. STUDART:

4 And I've seen your -- you know, what you're trying to do.
5 You tried to straighten out government and I appreciate
6 that and -- but not everybody appreciates that. A lot of 7 people do not like -- they don't like any stir up,
8 anything, you know. You know, it's too political and they 9 just don't want to get involved. So -- and that's why I'm 10 the foreman right now.

11 BY MR. TROUT:

12 Uh-huh (affirmative response).

13 BY MR. STUDART:

14 Of the session. That's why I was able to make this happen.
15 Okay?

16 BY MR. TROUT:

17 Well you know, it needs to be done. And that's ---

18 BY MR. STUDART:

19 It needs to be done. If it's -- and I heard things about 20 the prison system that's not right. (Inaudible) thing?

21 BY MR. TROUT:

22 Well, my last question was, before then done another little
23 -- you know, they all voted that I couldn't talk to them no
24 more. But my last question was, was what happened to that 25 1.7 million dollars?

1 BY MR. STUDART:

2 I wanted to bring that in. Bring that information in.

3 What happened to that? Because I don't know.

4 BY MR. TROUT:

5 And the guy -- the director said, hey, I don't know. You

6 know, playing dumb. So I said -- and then I asked the 7 administrator twice. And he said, what money? I mean,

8 that is ridiculous.

9 BY MR. STUDART:

10 This is what you need to bring in and present to the group.

11 BY MR. TROUT:

12 Well ---

13 BY MR. STUDART:

14 And if you don't have the evidence but you know it's there

15 we can subpoena, you know, whoever it is and bring the 16 records over. You know, have all the financial records and 17 examine the -- and hire an auditor to look into it.

18 BY MR. TROUT:

19 Right. And ---

20 BY MR. STUDART:

21 But we need to, you know, have -- we have to have enough

22 evidence there is something happening. And then we'll 23 request that to be investigated further.

24 BY MR. TROUT:

25 Okay. But I'll have it.

1 BY MR. STUDART:

2 And I would ask not to get the Greenville News too
3 involved. Personally I don't want to be called. You know,
4 enough people call me at home already. I don't know how 5 they get my name.

6 BY MR. TROUT:

7 Oh, really? I mean, like I have no idea. I have no idea.
8 You know, I haven't said a word to nobody. And I didn't 9 want to. It's been hard biting my lip for the last two or 10 three council meetings, because I didn't want to, you know,
11 get anything stirred up until ---

12 BY MR. STUDART:

13 And if the Council is not being effective things need to be 14 changed. And I know there is -- there was in the -- I read
15 them in the -- I think it was the Greenville Magazine that 16 you guys can't even agree that you disagree.

17 BY MR. TROUT:

18 The -- oh, it's ---

19 BY MR. STUDART:

20 There was an article on that. And so I don't know what the 21 issues are. And just bring everything in and we'll go from 22 there.

23 BY MR. TROUT:

24 Okay. I will do that. And ---

25 BY MR. STUDART:

1 I appreciate you being persistent with that. There are not
2 very many people to be sitting out there, two, three months
3 in a row trying to get attention ---

4 BY MR. TROUT:

5 Well ---

6 BY MR. STUDART:

7 --- of the grand jury. Because this is not the proper
8 process. But hey, that's the only thing you've got, that's 9 what you've got to use.

10 BY MR. TROUT:

11 That's right. But you know, the solicitor -- now here it
12 is. If it's public money he's got -- he has got to 13 prosecute. That's the law if it's public money. And all
14 this is public money. So you know, he might try to, you 15 know, blow it off and everything else. But I'm just 16 telling you, you know, it's on the books.

17 BY MR. STUDART:

18 There is a few things that I was interested. I heard about 19 -- was it road systems?

20 BY MR. TROUT:

21 Right.

22 BY MR. STUDART:

23 It was the prison system?

24 BY MR. TROUT:

25 Right.

1 BY MR. STUDART:

2 And pretty much that was it. I heard different things
3 about the school systems. But I mean, I don't know enough
4 about it, you know. And ---

5 BY MR. TROUT:

6 Well, the other thing -- and this is a big thing here too.
7 You know why he started getting close to the money with the 8 detention center? They had this girl file a complaint on 9 me. And then they spent tens of thousands of dollars of 10 this high priced lawyer from Columbia to come up here and 11 interview all the guards and -- every one of them. And you
12 know they wanted to know did Tony approach you? Has Tony 13 asked you anything? And that's all, you know, the 14 questions was. And then she came to me and I said, I don't 15 know what you're talking about. I said, I don't call these 16 people. They call me when they got a problem. But anyway,
17 their -- they got it -- you know -- and they -- you know,
18 now the girl's ready to say what really happened. You
19 know, that she was forced to do it if -- and that was the 20 only way they was going to pay her medical bills. And 21 that's misconduct in office from Joe Cornell and Daugherty,
22 one side down the other. And I even got witnesses that -- 23 you know, that where she told another attorney exactly what 24 happened. And I've got, you know, statements and 25 everything. And I even had them, you know, printed out.

1 You know, I sent them off to have the recordings printed.

2 BY MR. STUDART:

3 Okay.

4 BY MR. TROUT:

5 So it would be easy reading. And -- but you know, this is 6 -- that's the big thing that was just -- kept me in total
7 turmoil. And I have, you know, recordings of her attorney
8 calling me at home and telling me that, hey, this is a
9 setup. You know, she told me it was a setup. And it --
10 Cornell's behind it. So, you know, you've got all this 11 stuff here. And this is a big thing, this, you know,
12 misconduct in office. Because, you know, he's been -- I
13 know he spent over 50 -- I would say at least $100,000,
14 because she worked steadily from February to March, April, 15 May. And so you can imagine how much, you know, that's 16 costing the taxpayers.

17 BY MR. STUDART:

18 Let me ask you a question. This is probably unrelated to 19 this. I -- there is a lot of people that I know that were 20 opposing on Pelham road the Wal-Mart being built.

21 BY MR. TROUT:

22 Uh-huh (affirmative response).

23 BY MR. STUDART:

24 Do you know, was any malice in that in anywhere? Because I
25 know that they try to -- people got told that hey, if you

1 pursue this you're going to get sued. Everybody dropped
2 the case. I've heard this from different people that they
3 thought there was malice behind.

4 BY MR. TROUT:

5 On that deal there ---

6 BY MR. STUDART:

7 Do you know what I'm talking about?

9 Okay. The Wal-Mart.

10 BY MR. STUDART:

11 Correct.

12 BY MR. TROUT:

13 Okay. On Pelham Road. Okay. See, on Wal-Mart their deal
14 was they had already, you know, got all the stuff they 15 needed. You know, the permits, everything. And they had 16 already, you know, started paying the planners and 17 everybody else. So, you know, it's kind of hard to stop
18 that when they already had it all.

19 BY MR. STUDART:

20 But you don't -- County Council was not under pressure
21 because of special interests to make that happen?

22 BY MR. TROUT:

23 Oh Lord, yeah. You know, our biggest pressure is Butch
24 Kirven. I mean, you know, he meets with these people here
25 and he, you know, -- and then he tells his people, you

1 know, how to vote. And I'm thinking like what in the 2 world, they need to wake up. But when we had that vote --
3 and I got this on tape when it all -- they had that vote on 4 the cemetery.

5 BY MR. STUDART:

6 Okay.

7 BY MR. TROUT:

8 All right. Okay. They had enough people, enough council
9 people that voted it in. But Butch said no, not -- you
10 know, he ruled that he didn't hear enough people saying
11 aye. And he said, no, it failed. And then the Council
12 Member says, let's have a role call vote. And he said, no.
13 You know, where they call your name?

15 Yes. Yeah.

16 BY MR. TROUT:

17 And that was totally wrong. But anyway, I mean, I was 18 against it anyway.

19 BY MR. STUDART:

20 Could you bring it up? I just want some examples of what's 21 going on so we can get things straightened out.

22 BY MR. TROUT:

23 Well, okay. I mean, like I can bring up this stuff. Y'all
24 can ask me questions all day long and I'll tell you
25 exactly, you know, how the ball is played. I mean, when I

1 was elected, you know, it was a honeymoon at first. And 2 then one day they brought me in, sit me down, and they
3 handed me this book. And they said, now this is the rules
4 and regulations. And it's kind of like, okay, this is how 5 it's going to work. And I just kind of laughed it off. I
6 said, well I'm here to change rules and regulations. And 7 it was kind of like, you know, they was telling me what to 8 do. And this is how it's done. And I have fought that 9 tooth and nail.

10 BY MR. STUDART:

11 It's just like me. I was asked to do a job, and then I
12 told the judge, and I said, if I'm going to do this I'm 13 going to do this right. And ---

14 BY MR. TROUT:

15 Well, and I have to keep telling them that I work for 16 23,000 people over in my district. I do not work for the 17 Council or for the hired help.

18 BY MR. STUDART:

19 I know there is a lot of people here that hey, we don't 20 want this. Well, how can it be happening? And the County
21 Council voted to let it go through.

22 BY MR. TROUT:

23 And ---

24 BY MR. STUDART:

25 I mean, something's wrong with this picture. You know, how

1 can you have this large number of people that do not want
2 this and that go through. You know, something is messed
3 up.

4 BY MR. TROUT:

5 They allow the staff members -- I mean, like I'll be trying 6 to pass an ordinance and the staff members will come up and 7 fight it. And I'm thinking like, look, you know, y'all sit 8 over there and if we rattle your cage you can talk. But 9 this is between the Council Members. This is not between,
10 you know, the Council and the staff.

11 BY MR. STUDART:

12 Okay.

13 BY MR. TROUT:

14 And the big thing that's been going on is Butch letting the 15 staff introduce ordinances. And I told them flat out twice
16 now that -- you know, I gave them a copy of the law. That 17 you know, if they're a citizen they have to have ten 18 percent of the population of Greenville before they can 19 introduce an ordinance. And but, you know, they just don't 20 do that. They say, oh, go ahead. And what they do, and 21 why they do that is like when they try to pass that $15.00
22 business fee?

23 BY MR. STUDART:

24 Uh-huh (affirmative response).

25 BY MR. TROUT:

1 Okay. They had, you know, the staff to do it. And that
2 way if it ever comes back, you know, it's hard to find out,
3 you know, who tried to raise those taxes. So that's how 4 they play their little game.

5 BY MR. STUDART:

6 Well ---

7 BY MR. TROUT:

8 But ---

9 BY MR. STUDART:

10 Anyway, I've got to run back to a meeting.

11 BY MR. TROUT:

12 All right.

13 BY MR. STUDART:

14 I just stepped out for a second to give you a call to let 15 you know what -- that's why I tried to call last night.
16 Just to let you know that you're going to get a subpoena
17 this morning.

18 BY MR. TROUT:

19 Yeah. You know, it's still kind of -- you know, when you
20 have a deputy at your door at 8:00 o'clock in the morning
21 you don't really need no coffee to wake up.

22 BY MR. STUDART:

23 I know that. But anyway, so I'll look forward to seeing 24 you next week. And ---

25 BY MR. TROUT:

1 And you call me if any time between now and then. Is it
2 okay if I call you?

3 BY MR. STUDART:

4 Yeah, sure. Sure. There's no problem. I just don't want
5 -- I mean, to be honest I can't be exposing myself. You
6 know, I don't want Butch to know that I was talking to you.

7 BY MR. TROUT:

8 Right. Okay. Okay. Because if I've got a, you know,
9 question or something. But I'll have it all in black and 10 white, and I'll have 18 copies. And it will be nicely
11 done.

12 BY MR. STUDART:

13 Because I mean, again, all we can do is indict people. You 14 know, if we think there's two or three people that need to 15 be indicted, investigated we'll do that.

16 BY MR. TROUT:

17 Okay. Well, it's up to y'all, but I'm going to give you
18 everything.

19 BY MR. STUDART:

20 Okay. Thank you so much.

21 BY MR. TROUT:

22 All right. Listen, you take care. And thank you. Okay?

23 BY MR. STUDART:

24 Okay. I appreciate it. Thank you.

25 BY MR. TROUT:

1 All right, buddy. Bye-bye.

2 BY MR. STUDART:

3 Bye.

1 BY MR. TROUT:

2 Hello?

3 BY MR. STUDART:

4 Hello. Is this Mr. Trout?

5 BY MR. TROUT:

6 Uh-huh (affirmative response).

7 BY MR. STUDART:

8 Yes, this is Ricardo Studart.

9 BY MR. TROUT:

10 How are you doing?

11 BY MR. STUDART:

12 How are you?

13 BY MR. TROUT:

14 Good.

15 BY MR. STUDART:

16 I received the letter today.

17 BY MR. TROUT:

18 Right.

19 BY MR. STUDART:

20 Because the grand jury, he gave it to me.

21 BY MR. TROUT:

22 Right.

23 BY MR. STUDART:

24 And I just want to talk to you about that. Do you have a
25 second?

1 BY MR. TROUT:

2 Sure.

3 BY MR. STUART:

4 I don't think I ever met you there, but I think I passed
5 you last month.

6 BY MR. TROUT:

7 May have.

8 BY MR. STUART:

9 I keep seeing you over there, so I was asking what is he
10 doing out there, and I was told that you had given a letter
11 to one of the ladies there, and she gave it back to the 12 judge.

13 BY MR. TROUT:

14 Right.

15 BY MR. STUART:

16 You know, so I had never seen the letter. But this fellow
17 gave that to me today. And I was just trying to understand
18 exactly what this is. Apparently there's this Ms. Theresa
19 Kizer. She's handling funds improperly.

20 BY MR. TROUT:

21 Right.

22 BY MR. STUART:

23 According to your letter here. And ---

24 BY MR. TROUT:

25 Oh, this just -- this just the very tip of the iceberg.

1 BY MR. STUDART:

2 This is what I was wondering if that's what it is, because
3 the amount of money that you're talking about, somebody
4 charging -- I have employees in my company that a lot of 5 times -- I have company credit cards that I give them, but 6 they prefer using their own personal credit cards because 7 they receive, you know, frequent flyer miles.

8 BY MR. TROUT:

9 Yeah.

10 BY MR. STUDART:

11 You know, so I was wondering, why would you go through so
12 much trouble for, you know, a $1,500 -- you know, a $6,000
13 charge when potentially there's a lot of money in all the 14 different county projects that's out there?

15 BY MR. TROUT:

16 I'm going to tell you -- I'll tell you. First off, the 17 road is the big problem. I think we spent about 11 million
18 dollars on the road and only 5.2 went to the road.

19 BY MR. STUDART:

20 Okay.

21 BY MR. TROUT:

22 Okay? Everything else went to kind of like somebody's
23 pockets, here and there and everywhere. So you know, I've 24 got that type of documentation. But I didn't want to ---

25 BY MR. STUDART:

1 Bring it all out.

2 BY MR. TROUT:

3 Bring it all out.

4 BY MR. STUDART:

5 There's a lot of -- in the county seat there's a lot of 6 important people sitting on that.

7 BY MR. TROUT:

8 True.

9 BY MR. STUDART:

10 And I just ---

11 BY MR. TROUT:

12 And ---

13 BY MR. STUDART:

14 Well, that's what I wanted to find out. If we're talking 15 about just $6,000 or there's more behind that?

16 BY MR. TROUT:

17 Oh, a whole lot more. And if I can take her out and just 18 to kind of like, hey, you know, this is wrong. You cannot 19 -- and it is -- you know, her using that money to buy gift
20 certificates for her friends, that's what ---

21 BY MR. STUDART:

22 Obviously that's not right.

23 BY MR. TROUT:

24 No. You can't do that.

25 BY MR. STUDART:

1 Wouldn't that be the auditor or the treasurer for the 2 County Council to investigate that?

3 BY MR. TROUT:

4 They won't do it. Won't do it.

5 BY MR. STUDART:

6 They refuse to do ---

7 BY MR. TROUT:

8 Yeah.

9 BY MR. STUDART:

10 I can see that you requested in 2005. I looked online and 11 see you requested a financial compliance audit, and her
12 name's there as one of the people signing the audit.

13 BY MR. TROUT:

14 Uh-huh (affirmative response). But she ---

15 BY MR. STUDART:

16 And so -- and there's, you know, the auditor Scott Chase
17 and, you know, I guess -- you know, I guess his name is 18 Angelo Roach, the financial manager?

19 BY MR. TROUT:

20 Okay.

21 BY MR. STUDART:

22 Have you talked to them?

23 BY MR. TROUT:

24 No. No. See, you have to understand, she is everybody's 25 gopher on the council. Okay?

1 BY MR. STUDART:

2 Okay.

3 BY MR. TROUT:

4 All right. And she's like oh, honey this. How are you
5 today? And, you know, I came on board and it's kind of 6 like, well, you know, I'm married. Don't talk -- you know,
7 I don't want to hear that crap.

8 BY MR. STUDART:

9 I understand.

10 BY MR. TROUT:

11 So I just moved on. And then when I got word that -- you
12 know, what she was doing then I asked to see her -- you
13 know, her records. And that's when I found out there was 14 over $1,000 that she had spent on gift certificates to her 15 friends.

16 BY MR. STUDART:

17 Okay.

18 BY MR. TROUT:

19 And it's not like she said, oh they're rewards to my 20 employees. Well, the woman only has two employees. Okay?

21 BY MR. STUDART:

22 Okay.

23 BY MR. TROUT:

24 I found out that she was giving them to people on the other
25 side of County Square.

1 BY MR. STUDART:

2 Okay.

3 BY MR. TROUT:

4 People that was doing her favors, and she'd slide them some 5 of those doggone gift certificates. But that's where that
6 stands. And the reason I put that in there, I said, well
7 this -- this right here is a simple one. This is like a
8 slam dunk. You know?

9 BY MR. STUDART:

10 Okay.

11 BY MR. TROUT:

12 All right. And what I really want is that road program to 13 -- you know, to fall underneath y'all. And I think that 14 would be what you -- you know, that's what y'all need to be 15 looking at.

16 BY MR. STUDART:

17 Okay. Because this is -- I met with two or three of the 18 grand jurors. We talked about that, because not all of 19 them are wanting to be involved.

20 BY MR. TROUT:

21 Uh-huh (affirmative response).

22 BY MR. STUDART:

23 Looking into this. But I told them I'm sure this is just 24 like a -- they just investigate, and then there's a lot
25 more behind it, but he doesn't want to bring it out.

1 BY MR. TROUT:

2 And I mean, I've got pictures. I've got roads where they
3 said that, you know, they've paved. And then I went back
4 behind them and they never paved. Or they said, you know,
5 the road was -- you know, they paved 2,500 feet of road and 6 come to find out it was only 15 feet of road, but we went 7 ahead and paid them anyway. And it's just -- I mean, it's 8 just unreal.

9 BY MR. STUDART:

10 Now, is that something that should be brought to the 11 Attorney General?

12 BY MR. TROUT:

13 I try.

14 BY MR. STUDART:

15 Had any ---

16 BY MR. TROUT:

17 I have tried.

18 BY MR. STUDART:

19 And he didn't -- he was not interested?

20 BY MR. TROUT:

21 No, not interested.

22 BY MR. STUDART:

23 What's going on here?

24 BY MR. TROUT:

25 I'm going to tell you, because it's so -- because the guy

1 that is doing this, okay, he's a big contributor.

2 BY MR. STUDART:

3 Okay.

4 BY MR. TROUT:

5 Big contributor. Matter of fact, he used to be on County
6 Council. But he is definitely into politics. And that was 7 the reason why that, you know, everybody kind of shunned
8 away from it.

9 BY MR. STUDART:

10 Okay. That seems like a lot of people did not want to talk
11 about this. They're just avoiding the -- you know,
12 avoiding you there.

13 BY MR. TROUT:

14 I know.

15 BY MR. STUDART:

16 And last time I was not happy when they returned your 17 letter. I told them I wanted to see the letter. Why did
18 you turn it to the judge?

19 BY MR. TROUT:

20 Yeah. But like I said, that's just -- if I can get that 21 little thing right there through then Katie bar the door.

22 BY MR. STUDART:

23 But this is -- I mean, I'm afraid this is too small and 24 they're not going to -- they're going to say, hey, he's 25 just upset at her. They just don't like each other for

1 whatever reason. And I just ---

2 BY MR. TROUT:

3 And that gives her a right to steal over ---

4 BY MR. STUDART:

5 --- versus something big that we can say, hey, there's some 6 big issues here that we need to investigate. But for me to 7 go there and say, hey, there's $6,000 here. Let's invest
8 resources to investigate this.

9 BY MR. TROUT:

10 I mean, it's all -- I've got all the, you know, pertinent
11 copies of her files and everything.

12 BY MR. STUDART:

13 Okay.

14 BY MR. TROUT:

15 You know, I could, you know, give that to you and, you know
16 -- and you could have everything that you wanted,
17 everything that you needed.

18 BY MR. STUDART:

19 Well, what can we do? I mean, you know the grand jury, we 20 serve for a year, right?

21 BY MR. TROUT:

22 Yeah. 18 months.

23 BY MR. STUDART:

24 And what, you know, can we do? You know, if I say, let's 25 -- you know, we can vote to investigate this. Who do we

1 approach for that? Who do we ask?

2 BY MR. TROUT:

3 You tell the judge. You tell the judge that we are --
4 we're investigating this.

5 BY MR. STUDART:

6 Okay.

7 BY MR. TROUT:

8 You know, don't -- believe me. Don't tell the judge can 9 we. You tell the judge, we are going to investigate this.

10 BY MR. STUDART:

11 Yeah. Some of the judges, they told us, you guys can 12 investigate whatever you want. But I'm not certain how --
13 you know, because this looks like there's a lot of people
14 involved in this. I mean, I just look at the list. I 15 mean, I'm not saying that people in the county seat is 16 involved with this. But potentially there's going to be a
17 lot of people that not want any kind of scandal.

18 BY MR. TROUT:

19 Well, I got another one that just cropped up. And that's 20 half a million dollars a year. They're ripping off -- and 21 that was -- I wrote an editorial in the paper. And matter
22 of fact, it's on my web page right now.

23 BY MR. STUDART:

24 Okay.

25 BY MR. TROUT:

1 If you go to my web page, and it's the very last one --
2 it's the very first one.

3 BY MR. STUDART:

4 Okay.

5 BY MR. TROUT:

6 And you'll see where they have ripped off to the tune of 7 half a million dollars by charging -- and they're not
8 charging the inmates. They're charging the inmates'
9 families. And you know, why -- the inmates' families are 10 already having it rough. Okay? So -- but they're charging 11 them ungodly, ungodly prices. And but please read that.

12 BY MR. STUDART:

13 I'm going to read your -- I mean, I've seen your website.
14 I'll look at it and ---

15 BY MR. TROUT:

16 At www.tonytrout.com.

17 BY MR. STUDART:

18 I'll look at it and then I -- we have a meeting next week,
19 but I'm not going to be there. But I'll be there in the 20 next meeting (inaudible) from now.

21 BY MR. TROUT:

22 Well see, and by that time there, you know, I'll have this 23 ready for the roads.

24 BY MR. STUDART:

25 Okay. I think the next meeting -- I don't have my schedule

1 with me, but it's probably about two -- there's no reason
2 for you to go to the next meeting because of ---

3 BY MR. TROUT:

4 Well, I -- you know, I done got them all. I done -- you
5 know. Well, that's ---

6 BY MR. STUDART:

7 I say the one after. I'll bring this stuff in, and I'll 8 talk to the grand jury about that and, you know.

9 BY MR. TROUT:

10 Okay.

11 BY MR. STUDART:

12 But I tell you, Mr. Trout, I got a small business in town, 13 a company called Synesis International. We do a lot of 14 business with BMW and different, you know ---

15 BY MR. TROUT:

16 Right.

17 BY MR. STUDART:

18 --- manufacturing companies. And I don't want to do
19 anything that's going to have people in the whole county
20 council, you know, pissed off at me, and certainly my taxes
21 going up.

22 BY MR. TROUT:

23 Let me tell you what. No, that's not how it works.
24 Politicians are the scarest people. Once they find out
25 one of their cohorts is going down they lose track of them

1 real quick.

2 BY MR. STUDART:

3 Okay.

4 BY MR. TROUT:

5 You remember -- I mean, if you watch that, you know, on TV,
6 anytime. Anytime that, you know, they were buzzing buddies
7 one day. And the next day when they got caught and their 8 hand in the till, you know, you can't find them nowhere.

9 So ---

10 BY MR. STUDART:

11 Because that's one of the comments some of the guys made
12 today. I had lunch with four of the -- and they said, hey, 13 I got a business. And, you know, I don't want to lose what 14 I have, because certainly I got all these people on my back
15 here. But I will ---

16 BY MR. TROUT:

17 But that's how that works.

18 BY MR. STUDART:

19 I'm going to look into your website, and I'm going to bring 20 the information to the next meeting.

21 BY MR. TROUT:

22 Okay.

23 BY MR. STUDART:

24 And I guess I'll ---

25 BY MR. TROUT:

1 And ---

2 BY MR. STUDART:

3 It's the road program that we need to investigate; right?

4 BY MR. TROUT:

5 Absolutely. That's the millions of dollars.

6 BY MR. STUDART:

7 Okay. I'll -- I mean, I just -- somebody just told me
8 there was photocopies bought for the school systems, 2
9 million dollars, and we got stuff that's no good. So I ---

10 BY MR. TROUT:

11 I know.

12 BY MR. STUDART:

13 I don't know how people do stuff like that.

14 BY MR. TROUT:

15 Tell me you want to investigate it.

16 BY MR. STUDART:

17 Yeah. I will bring it up.

18 BY MR. TROUT:

19 That's all you got to do, is just vote on in, investigate
20 it, and say we're going to rock and roll. And see, that's 21 going to really -- now see, that upsets the solicitor
22 because he expects y'all to be like little monkeys. Little 23 rubber ---

24 BY MR. STUDART:

25 Yes. I told the grand jurors, because there's half of them

1 there that just want to -- whatever they ask.

2 BY MR. TROUT:

3 Yeah.

4 BY MR. STUDART:

5 And they just do it. And that just -- I've been already
6 causing a lot of trouble there because I've been asking a
7 lot of -- too many questions.

8 BY MR. TROUT:

9 And they don't want you asking questions. They want you to 10 sign your name and shut up.

11 BY MR. STUDART:

12 Sign it and move on. And I know that. And I'm from 13 Brazil. I was born in Brazil. I've been here since high 14 school, and it's a long, long time ago.

15 BY MR. TROUT:

16 Uh-huh (affirmative response).

17 BY MR. STUDART:

18 And I've seen what's -- you know, you know, I've seen
19 corruption and all kinds of stuff over there that -- that's 20 one of the reason why, you know, I'm here.

21 BY MR. TROUT:

22 Well ---

23 BY MR. STUDART:

24 You know, and ---

25 BY MR. TROUT:

1 You read some of my articles. You can just go through
2 there. And you'll read some of them. And I mean, there's
3 some more things. And there's some -- a lot of stuff there
4 is about the roads too. You can kind of -- you know, I can
5 kind of prime you up on that one. But y'all need facts,
6 figures, and all that. And I've got all that stuff
7 available too.

8 BY MR. STUDART:

9 Okay.

10 BY MR. TROUT:

11 It's just, you know, getting them to you.

12 BY MR. STUDART:

13 And if I will -- I will send you an email with my 14 information if you could send it to me.

15 BY MR. TROUT:

16 The ---

17 BY MR. STUDART:

18 Well, what would the best approach to this? Just to bring 19 it up first and then think we have information or ---

20 BY MR. TROUT:

21 Or you have the information.

22 BY MR. STUDART:

23 Is that posted on your website?

24 BY MR. TROUT:

25 Some of it is. But you know, the total documentation and

1 all that is not. But you know, look at that and, you know,
2 and think about it. And you know, call around, talk to
3 your guys and, you know, give me a call back the next
4 couple days.

5 BY MR. STUDART:

6 Now, I will not be seeing anybody from the grand jury for 7 two weeks.

8 BY MR. TROUT:

9 Okay.

10 BY MR. STUDART:

11 Yeah, we only meet twice a month.

12 BY MR. TROUT:

13 Okay. All right. Just let me know then and give me a call 14 back.

15 BY MR. STUDART:

16 I will share what you have, and I'll talk about the road
17 program, and then I'll see if we can get some votes to look 18 into it.

19 BY MR. TROUT:

20 Okay. Well, call me back then.

21 BY MR. STUDART:

22 Okay. Thank you.

23 BY MR. TROUT:

24 All right. Take care.

25 BY MR. STUDART:

1 Take care.

2 BY MR. TROUT:

3 Bye bye.

4 BY MR. STUDART:

5 Bye.
