

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

George Brisbon, Appellant,

v.

South Carolina Criminal Justice Academy, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2024-001562

---

ORDER

---

On June 18, 2025, Respondent moved to amend the record on appeal, arguing the record on appeal did not comply with Rule 210 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules because it included matter not designated and failed to include designated matter. Appellant did not file a return. After careful consideration, we construe Respondents' motion to amend the record on appeal as a motion to strike the record on appeal, and we grant the motion to strike. The record on appeal is stricken. Within twenty days of the date of this order Appellant shall serve and file an amended record on appeal that contains only matter designated by the parties, and it shall be in compliance with Rule 210 or the appeal will be dismissed. See Rule 210(c) ("The Record on Appeal shall include all matter designated to be included by any party under Rule 209 and shall comply with the requirements of Rule 267. The Record shall not, however, include matter which was not presented to the lower court or tribunal. Matter contained in the Record on Appeal shall be arranged in the following order: the title page, index, orders, judgments, decrees, decisions, pleadings, transcript, charges, and exhibits and other materials or documents. Each page of the Record on Appeal shall be numbered consecutively beginning with the index."). Upon receipt of the record on appeal, Respondent shall have twenty days in which to file Respondents' final brief.
