NATURE OF EMERGENCY PROCEEDINGS

A. Constitutional Crisis Requiring Immediate Relief

These proceedings arise from unprecedented judicial overreach where the circuit court has:

- Bound a religious organization that was never named as a party or served with process
- Directed internal church governance in violation of First Amendment protections
- Denied post-trial relief without hearing despite constitutional issues presented

B. Time-Sensitive Constitutional Violations

Ongoing harm requiring emergency intervention:

- Daily violation of church's First Amendment religious autonomy rights
- Continuing due process violations against non-party entity
- Judicial supervision of religious activities violating church-state separation
- Irreparable harm to constitutional principles growing worse with each day

C. Emergency Relief Requested

Immediate stay sought to prevent:

- Further constitutional violations pending appellate review
- Irreparable harm to religious freedom and church autonomy
- Enforcement of orders entered without jurisdiction or due process
- Precedent-setting governmental interference with religious organizations

REQUEST FOR EXPEDITED PROCESSING

A. Constitutional Urgency

Given the First Amendment and Due Process violations involved, I respectfully request:

1. Immediate docketing of the appeal and assignment of case number
2. Expedited consideration of emergency supersedeas petition
3. Priority scheduling for any oral argument on emergency motions
4. Prompt notification to all parties of filing and case assignment

B. Emergency Calendar Consideration

The constitutional nature of these violations warrants:

- Emergency calendar placement for supersedeas petition

- Expedited briefing schedule if additional briefing required
