In Re: Appellate Case No. 2012-213689

Dear Mr. Baxter,

Please find enclosed a letter I received from The Court of Appeals. Also, find enclosed a copy of a letter that I sent to the Court of Appeals in regards to appealable issues in your case. I have informed them on several occasions that I did not file the appeal. I notified them that you filed on your own behalf and that I believed that you were entitled to the services of Appellant Defense. You will need to send a letter to the Court of Appeals within 20 days of this letter informing them of the issues that you believe should be reviewed on appeal. If you fail to send them the required letter within 20 days, your appeal will be dismissed. Therefore, it is imperative that you write them as soon as possible. If you have the ability to send it certified, I would advise doing so. If you have any other questions please let me know.

Sincerely,

Attorney Philip W. Jamieson

Re: The State of South Carolina vs. Lentavis Baxter
Case No.: 2012-213689

Ms. Allen:

As I have previously written to the Court, Mr. Baxter filed this Notice of Appeal on his own behalf and not through my office. However, as required by the Appellate Court Rules 203(d)(B)(iv). I am aware of no issues, which occurred at the guilty plea, which would be the subject of an appeal.

Sincerely,

Philip W. Jamieson
