Hello, Emily

, I left you a message, we filed 2 motions today in the lower court in dorchester county. For the quiet title case, the motions we filed were Motion to enter default and motion to strike Dorchester county's late response. they haven't put them on the index docket yet. But when I was checking that I noticed on the other case, the one that's against Horton. Which is in the Appeals court that they change it to pending from appeal. Remember, they did it about two weeks ago, now they did it again.

If you could give us a call when you get a chance would be great, thanks a lot.

Attia and Lynne
