MOTION TO STAY AND CONTINUANCE REQUEST AND RELIEF FROM JUDGEMENT

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
In The Court of Appeals
[In The Circuit Court]

FAIRFIELD COUNTY
Court of Common Pleas

Robert Hood, Circuit Court Judge

Case No: 2025-001231

Case No: 2025CV2010100128

Alisha Davis

Respondent,

v.

Latausha Vanderhall

Appellate,

MOTION TO STAY AND
CONTINUANCE REQUEST AND RELIEF FROM JUDGEMENT

I, Latausha Vanderhall by and through respectfully moves this court for a Motion to Stay and Continuance of 60 days on the matters of the Writ Of Ejectment issued on July 28, 2025 and a Relief Of Judgement on the Notice To Quit from March 14, 2025 case number 2025CV2010100128 . I am requesting a Motion to Stay because I am obtaining the surety bond and it is being accepted and I am seeking a continuance to seek legal counsel and to give my appointed counsel time to be notified of all facts of the case. I am also asking the courts to assist in appointing me legal counsel due to being indigent and unable to afford counsel. I am sure that the appeal I am seeking from this court will be ruled in my favor and my claims are not frivolous. Due to the matter of the Notice To Quit case number 2025CV2010100128 I am asking for a Relief of Judgement. In 2021 Respondent Alisha Davis filed a Notice To Quit that was dismissed due to boundaries and titles being in dispute and the Magistrate Court not having jurisdiction pursuant to SS22-3-20 and there has not been any changes or a survey done to the property which I am a legal heir to the properties or no change in ownership since the dismissal of the case in 2021 and by law the judgement for the Notice to Quit in March 14, 2025 should not have no affect due to the Magistrate Court having no jurisdiction. My 14 amendment, civil and constitutional rights have been violated repeatedly. I am attaching all of my documents showing my ownership and no changes since the case was dismissed in 2021.

Respectfully
