Re: Teslenko v. Kocsis
Appellate Case No. 2024-001734

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

This letter confirms that today, on August 14, 2025, I served Respondent, via email and Federal Express Mail, with my Supplement to Motion to Exceed Page Limit filed yesterday. I am contemporaneously filing with the Court the Proof of Service for that supplement. The filing fee for the supplement is being sent via overnight delivery today and will arrive tomorrow.

My original Motion to Exceed Page Limit, filed July 28, 2025, was properly served with a Proof of Service at the time of filing and is fully ripe for adjudication regardless of the supplement's status. Without a formal ruling on this motion, as well as on my motion to amend designation, my ability to proceed is effectively prevented.

Requested Clarification

Because I have not yet received any reply to my August 11, 2025 letter requesting due date clarification, please advise on the following points related to my amended initial brief:

1. Whether the due date remains August 14, 2025, in light of my pending July 28 Motion to Exceed Page Limit and August 13 Supplement.
2. If the due date has been adjusted, please state the revised deadline.

Thank you for your attention to these matters.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: August 14, 2025

/s/ Olga Teslenko
