SC Court of Appeals

Notice is hereby given that Patrick Strozier # 119519 appeals the final decision of the South Carolina Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services dated and received on _____, a copy of which is attached. In accordance with Rule 59(B) of the Rules of Procedure for the South Carolina Administrative Law Court (SCALC Rules) please provide a brief factual basis for each expressly and specifically asserted constitutional violation:

That Appellant/Movant appeared before the South Carolina Department of Probation, Parole, and Pardon Services on or about January of 1995. Pursuant to 324-21-645 Appellant/Movant was improperly denied parole before a board of six out of seven parole board members. Whereby one of the parole ~~board~~ members told Appellant/Movant his request for parole had been denied because Appellant/Movant had received only four votes in his favor out of the six members voting that day. Appellant/Movant had received four out of six possible votes in favor of parole. Therefore Appellant/Movant met the requirements of 324-21-645.

SC Court of Appeals

Patrick Strozies, #19519

Movant,

vs.

South Carolina Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services,

Respondent.

COMPLAINT

On or about January of 1995, Movant was improperly denied parole before a board of six out of seven parole board members. One of the parole members told Movant that his request for parole had been denied because he had received only four votes in his favor out of the six members voting that day. Movant had received four out of six possible votes in favor of parole and therefore, Movant met the requirements of section 24-21-645.

Movant asks this court for a Barton investigation, 404 S.C. 395, 745 S.E. 2d 110 (2013), pursuant to Rose v. South Carolina Dept. of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services (PPPS), 429 S.C. 136, 838 S.E. 2d 505 (2020), to require (PPPS) to carry out the result of the vote the parole board already made.

Respectfully submitted,

Patrick Steyer
