Order Granting
Defendants
Kevin Carter's and Richard Davis'
Motion to Dismiss
Filed September 19, 2018

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS

COUNTY OF CHESTER

CIVIL ACTION NO: 2018-CP-12-00117

Heidi Gersten, Ivanka Ayoub, Daniel
Hubbard,

Plaintiff,

ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANTS KEVIN
CARTER'S AND RICHARD DAVIS'

vs.

Kevin Carter, Richard Davis, Joseph
Tribovich, Nationwide Insurance Company,
Interinsurance Exchange of the Automobile
Club, John Ammendola, Trustguard Insurance
Company, SC Department of Public Safety,
Chevrolet, GMC, Unknown John Does,

Defendants.

This matter comes before the Court upon Defendants Kevin Carter's and Richard Davis' Motion to Dismiss and Motion to Strike or, in the Alternative, Motion to Sever. The Court held a hearing on this Motion and a number of other motions on September 5, 2018. For the reasons set forth below, Defendants Carter's and Davis' Motion is granted in part and denied in part.

PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

This action arises out of an automobile collision that took place on March 19, 2015 between a vehicle operated by Heidi Gersten and allegedly owned by Ivanka Ayoub and a vehicle operated and owned by Kevin Carter. Plaintiff Gersten originally filed a property damage arbitration claim on February 21, 2018 (hereinafter "Arbitration Action"). The claim named Kevin Carter, Richard Davis, Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company, Interinsurance of the Automobile Club, and Trustguard Insurance as defendants.

Gersten then created a “First Amended Claim for Property Damage Verified” (hereinafter “Amended Arbitration Complaint”) on or about March 2, 2018, however, she did not file the Amended Arbitration Complaint at that time. The Amended Arbitration Complaint added Gersten’s mother, Ivanka Ayoub, as a claimant and added Joseph Tirbovich and John Ammendola as additional defendants. Gersten and Ayoub never obtained an Amended Summons listing Ayoub as a claimant, and the Amended Arbitration Complaint was not filed until March 27, 2018.

On March 16, 2018, Gersten, Ayoub, and Daniel Hubbard filed the above-captioned case in Circuit Court purporting to seek recovery for injuries arising out of the same collision. In addition to the defendants named in the Amended Arbitration Complaint, the Plaintiffs named the South Carolina Department of Public Safety, Blackwell (sic), Chevrolet, GMC, and unknown John Doe defendants.

Kevin Carter, Richard Davis, and the other Defendants who have allegedly been served in the case filed motions to dismiss both cases.¹ Interinsurance Exchange sought to dismiss the Arbitration Action, in part, on the grounds that the arbitration panel lacked jurisdiction over some of the claims asserted in the Arbitration Action. On April 26, 2018, Judge Gibbons, acting as the Chief Administrative Judge for Chester County Circuit Court, entered an Order finding the claims asserted in the Arbitration Action were outside the scope of arbitration. Therefore, he transferred the Arbitration Action to the Common Pleas docket and consolidated the case with the Circuit Court action. (April 26, 2018 Form 4 Order). Because the cases have been consolidated, this Order will address the allegations set forth in the Circuit Court Complaint. However, the Court has reviewed all three Complaints, and the Court's ruling would be the same regardless of which pleading(s) were in effect.

This case was set for a hearing on the various pending motions for September 5, 2018. The case was also placed on the non-jury roster for a merits hearing for the same week. Plaintiff Heidi Gersten filed a motion for continuance. At the hearing, the defendants all consented to continuing the merits hearing of the case, but they requested that the motions be heard. Gersten consented to the Court proceeding with hearing the various motions.

LAW

Carter and Davis' Motion to Dismiss seeks the following relief:

- a) Dismissal of all claims asserted against Richard Davis;
- b) Dismissal of Daniel Hubbard's claims;
- c) Dismissal of Ivanka Ayoub's claims; and
- d) Dismissal of all causes of action asserted by Heidi Gersten with the exception of the negligence cause of action.²

The Court will address each item in turn.

A. All Causes of Action as to Defendant Richard Davis.

The Complaint only references Richard Davis in one paragraph, stating "The Defendants Kevin Carter and Richard Davis reside in Iredell County, North Carolina." (Compl. ¶ 2). The Complaint does not allege Richard Davis was involved in the automobile collision. Pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6), SCRCPP, a Complaint should be dismissed if it fails "to state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.” Rule 12(b)(6), SCRCP. The Complaint alleges no factual allegations against Defendant Richard Davis.³

² Carter and Davis also sought dismissal of the co-defendants. However, the co-defendants each moved on their own behalf for dismissal. Those motions were also heard at the September 5, 2018 hearing, and the Court will grant each of those motions in separate orders.

Moreover, Richard Davis is a citizen and resident of the State of North Carolina. The Complaint does not allege any actions that Richard Davis took in this State. Therefore, this Court lacks personal jurisdiction over Richard Davis pursuant to Rule 12(b)(2), SCRCP. For both of these reasons, the claims against Richard Davis are dismissed.

B. Daniel Hubbard’s claims.

Kevin Carter and Richard Davis moved to dismiss Daniel Hubbard’s claims on the ground that South Carolina does not recognize a cause of action for loss of a sibling’s consortium. However, Daniel Hubbard did not appear for the hearing on the Motion to Dismiss. Therefore, his claims are dismissed for failure to prosecute pursuant to Rule 41(b), SCRCP.⁴

C. Ivanka Ayoub’s claims.

Plaintiff Ayoub appears to have asserted a property damage claim in the Amended Arbitration Complaint and a cause of action for loss of consortium in the Circuit Court Complaint. Ayoub is Gersten’s mother. The Circuit Court Complaint does not allege Ayoub was personally

³ The Arbitration Action Complaint alleges Davis co-owned the vehicle operated by Carter. Even if that were true, co-ownership of a vehicle does not support a cause of action. See Fletcher v. Anderson, 27 Kan. App. 2d 276, 3 P. 3d 558, 567-68 (2000) (because “no action for negligent entrustment can occur where the person entrusting the vehicle lacked a superior or exclusive right of control over the vehicle,” a nonowner is not liable for returning car to owner); McGlothlin v. Municipality of Anchorage, 991 P.2d 1273, 1280 (Alaska 1999) (“doctrine of negligent entrustment requires that the defendant have a greater right of possession or control of the chattel than the person to whom he entrusts it”); De Blanc ex rel. De Blanc v. Jensen, 59 S.W.3d 373 (Tex. Ct. App. 2001) (“In order for the [Defendant] to be liable under a theory of negligent entrustment, we would have to conclude that it is negligent for a nonowner to return control of a vehicle to its owner. We decline to so hold.”).

involved in the accident, but it does allege she “suffered, among other things, loss of consortium.” (Compl. ¶ 103).

Our Supreme Court has refused to recognize a cause of action in tort for filial loss of consortium. See Doe v. Greenville County School Dist., 375 S.C. 63, 70, 651 S.E.2d 305, 308 (2007) (“Accordingly, in the absence of some action from the legislature, this Court has no authority upon which it could rely in finding that South Carolina law recognizes claims for loss of filial consortium.”).⁵ While South Carolina does recognize loss of spousal consortium, that cause of action was expressly recognized by the South Carolina General Assembly. See S.C. Code Ann. § 15-75-20. Our Supreme Court has held the absence of a similar statutory cause of action for filial loss of consortium indicates the General Assembly did not intend to recognize such causes of action. See Greenville County School Dist., 375 S.C. at 69, 651 S.E.2d at 308.

Because South Carolina does not recognize claims for loss of filial consortium, the causes of action asserted by Ayoub in the Circuit Court Complaint must be dismissed.

Carter and Davis also seek to dismiss the property damage claim asserted by Ayoub in the Arbitration Action on Rule 12(b)(8) grounds. Because the Arbitration Action has been consolidated with the Circuit Court action, the Court finds that motion is now moot. At the hearing, Carter and Davis also raised the statute of limitations as an additional ground for dismissal of the property damage claim. The Court finds that a ruling on the statute of limitations issue is premature at this time, but Defendant Carter may file a separate motion on that issue in the future.

⁵ See also Taylor v. Medenica, 324 S.C. 200, 479 S.E.2d 35 (1996) (declining to recognize loss of filial consortium claim of child relating to injury to parent); Kirkland v. Sam’s East, Inc., 411 F. Supp. 2d 639, 641 (D.S.C. 2005) (“South Carolina does not recognize a cause of action for filial loss of consortium”).

D. All Other Causes of Action asserted by Gersten with the Exception of Negligence.

The Complaint lists eighteen separate causes of action. With the exception of the negligence claim, these causes of action merely allege the legal elements of various other causes of action, and several of these causes of action fail to even allege the basic legal elements. Rule 8(a) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure states that a pleading setting forth a cause of action “shall contain . . . a short and plain statement of the facts showing the pleader is entitled to relief.” Rule 8(a), SCRCF. In reviewing a motion to dismiss pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6), the Court’s analysis is limited solely to the Complaint itself, and no other documents may be considered. See Woodell by Allen v. Marion School Dist. One, 307 S.C. 297, 298, 414 S.E.2d 794, 794 (Ct. App. 1992). Moreover, a “trial court must dismiss a claim pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, if the pleadings, when taken in the light most favorable to the plaintiff, fail to allege sufficient facts to constitute a cause of action.” Trancik v. USAA Ins. Co., 354 S.C. 549, 552, 581 S.E.2d 858, 860 (Ct. App. 2003).

Plaintiff must allege facts supporting each element of the causes of action asserted in the Complaint. She has failed to do so. Defendant Carter concedes the Complaint alleges sufficient facts to create a cause of action for negligence between Plaintiff Heidi Gersten and Defendant Kevin Carter. However, the Complaint alleges no facts that would support the other causes of action enumerated in the Complaint. Therefore, all causes of action with the exception of Gersten’s negligence claim will be dismissed pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6).

E. Carter and Davis’ other motions.

Carter and Davis also moved to dismiss the claims asserted against the various co-defendants or, in the alternative, to sever the causes asserted against those defendants. As noted above, the Court is granting the motions to dismiss the co-defendants via separate orders.

Therefore, Carter and Davis' motion to dismiss the co-defendants or, in the alternative, to sever is denied as moot.

In addition to moving to dismiss various claims asserted in the Complaint, Carter and Davis also moved to strike a number of paragraphs in the Complaints. Shortly before the hearing on the Defendants' various motions, Gersten apparently served an Amended Complaint on some of the defendants in the Circuit Court action. Counsel for Carter agreed at the hearing on this Motion that the Motion to Strike would need to be addressed after the Amended Complaint has been filed. Therefore, Carter's Motion to Strike is denied without prejudice and with leave to refile.

CONCLUSION

For the above-stated reasons, the Court finds Defendants Kevin Carter's and Richard Davis' Motions should be granted in part and denied in part. It is ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that:

- 1) All causes of action asserted against Richard Davis are dismissed pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6), SCRCP.
- 2) The causes of action asserted by Daniel Hubbard are dismissed pursuant to Rule 41(b), SCRCP for failure to prosecute.
- 3) Ivanka Ayoub's loss of consortium claim is dismissed pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6), SCRCP because South Carolina does not recognize a claim for filial loss of consortium.
- 4) All of the remaining causes of action against Kevin Carter with the exception of Heidi Gersten's negligence cause of action for personal injuries and property damage and Ivanka Ayoub's negligence cause of action for property damage are dismissed pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6), SCRCP.
- 5) Carter's Motion to Dismiss the property damage claim by Ivanka Ayoub is denied, but Carter may file a separate motion based on his statute of limitations argument at a later time.
- 6) Carter's Motion to Sever is denied as moot.
- 7) Carter's Motion to Strike is denied without prejudice and with leave to refile in light of the recently-served Amended Complaint.

8) Carter's and Davis' Motion to Dismiss pursuant to 12(b)(8) is denied as moot.

It is so ORDERED.

Defendants.

This matter comes before the Court upon Defendant Interinsurance Exchange of the Automobile Club's ("AAA") Motions to Dismiss, to Strike, and to change venue. The Court held a hearing on its and the other Defendants' motions on September 5, 2018. All served Defendant's appeared by and through their attorneys and Plaintiffs Gersten and Ayoub appeared pro se; Plaintiff Hubbard did not appear. For the reasons set forth below, Defendant AAA's principal motions are granted.

PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

This action arises out of an automobile collision that took place on March 19, 2015 between Ivanka Ayoub's vehicle operated by Heidi Gersten, and a vehicle both operated and owned by Kevin Carter. Plaintiff Gersten originally filed a property damage arbitration claim on February 21, 2018 (hereinafter "Arbitration Action"). The claim named Kevin Carter, Richard Davis, Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company, Interinsurance of the Automobile Club, and Trustguard Insurance as defendants.

Gersten then created a “First Amended Claim for Property Damage Verified” (hereinafter “Amended Arbitration Complaint”) on or about March 2, 2018, however, she did not then file the Amended Arbitration Complaint. The Trided Arbitration Complaint added Gersten’s mother, Ivanka Ayoub, as a claimant and added Joseph Tirbovich and John Ammendola as additional defendants. Gersten and Ayoub never obtained an Amended Summons listing Ayoub as a claimant, and the Amended Arbitration Complaint was not filed until March 27, 2018.

On March 16, 2018, Gersten, Ayoub, and Daniel Hubbard filed the above-captioned case in this court seeking recovery for injuries arising out of the collision. In addition to the defendants named in the Amended Arbitration Complaint, the Plaintiffs named the South Carolina Department of Public Safety, Blackwell (sic), Chevrolet, GMC, and unknown John Doe defendants.

Kevin Carter, Richard Davis, and the other Defendants who have allegedly been served in the case filed motions to dismiss both cases.¹ AAA sought to dismiss the Arbitration Action, in part, claiming the arbitration panel lacked jurisdiction over some of the claims asserted in the Arbitration Action. On April 26, 2018, Judge Gibbons, acting as the Chief Administrative Judge for Chester County Circuit Court, entered an Order finding the claims asserted in the Arbitration Action were outside the scope of arbitration. He transferred the Arbitration Action to the Common Pleas docket and consolidated the case with the Circuit Court action. (April 26, 2018 Form 4 Order). Because the cases have been consolidated, this Order will address the allegations set forth in the Circuit Court Complaint. However, the Court has reviewed all three Complaints, and the Court's ruling would be the same regardless which pleading(s) were in effect.

This case was set for hearing on the various pending motions for September 5, 2018. The case was also placed on the non-jury roster for a merits hearing for the same week. Plaintiff Heidi Gersten filed a motion for continuance. At the hearing, all defendants consented to continuing the merits hearing of the case but requested that the motions be heard. Gersten and Ayoub consented to proceeding with hearing the various motions.

LAW

AAA's Motion to Dismiss seeks the following relief:

- a) Dismissal of all claims asserted against it for failing to state facts constituting a cause of action,
- b) Dismissal for a lack of standing to pursue the claim asserted claims,
- c) Dismissal of Daniel Hubbard's claims,
- d) Dismissal of Ivanka Ayoub's claims,
- e) That certain specified allegations be stricken,
- f) Dismissal for lack of in personam jurisdiction, and a
- g) Change of Venue

The Court will address each item in turn.

A. All Causes of Action

The Complaint numbers eighteen separate causes of action. Except for the negligence claim, these causes of action merely allege the legal elements of various other causes of action, and some fail to even allege the basic legal elements.

Exactly four facts in its almost five score paragraphs are germane to AAA:

- At Paragraph 6, that AAA is a North Carolina Company,

- At 10, the collision occurred in Chester County,
- At 14, the date and time of the accident, and
- At 18, Gersten was insured for liability by AAA.

Rule 8(a) SCRCP states that a pleading setting forth a cause of action “shall contain . . . a short and plain statement of the facts showing the pleader is entitled to relief.” Rule 8(a), SCRCP. In reviewing a motion to dismiss pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6), the Court’s analysis is limited solely to the Complaint itself, and no other documents may be considered. See Woodell by Allen v. Marion School Dist. One, 307 S.C. 297, 298, 414 S.E.2d 794, 794 (Ct. App. 1992). Moreover, a “trial court must dismiss a claim pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, if the pleadings, when taken in the light most favorable to the plaintiff, fail to allege sufficient facts to constitute a cause of action.” Trancik v. USAA Ins. Co., 354 S.C. 549, 552, 581 S.E.2d 858, 860 (Ct. App. 2003).

These facts do not constitute any cause of action against AAA. They do not specify any acts of negligence, nor describe the essential allegations of fraud, nor any false statement, nor any deceitful act, nor any conduct at all entitling the Plaintiffs to relief of any kind. The facts simply do not constitute a cause of action against AAA, so the Complaint against it must be dismissed.

B. Standing

The Plaintiffs argue they have asserted a cause of action against AAA. To the extent they seek to assert third-party claims against such a liability insurer, they lack standing to do so. Kleckley v. Northwestern Nat. Cas. Co., 526 S.E.2d 218, 219 (S.C. 2000). In Kleckley, the Supreme Court held that third-party claimants have no standing to pursue a cause of action against a liability insurer. Alternatively, even if the court were to have held that facts constituting a cause of action had been stated and that one or more of the Plaintiffs could continue its suit against the AAA, that suit would have been severed from the negligence claim. Allowing the two causes of action to go forward together would present a honey pot of potential prejudice and inefficiency which this court would avoid. SCRCP, Rules 20 and 21.

C. Daniel Hubbard's claims.

AAA moved to dismiss Daniel Hubbard's claims because South Carolina does not recognize a cause of action for loss of a sibling's consortium. The attorney for AAA exhibited to the court a letter mailing notice of this hearing to Hubbard with notice to him that it intended to move for a dismissal if he did not appear.

Daniel Hubbard did not appear for the hearing on the Motion to Dismiss. Therefore, his claims are dismissed for failure to prosecute pursuant to Rule 41(b), SCRCP.²

D. Consortium claims.

Only Plaintiff Gersten claims to be an insured of the AAA. Ayoub and Hubbard are total strangers to the AAA, the AAA was not involved in the accident, and the only complaint they make are for maternal or filial loss of consortium, respectively. Plaintiff Ayoub, the mother of Plaintiff Gersten, was not involved in the accident but the Complaint alleges that she "suffers, among other things, loss of consortium." Plaintiff Hubbard, Gersten's brother, alleges he "was unable to work for a period and, accordingly, loss (sic) wages... ." He was not involved in the accident.

² Even had Hubbard appeared at the hearing, his claim would fail for the reasons set out below.

Our Supreme Court has refused to recognize a cause of action for maternal or filial loss of consortium. South Carolina does recognize loss of spousal consortium, but that cause of action was expressly created: SC Code Ann. 15-75-20. The Supreme Court has held that the absence of a similar statutory cause of action for other loss of consortia is persuasive evidence that the General Assembly did not intend to recognize any such causes of action.

In Taylor v. Medenica, this Court held that the determination of which relationships may give rise to a loss of consortium claim in South Carolina is one best left to the discretion of the legislature. 479 S.E.2d 35, 47 (S.C. 1996) (declining to recognize a cause of action for loss of parental consortium). The United States District Court for the District of South Carolina adopted the Taylor analysis in finding that South Carolina law did not provide a cause of action for loss of consortium of a child or for filial consortium. Kirkland v. Sam's East, Inc., 411 F.Supp. 2d 639, 641 (D.S.C. 2005). Today, we extend our Taylor analysis in holding that South Carolina law does not recognize claims for loss of filial consortium. Such rights did not exist under the common law, and the legislature has not provided such a right by statute.

Doe v. Greenville Cty. School District 651 S.E.2d 305, 308 (S.C. 2007)

The claims by Ayoub and Hubbard are hereby dismissed.

E. In Personam Jurisdiction

The Affidavit of Gail C. Louis, the Secretary of AAA, makes it clear that AAA does not have minimum contacts with South Carolina. Indeed, it has no contacts with South Carolina: no office, no business conducted, no insureds, no property, and no activity. Neither does the Complaint allege that AAA committed a tort within this state. Thus, the Complaint against AAA is dismissed because this court lacks personal jurisdiction.

F. Striking Allegations

In view of the other rulings made herein, this court need not reach, so it does not address the AAA motions made to strike various allegations. Such motions are thereby moot.

G. Change of Venue

Similarly this court need not reach, so it does not address, the AAA motion made to change the venue of the trial as it is also moot.

H. All Other Causes of Action asserted by Gersten

The existence of insurance is inadmissible in a tort suit. Rule 411 SCRE. Such mentions are highly prejudicial and there can be no doubt that reason and authority expressly forbid bringing into evidence or argument the fact that any defendant is protected by liability insurance. Hartford v. Carolina Glass Co., 75 S.E.2d 533, 541 (S.C. 1912); Landry v. Hilton Head Plantation Prop. Owners Ass'n, Inc., 452 S.E.2d 619, 622 (S.C. App. 1994); Norris v. Ferre, 432 S.E.2d 491, 493 (S.C. App. 1993) (“Furthermore, the Supreme Court has been meticulous in keeping the issue of insurance coverage away from the jury”). Since the existence of insurance is inadmissible, AAA must be stricken as a defendant and all allegations against it, to the extent there were any surviving, would have been stricken.

CONCLUSION

For the above-stated reasons, the Court finds AAA's Motions are granted in part and mooted in part. It is ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that:

- 1) All causes of action asserted against AAA are dismissed pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6), SCRCP.
- 2) All causes of action asserted against AAA are dismissed for lack of personal jurisdiction by this court,
- 3) The causes of action asserted by Daniel Hubbard are dismissed pursuant to Rule 41(b), SCRCP for failure to prosecute.
- 4) Ivanka Ayoub's & Danial Hubbard's loss of consortium claims are dismissed pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6), SCRCP because South Carolina does not recognize a claim for filial or maternal loss of consortium.
- 5) All causes of action against AAA are dismissed because it would not be permissible to try them with the claims against the negligence Defendants.
- 6) AAA's Motions to Strike are denied as moot.
- 7) AAA's Motion to Change Venue is denied as moot.

It is so ORDERED.

This matter came before the Court on a Motion to Dismiss filed by the South Carolina Department of Public Safety and Trooper Herbert Blackwell. Present at the hearing was Heidi Gersten and Ivanka Ayoub (mother of Ms. Gersten). Daniel Hubbard was not present at the hearing.

After hearing argument from the attorney for the Defendants South Carolina Department of Public Safety and Trooper Herbert Blackwell, and hearing the Plaintiffs' positions, the Court hereby grants South Carolina Department of Public Safety and Trooper Herbert Blackwell's Motion to Dismiss.

The Defendants South Carolina Department of Public Safety and Trooper Herbert Blackwell have moved to dismiss the Complaint on various grounds and between the time the Defendants South Carolina Department of Public Safety and Trooper Herbert Blackwell moved to dismiss the Complaint, Plaintiffs' filed an Amended Complaint. In regard to these Defendants, South Carolina Department of Public Safety and Trooper Herbert Blackwell, the Amended Complaint was filed timely; however, as was explained by the attorney for Defendants South Carolina Department of Public Safety and Trooper Herbert Blackwell, the motion to dismiss is applicable not only to the original Complaint, but also the Amended Complaint. From a review of both the Complaint and Amended Complaint, it appears that the Plaintiffs are alleging that there were some irregularities in the investigation and preparation of the accident report surrounding the accident involving the Plaintiffs and Kevin Carter on March 19, 2015.

The Defendants South Carolina Department of Public Safety and Trooper Herbert Blackwell have moved to dismiss Trooper Blackwell from the Complaint pursuant to the South Carolina Tort Claims Act, §15-78-30.

The Court finds that Trooper Blackwell was acting as a South Carolina Department of Public Safety Officer in regard to his investigation of the accident involving the Plaintiffs and Kevin Carter. For this reason, Trooper Blackwell is dismissed from this case. See §15-78-30, of the Code of Laws of the State of South Carolina, 1976 as amended.

As to the remaining grounds raised by Defendants South Carolina Department of Public Safety and Trooper Herbert Blackwell, it is clear from allegations in the Complaints, that the Plaintiffs have alleged that the South Carolina Department of Public Safety through Trooper Blackwell issued a Traffic Accident Report which was later amended by the South Carolina Multi-Disciplinary Accident Reconstruction Team (MAIT).

From a review of the Complaint and Amended Complaint, Plaintiffs have failed to establish any private right of action against the Defendant South Carolina Department of Public Safety for "an improper investigation". Generally, there is no common law duty to act; however, an affirmative legal duty may arise by statute, contractual relationship, status, property interest, or some other special circumstance. See, Rayfield v. South Carolina Dep't of Corrections, 297 S.C. 95, 105-06, 374 S.E.2d 910, 916 (Ct. App. 1998); see also, Jensen v. Anderson Cnty. Dep't of Soc. Servs., 304 S.C. 195, 199 403 S.E.2d 615, 617 (1991). While a duty may arise by virtue of statutory law, courts in South Carolina recognize what is known as the “public duty” rule. Rayfield, 297 S.C. 95, 104, 374 S.E.2d 910, 915; see also, Parker v. Brown, 195 S.C. 35, 10 S.E.2d 625 (1940) (Supreme Court adopting the public duty rule as the law in South Carolina). A statute establishing the specific “duties of a public office does not, without more, impose on the person holding that office a duty of care towards individual members of the public in the performance of those duties.” Rayfield, 297 S.C. 95, 105, 374 S.E.2d at 915-16; see also, Jensen v. Anderson Cnty. Dep't of Soc. Servs., 304 S.C. 195, 403 S.E.2d 615 (1991) (Under the rule, public officials are not liable to individuals in negligence as a result of discharging duties as owed to the public at large rather than to anyone individually). In this case the Department, through its officers, are required to investigate and report on motor vehicle accidents involving serious injuries. See, South Carolina Code Ann. §56-5-1270, 1976 as amended. For this reason any duty imposed on these Defendants would be a public duty and not give rise to a private right of action.

Further any injuries received by the Plaintiffs arose out of the automobile accident and are not the proximate cause of any action undertaken by the South Carolina Department of Public Safety in the investigation of the accident and the issuance of the Uniform Traffic Report in this matter.

Finally, any claims that the Uniform Traffic Report could or would be evidence in this case fails to recognize that under §56-5-1290, accident reports are not evidence to establish due or lack of due care.

For these reasons, the Complaints (original and amended) failed to set forth a viable private right of action against Defendant South Carolina Department of Public Safety and therefore the Complaints are dismissed with prejudice.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, that the action brought by the Plaintiffs is dismissed with prejudice.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that the action brought by Michael Hubbard is dismissed as a result of the Plaintiff failing to appear at the hearing and therefore failed to prosecute the claim.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

The Honorable J.C. Hayes

vs.

Kevin Carter, Richard Davis, Joseph
Tirbovich, Nationwide Insurance Company,
Interinsurance Exchange of the Automobile

Company, SC Department of Public Safety,
Chevrolet, GMC, Unknown John Does,

Defendants.

This matter comes before the Court upon Defendants Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company's ("Nationwide") and Joseph Tirbovich's ("Tirbovich") Motions to Dismiss. The Court held a hearing on these Motions and a number of other motions on September 5, 2018. For the reasons set forth below, Defendants Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company and Joseph Tirbovich's Motions are granted.

PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

This action arises out of an automobile collision that took place on March 19, 2015 between a vehicle operated by Heidi Gersten and allegedly owned by Ivanka Ayoub and a vehicle operated and owned by Kevin Carter. Plaintiff Gersten originally filed a property damage arbitration claim on February 21, 2018 (hereinafter "Arbitration Action"). The claim named Kevin Carter, Richard Davis, Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company, Interinsurance of the Automobile Club, and Trustguard Insurance as defendants.

Gersten then created a “First Amended Claim for Property Damage Verified” (hereinafter “Amended Arbitration Complaint”) on or about March 2, 2018, however, she did not file the Amended Arbitration Complaint at that time. The Amended Arbitration Complaint added Gersten’s mother, Ivanka Ayoub, as a claimant and added Joseph Tirbovich and John Ammendola as additional defendants. Gersten and Ayoub never obtained an Amended Summons listing Ayoub as a claimant, and the Amended Arbitration Complaint was not filed until March 27, 2018.

On March 16, 2018, Gersten, Ayoub, and Daniel Hubbard filed the above-captioned case in Circuit Court purporting to seek recovery for injuries arising out of the same collision. In addition to the defendants named in the Amended Arbitration Complaint, the Plaintiffs named the South Carolina Department of Public Safety, Blackwell (sic), Chevrolet, GMC, and unknown John Doe defendants.

Kevin Carter, Richard Davis, and the other Defendants who have allegedly been served in the case filed motions to dismiss both cases.¹ Interinsurance Exchange sought to dismiss the Arbitration Action, in part, on the grounds that the arbitration panel lacked jurisdiction over some of the claims asserted in the Arbitration Action. On April 26, 2018, Judge Gibbons, acting as the Chief Administrative Judge for Chester County Circuit Court, entered an Order finding the claims asserted in the Arbitration Action were outside the scope of arbitration. Therefore, he transferred the Arbitration Action to the Common Pleas docket and consolidated the case with the Circuit Court action. (April 26, 2018 Form 4 Order). Because the cases have been consolidated, this Order will address the allegations set forth in the Circuit Court Complaint. However, the Court has reviewed all three Complaints, and the Court's ruling would be the same regardless of which pleading(s) were in effect.

This case was set for a hearing on the various pending motions for September 5, 2018. The case was also placed on the non-jury roster for a merits hearing for the same week. Plaintiff Heidi Gersten filed a motion for continuance. At the hearing, the defendants all consented to continuing the merits hearing of the case, but they requested that the motions be heard. Gersten consented to the Court proceeding with hearing the various motions.

LAW

Nationwide's and Tirbovich's Motion to Dismiss seeks dismissal of all claims asserted against Nationwide and Tirbovich on the following grounds:

- a) Dismissal of all causes of action for failure to state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action;
- b) Dismissal of all causes of action due to lack of standing;
- c) Dismissal of Daniel Hubbard's claims;
- d) Dismissal of Ivanka Ayoub's claims;
- e) Dismissal of all claims against Joseph Tirbovich for failure to properly serve the Summons and Complaint;

The Court will address each of these grounds in turn.

A. All Causes of Action as to Defendants Nationwide and Tirbovich.

The Complaint only references Joseph Tirbovich in the caption and is not mentioned anywhere else in the Complaint. Nationwide is only mentioned in one paragraph, stating "The Defendant Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company is a company maintaining and operating and doing business in the State of North Carolina.” (Compl. ¶ 5). Pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6), SCRCP, a Complaint should be dismissed if it fails “to state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.” Rule 12(b)(6), SCRCP. The Complaint alleges no factual allegations against Defendants Nationwide and Tirbovich.

B. Dismissal Due to Lack of Standing

The Plaintiffs argue they have asserted a cause of action against Nationwide and Tirbovich. To the extent they seek to assert third-party claims against such a liability insurer, they lack standing to do so. Kleckley v. Northwestern Nat. Cas. Co., 526 S.E.2d 218, 219 (S.C. 2000). In Kleckley, the Supreme Court held that third-party claimants have no standing to pursue a cause of action against a liability insurer. Thus, Plaintiffs do not have standing to assert any claims against Nationwide or its adjuster, Tirbovich in either the Civil Action Complaint or the Arbitration Action.

C. Daniel Hubbard’s claims.

Nationwide and Tirbovich moved to dismiss Daniel Hubbard’s claims on the ground that South Carolina does not recognize a cause of action for loss of a sibling’s consortium. However, Daniel Hubbard did not appear for the hearing on the Motions to Dismiss. Therefore, his claims are dismissed for failure to prosecute pursuant to Rule 41(b), SCRCP.²

D. Ivanka Ayoub’s claims.

Plaintiff Ayoub appears to have asserted a property damage claim in the Amended Arbitration Complaint and a cause of action for loss of consortium in the Circuit Court Complaint. Ayoub is Gersten’s mother. The Circuit Court Complaint does not allege Ayoub was personally involved in the accident, but it does allege she “suffered, among other things, loss of consortium.” (Compl. ¶ 103).

Our Supreme Court has refused to recognize a cause of action in tort for filial loss of consortium. See Doe v. Greenville County School Dist., 375 S.C. 63, 70, 651 S.E.2d 305, 308 (2007) (“Accordingly, in the absence of some action from the legislature, this Court has no authority upon which it could rely in finding that South Carolina law recognizes claims for loss of filial consortium.”).³ While South Carolina does recognize loss of spousal consortium, that cause of action was expressly recognized by the South Carolina General Assembly. See S.C. Code Ann. § 15-75-20. Our Supreme Court has held the absence of a similar statutory cause of action for filial loss of consortium indicates the General Assembly did not intend to recognize such causes of action. See Greenville County School Dist., 375 S.C. at 69, 651 S.E.2d at 308.

Because South Carolina does not recognize claims for loss of filial consortium, the causes of action asserted by Ayoub in the Circuit Court Complaint must be dismissed.

E. All Other Causes of Action asserted by Plaintiffs

The Complaint lists eighteen separate causes of action. As it relates to Nationwide and Tirbovich, these causes of action merely allege the legal elements of various other causes of action, and several of these causes of action fail to even allege the basic legal elements. Rule 8(a) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure states that a pleading setting forth a cause of action “shall contain . . . a short and plain statement of the facts showing the pleader is entitled to relief.” Rule 8(a), SCRPC. In reviewing a motion to dismiss pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6), the Court’s analysis is limited solely to the Complaint itself, and no other documents may be considered. See Woodell by Allen v. Marion School Dist. One, 307 S.C. 297, 298, 414 S.E.2d 794, 794 (Ct. App. 1992). Moreover, a “trial court must dismiss a claim pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, if the pleadings, when taken in the light most favorable to the plaintiff, fail to allege sufficient facts to constitute a cause of action.” Trancik v. USAA Ins. Co., 354 S.C. 549, 552, 581 S.E.2d 858, 860 (Ct. App. 2003).

Plaintiff must allege facts supporting each element of the causes of action asserted in the Complaint. She has failed to do so. Therefore, all causes of action against Nationwide and Tirbovich will be dismissed pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6).

CONCLUSION

For the above-stated reasons, the Court finds Defendants Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company’s and Joseph Tirbovich’s Motions should be granted. It is ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that:

- 1) All causes of action asserted against Nationwide and Tirbovich are dismissed pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6), SCRCP.
- 2) All causes of action asserted against Nationwide and Tirbovich are dismissed for lack of standing;
- 3) The causes of action asserted by Daniel Hubbard are dismissed pursuant to Rule 41(b), SCRCP for failure to prosecute.
- 4) Ivanka Ayoub’s loss of consortium claim is dismissed pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6), SCRCP because South Carolina does not recognize a claim for filial loss of consortium.
- 5) All causes of action against Tirbovich are dismissed pursuant to Rule 12(b)(5) for Plaintiffs’ failure to serve him with the Summons and Complaint in either the Arbitration Action of the Civil Action.

It is so ORDERED.

These matters come before the Court pursuant to Defendants' Trustgard Insurance Company ("Trustgard") and John Ammendola's Motions to Dismiss, and Trustgard's Motion to Quash Discovery. The Court held a hearing on these and other Defendants' motions on September 5, 2018. Trustgard and John Ammendola appeared by and through their attorneys. Plaintiffs Gersten and Ayoub appeared pro se. Plaintiff Hubbard did not appear. For the reasons set forth below, the Motions to dismiss of Trustgard and John Ammendola are granted. Trustgard's Motion to Quash is dismissed, without prejudice, as moot.

I. STATEMENT OF THE CASE

These two actions arise out of an automobile collision that took place on March 19, 2015. Plaintiff Heidi Gersten, was driving on I-77 in Chester County when she was involved in a motor vehicle accident with Kevin Carter. Carter was operating a vehicle insured by Nationwide Insurance. Gersten was driving a van owned by her mother, Plaintiff Ivanka Ayoub, which was insured by Trustgard.

Gersten filed a property damage arbitration claim on February 21, 2018, Case No. 2018-CP-12-000074, (hereinafter “Arbitration Action”). The claim also named as defendants Kevin Carter, Richard Davis, Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company, Interinsurance of the Automobile Club, and Trustgard.

Gersten later prepared a “First Amended Claim for Property Damage Verified” (hereinafter “Amended Arbitration Complaint”) dated March 2, 2018. The Amended Arbitration Complaint added Gersten’s mother, Ayoub, as a claimant, and added Joseph Tirbovich and John Ammendola as additional defendants. Gersten and Ayoub never obtained an Amended Summons listing Ayoub as a claimant. The Amended Arbitration Complaint was filed March 27, 2018.

On March 16, 2018, Gersten, Ayoub, and Daniel Hubbard filed a civil lawsuit, 2018-CP-12-000117, (“Circuit Court Action”) in this court, seeking, inter alia, recovery for injuries arising out of the collision. In addition to the Defendants named in the Amended Arbitration Complaint, the Plaintiffs named the South Carolina Department of Public Safety, Blackwell (sic), Chevrolet, GMC, and unknown John Doe defendants.

On April 26, 2018, Judge Gibbons, acting as the Chief Administrative Judge, for Chester County Circuit Court, entered an Order finding the claims asserted in the Arbitration Action were outside the scope of arbitration. He transferred the Arbitration Action to the Common Pleas docket and consolidated the case with the Circuit Court action. (April 26, 2018, Form 4 Order). Gersten and Ayoub filed a Motion to Alter or Amend that order.

Just before the hearing on the motions under consideration, Plaintiff served, via mail, an Amended Complaint dated August 29, 2018

The Court has reviewed the original Arbitration Action, the Amended Arbitration Action, the Complaint in the Circuit Court Action, and the Amended Complaint the Circuit Court Action;

the ruling is the same regardless of whether the cases have been consolidated or not, and regardless of which Complaint in the Circuit Court Action is operable.

This case was set for a hearing on the various pending motions for September 5, 2018. The case was placed on the non-jury roster for a merits hearing for the same week. Plaintiff Gersten filed a motion for continuance. At the hearing, the defendants all consented to continuing the merits hearing of the case, but they requested that the motions be heard. Gersten consented to the Court proceeding with hearing the various motions.

II. STANDARD OF REVIEW AND DISCUSSION

A. SCRPC 12(b)(6) Failure to State Facts Sufficient to Constitute a cause of Action as to both Trustgard and John Ammendola

SCRPC 12(b)(6) allows a party to move to dismiss an action for “failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.” A decision on a 12(b)(6) motion “must be bottomed and premised solely upon the allegations set forth by the plaintiff.” Williams v. Condon, 347 S.C. 227, 233 (Ct. App. 2001). “The question to be considered is whether, in the light most favorable to the plaintiff, the pleadings articulate any valid claim for relief.” Id. “If the facts alleged and inferences reasonably deducible therefrom, viewed in the light most favorable to the plaintiff, would entitle the plaintiff to relief on any theory, then dismissal under Rule 12(b)(6) is improper.” Doe v. Marion, 373 S.C. 390 (2007). See Skywaves I Corp. v. Branch Banking & Tr. Co., 814 S.E.2d 643, 656 (S.C. Ct. App. 2018), reh'g denied (June 21, 2018). “[A] mere conclusory allegation, unsupported by any particularized allegations of fact, is insufficient” to withstand a 12(b)(6) motion to dismiss. Jones v. Gilstrap, 288 S.C. 525, 528, 343 S.E.2d 646, 648 (Ct. App. 1986)).

1. The Circuit Court Action

The only reference to Trustgard in the original Complaint in the Circuit Court Action is that it is “a company maintaining and operating and doing business in the State of North Carolina” and that it insured Gersten and Ayoub. See Complaint at ¶ 7, 17, 19. The Complaint includes causes of action for Negligence against Kevin Carter, and against all Defendants for Fraud, Fraudulent Inducement, Intentional Inflection of Emotional Distress, Loss of Consortium, Product Liability, Breach of Contract, Invasion of Privacy, Strict Liability, Conspiracy, Misrepresentation, Deceit, Duress and Undue Influence, Slander, Libel, Defamation, Malicious Prosecution, and prayers for damages, all asserted against all defendants. However, there are no facts alleged which support any of the causes of action. The Complaint merely pleads some of the legal elements of the causes of action. The Court notes that Trustgard states that it is based on Ohio and that Gersten was not personally insured with Trustgard (only the vehicle she was driving), but regardless of the validity of these statements, absent any further allegations Plaintiffs have not alleged facts under which they would be entitled to relief under any legal theory.

John Ammendola's name does not appear anywhere in the body of the original Complaint in the Circuit Court Action, although he is listed in the caption. With no allegations made against Mr. Ammendola whatsoever, this action is factually insufficient on its face without the necessity of any further analysis. Potter v. Clark, 497 F.2d 1206, 1207 (7th Cir.1974) (per curiam)(dismissing complaint that was silent as to defendant except for his name appearing in caption).

This Court notes that a short time prior to the hearing in which the Motions to Dismiss were heard, Plaintiffs served an Amended Complaint in the Common Pleas Action. The Amended Complaint also includes causes of action for Negligence against Kevin Carter, and against all Defendants for Fraud, Fraudulent Inducement, Intentional Inflection of Emotional Distress, Negligent Inflection of Emotional Distress, Loss of Consortium, Product Liability, Breach of Contract, Invasion of Privacy, Strict Liability, Conspiracy, Misrepresentation, Deceit, Duress and Undue Influence, Slander, Libel, Defamation, Malicious Prosecution, and prayers for damages, all asserted against all defendants. This Amended Complaint does not allege any material additional facts as to Trustgard or John Ammendola. The Amended Complaint alleges that both Ayoub and Gersten were insured with Trustgard. (¶. 46, 48.) Paragraph 65 alleges that Trustgard and John Ammendola (and other defendants) are all, "...in breach of contract, among other things." There is no allegation as to the terms of the contract, or how it was breached. Paragraph 71 alleges Trustgard, among other defendants, "...made a representation of false statements of material fact." There is no allegation of any representation made by Trustgard or John Ammendola. Paragraph 98 alleges Ayoub and Gersten had a contract with Trustgard, without any other detail. Paragraph 99 alleges the "Defendants breached their duty." Otherwise, the Amended Complaint merely attempts to set forth legal requirements of causes of action. It does not include any facts supporting any cause of action as to Trustgard or John Ammendola. Accordingly, the Circuit Court Action is dismissed as to Trustgard and John Ammendola pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6), SCRCP.

2. The Arbitration Action

In the Arbitration Action, the only references to John Ammendola are conclusory allegations that he violated the law without any specific facts to support such a violation. See First Amended Claim ¶ 168, 173, 174, 183, 188, 193, 198 (alleging Ammendola is in violation of S.C. Code Section 38-59-20); ¶ 203 and 208 (seeking damages for Ammendola's violation of S.C. Code Section 38-59-20). Without any specific facts that would support the violations, these legal conclusions are simply insufficient to withstand a Motion to Dismiss. Moreover, there is no private cause of action under S.C. Code Section 38-59-20.

Beyond these conclusory allegations and the undisputed fact that Trustgard issued an insurance policy involved in the accident, the only specific allegations in the Arbitration Claim against Trustgard relate to certain communications between representatives of Trustgard and Gersten about a claims or claims regarding the accident. First Amended Claim at ¶ 229, 230, 232, 233. These allegations reference a payment from Trustgard to Gersten for Medpay and an offer of payment for a property damage claim. Setting aside that Trustgard has objected to Plaintiffs' characterization of these exchanges, and assuming they are true for the purpose of this Motion, Plaintiffs make no specific allegations made as to how Trustgard's handling of any claim regarding this accident violates either a statute or the term of any insurance policy. Neither these allegations nor any other allegations in the Arbitration Claim against Trustgard support Plaintiffs' claim for legal relief under any theory.

The same or similar unsupported conclusory allegations are made against Trustgard in the Amended Arbitration Claim. See First Amended Claim ¶ 215 (alleging Trustgard breached a contractual duty, was negligent, and acted in bad faith); ¶ 167, 172, 177, 182, 187, 192, 197 (alleging Trustgard is in violation of S.C. Code Section 38-59-20); ¶ 202 and 207 (seeking damages for Trustgard's violation of S.C. Code Section 38-59-20).¹

Further, the legal basis for the arbitration claim, S. C. Code § 38-77-710, provides solely for the arbitration of "property damage liability claims arising out of motor vehicle collisions...." It is not a mechanism for bringing any other type of claim.

Finally, S. C. Code § 38-59-20 does not create a private cause of action. Gaskins v. Southern Farm Bureau Cas. Ins. Co., 343 S.C. 666, 541 S.E.2d 269 (Ct.App.2000). Therefore, even if the conclusory allegation that Trustgard or John Ammendola were "...in violation of the South Carolina Code of Laws, Title 38, CHAPTER 59, ARTICLE 1, SECTION 38-59-20 Improper claim practices." stated facts which were otherwise sufficient constitute a cause of action (it does not), there is no private cause of action for violation of that code section. It provides only for an administrative remedy before the Department of Insurance.

B. SCRCP 12(b)(2) Lack of Jurisdiction over John Ammendola

SCRCP 12(b)(6) allows a party to move to dismiss an action for "lack of jurisdiction over the person." The burden of showing personal jurisdiction is on Plaintiffs. "At the pretrial stage, the burden of proving personal jurisdiction over a nonresident is met by a prima facie showing of jurisdiction." Coggeshall v. Reprod. Endocrine Assocs. of Charlotte, 376 S.C. 12, 16, 655 S.E.2d 476, 478 (2007)(internal citation omitted)). To determine the propriety of personal jurisdiction over a nonresident defendant, the relevant analysis is whether "there exist minimum contacts between the defendant and the forum state such that maintenance of the suit does not offend traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice." Cockrell v. Hillerich & Bradsby Co., 363 S.C. 485, 491, 611 S.E.2d 505, 508 (2005). Plaintiffs have not pled any facts as to Mr. Ammendola. They have not referred to his state of residency, the identity of his employer, or any other fact, and they have failed to make this prima facie showing by demonstrating the "minimum contacts" necessary for this court to have jurisdiction over him. To the extent it is argued that any minimum contacts that exist as to Trustgard be imputed to Mr. Ammendola, this argument fails because "the focus must center on the contacts generated by [Mr. Ammendola], and not on the unilateral actions of some other entity." Id. at 492. As there are no allegations as to "minimum contacts" or that Mr. Ammendola took any action with respect to the accident or resulting claims, there is not even a starting point for a court to analyze the fundamental fairness of making him defend this lawsuit in South Carolina. Plaintiffs have failed to meet their burden as to personal jurisdiction of Mr. Ammendola and the case against him must be dismissed pursuant to SCRCP 12(b)(2).

C. 12(b)(5) Insufficiency of Service of Process as to John Ammendola

Because John Ammendola was never served in either the Arbitration Action or the Circuit Court Action, dismissal is appropriate under SCRCP 12(b)(5). See Brown v. Evatt, 322 S.C. 189, 194, 470 S.E.2d 848, 850 (1996) (“A summons is not a mere notice, but a means for giving jurisdiction to the court, and unless it is waived, the court cannot otherwise obtain personal jurisdiction.”)(internal citation omitted). Service of the summons within the parameters of the rules of procedure is more than a mere formality, as without it a court has no power to render a personal judgment against a defendant. Louden v. Moragne, 327 S.C. 465, 468, 486 S.E.2d 525, 526 (Ct. App. 1997).

D. Dismissal of Loss Of Consortium Claims

Plaintiff Ayoub, the mother of Plaintiff Gersten, was not involved in the accident but the Complaint alleges that she “suffers, among other things, loss of consortium.” Plaintiff Hubbard, Gersten’s brother, alleges he “was unable to work for a period and, accordingly, loss (sic) wages... .” He was not involved in the accident. Our Supreme Court has refused to recognize a cause of action for maternal or filial loss of consortium. South Carolina does recognize loss of spousal consortium, but that cause of action was expressly created: SC Code Ann. 15-75-20. The Supreme Court has held that the absence of a similar statutory cause of action for other loss of consortia is persuasive evidence that the General Assembly did not intend to recognize any such causes of action:

In Taylor v. Medenica, this Court held that the determination of which relationships may give rise to a loss of consortium claim in South Carolina is one best left to the discretion of the legislature. 479 S.E.2d 35, 47 (S.C. 1996) (declining to recognize a cause of action for loss of parental consortium). The United States District Court for the District of South Carolina adopted the Taylor analysis in finding that South Carolina law did not provide a cause of action for loss of consortium of a child or for filial consortium. Kirkland v. Sam's East, Inc., 411 F.Supp. 2d 639, 641 (D.S.C. 2005). Today, we extend our Taylor analysis in holding that South Carolina law does not recognize claims for loss of filial consortium. Such rights did not exist under the common law, and the legislature has not provided such a right by statute.

Doe v. Greenville Cty. School District 651 S.E.2d 305, 308 (S.C. 2007).

Moreover, Daniel Hubbard did not appear at the hearing. Ivanka Ayoub appeared at the hearing, but did not offer any argument. The claims by Ayoub and Hubbard are therefore dismissed.

ORDER

For all of the above-stated reasons, this Court hereby GRANTS Trustgard Insurance Company and John Ammendola's Motion to Dismiss the Complaints and Amended Complaints in both 2018-CP-12-000074 and 2018-CP-12-000117, with prejudice. Because the Motion to Dismiss is granted as to Trustgard, its pending Motion to Quash is hereby dismissed without prejudice as moot.

ORDER

This matter comes before the Court on Defendant Kevin Carter's Motion to Compel or, in the Alternative, Motion to Dismiss for Failure to Prosecute and his Motion to Dismiss the claims of Ivanka Ayoub pursuant to Rule 25. On August 18, 2022, the Court held a hearing via WebEx on these Motions. Plaintiff Heidi Gersten appeared pro se. Ivanka Ayoub did not appear, and no one appeared on her behalf. Attorney Wesley Sawyer appeared on behalf of Defendant Kevin Carter. After reviewing the record, the Motions, and arguments of the parties, the Court will grant both of Defendant's Motions to Dismiss.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This consolidated action began as two separate proceedings arising out of an automobile collision that took place on or about March 19, 2015. On or about February 21, 2018, Plaintiff Heidi Gersten filed a Summons and Claim for Property Damage under the property damage arbitration statute. Ivanka Ayoub was not listed on the Summons or the Claim.

Plaintiff Heidi Gersten filed the pending personal injury action on March 16, 2018. Ivanka Ayoub is listed as a plaintiff on the caption. Although Ayoub did not sign the Summons, the Complaint purports to bear her signature. Daniel Hubbard was also named as a plaintiff. As to Ayoub and Hubbard, the March 16, 2018 Complaint attempted to assert a cause of action for loss of filial consortium, among numerous other claims. The March 16, 2018 Complaint named numerous additional defendants. Defendant Kevin Carter and other defendants moved to dismiss the property damage arbitration in light of the Circuit Court Complaint.

On March 27, 2018 – after the statute of limitations expired – Plaintiffs filed a First Amended Claim for Property Damage Verified, which purported to add Ivanka Ayoub as a plaintiff to the property damage arbitration claim.

On April 26, 2018, the Honorable Brian M. Gibbons entered a Form 4 Order consolidating the two cases and placing them on the Common Pleas docket. On May 8, 2018, Plaintiffs Gersten and Ayoub moved to alter or amend the April 26, 2018 Order.

Kevin Carter and various other defendants filed motions to dismiss, among other motions. After a hearing on the various motions, the Honorable John C. Hayes, III, entered a series of orders dismissing all the defendants except Kevin Carter. The orders also dismissed the claims of Daniel Hubbard in their entirety and dismissed Ayoub’s loss of consortium claim against Defendant Carter. Although Kevin Carter asserted statute of limitations defenses, the Circuit Court withheld ruling on the statute of limitations issue and noted that Carter could file a separate motion on that issue in the future.

Plaintiffs Gersten and Ayoub moved to alter or amend the Circuit Court’s various dismissal orders.¹ On October 16, 2018, Judge John Hayes entered a Form 4 Order, denying the motions to reconsider the “September 5, 2018” order. Plaintiffs Gersten and Ayoub then appealed. Their appeal was ultimately dismissed for failure to comply with orders from the Court of Appeals. The Court of Appeals denied a motion to reinstate or to rehear, and the Supreme Court ultimately denied Plaintiffs’ Petition for Writ of Certiorari. The Supreme Court issued its Remittitur on June 23, 2020.

On June 29, 2020, Defendant Carter served written discovery on Ayoub and Gersten. When no responses were provided, Defendant Carter sent a follow-up letter dated August 13, 2020 asking for the discovery responses and also asking for deposition dates. On August 26, 2020, when Plaintiffs failed to respond to the discovery requests and failed to respond to follow up letters, Defendant Carter filed a Motion to Compel or, in the Alternative, Motion to Dismiss for Failure to Prosecute.

The hearing on Carter’s Motion was first scheduled for January 13, 2021. Gersten moved to continue the hearing because she was litigating another matter in Florida, and she asked for a continuance of at least six months. The Circuit Court did not grant the Motion, but it did continue the hearing. The hearing was eventually rescheduled to take place on July 28, 2022. Shortly before the hearing, Gersten submitted an emergency motion to continue the hearing. On July 28, 2022, the Court held a hearing via WebEx. After hearing arguments on the emergency motion first, the Court agreed to reschedule the hearing to take place on August 18, 2022. During the July 28, 2022 hearing, Plaintiff Gersten stated that Ivanka Ayoub passed away on or about January 11, 2022. Ms. Gersten is Ivanka Ayoub’s daughter.

Shortly after it was disclosed that Plaintiff Ayoub had passed away, Defendant Carter filed a Motion to Dismiss Ayoub’s claims pursuant to Rule 25, SCRCP. At the August 18, 2022 hearing, the Court heard arguments on the Rule 25 Motion and the previously filed Motion to Compel or, in the Alternative, Motion to Dismiss for Failure to Prosecute.²

LAW

The record in this case supports dismissal on multiple grounds. As to Gersten and Ayoub's claims, the Court finds that dismissal is proper under both Rule 41 for failure to prosecute and under Rule 37 as an appropriate discovery sanction. Furthermore, as to Ayoub, dismissal would alternatively be appropriate under Rule 25.³

A. Rule 41 Dismissal for Failure to Prosecute

"For failure of the plaintiff to prosecute or to comply with these rules or any order of court, a defendant may move for dismissal of an action or of any claim against him." Rule 41(b), SCRCP. The decision of whether to dismiss a case for failure to prosecute is left to the discretion of the Circuit Court. Small v. Mungo, 254 S.C. 438, 442, 175 S.E.2d 802, 804 (1970). "The plaintiff has the burden of prosecuting his action, and the trial court may properly dismiss an action for plaintiff's unreasonable neglect in proceeding with his cause." Don Shevey & Spires, Inc. v. American Motors Realty Corp., 279 S.C. 58, 60, 301 S.E.2d 757, 758 (1983).

The Fourth Circuit has established four factors when determining whether to dismiss for ² The Court also heard arguments on other motions filed by Plaintiff Gersten. However, most of those motions involve reconsideration of rulings from other Circuit Court judges. Some of those rulings were the subject of the prior appeal. Moreover, Judge John Hayes previously denied a motion to reconsider as to some of those issues. Ultimately, the Court does not need to rule on those issues because it is granting Defendant's Motions to Dismiss.

³ Gersten reported to the Court that she does not dispute that Ayoub has passed away, but she has been unable to obtain a death certificate. Counsel for Carter reported that he was unable to locate an obituary for Ayoub to confirm her death. Ultimately, this issue is immaterial. If Ayoub is still alive, dismissal is proper because she has not prosecuted her claim, she has not responded to discovery, and she has not appeared for the last two scheduled hearings. If she passed away in January as reported by Gersten, then no one has moved to substitute on her estate's behalf within a reasonable time. Either way, dismissal is proper.

failure to prosecute, which have been adopted by South Carolina State Courts: (1) the plaintiff's degree of personal responsibility; (2) the amount of prejudice caused the defendant; (3) the presence of a drawn out history of deliberately proceeding in a dilatory fashion; and (4) the effectiveness of sanctions less drastic than dismissal." McComas v. Ross, 368 S.C. 59, 63, 626 S.E.2d 902, 904 (Ct. App. 2006) (citing Hillig v. Comm'r of Internal Revenue, 916 F.2d 171, 174 (4th Cir. 1990)).

In this case, each of the four factors weighs heavily in favor of dismissal:

- (1) Plaintiffs are solely responsible for their failure to respond to discovery and to provide deposition dates. Therefore, the degree of responsibility rests wholly with the Plaintiffs.
- (2) Defendant presented argument on several forms of prejudice. First, it appears Ayoub has passed away, which has deprived Defendant of the opportunity to depose her. This alone is substantially prejudicial. Plaintiff sent discovery requests and requested deposition dates in 2020 – long before Ayoub's death in 2022. Moreover, the passage of time prejudices Defendant because it will be harder to find witnesses and develop facts relating to the case and because he has been stuck in litigation for over four years without having basic discovery responses. Therefore, prejudice is plainly present.
- (3) The history of this litigation – especially in light of the appellate record – shows a drawn-out history of dilatory proceeding. Plaintiffs have requested numerous continuances at the trial level. At the appellate level, Plaintiffs requested numerous extensions. The Court of Appeals made multiple requests for Plaintiffs to provide information to the Court. Ultimately, the Court of Appeals dismissed the appeal when Plaintiffs failed to provide the information requested by the Court. Most importantly, Plaintiffs have been on notice of Defendant's Motion to Compel for almost two years. During that time, they have continued to fail to provide any discovery responses.
- (4) At this point, there is not a less drastic sanction that would afford Defendant Carter procedural due process. The Rules of Civil Procedure are designed to give both parties an opportunity to fully develop their case. By failing to participate in discovery for so long – to the point at which one claimant and witness has passed away – Plaintiffs have prevented Defendant Carter from having a full and fair opportunity to defend his case. Any less severe sanction will not give Defendant Carter the ability to depose Ayoub or to depose any other witnesses with the same recollection that they would have had two years ago.

Ultimately, Rule 41 serves as a necessary part of the power of trial courts "to manage their own affairs so as to achieve orderly and expeditious disposition of cases." Crestwood Golf Club, Inc. v. Potter, 328 S.C. 201, 212, 493 S.E.2d 826, 832 (1997) (emphasis added). Dismissal at this point is the only orderly and expeditious disposition of this case. Therefore, the Court finds that dismissal pursuant to Rule 41 is proper and well within this Court's discretion.

B. Rule 37 Dismissal as a Discovery Sanction

Alternatively, dismissal is also proper under Rule 37. "If a party . . . fails . . . to serve answers or objections to interrogatories, or to serve a written response to request . . . under Rule 34 . . . the court . . . on motion may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just" Rule 37(d), SCRCp. The Rule gives the Circuit Court discretion to, among other things, strike pleadings or dismiss an action. Rule 27(b)(C), SCRCp. While the decision of appropriate sanctions is left to the sound discretion of the Court, severe sanctions such as dismissal will only be imposed in cases involving bad faith, willful disobedience, or gross indifference to the opposing party's rights. McNair v. Fairfield County, 379 S.C. 462, 466, 665 S.E.2d 830, 832 (Ct. App. 2008).

In McNair, the trial court struck Fairfield County's answer and counterclaim for failure to adequately respond to requests for production. Notably, the county in that case made an attempt to respond to discovery, producing over 800 documents. Id. at 464, 665 S.E.2d at 831. However, the plaintiff believed the responses were inadequate and moved to compel. The trial court agreed and entered an order compelling supplemental responses. Notably, that entire process took about five months. Id. When the county failed to supplement its responses within six months, the plaintiff moved for sanctions. After a hearing, the trial court struck the county's answer and its counterclaim. Id. The Court of Appeals affirmed, finding that the trial court properly exercised its discretion and considered the appropriate factors before imposing the sanction of dismissal. Id. at 467, 665 S.E.2d at 832-33.

The timeline at issue in McNair is telling here. When the trial court struck the county's answer and counterclaim, the case was less than a year-and-a-half old. Moreover, the county had made some effort to respond to discovery, including producing over 800 documents. Here, the case is over four years old. Defendant Carter served discovery on June 29, 2020 – well over two years ago. Defendant's motion has been pending for nearly two years, and it has been set for a hearing three times. Thus, Plaintiffs have had notice of the issue far longer than the time that passed in McNair. Nonetheless, Plaintiffs have never attempted to respond to discovery. In the meantime, it appears Plaintiff Ayoub has passed away, depriving Defendant Carter of his ability to depose her or to obtain discovery from her. At a minimum, the failure to respond to discovery requests for over two years shows the very type of gross indifference to Defendant's rights that justifies dismissal. Moreover, given the fact that the hearing on this Motion has been scheduled three times with no effort by Plaintiffs to respond to the discovery requests, there is an adequate basis in the record to find willful disobedience. This willful failure to respond to discovery for such a long period of time is a complete disregard of Plaintiffs' obligations under the Rules of Civil Procedure.

Dismissal is a severe sanction. However, Defendant Carter has suffered significant prejudice both in the form of lost opportunity to obtain discoverable information and in the form of being tethered to this litigation for four years. For the reasons discussed above, the Court finds that dismissal is the only appropriate sanction for Plaintiffs' failure to participate in discovery.

C. Rule 25 Dismissal as to Ivanka Ayoub

Under Rule 25, SCRCp, when a party dies and the party's claim is not extinguished by her death, then "[i]f substitution is not made within a reasonable time, the action may be dismissed as to the deceased person." Rule 25(a)(1), SCRCp. "[R]ule [25] specifically provides for the dismissal of a deceased party where substitution of the proper parties does not occur within a reasonable amount of time." Hillman v. Pinion, 347 S.C. 253, 258, 554 S.E.2d 427, 430 (Ct. App. 2001) (emphasis in original).

The standard under the Federal Rule for a timely motion to substitute is 90 days. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 25. The South Carolina rules use a "reasonable time" standard. Even if a "reasonable time" is something longer than 90 days, more than twice that amount of time has passed since Ayoub's purported death, and no one has moved to be substituted. Therefore, substitution has not occurred "within a reasonable time," and dismissal is proper.

CONCLUSION

For the above-stated reasons, Defendant Carter's Motions to Dismiss are GRANTED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

lasting up to at least 3-4 hours. Lengthened reaction times have been observed up to 9.5 hours post dose of diazepam. Lethargy and fatigue are common, and diazepam increases subjective perceptions of sedation. Reduced concentration, impaired speech patterns and content, and amnesia can also be produced, and diazepam may produce some effects that may last for days..."

61. The drug manufacturer suggests patients treated with diazepam be cautioned against engaging in hazardous occupations requiring complete mental alertness such as driving a motor vehicle.

64. Prescription Diazepam warning labels state, "Diazepam can make you sleepy, forgetful, have poor co-ordination along with other side effects that can affect everyday activities."
65. Prescription Diazepam warning labels state, "You should not drive, operate machinery or take part in such activities where, if affected, you could put yourself or others at risk."
66. Prescription Diazepam warning labels state, "The medicine can affect your ability to drive as it may make you sleepy or dizzy."
67. After diazepam (10 mg) patients should refrain from driving or participating in skilled performances for only 5 to 7 hours.
68. According to The Physicians' Desk Reference (a commercially published compilation of manufacturers' prescribing information on prescription drugs, updated annually) one should avoid driving a car or operating heavy machinery and drinking alcohol while taking Valium.
69. It is an offense to drive if diazepam affects your ability to drive.

This order must be consistent with the provisions of this chapter and may not be inconsistent with the Rules of the Supreme Court of South Carolina. Process and procedure must be as summary and simple as may be reasonable and may provide for the taking of evidence in the form of reports, statements, or itemized bills or in any other manner without the procedural and evidentiary limitations which pertain in jury trials. The court may provide for the taking of depositions of a witness within or without the State."

153. Punitive damages can be obtained for property damages under South Carolina law.
154. According to THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, In The Supreme Court Opinion No. 26826 Heard March 2, 2010 - Filed June 14, 2010, "The legislature has defined "damages" as used in Chapter 77 governing automobile insurance to "include[] both actual and punitive damages." Id. § 38-77-30(4). The clear legislative indication is that all "damages," including actual and punitive damages, are recoverable under the pertinent insurance provisions. As a matter of law, these provisions become part and parcel of the insurance contract.[2] Further, in examining the public policy surrounding punitive damage awards, it is readily apparent that South Carolina courts have recognized that these awards serve a multitude of purposes and are not limited solely to punishment of the individual wrongdoer."
155. According to THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, In The Supreme Court Opinion No. 26826 Heard March 2, 2010 - Filed June 14, 2010, "punitive damages serve at least three important purposes: punishment of the defendant's reckless, willful, wanton, or malicious conduct; deterrence of similar future conduct by the defendant or others; and compensation for the reckless or willful invasion of the plaintiff's private rights." Clark v. Cantrell, 339 S.C. 369, 379, 529 S.E.2d 528, 533 (2000).
156. According to THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, In The Supreme Court Opinion No. 26826 Heard March 2, 2010 - Filed June 14, 2010, "In Clark, we noted "the important role that punitive damages play in the American system of justice generally, and in South Carolina in particular since at least 1784." Id. We observed that punitive damages, in addition to punishing the defendant and deterring similar conduct by the defendant and others, serve to vindicate the private rights of the plaintiff and they provide some measure of compensation to plaintiffs for the intentional violation of those rights that is separate and distinct from the usual measure of compensatory damages: Exemplary or punitive damages go to the plaintiff, not as a fine or penalty for a public wrong, but in vindication of a private right which has been willfully invaded; and indeed, it may be said that such damages in a measure compensate or satisfy for the willfulness with which the private right was invaded, but, in addition thereto, operating as a deterring punishment to the wrongdoer, and as a warning to others. . . . Punitive damages have now come, however, to be generally, though not universally, regarded, not only as punishment for wrong, but as vindication of private right. This is the basis upon which they are now placed in this state."
157. South Carolina Code of Laws Title 15, CHAPTER 32, ARTICLE 3, SECTION 15-32-530 (C) (3) states, "(C) However, when the trial court determines one of the following apply, there shall be no cap on punitive damages: (3) the defendant acted or failed to act while under the influence of alcohol, drugs, other than lawfully prescribed drugs administered in accordance with a prescription, or any intentionally consumed glue, aerosol, or other toxic vapor to the degree that the defendant's judgment is substantially impaired."
158. South Carolina has adopted an Excess Doctrine, whereby it's Supreme Court held that an insurance company can and will be held liable for any excess above its coverage for not settling within the limits of coverage, either through negligence or bad faith, or any combination of the two. Tyger River Pine Co. v. Maryland Casualty Co.

Id. § 38-77-30(4). The clear legislative indication is that all "damages," including actual and punitive damages, are recoverable under the pertinent insurance provisions. As a matter of law, these provisions become part and parcel of the insurance contract.[2] Further, in examining the public policy surrounding punitive damage awards, it is readily apparent that South Carolina courts have recognized that these awards serve a multitude of purposes and are not limited solely to punishment of the individual wrongdoer."
161. 162. According to THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, In The Supreme Court Opinion No. 26826 Heard March 2, 2010 - Filed June 14, 2010, "In Clark, we noted "the important role that punitive damages play in the American system of justice generally, and in South Carolina in particular since at least 1784." Id. We observed that punitive damages, in addition to punishing the defendant and deterring similar conduct by the defendant and others, serve to vindicate the private rights of the plaintiff and they provide some measure of compensation to plaintiffs for the intentional violation of those rights that is separate and distinct from the usual measure of compensatory damages: Exemplary or punitive damages go to the plaintiff, not as a fine or penalty for a public wrong, but in vindication of a private right which has been willfully invaded; and indeed, it may be said that such damages in a measure compensate or satisfy for the willfulness with which the private right was invaded, but, in addition thereto, operating as a deterring punishment to the wrongdoer, and as a warning to others. . . . Punitive damages have now come, however, to be generally, though not universally, regarded, not only as punishment for wrong, but as vindication of private right. This is the basis upon which they are now placed in this state."
163. South Carolina Code of Laws Title 15, CHAPTER 32, ARTICLE 3, SECTION 15-32-530 (C) (3) states, "(C) However, when the trial court determines one of the following apply, there shall be no cap on punitive damages: (3) the defendant acted or failed to act while under the influence of alcohol, drugs, other than lawfully prescribed drugs administered in accordance with a prescription, or any intentionally consumed glue, aerosol, or other toxic vapor to the degree that the defendant's judgment is substantially impaired."

CLERK OF COURT
CHESTER CO S.C.
2018 SEP 16 2 14 PM

TO: HEIDI GERSTEN, IVANKA AYOUB AND DANIEL HUBBARD:

The Defendants Kevin Carter and Richard Davis, Answering Plaintiffs' Complaint would show:

1. All allegations of the Complaint not expressly admitted in this Answer are denied.
2. In response to Paragraphs 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 16, 17, 18, 19, 28, and 31 these Defendants lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a response and therefore deny the same.
3. Paragraphs 4, 10, 13, 14, and 15 are admitted.
4. Paragraphs 9, 11, 12, 13, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 41-
44, 46-49, 51-53, 55, 57-58, 60-62, 64-66, 68-69, 71-75, 77-79, 81, 83-85, 87, 89, 91, 93, 95, 96-
104 and Plaintiffs Pray for Relief are denied.

5. In response to the allegations contained in Paragraphs 30 and 31, Defendant Carter admits simple fault in contributing to the accident, but would also show that Plaintiff contributed to the accident. Defendant Davis denies fault in causing the accident. Defendants Carter and Davis lack sufficient knowledge and information to form a response regarding the remaining allegations contained in Paragraphs 30 and 31 of the Complaint and therefore deny the same.

6. In response to the allegations contained in Paragraphs 17-19, 27, 33-39, 41-44, 46-49, 60-62, 64-66, 71-75, 77-79, 83-85, 87, 89, 91, 93, 94-95, these Defendants would show that these causes of action appear to be asserted against Defendants other than these Defendants for matters that are not related to the automobile accident alleged in the Complaint. Therefore, these causes of action should all be severed from any causes of action against these Defendants. Moreover, these allegations assert the existence of insurance coverage and assert purported causes of action against insurance adjusters and/or insurance companies. The existence of liability insurance or other insurance in a civil personal injury action is highly prejudicial and improper under the South Carolina Rules of Evidence and Juris Prudence. Allowing these actions to proceed together would greatly prejudice these Defendants and is improper. Therefore, these Defendants move to strike all of these allegations and move to sever all causes of action against any insurance company or insurance company adjuster from the causes of action against these Defendants.

FOR A FIRST DEFENSE

7. These Defendants would show, upon information and belief, that the Complaint fails to state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure and, therefore, the Plaintiffs' Complaint should be dismissed with costs.

FOR A SECOND DEFENSE

8. The Defendants would herein show that this action has not timely been commenced under South Carolina Code of Law 15-3-20 as there has been no actual service upon one or both of the Defendants within the statutorily required time period and accordingly the Defendants would show that the Plaintiffs' Complaint must be dismissed in its entirety.

FOR A THIRD DEFENSE

9. These Defendants would show, upon information and belief, that the Plaintiff Heidi Gersten signed a Covenant Not to Execute that protects Defendants Carter and Richard Davis from execution of any judgment against these Defendants. Therefore, to the extent the Complaint may be construed as asserted claims seeking personal recovery against these defendants, the Defendants would plead Accord, Satisfaction, and Release as defenses.

FOR A FOURTH DEFENSE

10. This Defendant would show, upon information and belief, that any injuries or damages sustained by the Plaintiffs, which are specifically denied, were the result of the acts or omissions of others not in the employ or control of this Defendant and, therefore, the Plaintiff cannot recover from this Defendant in any sum whatsoever.

FOR A FIFTH DEFENSE

11. The Defendant would herein show that any liability against these answering Defendants, which is again denied, must be determined and, if appropriate, apportioned consistent with the provisions of the SC Contribution Among Joint Tortfeasors Act codified at SC Code of Laws Ann. 15-38-10, et seq.

FOR A SIXTH DEFENSE

12. The Defendants would show, upon information and belief, that any statements or actions were reasonable with respect to the time, place and manner, and in furtherance of the Defendant's legitimate interest, and, therefore, such actions or statements are privileged, and the Plaintiff cannot recover from the Defendant in any sum whatsoever.

FOR A SEVENTH DEFENSE

13. The Defendant would show, upon information and belief, that any injuries or damages sustained by the Plaintiffs were due to Plaintiffs' own negligent, careless, reckless and grossly negligent acts or omissions which combined and concurred with any negligence on the part of the Defendant, (such negligence on the part of the Defendant being specifically denied), to produce such injuries or damages, if any, and without which such injuries or damages would not have occurred. The Defendants pleads such negligence, carelessness, recklessness and gross negligence on the part of the Plaintiffs and would ask that this court compare the negligence of the Plaintiffs and the Defendants and if it is determined that the Plaintiffs' negligence, carelessness, recklessness and gross negligence was greater than the negligence, carelessness, recklessness and gross negligence of the Defendants, (such negligence, carelessness, recklessness and/or gross negligence on the part of the Defendants being specifically denied), then the Plaintiffs should be totally barred from recovery and if it is determined that the Plaintiffs' negligence, carelessness, recklessness and gross negligence is equal to or less than the negligence of the Defendants, then the amount of recovery available to the Plaintiffs should be reduced by the percentage of the Plaintiffs' own negligence, carelessness, recklessness and gross negligence.

FOR AN EIGHTH DEFENSE

14. Even if Kevin Carter and Richard Davis were negligent in any respect, which is expressly denied, and such conduct operated as a proximate cause of Plaintiffs' injuries, if any, which is expressly denied, Kevin Carter and Richard Davis allege the Plaintiffs' negligent, grossly negligent, reckless, willful and wanton conduct contributed more than fifty percent (50%) to the cause of the accident, and therefore, Plaintiffs' claims are barred.

FOR A NINTH DEFENSE

15. These Defendants would show that the Plaintiffs have failed to state a claim for which punitive damages are recoverable under any applicable law as there is no reckless, willful, wanton, or grossly negligent conduct on the part of these Defendants; therefore, Plaintiffs' claims for punitive damages should be dismissed.

FOR A TENTH DEFENSE

16. The Plaintiffs' damages, if any, are barred to the extent they failed to mitigate their damages.

FOR AN ELEVENTH DEFENSE

17. The Defendants allege that the Plaintiffs' Complaint fails to plead a cause of action for breach of contract accompanied by fraud with sufficient particularity.

FOR A TWELFTH DEFENSE

18. The Complaint improperly combines an action for the determination of tort liability with an action against one or more insurance carriers involving separate transactions or occurrences subject to wholly unrelated facts and entirely different substantive law. It would be improper to mix before the same factfinder the entirely separate questions of the availability of insurance coverage and duties of a liability insurance carrier for the subject automobile accident and of tort liability for the subject automobile accident. These actions should be severed.

FOR A THIRTEENTH DEFENSE

19. The Defendants would assert that the Plaintiff has failed to properly serve the Defendants and that this matter should be dismissed for insufficiency of process and insufficiency of service of process in accordance with Rule 12(b)(4) and Rule 12(b)(5) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure.

FOR A FOURTEENTH DEFENSE

20. Defendants would state that the Complaint fails to state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action for negligent entrustment in that there is no evidence that Defendant Richard Davis negligently entrusted the vehicle to Kevin Carter and the Plaintiff alleges that Kevin Carter owned the accident vehicle; therefore, the Complaint against Defendant Richard Davis should be dismissed.

FOR A FIFTEENTH DEFENSE

21. Defendants Carter and Davis would show that they are not and were not at the time of the incidents herein an employee, agent or servant of Joseph Tribovich, Nationwide Insurance Company, Interinsurance Exchange of the Automobile Club, John Ammendola, Trustguard Insurance Company, SC Department of Public Safety, Chevrolet, GMC, or unknown John Does and, therefore, Defendants Carter and Davis cannot be liable for the actions of Defendants Joseph Tribovich, Nationwide Insurance Company, Interinsurance Exchange of the Automobile Club, John Ammendola, Trustguard Insurance Company, SC Department of Public Safety, Chevrolet, GMC, and unknown John Does.

FOR A SIXTEENTH DEFENSE

22. Defendant Richard Davis would show that he does not have sufficient contacts with the state of South Carolina to support personal jurisdiction and therefore this case should be dismissed as to him pursuant to Rule 12(b)(2) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure

FOR A SEVENTEENTH DEFENSE

23. The Defendants would show, upon information and belief, that the Plaintiff's claim for punitive damages violates the Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States of America in that it violates the double jeopardy clause in that the Defendant could be subjected to multiple awards of punitive damages for the same set of facts; the self-incrimination clause is being violated because the Defendant can be compelled to give testimony against Defendant's self in a penalty situation such as punitive damages; the assessment of punitive damages by a burden of proof less than beyond a reasonable doubt is violative of the Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments in that punitive damages are a fine or penalty and are, therefore, quasi-criminal in nature; Plaintiff's claim for punitive damages violates the Defendant's right to access the courts as guaranteed by the Seventh and Fourteenth Amendments because the threat of an award of punitive damages chills the Defendant's exercise of that right; the Plaintiff's claim for punitive damages violates the Eighth Amendment's guarantee that excessive fines shall not be imposed, the Plaintiff's claim for punitive damages violates both the due process and equal protection clauses of the Fourteenth Amendment in that the standard for awarding either punitive damages is unduly vague and, therefore, violates both procedural and substantive due process safeguards; therefore, the Plaintiff's claim for punitive damages should be dismissed.

FOR AN EIGHTEENTH DEFENSE

24. Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. §15-32-520, any proceeding to determine punitive damages should be bifurcated from any trial to determine liability and compensatory damages.

FOR A NINETEENTH DEFENSE

25. Any award of punitive damages should not exceed the greater of three (3) times the amount of compensatory damages as provided for in S.C. Code Ann. §15-32-530.

FOR A TWENTIETH DEFENSE

26. These Defendants would show that if the Plaintiffs are entitled to any recovery against them, which is specifically denied, then Defendants are entitled to a set off of all sums of monies recovered from other potentially liable parties herein or monies obtained from any other source obtained by or on behalf of the Plaintiffs by way of the settlement, judgment, or otherwise, which Plaintiffs recovered from any other potentially responsible party.

FOR A TWENTY-FIRST DEFENSE

27. The Defendants would show, upon information and belief, that the injuries sustained by the Plaintiffs were the result of the sole negligence of the Plaintiffs and therefore, the Plaintiffs cannot recover any sum whatsoever from the Defendants.

FOR A TWENTY-SECOND DEFENSE

28. These answering Defendants are informed and believe that plaintiffs and/or their agents failed to preserve and permitted the spoliation of material evidence. Such conduct bars recovery from Defendants and/or gives rise to liability for damages payable to these answering defendants.

FOR A TWENTY-THIRD DEFENSE

29. The Plaintiffs are without proper standing to assert any cause of action against these Defendants.

FOR A TWENTY-FOURTH DEFENSE

30. Defendants Kevin Carter and Richard Davis specifically reserve the right to assert any further defenses as may be revealed by additional information acquired during discovery or otherwise from any other party herein. Defendants Kevin Carter and Richard Davis further reserve the right to amend this Answer to assert any other applicable defenses, to assert any applicable cross and/or counterclaims, and to implead any other applicable parties.

WHEREFORE, having fully answered the Plaintiffs' Complaint, the Defendants Kevin Carter and Richard Davis would pray that the same be dismissed with cost being granted to them. The Defendants Kevin Carter and Richard Davis also pray for such other and further relief as the court deems just and proper, and also demands a trial by jury.

The Appellants' argument will be more fully addressed in the attached Memorandum of Points and Authorities in Support and Timeline.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Appellants requested additional time to serve and file an amended return to the Respondents Carter and Davis' motion to dismiss appeal numerous times for good cause shown to sufficiently and adequately address the multiple errors made by the Respondents Carter and Davis. The return made in a good faith effort to comply with the previously underestimated calculations for extensions of time due to the Appellants, especially Appellant Gersten's, extraordinary circumstances and is permitted by RULE 263(B), SCACR, EQUITABLE TOLLING and TITLE II OF THE AMERICAN DISABILITIES ACT.

On May 16, 2019, the Appellants learned of the orders dated May 2, 2019 and May 14, 2019 on-line on the Court's Website. They did not 'receive' them from the mail or from an email or from personal service. In a good faith effort to comply, this motion is being made which is combined as a Return and/or Motion for Reinstatement and/or Petition for Rehearing. It is being made under duress in an attempt to follow the rules laid out in SCACR. To prevent the miscarriage of justice, these documents are being overnighted as well as faxed to the Court, as they are to be received by the Court within fifteen (15) days of the date of the filing of the orders. The May 14, 2019 order stems from the alleged non-compliance of the order of May 2, 2019 which is the subject of this motion(s). It is suggested to permit the Appellants to amend this motion in light of the good cause shown for not receiving the order in time to fully comply.

For these reasons, the reasons in the attached Affidavit of Heidi Gersten and all documents in the Court file and the Appellants' forthcoming Brief, the Court has jurisdiction as the Notice of Appeal was timely served and filed per SCACR rules.

Appellants

STATE OF FLORIDA,
SS:
COUNTY OF PALM BEACH.

HEIDI GERSTEN, BEING FIRST DULY CAUTIONED AND SWORN
DEPOSES AND STATES AS FOLLOWS:

1. I am the Appellant herein, and have read the foregoing Appellants' Motion to Reinstate Appeal as well as the attached Return to the Respondents Kevin Carter and Richard Davis' Motion to Dismiss Appeal With Leave and Petition for a Rehearing on said motion, which includes all pages attached, and know the contents thereof, that the same is true of my own knowledge, except as matters therein stated to be alleged on information and belief; and to those matters, I believe them to be true.
2. The facts stated herein are personally known to me and I have first-hand direct knowledge thereof and to those facts that are in addition stated are based on information and belief.
3. If called upon to do so, I would and could competently testify to hereto under oath in a court of law operating under the laws of the State of South Carolina and the United States Constitution.
4. The Appellants served and filed motions to extend time to amend their return to Kevin Carter and Richard Davis' motion to dismiss appeal on March 7, 18, 25, and April 5, 15, 25, 2019 and would have requested an additional extension on May 6, 2019, except due to mitigating circumstances, there were heavy thunderstorms that day that prevented the deadline from being met. (Exhibit 1)
5. I sat in my wheelchair with the paperwork that I was ready to turn in to comply with the 'motion for extension to file' rules when I heard the strike of thunder and looked outside and saw that it was raining heavily, with the sky very dark. With a heavy heart, I knew I would not be able to wheel to the post office and UPS store that day. I took a screenshot of the weather report that day at the time I was leaving. (Exhibit 1)
6. I became aware of the order dated May 2, 2019 on May 16, 2019, after I learned that the iPad I recently got was able to access the Court's website. I read said order online and in a good faith effort to comply under the South Carolina Appellate Civil Rules, SCACR, these motions and documents are being submitted. Prior to getting the iPad, I was unable to access the Court's website from my over 10 year old incompatible computer.

7. Had there not been thunderstorms on May 6, 2019, I would have been able to ride in my wheelchair to the post office and UPS store and the May 2, 2019 order would have been partially complied with as some of the information requested was in the documents that were anticipated to be served and filed that day. A new motion was being composed when the May 2nd and 14th orders were learned of.
8. In a frenzy to comply with the rules, a draft was written for a petition for rehearing and Henrietta from You've Been Served, LLC, processing service was contacted. I explained to her that the only way to have the documents received by May 17th, less than 24hrs of learning of the order, was to get the documents to her via computer and have her go in person to file them. I would not have been able to sign them since I don't have the technology to sign and then scan into my computer and office stores were closed at that hour. She brought up the fact that even if I could, she would only be bringing in a copy and not an original. Therefore, there was no real chance to comply with the order in such a short amount of time learning of it a day before its deadline nor correct the numerous errors that may be contained in it due to the very limited time to complete what is necessary to have it received by the Court within fifteen (15) days from the date of the order to prevent a remittitur being sent to the lower court or administrative tribunal in accordance with Rule 221. Hiring a process server to file in person appeared to be the only option at that point.
9. The petition for rehearing of the motion may be combined with the motion for reinstatement as they stem from the same issues.
10. I would also suggest that the Appellants' Return for the Respondents Kevin Carter and Richard Davis' motion for dismissal be combined when taking things under consideration since its' sole argument within the numerous unpaginated pages that are well over fifty (50) in count revolves around the sole issue of timeliness.
11. I called the Appellate Court on May 17, 2019 and spoke to Shelby who informed me that it wasn't necessary to do a petition for rehearing on the May 2, 2019 order however the May 14, 2019 triggered the time to do a motion to reinstate within 15 days being Wednesday, May 29, 2019.
12. In addition to being paralyzed, having an open phase 4 pressure wound on my left buttocks, phase 1 pressure wound on my right buttocks, living without a caregiver, litigating multiple lawsuits in multiple states without an attorney, having been the victim of numerous crimes, participating in a criminal pretrial conference as a subpoenaed victim, and the learning of the passing of my father under the cause of action of tortious interference with a dead body, I was was summoned as a juror for May 13, 2019, all this year. (Exhibit 2) (Proof of any of the foregoing is available upon request.)

13. Leave of court should be administered in favor of justice. There is plenty of good cause shown.
14. Patience is a judicial canon. I require much patience. What seems like plenty of time to an able body is a fraction of the time it takes me to do simple things. It took 7 months before I was finally able to get my bathroom accommodated to where I am now able to shower independently, to give an example of the amount of time it took to be at a standard of living that most people take for granted.
15. This is an effort to show the Court that the Appellants take this matter seriously and are diligently attempting to comply with the rules. The American Disabilities Act permit modifying court rules to accommodate me due to my disabilities and remains undefeated when an action has been brought forward under Title II. Appellants prefer not to file a federal complaint. Time is of the essence however health is an issue to take into consideration.
16. Words do not describe the horror of being unable to care for myself at my standards since this collision. I was the one who took care of others and demonstrated an unprecedented amount of courage, strength, wisdom, knowledge, love, compassion, forthrighteousness, tenacity, candor, intuition, empathy, endurance and love in my family however perhaps I lacked gratitude for myself. I took for granted the amazing person that I am.
17. Judge Zamore was the first public authority I faced through this process who infused me with inner solidity, repeating to me as I looked into his eyes, "You are worthy!" My whole life, no one has ever said those words to me. I'm happy that he stood behind a red, white and blue flag. He understood my pain. Yet he is bound by these words on paper, called law. I will find the right combination and when I do, I will unlock the key to my therapy and simple pleasure of pursuing every remedy available to me in order to obtain control of my body. I will walk again!
18. Judge Underwood was the first judge to issue an order in favor of granting me a continuance to a court date I received a day before a holiday weekend last year, giving me 3 days to find a ride as a paralyzed person who hadn't left her bed in months and travel over 800 miles in one direction to attend and declared me a victim in addition to Judge Zamore. I called the clerk and wrote an objection to Respondent/Defendant Kevin Carter's acceptance of a plea offer to reduce his DUI charge, which in truth and fact, qualifies to be a felony charge as a DUI with great bodily injury. It's no surprise he took the offer of a $440 fine and reckless driving in front of my eyes. This game of lucky breaks because someone knows how to manipulate the law better is unbelievable. My entire experience of how challenging it is to get help to be made whole again is history in the making.

19. This process has taught me to be indifferent.
20. It may be hard to imagine for some, the enormous amount of effort it takes to do simple things that able-bodied people can do, such as use a toilet.
21. I live under extraordinary circumstances and with extreme hardships.
22. Attached to this affidavit is a 5 page document labeled TIMELINE OF EVENTS WITH LAW AND ARGUMENTS THAT INCLUDE A MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES THAT PROVE TIMELINESS OF APPELLANTS' NOTICE OF APPEAL that prove:

24. The Appellants and Respondents are required to comply with the rules of SCRCP.

25. Note that under South Carolina's rules (SCRCP), service of motions is required on defendants however certified mail return with return receipt is not.

SCRCP 5 (1) Same: How Made.... Service by mail is complete upon mailing of all pleadings and papers subsequent to service of the original summons and complaint.

26. Note that under South Carolina's rules (SCRCP), proof of service, for the summons and complaint, is required to be filed and it further indicates that other paperwork that must be served, must also be filed with the court however there is no requirement of a certificate of service for such subsequent paperwork. Service by mail is complete upon mailing of all pleadings and papers subsequent to service of the original summons and complaint.

SCRCP 5(d) Filing. All papers required to be served upon a party except as provided in Rule 26(g)(1), shall be filed with the court within five (5) days after service thereof. The summons and complaint shall be filed before service. Proof of service shall be filed within ten (10) days after service of the summons and complaint. Upon failure to serve the summons and complaint, the action may be dismissed by the court on the court's own initiative or upon application of any party. Upon failure of a party to file other pleadings, motions, or papers, the court may permit filing or proceed as though the same had not been served.

27. Given the complexity of this matter, with numerous respondents and excessive documents to deal with, in addition to the extreme hardship and extraordinary circumstances Appellant Gersten lives with, there is good cause shown for additional time to provide the information that will prove the Appellants' timeliness in serving and filing the notice of appeal.
28. According to the SCACR, the Appellants should not be subjected to serving and filing a return when the Respondents Carter and Davis' Motion to Dismiss does not have the correct case number, along with the burden of sorting through 64 un-paginated pages. In addition, there is a litany of information nonrelated to the issue at hand therefore will be saved for the Appellants' brief. The only pertinent issue currently is proving timeliness of the Appellants' Notice of Appeal.
29. The date the Notice of Appeal was timely served and filed on Respondents Kevin Carter and Richard Davis was November 15, 2018. Proof of service was attached to said Notice of Appeal for the court's filing.
30. The motions for reconsideration were timely filed according to court rules.
31. The Appellants are hereby reserving the right to amend this return should additional information be necessary.
32. I was paralyzed as a result of the collision in controversy with the Respondent Kevin Carter and the Respondent Richard Davis co-owned the vehicle involved.
33. It is unfair to hold me to the same standards as able-bodied people.
34. The American Disabilities Act, An agency of the US Department of Justice Civil Rights Division, applies to and protects me.
35. Title II of the American Disabilities Act permits modifications to court rules to accommodate my situation due to my disability.
36. The Doctrine of Equitable Tolling may also be applied to my circumstances.
37. I urge the Court to permit this APPELLANTS' AMENDED RETURN TO RESPONDENTS CARTER AND DAVIS' MOTION TO DISMISS APPEAL AND AFFIDAVIT OF HEIDI GERSTEN TO BE COMBINED WITH MOTIONS TO REINSTATE APPEAL AND/OR PETITION FOR REHEARING OF MOTION TO DISMISS MADE BY RESPONDENTS INTERINSURANCE EXCHANGE OF THE AUTOMOBILE CLUB, KEVIN CARTER AND RICHARD DAVIS to be considered in light of the good cause shown.

38. These extensions were not for the purpose of delaying. For the furtherance of justice and to prevent its miscarriage, this appeal must be reinstated and the Appellants be permitted to move forward on its merits.
39. To be so strict on a date on the calendar causes the merits of the actions to be replaced as the primary purpose of litigation. The brief cover must be "red or read?"
40. I can only do so much in a given day. I'm paralyzed without a caregiver.

TIMELINE OF EVENTS WITH LAW AND ARGUMENTS THAT INCLUDE A MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES THAT PROVE TIMELINESS OF
APPELLANTS' NOTICE OF APPEAL

Appellants received and/or obtained written notice of entry of each of the following separate orders on appeal.

ORDER DATE	FILE DATE	JUDGE	DATE OBTAINED	DATE RECEIVED
04/26/18	04/26/18	Judge Gibbons (Consolidation Order)(Subject of this Appeal)	05/05/18 - On-line Court Website	N/A

(NOTE: Pursuant to SCRCP, a timely Motion to Alter or Amend a Judgment or Order was served on the Respondents (Defendants) on May 6, 2018 and filed on May 8, 2018, pursuant to Rule 59(e), SCRCP, which requires that a motion to alter or amend be "served not later than 10 days after receipt of written notice of the entry of the order."

This rule does not preclude the motion from being served prior to or earlier than 'receipt'.

According to the interpretation of these rules, the said May 8th motion is timely as it has been served prior to 'receipt', and would apply if the Appellants were to serve and file it as of today's date since they have not 'received' a written notice of the entry of the order being challenged. It was 'obtained' online via the Court's Website.

(Perhaps the time may be ripe in presenting the Highest Court with a certified question in regards to whether or not initiating a case search on the Court's website and reading pleadings, orders, judgments or other documents constitutes "receiving" written notice or written notice of entry of judgments or orders or any other service of process. Does 'obtaining' documents online complete service in the process of active or inactive litigation? Is an uncertified or certified document online form found online create service on the litigant seeking the information?)

Similar to defendant litigants learning of an action being filed in the courthouse and within hours of the filing by plaintiff litigants, the defendant litigants obtain copies of the documents either from making copies that are online or going to the courthouse and requesting them in person. Does either of those two scenarios constitute service according to SCRCP rules?

(Perhaps, when these laws were written, modern technology wasn't in mind and with the advent of the computer, times have changed and this is something that ought to be addressed. Otherwise you end up with laws, like in Ohio, where the Supreme Court has ruled that both parties may actively participate in litigation, have a trial, and then one party proves that according to the rules, service was not perfected and everything is void. This logic defies common sense. There comes a point where the rules cannot dictate logic. In order to comply with rules, they must be self evident and in plain English and not ambiguous. The Appellants did follow the letter of the law as well as the spirit.)

The filing was made in person on May 8, 2018 by the Appellant/Claimant/Plaintiff Gersten, at the Chester Courthouse, minutes prior to the Respondent/Defendant Carter's sentencing in front of Judge Zamore, in Magistrate's Court. Deputy Clerk Atkinson was instructed and agreed to provide a copy to Judge Gibbons, pursuant to Rule 59(g), SCRCP, which requires that a party filing a Rule 59 motion "shall provide" a copy of the motion to the judge within 10 days of filing. The Appellant Gersten traveled from Florida with her pressure wound, by vehicle with friends to attend the hearing she was subpoenaed to by Judge Underwood, invoking her Victim's rights under the SC Victim's Constitution as a witness.)

(ALSO, NOTE: There is no requirement of a certificate of service or proof of service to be filed with the court under SCRCP for anything other than the summons and complaint. Service is complete upon mailing, as in "regular mail". There is no requirement to certify or do registered mail in SCRCP.)(Perhaps this is ripe for a certified question as to whether or not certificates of service are required.)

05/21/18 05/22/18 Judge Gibbons 05/16/18 - On-line N/A
Court Website

(NOTE: Appellants have not received this order in the mail nor email nor any other method of service as provided by SCRCP nor was permitted to review it in the proposed form for accuracy or objections. The issue at hand is moot since it did not affect any part of this matter, so no need to address it in depth other than to make note that it was not served on Appellants/Plaintiffs and used as an example of the course of conduct.)

(ALSO, NOTE: Appellants served "Second Amended Complaint and Demand For Jury Trial With Leave on Respondent/Defendants on September 17, 2018 and overnighted for filing on and received on September 24, 2018, under the mailbox rule, and file stamped on September 25, 2018.) (The pleadings were not closed on the premature hearing of September 5, 2018 in front of Judge Hayes for a variety of reasons including, but not limited to, a timely amended complaint that was served on the Respondent/Defendants and not answered at the time of the said hearing. All of this will be further explained in the forthcoming brief which will focus on the merits and not timeliness. This is an attempt to satisfy the timeliness requirements although the American Disabilities Act Title II and Equitable Tolling excuse these restrictions and permit law to accommodate the Appellants and modify rules due to their disabilities.)

(NOTE: Appellants' Notice of Appeal has a typo error and should reflect the correct receipt of this order as September 19, 2018 if e-mails apply to non-attorneys as valid service, possibly another certified question to conclude, either way, the Notice of Motion and Plaintiffs' Motion to Alter or Amend a judgment or Relief from Judgment or Order was timely served on October 1, 2018 and filed on October 8, 2018 according to SCACR, thus, tolling the time to serve and file the Notice of Appeal.)

----------	----------	--	--	------------------------------------

NOTE that the Appellants did not actually receive the letter until two (2) days after its instructions to comply with its requests, causing it to be impossible, save for a nunc-pro-tunc, to follow with respect.

04/09/19	04/09/19	Clerk (Order) (Extension Granted)		04/17/19 - USPS Regular Mail
----------	----------	---	--	------------------------------------

(NOTE that the Appellants did not actually receive the clerk's order until 2 (two) days after its instructions to comply with its requests, causing it to be impossible, save for a nunc-pro-tunc, to follow with respect. Regardless, it says "...absent extraordinary circumstances." There are plenty of extraordinary, mitigating and extenuating circumstances. The Appellants are unaware of the authority of clerks of court to issue orders. Is this their duty?. It appears to be void on its face. Judges issue orders. With all due respect, this will be addressed in the future.)

05/02/19	05/02/19	Judge Lockemy (?) (Order) (Subject Matter For This Motion To Reinstate)	05/16/19 On-line	05/17/19 - USPS Regular Mail

(NOTE that the Appellants did not actually receive the judge's order, presuming that it was indeed a judge who signed this order as the last name is not legible and there is no printed legible version for the Appellants to ascertain its signor, until the day its instructions to comply were given, which was the same day. The first name "James" is legible and when the Court's website is accessed, one can see that there is a judge James Lockemy however is is uncertain if this is who signed this order or someone else. Again, with all due respect, the Appellants are doing what they can to follow orders and obey the law.)

Note that the Appellant Gersten called the Court and spoke with Shelby who informed her that this order did not trigger a motion to reinstate or petition for rehearing, which subsequently caused an order filed on May 14, 2019 issued by a clerk with illegible handwriting and no printed name. As said before, the Appellants question or challenge the authority for clerks to issue orders. One of a judge's duty is to issue orders. The Appellants are unaware of any rule except for Rule 260 (a) Involuntary Dismissal and Reinstatement, SCACR, which states, "Whenever it appears that an appellant or a petitioner has failed to comply with the requirements of these Rules, the clerk shall issue an order of dismissal, which shall have the same force and effect as an order of the appellate court. A case shall not be reinstated except by leave of the court, upon good cause shown, after notice to all parties. The clerk shall remit the case to the lower court or administrative tribunal in accordance with Rule 221 unless a motion to reinstate the appeal has been actually received by the court within fifteen (15) days of filing of the order of dismissal (the day of filing excluded). The Appellant Gersten spoke with case manager Elizabeth about a fax being permitted as being "received" by the court. The Appellants will also overnight this for an expected delivery date of May 29, 2019, which would be timely. Becky also affirmed that faxes and overnight deliveries are file-stamped the same day received.

05/14/19	05/14/19	Clerk	05/16/19	On-line	~4
		(Dismissal Order)

		Pending Motion for

(NOTE: The Appellants have not received written notice of entry of this order and learned about it on 05/16/19 after searching case records and in a good faith effort are attempting to comply.)

Given the extraordinary, mitigating and extenuating circumstances, the Appellants move this Court for an Order granting their motion for reinstatement and/or petition for rehearing of motion to dismiss and acceptance of their Return of Respondent Kevin Carter and Richard Davis' Motion to Dismiss as timely.

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Did the Court of Appeals err in dismissing this appeal is stating that the Court was unable to discover that any material fact or principle of law had been either overlooked or disregarded, and hence, found no basis for granting a rehearing or reinstating the appeal?
2. 6. Did the Court of Appeals err in finding that the Appellants failed to comply with the Court's order dated May 2, 2019 when in truth and fact the information requested had been previously presented by the Appellants and therefore the order was complied with?
7. Did the Court of Appeals err in finding that the word 'shall' is permissive?
8. Did the Court of Appeals err in not complying with Title II of the American Disabilities Act?
9. Did the Court of Appeals err in not applying the doctrine of Equitable Tolling to the Appellate Gersten's extreme hardship due to her illness of pressure wounds, a secondary complication from the paralysis she sustains as a result of the collision in controversy?
10. Did the Court of Appeals err in not permitting the Appellants to formulate their brief?

INTRODUCTION

This Petition arises from a dismissal of the Court of Appeals. (Appx. at 3-4). It presents a novel question as to the ability of a judge to consolidate two matters (cases) (a state legislative non-binding arbitration regarding property damage due to an automobile collision and a civil action) comprised of different plaintiffs and different defendants and only the arbitration case having perfected service at the time of the consolidation ruling being challenged, among other things, before the Court of Appeals. In addition, the Court of Appeals mistakenly dismissed the appeal for a variety of reasons, misanalysing the standard of review in conflict with the previous opinions of this Court, conflating an action at law with a question of law. This error will give rise to confusion in any case seeking a declaratory judgment and raising questions of statutory construction. These issues implicate the express terms of Rule 242, SCACR, and warrant a grant of discretionary review by this Court.

This argument is further supported by In that filing, "this appeal presents both an issue of significant public interest and a legal principle of major importance. Those concerns remain following the dismissal of the Court of Appeals. ...this appeal warrants prompt consideration and final determination by this Court.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND FACTS

Petitioner Gersten and Respondent Carter were involved in an automobile collision on March 19, 2015 in Chester County, South Carolina which resulted in paralyzing Petitioner Gersten. Petitioners Gersten and Ayoub timely filed and served an arbitration hearing under statute ... against. A subsequent case was filed adding Daniel Hubbard as a plaintiff and additional defendants were named. Judge Gibbons made a consolidation ruling without hearing or notice to consolidate these two actions. At the time of said ruling, the second action was not served upon defendants causing the ruling to be void or voidable. On a timely motion to amend ... was made by the plaintiffs. On September 18, 2018 a hearing was made before Judge Hayes however this motion was not ruled on as well as other motions before the court and the hearing was premature because the pleadings were not closed and the plaintiffs had submitted a timely amended complaint to which the defendants had not answered at the time of the hearing. Judge Hayes verbally dismissed all litigants except for Plaintiffs Heidi Gersten and Ivanka Ayoub and Defendant Kevin Carter against the plaintiffs' objections. Written orders were issued on without the plaintiffs opportunity to review them for accuracy. On Plaintiffs Gersten and Ayoub timely filed and served a motion to amend. On Judge Hayes arbitrarily and generically denied the motion without oral hearing or legal determination. A timely motion for appeal was made by Appellants on. A motion to extend time to serve brief was timely filed and served on however via a letter from the Court of Appeals stated that Respondent AAA had filed a motion to dismiss the same day as the Appellants therefore the Court of Appeals returned their check for $50 instructing or advising the Appellants that the matter was stayed until a decision was made by the Court of Appeals on the motion to dismiss per statute Rule, SCACR. The date of the receiving of the motion was on however at that time, the Respondent AAA had not paid the proper filing fee and was given time to cure the deficiency by the Court of Appeals although rule of SCACR says that a clerk shall dismiss the motion for failure to comply with the rules Rule SCACR see letter. A timely return was made by the Appellants based on the date that the. On Respondents Carter and Davis filed a motion to dismiss. During the time permitted to file and serve a return, Appellant Gersten suffered a series of health complications related to a pressure wound she has been dealing with for over 4 years as a result of being paralyzed as a result of the collision in controversy that caused the Appellants to file a series of motions to extend time to file and serve the return. In addition the motion was not paginated as the rules instruct and had the wrong case number. The sole argument through the litney of information was that the Appellants had not filed their appeal timely. The remaining respondents had not filed motions to dismiss. One only has to study the record to find the Appellants complaining about not receiving the documents related to this action until days after the requested information. This course of conduct is significant because the official reason for dismissing the appeal alleged that the appellants did not follow the rules. The questions that Judge asked were already answered when the notice of appeal was served and filed regardless of which date pertained to which respondent. There is no question or debate of whether or not the return to AAA was made on time. Carter and Davis' return was made

As argued above, the Court of Appeals applied the wrong standard of review in this case and failed to comply with Title II of the American Disabilities Act resulting in harmful error to the Appellants.

The Petition for Writ of Certiorari and Appendix is due on September 24, 2019 per Order of this Court dated September 24, 2019 in said case number and therefore is timely. Due to Petitioner Gersten's extreme hardships suffered from being paralyzed as a result of the controversy in action and the pressure wounds that resulted as secondary complications from being paralyzed, the Petitioners hereby thank this Court for the compassion extended in granting an additional six (6) days of the requested twenty (20) that was requested due to the Petitioner Gersten's life threatening illness. She is unable to sit for more than a few hours at a time and lives without a caregiver, performing her own wound care as well as litigating numerous lawsuits without an attorney. The Petitioner's also appreciate the rapid response to the request however did not receive notice of the Order until September 17, 2019 as the course of conduct from the inception of filing as shown that the Petitioners often receive information after the due dates issued in letters which is the crux of the dismissal of the Petitioner's Appeal and in the following they will attempt to explain how the Court of Appeals misinterpreted and or misapplied laws, making harmful errors to the Petitioner's. With all due respect, it has been said that "Ignorance is no excuse for the law and that non-attorneys are held to the same standards as attorney. With that logic, then non-attorneys should be treated equally under the law and the phrase, "What's good for the goose is good for the gander should apply."

The official Order of the Appellate Court mistakenly states that the Appeal is dismissed because the Petitioners failed to follow the laws laid out in SCACR. Not only did the Petitioners follow the law, they provided the Court of Appeal with a total of in for motions for extensions of time to make a Return to Carter and Davis' Motion to Dismiss. There are no grants for each individual motion made. There is one Order made on extending to and a request for three questions. The Petitioners were ordered to produce information and received the order after the deadline of the time to comply making it impossible to comply.

1 THE COURT: Moving back over to the motions roster, I
2 am at number 21, which is a motion for continuance by Heidi
3 Gersten, and it will take me a minute to get everybody's
4 appearance. All right. And you're Ms. Gersten?

5 MS. GERSTEN: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Counsel, tell me who you are and you
7 represent.

8 MR. SAWYER: Yes, sir, Judge. Wesley Sawyer, I
9 represent Kevin Carter and Richard Davis.

10 THE COURT: All right, Carter and Davis.

11 MR. SLYE: Your Honor, I am David Slye, and I represent 12 Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company and Joseph Tirbovich.

13 THE COURT: Spell that for me.

14 MR. SLYE: T-i-r-b-o-v-i-c-h.

15 MR. WILLIAMS: Your Honor, I'm Reynolds Williams, I
16 practice in Florence. I represent the Interinsurance
17 Exchange of the Automobile Club.

18 THE COURT: Tell me that again.

19 MR. WILLIAMS: Interinsurance Exchange of the 20 Automobile Club.

21 THE COURT: I still couldn't hear you, that's my fault
22 not yours. Tell me again.

23 MR. WILLIAMS: It's Interinsurance, that's all one 24 word. It's like Interstate Commerce except it's 25 Interinsurance Exchange of the Automobile Club.

1 MR. DWORJANYN: Peter Dworjanyn with Collins and Lacey.

2 THE COURT: I'll have to get you to spell that for me.

3 MR. DWORJANYN: D-w-o-r-j-a-n-y-n.

4 THE COURT: And you represent?

5 MR. DWORJANYN: Trust Guard Insurance Company and John

6 Ammendola, A-m-m-e-n-d-o-l-a.

7 THE COURT: All right.

8 MR. DWORJANYN: Thank you.

9 THE COURT: Ms. Gersten, this is your motion, it's a

10 motion to continue.

11 MR. DAVIDSON: Your Honor, I'm trying to -- I decided

12 to take the jury box for my desk. Will Davidson, and I

13 represent the South Carolina Department of Public Safety and 14 Trooper Herbert Blackwell.

15 THE COURT: Herbert Blackwell?

16 MS. GERSTEN: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: All right. Good to see you.

18 MR. DAVIDSON: Thank you, sir.

19 MR. SAWYER: Your Honor, if I may real briefly, I

20 believe one thing that may help in terms of housekeeping and

21 moving things along, I don't know that any of the defendants

22 oppose the motion for continuance as it would apply to the 23 roster for the jury or an arbitration proceeding if one were

24 to take. I think we would just oppose the continuance of 25 motions that are before the Court.

1 THE COURT: All right. So collectively the defendants
2 do not oppose a motion to continue the actual hearing of 3 arbitration or a trial on the merits.

4 MR. SAWYER: Is that right?

5 (All defense attorneys said yes.)

6 THE COURT: Is that what you're asking to continue and 7 let us go for the requested motions today, Ms. Gersten?

8 MS. GERSTEN: Well, sir, before we get started I
9 thought we were having a court reporter here.

10 THE COURT: We do.

11 MS. GERSTEN: Oh, Michael, I didn't know you were the 12 court reporter, I just wanted to make sure. And my mother,
13 Ivanka Ayoub, is also a claimant in the arbitration and a
14 plaintiff in the civil action.

15 THE COURT: All right. I'm here, I'm a Judge, I've 16 been assigned to hear these cases. They're consenting to 17 you continuing the trial on the merits of the arbitration
18 and the civil litigation but we've got some motions to hear
19 today, do you understand that?

20 MS. GERSTEN: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Are you ready to go forward on those?

22 MS. GERSTEN: Yes, sir.

23 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Clerk, again, that puts us
24 with the Mr. Sawyer's motion to strike?

25 MR. SAWYER: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

1 THE CLERK: Correct.

2 MS. GERSTEN: Objection.

3 THE COURT: All right. Wait just one second, you're 4 getting ahead of me. All right. What is your objection?

5 MS. GERSTEN: My objection is he can't do a motion to 6 strike because he already did an answer. The rules say
7 you've got to do a strike before the answer and he answered
8 before the strike.

9 THE COURT: What rule says that?

10 MS. GERSTEN: Sir, I put it in my paperwork, it's in my 11 record here that says -- I would need a minute here.

12 MR. SAWYER: Judge, I can save us some time. Rule 12F
13 says that in part, but then it also says at anytime the 14 Court may order stricken from any pleading any insufficient
15 defense or any/or redundant immaterial pertinent or 16 scandalous matter. So the rule says the Court can do that 17 at anytime. And in my experience the common practice is to 18 file an answer and a motion to strike simultaneously,
19 because we're not moving to strike the entire complaint,
20 we're moving to strike portions of the complaint.

21 THE COURT: And you served them simultaneously?

22 MR. SAWYER: I did, yes, Judge.

23 MS. GERSTEN: But I still object for the record
24 because, sir, the rules say it's got to be before.

25 THE COURT: All right. I overrule your objection.

1 MS. GERSTEN: Excuse me?

2 THE COURT: I overrule the objection and we'll go
3 forward on the motion.

4 MS. GERSTEN: What is it, you said you overruled?

5 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am. We will go forward with the 6 motions. I'm looking at Rule 12F and --

7 MS. GERSTEN: I want to reserve my right to a motion
8 or --

9 THE COURT: You do. Once you say you object and I
10 sustain it you don't have to say you reserve your right,
11 it's automatically preserved.

12 MS. GERSTEN: Okay. I apologize.

13 THE COURT: That's okay. I understand you don't have 14 an attorney, but -- all right. Let's go forward on the 15 motion to strike.

16 MR. SAWYER: Thank you, Your Honor. This is actually a
17 motion to dismiss or in the alternative a motion to strike.

18 THE COURT: Oh, okay.

19 MR. SAWYER: We have two actions as you recognize, I
20 believe, Judge, that have been consolidated into one action
21 by Judge Gibbons.

22 MS. GERSTEN: Objection.

23 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

24 MS. GERSTEN: The consolidation is a void judgment and 25 that's what caused a lot of confusion, I apologize. But

1 Judge Gibbons didn't allow me to have an arbitration when
2 the rules say that I'm allowed to have an arbitration. It
3 doesn't prejudice anybody, it's an alternative dispute
4 resolution and Rule 12 of ADR is where I derive that from.

5 THE COURT: Well, but I was told by the clerk earlier
6 today that Judge Gibbons regardless of what -- has 7 consolidated the two cases.

8 MS. GERSTEN: But I never had a hearing so he violated
9 my fair due process law.

10 THE COURT: Well, that would be something for you to 11 appeal, I can't change what Judge Gibbons has done.

12 MS. GERSTEN: Well, then it wouldn't be an appeal, sir,
13 because it's an alternative dispute resolution.

14 THE COURT: Well, I'm not going to sit here and argue
15 with you, and I'm not saying that I'm the pinnacle of legal 16 knowledge, I have to --

17 MS. GERSTEN: I apologize, sir, I can't hear you.

18 THE COURT: Is that on now? Let me speak into it.
19 Mr. Sawyer, what do you have to say about that? I'm trying 20 to dig my way through it.

21 MR. SAWYER: Yes, sir, Your Honor. Very briefly, these 22 cases started out as two different cases.

23 MS. GERSTEN: Objection, it did not start out as two 24 separate cases, sir, that's not true.

25 THE COURT: Well, let's hear from him and then I'll

1 give you an opportunity to tell me --

2 MS. GERSTEN: As long as I can reserve my objections.

3 THE COURT: Well, you don't have to object to every
4 word. What you have to do is hear what he says and then
5 respond, do you understand? It's like a tennis match, he 6 gets to play his ball and then you get to return serve
7 however you wish. I'm not trying to squelch you or prevent
8 you from asserting any rights you may have, but I think you
9 are very well protected if he presents something and then
10 you present the other side.

11 MS. GERSTEN: Well, do you object to me yelling
12 objection when I hear something --

13 THE COURT: No. I don't object to your objection, you
14 object -- go ahead. At this time I'm finding that the cases
15 are consolidated at least for me hearing these motions, not 16 for trial, I don't know about that.

17 MS. GERSTEN: That's much better, thank you.

18 MR. SAWYER: Judge, by way of background, Ms. Gersten
19 originally filed a property damage arbitration case, and 20 then subsequently filed an action in circuit court for 21 bodily injuries. Both cases arise out of the same
22 automobile accident that occurred on March 19th of 2015. It
23 was an accident between a vehicle operated by Ms. Gersten
24 and a vehicle operated by one of my two clients, Kevin 25 Carter, and owned by Mr. Carter. There's no dispute that an

1 accident occurred. There's no dispute that both claims seek
2 damages out of that accident. Ms. Gersten, I understand,
3 represents that the property damage arbitration seeks the 4 property damages from that accident --

5 THE COURT: Well, let me -- this comes across my mind.
6 Did she file for a third person arbitration? Did she file
7 under the arbitration statute? Because she mentioned
8 alternative -- the ADR code, Alternative Dispute Resolution,
9 those rules wouldn't apply to a statutory arbitration. Did
10 you ask for a three judge or a three lawyer panel to 11 arbitrate the property damage under that statute?

12 MS. GERSTEN: I did. But the Rule 12 that I'm 13 referring to is a nonbinding arbitration hearing and an 14 award, which the rules would apply.

15 THE COURT: Well, I disagree with you on that but you
16 can appeal me. We're talking about two different things.
17 Arbitration is a statutory procedure.

18 MS. GERSTEN: Yes.

19 THE COURT: The rules for that would be applied -- I've 20 never heard of any rule issue involving that, but the 21 alternative -- that's not -- in reality it's sort of an
22 alternative dispute resolution but I don't believe it falls
23 under the alternative dispute resolution like mediation and 24 arbitration for a matter that's brought in civil court.

25 MS. GERSTEN: I disagree, sir.

1 THE COURT: I just wanted to clear up what I see as the
2 posture. All right, go ahead.

3 MR. SAWYER: Thank you, Judge. And it was the under 4 statute arbitration statute for property damage claims,
5 that's what it was filed under seeking a three panel
6 arbitration through the process through the circuit clerk of 7 court. The second action being the circuit court action,
8 but there's no dispute they both arise out of the same
9 automobile accident. The arbitration case in addition to 10 naming Kevin Carter named a slough of other defendants and 11 had allegations about insurance and about all sorts of other
12 things, I think it was about a 200 paragraph complaint.
13 When Judge Gibbons saw that, I think rightfully so, and 14 several things moved me to argue this is not within the 15 confines of the statutory property damage arbitration, and 16 seeing that Judge Gibbons said, "That's right. I'm removing 17 it from arbitration now that we've got two circuit court
18 actions that both deal with the same auto accident with the 19 same plaintiff they're supposed to be formed into one case."
20 And the Supreme Court set that precedent back in the 1920's
21 and 30's, I think the common law goes back well before that,
22 that you can't bring two actions to recover from one
23 accident. It's all supposed to be done in one action.

24 MS. GERSTEN: Objection.

25 THE COURT: Overruled. Go ahead.

1 MR. SAWYER: Okay. So Judge, that's where we are
2 today. Today we have a consolidated case of the circuit
3 court case, and we have three plaintiffs. The arbitration
4 case originally had Ms. Gersten. She did attempt to add her
5 mother, Ms. Ayoub, who is here. The circuit court actions
6 has Ms. Gersten, her mother Ms. Ayoub, and her brother,
7 Daniel Hubbard, who I don't believe is here today and is not
8 represented by an attorney. That at least gets us to where 9 we are now, which is a lot of background. The motions are 10 simply this, first of all we move to dismiss when there was 11 a separate arbitration case, move to dismiss that case under 12 Rule 8 because there was the pending circuit court action.
13 Under the Flickner (phonetically) case, which is the South
14 Carolina Supreme Court case, it's 182 southeast 104, it's a
15 1935 case. The South Carolina Supreme Court held that a 16 plaintiff can't bring separate actions, can't split their 17 causes between bodily injury and property damage. Once you
18 choose to bring the bodily injury case you have to bring 19 everything in under it. So that's from the Supreme Court,
20 it's well established precedence, and therefore the property
21 damage case, once the circuit court action was filed was 22 duplicative under Rule 12 and it should have been dismissed.
23 So that gets rid of that case. And Judge, to give you an 24 idea of where we're heading, my goal by the end of this 25 argument is to show what we should have, despite all of this

1 pleading and everything else, what we should have at the end
2 of this day is an action between Heidi Gersten and Kevin
3 Carter for negligence. We've got a few steps to take to get
4 there but that's where we're headed. Hopefully I'll walk us
5 through that logically, I'll do my best. So that gets rid 6 of the property damage arbitration case and gets us down to 7 one action, I think that's the easiest and first step. The 8 second step, of course, is dealing with all the various 9 claims in the circuit court complaint. This names the 10 insurance companies, it names Joe Tirbovich, an insurance
11 adjustor; it names John Ammendola, who is CEO and President
12 I think of Grey's Insurance; it names the Department of 13 Highway; it names the investigating trooper; it names GM,
14 who manufactured the van that Ms. Gersten was operating,
15 although I don't believe they've been served. It names a 16 lot of different entities for a lot of different claims. If 17 you look at the complaint, though, Judge, the only factual
18 allegations that would support any cause of action are the 19 facts alleged against Mr. Carter. And, Judge, I represent 20 Mr. Carter, at the end of the day I expect him to still be 21 in this case. He's got a covenant not to execute dealing 22 with the bodily injury claim, but I do expect him to still 23 be in the case at the end of the day. As to Richard Davis, 24 who is my other client, the allegation against him is that 25 he co-owned the Honda Ridgeline that Kevin Carter was

1 driving at the time of the time of the accident, and as a
2 co-owner negligently entrusted, I guess, the vehicle to the 3 other owner of the vehicle, Kevin Carter. As a factual
4 matter that's not true, but for purposes of the motion to 5 dismiss I know that the facts don't necessarily matter. But 6 more importantly, Judge, you can't negligently entrust a 7 vehicle to the vehicle's owner. All of the courts that have
8 looked at that as far as I can tell across the country say
9 that's not a valid claim, because the owner who is driving
10 the vehicle at the time of the accident has a right of 11 possession. So you can't be liable for letting somebody who 12 has a right to possess the vehicle possess a vehicle, Judge.
13 And I think for that reason, Judge, the claim against 14 Richard Davis, the co-owner, should go out the window. At 15 that point it leaves all the other co-defendants. And 16 simply put, Judge, those can be put up into two balls:
17 Claims against the insurance companies, and claims against 18 the Department of Public Safety, and the trooper. The 19 claims against the insurance companies appear to try to 20 assert a breach of contract action and what might be some 21 form of third party bad faith action. And I say might 22 appear because there aren't facts that really explain all of 23 this, but that's my best gleaning from the complaint. Well,
24 there's no allegation of any contractual provisions that 25 were breached so there's no statement of any claim for

1 breach of contract in any of the complaints. And South
2 Carolina doesn't recognize third party bad faith, that's the 3 Cleckley case that's cited in our motion and the 4 co-defendant's motions, it's well established law, which 5 means there's no Standing for Ms. Gersten, or Mr. Hubbard,
6 or Ms. Ayoub to file any third party claim against
7 Nationwide or Joe Tirbovich either. So all of those claims
8 are not -- there's no facts to support them, and they are 9 not legally supported. For those grounds all of those 10 co-defendants and on the insurance side of things, which 11 would be Interinsurance Exchange, Trust Guard, John 12 Ammendola, and Joe Tirbovich should be dismissed. That 13 leaves us with Heidi Gersten and Kevin Carter, the 14 Department of Public Safety and Trooper Blackwell, and GM.
15 GM is real easy. There's no allegations of any product
16 defect that caused any injury to Ms. Gersten in the van.
17 There's no allegations of a component of the van that 18 malfunctioned, they're gone.

19 THE COURT: What are the allegations by Ivanka Ayoub.
20 Was she a passenger?

21 MR. SAWYER: She's not, Judge. Ms. Gersten was alone
22 in the vehicle. Ms. Ayoub claims a claim for loss of 23 consortium for her daughter's injuries, and apparently that's 24 what Mr. Hubbard claims. Now, with Mr. Hubbard not being 25 here I would move to --

1 MS. GERSTEN: Objection. He's not saying truthfulness
2 on some of that -- my mother, Ms. Ayoub, owned the vehicle.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 MR. SAWYER: Mr. Hubbard is not here. With him not
5 being here and not being represented I would move to dismiss
6 him for failure to prosecute since we're here for a motion
7 to dismiss anyhow. As to the loss of consortium claim for 8 Ms. Ayoub, Judge, the South Carolina Supreme Court in Doe
9 versus the County of Greenville School District case said
10 that the only consortium cause of action we recognize in 11 South Carolina is a spousal loss of consortium, and the only
12 reason that we recognize that is because there's a statute
13 that creates that right. And the what Supreme Court said in 14 the Doe case was, "All right. If the General Assembly
15 recognizes it here and doesn't recognize it for filial
16 consortium, then there is no filial consortium in South
17 Carolina. So that's the law in South Carolina. There is no
18 claim for filial consortium under our law, which means that 19 cause of action should also be gone. And I think that gets 20 us down to the Department of Public Safety and Trooper
21 Blackwell. The allegations against them are essentially 22 that they didn't do enough of an investigation after the 23 accident. Well, Judge, I don't think that there's any legal 24 duty that creates a tort claim against the Department of 25 Public Safety to conduct a certain level of investigation

1 after an accident, and even to the extent there is a duty it
2 didn't create any injuries here. The injuries here resulted
3 from the accident, not from the investigation.

4 MS. GERSTEN: Objection. It's not accurate, that's not
5 the claim.

6 THE COURT: Well, what he's saying is that something
7 that happened after the accident couldn't be what the law
8 calls a proximate cause of the accident, and, of course,
9 there's got to be proximate cause of the accident for there
10 to be the proximate cause of any injuries or damages.

11 MS. GERSTEN: I understand that, sir. It's a little 12 more entailed, though. Because the trooper originally was 13 not -- and I already spoke with Trooper Blackwell, he's a 14 fine man, but he said he's not qualified or trained to do
15 accident reconstruction and it prevented me from getting 16 counsel, because the early --

17 THE COURT: All right. Let Mr. Sawyer finish and then 18 I'll hear all of your --

19 MR. SAWYER: Thank you, Judge. There's no duty to 20 investigate on the part of the DPS, the Department of Public
21 Safety. And, of course, their counsel is here, I'm sure he 22 can elucidate that a lot better than I can. But with no
23 duty, there's no breach, there's nothing that can create a
24 causative action, plus there's an issue of proximate cause
25 for damages. So now we've got two cases boiled down to one

1 case, all of the other defendants are gone, and we've got
2 Heidi Gersten versus Kevin Carter. The last part of my
3 argument -- I'm almost done.

4 THE COURT: Okay. I'm having to think as we go along.
5 Wouldn't Ms. Ayoub have -- she should be the proper party in 6 the arbitration action to begin with, right? Not Ms.
7 Gersten.

8 MR. SAWYER: The problem -- that's right. The problem
9 with that part of the claim, Judge, was that Ms. Ayoub was 10 added to the arbitration case, the filing for adding her was 11 filed after the statute of limitations.

12 MS. GERSTEN: Objection. The rules don't say that.
13 The rules say that an amendment can be made before service,
14 so I filed the arbitration and mistakenly left my mother's 15 name off, and when I saw that I remedied it. They have no
16 prejudice because when they were actually served they were 17 served with her name attached.

18 MR. SAWYER: Judge, briefly to respond to that so we 19 don't have to do too much back and forth. Rule 5D says two 20 things: One, the summons and complaint shall be filed
21 before service, and two, that anything that doesn't have to 22 be filed before service has to be filed within five days of 23 service. Well, Mr. Carter and Mr. Davis were served on 24 March, I believe -- I've got a timeline here -- they were 25 served on March 17th, and the amended complaint wasn't file

1 until March 27th, 10 days later. The Court of Appeals in
2 what is albeit an unpublished decision, Venture Engineering
3 Inc. versus Algerie (phonetically) it's a 2008 Westlaw
4 9832815 held that when an amended complaint is served and 5 not filed within the five day time period, it's treated as a
6 nullity at least until it's filed. Well, Judge, it wasn't 7 filed until after the statute of limitations, and it's an 8 amendment adding a party, which means it can't relate back,
9 there's case law on that, too. So if it's filed after the 10 statute of limitations outside of the time required by Rule
11 5D and it can't relate back because it adds a party, then 12 it's void, the statute limitations applies. And on top of 13 all of that, Judge, there was no amended summons but they 14 added a party. If you add a party you can't just do an 15 amended complaint, you have to do an amended summons, and 16 there was never an amended summons that was issued and 17 served. So again, with all due respect, Ms. Ayoub's 18 property damage claim, it's gone by way of statute of 19 limitations.

20 MS. GERSTEN: And I object to that.

21 MR. SAWYER: So Judge, finally, the last part is,
22 there's about 18 different causes of action in the circuit
23 court bodily injury common pleas complaint. Most of them
24 attempt to just broadly state the elements of causes of 25 action, they go from fraud to duress to also sorts of other

1 claims. We really don't need to go through them item by
2 item, because Judge, if you just take a mere glance at it
3 you'll see that they don't allege any facts. And most of 4 the allegations, mostly the captioned causes of action,
5 don't even allege the elements, but in South Carolina you
6 can't just allege elements, you have to allege facts.

7 MS. GERSTEN: Objection, because it's been amended.
8 He's talking about the original but it has been timely
9 amended since then.

10 MR. SAWYER: I'm talking about the complaint that I
11 think -- is there a new one that was filed with the Court?

12 MS. GERSTEN: Yes.

13 THE COURT: You served it on the other party?

14 MS. GERSTEN: Yes.

15 THE COURT: When did you do that?

16 MR. SAWYER: Judge, I think that there is an amended
17 one that the parties are receiving right now in the mail.
18 Was it just mailed this week?

19 MS. GERSTEN: It was mailed timely before -- about 15
20 days before the court, ten days plus five days for mailing.
21 It was mailed on time.

22 THE COURT: Well, you attempted -- you filed an amended
23 complaint after the parties had answered.

24 MS. GERSTEN: Actually not all of their answers. The 25 last party that was actually served was July 15th,

1 July 15th, and you have 180 days before this can even go on
2 to a jury roster. And the last party hasn't even finished
3 their time that they're allowed to have to answer, they're 4 still in the answer. That's why this whole thing -- all of 5 these motions are premature, sir, the pleadings are not
6 closed.

7 MR. SAWYER: Judge, can I approach?

8 THE COURT: Yes.

9 MR. SAWYER: This, I believe, is the amended complaint
10 that she's referring to dated August 29th of 2018. Judge, 11 you'll notice from looking at that complaint again, the 12 exact same argument I was just going to give you still 13 applies, which is there's no factual allegations that 14 support the very many causes of action that are asserted in 15 the complaint, and cursory glance will reveal that, and 16 therefore all of those causes of action with the exception
17 of the negligence claim should be dismissed. And that gets 18 us down to where we should be, which is Heidi Gersten --

19 THE COURT: But any amendment under the Rule 15A, once 20 responsive pleadings are filed then you would have to have 21 leave of the Court to amend.

22 MR. SAWYER: Well, Judge, the problem with the amended
23 complaint, we're going to argue the exact same issues
24 because it alleges the same substance with the same defects.

25 THE COURT: I understand. I'm just trying to get the

1 procedure of where we are. Okay. Go ahead. I've got now a
2 copy in my hand, a copy of the amended complaint.

3 MR. SAWYER: And if she doesn't have leave that makes
4 it easier, of course, Judge.

5 THE COURT: Thank you.

6 MR. SAWYER: So Judge, that gets rid of everything. It
7 boils it down to what it should be, which is a complaint
8 against Kevin Carter by Heidi Gersten for negligence, it
9 simplifies this case into what it should be. If there are 10 any UIM carriers they can be properly served pursuant to the 11 UIM statute. And if there are any valid claims against any 12 insurance companies, none have been alleged, but if there
13 are they need to be dealt with in a separate legal action
14 and the law on that is clearly cited in everybody's motions,
15 I believe, and certainly in my motion. So Judge, that's 16 really the substance of it. We also have a motion to strike
17 a lot of the various allegations in the complaint as being 18 improper under Rule 12F, some of them dealing with the 19 investigation, which you just ruled on two motions ago, some 20 of them dealing with personal identifying information, some 21 dealing with various other aspects of the case. Those are 22 set out in the motion. I don't want to belabor the point
23 especially with the amended complaint, because I think we 24 would have to go line by line through the amended complaint
25 on the motion to strike, so I don't think we need to waste a

1 lot of the Court's time on that issue now. We can deal with 2 it at a subsequent point if we need to. Thank you, Your 3 Honor.

4 THE COURT: And anybody else on behalf of any of the 5 defendants?

6 MR. WILLIAMS: I would like to speak if I may, Your 7 Honor, very briefly. I'm Reynolds Williams again for 8 Interinsurance Exchange of California. The only allegation
9 in the complaint against my client is that they are -- that 10 they insured Mrs. Gersten at the time of the this wreck, and 11 I think they're entitled to be dismissed for failure to 12 state a claim of facts constituting a cause of action. In 13 addition my client -- I have filed an affidavit that has not 14 been contested from an appropriate executive officer of my 15 client, a vice president --

16 MS. GERSTEN: Objection, hearsay.

17 MR. WILLIAMS: And I filed an affidavit in support --

18 THE COURT: I overrule your objection. It's motions,
19 you can rely on affidavits.

20 MR. WILLIAMS: I filed that affidavit in support of my 21 motion for summary judgment in the -- and it was filed on 22 April 24th of this year.

23 MS. GERSTEN: Objection. I never received a summary
24 judgment. I've never received a summary judgment.

25 MR. WILLIAMS: It was placed in the United States Mail

1 for delivery to the plaintiff, Your Honor, and filed with
2 the Court. It's the affidavit of Gayle Lewis, who says that
3 my insurance company has no -- is not licensed in South
4 Carolina, has no offices, no agents, no property, no
5 policies issued, no employees, no address, no vehicles, and 6 does not even advertise in South Carolina. In other words,
7 it has zero contacts. It does not conduct business in the 8 state period. So it has -- it does not have minimum
9 contacts with the State of South Carolina, so this Court
10 would not have jurisdiction over it.

11 MS. GERSTEN: Objection. You would have jurisdiction
12 under the long armed statute.

13 THE COURT: Under the what?

14 MS. GERSTEN: The long armed statute.

15 THE COURT: I'm familiar with the long term statute,
16 but how would the Court have jurisdiction with somebody who 17 has no minimum contacts with the state?

18 MS. GERSTEN: Because they're providing services in the 19 state.

20 MR. WILLIAMS: I have an unchallenged affidavit that we 21 don't do that.

22 THE COURT: The affidavit states that they don't 23 provide services.

24 MS. GERSTEN: But it's hearsay, objection.

25 THE COURT: Well, I can accept what's stated in the

1 affidavit for the purposes of the motions. Go ahead.

2 MR. WILLIAMS: In addition, Your Honor, I think the law
3 in South Carolina is clear that insurance companies do not
4 get to be named as parties in causes of actions seeking to 5 determine liability for an accident. And I also -- in my 6 brief I cited a case of the South Carolina Supreme Court, it
7 is Doe versus South Carolina -- I think the citation is --

8 MS. GERSTEN: Objection. Because allowing it -- he 9 hasn't answered the amended complaint that I gave to you.

10 THE COURT: I've got the amended complaint in my hand.

11 MR. WILLIAMS: Your Honor, that amended complaint we 12 would argue is A, I haven't been served with, I've never 13 seen it, never laid eyes on it; B, it was improper for her
14 to file it. Because I filed my motion to dismiss this -- 15 the complaint that I know about I filed on the day after 16 service, which was, in fact, July -- I filed it on July 25th
17 of this year, which is more than 30 days prior to, of 18 course, August 29th and she doesn't have leave with the 19 Court. But in any event, the case to which I was going to 20 call Your Honor's attention is Doe v. Greenville County
21 School District, 651 Southeast Second 305 at page 308, in 22 which the Supreme Court makes it crystal clear that there's 23 no cause of action for a maternal loss of consortium or 24 filial loss of consortium in South Carolina, and no parents
25 and no siblings have such a cause of action.

1 MS. GERSTEN: Objection.

2 THE COURT: What's your objection?

3 MS. GERSTEN: I am here to write history. That might 4 be some case law but this is new case law right here.

5 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Objection
6 overruled. I have to go on precedent so I have to follow
7 the law.

8 MR. WILLIAMS: And finally, Your Honor, I think it's 9 finally, Mr. Hubbard is not here. I wrote Mr. Hubbard a 10 letter and informed him that if he were not here at this 11 hearing that we were moving to strike his complaint for 12 failure to prosecute. And I sent him a notice, a copy of 13 the Court's notices of the hearing and a copy of what 14 motions would be pending at this time.

15 MS. GERSTEN: Objection. I'm not familiar with that.

16 THE COURT: Well, that's dealing with Mr. Hubbard.
17 Mr. Hubbard's claim is separate from yours.

18 MR. WILLIAMS: I sent similar notice to Ms. Gersten and 19 similar notice to Ms. Ayoub since each of them is 20 representing themselves. Ms. Ayoub is here and Ms. Gersten
21 is here so I don't make that motion with respect to them.
22 And at the risk of repeating myself, with the interruption I
23 lost my train of thought a little bit, but I don't believe 24 that the complaint fails to -- I don't believe that the 25 complaint states facts constituting a cause of action

1 against the Interinsurance Exchange, because the only fact
2 about it stated in the complaint is that it insured
3 Ms. Gersten at the time of the accident. I don't know think
4 that's a cause of action to be an insurer of a person.
5 Thank you, Your Honor.

6 MR. DWORJANYN: May it please the Court? I'll try not 7 to cover too much of the same ground and I would adopt their 8 arguments. I represent -- sorry, Your Honor, Pete
9 Dworjany, and Trust Guard Insurance Company, and John 10 Ammendola. But I do have to say some things specific as to 11 Mr. Ammendola. He's the President and CEO of Trust Guard
12 Insurance Company. The Court lacks personal jurisdiction
13 over him -- first going to both -- of all of the pleadings,
14 the plaintiffs don't make any allegations as to Mr.
15 Ammendola whatsoever. And in the common pleas lawsuit he's 16 in the caption and that's it, there's no factual
17 allegations. And in the arbitration action it says he 18 violated Improper Claims Practices Act but there are no
19 facts as to it. There's no allegation that would bring 20 him -- there's no allegation as to his state of residency, 21 where he works, what he does, anything, just his name is in 22 the pleadings. He hasn't been served with the complaint, so 23 it's --

24 MS. GERSTEN: Objection. He has been served and I have 25 proof of service here.

1 MR. DWORJANYN: They mailed the complaint to Trust
2 Guard Insurance Company, but Mr. Ammendola did not sign for 3 it, and as a person being sued individually they would have 4 to serve him personally so they haven't served him
5 personally.

6 MS. GERSTEN: Objection.

7 THE COURT: Overruled.

8 MR. DWORJANYN: And finally and most importantly, there
9 are no allegations against Mr. Ammendola period, and there
10 are no allegations against Trust Guard Insurance Company.
11 Now, the reality is is that Trust Guard Insurance Company
12 had a property damage policy on Ms. Ayoub's vehicle that's 13 owned by Ms. Ayoub, the co-plaintiff, that's true, but they 14 didn't insure Ms. Gersten or Mr. Hubbard.

15 MS. GERSTEN: Objection.

16 MR. DWORJANYN: And there are no allegations in any of 17 the pleadings as to anything that Trust Guard did or did not 18 do. I know that that point has been stressed before, but 19 there's causes of action listed but there are no facts to 20 support a cause of action. It's kind of impossible to 21 defend a complaint where they don't say you did anything. A
22 legal conclusion isn't a cause of action. And I don't want
23 to waive this and I've got to argue it at this time, Your 24 Honor, I do have one other motion. So I've got motions to 25 dismiss Mr. Ammendola and Trust Guard, and I also have a

1 motion to quash discovery, which this might be moot
2 depending on what the Court does. But in the arbitration
3 action, which was joined with the common pleas lawsuit
4 consolidated, the plaintiffs served 62 requests to admit, 32
5 interrogatories, and 22 requests for production, which
6 don't -- aren't directed to any of the defendants. If you
7 don't mind I'll hand it up because I didn't put it in the 8 record. It's just these broad based allegations, almost all 9 of which don't have anything do with insurance, but they
10 really address the property damage claims. And, you know,
11 with respect to the request to admit they exceed the 12 possible numbers of requests to admit --

13 MS. GERSTEN: Objection. No, I didn't.

14 THE COURT: Overruled.

15 MR. DWORJANYN: If the case is going to go forward
16 against any party I would ask that the Court require the 17 plaintiffs to tailor their discovery requests to the 18 appropriate parties, and to limit her requests to admit to 19 the correct number of requests to admit. But that being 20 said, the cases against Trust Guard and Mr. Ammendola, Your 21 Honor, should be dismissed. Thank you.

22 MR. SLYE: Your Honor, David Slye on behalf of 23 Nationwide and Joe Tirbovich. I also adopt the arguments of 24 counsel, and I would appreciate Mr. Sawyer's recitation of 25 where we were going and I wholeheartedly agree with that.

1 THE COURT: Who is Tirbovich?

2 MR. SLYE: Tirbovich is an adjuster for Nationwide, and
3 then Nationwide is the liability insurance carrier on the 4 vehicle that was being driven by Kevin Carter. So that's
5 Nationwide's role in this. At this stage of the proceedings
6 it's not appropriate for the liability insurance carrier or 7 their adjusters to be involved any way in a property damage
8 arbitration or a lawsuit where they're litigating liability
9 and an automobile accident case. And so at this stage
10 certainly Nationwide and Mr. Tirbovich should be dismissed.
11 That's clearly established in Cleckley versus Northwestern
12 National, 338SC131, that's already been mentioned here
13 today. As it relates to the common pleas action, or the 14 arbitration action, Mr. Tirbovich, to my knowledge, has not 15 been served with any of these documents. He's been named as 16 an individual --

17 MS. GERSTEN: Objection, he's been served.

18 MR. SLYE: To the extent he's been served, Your Honor, 19 I haven't seen anything supporting that at this time. The 20 only allegation in the common pleas case is that Nationwide
21 does business in North Carolina, that's it. The rest of it
22 is just a recitation of the elements of the case and 23 generically labeling things as defendants. As has already 24 been mentioned, that's insufficient under South Carolina law
25 to form the basis for any of these causes of action as it

1 relates to Nationwide or Mr. Tirbovich, and therefore the 2 causes of action -- or both complaints in both cases should 3 be dismissed. But again, I just adopt the arguments that 4 have already been set forth, I think they apply equally to 5 all of the insurance companies.

6 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

7 MR. DAVIDSON: Will Davidson on behalf of the Highway
8 Department and Trooper Blackwell. Your Honor, counsel was 9 correct in regard to where we probably ought to end up at 10 the end of the day. My motion was filed on -- in such a 11 time frame that probably her amended complaint would be 12 applicable to my case. My motion, however, not only applies 13 to the original complaint but the amended complaint, and the 14 reason being, Your Honor, in the original complaint she 15 really never set forth any factual basis for her claims
16 against the highway department, public safety, and Trooper
17 Blackwell. In the amended complaint she now does set forth
18 some facts that deal with Trooper Blackwell, and therefore 19 the department, but it all centers around the accident
20 report that was prepared by Trooper Blackwell, and according 21 to her taking the pleadings as she has drafted them, later
22 amended by the MAIT Team, and that's paragraph 61, 62 and 23 63, she then claims that as a result of being given the 24 report on the day of her appearance in court, upon reading
25 the report she suffered damages. Well, the fact that the --

1 or troopers are required to prepare accident reports, and
2 number two, those accident reports are not evidence of lack
3 of due care and can only be used in a very limited time
4 frame of when the trooper is on the stand to help refresh
5 his memory. They are not the basis for any liability or any
6 claim of negligence in this case. So it's our position, you
7 know, under our motion that she did not set forth a valid
8 claim against the department, because the department's 9 duties and Trooper Blackwell's duties are, in fact, public
10 duties that apply to the public at large. Under the case of 11 Rayfield versus Pardon and Parole Board, and Arthur versus 12 Akin County, and other cases that deal with public duty, and 13 it goes back to originally Parker versus Brown, which is the 14 original case that decided that there was a public duty
15 issue in South Carolina, a citizen, and in this is 16 Ms. Gersten from Florida, would not have the ability to 17 bring a claim against the department, or for that matter the 18 trooper, because the only duty exists is that of a public
19 duty, and that public duty does not give rise to a private 20 right of action, number one. Number two, the damages she 21 sustained in this event occurred as a result of the 22 automobile accident which occurred in March of '15.
23 Therefore the post-accident report would not be the 24 proximate cause to give rise to any type of claim or cause
25 of action against either the department or Trooper

1 Blackwell. Next, Your Honor, under the Tort Claims Act
2 Trooper Blackwell is immune from suit and you have to sue
3 the department. Yet the department in this instance is 4 complying with the law, which says they are to have their
5 troopers prepare accident reports, and under the Tort Claims
6 Act that is a new function. Next, Your Honor, because the 7 cause of action originated as a result of her automobile
8 accident in 2015, this action on the face of the complaint
9 was brought in 2018. Under the South Carolina Tort Claims
10 Act, be it the amended complaint or the original complaint,
11 there is a two year statute of limitations to bring a cause
12 of action against the department. Last but not least, Your 13 Honor, she asked for punitives against everybody, including 14 me. And as the Court is aware under both the common law and 15 under the Tort Claims Act punitives aren't recoverable in 16 this matter against the department. So from the department
17 and Trooper Blackwell's point, whether I'm under the amended
18 complaint or under the original complaint, and I appreciate
19 Ms. Gersten submitting an amended complaint to clarify what 20 her claims were against the department, but even with that 21 clarification under the grounds that I have set forth, the 22 department and Trooper Blackwell insofar as he might have 23 any exposure in this matter, although I think under the Tort
24 Claims Act he's immune, we believe that the amended
25 complaint should be dismissed along with the original

1 complaint against the department. If the Court feels that I
2 need to file another motion I'll be glad to file another
3 motion, I'll be glad to come to another hearing, but for 4 economy's sake since everybody is here today I would just as 5 soon the Court go ahead and rule. Thank you, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Gersten, now I will be glad 7 to hear from you.

8 MS. GERSTEN: Thank you, sir. First of all I just want
9 to thank everybody for being here. I'm here to remedy my 10 grievances along with my mother. And it started out, sir, 11 where I read the law about this arbitration hearing for 12 property damage, and that was filed first, and everything
13 else came after when I realized it wasn't happening. Now
14 I've been told that here in this courthouse they haven't 15 done many arbitration hearings, if at all, and I feel the 16 confusion comes from the consolidating of the two because 17 they're separate plaintiffs and separate defendants, similar 18 but separate. And I would like to move the Court for an 19 opportunity to amend, because I understand it's the first 20 time I'm meeting Wesley, Mr. Sawyer, I've met him before at 21 the criminal when his client, Mr. Carter, was charged with 22 DUI. I went to the sentencing and I met Mr. Sawyer but 23 everyone else I've never met before. I would like to have 24 an opportunity to amend the complaint with leave of Court so
25 that I can address everything they're saying. I understand

1 maybe the communication was off, and it's not an
2 unreasonable request. I have come a long way, sir, and it's 3 not to delay anything, it's to present these facts, because 4 I'm an injured party and I just want to find my remedy. And 5 I still feel that the arbitration hearing should go on 6 because it's state legislative and it would give the parties
7 an opportunity to bring everything together, and a lot of 8 their complaints have to do with -- the arbitration said you
9 don't need all of these formalities. It didn't say you
10 couldn't use the discovery tools, but it said it wasn't 11 required, so I think there's a very misunderstanding with 12 what this is meant to be, that I wasn't supposed to be --
13 well, we -- my mother and I, we weren't supposed to be 14 restricted by all of these rules and regulations. My 15 understanding was it was a summary procedure, we could just 16 bring everything in and if either side didn't like it then 17 we go to jury trial. I decided to file, along with my 18 mother and my brother, other issues. But I feel that I'm 19 totally prejudiced because they got merged together, which 20 through the balance of the time limits and through the 21 balance of what everything was supposed to be way off, and 22 if you're ruling still that you're not going to overturn
23 what I consider the void judgment of Honorable Mr. Gibbons,
24 I would like an opportunity to amend the complaint based on 25 their arguments. So I move the Court for an opportunity to

1 amend this complaint. I may not know the exact case law,
2 sir, but courts advocate for people to have an opportunity,
3 First Amendment, Second Amendment, it's not unheard of. And 4 also some of the things that they were saying centered
5 around the word shall. Mr. Sawyer was speaking about 6 timeliness and things were done on a certain five days they 7 had to be filed, and I saw this, but I also know that
8 federal rules say that the only mandatory word is must. So
9 I understand -- and a lot of this rides on this discretion
10 of you, sir. And just so everybody knows, I'm sitting on a
11 pressure wound right now and so if I have a little issue
12 speaking I'm in a lot of pain. I came from Florida, my 13 friend drove me, it was very hard to endure but I'm here
14 because it's important. And I would like my opportunity to 15 remedy their arguments, because I put a lot of time and 16 effort into this. My life was changed. And I'm very, very 17 grateful to be here, and I'm so thankful that you are 18 listening, and I think that I have valid arguments, and 19 perhaps all the facts as they're saying did not line up with 20 the elements. But just understand in the beginning it was a
21 summary, and then some of the arguments they said it was too
22 much, everybody says it was out of the scope of arbitration,
23 it was too much, too much information. So when the civil 24 action was filed, it's true, I went along with my mother and 25 my brother, and we toned it down, we thought we were making

1 it easier. Now I understand what their arguments are, and a
2 lot of what they're saying I would like to examine the court
3 file, because I don't believe that some of these things have 4 been sent -- I do not remember any summary judgment being
5 filed. I would like a motion to continuance for another
6 opportunity to remedy what they're saying.

7 THE COURT: Well, I'm not going to second guess Judge
8 Gibbons, he's the administrative judge for this circuit and 9 this county and I'm bound by his ruling as far as the 10 consolidation, I'm not changing that, so the cases are still 11 consolidated. If he's wrong in that somewhere down the line
12 a higher court than myself, either a Court of Appeals or the 13 Supreme Court can tell Judge Gibbons he did the wrong thing, 14 I can't.

15 MS. GERSTEN: Okay, sir. But just know that the time
16 that things were due was thrown off. Common sense will tell
17 you that I didn't -- we didn't file until March 16th of 2018
18 for the second action. At that point the arbitration had 19 all been served, everybody was served, and I have proof of 20 service for everybody right here right now. And as a matter
21 the fact I would like to give this to you, sir --

22 THE COURT: I don't need it. I'm not concerned about 23 the times, the times are not going to be the basis for 24 whatever I do. I'm not concerned about whether or not 25 something was served on time or not.

1 MS. GERSTEN: I don't understand that you mean that
2 you're not concerned with what time was.

3 THE COURT: Well, let me let you finish your
4 presentation and then I will tell you what I think. I'm 5 thinking now how I need to dispose of this and let me listen
6 to the rest of what you have to say before I do it.

7 MS. GERSTEN: I didn't hear you.

8 THE COURT: Just go ahead with your argument.

9 MS. GERSTEN: Well, it's undisputed that Mr. Carter and 10 I had a collision.

11 THE COURT: Everybody agrees with that.

12 MS. GERSTEN: And I feel they want to sever away from 13 that, they feel it's a separate action because there's 14 breach of contract, and I feel that -- if it pleases the 15 Court, if you want to sever it I would still like to move
16 forward with my breach of contract issues.

17 THE COURT: What kind of contract did you have with 18 Mr. Carter?

19 MS. GERSTEN: No, not with Mr. Carter.

20 THE COURT: What kind of contract did you have with any 21 of these people?

22 MS. GERSTEN: With the Exchange --

23 THE COURT: You had a contract with the Exchange.

24 MS. GERSTEN: Yes, I did. I had a half million dollar
25 policy, and my underinsured motorist was not paid, along

1 with Trust Guard under insurance was not paid. Nationwide,
2 I feel that they were very dishonest with me. And I have a
3 recording of every single conversation I've had with every 4 single insurance company, and I can prove that what they 5 said to me was violations of many things, giving legal
6 advice. Nationwide wanted me to settle with what we didn't
7 agree upon, and the gentleman was very rude on the phone.
8 And these are separate actions that I would like to present,
9 perhaps not the proximate cause of the collision but
10 definitely -- and even if you were to dismiss I'm still well
11 within the statute of limitations for breach of contract
12 actions. So I would -- if you choose to sever I would like
13 an opportunity to amend my arguments and my facts, our facts
14 together about what had happened and why I am here today,
15 along with my mother.

16 THE COURT: Anything else?

17 MS. GERSTEN: Well, I mean, just going through the -- I
18 feel that the judgment of Judge Gibbons, Honorable Judge
19 Gibbons, is void for the record. And I still feel I would 20 like to have an arbitration hearing and to discuss 21 liability, which I could not find anything that says
22 liability is at fault. I believe that those are two 23 separate at fault and liability, especially when Nationwide
24 said that they accept liability, they accepted liability and 25 in my admissions they admitted that.

1 THE COURT: All right. Anything else?

2 MS. GERSTEN: I don't think that the pleadings are

3 closed.

4 THE COURT: Beg your pardon?

5 MS. GERSTEN: The pleadings are not closed.

6 THE COURT: Why not?

7 MS. GERSTEN: Because the time that the last person was

8 served, which was the South Carolina Department, was

9 July 15th, and this is a premature court hearing because we

10 haven't finished the pleadings and the discovery wasn't

11 closed.

12 THE COURT: Well, I disagree. I'm going to grant the 13 motions by the parties and ask each attorney to prepare an

14 order based on their presentation to the Court today,

15 including Mr. Hubbard's failure to prosecute, which will

16 leave the case with Ms. Gersten, and to the extent she has

17 an interest in the property I guess Ivanka Ayoub, against 18 Kevin Carter. Of course, you would have a right to appeal.

19 Just like you have a right to appeal Judge Gibbons you have 20 the right to appeal my orders once you get them.

21 MS. GERSTEN: I didn't understand what you just said.

22 THE COURT: I am granting their various motions to

23 dismiss the claims against everybody but Mr. Carter.

24 MS. GERSTEN: Everybody but Mr. Carter.

25 THE COURT: Yes.

1 MS. GERSTEN: Thank you, sir. Is that the end of this
2 proceeding?

3 THE COURT: Beg your pardon? Yes, it is.

4 MS. GERSTEN: And I really truly appreciate you, thank
5 you so much.

6 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

1 THE COURT: Thank y'all for getting together. Is it --
2 do I say that correctly, Gersten? Do I say that correctly?
3 MS. GERSTEN: Oh, hi, yes. This is Heidi Gersten. Did
4 you receive my emergency --
5 THE COURT: Ma'am, ma'am, ma'am, let me -- we're making
6 a recording of everything that's here, so let me start and 7 I'll get right back to you on that. Okay?
8 MS. GERSTEN: Oh, I didn't know, are you the Judge or 9 the clerk?
10 THE COURT: I am the Judge, ma'am.
11 MS. GERSTEN: I apologize, I didn't know. I just 12 wanted to make sure that I put motion for a continuance 13 on --
14 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am, we got your motion. Let me
15 start this hearing and we'll get right back to you. Okay?
16 MS. GERSTEN: Okay. I apologize, I didn't know that I
17 was connected.
18 THE COURT: Thank you very much. We've got -- this is 19 the matter that has been scheduled as Gersten versus Carter.
20 I've got this as being case number 2018-CP-12-00117, and 21 2018-AP-12-00074. Prior to beginning this hearing I
22 received an email request from the plaintiff for a
23 continuance, as well as an attached 27 page memorandum. I
24 was provided copies of an exchange of emails from plaintiff
25 and defense counsel indicating that there was not an

1 agreement on the request for a continuance, so we will start
2 with the request for a continuance. Ms. Gersten, I've 3 reviewed your memo and then I reviewed the -- Mr. Sawyer's
4 response where he did not agree to it. Is there anything
5 else that you would like to add to your memo on the request
6 for a continuance?

7 MS. GERSTEN: Well, other than I'm sitting in diarrhea
8 and urine at the moment being paralyzed with a pressure
9 wound, and I'm just not able to proceed properly like this.
10 This is very hard for me. I didn't expect this, I got sick,
11 I didn't want this, but there were extenuating
12 circumstances. And I'm a member -- a qualified individual 13 of the Americans with Disabilities, and it's also an 14 accommodation request under Title Two. And everything that 15 I put in you called it a memorandum, the 27 pages, I
16 attached pictures in case anyone didn't believe me, and 17 they're graphic and gross, but this is part of being 18 paralyzed, this is part of it. I ask for if anything a 19 small continuance so I can least clean up and not be like 20 this.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you very much for that. Mr.
22 Sawyer, is there anything that -- I just received your 23 emails indicating that you did not agree with it. Is there
24 anything else that you would like to add?

25 MR. SAWYER: Judge, very, very briefly, and thank you

1 for your time, Your Honor. May it please the Court? I
2 represent Kevin Carter who's the remaining defendant in this
3 case. But just to give the Court context for the reason
4 that we don't consent to this continuance. This case has 5 been riddled with motions for continuances and motions for 6 extensions. On August 22nd of 2018, there was a motion for 7 a continuance filed by Ms. Gersten in connection with a
8 worsening pressure wound. When this hearing was scheduled
9 last year on January 13th, on January 4th she also moved for 10 a continuance citing numerous other cases she was involved
11 in, and stating that she was a victim of a crime and had 12 litigation going on in Florida. In the Court of Appeals she 13 filed, I believe, eight motions for extensions, four of 14 those referenced pressure wounds, one of them referenced 15 diarrhea explosions, and then other ones referenced other 16 reasons for request for continuances. And then ultimately 17 the Court of Appeals dismissed the case when she failed to 18 comply with an order to provide information and to file a 19 return, and then it went to the Supreme Court and was also 20 denied there as well. So, Judge, if we didn't have such a
21 long and repeated history of this it would be one thing.
22 The other thing that I would note, of course, is her motion
23 itself states she spends I can't remember if it was four or 24 five hours drafting the motion for a continuance. She's 25 here by phone, the Court has accommodated by allowing her to

1 attend by phone, so I don't think that the burden to 2 attending today's hearing is overwhelming given the 3 circumstances.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Ma'am, is there anything that --
5 since you're the moving party you get to close and offer me
6 anything in response what he just stated.

7 MS. GERSTEN: Thank you. He -- everything he's saying
8 is very misleading, because I've never once had this like 9 this, not like this. And the pressure wound, yes, it's 10 ongoing, just like being paralyzed. It's not something that 11 I can just say: Well, you know, I mentioned I was paralyzed
12 everyday of my life and she keeps talking about being 13 paralyzed -- are you there?

14 THE COURT: Ma'am, I'm listening to you.

15 MS. GERSTEN: My phone -- I apologize, the phone, it
16 looked like it cut out, my apologies. And this is the trial
17 court, he's bringing into the appellate court and those were 18 separate issues but still ongoing. And this is unique 19 because those were -- you make an order to the appellate but 20 there's no oral hearing, so I was never actually sitting in 21 urine and feces like I am. And when he says that I put it
22 took me five hours, yes, in between trying to swim through 23 my own diarrhea. I mean, I hate talking like this, this 24 bothers me but this is my life. I didn't want this. And I
25 took the pictures and submitted them so that nobody thinks

1 I'm making this up, because if I didn't the way he sounds,
2 the way Mr. Sawyer sounds, I'm just using this as an excuse.
3 But this is legitimate. What am I supposed to do? Okay?
4 And because this means so much to me I chose to go ahead and 5 just bypass what should be the first thing to do, which is 6 clean yourself up, because I knew that getting a continuance
7 would be challenging. You don't think that I'm crying
8 inside thinking why? Why now? Well, I don't know. This is 9 where I'm at and this is -- he doesn't agree. I apologize,
10 but I have no control over my bowels and no caregiver, no
11 aid, nada. I'm by myself right now. And if you need more
12 proof I'll take more pictures.

13 THE COURT: All right. Thank you for sharing that with 14 me, and I'm very sorry to hear that you're going through 15 this situation that you've related to us. All right. These 16 are my options. You know, we've prepared for this hearing, 17 these are old cases, they are dated 2018, actually one is 18 dated 2019 -- I'm sorry, they're both dated 2018, so these 19 cases need to bring -- need to move forward. Due process 20 not only applies to the plaintiff but it also applies to the 21 defendants, and so both sides are entitled to fair process
22 that brings a reasonable resolution of the claims, or 23 counterclaim, or the positions of the parties. So this is 24 what I'm willing to do, and I would like to get input from 25 the parties, the motions that apply that I have been told

1 that I need to address, some of them actually don't apply,
2 and so I can summarily deal with those issues because I
3 don't think a resolution of those issues prejudice either
4 the plaintiff or the defendant in this case, they just need
5 some type of final resolution, so I will go ahead and take 6 care of the matters that have been assigned to me that just 7 need to -- they're like housekeeping matters as opposed to 8 substantive matters. On the substantive matters, what I
9 would propose is I am actually assigned back into the 10 circuit the week of August 15th, I could schedule these 11 hearings since we will be doing these hearings remotely, I
12 can work back -- I can work the hearings back in the week of 13 the 15th, and then if that's not appropriate I could also 14 work in the hearings at some other time. Again, given the 15 fact that Court Administration is allowing us to do remote
16 proceedings, the burden on the parties, as well as the Court
17 itself, will not be that significant to actually reschedule
18 this. So, in short, I'm going to grant the continuance, but 19 before I grant the continuance we need to go ahead and get 20 this thing rescheduled. So how does the week of August the 21 15th work for the parties? And I'll let the plaintiff go
22 first.

23 MS. GERSTEN: I'm just surprised that it's my brother's
24 birthday, and I mean, I want to say yes because I don't want
25 to delay, but I'm like of all days.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Well, I'm not saying the 15th, I'm
2 saying the week of the 15th.

3 MS. GERSTEN: Oh, okay. Well, what day?

4 THE COURT: What day would suit you?

5 MS. GERSTEN: Well, if we could not have it on the 6 15th, just -- it's my brother's birthday, that's --

7 THE COURT: Okay. So any day, Tuesday, Wednesday,
8 Thursday, or Friday, that would suit you?

9 MS. GERSTEN: That's fine. And I will prepare
10 accordingly and make sure that I very much watch what I eat
11 more than ever, not that I have control, but yes.

12 THE COURT: All right. Then let's -- how about, Mr.
13 Sawyer, do you have any conflicts that week that I need to 14 know about?

15 MR. SAWYER: Judge, we'll make any day that week work,
16 thank you so much.

17 THE COURT: Why don't we pick Thursday the 18th at 18 10:00.

19 MS. GERSTEN: That's August 18th at 10:00.

20 THE COURT: Right. The reason that I picked that date
21 is that I am assigned other court matters that week and it
22 would be easier for the Court if we did it later in the week
23 on a Thursday then at the beginning of the week, because I
24 would have other matters that possibly that it would 25 conflict with that I would have to take care of. So that

1 will give me enough time to get through some matters, so I
2 will hear y'all -- we'll get back together Thursday on the 3 18th, August 18th, at 10:00. Okay?

4 MS. GERSTEN: Can I interject one thing, though, as I'm 5 thinking about it?

6 THE COURT: All right.

7 MS. GERSTEN: Okay. So my mother passed unfortunately
8 this year, I have not received the death certificate yet.
9 So I'm not even sure how I'm able to proceed, if I need an 10 attorney or if the power of attorney that she granted me,
11 the durable power of attorney is -- I'm not asking for legal 12 advice, but this becomes more complex because she is a
13 listed plaintiff and the owner of the van in controversy,
14 and I never expected or -- it saddens me that she passed,
15 but I don't know what to do at this stage concerning her
16 because I would like to move forward with her claim as well.

17 THE COURT: Well, thank you for highlighting that to 18 us. I -- you are right, I am not in a position as a Judge
19 that I can give legal advice. But I will tell you that, as 20 I tell all pro se litigants, I'm of the very strong opinion
21 it's not a wise thing to do for a pro se person to ever
22 represent themselves in a court of law. And so -- and this 23 is -- because very frequently pro se litigants, they are 24 held to the same substantive standard that lawyers are, and 25 lawyers have been -- not only received a formal education

1 but probably have a lot of experience working through the
2 court system. And I find in my experience as a Judge that
3 sometimes all too often the Rules of Evidence and the Rules
4 of Civil Procedure, which apply equally both to a pro se
5 litigant as well as litigant represented by an attorney,
6 will frequently in layman's term trip up a pro se litigant,
7 and that sometimes the merits of a proceeding are never 8 addressed because pro se litigants failed to comply with the 9 Rules of Evidence or the Rules of Procedure. So I always 10 encourage pro se litigants to seek the advice of counsel,
11 and this is one of those times where I can express to you my 12 very strong belief that you do need to talk to a lawyer. So
13 you asked my opinion on that so I expressed it to you. I
14 would encourage you to do that, and if you do let the lawyer
15 know that we have this hearing scheduled for August 18th at 16 10:00.

17 MS. GERSTEN: Well, here is the thing, because now that 18 we're talking about my mom, I mean, I would like to have a
19 little extra time so I can do that because I wasn't 20 factoring that in, and I don't want to --

21 THE COURT: Ma'am, let me suggest something to you.
22 You are a pro se litigant, you do not have the authority in 23 South Carolina to represent your mother, nor do you have the 24 authority to represent her estate, so any questions that you
25 would raise about that matter are premature and I would not

1 want to put you in the bad situation of one day being
2 accused of practicing law without a license.

3 MS. GERSTEN: No, I'm not doing that, that's why I'm
4 being forthright with the courts right now. And I'm saying
5 to you that I would like to explore chatting with an
6 attorney to represent her I suppose as a deceased person,
7 but that would require more time.

8 THE COURT: No, ma'am, it will not require more time
9 for the matters that have been assigned to me. And so you
10 definitely -- I encourage you to go talk to a lawyer on 11 behalf of your mother's estate, you can do that between now
12 and the 18th. And if you do talk to a lawyer and they 13 decide to represent the interests of your mother, they can 14 advise the Court and we can address those issues at that 15 time. I think it puts the cart before the horse for me to 16 make any comments or to express anything about that without 17 having a proper person that can represent the legal 18 interests of that of your mother's estate. Okay?

19 MS. GERSTEN: I didn't understand what you just said, I
20 apologize, it's a lot to process.

21 THE COURT: In a nutshell, you need to go talk with a
22 lawyer because you can't represent your mother's estate.
23 Okay?

24 MS. GERSTEN: Not even with a durable power of 25 attorney?

1 THE COURT: Ma'am, I can't tell you whether that would
2 suffice or not, but I can tell you that in my history it
3 would not. But a lawyer may very well tell you differently
4 and I would look forward to receiving that argument from a
5 lawyer.

6 MR. SAWYER: Your Honor, thank you so much for your 7 time today. This morning with this motion for a continuance 8 is the first time I have heard of Ms. Ayoub's death. Can I
9 ask on the record of Ms. Gersten the date of Ms. Ayoub's
10 death?

11 MS. GERSTEN: I didn't hear you, could you please
12 repeat what you just said?

13 MR. SAWYER: Yes, ma'am. I was wondering what the date
14 of your mother's death was.

15 MS. GERSTEN: I was told January 11th of 2020. I only 16 got information, being paralyzed I couldn't even be there.

17 THE COURT: All right. Now, I noticed in one of the 18 pleadings that beside your mother's name there was a 19 parenthesis that she had been deceased. So you're informing 20 us all that your mother passed away in January of 2020?

21 MS. GERSTEN: Yes. No, no, no, '22, January. Without 22 a death certificate I don't actually know, and I'm not
23 sure -- I mean, hopefully I get it before next -- you know?
24 It's in the process, I just don't have it handy and I wasn't
25 there, I only received the phone call from a relative --

1 it's a long story, I'm not going to get into it. So I don't
2 have all of the information other than that's approximately 3 to the best of my knowledge that's the date.

4 THE COURT: All right. Just be aware that we're not 5 dealing with the mother's issues, we're dealing with the 6 claim that you have brought. We look forward to 7 receiving -- yeah. I think you talk with a lawyer, a lawyer
8 will get involved and make the appropriate contact with the 9 court officials and with the lawyers on the other side.
10 Okay? Well, listen, thank y'all very much for your time.
11 We will -- I'll see y'all, again, on August 18th at 10:00.
12 Now, part of the -- since we already know this far in 13 advance that I will be doing it, I'm sure the clerk of court
14 will do what they do, but my office will try to informally
15 not by any rule, but just as a matter of courtesy to the 16 parties in this case, we might be sending out some emails
17 just letting y'all know about anything that we think y'all
18 need to know about, you know, changes or stuff, but we'll be 19 in touch with y'all, but do look for notification.

20 MS. GERSTEN: That's something I put into my order that 21 according to the rules the new -- the one issued by the 22 South Carolina Supreme Court, it says that a non-lawyer is 23 supposed to make written consent, which they never have.
24 And I put a stipulation that I will consent to receiving
25 court documents if the defendants also agree. Otherwise I

1 have not -- I have not consented to any receiving of
2 including the notice of hearing. That was a surprise to me
3 because I have never received any documents via email
4 through the courts and --

5 THE COURT: Okay. I did notice in your motion for 6 continuance you did make other types of requests for relief.
7 Do you wish to argue those other types of requests for 8 relief?

9 MS. GERSTEN: Well, yes, because -- this as a 10 self-represented litigant who is not an attorney admitted to 11 practice in this state may consent, it doesn't say must. It
12 is not required in writing to be served by email and 13 designate an email address for service, and then a lawyer
14 may consent in writing to accept service by email from a
15 self-represented litigant. So I'm not even aware if Mr.
16 Sawyer will accept service by email or not.

17 THE COURT: Okay. I tell you what, Ms. Gersten, if 18 we're going to argue these other requests that you have made 19 in your explanation in your 27 page memo wanting the 20 continuance, we'll just go ahead and do the motions today,
21 too, then we don't have to get back together in August. I'm 22 coming to the conclusion that you have the ability and the 23 willingness to argue your motions of the other requests,
24 that I hear your motions, or your motion for a continuance,
25 so it's sort of coming -- it's sort of telling me that you

1 have the ability and wherewithal to argue the other
2 outstanding motions. Do you wish to proceed?

3 MS. GERSTEN: We can just go to the 18th when I can at 4 least clean myself up. I mean, it's interesting how the 5 will -- the human spirit that I have is greater than my 6 condition sometimes and how it can be flipped on me is 7 amazing to me. No disrespect to you, sir. I hope none of 8 you -- I hope none of you experiences being paralyzed
9 because it's not fun.

10 THE COURT: And Ms. Gersten, I say this with all 11 sincerity, if there becomes a time in the course of this 12 litigation where you feel like that -- and you still want to 13 pursue in representing yourself, if there comes a time where 14 you feel like that you cannot physically or mentally or ever
15 however represent yourself, ask the Court for assistance in 16 having someone appointed to stand in your shoes. Okay?

17 MS. GERSTEN: I didn't know that was an option.

18 THE COURT: Well, we can -- if you lack the mental 19 capacity or the physical capacity in order to represent 20 yourself there can be guardians appointed for you and we can 21 explore that as an option. Of course, we would have to hear 22 from the other side whether they agree or disagree, but we 23 can try to find someone to actually be able to come to court
24 in an appropriate manner so that due process for both sides
25 is not violated. Okay?

1 MS. GERSTEN: Well, I'm not claiming that I'm
2 incompetent, I want to be clear about that, and the law for 3 a vulnerable adult is not an issue of competency.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Well, if that ever gets to be a
5 problem you let us know.

6 MS. GERSTEN: Is that an issue of competency that 7 you're referring to?

8 THE COURT: If you feel like ever you get to the point
9 where you can't represent yourself either due to physical 10 problems or a mental problem you let us know. Okay?

11 MS. GERSTEN: Well, you say physical or mental, so if I
12 said physical, which is what I'm in, that does not include
13 mental; is that correct?

14 THE COURT: Those are two different words to this 15 Court.

16 MS. GERSTEN: That didn't make sense to me, there are 17 two different words, mental and physical.

18 THE COURT: Ma'am, I think you get my point, is that we 19 need to move forward with these cases.

20 MS. GERSTEN: I'm here in the sitting in my own feces
21 and urine because I get the importance. I know that the 22 courts don't have the -- I mean, thank you for the 23 continuance but this is a hard road and I get it. And I get 24 it.

25 THE COURT: Anything else, ma'am?

1 MS. GERSTEN: I suppose I should put it in writing that
2 you don't think that I wanted to pursue more issues.

3 THE COURT: Ma'am, I'm giving you the option, if you
4 want to pursue the rest of the issues we'll be more than 5 happy to go ahead and hear them absent some objection from 6 Mr. Sawyer.

7 MS. GERSTEN: I get it. I feel at this point -- my 8 brain is not 100 percent because of my situation right now,
9 I would like to clean up. Yes.

10 THE COURT: Okay. So which will see y'all on the 18th.
11 If you have issues with Mr. Sawyer, I've never met Mr.
12 Sawyer, don't know Mr. Sawyer, he's never appeared in front
13 of me, but you can reach out to him on any issues, and then 14 if you can't just reach out to the Court and we'll be glad 15 to be of assistance to you. Okay?

16 MS. GERSTEN: I agree. I'm willing to be amiable with 17 you, Mr. Sawyer, like we have in the past, today was a
18 surprise to me.

19 THE COURT: All right. Then we will see y'all on the 20 18th.

21 MS. GERSTEN: Oh, how do I get my transcript? How do I
22 get the transcript?

23 THE COURT: Transcript?

24 MS. GERSTEN: Isn't this a -- I was told that there was 25 going to be a court reporter.

1 THE COURT: There is a court reporter. You need to
2 reach out to court administration and they can advise you
3 how the order the transcript. Okay?

4 MS. GERSTEN: Well, how do I reach the court
5 administration?

6 THE COURT: If you had a lawyer that would be really
7 easy to answer, but court administration has a website that 8 you can go to. Okay?

9 MS. GERSTEN: What is the website called?

10 THE COURT: I do not know it, but I generally look up
11 South Carolina Court Administration and it usually comes up.

12 MS. GERSTEN: Do I get even a name of the court
13 reporter?

14 THE COURT: Mike Watkins is our court reporter assigned 15 to us.

16 MS. GERSTEN: Mike Watkins?

17 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

18 MS. GERSTEN: Okay. And so I will just contact the 19 court administration.

20 THE COURT: That would be my suggestion. There might 21 be easier ways but I do not know.

22 MS. GERSTEN: Okay.

23 THE COURT: All right. I will see y'all on the -- or 24 hear from you on the 18th at 10:00.

25 MS. GERSTEN: Okay.

1 THE COURT: Thank you very much.
2 MR. SAWYER: Thank you, Your Honor.
3 MS. GERSTEN: Thank you.

1 THE COURT: Ms. Gersten, can you hear me okay?

2 MS. GERSTEN: Yes, I can, sir.

3 THE COURT: Okay. And I can hear you fine. Mr.

4 Sawyer, can you hear me and Ms. Gersten all right?

5 MR. SAWYER: I can. It's coming in a little soft but I

6 think I will be able to make due, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Okay. If ever either of you cannot hear me

8 just let me know and I'll move closer to a microphone or

9 move around. Thank y'all for getting together for the 10 reconvening of this hearing. I have got -- according to 11 what was submitted to me by the Clerk of Court's office

12 we've got four -- well, five motions that were given to me

13 to be heard. I did review them prior to our last time we

14 got together, also I reviewed them prior to us getting

15 together this time. One of them I'm going just to throw out

16 there and suggest that I not address because it is the 17 plaintiff's motion to recuse or disqualify Judge Gibbons and

18 Judge Hayes. The Judge Hayes that she's referring to is the 19 Judge John Hayes. It is customary that, and I think that 20 the rules will provide that in the event -- well, first of 21 all Judge John Hayes is now retired so he would never hear

22 any of these cases -- that the motion to recuse or

23 disqualify would need to be addressed to the judge that

24 actually is being asked to be disqualified or to recuse

25 himself, so I would just put that one aside. And that in

1 the event that ever Judge Gibbons is asked to address
2 anything that the plaintiff believes needs to -- that issue
3 of recusal or the issue of disqualification needs to be 4 addressed it can be addressed by him at that time. Because
5 I don't -- it's not proper for another circuit court judge
6 to disqualify another circuit court judge, so I'm going to 7 move that one aside. The other remaining four motions I'm
8 going to take in order of filing. Some of them -- and by me
9 taking them in this order I don't want either side to 10 believe or to infer that there is some predetermined outcome
11 for the -- or how the motion should or should not be 12 addressed, I'm just going to take them just as they got 13 filed, because to me that chronologically makes the most 14 simple way to address them. So the first motion is going to 15 be the plaintiff's objections and opposition to designation
16 of non-jury docket and motion to transfer to the appropriate 17 docket that was filed August the 22nd, 2018. And it could 18 be that there's a history in this case that now some of 19 these motions are moot or no longer needs to be addressed by 20 the Court, but if that is the position, you know, let me
21 know, but I did not want to presuppose any type of argument
22 from anybody. So with that being the first motion, Ms.
23 Gersten do you wish to -- me to address that motion or hear 24 any further arguments other than what you've filed in the 25 written document?

1 MS. GERSTEN: Well, actually that was one that I think
2 that has already been fixed, hasn't it? Or --

3 THE COURT: Okay. I couldn't tell. I thought it might
4 have been but I'm not -- I didn't want to suppose anything.
5 I did view the file and it did look like that that one
6 probably has been resolved, so thank you for sharing that 7 with me.

8 MS. GERSTEN: I mean, if I'm incorrect I'll address it
9 later, but that wasn't one of the ones that I was focusing 10 on today, but thank you for bringing that up.

11 THE COURT: Certainly. Thank you for sharing that with 12 me. And then the next one, and it might be this is the same
13 type of resolution, plaintiff's motion to amend with or 14 without leave, plaintiff's motion to alter or amend judgment
15 or relief from judgment that's dated August the 29th, 2018.
16 Do you feel that that motion is still pending or needs to be 17 resolved in some way?

18 MS. GERSTEN: Yeah, I do. Let me get my documents for 19 that. I just require a minute of patience, there's a lot to 20 sort through. But honestly, I think before we get into 21 those, I think that my emergency motion that I filed on the 22 28th, there was some issues that were left unresolved, so
23 before I get to the amended one I think we need to talk
24 about my Title Two of the Americans With Disabilities
25 reasonable accommodation request. Did you remember that

1 one, sir?

2 THE COURT: Ma'am, I do not have that one. I have your 3 motion where you filed and asked for the continuance based
4 upon, you know, when we started the last hearing, and I
5 believe I granted your request for the continuance.

6 MS. GERSTEN: Right. But there was more on there. As 7 I was proceeding to talk about it you very kindly said to 8 bring it up at the next hearing, so that's why I bring it
9 up.

10 THE COURT: Well, thank you for bringing that up.
11 Let's bring that up in order, though, of filing and I will 12 be more than happy to address that at that time.

13 MS. GERSTEN: Oh, okay, okay, okay. That's fine if you
14 want to put that later then that's fine. Okay. So let me
15 get my ducks in a row here.

16 MR. SAWYER: While she's getting her papers organized, 17 I just -- as a matter of housekeeping, I think we've got an 18 updated motions roster where some of these motions have been 19 dropped or other motions are on, so just to bring that the 20 Court's attention. And there's a second motion to amend 21 complaint with leave that was filed October 22nd, 2018, by 22 Ms. Gersten, I believe, because that's the second motion
23 that's probably the operative motion for a motion to amend 24 that we should address. And I don't want to jump ahead of 25 things, I just want to avoid unnecessary confusion.

1 THE COURT: So the October 22nd, 2018, supplanted or
2 leapfrogged over the August 29, 2018 motion?

3 MR. SAWYER: I would expect so since the August motion
4 was before Judge Hayes, the other Judge Hayes heard the 5 motions to dismiss and the other matters.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Gersten, do you -- what I heard
7 from Mr. Sawyer is that the -- your October 22nd, 2018,
8 motion to amend is the one that we need to hear.

9 MS. GERSTEN: Well, no. Actually there are two 10 different ones. I can sort of do a combo on both of them if 11 you would like because they're similar.

12 THE COURT: Okay. If you want to do that, that would 13 be great.

14 MS. GERSTEN: Okay. Do you want me to just start
15 talking?

16 THE COURT: Sure. I will be more than happy to hear
17 from you. What we'll do is you give me -- I've got the 18 written motions and you just -- this is your chance to 19 present your oral arguments as to those motions. Once you
20 are finished then we'll turn to Mr. Sawyer to get his 21 response, so please listen to Mr. Sawyer, and then if you
22 have anything that you wish to present and reply to Mr.
23 Sawyer I'll let -- you have the opportunity to reply to 24 anything that he said, but your reply really should not 25 present any new arguments, you're just replying to his

1 arguments. Okay. I'll be more than happy to hear from you.

2 MS. GERSTEN: Okay. First of all I just want to say
3 thank you to you, Mr. Sawyer, all of the clerks, the court
4 reporter. South Carolina is a fine group of people, one day
5 I might move there. I just want to put that out there
6 because I'm litigating in other states that are not like
7 this, so I really appreciate you. And with that being said
8 let's talk about the motions. Okay. So back in 2017, let 9 me bring it back to how I even got in to this, of course.
10 Oh, and I just wanted --

11 THE COURT: Let me ask you to do this: We have other 12 matters to do. If you would, explain to me what it is that 13 you're wanting to amend and then you can give me a narrative
14 as to why you want to amend it, let's do it that way.
15 Because your task in presenting an oral argument is to 16 persuade me to decide in your way, so help me understand
17 what exactly you're asking me to amend. Start with that and 18 then tell me why.

19 MS. GERSTEN: Okay. Well this has to do with the very 20 first order that was made on April 26th, 2018, by Judge
21 Gibbons. Okay. It was a consolidation order. I never had 22 a ruling on this even though I filed -- I was the first 23 one -- you brought it up, you said it was the first one that 24 needs to be addressed and the first one I filed. Why it was 25 filed is because I already know, I saw that this was going

1 to confuse everything, because the consolidation was not
2 supposed to take away the arbitration, the property damage
3 arbitration for property damage that I found. It's Title
4 38, Chapter 77, Article 7 of the South Carolina --

5 THE COURT: Let me interrupt again because I want to be 6 sure I'm understanding you. What are you asking me to 7 amend? You can explain to me, but clue me in as to what
8 you're asking me to amend. Are you asking me to amend a 9 complaint? Are you asking me to amend a prior order? Are 10 you asking me to -- what is it you're asking me to consider
11 that needs to be amended?

12 MS. GERSTEN: Okay. Bottom line is I feel the 13 arbitration matter should not be dismissed. It was never 14 dismissed by any order. I would like to have the property
15 damage just as the law says, where it's supposed to be a 16 sit-down with three neutral attorneys that are brought in,
17 it was a $5 thing, for property damage only for liable
18 parties. And liable parties, according to the law, includes 19 insurance companies. I've read books, I've read whatever
20 and it was supposed to be done within 60 days --

21 THE COURT: Let me ask you this then, Ms. Gersten, I'm 22 sorry to interrupt, because I need to understand this, are 23 you asking me to amend a prior order that Judge Gibbons
24 signed that consolidated the arbitration with the liability
25 claim? Is that what you're asking me to amend?

1 MS. GERSTEN: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So it's the prior order
3 that was signed by Judge Gibbons. Okay. All right. So
4 your position is that Judge Gibbons was wrong?

5 MS. GERSTEN: You know, he may not have been wrong.
6 Okay. But the merging confused -- I think confused
7 everybody. And what I mean by confused is by merging it was 8 not supposed to prevent or preclude an arbitration hearing
9 from happening. It was -- it was meant for a trial purpose
10 is how I interpreted it. Okay. So I think that the order
11 had it not happened then we would have had an arbitration.
12 I was expecting to sit down with all parties and it says
13 that I can bring in -- it's supposed to be summary. I mean,
14 you know, I can read the law to you but I'm going by how I
15 took it. It's supposed to be the arbitrators were going to 16 hear the matter in the courthouse so it doesn't preclude
17 anyone if they weren't happy with the results of having a 18 jury trial after. It was basically -- I looked at it as 19 your -- like a mediation, like a chance for the meeting of 20 the minds, and I had everything prepared for that and it
21 never happened. And it's -- to my understanding property
22 damage claims in South Carolina, you can't get an attorney
23 for contingency on property damage. This was explained to 24 me that it was summary in nature and that it was supposed to 25 be simple and geared for non-attorneys, and that's me,

1 that's what I wanted to start with, and it never happened.
2 We never had -- we never had this arbitration. I mean, I
3 can read the law into the record but it's in my -- it's in 4 my motion, I clearly talk about --

5 THE COURT: It is. And I also read your motion and I
6 just wanted to be sure that I understood correctly what you
7 were asserting, and so I do understand -- that is -- the way
8 you presented it to me verbally is what I understood your 9 motion, or your -- I won't say your complaint with what
10 Judge Gibbons did, the way you've explained it is consistent
11 with the way that I read your files.

12 MS. GERSTEN: Can you say is it so that I can see if 13 you're understanding? Because you're very good at just 14 summarizing this in quick words. So what do you think --
15 how are you interpreting what I'm saying to you?

16 THE COURT: Well, that's -- part of what we do in these 17 hearings is you have to persuade me to your position, and so
18 what I'm hearing is that you took issue or you disagreed
19 with Judge Gibbons of consolidating the liability claim with 20 the arbitration claim that is allowed under the arbitration
21 process of doing property damage claims, and that you didn't 22 like that and you wanted to have them separated so you could 23 do your property damage separately from your liability
24 claims.

25 MS. GERSTEN: That's part of it, and the other part is

1 the fact that there was no hearing on his consolidation
2 order. I felt like, you know, government is supposed to 3 notice and an opportunity for a hearing, so there was never 4 a hearing on the consolidation anyway. It just came out as 5 all the sudden, you know, we have the motion hearings, and I
6 feel like this was -- this should have happened before any 7 motion hearing, this one, because that's the way the law was 8 written.

9 THE COURT: Okay. So you've got not only a substantive
10 issue, we also have a process issue with what Judge Gibbons
11 did.

12 MS. GERSTEN: You're amazing. I really appreciate
13 the fact that --

14 THE COURT: Can I get that in writing from you? I
15 would like to share that with other people that feel 16 otherwise, but thank you for saying that.

17 MS. GERSTEN: I didn't -- what did you just say?

18 THE COURT: I said thank you for saying that because a
19 lot of people don't say that about me.

20 MS. GERSTEN: Oh, I'm not trying to look for favoritism
21 at all. As long as you're fair and neutral in this process,
22 we're making a record today and I'm very happy to be here.
23 Just like I've always said, I really appreciate Mr. Sawyer
24 because he's been kind to me as well, and that's all I can 25 ask for.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Well, thank you. Let me do this,
2 let me get Mr. Sawyer's response on that, on the issue of 3 the order that -- where Judge Gibbons consolidated the 4 property damage claim with the liability claim. You're 5 muted, Mr. Sawyer. Mr. Sawyer, I've got you muted, I'm not 6 sure --

7 MR. SAWYER: Sorry. It's been awhile since I've had a
8 Webex hearing, Your Honor, but thank you for fixing that for 9 me. Your Honor, I appreciate your time today, thank you for 10 hearing these matters. As to the issues of the property
11 damage arbitration, when the subsequent broader lawsuit was 12 filed in the circuit court we filed a motion on the view
13 that you can't have two separate claims, you can't split
14 your claims against one defendant, you have to bring all of 15 your claims arising out of the same set of facts or 16 circumstances in one lawsuit, and that's well established
17 South Carolina law. And by bringing the circuit court
18 action, of course, that would be the proper action to 19 survive between that and the property damage arbitration
20 claim. And as a result Judge Gibbons signed the 21 administrative order acknowledging that essentially
22 consolidating the two cases into the circuit court action,
23 which will, of course, include the property damage claim,
24 and, you know, at the time included the other claims
25 asserted in the complaint, many of which, of course, have

1 now have been dismissed. But the rule in South Carolina is 2 you can't split claims into property damage, arbitration is 3 not an exception to that rule. In fact, it's been my 4 experience and common practice that when there is a property
5 damage arbitration pending and a plaintiff's attorney
6 subsequently files a bodily injury suit in circuit court the 7 parties have in every case I've ever had agreed that at that 8 point the property damage claim has to be consolidated or 9 dismissed and brought before the circuit court. Judge
10 Gibbons just followed that practice, which is in compliance
11 with South Carolina law, and I think that's a proper basis.
12 In terms of procedurally, Rule 59, Judge, I don't know that 13 there's any evidence that a copy of the Rule 59 motion was 14 sent to Judge Gibbons, which, of course, we know is required
15 by the rule, but that's a technical procedural matter. But 16 substantively the ruling was right and frankly typically, of 17 course, Judge Gibbons would have to hear a motion to 18 reconsider his own ruling.

19 THE COURT: Let me ask you a question. So my 20 understanding in my involvement with the litigation is that 21 the facts and the law arising from the liability claim and 22 the property damage claim is going to be identical; is that 23 correct?

24 MR. SAWYER: Yes, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right. But the difference is --

1 between the liability claim and the property damage claim
2 would be the actual damages that are sought. Because in a
3 property damage claim a plaintiff seeks damages for an
4 automobile or property damage, but in the liability claim
5 the plaintiff seeks damages for things that are what I call
6 personal injuries or loss of income, bodily injury,
7 emotional damage, those types of things; is that correct?

8 MR. SAWYER: Well, Your Honor, I think generally they 9 can choose what they want to bring when they bring a
10 complaint, and they can choose to include property damage
11 with their bodily injury claims, or they can choose to only 12 pursue bodily injury claims, but what they can't do is split
13 their claims. South Carolina doesn't allow claim splitting
14 against one defendant. We do allow, of course, separate 15 lawsuits against different defendants, but we don't allow 16 separate lawsuits against the same defendant arising out of 17 the same facts and circumstances, all of those claims have 18 to be brought together in one action.

19 THE COURT: Okay. I think I understand that. Ms.
20 Gersten, this is your opportunity to present any argument
21 that you wish to present in reply to what Mr. Sawyer just 22 argued.

23 MS. GERSTEN: Okay. Well, the thing is that I did
24 serve Judge Gibbons, I want to be clear about that. I'm not 25 putting Mr. Atkinson on the spot here, but on that date, I

1 believe it was May 8th -- because right after I went to a
2 hearing in front of Judge Zamore where I personally
3 witnessed Mr. Sawyer's client, Mr. Carter, plead guilty to 4 reckless driving, and prior to that I went over to the 5 courthouse and I made sure that Mr. Gibbons was served. So
6 I want to make sure that I'm clear that I did follow that
7 part and made sure that he was personally served. Now,
8 getting back to originally filing this arbitration claim,
9 that was really all I was going to do. After speaking to 10 Mary Orr, who I heard that she passed, I think she has 11 passed, I apologize, I'm not sure, but I think she did, but 12 prior to her passing I spoke with her on August 30th, 2017,
13 with regards to filing the arbitration on a property damage
14 liable claim, that was the original plan. But when I
15 realized after speaking with her that she didn't even know
16 what I was talking about and she asked me if I could send 17 her a copy of the law that she could give to the Judge,
18 because she said she spoke to Judge Gibbons and he was 19 unfamiliar with this as well. Now, maybe there have been 20 times that it was filed, but at the time that I called she 21 specifically did not know what I was talking about, put me
22 on hold to talk to Judge Gibbons, came back and said: Send 23 the law. So on August 31st, 2017, I sent the law, one day
24 after I spoke with her. I put together a letter, it's in 25 the file, and I showed her the law, and she said -- called

1 me back and said: Okay. We're going to do it. When I
2 realized time was going by by the time I filed I got
3 nervous. Okay. You yourself said that often pro se
4 clients, which I want to interject that there's plenty of 5 case law that says there's supposed to be leniency towards
6 pro se's, plus I'm a vulnerable adult with a pressure wound.
7 I've got all these things against me, and lawyers --
8 attorneys in South Carolina have access to e-filing, which 9 even to this day, correct me if I'm wrong for this because I
10 do e-filing, so there's always been this not held to the 11 same standards but below standards as a pro se, as one in a 12 wheelchair and all of these negatives. So I filed with my 13 mother and at the time my brother just to CYA, cover our 14 butts, to make sure that we didn't miss the statute of 15 limitations. And so really it's separate plaintiffs -- I 16 mean, sorry -- well, no, because my brother was added to the 17 claim --

18 THE COURT: Well, Ms. Gersten, before you get too far
19 array, this is the part where you get to respond in a reply
20 to what Mr. Sawyer argued, and so don't bring up new matters
21 because that would be inappropriate at this time, respond to 22 what he was saying.

23 MS. GERSTEN: Oh, I was bringing up what he triggered.
24 He triggered these things to me that made me think of things
25 that -- and, of course, we didn't actually cover --

1 everything we're talking about has to do with the first one,
2 not the second filing that included Judge Hayes. This is
3 the amendment strictly for the order made by Judge Gibbons.

4 THE COURT: Correct, yeah. That's what we're dealing
5 with, just the one with Judge Gibbons right now.

6 MS. GERSTEN: Okay. I just wanted to be clear. So
7 when he's saying that they're supposed to be separate, or 8 that they're supposed to be together even under 9 consolidation, even the law says it doesn't mean that you --
10 they still have their own separate issues to deal with. I 11 wasn't supposed to have the arbitration hearing when it's 12 not supposed to be removed, that's not what consolidation
13 even says. Consolidation is supposed to keep everything
14 still as it is for purposes, I guess, to keep the trial
15 aspect of it. But nowhere in the order does it say no more 16 arbitration, it just is putting the matters together and 17 they are separate, they're distinctly separate. As a matter
18 of fact even insurance is separate that you've got -- 19 they're separate, they're not the same or identical, they're 20 different and separate. And I still would like to have the 21 arbitration hearing even with the parties that were 22 dismissed because they should not have been dismissed.

23 THE COURT: Okay. I think I understand that. Okay.
24 All right. Thank y'all very much for your presentations.
25 Now, on my list the next matter I've got would be

1 plaintiff's notice of motion to amend the complaint that was
2 also filed October 22nd, 2018. Do you have that, Ms.
3 Gersten?

4 MS. GERSTEN: I'm looking for that one right now. It's
5 the one for October 8th?

6 THE COURT: I've got filed October 22nd, 2018.

7 MS. GERSTEN: You have October 22nd?

8 THE COURT: My summary reads that it was filed on 9 October 22nd.

10 MS. GERSTEN: My file stamp says the 8th, October 8th.

11 THE COURT: Of 2018?

12 MS. GERSTEN: Yeah, that's what my file stamp says,
13 October 8th.

14 THE COURT: Give me one second. Your stamp is better
15 than mine because my stamp is so light I can barely make it
16 out. I've got -- okay. The title of the one that I'm 17 looking at reads notice of motion and plaintiff's motion to 18 amend complaint with leave pursuant to Rule 15 request for 19 oral hearing.

20 MS. GERSTEN: I don't have the leave on here. You said
21 you have notice of motion with leave? It's possible I 22 grabbed the wrong one. It's a big file. See, one of the 23 things that I wanted to address in my emergency motion
24 was --

25 THE COURT: Okay. That's fine. Ms. Gersten, let's

1 deal with them as I've got them so that we can --

2 MS. GERSTEN: I apologize, it's just the Title Two of 3 the Americans Disabilities always says that those are
4 supposed to go first, but it's okay, if you want to do it
5 different it's okay. I'm not mad or anything, I'm just --
6 it's just important, because part of what I wanted was my 7 disability thing is because I can only sit in this chair for 8 so long. It's easier to do one motion at a time because I
9 have a -- I have a communication disability on top of 10 everything else, so we won't discuss that because you wanted
11 to discuss it later, I apologize.

12 THE COURT: No, ma'am. I tell you what we can do, I'll 13 take a break because I've got a criminal matter I need to go
14 take care of, and let me go take care of that criminal
15 matter and you can have a break and we'll come back in about 16 probably ten or 15 minutes. Is that sufficient?

17 MS. GERSTEN: That's not going to work for me because 18 it would take me a half hour to get out of the chair, it's a 19 different road. I'm not trying to be anything hard with 20 you, I'm trying to paint a visual that I'm sitting on a
21 wound. I lost a half hour of time because Attorney Sawyer
22 gave me the incorrect call in access code. I took for 23 granted that his letter dated July 28th, 2022, had the 24 correct information and it didn't and that cost me 30
25 minutes of time. I apologize. I apologize. So --

1 THE COURT: Well, I'll take a 30 minute break. No,
2 ma'am, I'll take a 30 minute break and we'll come back.

3 MS. GERSTEN: Well, 30 minutes is how long it takes me
4 to get out of the chair, if you can give me a two hour break
5 then that would be great.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Well, I tell you what we'll do,
7 we'll reconvene at 3:00, How about that?

8 MS. GERSTEN: Oh, that would be amazing. Are you okay
9 with that?

10 THE COURT: Mr. Sawyer, does your schedule permit that 11 we reconvene at 3:00?

12 MR. SAWYER: Yes, Your Honor, I'll make due. That will 13 and fine.

14 THE COURT: Okay. We'll reconvene at 3:00 then, I'll 15 see y'all then.

16 MR. SAWYER: Judge, I assume that you'll close down the 17 Webex for now?

18 THE COURT: Well, I have to. I don't know whether -- 19 my administrative assistant, Sharon, is, I guess, the main
20 host so she'll do what she does.

21 MR. SAWYER: Okay. And, Judge, just one point, because 22 I know the roster you're running off of is the previous 23 roster. On the roster for today is one additional motion,
24 which is in light of learning about Ms. Ayoub's passing
25 away, we filed a motion to dismiss under Rule 25. So I know

1 that -- it sounds like you may be running on the previous
2 roster so I wanted to make sure I brought that to your 3 attention.

4 THE COURT: Okay. If you could -- well, what I'm 5 working under is we did a -- it's not really a
6 roster/roster, it's not prepared by the clerk's office, it's 7 just a summary that my office generated. If you want to be
8 sure that I've got that, if you want to go ahead and be sure
9 that you send it to me to get a hard copy since I am
10 physically not in Chester, I am physically in Fairfield now,
11 but at 3:00 I'll physically hopefully be in Spartanburg.

12 MR. SAWYER: So electronic copies, is that what you
13 would prefer right now so you'll have --

14 THE COURT: Yeah. That will be fine, yeah.

15 MR. SAWYER: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Thank y'all. See y'all at 3:00.

17 (Break in proceedings.)

18 THE COURT: Okay. Thank y'all for getting back
19 together. Mr. Sawyer, can you hear me okay?

20 MR. SAWYER: Yes, Your Honor, I can.

21 THE COURT: And Ms. Gersten, can you hear me okay?

22 MS. GERSTEN: Yes, I can, thank you for asking.

23 THE COURT: Certainly. Okay. Thank y'all. We will go
24 back and pick up. The next thing on my list was going to be 25 the plaintiff's second motion as I refer to it, second

1 motion to alter or amend that was filed -- and Ms. Gersten,
2 I did find an October 8th motion that I think you were
3 referencing. And if I understand it -- I've taken a look at 4 it, if I understand correctly this is your motion where 5 you're asking that the prior ruling by Judge Gibbons to be 6 altered or amended pursuant to Rule 52, 59E, and Rule 60(4);
7 is that correct? Does that ring a bell to you?

8 MS. GERSTEN: Yes. And I think I would like to explain
9 because I also reviewed, because you had said October 22nd,
10 and I see there's a bit of confusion. Under the Federal 11 Rules of Civil Procedure failure to state a claim under 42
12 USC Section 1983, the Court noted that allegations such as 13 those asserted by the petitioner, however inartfully
14 pleaded, are sufficient to call for the opportunity to offer
15 evidence. And it says in part that we hold less stringent 16 standards in form of pleadings drafted by lawyers. And I
17 bring that up only because as I mentioned before, I'm very 18 disabled, a vulnerable adult with a pressure wound, and I'm 19 sitting here and you graciously gave me a timeout because I
20 took a bathroom break and I appreciate that. So getting 21 back to this motion, I think why I have put it in so many 22 times is because I needed a ruling. The first time that I
23 had put it in and it was up in front of the other Judge
24 Hayes, his remark was take it up with the appellate court,
25 but without a written order or anything there was nothing I

1 could do with it. And I was asked by the appellate judges
2 when he made the ruling, but he never actually made a
3 ruling, so that is why I'm seeking that. Because when I
4 looked in Westlaw I only saw two cases that even referenced
5 the particular arbitration hearing that I'm referencing.
6 One was -- oh, good Lord, this is where my nerves -- I
7 apologize, I really appreciate your patience, but there were 8 two of them. There was one -- no, Cooper. Cooper versus 9 Poston, and Blizzard versus Miller, and that was all I could 10 find regarding the arbitration. So I think this is a first 11 impression -- and I really believe that regardless of which 12 way you go with this it's going to benefit people in the 13 future that I have this confusion. I really think that 14 we're doing a good thing by talking about it, because I came 15 into it thinking it would be simple, to just have a simple,
16 you know, within 60 days sit down with everybody and just 17 talk about the concerns. It was supposed to be moved, no
18 strict procedural, easy breezy, and it was far from that,
19 even to this day it seems to be very complex, and so that is 20 why it is mentioned so many times. And sure -- please do, I
21 apologize, I'm long winded.

22 THE COURT: That's okay. And so -- and I'm taking a
23 look at the documents. So the relief that you're asking
24 with this particular motion is for me to avoid -- and I'm
25 just going to quote you, the Court to avoid reversible error

1 and correct the mistake that has been made perhaps due to
2 lack of communication. And so you want me to reverse the 3 prior ruling of Judge Gibbons, and then also of Judge -- and 4 then also of Judge Hayes, the other Judge Hayes; is that
5 correct?

6 MS. GERSTEN: Well, here is the thing, it may not need
7 to be reversed. But the big issue is I really think in all
8 fairness, including the parties that were -- the insurance
9 parties that were dismissed, there's a very grave
10 miscarriage of justice happening right now, because there
11 were insurance policies. And my understanding of this 12 arbitration has to do simply with the property damage due to 13 a vehicle collision, motor vehicle collision, and that's 14 what this was. Even when I looked up consolidation, which I
15 can read to you, it says that in consolidation matters that 16 the word may is in there, that trials may be still 17 separated. It doesn't mean -- gosh, I'm trying to find
18 that, I don't want to take up a lot of time, I apologize, I
19 had it all together but trying to retrieve what I need to so
20 much. So I guess in answer to your question is that I
21 really just think that these matters, the breach of contract 22 that were put into the actual civil action could be 23 addressed in the arbitration, like a lot of the issues are 24 really for arbitration. I mean, it is undisputed that Kevin
25 Carter and I had something, but these other insurance

1 companies I had beyond the minimal, and for them to get away
2 with not paying me anything, I got nada. I had over
3 insurance, I have letters, I have evidence, I have so much
4 to present, and I feel that the easiest way in my opinion is
5 to go ahead and let's do that arbitration sit-down. It
6 doesn't, you know -- anybody doesn't lose their right to a
7 jury trial, but it would be less complex, two hours of a
8 round table meaningful chat. I can bring in my big book of 9 300 pages of -- I'm a musician, all my equipment, everything
10 in that van was destroyed, intellectual property, so much.
11 And nothing was ever paid by any insurance, not the van, not 12 property damage, and that is completely separate from any 13 bodily injury or anything else.

14 THE COURT: Okay. I think I understand that. And,
15 Mr. Sawyer, do you want to respond to that particular
16 motion?

17 MR. SAWYER: Yes, Your Honor. And thank you, again, 18 for your time. I think this is fairly duplicative of the 19 motion that was argued earlier today on Judge Gibbons'
20 ruling. I would just bring to the Court's attention the 21 Powers versus Calvert Fire Insurance Company case, it's 216
22 South Carolina 309, it's a 1950 case. But it notes that 23 when a claim is brought for personal injury -- or arising
24 out of an accident, a claim for personal injury and claim 25 for property damage must be sued in one action or the

1 omitted claim is lost. So I think that fairly summarily
2 addresses the issue. Obviously if the concern is process,
3 the Rules of Civil Procedure would have required mediation
4 once the case was in circuit court, so there would have been
5 an opportunity for that. Of course, we haven't gotten 6 discovery responses, which is a different motion that you'll 7 hear later on today, Your Honor, that's postponed all of 8 that. But in terms of having an opportunity to sit down and 9 go through it, that could have taken place really a long
10 time ago had things gone differently, Your Honor. But at 11 the end of the day Judge Gibbons' order follows the law.
12 It's really his order that she's asking to have 13 reconsidered. There was reference to insurance, of course,
14 that's not relevant to the Court's consideration in either
15 the PDR or this, they're both civil litigation claims
16 arising out of automobile accidents. And the case law says, 17 as well as Rule 12B8, you can't split your claims for 18 damages for the same tort, same cause of action.

19 THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much for that.
20 And Ms. Gersten, since you're the moving party on this 21 motion you get to close with any type of reply response to 22 what Mr. Sawyer just argued.

23 MS. GERSTEN: Thank you. So I think the rule that 24 Judge Gibson (sic) was going under was Rule 42. And in A it
25 says consolidation. When actions involving a common

1 question of law or fact are pending before the Court it may
2 order a joint hearing or trial of any or all parties in
3 issue in the action. It may order all of the actions
4 consolidated, and it may make such orders concerning
5 proceedings therein and may tend to avoid unnecessary costs
6 or delay. Now in B it says separate trials. The Court in 7 furtherance of convenience, or to avoid prejudice, or when
8 separate trials would be conducive expedition and economy
9 may order a separate trial of any claims, cross claims,
10 counterclaims, or third party claim, or of any separate
11 issue, or of any number of claims, crossclaims,
12 counterclaims, third party claims, or issues always
13 preserving (inaudible) I'm not sure if I said that right,
14 the right of trial by jury is declared by the Constitution
15 or is given by a statute or the state. Now, I'm not sure if 16 this is a part of the same one, this might be the 17 October 22nd thing you're referring to, you'll let me know, 18 but I have a first amended claim for property damage, and in 19 there I think in my opinion if the arbitration is not 20 possible then they should have been ordered to just pay a
21 fee and put them in their separate category. I put them all 22 together not realizing that that was an issue. Okay. But 23 they were definitely pled separately. Breach of contract is 24 a completely different cause of action, and it should 25 definitely be in furtherance of justice and to avoid a

1 miscarriage be permitted to provide evidence of contracts
2 and documentation to show that there indeed was additional 3 insurance that not only did I bargain for, I paid, and 4 letters of promises. And even Trust Guard offered a check,
5 which they offered the check, sent the check after the 6 action was filed, after the action. And if you scope the 7 transcript you'll see that they did not argue about a
8 arbitration, they were not having a problem with one at all,
9 and they shouldn't, because there was underinsured, and 10 again, none of the property damage was paid. So I think 11 that covers everything with this issue.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you for providing that. All 13 right. I've got the next motion is going to be the 14 defendant's motion to compel or in the alternate to dismiss.
15 Now, with this motion this is Mr. Sawyer's motion so he is 16 the moving party so he gets to go first, present to me his 17 arguments, and then, Ms. Gersten, you will respond in full 18 to anything you want me to know and then he gets to close by 19 making his reply to your argument. So at this time I will 20 turn this over to Mr. Sawyer to receive his argument.

21 MR. SAWYER: Your Honor, thank you. And may it please 22 the Court? This is my client, Kevin Carter's, motion to 23 compel, or in the alternative motion to dismiss. Judge, by 24 way of background, as you know from looking through this 25 fairly extensive file, this action was filed in the early

1 part of 2018. There were a number of motions to dismiss
2 and, you know, attempt to amend pleadings that ultimately 3 were narrowed down significantly by an order from Judge John
4 Hayes, which Ms. Gersten appealed to the Court of Appeals.
5 Those appeals were dismissed by the Court of Appeals after 6 failure to respond to a motion to dismiss and to respond to 7 a request by the Court of Appeals for certain information
8 from Ms. Gersten. That was petitioned to the Supreme Court, 9 which they rejected, and once the remand or remittitur was 10 issued, the remand, excuse me, we promptly served written 11 discovery, including requests for production and 12 interrogatories both to Ms. Gersten and to Ivanka Ayoub, who 13 were the two remaining plaintiffs after the motions practice
14 that took place before the case went to the appellate 15 courts. When we did not receive timely responses to those 16 discovery requests, which were sent in June of 2020, I sent 17 what would be typically a Rule 11 letter asking -- 18 notifying, asking Ms. Gersten and Ms. Ayoub that they were 19 overdue, and also, Judge, asking for deposition dates due to 20 the age of the case and the concern for fading memories.
21 When there was no response to those and no discovery
22 responses provided we filed this motion to compel, which was 23 filed August 26th of 2020, almost two years ago now, Your 24 Honor. Two years have passed. Ms. Gersten asked that the 25 prior -- in a separate hearing last year Ms. Gersten asked

1 that that be continued due to pending litigation that she
2 had in Florida in another case, and the case was continued,
3 and then we fell before you, Your Honor, this year. Despite 4 the fact that the discovery is well over two years old, and 5 the fact that we've filed a motion to compel that's been 6 pending for very nearly two years, two years within two 7 weeks from now, Your Honor, that Ms. Gersten has moved for 8 two continuances on this motion, and has obviously been 9 aware of this motion and these discovery requests at this 10 point for well over two years. While we've seen other 11 filings we've not seen a single document produced, any 12 interrogatories provided, or deposition dates provided.
13 And, Your Honor, while, you know, in 2020 when this was 14 filed maybe the appropriate relief would have been an order
15 compelling. Given the fact that we're now in 2022, two 16 years later, I think that the more appropriate remedy based 17 upon the status of this case is, in fact, a dismissal. And 18 Your Honor has two avenues that you can choose within your 19 discretion, it's broad discretion, as to whether or not 20 dismissal is appropriate. Those avenues are, one, under a 21 failure prosecute the action, and two, as a sanction for 22 failure to comply with discovery, so either under Rule 41 or 23 rule 37B2C. The Small v. Mungo case addresses the standard
24 for dismissal for failure to prosecute under Rule 41. In 25 that case a party failed to show up for trial, it was their

1 only time failing to appear for something in the case. The 2 trial judge to manage the docket struck the case and the 3 appellate court affirmed finding that that was a proper
4 exercise in the Court's discretion. It talked about the 5 elements for whether to dismiss, which includes orderly
6 disposition of cases in the face of repeated opportunities
7 to proceed, unreasonable neglect, indifference pled to the 8 rights of the defendants. And, Your Honor, I don't think we 9 could have a better example here where we have two years
10 passing without an effort to respond to basic 11 interrogatories, basic requests for production, or provide 12 dates for depositions. There's been no excuse provided for 13 that. Obviously other things have been submitted to the 14 Court in that time, but there's been no documents produced,
15 no answers to interrogatories, leaving us at a loss as to 16 exactly what to do with the case, Your Honor. In terms of 17 orderly disposition, we've got a four year old case now, and 18 I think the background is relevant, too, in the fact that 19 the reason the Court of Appeals dismissed the appeal was 20 because of after repeated requests for extensions and 21 extensions of time for Ms. Gersten to respond to an inquiry
22 from the Court. Ultimately the Court of Appeals got fed up,
23 gave her a date to provide a response, to which she did not
24 provide a response, and as a result dismissed the case. So
25 there's a pattern of practice in this case of disregarding

1 rules, including orders from the Court. And Judge, in terms
2 of prejudice, where we are now is not only are we four years
3 into a case and my client is still in, but more importantly 4 now that we have learned that Ivanka Ayoub has actually
5 passed away, so we have, in fact, lost a witness, and lost
6 someone who could have been deposed and provided information
7 in the case. So the prejudice is baked into the situation
8 that we find ourselves in right now. And, Judge, all of 9 those, I think, are more than adequate as a basis under Rule
10 41 to dismiss for failure to prosecute. I believe you noted
11 at our prior hearing that was continued that the obligations
12 apply to both parties in the case, not just to the 13 defendant, and those obligations have not been fulfilled by 14 the plaintiff. And, Judge, certainly as to Ivanka Ayoub who 15 is not here, now granted we have a Rule 25 motion as to her
16 as well because we believe she's passed away, but certainly 17 that would be another grounds for failure to prosecute as to 18 her claim. Judge, moving on to the issue of it being done
19 as a proper discovery sanction, McNair versus Fairfield
20 County would be the case I would point you to, it's 379
21 South Carolina 462, that's a 2003 Court of Appeals case. In 22 that case, Judge, you had a much shorter timeline. You had 23 discovery served on the county, the county did actually make 24 an attempt to respond, they provided 800 pages in response
25 to the discovery requests. The plaintiff in that action

1 moved to compel arguing that the discovery responses were
2 inadequate, the court ordered production, the county failed
3 to comply. All of this took place within one year of the 4 original discovery requests. And ultimately the circuit
5 court, when the county failed to promptly provide
6 supplemental discovery responses, struck the county's answer
7 and its counterclaim. And Justice Hearn, sitting in the 8 Court of Appeals, affirmed that as a proper use and exercise
9 of the circuit court's broad discretion in these matters
10 because there was no excuse for the delay, and found that 11 striking the answer and counterclaim was the only sanction
12 that would create a just result for the plaintiff in that 13 case. And, Judge, again, we're in a case four years in.
14 We've had no discovery, we've lost a witness at this point,
15 and at this point the only just result for this kind of 16 delay and loss of information is to dismiss the case as a
17 proper discovery sanction. There's been no regard 18 whatsoever for the obligations under the rules to respond to 19 discovery. And I know that Ms. Gersten has noted that she's 20 pro se repeatedly, but she clearly has access to the Rules 21 of Civil Procedure. She's been involved in litigation as 22 she's filed with this Court and Florida, she's also been 23 involved in litigation in Ohio, so she's not a stranger to 24 the courtroom, and ignoring the rules of discovery is 25 something that just can't be permitted for four years out

1 into a case. So while we recognize that it's a fairly
2 drastic result, Your Honor, we think that the record here
3 more than adequately supports that on either a Rule 41 or a
4 Rule 37 basis.

5 THE COURT: All right. Thank you for those arguments.
6 Ms. Gersten, I would be more than happy to hear anything you
7 would like for me to know in response to this argument.

8 MS. GERSTEN: Yes. It is quite laughable in such a 9 horrible situation that's ideal with the pain of 10 misrepresentation. Where to begin. Let's start, not one 11 mention of a pandemic, a pandemic that changed of lives of 12 everybody I know, causes me to cry when I think about it.
13 How dare you, Mr. Sawyer, not mention that. That pandemic
14 began March 13, 2022 (sic) and everybody, including my life
15 especially, has changed because of it. There are plenty of 16 excuses. Number one, I never received any of that 17 documentation, and I will gladly look at evidence of 18 receipts of these discovery motions. I never received any 19 of them. During that time that's -- I saw in the docket but 20 the docket has a disclaimer that says that the information
21 on the docket it's sort of at risk. So I'm not held to 22 chase documents that I didn't receive.

23 THE COURT: Ms. Gersten, I must warn you, that argument
24 does not carry much weight with me. I understand the 25 disclaimer that all clerk's of court puts on their web page,

1 but if you looked at it you were aware that there were
2 documents out there, and I did not hear and I've not heard
3 any of this brought up that you didn't receive it.

4 MS. GERSTEN: I'm telling you now because it's never
5 been argued before, we've never discussed this. And for --

6 THE COURT: Okay. My point is making an argument that
7 you didn't receive it is one thing, but making the argument
8 that the clerk of court because they have a disclaimer on 9 their web page that's another type of argument. Okay. So
10 if your argument is you never received it, that's something 11 else. I'm not saying -- so just be mindful of I'm trying to 12 help you with your credibility with your arguments to me.
13 Okay?

14 MS. GERSTEN: I apologize. He touched a nerve because 15 he didn't mention the pandemic, and the pandemic was a big 16 cause of why things went awry, especially with the appellate
17 courts. Because the appellate courts -- he's saying that I
18 repeatedly didn't comply. Okay. What they were repeatedly 19 asking me for was written dates of receiving orders and I
20 couldn't give them because I didn't receive them. And I've 21 learned that actual notice is not the same as written 22 notice. And according to my --

23 THE COURT: Let me ask you to clarify that. You said
24 that they were asking you to receive copies of written
25 orders. You mean your medical records?

1 MS. GERSTEN: No, no, orders of the trial court. No
2 one ever served me orders. And I now have in my possession
3 certified copies of this. And as of -- I have to look at 4 the exact date, but a few days ago I've now received the 5 orders, so now I will be filing a notice of appeal because I
6 was not able to answer that question. That is really the 7 real reason that there was no merit to the claims because I
8 couldn't answer that. I never received written notice, it
9 was never served on me.

10 THE COURT: Oh, you're talking about the appeal that 11 went to the Court of Appeals.

12 MS. GERSTEN: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Okay. All right. I'm sorry. I'm clear
14 now. Go ahead, I'm sorry.

15 MS. GERSTEN: I didn't repeatedly not comply. The 16 dismissal is not appropriate because I have never failed to 17 appear. I've done everything that I'm asked to do within 18 reason. And my mother's passing, the only thing they lost
19 was her testimony that she owned the van, that's it. She 20 wasn't in the van, she didn't witness the collision, that's 21 it, so he lost nothing. Because she gave me a power of 22 attorney -- we're jumping ahead. The only service that I
23 received was his recent -- Mr. Sawyer's recent serving. And 24 I apologize because normally I'm really cool because this 25 pandemic thing, when I just think about not acknowledging

1 that it even happened is upsetting to me, because it changed
2 the course of everybody's lives, not just my life. And
3 during that time I even explained to the appellate courts
4 where I was living, which I'm not living there now, we were 5 not getting mail, and I -- the address that I have is not
6 where I lived. There was always other people. I went
7 through so many caregivers, and I don't even have a
8 caregiver now, back then there were so many different ones,
9 things were lost, things were gone. And if you're saying
10 that I'm held to even though I -- if I saw something on the 11 docket or if that's not a good argument, serve me again and 12 I will definitely -- it's fine, I have no problems. I 13 served my own discovery, I get it, but I wasn't trying to 14 avoid anything. But as far as saying that I filed
15 continuances and making insinuations that the Court granted
16 them and that's why we're two years into this is not true.
17 It's not true. I have no control over what happened. There
18 was actually a hearing set for the 13th that got canceled
19 not because of me. I put in continuances for my own reasons
20 but they were never ruled on, and my continuances had no
21 part of the Court canceling those hearings. And I don't 22 want to be rude to the Court because I appreciate everyone
23 in South Carolina, and even Mr. Wesley, he just touched a 24 nerve because he never mentioned the pandemic, and so the 25 four years that have gone by is all because of me. No, none

1 of it is because of me. I'm here, I've been ready. On the 2 13th I would have dealt with however the Court would have
3 dealt with it but they canceled it on their own, and that
4 can be easily verified, I'm not making that up. I just want
5 to make sure that I cover everything that he said. The 6 pandemic. Did not ignore and received -- okay. And yeah.
7 The only thing she would have testified to is insurance
8 stuff and -- but I'm not -- I'm not -- I'm not -- I'm not 9 practicing law without a license, that's why I've stayed
10 away from that. Because if you want to talk about it,
11 Judge, I do have law that I looked at about unauthorized 12 practice of law and what it actually means. Because when 13 you had mentioned that I wasn't even sure what that is,
14 because I'm not representing her. But her not being here,
15 she definitely has gifted me her claim, or the van, or how 16 ever you want to look at it, and so, you know, what is the 17 practice of law? It is neither practicable nor wise to 18 attempt the comprehensive definition by way of a set of 19 rules. The better course is to decide what is and what is 20 not the unauthorized practice of law in the context of an 21 actual controversy. And this is in regards to unauthorized
22 practice of law rules proposed by this South Carolina Bar,
23 309 SC 304 422 SC2D 123 1992. And it says in the South
24 Carolina Bar that state law does not set forth a list of 25 activities that constitute the unauthorized practice of law.

1 And I mentioned that she was deceased because she -- well,
2 here is the other interesting thing, I wasn't there. I only
3 received a message. I never spoke to anybody about it,
4 didn't go to a funeral, and just like Mr. Sawyer, can't find
5 an obituary, have been seeking a death certificate.
6 Unfortunately at this point it's hearsay. And I'm jumping
7 ahead because he's got a motion on the table that I did
8 receive and I know that's not this one, so I think that I
9 covered everything that I want to say. Oh, he's never once
10 called me, never called me, never sent an email. I mean,
11 those are probably the two best ways to reach me. I
12 apologize, but during that time -- and I can prove that 13 because I -- he's right, I have other claims, and that was 14 one of my big issues during that time because that was 15 shortly right after the pandemic. Where I lived it was 16 madness. They had people marching, no justice, no peace,
17 vandalizing. I mean, it was chaos. I mean, it was hard.
18 People were scared where I lived. The mail was missing,
19 things went awry. It was a hard time right during that 20 period. When he said two years, this was right after things
21 were really hot, and it was different in different places,
22 but where I was it was extremely -- people were touchy. I
23 was scared to go anywhere. I started wearing a Go Pro
24 camera around my chest because I got assaulted by a security
25 guard. And I'm not trying to drift off, I'm just painting

1 an image that during that time was a very unique time in the 2 history of the world, not just one place, it was Washington,
3 all kinds of madness. It was heavy times during then. And 4 I did not personally receive his discovery. Had he called 5 me, had he sent an email things would have been different.

6 THE COURT: All right. I think I understand, I've got
7 your argument. What I heard was pandemic related was a
8 causative factor in not responding, that there's no
9 prejudice due to the death -- or potential death of your 10 codefendant, and that you're now contesting whether or not 11 the codefendant has actually passed away or not. You also 12 claim that you never were served with the discovery
13 requests. And that -- also on the issue of prejudice, that 14 the only issue that your codefendant would be involved with 15 would be the issue of ownership, not the issue of liability,
16 just the issue of the ownership of the vehicle. I think I
17 got that.

18 MS. GERSTEN: Right. I want to interject that just a 19 correction, I'm not -- I'm not challenging that she's not 20 deceased, I have no reason to believe that she's not, but I
21 have no proof that she is.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Are you going to contest that she's 23 not deceased?

24 MS. GERSTEN: No, not at all. I'm seeking a death
25 certificate. Unfortunately the first place that I tried I

1 had bad information and it wasn't -- it was the state she
2 was actually in. It's a long story that led to that moment,
3 and that's not of the concern you said last time about what
4 happened or whatever.

5 THE COURT: Okay. I think I've got that. And whether 6 or not she is deceased or not deceased, your position is 7 still that there's no prejudice, that she's not involved in 8 the litigation, is that correct, due to the fact that her 9 only involvement is over the issue of the ownership of the 10 vehicle.

11 MS. GERSTEN: Well, yeah. And the other issues would 12 not be Kevin Carter related I don't believe, because it has 13 to do with insurances. That's what I have to take up with 14 the insurance company.

15 THE COURT: Right. Okay. Yes, good point, thank you
16 for pointing that out.

17 MS. GERSTEN: And I apologize if I got too passionate,
18 and I didn't mean to, I honestly -- it's a trigger for me
19 because a lot of bad things happened during those two years.

20 THE COURT: That's fine. You argued quite well and you
21 argued better than some lawyers that come in front of me, so
22 thank you for that. Don't say that to the other lawyers,
23 though. Do not say that to the other lawyers. Any reply to 24 that, Mr. Sawyer?

25 MR. SAWYER: Yes, Your Honor, very briefly. First of

1 all the pandemic, certainly we all dealt with it, we all
2 learned now to deal with it. I know Ms. Gersten litigated
3 other matters during the pandemic. And also the immediate 4 issues of the pandemic have certainly subsided
5 substantially, yet we haven't gotten discovery responses, so
6 I think that was a Red Herring. Certainly it's an emotional
7 appeal but it doesn't really explain the delay. In terms of 8 the prejudice, Judge, first of all I should clarify, this 9 motion is as to both Ms. Gersten and Ms. Ayoub. Ms. Ayoub
10 claimed ownership of the van. Because of learning of her 11 death I felt compelled to also file a Rule 25 motion, which 12 is really a motion in the alternative. Either she has 13 passed away, and I submit a sufficient amount of time has 14 passed such that because no one has moved to substitute
15 under Rule 25 her claim has to be dismissed. Or she's 16 alive, she's not here, and that's a failure to prosecute.
17 So really we have either way her claim should be dismissed,
18 but they're under two alternatives. But as to prejudice,
19 Judge, Ms. Gersten just represented that the claim for the 20 van has been somehow given over to her by her mother. I
21 cannot depose her mother to find out about that. I was 22 never aware of that claim being handed over. So again, the 23 prejudice there is abundant. Also, I would have to take 24 Ms. Gersten's word as to what her mother knew or did not 25 know about the contents of the van, the value of those

1 contents, the condition of those contents. And since the
2 claim here is primarily about the contents of the van now
3 I've lost a valuable source of information. To get to 4 probably the most important point that Ms. Gersten raised,
5 which is the claim that she did not receive these documents,
6 we have filed certificates of service of the discovery
7 requests with our motion to compel, or in the alternative
8 motion to dismiss. We also have certificates of service
9 mailing these documents, the motion to compel itself to Ms.
10 Gersten, just like we mailed notices of the hearings to 11 Ms. Gersten. She claims she didn't get the orders from the 12 underlying case, but, Judge, she filed a notice of appeal on 13 the underlying case earlier orders, so she filed a notice of 14 appeal attaching those other orders. So, Judge, she clearly 15 has been getting these things, otherwise she wouldn't have 16 been able to attach them to a notice of appeal. And, Judge, 17 when she got notice of the hearing a year ago, or notice of 18 this hearing, that would have certainly put her on notice
19 that the discovery had been sent, and I've never been told
20 until today or implied that she didn't receive the discovery
21 or didn't receive our motion. But frankly, Your Honor, if 22 she didn't we've mailed them, which is all the rules require 23 us to show, and we've provided the certificate of service to 24 that. But frankly, Your Honor, just the context and the 25 fact that this is only being raised now unfortunately

1 doesn't bear a lot of credibility given the background of 2 this and the fact that this motion has been pending without
3 any notice to the Court or to me stating that these have not
4 been received previously. So, Your Honor, I think that's 5 why we have certificates of service, we rely upon those, and 6 those were in the Court's record, and I would point to 7 those. And, Judge, here we are four years later, we've lost
8 a witness, we have no discovery, and the case just has been 9 dragged on for far too long at this point. I think that 10 those address the four things that Ms. Gersten raised.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Let me ask you a question, I know
12 that you filed a separate motion, the pleading with the 13 codefendant, do you feel like -- and I've got a copy of 14 that -- do you feel like you've now argued that motion
15 sufficiently? Because I think both of you -- both you and 16 Ms. Gersten have educated me as to what your positions are 17 on those, but do you have anything else just related to that 18 motion?

19 MR. SAWYER: Judge, very briefly, and it won't take me
20 long to address that one. It's Rule 25. And obviously 21 there's not a lot of case law on Rule 25, but there is a 22 little bit of it. It's based off the federal rule, but our 23 rule promulgators, I think, made a wise decision in two 24 regards. One, I dealt with this in the federal courts, the 25 federal courts require almost an impossible service rule,

1 which is you have to serve the beneficiaries of what would
2 be the estate, and as the opposing party typically it's 3 almost impossible to be in a position to identify those
4 individuals. Our state court rule promulgators thankfully
5 did not include that part in our version of Rule 25. So in 6 the service rule to my understanding it says as with any 7 other motion under the South Carolina rules which is you
8 mail to the last known address, and that's important just as 9 a point of distinction because I've dealt with that in the 10 federal court recently. But more importantly, our court --
11 our version uses the phrase a reasonable time, the federal 12 rule says 90 days. The commentary on it notes that that's 13 actually a substitute, it's not meant to modify the time
14 substantially, but it gives the Court a little bit more 15 room, I believe, in terms of what is a reasonable time. But 16 in light of the fact that it's based upon -- says it's a 17 substitute for the 90 days in the federal rule I would 18 certainly think that in excess of 180 days after her 19 purported date of death is beyond the reasonable time for 20 someone to move to substitute. The Court of Appeals has 21 also noted as to Rule 25 that there is no requirement for 22 anything to be done by the opposing party, nor the party
23 that would be moving to dismiss under Rule 25. The rule 24 requires that the case be dismissed if no one moves to 25 substitute within a reasonable time of the decedent's

1 passing. So it's an automatic thing, it doesn't require any 2 personal jurisdiction, it doesn't require any proof of 3 service, all the question that the Court has is all right,
4 has someone passed away and has a reasonable amount of time
5 passed without a substitution being filed. And, Your Honor,
6 the only date that I have to operate with is the date that 7 Ms. Gersten put on the record during our last hearing, which 8 was January of this year, which is well over six months and 9 gets us past that 180 day mark by quite a margin. So that 10 would be the alternative basis, Your Honor, if the Court has 11 concerns about whether Ms. Ayoub is still alive, either
12 she's failed to prosecute and failed to respond to 13 discovery, or she's passed away and no one has moved to 14 substitute on her behalf within a reasonable period of time.
15 So it's just -- it's two different ways to deal with this in 16 the alternative, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Gersten, Mr. Sawyer was 18 giving me his supplemental arguments relating to Rule 25 and 19 the dismissal of Ms. Ayoub's case. Do you have anything
20 that you wanted to add to that? And I caution you, I know I
21 mentioned practicing without a license, and I still would 22 caution you on that, I think I would be remiss if I did not.
23 But given my statement about that, do you have anything to 24 argue based on what Mr. Sawyer just argued? And I won't 25 hold you to the standard that you're practicing law without

1 a license, how about that.

2 MS. GERSTEN: Well, thank you very much. And I
3 definitely can even do it in a way that I think will even 4 more so avoid that. I'll just read the law that he's 5 referring to, which is Rule 25, substitution of parties. A
6 death, number one. If a party dies and the claim is not 7 thereby extinguished, the Court may order substitution of 8 the proper party. Motion for substitution may be made by 9 any party or by the successors or representatives of the 10 deceased party, and together with the notice of hearing
11 shall be served on the parties as provided in Rule 5, and 12 upon persons not parties in the manner provided by Rule 4 of 13 the service of summons. If substitution is not made within 14 a reasonable time the action may be dismissed as to the 15 deceased party. Counsel of record for such deceased party
16 shall give notice to all other parties of the death of such 17 parties as soon as practicable after obtaining such 18 knowledge and of the name and address of the proper parties
19 who should be substituted. Now, there is a note that says
20 this Rule 25A1 is substantially the same as Federal Rule
21 25A. In the federal rule the motion for substitution is to 22 be made within 90 days after notice of death is suggested
23 upon the record. The rule substitutes a reasonable time
24 after such knowledge is obtained. So in just discussing
25 this law and staying away from even appearing as though I'm

1 practicing law, which I'm not, or representing someone, the
2 key thing here is made within 90 days after notice of death
3 is suggested, suggested upon the record. Well, I suggested
4 it July 28, 2022, and if you give 90 days that hasn't
5 happened yet. October 26, 2022, would be 90 days. Now,
6 although I mentioned the date of January 11th, 2022, this
7 year, which I have not confirmed for myself yet, I did not
8 say that that's the date that I learned of this, but that's 9 all irrelevant according to the rules. According to the 10 rules it's the suggestion on the record, that was suggested
11 July 28th, 2022, as I intend on filing a substitution of 12 parties, and I have even spoken to numerous attorneys, so
13 many. And there's probate, there's all kind of different
14 ways, there's so many different ways of that. But the thing
15 is I'm within that reasonable time and I would ask the Court
16 to put a pause on this and perhaps set another hearing to 17 permit at least the 90 days, which I'll have to work faster
18 than this, it's getting a death certificate, which I think
19 is the key to proving that she's deceased. Otherwise I
20 don't know how else I can prove other than the power of 21 attorney that I do have, which I have not submitted because 22 I felt that my time wasn't due yet, that I'm still within 23 the reasonable time. And, yes, I feel that that has not 24 expired yet. It did not begin on a date of her death, it's 25 a date that's suggested on the record.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you very much. Any reply to
2 that, Mr. Sawyer?

3 MR. SAWYER: Yes, Your Honor. It can't be the date
4 that's suggested on the record because that's definitely
5 supposed to be filed or dealt with by her attorney, and she 6 doesn't have an attorney, so it in effect will never 7 actually get his anywhere with this. And frankly I'm not in 8 a position that I could ever get the proof of her death
9 without knowing about it. But at the end of the day the 10 rule itself actually -- and not the comments to the rule,
11 but the rule itself says it's not made within a reasonable 12 time. It says if a party dies. So the opening line of 13 paragraph A1 is if a party dies and the claim is not thereby
14 extinguished...and then if a substitution is not made within 15 a reasonable time the action may be dismissed as to the 16 deceased party. Rule A1, which sets that forth doesn't 17 state that it's based upon the suggestion of death, and 18 that's not how the Court of Appeals has looked at it either
19 when it has reviewed that rule. So at the end of the day
20 we're not 90 days, we're 180 days, and that's well beyond a 21 reasonable time for someone to have filed a substitution if 22 it was going to happen, and at the end of day it hasn't.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Okay. And thank y'all very much.
24 Can I ask a point of privilege? Can I take a break for 25 about 30 minutes and then let's reconvene and I will give

1 you an update? If I'm able to make a ruling, make a ruling
2 at that time, if not I'll just reconvene and let you know
3 I'm not going to make a ruling. Can we do that?

4 MR. SAWYER: That's fine with me, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Ms. Gersten, is that okay with you?

6 MS. GERSTEN: Well, I mean, do I need to -- because I
7 would like to take a break. Again, it takes me a half hour
8 to get out of the chair, and so if I would have to wait I
9 would be just sitting in the chair for a half hour. I'm not 10 trying to be difficult, it's just that it would be easier
11 for me -- I mean, I don't want to be difficult. I mean, do
12 I just sit in the chair? You said you may not even have a 13 ruling, maybe it would be easier for you to take a full day
14 to think about this, and I'm fine, I don't need an answer
15 today.

16 THE COURT: I would like to -- I just want to review my 17 notes to be sure that I've got all of the questions that I
18 have has been answered, and if I have anymore maybe ask more
19 of them. But I tell you what, can we get back in 40
20 minutes, how about that? That would put us at 4:30.

21 MS. GERSTEN: Okay. So then I could take a quick
22 catheter break, thank you very much.

23 THE COURT: Thank y'all very much, we'll see y'all
24 about 4:30.

25 (Break in proceedings.)

1 THE COURT: Okay. Thank y'all for getting back
2 together. Mr. Sawyer, can you hear me okay?

3 MR. SAWYER: Yes, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Ms. Gersten, can you hear me okay?

5 MS. GERSTEN: Yes, sir, thank you for asking.

6 THE COURT: Thank y'all very much. Okay. A couple of 7 general observations first. Okay. Ms. Gersten, I probably 8 covered this with you last time because I cover this with -- 9 I try to do this with any pro se litigant. I'm of the very 10 strong opinion it's never a wise thing to do for a lay
11 person to represent themselves in a court of law. You
12 definitely have a right to do so, but I just don't think 13 it's a wise thing to do. Frequently pro se litigants are -- 14 get tripped up or get -- or else -- pro se litigants are 15 bound by the same rules of evidence and the rules of 16 procedures that people who are represented by lawyers.
17 There's definitely, as you've mentioned on several 18 occasions, there's a preference for the Court, and this 19 Court tries to do the same, to not hold pro se litigants in 20 strict compliance with the rules and allows some leeway.
21 But the Court also has to apply the rules of evidence and 22 the rules of procedure in a way that is fair to everybody.
23 I say that because I'm going to grant the motion to dismiss
24 in regards to the cases. And let me offer you a reason why.
25 And I want to tell you and encourage you to not let this be

1 the end of it, of your pursuit of this litigation, because I
2 can tell by your, for lack of better words, passion, but
3 also your ability to prepare for these hearings that you are 4 very sincere and genuine in seeking those claims. But I
5 want to encourage you to talk to a lawyer. I did have a
6 chance to review the pleadings even though the issues
7 related to the pleadings were not the material issues in 8 front of this Court. This is an automobile accident that 9 happened a long time ago, March of 2015 as alleged in the 10 complaint. And based on the allegations in the complaint, 11 the complaint is crafted in a way that it seems to, this is 12 my description, and I'm sure that maybe lawyers will come up
13 with a better way to say it, that the single complaint has 14 tried to act as a catch all to bring everybody into the 15 action. And that is unusual for this Court to see a 16 complaint filed like that, where everybody, and I mean
17 everybody, including insurance companies, liability
18 insurance company, UIM insurance companies, just an array of 19 different defendants have been brought into the same action,
20 and so that is unusual. And if you do have -- and the 21 reason I want you to talk to a lawyer is because the 22 complaint itself -- if we had lawyers arguing today they 23 would argue probably they wanted separate different types of 24 lawsuits in regards to the -- in regards to the litigation
25 that was filed. Because insurance coverage, whether it be

1 first party coverage, or liability coverage, or UIM
2 coverage, or UM coverage, all of that is handled separately
3 from the actual litigation that establishes the claims of 4 liability and damages, and I really think you would be well
5 served if you have legal counsel to filter through that.
6 Because an individual who has been involved in an automobile
7 accident may have claims against the at-fault party's 8 insurance companies, as well as have claims as you have 9 argued today where your own insurance company where possibly 10 you paid for some type of insurance coverage, or they would 11 have obligations to respond. And those are different
12 obligations, and those different obligations arise different 13 duties under the law. I know you phrased your complaint as 14 both in negligence as well as breach of contract claims, and 15 those are -- and in automobile accidents that's just unusual
16 to have those pled together, so I encourage you to talk to a 17 lawyer about those. I'm going to grant the motions to 18 dismiss dealing with the motions to compel and in the 19 alternative the motions to dismiss as to both the 20 defendants. So I'll ask Mr. Sawyer to prepare a formal 21 order that will summarize his arguments to me. I think his 22 arguments succinctly gave the reasons that justified the 23 dismissal. In particular the one of the -- once you get 24 involved in litigation one of the aspects of being involved
25 in litigation is you've got to comply with discovery. I

1 think both sides are entitled to conduct discovery, and
2 given that this is a 2015 litigation this motion, the 3 discovery requests were filed in 2020, even with the 4 regrettable pandemic that we all lived through that did not
5 stop the litigation, and so I think a sufficient enough time
6 has passed to grant the motion. I think if I didn't I would 7 actually be denying reasonable due process to the 8 defendants. In regards to the other motions, I went back
9 and took a look at the procedural process of those motions.
10 I would -- if I were ruling on those motions since other 11 judges have decided them I would have to apply an abuse of 12 discretion standard, and I would have to set out -- I would
13 have to find that the other judges, Judge Hayes and Judge
14 Gibbons, had abused their discretion in issuing those 15 orders. There's a procedural barrier that prevents me from 16 making that determination whether they did or they did not,
17 and that is that those motions -- the present motions are 18 such that they needed to be filed and heard by the judge
19 that made those motions. The rules of procedure provides 20 that the -- that those motions needed to be filed with those 21 judges to allow those judges to revisit their rulings.
22 There's also a generalized rule that has been applied to me
23 in other cases to tell me I can't make rulings, and that is 24 that once a circuit court judge in a particular case has 25 made a ruling, another circuit court judge cannot reverse or

1 change that ruling that another circuit court judge has made
2 even if that second circuit court judge disagrees with them.
3 So based upon the fact that I view those motions having have
4 to be ruled on by those judges, I will -- I can't make that 5 ruling addressing the substance of it, but the procedural 6 aspects of those motions prevent me from making a ruling on 7 those motions. I will make a general observation that you
8 argued very articulately and very passionately about why you
9 feel that you need to have a separation of the property
10 damage claim and the liability claim. I struggle -- I want
11 to take a look at the law -- I struggle, that word may that 12 you referenced to me is very important. I struggled to find
13 that that word may would be defined as shall be separated,
14 and so with that word may being in there that would have 15 gone into my decision in trying to determine whether or not 16 those other judges had abused their discretion. And I just 17 point that out to you that that was some important language
18 that you pointed out, but I think that I am prohibited from 19 going in and reversing or making a decision that's contrary
20 to those other judges on those motions. I cannot stress to 21 you how impressed I am with -- while you're not represented
22 by a lawyer with your preparedness on the -- on arguing the 23 various points of rules that you wanted the Court to 24 consider. I think both Mr. Sawyer and you have provided me,
25 which is what oral argument is supposed to do, a good

1 educational foundation as to what your positions are, so I
2 wanted to be sure I understood your foundational arguments
3 from the standpoint of what law to apply or what rules to 4 apply. The -- I will note that Mr. Sawyer is being asked to 5 prepare a formal order, that's a customary practice in state
6 court litigation. It will -- I don't imagine Mr. Sawyer --
7 Mr. Sawyer has never appeared in front of me before that I
8 recall, but I don't think -- he's probably going to be fast
9 enough I'll get the order immediately. I mention that 10 because I want you to consider very seriously my 11 encouragement to go talk with a lawyer, because once Mr.
12 Sawyer delivers me the order I will make my own changes in 13 it, so what I say today is not a final ruling. Final 14 rulings made by state circuit court judges only appear in 15 the written document, so I may change something he makes, I
16 might change my mind completely, I don't do that frequently
17 but that is something that could happen. So I encourage you
18 to go talk with a lawyer and to let a lawyer know we've had 19 this proceeding, let the lawyer know what the status of it
20 is and take to that lawyer all of the documents that relate 21 to this case, because I do think that the passion that 22 you've shown and the preparation you've shown speaks well
23 for your position, and I would want you to receive the 24 appropriate legal advice. With that being said, there are 25 as you probably know -- once I do sign a final order, in the

1 event the final order is not in your favor, you do have two
2 options as I see it, you might have other options, that's 3 why I say talk to a lawyer because another lawyer might give 4 you other options, but two customary options is you can one,
5 file a motion for reconsideration. There is a time line for 6 filing that, I believe it is ten days after the order is 7 issued. That -- I will let you know that if I am asked to 8 reconsider the motion it might serve you well to have 9 complied with the discovery, the fact that we've taken so
10 long to have this motion addressed and the motion has been 11 pending. Going back and checking the clerk of court's file,
12 the clerk of court notified the parties as much as I think 13 it was October or January back when the motion was filed in 14 2020, that the motion to dismiss was pending, and then there
15 has not been any type of discovery responses filed. So I
16 would view, not to say it would be determinative, but I
17 would view favorably, I would look more favorably to a 18 motion for reconsideration if, in fact, discovery had been 19 complied with by the time the motion for reconsideration was 20 filed. Or your second alternative would be to file an 21 appeal of the written decision once I make it. Sometimes --
22 and I mention that, that sometimes I have seen parties take 23 a preliminary ruling made by a judge, they'll file --
24 they'll go through the process of filing a motion or filing
25 an appeal only to be told by the Court of Appeals or the

1 Supreme Court: You're too early, you can't file a motion,
2 then you've done a lot of work for no good. The time for
3 filing a motion to appeal also does not occur until a formal
4 order has been issued by a Court. But anyway, those are my
5 rulings on these matters. I do appreciate everyone's
6 patience with me, and I look forward to receiving a formal
7 order. Thank y'all very much.

8 MR. SAWYER: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Thank y'all.

10 MS. GERSTEN: Thank you.

11 THE COURT: Thank you.

A. BACKGROUND

On March 19, 2015 around 3:45 a.m., a collision occurred between a Chevrolet Mark III Conversion Van driven by Ms. Heidi Gersten and a Honda Ridgeline driven by Mr. Kevin Carter on Interstate 77 approximately 800 feet north of mile marker 61 in Chester County, South Carolina. Both vehicles were travelling north on an unlighted rural section of the interstate when the passenger's side front of the Chevrolet collided with the driver's side rear of the Honda. Additional details of the collision are reported in the South Carolina Traffic Collision Report contained in Appendix I.

B. WORK OF INVESTIGATION

DELTA [v] has conducted a reconstruction analysis to determine how the collision occurred. The following work has been conducted and documents have been reviewed as part of the analysis:

1. The South Carolina Traffic Collision Report prepared by Trooper H. A. Blackwell of the South Carolina Highway Patrol was reviewed and is included as Appendix I.
2. 40 color photographs taken at the collision scene by the South Carolina Highway Patrol were reviewed. Selected photographs are included in Appendix III.
3. The 1998 Chevrolet Mark III Conversion Van was inspected by DELTA [v] at the facilities of Copart Auto Auctions in Columbia Station, Ohio on December 20, 2015. Selected photographs of the vehicle are included in Appendix II. The Crash Data Report (CDR) imaged from the vehicle's airbag control module is included in Appendix IV.
4. The 2008 Honda Ridgeline was inspected by DELTA [v] at the facilities of Copart Auto Auctions in Gaston, South Carolina on November 10, 2015. Selected photographs of the vehicle are included in Appendix II.

5. The collision site was inspected and the collision related marks were photographed and measured by DELTA |v| on November 20, 2015.
6. Google Street View images taken shortly after the incident were reviewed.
7. Vehicle Specifications for both vehicles obtained from Expert AutoStats were reviewed.
8. Scale drawings of the collision related marks and collision sequence were created and are included as Appendix V.
9. A vehicle speed analysis was conducted using both energy dissipation and momentum methods.
10. A driver Perception Response Time (PRT) analysis was conducted.

C. VEHICLES

1. 1998 Chevrolet Mark III Conversion Van

The 1998 Chevrolet Van was inspected at the facilities of Copart Auto Auctions in Columbia Station, Ohio on December 10, 2015. The following manufacturer's information is provided:

Year/Make/Model: 1998 Chevrolet G1500 Van
Vehicle Identification Number: [REDACTED]

The collision damage to the Chevrolet was to the front of the vehicle, primarily on the passenger's side. Direct contact damage to the vehicle front extends from the passenger front corner inboard approximately 2 feet. The passenger's side front wheel and suspension components had severe damage and were displaced rearward. Vehicle components were shifted primarily rearward, consistent with a partial overlap frontal collision. Both frontal airbags were deployed as a result of the collision. Additional damage to the vehicle sides, roof, and wheels are consistent with a rollover. Three-dimensional scans and photographs were used to quantify the location and extent of damage to the vehicle. This data was used for further reconstruction analysis. Selected photographs of the vehicle damage are provided in Appendix II.

The Chevrolet was equipped with an Airbag Control Module (ACM) that had a secondary function as an Event Data Recorder (EDR). DELTA |v| imaged the electronic data contained on the EDR by connecting directly to the ACM located under the driver's seat. An airbag deployment event was recorded as a result of the collision under investigation. However, due to a loss of power to the ACM during the collision, a full record of collision was not recorded and therefore the measured vehicle velocity change was incomplete. The Crash Data Retrieval (CDR) report from the EDR image is included as Appendix IV of this report.

2. 2008 Honda Ridgeline

The 2008 Honda Ridgeline was inspected by DELTA |v| at the facilities of Copart Auto Auctions in Gaston, South Carolina on November 20, 2015. Measurements and photographs were taken during the inspection. The following manufacturer's information is provided:

Year/Make/Model:	2008 Honda Ridgeline
Vehicle Identification Number:
Date of Manufacture:	September 2007

The Honda had collision damage to its rear. The damage was consistent with the driver's side rear of the vehicle coming into contact with the passenger's side front of the Chevrolet Van. The Honda's rear structure was displaced forward and to the left, with more extensive crush occurring on the driver's side rear of the vehicle due to the partial overlap of the collision. The rear axle of the Honda was displaced forward and damaged, especially on the driver's side. The contact area and extent of vehicle crush would have resulted in the Honda rotating severely in a clockwise direction following the impact. Three-dimensional scans and photographs were used to quantify the location and extent of damage to the vehicle. This data was used for further reconstruction analysis. Selected photographs of the vehicle damage are provided in Appendix II.

The Honda Ridgeline was not equipped by the manufacturer with an onboard Event Data Recorder prior to model year 2012. It was observed in the collision scene photographs that the vehicle had a portable Garmin GPS device attached to the windshield. If operating during the incident, the Garmin GPS would have recorded incident related information such as vehicle speed, position, time and date. The Garmin GPS was not available during DELTA [v]'s inspection of the vehicle, however, the incident data may still be present on the device if it was retained by its owner.

D. COLLISION SITE

The collision occurred on northbound Interstate 77 approximately 800 feet north of mile marker 61 near Richburg, South Carolina. The collision site was inspected by DELTA [v] on November 20, 2015. During the inspection, the general roadway configuration and the collision related marks were photographed and measured, including aerial photography and three-dimensional scans.

The collision occurred on a rural, unlighted section of northbound Interstate 77. In the area of the collision, northbound Interstate 77 has two lanes of travel, with a paved shoulder followed by a grassy shoulder area leading to a ditch. North and southbound travel are separated by a grassy median. The posted speed limit on Interstate 77 in the vicinity of the collision is 70 mph.

During DELTA [v]'s inspection of the collision site, the area of the initial impact was identified by collision related scrapes and gouges in the roadway. These scrapes and gouges were verified to be the same as those from the incident by comparing them to the collision scene photographs taken by the South Carolina Highway Patrol (SCHP). Selected photographs of the collision scene taken by the SCHP are included in Appendix III. Additional roadway scrapes and tire marks related to the collision were identified in Google Street View imagery taken shortly after the incident. The final rest positions of the vehicles were identified by the investigating officer's photographs and aerial imagery of the soil furrows created as the vehicles travelled through the grassy shoulder to rest. The collision related marks in the roadway, vehicle rest positions and the general roadway configuration are identified in DELTA [v] Drawing [REDACTED] included in Appendix V.

E. RECONSTRUCTION ANALYSIS

A reconstruction analysis has been conducted to determine the positions and orientations of the vehicles at the point of impact. Additionally, a speed evaluation has been conducted to determine the impact speed of both of the vehicles. The following information was considered during the analysis: measurements and photographs taken by DELTA [v] at the collision site and during vehicle inspections; SCHP photographs taken of the collision scene on the day of the incident; and Google Street View imagery of the collision site taken shortly after the incident.

Gouges and scrapes documented at the collision site by DELTA [v] were used to evaluate the initial point of impact between the vehicles. Evidence from photographs taken at the collision scene on the day of the collision were also used to supplement this data. The collision related marks were consistent with being created when components of the Honda Ridgeline and Chevrolet Van were forced down into the pavement during their initial engagement. Post-impact tire marks and scrapes are consistent with the Honda Ridgeline initiating a clockwise spin after impact, traveling off of the roadway and through the grassy shoulder before coming to rest. Additional post-impact tire marks and an extended rim gouge are consistent with the Chevrolet Van proceeding into a severe yaw following impact. These tire marks are followed by a series roadway scrapes consistent with a rolling vehicle as it travelled off of the roadway and into the grassy shoulder before coming to rest.

Based on the analysis of the collision related marks and overlapping damage patterns between the vehicles, it was determined that the collision occurred with the Chevrolet Van travelling fully within the right lane of travel. The Honda Ridgeline was traveling with its driver's and passenger's side tires straddling the white edge line separating the right travel lane from the paved shoulder. The vehicles are depicted at their initial impact positions in DELTA [v] Drawing [REDACTED] of Appendix V.

A speed evaluation of the vehicles was conducted considering the energy dissipated as the vehicles travelled from the point of impact to their rest positions. A crush energy analysis was also utilized to determine the change in velocity (commonly referred to as a delta v) of the vehicles during the collision. Based upon the results of the analysis, it was evaluated that the speed of the Honda Ridgeline was less than 20 mph at impact. The speed of the Chevrolet Van was evaluated to be approximately 75 mph at impact.

The speed and location of the Honda in the impact area were consistent with the vehicle entering the travel lanes from the right shoulder of the interstate highway. The slow speed of the Honda created a hazardous high closure rate situation between the two vehicles. Additionally, attempting to enter the travel lane from the shoulder creates an unexpected cut-off hazard for approaching drivers. This type of maneuver is most dangerous at night due to the increased difficulty approaching drivers have of appreciating the high closing rate created by the situation. Based upon published research concerning typical driver perception response times for a similar situation, a reasonable driver that is cut-off by a slow moving vehicle at night would not have sufficient opportunity to avoid the hazard.

F. CONCLUSIONS

Based upon the work conducted to date, my education and professional experience, it is my opinion that:

1. The driver of the 2008 Honda Ridgeline, Mr. Kevin Carter, attempted to enter the travel lanes of Interstate 77 from its right shoulder at a slow speed when it collided with the 1998 Chevrolet Van driven by Ms. Heidi Gersten.
2. The evaluated impact speed of the Honda was less than 20 mph, significantly below the posted speed limit of 70 mph.
3. The evaluated impact speed of the Chevrolet was approximately 75 mph, consistent with travelling at an appropriate speed for the interstate.

4. The driver of the 2008 Honda Ridgeline created a hazardous situation by cutting off the driver of the 1998 Chevrolet Van while attempting to re-enter the travel lanes from the shoulder of the interstate highway.
5. The high closure rate situation created by the driver of the Honda posed a significant hazard for approaching drivers. This dangerous condition was further degraded due to it occurring during the hours of darkness on an unlighted section of the interstate. A reasonable driver that is cut-off by a slow moving vehicle at night would not have sufficient opportunity to avoid the hazard.
6. The collision was caused by the hazard created by the driver of the Honda when he attempted to re-enter the travel lanes from the shoulder at a slow speed. The driver of the Chevrolet did not have sufficient opportunity to avoid this hazard.

Each of these opinions is stated with a reasonable degree of engineering and accident reconstruction certainty. They are subject to additions or changes as additional material becomes available to me.

1998 Chevrolet Van Crash Data Report

IMPORTANT NOTICE: Robert Bosch LLC and the manufacturers whose vehicles are accessible using the CDR System urge end users to use the latest production release of the Crash Data Retrieval system software when viewing, printing or exporting any retrieved data from within the CDR program. Using the latest version of the CDR software is the best way to ensure that retrieved data has been translated using the most current information provided by the manufacturers of the vehicles supported by this product.

Data Limitations

Recorded Crash Events:

There are two types of Recorded Crash Events. The first is the Non-Deployment Event. A Non-Deployment Event records data but does not deploy the air bag(s). The SDM can store up to one Non-Deployment Event. This event can be overwritten by an event that has a greater SDM recorded longitudinal velocity change. This event will be cleared by the SDM, after approximately 250 ignition cycles. This event can be overwritten by a second Deployment Event, referred to as a Deployment Level Event, if the Non-Deployment Event is not locked. The data in the Non-Deployment Event file will be locked, if the Non-Deployment Event occurred within five seconds before a Deployment Event. A locked Non Deployment Event cannot be overwritten or cleared by the SDM. The second type of SDM recorded crash event is the Deployment Event. The SDM can store up to two different Deployment Events, if they occur within five seconds of one another. If a Deployment Level Event occurs within five seconds after the Deployment Event, the Deployment Level Event will overwrite any non-locked Non-Deployment Event. Deployment Events cannot be overwritten or cleared by the SDM. Once the SDM has deployed an air bag, the SDM must be replaced.

Data:

-SDM Recorded Vehicle Longitudinal Velocity Change reflects the change in longitudinal velocity that the sensing system experienced during the recorded portion of the event. SDM Recorded Vehicle Longitudinal Velocity Change is the change in velocity during the recording time and is not the speed the vehicle was traveling before the event, and is also not the Barrier Equivalent Velocity. The SDM records the first 300 milliseconds of Vehicle Longitudinal Velocity Change after Algorithm Enable. The maximum value that can be recorded for Vehicle Longitudinal Velocity Change is 56 MPH. Velocity Change data is displayed in SAE sign convention.

-Driver's Belt Switch Circuit Status indicates the status of the driver's seat belt switch circuit.

-The Time between Non-Deployment and Deployment Events is displayed in seconds. If the time between the two events is greater than five seconds, "N/A" is displayed in place of the time.

-If power to the SDM is lost during a crash event, all or part of the crash record may not be recorded. An indication of a loss of power would be if the ignition cycles at the event is recorded as zero. Data recorded after that may not be reliable, such as Time Between Non-Deployment and Deployment Events, Driver Belt Switch Circuit Status, and Passenger SIR Suppression Switch Circuit Status.

-All data should be examined in conjunction with other available physical evidence from the vehicle and scene.

Data Source:

All SDM recorded data is measured, calculated, and stored internally, except for the following:

-The Driver's Belt Switch Circuit is wired directly to the SDM.

-The Passenger Front Air Bag Suppression Switch Circuit is wired directly to the SDM.

Hexadecimal Data:

Data that the vehicle manufacturer has specified for data retrieval is shown in the hexadecimal data section of the CDR report. The hexadecimal data section of the CDR report may contain data that is not translated by the CDR program. The control module contains additional data that is not retrievable by the CDR tool.

1 Mr. Tirbovich: Joe, how can I help you?

2 Ms. Gersten: Oh, hi. I'm returning your call for claim number [REDACTED]

3 Mr. Tirbovich: [REDACTED] Okay. Let me pull that up here. [REDACTED] Mmm-mmm-mmm-
4 you said, "[REDACTED]"?

5 Ms. Gersten: Yes.

6 Mr. Tirbovich: Okay. I don't know. I thought file. What, what, what, is your name?

7 Ms. Gersten: Heidi Gersten

8 Mr. Tirbovich: Uh-hh-hh. Okay. Ah. Oh. Spell your name, 'cause I-I-I, you may have 9 been given wrong. What-what-what's your? Spell your last name please.

10 Ms. Gersten: G-E-R-S-T-E-N

11 Mr. Tirbovich: Oh. Heidi. Yes. I'm sorry. Yes. Okay, uh, let me, ah, get that right here, 12 um. I am the adjuster assigned to this particular claim, um. We are still investigating the 13 accident. Now, we were told that you had an attorney. I then got a-a drop letter from that 14 attorney and, um, basically wanted to talk to you to get a statement, eh-eh, as to, uh, your 15 version of what happened in the auto accident and also I don't know as far as a current, um,
16 contact information for you as-as-as far as address and, um, phone number, uh. Do you
17 have some time to give me a statement?

18 Ms. Gersten: Um. I was actually calling because I thought you were ready to send for 19 damages.

20 Mr. Tirbovich: No. We're still investigating the incident, um, at this point. Also as far 21 as injuries, we-we don't have any information in regards to your injuries, meaning, I-we 22 have to have detailed documentation. We have to have medical records. We have to have,
23 you know, from start to finish medical bills, ah-and-and-and so on. So normally when you
24 have an attorney, the attorney supplies us with all of that information, but, um, with--when

1 we received the letter from Motley Rice stating they're-they're no longer representing you-
2 So, um, even if we do accept liability, we still need to gather all medical records from 3 everybody you've gone to see from-from the accident, you know, to-to present. Um. And 4 then we evaluate the claim and make an offer at-at that point. Um. So we-we, as far as, you
5 know, I-I can't just, you know, release monies. Number one, we've got to finish the 6 investigation. Number two, um, well, we-we have to have all medical documentation. Um.
7 As I said, when you have an attorney, they supply all that information or documentation, if 8 not, um, what I do is I forward you a, what's called a, uh-uh, medical authorization form.
9 You then have to list everyone that you've gone to see for this accident, list their name,
10 addresses, phone numbers and then I-I can order the medical records and then we evaluate 11 the claim.
12

14 Ms. Gersten: Okay. So you're not, uh, aware that Kevin Carter is on trial for his DWI?

15 Mr. Tirbovich: We--Yes, we are. That is correct. We are.

16 Ms. Gersten: Okay. And they moved him up from--Um, into General Sessions Court for-
17 -They're increasing the charges.

18 Mr. Tirbovich: That we don't. We don't have any knowledge of that. What-what we 19 have is--We have a police report that, you know, cites you for a-a excessive speed. I'm not-- 20

21 Ms. Gersten: No. I-I was--That--

22 Mr. Tirbovich: --saying that it's correct.

23 Ms. Gersten: --that is not correct. I was never--

24 Mr. Tirbovich: Okay.

25 Ms. Gersten: --cited for anything.

26 Mr. Tirbovich: Well, it-it's listed on the police report. But, I-I'm just going with--That's 27 the whole reason of-of getting a-a statement from you. Um. You know. So, we can 28

1 complete or do-do as best as we can, as far as completing the investigation. At this point,
2 we have his statement. Um. Yes, we are completely aware of-of what he's-he's being
3 charged, hence, that's why we didn't just stop and say, "Well, you know, he was rear ended,
4 you're at fault for the accident and be done with it." We are still investigating it. But, no, at 5 this point I'm-I'm not offering any kind of-of-of monies. Um. Even if we were to accept
6 liability, as I had mentioned, I've got to have all of the medical records. I need to have all of 7 the medical records and all medical bills to review. Um. You know, I can't just offer up
8 money by going by somebody's, um-um, word. Ah, I-I could get fired for something of that 9 nature. (10 sec. pause) (5:07 min.) Uh hello?
10

11 Ms. Gersten: Yeah. No, I was just waiting, uh, listening to what you were saying.

12 Mr. Tirbovich: Mm-hmm. Ah-ah—

13 Ms. Gersten: So—

14 Mr. Tirbovich: —that's what I have to say.

15 Ms. Gersten: So. So, does Kevin Carter have an umbrella policy or a rider?

16 Mr. Tirbovich: Hm-m-I-I can't release any of that information at this point, other--once 17 again, there's-there's proper wording and a write up from, ah, normally it's an attorney to-
18 to, get that information, so at this point I-I can't release any of that information unless that 19 you file us the proper South Carolina statute, um, rules and regulations to-to give me to 20 send for us to release any of that information.
21

22 Ms. Gersten: Wait. Repeat that? What? What rule? What statute of South Carolina?

23 Mr. Tirbovich: That's all South Carolina. There's-there's-there's-there's-uh-uh-uh 24 proper wording, proper requests via writings, um, citing, uh, the statute, uh, and that's 25 something, once again, you know, your attorney would do that or you'll have to do your 26 research to-to get that information.
27
28

1 Ms. Gersten: So what statute—
2 Mr. Turbovich: We can't just give—
3 Ms. Gersten: —are you quoting?
4 Mr. Tirbovich: Uh. Uh, to be honest with you, I didn't even have the name of it. I-I just 5 know that when we get the proper, uh, information from the attorney, it's already in there.
6 Ms. Gersten: So, you don't know the law?
7 Mr. Tirbovich: Ah. I-I-I-I, you know, I don't know the exact statute. I don't know the 8 number. I don't have that on the top of my head. No.
9 Ms. Gersten: Okay. Well, what's your address so I can write you?
10 Mr. Tirbovich: Okay. Well, once again, like I said, it-it has to have-cite proper language
11 and stuff, which I would, you know, obviously suggest for you to research to get that 12 information.
13 Ms. Gersten: I suggest you—
14 Mr. Turbovich: —Um—
15 Ms. Gersten: —research it as well. You're saying to me that you don't know it.
16 Mr. Tirbovich: Um. No. No. No ma'am. I-I—Yeah. I, like I said, there-there is laws in 17 South Carolina, so—
18 Ms. Gersten: But, what are they?
19 Mr. Tirbovich: —you need to follow up.
20 Ms. Gersten: —What are they? You can't just be-be-be-be—
21 Mr. Tirbovich: —you go ahead and look into that yourself.
22 Ms. Gersten: You as well. You can't just willy-nilly this and-and the law.
23 Mr. Tirbovich: Oh, I sure can. Yes. Yes, ma'am. I can. That's-that's why—24
26
27
28

1 Ms. Gersten: You can willy-nilly it?
2 Mr. Tirbovich: —you know, you have the--Yes, ma'am. As I said, there's--there's 3 proper statute language and laws and you can go right ahead and research that and get that
4 out to me and then I can, ah, at that point, I can get permission from my manager to release
5 any of-of the type of information, if everything is in order. Um. But regardless, we will
6 need to order--Well, like I said. Number one, we're still investigating the accident. We're 7 going to try to get a statement from you, if we can't, then, we can deny the claim. Then your 8 next step would be to file suit and then through, um, uh, discovery we would get that 9 information. Um. But on top of that we would have to have all of your medical records and 10 bills regardless, you know, even if we, whatever limits that we have, if you're looking for 11 those, I need to order up, get all the medical records and bills. Um. Once again, the 12 attorney, Motley and Rice was going to supply all of that, but then, they sent us a letter
13 saying, they're no longer representing you. So, if you have an attorney, I can't even be 14 talking to you. So, I don't even know if—

15 Ms. Gersten: What? What?

16 Mr. Tirbovich: —if you have an attorney at this point.

17 Ms. Gersten: What, is your address?

18 Mr. Tirbovich: Uh, it is 'One', spelled one. Nationwide. Gateway. Three words.
19 Department 5582... and that is in Des Moines, Iowa... 50391.

20 Ms. Gersten: ...And your name?

21 Mr. Tirbovich: My name is Joe Tirbovich. You spell that T, as in Tom, I-R, B as in boy,
22 O-V, as in Victor, I-C-H.

23 Ms. Gersten: ...All right, Mister—

24 Mr. Tirbovich: And let me give—

1 Ms. Gersten: —Tirbovich.

2 Mr. Tirbovich: —you the correct claim number, too. Uh, what you may--Maybe you
3 guys wrote it down wrong. The claim number is [REDACTED] as in [REDACTED], [REDACTED].

5 Ms. Gersten: Okay.

6 Mr. Tirbovich: Now, I have you living in-in [REDACTED]. I've been mailing you, uh, letters
7 and information, uh, pertaining to this accident to [REDACTED], ah,
8 [REDACTED] Is-is, that, uh-uh, a good address to continue to forward
9 you information or is there a different address?
10

11 Ms. Gersten: No, that's fine, I've not received anything.

12 Mr. Tirbovich: You haven't? Really? I've sent about three pieces of mail within the 13 past month to that address [REDACTED]
14

15 Ms. Gersten: Let me ask you something.

16 Mr. Tirbovich: Sure.

17 Ms. Gersten: Do you know what it's like to have your ability to walk removed from 18 you?
19

20 Mr. Tirbovich: I do not.

21 Ms. Gersten: Something to think about and also forward this to your legal department,
22 Title 42 U.S. Section Code 1983.

23 Mr. Tirbovich: Okay. That doesn't mean anything to me. As I said. I said right—

24 Ms. Gersten: Well—

25 Mr. Tirbovich: —now we're doing an investigation of the accident. You're-you're 26 telling me about an injury that I don't have your documentation of. And as I said, I have a 27 police report which puts you at excessive speed. Yes, we have our insured who was 28

1 charged with, ah-ah-ah, DWI. Um. He's claiming that he was traveling down the road and
2 was rear ended. I wasn't there. I didn't see it. So, I-I can't. You know. I'm not saying that
3 you're right, you're wrong. I'm telling you, ah, you know, I didn't see it and we're trying to 4 investigate it. So, I mean if-if you're not going to cooperate, and that's fine. You don't have 5 to give a statement. That-that's fine. There's not much on my end I can do until we've 6 properly investigated it. And then on top of that, as far as, if we accept liability, if we're
7 willing to pay for medicals, I would have to have the medical records and bills to show me
8 exactly what your injuries are. It's not that I don't believe you, but I, uh, have nothing to 9 document. I just can't go by somebody's word. So, I, uh, I guess my-my question is--You're 10 saying this [REDACTED] address is correct. Because when I spoke to this Robert on the phone
11 trying to get a hold of you, he said that you're in [REDACTED]. So, I-I don't know where 12 you're--you are actually at. And I don't even have a phone number to reach you at. I, uh,
13 had a [REDACTED] area code number and I gave that to Robert and he said, "No, that's not a, uh,
14 correct number." Now, I can only, I can't talk to Robert about the claim because he's not 15 representing you. I can only talk to you, um, but the reason why I called Robert was just to 16 pass on my information 'cause I have no contact with you since we got the drop letter from 17 the, uh, the attorneys of [REDACTED] ... So I—

21 Ms. Gersten: I have your address.

22 Mr. Tirbovich: —once again—

23 Ms. Gersten: I will be in touch.

24 Mr. Tirbovich: —I'm sorry. You-you will be in touch?

25 Ms. Gersten: Yes.

26 Mr. Tirbovich: Oh, okay, is there? Will you give me your phone number?

27 Ms. Gersten: Right now, I'm not prepared to give a statement.

1 Mr. Tirbovich: Okay, and you won't give a contact number either for yah?
2 Ms. Gersten: Well, right now—
3 Mr. Tirbovich: I-I'm just, uh, I'm just asking. I mean you don't have to, I'm asking for-
4 for the ease of the claim.
5 Ms. Gersten: —I'm—
6 Mr. Tirbovich: —because I see you called me on a number—
7 Ms. Gersten: —This is my first time. This is my first time calling you and I'm quite 8 surprised that you guys aren't up to speed. I need to, uh, process this, like I said.
9 Mr. Tirbovich: Okay.
10 Ms. Gersten: You know having your ability to walk taken from you-um. I've already 11 beat the odds of, uh, the third leading cause of death of spinal cord injury, which is suicide
12 the first year. So, kudos to me for beating that one. Um. I will be in touch.
13 Mr. Tirbovich: And once again, let me, uh-uh, I don't have documentation, everything
14 you're telling me, I don't, I mean, I'm not saying, oh-I, that's related to the accident, 'cause I
15 don't. I-I have nothing. We have little information on you, eh-eh, if we're, all we have is 16 what's on the police report, pretty much all we have.
17 Ms. Gersten: Well, I'm-I'm just surprised because my insurance company says they've 18 spoken to your--you, guys, and-and, I'm just--I'm just floored because what you're saying to 19 me does not line up with what they've already told me so I have to process this and I—
20 Mr. Tirbovich: Well, they can't—
21 Ms. Gersten: —hope you understand this.
22 Mr. Tirbovich: —give us any personal information on you. They can't give us your 23 address. They-they have told us that they are disputing liability. Um, is what they had told 24

1 us. Yes, they have told us that you have had, um, a fracture to your spine, but once again,
2 I'm going with, by word. I don't have documentation, ah. I don't have anything to
3 document it. I'm not, once again, I'm not saying it's not true, all I'm telling you that I'm only
4 been hearing hearsay is what I have. I don't have medical documentation, so take away,
5 let's say that we accept liability. Okay. Let's just go ahead and say that. I can't pay
6 anything out unless I have all of the medical records and all of the medical bills. Once we 7 have documentation and if we've accept the liability, well, yes, of course, we'll go ahead and 8 compensate you up to our policy holder's limits. But, ah, all I've got is just word. That's all
9 we've got. I don't have any hardcore documentation. That's just what I'm trying to say. So,
10 I mean, I can forward you a medical authorization form so you can forward the--Sign and 11 fill out. That gives us permission to order the medical records, yeah, you know, you could 12 get--Your welcome to do that as well, very time consuming, but you can get, ah-ah, I don't 13 know where you've gone to treat. I have absolutely no idea. I don't know where you've 14 gone for rehab. I have no-nothing of that nature. Your insurance company with privacy
15 issues can't share that type of information with us. So once again, I'll be more than happy
16 to mail you that, the medical authorization form to the address in [REDACTED]. Um. If you
17 choose not to-to sign that--that's up to you. I can't, you know, once again, I can't force you to 18 sign anything. But I can tell you that we can't pay anything if we accept liability unless I
19 have all the medical documentation. I can't go by just word from you or from your 20 insurance company. I have to have the actual medical specials.

21 Ms. Gersten: This covers pain and suffering, too, correct?

22 Mr. Turbovich: Oh, of course, if we accept liability, yes, ma'am. We definitely, um, we 23 com--um--compensate for injury and inconvenience, but once again, that's if we've 24 accepted liability. And as I said, we are still--everybody--I mean everybody is still

1 investigating. I know your insurance companies are still--I know they're doing accident
2 reconstructions—

3 Ms. Gersten: Yeah. But. Yeah. But—

4 Mr. Tirbovich: —and so on. So—

5 Ms. Gersten: Well, you just brought up a good point because to my knowledge both 6 sides have concluded the accident recons and they've both come favorable to me.

8 Mr. Tirbovich: Well, all I-I-uh-uh-I have--that has not been conveyed to us. Uh, so that's 9 one thing I could definitely say is we have not had any com--any communications since,
10 probably since they told us originally that hey they said, "Hey, whoa-whoa-whoa-hey,
11 we're not-we're not accepting liability we're doing, uh-uh, we think that there could be 12 liability on your person." And, there's--they're going to do an investigation. So, that's, you 13 know, what-what, we have, what I've got is I have a statement from my insured. Our 14 insured is trying to pursue after us, his own carrier, he's looking for underinsured motorist
15 coverage from us 'cause he doesn't feel he's at fault. See, from what I gather, he's assuming 16 that your insurance companies don't have enough coverage. So, he is coming after us for 17 underinsured motorist coverage, so, we, that's-that's, another reason we've got, you know,
18 two types of coverage's open. We've got one that's for liability. Then we've got one that's a 19 no fault. So, that's where we are at right now, uh, as far as, he's adamant screaming up and 20 down that he's not at fault for this accident, but regardless if he was on, um, you know,
21 taking medications or not and he is trying to pursue us and threatening to sue us for bad-
22 bad faith if we don't pay for his underinsured motorist. So-so, we are still investigating. So,
23 we, that's, why we have not said, "Yes, he's at fault or he's not at fault for this accident."
24 We've got two claims open up here. We've got one investigating for underinsured motorist 25 coverage 'cause he's saying your at fault and you don't have enough coverage under your 26
27
28

1 own policies to compensate him and then on the other hand I have you who, who's brought
2 up some good points, um, in saying that he's at fault for the accident. But I don't have your
3 statement as to your version of what happened in the accident. His version is he's traveling
4 down the road and you rear end him. See now, so, eh-eh, as I said that's-that's, the only
5 thing that I have and then I have the police report.

7 Ms. Gersten: Well, didn't you get the police dash cam, too?

8 Mr. Tirbovich: We don't have the dash cam. No. It, cuh, well, the dash cam didn't--that 9 dash cam didn't show what happened in--in--did-did not show us what happened in the 10 accident.

12 Ms. Gersten: No, but, it--

13 Mr. Tirbovich: There's a dash, we-we have the dash cam showing that--stating that--
14 where you-you said that you were, ah-ah-eh, were injured. You couldn't feel your legs. Um.
15 And then there's a dash cam, uh, talking about that they had talked to our policy holder. Uh,
16 but, as far as the details of the accident, I'm just going with what-what is written down.
17 The dash cam wouldn't have picked up the actual accident itself happening 'cause they 18 weren't there.

20 Ms. Gersten: I'm just surprised that you-you don't at least have from-from my 21 insurance company, the results of the accident recon because...

23 Mr. Tirbovich: Now that-- and I-I-I'm being honest with you. I don't have anything of 24 that nature from them at this time. No. We have not received-received that from them.

25 Ms. Gersten: Interesting 'cause they've concluded, ah, that I was without liability and 26 told me they spoke to, uh, Kevin Carter's--I don't know, maybe his lawyer if-if not you. I 27 was assuming the insurance, but they said that--
28

1 Mr. Tirbovich: He-he has a couple claims open. He has another adjuster, um, but, ah,
2 that has not been conveyed. I have not heard anything that the--your insurance company
3 has concluded, um, their investigation or that they--they've gotten back their accident
4 reconstruction. That I don't have.

5 Ms. Gersten: And you guys haven't--

6 Mr. Tirbovich: But--

7 Ms. Gersten: --gotten your--

8 Mr. Tirbovich: --but-but, we still don't make an offer--

9 Ms. Gersten: --reconstruction?

10 Mr. Tirbovich: I mean we still don't make a, uh, a decision, ah, I mean two insurance
11 companies can disagree, you know. I-I--going by what they say, you know, we've, um, had 12 an accident reconstruction as well. At this point I'm not at liberty to say what we've gotten 13 back, um, once again, I want to get, I want to try to get a statement from you, to get your 14 version of what happened in the accident. So, once again, they can have--you can have four 15 people do four different types of investigations and you can come up with all different 16 types of results. So, um, even if your insurance company calls me today and says, "Hey,
17 we're denying the claim. This is what we feel." We can come back and say, "Well, you 18 know what? We don't agree with yours--with your decision." So, there's that, eh, it's just as 19 well, it doesn't means--

20 Ms. Gersten: But the-but the--

21 Mr. Tirbovich: --their decision is not going to make our decision--

22 Ms. Gersten: --but--

23 Mr. Tirbovich: --I can tell you that.

24 Ms. Gersten: --But, that's why I'm-I'm a little bit--I don't understand because I was

1 told that you guys already concluded your recon. That's what I was told.

2 Mr. Tirbovich: I don't know who told--Who--whoever told you that. I did not know.
3 Because I know that we have not said, we have not made any, um, final decisions. I mean, I
4 know that we met earlier today and talked about it. So, we have not told anybody that we
5 have made a final conclusion. If, I--that I don't know where you're getting that information
6 from. I-I honestly have no idea. When we were talking to [REDACTED], we thought you're,
7 um, being represented by them. We had indicated to them that the investigation was still
8 being, um, reviewed. And then next thing you know, 'cause we were trying to get a, you
9 know, requesting a statement, uh, from you. We were also requesting to get them your 10 medicals. And then when I called them one day, he says, "We're no longer representing 11 you." And-and, he said, "I'm send you a drop letter." So, and that's where I've been. I've 12 been trying to call you at area code [REDACTED] and I've been mailing letters to try to 13 contact you at [REDACTED] I'm, well,
14 since I had no, um, nothing back from you. I then contacted the Robert and gave him my 15 information to give you to contact me so I can try to get, you know, correct information.
16 Mailing address, correct phone number and also try to get a statement from you as well.

17 Ms. Gersten: ...All right. Well, you've just given me a lot of new information. But, like I
18 said, I have to process 'cause I was on the understanding that you guys had concluded 19 everything.

20 Mr. Tirbovich: Yeah, and-and-and-I-I-I apologize. I'm not sure. Could you tell me who-
21 who told you that-that we had concluded our investigation?

22 Ms. Gersten: The AAA people.

23 Mr. Tirbovich: Oh-oh. Okay. I-I-I have not spoken with AAA. I was actually going to

1 give them a call tomorrow to see if they could give me any information as far as a way to
2 contact you. Um. That was the reason that I was going to give them a call because, once
3 again, I don't know if the address and phone numbers I have are cur—current. And when I
4 had spoke to that Robert gentleman two days ago, he made it sound like that you were
5 living in [REDACTED] So, ha, I-I-I have, you know, ah-ah, I-I--the only addresses--I know that 6 you lived in [REDACTED] I know that you lived in [REDACTED] I-I have nothing as far as
7 [REDACTED]
8 [REDACTED]

9 Ms. Gersten: ...Do you want—

10 Mr. Tirbovich: But, as far as—

11 Ms. Gersten: —the AAA—

12 Mr. Tirbovich: —as far as, I'm sorry—

13 Ms. Gersten: Do you want the AAA lady's number?

14 Mr. Tirbovich: Oh, no! We've got all that information, yeah. I don't need any of that 15 information. But once again, them telling me what their liability decision isn't--isn't going to 16 make my decision. My decision is based on my own personal investigation. As I had 17 mentioned, right now, we've got our insured who's giving us a story that he was rear
18 ended. Um. He's actually even looking for underinsured motorist with under his own
19 policy for us to pay, um, him for his extra injuries that he's claiming that your insurance, uh,
20 eh, you don't have enough coverage for him. Now, once again, I don't know if there's been 21 any communication between your insurance company and him, um, but I can tell you that's 22 what he's looking for with Nationwide. He's trying to say that you're at fault and he's trying 23 to get us to pay, um, the extras under his uninsured, underinsured motorist coverage. So,
24 that's, you know, as I said, so, you've got me sitting here and I'm hearing story from him
25 and then we see that there are some issues with DUI. We hear your insurance company's

1 investigating they feel that he's at fault, um, you know. I-I--We're getting all kinds of 2 stories, you know, we're, eh-eh-eh, police reports, documentation, all kinds of stories and
3 really we don't have the exact details of what really happened at that point.

5 Ms. Gersten: Yeah.

6 Mr. Tirbovich: We do know that, eh-eh, and as I said—

7 Ms. Gersten: —I feel the same way, Joe—

8 Mr. Tirbovich: —I wasn't there. I didn't see it—

9 Ms. Gersten: —and I'm not just trying to give you a hard time. It's just like I said. What 10 you just said, um, a lot of what you said, I-I feel the same way that you--You know, it's been 11 this one story after another. And it's just a shame 'cause I feel like every company is just 12 out to not pay and I don't understand. You-you know. I feel for-for the whole situation 13 'cause it's really—It-it-it shouldn't be this way.
14

15 Mr. Tirbovich: Oh no, it shouldn't. I mean it should be, eh-eh-ah, most cases, you know,
16 there's--there's pretty much clear liability from the get go. And, you know, wuh-uh, I've the-
17 - we--the history of this claim is from, you know, this is, oh, over a year old claim and it's 18 still. And there's been lots of money spent just for the investigation part of this, I mean, it-
19 it's-it's-eh-eh, crazy in my opinion as far as, uh, the cost for us to investigate the-the-the 20 different stories that we're getting. You know, looking at, you know, looking at the police
21 report, then, you know, we hire people to go and, you know, like I said, get information
22 from the dash cam, um, you know, we don't understand why the officer, you know, if-if 23 there is a, eh-eh-eh, thought that our insured wasn't traveling--He was just stopped in the 24 middle of the road. Um. You know. Why is the officer?--Why is there not ah-ah-an-
25 amendment to the police report as far as the details? There's an amendment as far as him
26
28

1 being charged for the DWI. And that's why we--That is why we didn't just say, "Ah, this is
2 an open and shut case. We're going to deny liability. Done." Because of that DWI that's 3 why this claim is still investigated. Normally when somebody is rear ended, you know, it's 4 clear. Either the--Our person's rear ended or if we rear end somebody, you know, if our
5 person's rear ended, we could say, "Hey, we're not at fault for this accident." or, if we rear
6 end somebody, we're like, "Yup, we'll go ahead and pay it. Done deal." You know, ah-um,
7 we even had a situation when it's first with claim first started, your insurance company.
8 I'm not sure which one it was, because I know there's two, one that insures the van and 9 then your personal insurance. They were originally going to pay our insured for the 10 damages and then they retracted everything and that and then our insured got all upset
11 about that saying, you know, he was like, "Originally, it was supposed to be paid for." and 12 then your insurance companies came back and said, "Nope, we're still investigating this."
13 So, we're getting different stories. I-I mean we're learning stuff every day. I mean every 14 time we look at this file we're finding out more and more information.

15
17 Ms. Gersten: Ha-ha. Yeah.

18 Mr. Tirbovich: So--

19 Ms. Gersten: No, Joe, I mean--

20 Mr. Tirbovich: --and you know, and-and--

21 Ms. Gersten: --you've touched on some stuff that I-I feel the same way. This was not a-
22 a mere rear ender. And-and the evidence proves itself. Um. That's why I'm just floored
23 that I thought everybody was up to speed already. It's been over a year and-and what you 24 just said that I'm-I'm very much in agreement with a lot that-that this is ridiculous. Um.

25 Mr. Tirbovich: Mm-hmm.

26 Ms. Gersten: But a lot of it has to do with, um, right where we started. South

1 Carolina trumps every insurance. And yes it becomes complicated when you have one
2 insurance for, um, for the, uh, vehicle and then, you know, one for the driver. And nobody 3 wants to pay.

5 Mr. Tirbovich: And then on top of that, with-with-with-eh-eh, Mr. Carter, he has two 6 claims open up for this particular accident. He has one claim that was open up for--
7 Originally it was opened up for underinsured motorist coverage. Because originally when,
8 you know, back when this first happened, it was, oh, he was rear ended and he-he 9 sustained injuries. And he's looking for-- And the insurance companies for-for, you, um,
10 possibly don't have enough, um, money under the limits to pay for all, for everything with 11 claims worth for pain and suffering, medicals bills, so we're going to have to dip into--
12 'Cause that was South Carolina. Dip into the uninsured motorist portion of his claim. Then 13 we're learning, well, wait a second, you're insurance company said that-that something
14 seems fishy. We didn't find out that he was under the influence, um, and then we go ahead
15 and find out the accident may not have happened the way that he had explained it. But 16 we're like wait a second we have the police report, you know, then we're finding out well
17 the police report might not be so accurate, um-eh, as I said, and then, so then we go ahead
18 and open up a second claim looking into liability in a sense of paying for you. Well in the 19 mean time, he's screaming at us saying, "Why are you doing that? You know I'm not at fault
20 for this accident." You know. So, I mean, it's like we have people coming from both ends.
21 You know. And I understand, rightfully so, you should be irritated and upset. It's not that 22 we're doing this on purpose as, eh-eh, if it were a clear cut case then we could see for 23 sure--yeah, we're definitely at fault, our-our, excuse me, our insured is definitely at fault
24 for this accident, go ahead, get it, let's get this taken care of, but it's not that simple. We-we,
25
26
27
28

1 have a police report that's saying one thing. We have our insured who's saying something.
2 But then we're finding out that he was under the influence. You know, then we've got
3 other insurance companies saying, "Oh, wait a second we're finding out this information
4 and it looks like that he could have been, you know, stopped on the road or going a very,
5 very, very, slow rate of speed. You know, but we, but-but-but, when it comes down to, we
6 don't have proof. He's not admitting to us saying, "Yeah, yeah, I was stopped on the road."
7 You know, I mean he didn't even admit to us about the uh, the eh-eh-eh, being under the 8 influence until we found out later, you know, so--

10 Ms. Gersten: Mm-hmm.

11 Mr. Tirbovich: —We're getting all kinds of-of-of-of different information. That's 12 coming in. That's coming into us. And the same thing with your insurance companies 13 'cause, you know, you and him were the only ones that were there at the time of the 14 incident. We weren't. And, you know, outside of talking with you, 'cause we don't have 15 your-your statement, but all the other information. We have a lot of conflicting information
16 out there, you know, that's saying one thing. Then we're finding out something--finding out
17 something else. We're like, well, this might not be true, I mean, you know what I mean 18 that—

21 Ms. Gersten: Right.

22 Mr. Tirbovich: —those are the issues that we have with this. It's not--It's not just a-a
23 shut and closed case. And as I said, if we felt that you, you know, were at fault 100%, ah, we 24 wouldn't still be investigating this. We wouldn't be spending the money that we have been 25 to investigating. We would have been just like, "Hey, he was rear ended case closed." But 26 we're-we're not, you know, and-and, then, you know, on top of that we're, you know, 27 we're under the impression, we've been communicating with the attorney's office of 28

1 Motley and Rice and then they come and tell us, "You know what? She--We no longer
2 represent her." So, that just kind of throws a wrench into everything. You know, I'm like,
3 okay, so now we need to communicate directly with you, uh, but we didn't know if you, do
4 you have another attorney? You know, are you going to be retaining an attorney? Because
5 if you do, legally I can't be talking to you. So, there's a lot of information out here and, once
6 again, as far as addresses, you know, your friend Robert told me, well, so, I was under the 7 impression, you're living in California. So, you know. But I have a [REDACTED] address. So, I
8 have a lot of information, a lot of conflicting information that I'm looking at that when we 9 met today there's a lot of unanswered questions, you know, a lot of them are, you know,
10 where's Heidi? Where is she at? You know, to try and figure out how to communicate with 11 her, you know, I'm like, well now all I've got is a phone number for Robert and that's it, um,
12 and as I've said, I was going to contact your insurance companies, once again, they wouldn't 13 give me any of your personal information but I can always say, "Hey, here's my information
14 pass it on to Heidi." That was going to be my next step. So, but I definitely understand your 15 frustration. Don't get me wrong. And I'm frustrated just as much as you because I'm 16 getting conflicting statements all across the board with-with everything.

20 Ms. Gersten: Well, you communicating with me opens up a lot of, um, understanding 21 on my end 'cause really I, too, would like to just resolve this. I mean, if anything, I'm very 22 sad, um, at the loss of being able to walk.

24 Mr. Tirbovich: Ah, I understand, eh-eh, trust me, no, I-I-I-I-I-I get what you're saying 25 I-I-I am not denying that whatsoever. Um, you know, what it-it-it's-it's really, you know.
26 The-the biggest question that-that we have as far as investigation purposes is, you know,
27 what-what-what is the true story here? What-what is really what happened here? You
28

1 know. Why are there so many conflicts? Why is there a police report that says this? And
2 then our insured who is saying this? Then, we're finding out he was under the influence
3 and then we have insurance companies saying, "Well, you know, we believe this is 4 something else that happened." So, we have a lot of situ-stories and situations going.
5 Obviously. I'll be honest with you. I've been doing this for fifteen years and this is, just for-
6 just for investigation, I mean, to try to determine liability, this is one of--This is a very 7 unique situation that I've never--I've never run into something like this. You know. I've
8 had your green light, red light. You know. Both people are claiming they had a green light
9 at an intersection. I've had a side swipe. You know. Two--one person's like, oh this person
10 came into my lane, and the other person's going, oh-no-no-no, this person came into my 11 lane. You know. But as far as a claim like this where it's a, you know, it's a rear end
12 accident. If you just look at it just right at that point, you would be like, well the person
13 driving who rear ended is at fault, but, no, it's--That's not the case. There's many other
14 factors with this. So, you know. In my fifteen years, I'd say probably this is the most unique
15 situation that--claim I've dealt with as far as just-just investigation as far as liability. Then 16 the next-the next layer after that is after we've accepted, you know, after we've completed
17 our investigation, and if we accept liability, then the next thing is-is, ok, in order for us to 18 pay the medical bills and compensate you for your injury and inconvenience. We need to 19 get medical records and medical bills. All, you know, documentation and, you know, to add
20 to that we have, we believe there was an attorney. Attorneys are always, you know, really 21 good at getting-getting us that information. They-they are even able to get it quicker than 22 insurance companies are. Um. And then we find out, ok, you don't have an attorney any 23 more, so we're like, well, now even after we complete our investigation, if we accept
24 liability, then it's going to be on us to now have to--for us to gather all of that information.

1 Um. And that can be tedious, you know, calling all the providers you've gone to see and
2 mailing the request to get your medical documentation and you-you'd have to sign a
3 permission form for us to get it. As I said, you can get that information yourself, but I can 4 tell you, it's a--it's a very timely process, so, um-eh-eh, that was another wrench that was 5 thrown in as once we got the letter from, eh-eh, the attorney. And I'm not saying having an
6 attorney is gonna make us pay more or less, in fact an attorney keeps a third of whatever
7 your settlement is. Um. But we were at least under the impression, well, Motley Rice has 8 been, you know, communicating with you. They know where you're at. They're be 9 gathering all of that information for us. Um. So, if we do accept liability we'll just be 10 waiting for what's called their 'demand package', and review everything. They'll have all of 11 the documents already done for us. But obviously then we won't be getting any other 12 communications or correspondence from them. So, there's the first layer of just trying to 13 determine if-if our--if we are going to accept liability. Um. And yeah, we're definitely are 14 taking into consideration the, uh, alcohol, drugs and, uh, what was--he had said on the dash
15 cam, as far as, he really didn't remember what-what-what happened, so-so, all of that, yeah,
16 plays a huge factor in it, um, getting your statement would be, uh-uh, helpful. Then I could 17 take that up to the powers to be and say, "Hey, well, you know, I've done all--everything I
18 possibly can, as far as investigation." And then get their final, you know, say on liability.
19 Um. In which, I-I-I feel it would, eh, more in your favor is my opinion. But I don't--I'm 20 saying off the record, um, but then after that if I, once again, if we do accept liability, well, I
21 need to get all of the medical documentation. I-I just can't go by word, be-be, word from 22 your insurance company. Well, these are the injuries she's sustained. And-and you say
23 these are the injuries I've sustained. This is where I treated. It's not that we don't believe

1 you. It's we've got to have the documentation to support it. So, when we do pay out our
2 insured's, um-eh-eh-eh, coverages we have to be able to justify it. We're a business. For 3 every dollar amount we spend we have to be able to justify it. If we have the medical 4 documentation--if it's a limits case, we have the medical documentation to support it, then
5 we can pay it and there's not going to be any repercussions. Nobody's going to come down
6 to me and be like, "Joe, what in the world did you pay this for? You didn't have our 7 authorization. You didn't have the proper documentation to support. All you're going by is 8 somebody's word." So, that's-that's where I'm at this point. So, it definitely, you know, do
9 what you need to do. I've-I've given you a lot of information. Um, this claim is not going
10 anywhere. Um. Now, the statute of limitations in South Carolina is three years. Um. So, you 11 have until sixteen-sixteen, seventeen, so, let's see, 'til March of 2018. Um. March 19 until,
12 you know, the claims could legally be closed, without stealing or less suits filed at that
13 point. Um. But this claim isn't going anywhere anytime soon. So, I mean, definitely talk it
14 over. Think. You know. As I said, I-I-I getting a statement from you, I mean, I-I--The 15 questions that I'm going to be asking--I'm not going to be asking personal questions as far 16 as, you know, eh-ah. I can't even think. You know. I'm going to be asking, you know, what 17 happened, you know, during the accident. Again, I'm detailed. Type of questions relating to 18 the-the accident. And then yes, I do ask questions about your injury to kind of give me a 19 better idea of the injuries that you did sustain and medical places you went to. And then 20 the next step after that is I present it to my-my superiors. We go ahead and make our final 21 liability decision. And then, if we accept liability, at that point, I need to get the medical 22 records. Either it could be 'A', you can gather everything, or-or we can gather everything.
23 That's, you know, wa-wa-whatever is, you know, trust me, us doing it's gonna be--it's going
24 to be time consuming. It'll be time consuming for you, but we would be doing it. But, you

1 know, it-it is a time consuming thing depending on how many facilities you've gone to see
2 in relation to your injuries. So, those are the two-two main things. First, we want to clear
3 liability and I'm requesting a statement from you. If I get a statement from you I can
4 present that to my superiors, say, "This is what I've got. Can we make a final liability
5 decision?" If they accept, if they say, "Yeah, we'll accept liability," then, next step is I need to 6 go ahead and get all the medical records. Um. And then we can evaluate the claim. And 7 then, you know, make an offer. Once again, if it's a limits case, we can offer our limits, but 8 I-I need to have medical documentations to support that first. So, I hope that shed some 9 light, you know, and-and understand that I'm not, you know, just making this up or 10 anything of that nature trying to give you a hard time. That is where I'm at in-in-in this
11 situation. I have--I have conflicting statements. I have conflicting reports. I've got all kinds
12 of things that are saying one-one thing and then I'm getting something, you know, that says
13 something completely different. And then as far as injuries I just have word. Your 14 insurance company said this is the type of injuries you sustained. I have you saying this is 15 what I've sustained but I don't have any medical documentation. And your insurance
16 company can't give any-anything to us. I mean, because you could sue them for, uh, saying, 17 "What are your giving the insurance company all my personal information without my-
18 without my permission?" Uh, you know, then you could sue them. So, same thing with us.
19 We don't give out people's injuries or anything of that nature, um, unless we have some 20 kind of written consent because we could get sued for sharing information.

21 Ms. Gersten: Well, it's strange, though, because I was--I-I was under the impression
22 that, um, Mr. Carter sustained some sort of head or-or brain injury.

23 Mr. Tirbovich: ...Uh, well, and-and-and, as I said, I, you know, I can't comment on his 24 injuries. That's like, as I said, because I don't have his permission. So, I-I, trust me, I, that's-

1 that's a personal thing. You know. That's the same thing, as you know, I can't give the--say
2 the type of injuries that-that-that he-he sustained because he could come back and be like,
3 "What? I didn't tell you-you to--could tell any body this." So, that's, you know, once again,
4 that's all privacy—

6 Ms. Gersten: But, you just—

7 Mr. Tirbovich: —privacy privileges.

8 Ms. Gersten: —you said earlier that you had--You-you were told that I sustained some-9 some fracture injury. So, this is where—10

11 Mr. Tirbovich: Yeah, yeah, —

12 Ms. Gersten: —I get confused.

13 Mr. Tirbovich: —that was from, yeah, your insurance company just had given us that.
14 But is it true? This thing, if your insurance company called me and said, "Hey, can you tell 15 me what type of injuries your-your-your person sustained?" I would tell them I'm not 16 allowed. Nationwide company policy, I can't say anything. Um.
17

18 Ms. Gersten: So, you're saying they violated that to you?

19 Mr. Tirbovich: ...I'm sorry?

20 Ms. Gersten: They-they told you my injury. So, isn't that a violation? I'm trying to 21 understand.
22

23 Mr. Tirbovich: Well, hey, I-I-I, eh-eh, that's something you could take up with them. I
24 mean, not to us, because, well, they--We didn't give out any information. It's what we got 25 from them, so.
26

27 Ms. Gersten: It's just crazy to me 'cause this should all be transparent. I don't 28 understand why it's-it's so under the cover, you know, everyone hides behind these

1 supposed laws. And really I think both parties, not that I can totally speak for Mr. Carter,
2 but I'm sure he would like to be resolved as I would like to be resolved. And I hope you
3 understand that this is my first communication with you, so, I'm absorbing all of this
4 because of-of how everyone has been treating me. I, too, feel like you. You're almost not
5 able to-to just speak. And that's not the way it should be because really, you know, it's 6 complicated.

8 Mr. Tirbovich: Yeah. We're in a sue happy, yeah, we're in a sue happy world at this
9 time that people will find any excuse to get money. You know. And-and-and releasing
10 personal information that's the hot topic now. You know when you go to the doctor and 11 there's, all those HIPAA forms and privacy and everything else of that nature. So, yeah, eh-
12 eh-eh-eh, it can impede an investigations. It can hurt other people's—Um. But on the other 13 hand, it is what it is and it's so easy to get sued now. That's the scary part.

14
15 Ms. Gersten: ...Yeah.

16 Mr. Tirbovich: You know, I, uh, I-I-I, definitely don't want to, you know, lose my job,
17 you know, uh, and-and, those type of, uh, you know, eh, because I gave out some 18 information. You know. As I said, if your insurance company called me today to tell me the 19 type of injuries you had your person's sustained, I would say, "I can't tell you because of 20 privacy issues, you know." Um. You know. So anyway and this information was in there 21 before I-I inherited this file. Uh, so, you know, as far as what-what I see is from a previous 22 adjuster who's not with us.

23
24 Ms. Gersten: So, is that Kristy?

25
26 Mr. Tirbovich: ...No. She's handling, yeah, she's handling the underinsured motorist 27 claim.

28 Ms. Gersten: Oh.

1 Mr. Tirbovich: Um. I told you there's two claims open. Um. So that's the, yeah, this-
2 this claim was opened up, uh, later on, because there was that--We had found out that there
3 was, uh, some issues as far as, um, the alcohol and-and-and, so on, so.

5 Ms. Gersten: Yeah, you had said that that report was amended. I don't understand
6 'cause I wasn't under the impression it was ever amended, that it was just one version. I
7 was told that he couldn't amend it.

8 Mr. Tirbovich: Well, I-I--it's--it's more of the--it's more of--I guess what was saying--the 9 way I was interpreting the report is for or maybe it's a continuation as far as they just 10 wrote more. Ah-ah, explicitly about the, uh-uh-eh-eh, charges, DUI charges and him being 11 under the influence and there's the, eh-ah, we only got a reports as far as the--Um, after 12 the hospital, and his toxicology report. So, once again, I-I-I can't share that information but 13 I'm saying, you know, those are things that, you know, came about later on.

14
15 Ms. Gersten: Yeah.

16
17 Mr. Tirbovich: So, what, why, you know, what, eh, once again, go ahead and, you
18 know, take in everything you want. I will go ahead and, you know, note the file that I spoke 19 with you. You have a pretty good idea as far as, um, you know, what we--what-what, I'm 20 going to be, you know, what-what I'm looking for, um, you know, ah. Um. You know. Once
21 again, I can't force you to-to-to give me a statement. Um. But as I said, it's not a statement
22 in the sense of, you know, getting into your personal life. This is what happened in the 23 accident is-is all that is. Um. And like I said, that's all up to you, so you know, and-and I--
24 that's only if you feel free to get back to with me but obviously take everything in and then-
25 - and I am, you know, and-and, you know, definitely get back with me.

26
27 Ms. Gersten: I will. Thank you very much and um--
28

1 Mr. Tirbovich: Oh—

2 Ms. Gersten: —I'm just processing all of this 'cause it's—

3 Mr. Tirbovich: —I-I, ah, don't—

4 Ms. Gersten: —the first time communicating.

5 Mr. Tirbovich: —expect you to make a decision at this point. I bet I've given you a lot
6 of information, so, and I, once again, I wanted to explain to you why it's not a cut and dry
7 situation. You know. I mean, let's-- Once again. We've got two claims open for this one, uh-
8 uh, a-a no-fault kind of based exactly open. And then one is this one. You know. We've got 9 him, who's saying he's not at fault. You know. It-it-its, so, it's not as cut and dry as you 10 would hope it to be.
11

12 Ms. Gersten: Right.

13 Mr. Tirbovich: You know I don't like it any kind.

14 Ms. Gersten: Do you-you have pictures of both of the vehicles? Correct?

15 Mr. Tirbovich: Oh, yeah-yeah, yup, oh, yeah, we've got all of that.

16 Ms. Gersten: 'Cause the evidence speaks for itself if you, um, look at the vehicles.

17 Mr. Tirbovich: Mm-hmm, yeah, like I said, those are huge things that the reason why
18 we didn't ignore opening up, ah-ah, a liability claim. Those are--Those are all factors as to 19 why we didn't just say, "Eh, our person's not at fault and leave it at that." You know.
20

21 Ms. Gersten: I-I would like to interject this, too. That police report is very misleading
22 because it's one rectangle with an arrow above it and another rectangle and that just leaves
23 one image in one's mind where it would seem to be something that it isn't. You know. I, uh,
24 the report is-is-is really, I can't even find the word for it-it-it's—
25

26 Mr. Tirbovich: Inaccurate.

27 Ms. Gersten: —ha-ha-ha-ha-ha-ha-ha. That would be a good word. Yes, inaccurate.
28

1 You know.

2 Mr. Tirbovich: Yeah, and-and, I do--We--I know how you feel. I get that a lot. Um, as
3 far as, eh, something, you know, as inaccurate and-and-and so on. So, you know, I-I-I-I-I-I
4 see exactly what your saying. Um. You know. But-but, what, ooh, that's, so, you know, so
5 by me, just, you know, by saying that, realizing that, I think that you would understand that,
6 you know, it's hard to, but understand that's why this--Everybody is spending all kinds of 7 money in-in investigating this 'cause it's not a-a-a-- it's not a clear cut. It's not what it is 8 appears to be. What the report is, you know, normally, they're not that inaccurate. They're 9 pretty right on. But, you know, as you're saying in we-we, those are the report's inaccurate,
10 so that's why it hasn't been just so cut and dry and we've had to do branch out and really do
11 a thorough investigation as opposed to just, oh, this person is rear ended we're going to 12 deny it and be done.

15 Ms. Gersten: Right. Have you spoken to the Trooper?

16 Mr. Tirbovich: Uh, the--yeah-yeah-yeah. We have spoken with the trooper. Um. As 17 far as, you know, it--he has given us his opinions. Um, but, you know, obviously defending 18 his-his write up, you know. I mean, all troopers don't want to be wrong. You know. That's 19 a whole other thing. That's-that's the problem, you know, a lot of them don't want to admit 20 that what they wrote is wrong or whatever, so.

23 Ms. Gersten: Yeah, being held accountable for one's--

24 Mr. Tirbovich: Mm-hmm.

25 Ms. Gersten: --own mistake, yeah.

26 Mr. Tirbovich: Mm-hmm, exactly.

27 Ms. Gersten: Yeah.

1 Mr. Tirbovich: That's why we had to branch out and do other means of investigation as
2 opposed to, yeah, sometimes me talking to a trooper can make me make my decision, uh,
3 but in this case it's not that simple. It's very complicated.

4 Ms. Gersten: Yeah.

5 Mr. Tirbovich: So, you know, obviously, think about it. I'm in Monday through Friday,
6 eight--Normally I'm here to four thirty, which I'm getting ready to leave right now, but, um,
7 you know, I-I-I will, you know, put everything, what, you know, our communication and,
8 ah, you know, I definitely will give your insurance a call tomorrow. Um. You know. As you
9 said, you told me that they--you said that they definitely are putting our insured's at fault.
10 That-that doesn't tell us for sure, you know, but we don't make a decision on that for sure,
11 but it's something that I-I-I'll definitely look into and-and-and, see what they have to say,
12 okay.
13

14 Ms. Gersten: All right. Thank you.

15 Mr. Tirbovich: All right. Thank you. Ba-bye.

16 Ms. Gersten: Bye.

1. The amount that would have been payable for sales tax on the purchase of a vehicle with a market value equal to the amount of the settlement
2. The actual amount of sales tax paid for the replacement vehicle.

If you do not send proof of payment of sales tax on a replacement vehicle with 33 days after you receive our settlement check, we are no longer required to reimburse you for the tax paid.

Below is the applicable policy language related to the Collision coverage under this policy:

PART D - COVERAGE FOR DAMAGE TO

Insuring Agreement

A. We will pay for sudden, direct and accidental loss to your covered auto or any non-owned auto, including its permanently installed equipment, minus any applicable deductible shown on the Declarations Page. We will pay for loss to your covered auto caused by:

2. Collision only if the Declarations Page indicates that Collision Coverage is provided for that auto.

B. "Collision" means the upset of your covered auto or a non-owned auto or their impact with another vehicle or object.

* * *

Limit of Liability

A. Our limit of liability will be the lesser of the:

1. Actual cash value of the stolen or damaged property; or
2. Amount necessary to repair or replace the property using parts furnished by the vehicle's manufacturers or parts from other manufacturers.

This policy does not cover a claim for diminished market value of your covered auto or nonowned auto.

B. An adjustment for depreciation and physical condition will be made in determining the actual cash value of your covered auto or non-owned auto at the time of loss.

Punitive or Exemplary Damages Exclusion

Regardless of any other provision of this policy, we do not provide coverage for punitive or exemplary damages, or any legal fees or costs associated with them.

If we are unable to come to an agreement regarding the actual cash value of your 1998 Chevy at the time of loss to resolve the collision claim, please refer to the below policy language:

Appraisal

A. If we and you do not agree on the actual value of the vehicle, either party may demand an appraisal of the loss. In this event, each party will select a competent appraiser. The two appraisers will select an umpire. The appraisers will state separately the actual cash value and the amount of the loss. If they fail to agree, they will submit their differences to the umpire. A decision agreed to by any two will be binding. Each party will:

1. Pay its chosen appraiser; and
 2. Bear the expenses of the appraisal and umpire equally.
- B. We do not waive any of our rights under this policy by agreeing to an appraisal.

Our Right To Recover Payment

A. If we make a payment under this policy and the person to or for whom payment was made has a right to recover damages from another, we shall be subrogated to that right. That person shall do:

1. Whatever is necessary to enable us to exercise our rights; and
2. Nothing after loss to prejudice them.

B. If we make a payment under this policy and the person to or for whom payment is made recovers damages from another, that person shall:

1. Hold in trust for us the proceeds of the recovery; and
2. Reimburse us to the extent of our payment regardless of the total amount of damages sustained by the insured irrespective of whether any such settlement or judgment may or may not provide reimbursement for all injuries, illnesses, or other damages (including, without limitation, pain and suffering, consequential, punitive, exemplary or other damages, whether alleged, proven in a court of law otherwise substantiated).

C. We are not responsible for any fees, including, but not limited to, attorney fees or court costs incurred to recover our subrogated interest unless we have agreed in writing, in advance, to be responsible for those fees.

Below are the terms specifically defined under the Definitions section of the policy.

DEFINITIONS

A. The terms defined below appear in bold type throughout this policy. You and Your refer to the named insured, which includes the individual named on the Declarations Page or that person's spouse if a resident of the same household.

1. "Your covered auto" means:

1. Any vehicle shown on the Declarations Page.
2. Any of the following types of vehicles, acquired during the policy period, on the date you become the owner:
 - a. a private passenger auto; or
 - b. a pickup or van for which no other insurance policy provides coverage and that has a Gross Vehicle Weight of less than 12,000 lbs. according to the manufacturer's specifications.

Based on the above policy language and Ohio law, Trustgard is unable to consider a claim or extend any offers of settlement for the personal property damage under this policy. If you have any additional information you would like us to consider please provide it, in writing, to my attention for additional review.

===== Valuation Methodology =====

The Commercial & Recreational Vehicle Division of CCC Information Services, Inc., prepared this CCC Valuescope Market Report for Grange Insurance Companies. CCC has been preparing market value reports for the insurance industry since 1981.

Valuations performed by CCC's Commercial & Recreational Vehicle Division require individual market searches to identify and locate supporting market information. Due to the unique nature of the loan units valued in the Commercial & Recreational Vehicle Division, a valuation expert handles each request individually.

When Grange Insurance Companies requests a valuation report, they provide CCC with the configuration of the loan unit, including model, year or mileage, optional features, any accessories, the condition of the loan unit as well as Valuation Request: (Continued) 1998 CHEV G10/EXP 4X2 INCOMPLETE

the VIN/VIN/PIN (Vehicle/Unit/Product Identification Number) of the loss unit. That identification number is analyzed to verify basic information provided on the loss unit.

Orange Insurance Companies also provides CCC with the loss unit owner's ZIP code, which identifies the local market used to determine the market value.

The local market area, however, may vary by vehicle or unit type. Where the vehicle or loss unit is readily available in a given location, the search area can be within the same city or state as the loss unit. If the loss unit or vehicle is very specialized, the search may expand to locate comparable support to document the loss unit's value.

Significant differences between the loss unit and any comparable units are documented and are used to define a verifiable market value for the loss unit. If no comparable units are located, the valuation expert will conduct a local market survey to gather the expert opinion of knowledgeable retailers in order to determine the local market value.

----- Comparable Units -----
The Comparable Units are compared to the Loss Unit to determine the Adjusted Value. The Adjusted Value represents the price of the Comparable Unit configured to exactly match the Loss Unit.

FEBRUARY 22, 2018 PHONE COMMUNICATION BETWEEN HEIDI GERSTEN AND JOSEPH TIRBOVICH OF NATIONWIDE MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY

-1-

1 Heidi Gersten: Good afternoon. Heidi Gersten speaking on a recorded line. How may I help you?

2 Joseph Tirbovich: Hello, Heidi. This is Joe Tirbovich with Nationwide Insurance. I need to also let you know that this call may be monitored and recorded for quality purposes. How are you today?

3 Heidi Gersten: Oh, I'm hanging in there. How are you doing?

4 Joseph Tirbovich: Doing very good. Just giving you a call. Uh, I received, uh, another demand letter from you on 5 regards to the property damage claim and wanted to let you know that our offer stands at $20,000.00 and will not move at that.

6 Heidi Gersten: I apologize, but, uh, are you offering $20,000.00 on my mother's claim?

7 Joseph Tirbovich: Your mother has made a claim with, um, Grange for her vehicle. Um, the $20,000.00 is for your
8 property damage. We are not honoring anything for your mother. Zero for your mother. This is strictly for your injury, 9 excuse me, your property damage punitive claim that you had made with us. So, I'm just reiterating the $20,000.00 for you as far as with your mother, zero.

10 Heidi Gersten: Okay. So, are you putting in writing a letter to her?

11 Joseph Tirbovich: Definitely, and a letter to you as well. But, I just still wanted to call.

12 Heidi Gersten: Okay. What is your basis for denying my mother's claim, Ivanka Ayoub?

13 Joseph Tirbovich: Um, yeah, your mom doesn't have a claim with us.

14 Heidi Gersten: So, You prefer to go to litigation?

15 Joseph Tirbovich: Oh, we've been waiting for you. (laughter) Actually, I thought you were going to—We've even—
16 We've been waiting. Um, 'Cause you've been saying for months you were. So, now we've already let our insured know. We have our litigation department on-on stand by. I'm waiting for that to be honest with you 'cause I know the statute's running.

17 Heidi Gersten: All right. Anything else you'd like to say?

18 Joseph Tirbovich: Oh, No ma'am. Nope. Just letting you know that for your property damage punitive claim we are 19 offering $20,000.00, which was the same offer I made back, I think, in August or September. As far as with your mom trying to make any loss of consortium claim, we're not honoring that.

20 Heidi Gersten: Okay. And what is—

21 Joseph Tirbovich: And so you know—

22 Heidi Gersten: —your basis—

23 Joseph Tirbovich: —just for the—

24 Heidi Gersten: —basis of, uh, your-your, uh, with the—with my claim which is separate? What-what is the basis—

25 Joseph Tirbovich: —Yah—

26 Heidi Gersten: —of the $20,000.00 when punitive damages are—

27 Joseph Tirbovich: Yeah. Well, unfortunately, with what, what you've provided us, was very vague in-information is,
28 what you provided, basically provided us with multiple photos of things that were taken prior to the accident. I was able

FEBRUARY 22, 2018 PHONE COMMUNICATION BETWEEN HEIDI GERSTEN AND JOSEPH TIRBOVICH OF
NATIONWIDE MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY

1 to identify around $5000.00. Um, and then we added, um, additional money for punitive damages. So, as I said we
2 needed to actually see, physically see all the property damages; yeah, everything that you said that was in this van. All
3 you gave me were pictures, you gave me a video, but I was not able to identify probably 90% of the things that, that you
4 were, um, asking for, so that is our basis.

5 Heidi Gersten: Really so you didn't receive—

6 Joseph Tirbovich: I mean—

7 Heidi Gersten: Did you? Did you receive a 332-page book with pictures and receipts with indexes?

8 Joseph Tirbovich: Mm. But there's nothing to show that those items were in the your vehicle at the time of loss. And we 9 had this conversation multiple times before that I needed to see those items that were damaged in the vehicle right after 10 the accident.

11 Heidi Gersten: First of all, I—

12 Joseph Tirbovich: I told you that.

13 Heidi Gersten: —I disagree with what you're saying because, um, in our previously recorded conversation you did not 14 agree to that. You understood that I was in the hospital for—

15 Joseph Tirbovich: No ma'am, I didn't. We never had that—Please let me hear this conversation. I-I would like to listen
16 to this conversation because I know I have it documented in my files I told you exactly what we needed. So if you could,
17 could I hear this conversation?

18 Heidi Gersten: Absolutely. Absolutely.

19 Joseph Tirbovich: Could I hear it now? Do you have that on you?

20 Heidi Gersten: I apologize, you asked for litigation and you've not—This is the first time you're telling me what you're 21 saying to me. This is brand new.

22 Joseph Tirbovich: Yeah. And—and—and I had sent many letters when we made the offer for you to call me and you
23 refused to call me—

24 Heidi Gersten: I apologize. I'm paralyzed.

25 Joseph Tirbovich: —back.

26 Heidi Gersten: I apologize. May I speak?

27 Joseph Tirbovich: So, we've talked.

28 Heidi Gersten: I'm paralyzed. Sir, may I speak?

Joseph Tirbovich: We talked on the phone—

Heidi Gersten: May I speak?

Joseph Tirbovich: —many times before. No ma'am. We talked on the phone for many times prior to that—as making the offer and then you stopped talking to me. You would not. You wanted everything in writing.

Heidi Gersten: And why would you not put this in writing?

FEBRUARY 22, 2018 PHONE COMMUNICATION BETWEEN HEIDI GERSTEN AND JOSEPH TIRBOVICH OF
NATIONWIDE MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY

1 Joseph Tirbovich: We don't put things in writing because attorneys. I've learned. That was something when I was a
2 rooky adjuster. When I put certain things in writing, attorneys can tear things apart. So, everything is verbal.

3 Heidi Gersten: Okay. Well, you verbally agreed to compensate me and you failed.

4 Joseph Tirbovich: $20,000.00. Yes ma'am. I verbally agreed to compensate you with $20,000.00 and I am not
5 compensating your mother for anything.

6 Heidi Gersten: All right.

7 Joseph Tirbovich: You have a very nice day ma'am and I'll just wait for the suit papers.

8 Heidi Gersten: Absolutely.

9 Joseph Tirbovich: Thank you very much. Mm. Ba-bye.

ADMISSIONS

Instructions

Pursuant to Rule 36 REQUEST FOR ADMISSIONS

(a) Request for Admission. A party may serve upon any other party a written request for the admission, for purposes of the pending action only, of the truth of any matters within the scope of Rule 26(b) set forth in the request that relate to statements or opinions of fact or of the application of law to fact, including the genuineness of any documents described in the request. Copies of documents shall be served with the request unless they have been or are otherwise furnished or made available for inspection and copying. The request may, without leave of court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon that party.

Each matter of which an admission is requested shall be separately set forth. The matter is admitted unless, within 30 days after service of the request, or within such shorter or longer time as the court may allow or as stipulated in writing by the parties pursuant to Rules 29 and 6(b), the party to whom the request is directed serves upon the party requesting the admission a written answer or objection addressed to the matter, signed by the party or by his attorney, but, unless the court shortens the time, a defendant shall not be required to serve answers or objections before the expiration of 45 days after service of the summons and complaint upon him. If objection is made, the reasons therefor shall be stated. The answer shall specifically deny the matter or set forth in detail the reasons why the answering party cannot truthfully admit or deny the matter. A denial shall fairly meet the substance of the requested admission, and when good faith requires that a party qualify his answer or deny only a part of the matter of which an admission is requested, he shall specify so much of it as is true and qualify or deny the remainder. An answering party may not give lack of information or knowledge as a reason for failure to admit or deny unless he states that he has made reasonable inquiry and that the information known or readily obtainable by him is insufficient to enable him to admit or deny. A party who considers that a matter of which an admission has been requested presents a genuine issue for trial may not, on that ground alone, object to the request; he may, subject to the provisions of Rule 37(c), deny the matter or set forth reasons why he cannot admit or deny it.

The party who has requested the admissions may move to determine the sufficiency of the answers or objections. Unless the court determines that an objection is justified, it shall order that an answer be served. If the court determines that an answer does not comply with the requirements of this rule, it may order either that the matter is admitted or that an amended answer be served. The court may, in lieu of these orders, determine that final disposition of the request be made at a pre-trial conference or at a designated time prior to trial. The provisions of Rule 37(a)(4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

Note to 2001 Amendment:

The second sentence of the second paragraph of Rule 36(a) is amended to reflect the change in Rule 29 allowing the parties, under certain circumstances, to stipulate to extensions.

(b) Effect of Admission. Any matter admitted under this rule is conclusively established unless the court on motion permits withdrawal or amendment of the admission. Subject to the provisions of Rule 16 governing amendment of a pre-trial order, the court may permit withdrawal or amendment when the presentation of the merits of the action will be subserved thereby and the party who obtained the admissions fails to satisfy the court that withdrawal or amendment will prejudice him in maintaining his action or defense on the merits. Any admission made by a party under this rule is for the purpose of the pending action only and is not an admission by him for any other purpose.

(c) Limitation. A party may serve on any other party more than one set of requests to admit, but the total number of all requests to one party shall not exceed twenty requests, including subparts, except by leave of court upon good cause shown. Requests to admit the genuineness of documents or tangible things are not limited to any number of documents or things.

Note:

This is the language of current Federal Rule 36, as well as substantially the language of Circuit Court Rule 89, with the addition of the limitation in 36(c), which is new matter.

INTERROGATORIES

Instructions

Pursuant to Rule 33 INTERROGATORIES TO PARTIES

(a) Availability; Procedures for Use. Except as limited by paragraph (b)(9), any party may serve upon any other party written interrogatories to be answered by the party served or, if the party served is a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency, by any officer or agent, who shall furnish such information as is available to the party. Interrogatories may, without leave of court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon that party.

Each interrogatory shall be answered separately and fully in writing under oath, unless it is objected to, in which event the reasons for objection shall be stated in lieu of an answer. The answers are to be signed by the person making them, and the objections signed by the attorney making them. The party upon whom the interrogatories have been served shall serve a copy of the answers, and objections if any, within 30 days after the service of the interrogatories, except that a defendant may serve answers or objections within 45 days after service of the summons and complaint upon that defendant. The court may allow a shorter or longer time. The party submitting the interrogatories may move for an order under Rule 37(a) with respect to any objection to or other failure to answer an interrogatory.

Note:

This Rule 33(a) is the language of current Federal Rule except the first line. This language permits interrogatories to any party, not just an adverse party, and increases the time within which a party may object or respond to 30 days.

(b) Standard Interrogatories. In all cases the following standard interrogatories may be served by one party upon another unless otherwise ordered by the court for good cause shown. The interrogatories shall be deemed to continue from the time of service, until the time of trial of the action so that information sought, which comes to the knowledge of a party, or his representative or attorney, after original answers to interrogatories have been submitted, shall be promptly transmitted to the other party.

(1) Give the names and addresses of persons known to the parties or counsel to be witnesses concerning the facts of the case and indicate whether or not written or recorded statements have been taken from the witnesses and indicate who has possession of such statements.

(2) Set forth a list of photographs, plats, sketches or other prepared documents in possession of the party that relate to the claim or defense in the case.

(3) In cases involving personal injury set forth the names and addresses of all physicians who have treated the party and all hospitals to which the party has been committed in connection with said injuries and also set forth a statement of all medical costs involved.

(4) Set forth the names and addresses of all insurance companies which have liability insurance coverage relating to the claim and set forth the number or numbers of the policies involved and the amount or amounts of liability coverage provided in each policy.

(5) Set forth an itemized statement of all damages, exclusive of pain and suffering, claimed to have been sustained by the party.

(6) List the names and addresses of any expert witnesses whom the party proposes to use as a witness at the trial of the case.

(7) For each person known to the parties or counsel to be a witness concerning the facts of the case, set forth either a summary sufficient to inform the other party of the important facts known to or observed by such witness, or provide a copy of any written or recorded statements taken from such witnesses.

(8) [Defendants only.] If the defendant is improperly identified, give the proper identification and state whether counsel will accept service of an amended summons and pleading reflecting the correct information.

(9) Limitations. In addition to the standard interrogatories authorized by this paragraph, the court may order additional interrogatories for good cause shown in any case. In all actions in which the amount in controversy is not less than $25,000, and in all actions for declaratory or injunctive relief, a party may serve additional interrogatories including more than one set of interrogatories upon any other party; but the total number of general interrogatories to any one party shall not exceed fifty questions including subparts, except by leave of court upon good cause shown.

Note:

Rule 33(b)(5) amends present Circuit Court Rule 90 to require an "itemized" statement of all special damages exclusive of pain and suffering. 33(b)(8) is amended to make clear that in certain cases additional interrogatories are permitted beyond the standard interrogatories. Paragraphs 33(b)(1) through (4) and (6) are verbatim the standard interrogatories permitted by present Circuit Court Rule 90(e)(A) through (D) and (F). Paragraph (b)(7) is new and provides for a summary of the facts known to the witnesses in the case. The rule requires a detailed summary so as to avoid the problem encountered with the interrogatories directed to experts in Federal Rule 26(b)(4)(A)(i) which often results in a short, vague summary of expected testimony. On the other hand, it is limited to important facts known or observed by the witness so that the summary is restricted to the actual knowledge of the witness. Paragraph (b)(8) is added to provide for additional special interrogatories to parties in complex cases. The $10,000 limitation follows the approach set by present Circuit Court Rule 87J. The limit of fifty such interrogatories follows present local rules of the Federal courts.

Note to 1985 Amendment:

The changes to Rule 33(b)(8) raise the amount in controversy necessary to authorize general interrogatories as a matter of course from $10,000 to $25,000. The rule is clarified to permit up to fifty general interrogatories in addition to the seven standard interrogatories.

Note to 1988 Amendment:

Rule 33(b)(8) is amended to make clear that the court has the discretion to permit additional interrogatories in any case for good cause shown.

Note to 2008 Amendment:

This amendment added section (b)(8) relating to defendants.

(c) Option to Produce Business Records. Where the answer to an interrogatory may be derived or ascertained from the business records, including electronically stored information, of the party upon whom the interrogatory has been served or from an examination, audit or inspection of such business records, including a compilation, abstract or summary thereof, and the burden of deriving or ascertaining the answer is substantially the same for the party serving the interrogatory as for the party served, it is a sufficient answer to such interrogatory to specify the records from which the answer may be derived or ascertained and to afford to the party serving the interrogatory reasonable opportunity to examine, audit or inspect such records and to make copies, compilations, abstracts or summaries. A specification shall be in sufficient detail to permit the interrogating party to locate and to identify, as readily as can the party served, the records from which the answer may be ascertained.

Note:

This Rule 33(c) is the Federal Rule and permits the party responding to discovery interrogatories to supply the documents from which the information can be obtained when the burden of extracting the information is the same for either party. It places on the requesting party the burden of obtaining the information if he specially needs it.

Note to 2011 Amendment:

The amendments to Rules 16, 25, 33, 34, 37 and 45 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure concerning electronic discovery are substantially similar to the corresponding provisions in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The rules concerning electronic discovery are intended to provide a practical, efficient and cost-effective method to assure reasonable discovery. Pursuit of electronic discovery must relate to the claims and defenses asserted in the pleadings and should serve as a means for facilitating a just and cost-effective resolution of disputes.

(d) Scope; Use at Trial. Interrogatories may relate to any matters which can be inquired into under Rule 28(b), and the answers may be used to the extent permitted by the rules of evidence. An interrogatory otherwise proper is not necessarily objectionable merely because an answer to the interrogatory involves an opinion or contention that relates to fact or the application of law to fact, but the court may order that such an interrogatory need not be answered until after designated discovery has been completed or until a pre-trial hearing or other later time.

CLERK OF COURT
JULIUS ROSS
CO. CL.

Dear Ivanka Ayoub:

Trustgard Insurance Company ("Trustgard") acknowledges the Tyger River demand received on February 20, 2018. Trustgard's investigation and review of your claim for Collision Coverage is based, in part, on the Ohio policy contract issued to our Named Insured, Ivanka Ayoub by Trustgard. The policy provided by Trustgard to Ivanka Ayoub is an Ohio policy contract. Collision coverage is contractual and governed by the state where the policy was issued. In this particular policy, there is a "choice of law" clause or "interpretation" clause requiring the policy to be interpreted under the law of the state where the policy was issued as noted on the Declarations Page. The Declarations Page provides that your address is [REDACTED]. Enclosed is a copy of the Declarations page for your review.

The policy has the following language explaining that the policy will be interpreted by the law of the state indicated on the Declarations Page:

PART F - GENERAL PROVISIONS

Policy Period, Territory, and Interpretation

C. This agreement shall be governed by, and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the state in which the insured resides as reflected on the policy Declarations Page.

Regarding the Collision damage to the 1998 Chevy Van from the auto accident of March 19, 2015, we previously extend an offer related to the total loss value of the 1998 Chevrolet Sport Van on May 21, 2015. We have enclosed a copy of this offer for your review. To confirm, our offer is $3,969 less the Collision deductible of $500. The total settlement amount we will issue to you is $3,469, which represents the actual cash value of the vehicle at the time of loss. You may be eligible for sales tax reimbursement if you purchase a replacement vehicle within 30 days of receiving our settlement check. You must send proof of purchase showing the amount of sales tax incurred by you to Truist Insurance Company within 33 days of the receipt of our check. The Amount of reimbursement for sales tax is limited to the lesser of the following:

1. The amount that would have been payable for sales tax on the purchase of a vehicle with a market value equal to the amount of the settlement.
2. The actual amount of sales tax paid for the replacement vehicle.

If you do not send proof of payment of sales tax on a replacement vehicle within 33 days after you receive our settlement check, we are no longer required to reimburse you for the tax paid.

Below is the applicable policy language related to the Collision coverage under this policy:

PART D - COVERAGE FOR DAMAGE TO

Insuring Agreement

A. We will pay for sudden, direct and accidental loss to your covered auto or any non-owned auto, including its permanently installed equipment, minus any applicable deductible shown on the Declarations Page. We will pay for loss to your covered auto caused by:

2. Collision only if the Declarations Page indicates that Collision Coverage is provided for that auto.

B. "Collision" means the upset of your covered auto or a non-owned auto or their impact with another vehicle or object.

Limit of Liability

A. Our limit of liability will be the lesser of the:

1. Actual cash value of the stolen or damaged property; or
2. Amount necessary to repair or replace the property using parts furnished by the vehicle's manufacturers or parts from other manufacturers.

This policy does not cover a claim for diminished market value of your covered auto or non-owned auto.

B. An adjustment for depreciation and physical condition will be made in determining the actual cash value of your covered auto or non-owned auto at the time of loss.

Punitive or Exemplary Damages Exclusion

Regardless of any other provision of this policy, we do not provide coverage for punitive or exemplary damages, or any legal fees or costs associated with them.

If we are unable to come to an agreement regarding the actual cash value of your 1998 Chevy at the time of loss to resolve the collision claim, please refer to the below policy language:

Appraisal

A. If we and you do not agree on the actual value of the vehicle, either party may demand an appraisal of the loss. In this event, each party will select a competent appraiser. The two appraisers will select an umpire. The appraisers will state separately the actual cash value and the amount of the loss. If they fail to agree, they will submit their differences to the umpire. A decision agreed to by any two will be binding. Each party will:

1. Pay its chosen appraiser; and
 2. Bear the expenses of the appraisal and umpire equally.
- B. We do not waive any of our rights under this policy by agreeing to an appraisal.

* * *

Our Right To Recover Payment

A. If we make a payment under this policy and the person to or for whom payment was made has a right to recover damages from another, we shall be subrogated to that right. That person shall do:

1. Whatever is necessary to enable us to exercise our rights; and
2. Nothing after loss to prejudice them.

B. If we make a payment under this policy and the person to or for whom payment is made recovers damages from another, that person shall:

1. Hold in trust for us the proceeds of the recovery; and
2. Reimburse us to the extent of our payment regardless of the total amount of damages sustained by the insured irrespective of whether any such settlement or judgment may or may not provide reimbursement for all injuries, illnesses, or other damages (including, without limitation, pain and suffering, consequential, punitive, exemplary or other damages, whether alleged, proven in a court of law otherwise substantiated).

 Valuation Methodology *****

The Commercial & Recreational Vehicle Division of CCC Information Services, Inc., prepared this CCC Valuescope Market Report for Grange Insurance Companies. CCC has been preparing market value reports for the insurance industry since 1991.

Valuations performed by CCC's Commercial & Recreational Vehicle Division require individual market searches to identify and locate supporting market information. Due to the unique nature of the loan units valued in the Commercial & Recreational Vehicle Division, a valuation expert handles each request individually.

When Grange Insurance Companies requests a valuation report, they provide CCC with the configuration of the loan unit, including model, hours or mileage, optional features, any accessories, the condition of the loan unit as well as Valuation Request: (continued) 1998 CHEV G10/EXP 4X2 INCOMPLETE

the VIN/STP/PIN (vehicle/body/product identification number) of the loss unit. That identification number is analyzed to verify basic information provided on the loss unit.

Orange Insurance Companies also provides CCC with the loss unit owner's ZIP code, which identifies the local market used to determine the market value.

The local market area, however, may vary by vehicle or unit type. Where the vehicle or loss unit is readily available in a given location, the search area can be within the same city or state as the loss unit. If the loss unit or vehicle is very specialized, the search may expand to locate comparable support to document the loss unit's value.

significant differences between the loss unit and any comparable units are documented and are used to define a verifiable market value for the loss unit. If no comparable units are located, the valuation expert will conduct a local market survey to gather the expert opinion of knowledgeable retailers in order to determine the local market value.

 Comparable Units *****

The Comparable Units are compared to the Loss Unit to determine the Adjusted Value. The Adjusted Value represents the price of the Comparable Unit configured to exactly match the Loss Unit.

FILED
2018 APR 16 2 1:57
CLERK OF COURT
CHESTER CO S.C.

You will please take notice that the Defendants Kevin Carter and Richard Davis, by and through their undersigned counsel, will move before the Presiding Judge of the Chester County Court of Common Pleas at the Chester County Courthouse at 10:00 a.m. on the tenth (10th) day after service hereof, or as soon thereafter as counsel may be heard for an Order on the following grounds:

I. Rule 12(b)(8) Motion to Dismiss.

Defendants Carter and Davis move to dismiss the Plaintiff's claim in its entirety pursuant to Rule 12(b)(8), SCRCF, on the ground that Plaintiff has now filed a separate civil action in the Chester County Court of Common Pleas, Case No. 2018-CP-12-00117, captioned, Heidi Gersten, Ivanka Ayoub, Daniel Hubbard vs. Kevin Carter, Richard Davis, Joseph Tirbovich, Nationwide Ins. Co., Interinsurance Exchange of the Automobile Club, John Ammendola, Trustguard Ins. Co., S.C. Dept of Public Safety, Blackwell, Chevrolet, GMC, Unknown John Does (hereinafter the "Circuit Court Action"). The Circuit Court action seeks a "judgment for damage . . . to fully and fairly compensate [Plaintiff] for all general, special, incidental and consequential damages” (Ex. A, Circuit Court Action Complaint, p. 11). It is unclear whether Plaintiff is seeking recovery for property damages in that action. However, if she is, then this action is duplicative and should be dismissed. See Corbett v. City of Myrtle Beach, 336 S.C. 601, 610-11, 521 S.E.2d 276, 281 (Ct. App. 1999) (affirming dismissal of individual emotional distress claim where another action was pending that included consolidated wrongful death and survival claims in addition to the same emotional distress claim). Like the cases at issue in Corbett, both this action and the pending Circuit Court action involve the same parties and are based on the same facts and circumstances. Therefore, the action is duplicative and should be dismissed.

II. Defendant Richard Davis' Rule 12(b)(6) Motion to Dismiss.

Defendant Richard Davis also moves to dismiss the claims against himself pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6), SCRCP. The Complaint alleges, and these Defendants admit, that the vehicle operated by Kevin Carter at the time of the accident was owned by Kevin Carter. Therefore, Richard Davis cannot be liable for negligently entrusting the accident vehicle to Kevin Carter because Carter had ownership and control over the vehicle. See e.g., De Blanc ex rel. De Blanc v. Jensen, 59 S.W.3d 373 (Tex. Ct. App. 2001) (“In order for the [Defendant] to be liable under a theory of negligent entrustment, we would have to conclude that it is negligent for a nonowner to return control of a vehicle to its owner. We decline to so hold.”).¹

¹ See also Fletcher v. Anderson, 27 Kan. App. 2d 276, 3 P. 3d 558, 567-68 (2000) (because “no action for negligent entrustment can occur where the person entrusting the vehicle lacked a superior or exclusive right of control over the vehicle,” a nonowner is not liable for returning car to owner); McGlothlin v. Municipality of Anchorage, 991 P.2d 1273, 1280 (Alaska 1999) (“doctrine of negligent entrustment requires that the defendant have a greater right of possession r control of the chattel than the person to whom he entrusts it.”).

III. Motion to Strike.

In the alternative, the Defendants move to strike various paragraphs of the Plaintiff's claim. Pursuant to Rule 43(g), a party may read his or her pleadings to the jury. Rule 43(g), SCRCP. Therefore, matters that are otherwise inadmissible should be stricken from a complaint. Furthermore, Rule 12(f) authorizes the Court to strike "from any pleading any insufficient defense or any redundant, immaterial, impertinent or scandalous matter." Rule 12(f), SCRCP. Defendants' move to strike the following Paragraphs of the Complaint:

A. Paragraphs 17-19 – Allegations Containing Personal Identifying Information.

Paragraphs 17 through 19 of the Complaint contain Defendant Kevin Carter's personal identifying information. Pursuant to Rule 41.2, SCRCP, these paragraphs should be stricken from any and all pleadings filed with this Court and any official records placed on the case management system public index. Moreover, Kevin Carter's personal identifying information is immaterial to this action. Therefore, these allegations should be stricken pursuant to Rule 12(f).

B. Paragraphs 21-25 – Allegations Containing Immaterial Information.

Paragraphs 21 through 25 of the Complaint assert information regarding Kevin Carter's educational background and allege that he is an EMT. This information is wholly irrelevant to the issues in this case. Therefore, the allegations should be stricken pursuant to Rule 12(f) because they are immaterial.

C. Paragraphs 15, 37, 47, 73-74, 76 – Allegations Regarding Criminal Charges.

Paragraphs 15, 37, 47, 37 through 74 and 76 of the Complaint each reference or allege that Kevin Carter has been charged with certain criminal offenses. "The results of a criminal suit may not normally be used as evidence in a purely, civil suit involving the same facts" and "whether a police officer decided to ticket someone is not admissible." McKissick v. J.F. Cleckley & Co., 325

S.C. 327, 350 n.5, 479 S.E.2d 67, 79 n.5 (Ct. App. 1996). Kevin Carter has not been convicted of any of the charges alleged in the Complaint. Therefore, the fact of the charges is inadmissible and should be stricken from the pleadings.

D. Paragraphs 33-36, 91-92, 95-148, 151, 158-171 – Allegations Containing Reference to the Existence of Liability Insurance.

Paragraphs 33 through 36, 91 through 92, 95 through 148, 151, and 158 through 171 all reference the existence of liability insurance and/or Plaintiff's interactions with insurance companies. The law is well established that the existence of insurance is inadmissible in a tort suit. See Rule 411, SCRE. Justice Woods explained the highly prejudicial nature of such reference to liability insurance in a personal injury action:

There can be no doubt on the bench or at the bar that, in an action . . . to recover damages for personal injury, both reason and authority forbid bringing into evidence or argument the fact that defendant is protected by . . . liability insurance. Such evidence or argument has a manifest and strong tendency to carry the jury away from the real issue and to lead them to regard carelessly the legal rights of the defendant on the ground that some one else will have to pay the verdict.

Horsford v. Carolina Glass Co., 92 S.C. 236, 75 S.E. 533, 541 (1912). “[O]ur courts have consistently held the existence and contents of a defendant’s liability insurance policy may not be disclosed to the jury.” Landry v. Hilton Head Plantation Property Owners Ass’n, Inc., 317 S.C. 200, 206, 452 S.E.2d 619, 622 (Ct. App. 1994). See also Dunn v. Charleston Coca-Cola Bottling Co., 311 S.C. 43, 45, 426 S.E.2d 756, 757 (1993) (“The long-established rule of our decisions is that the fact that a Defendant is protected from liability in an action for damages by insurance shall not be made known to the jury.”) (quotation omitted); Norris v. Ferre, 315 S.C. 179, 182, 432 S.E.2d 491, 493 (Ct. App. 1993) (“Furthermore, the Supreme Court has been meticulous in keeping the issue of insurance coverage away from the jury.”).

The existence of liability insurance is inadmissible in an action against Carter or Davis for personal injuries. Therefore, the allegations contained in the above-referenced paragraphs should be stricken as being immaterial, inadmissible, and prejudicial.

E. Paragraphs 38-46 – Hearsay and Police Reports

Plaintiff also cites the police report in Paragraphs 38 through 46 of the Complaint. Rule 803(8) of the South Carolina Rules of Evidence expressly prohibits “investigative notes involving opinions, judgments, or conclusions” and “Accident reports required by S.C. Code Ann. § 56-5-1260 to -1280 (1991). Rule 803(8), SCRE. Moreover, the General Assembly has expressly prohibited admission of such reports in civil cases: “None of the reports required by Section 56-5-1260 to 56-5-1280 may be evidence of the negligence or due care of either party at the trial of any action at law to recover damages.” S.C. Code Ann. § 56-5-1290. The Supreme Court in Branham v. Leaphart, 311 S.C. 231, 428 S.E.2d 707 (1993) held that such reports cannot be used even for impeachment purposes.

The allegations in the above-referenced Paragraphs also restate comments written by the investigating officer. Therefore, the allegations contain hearsay which is prohibited by Rule 802, SCRE. For both of these reasons, Paragraphs 38 through 46 of the Complaint should be stricken.

F. Paragraphs 60-63, 68 – Hearsay and Expert Opinions.

Paragraphs 60 through 63 purport to cite to a report from the Washington State Patrol Forensic Laboratory Services Bureau. The report and the other allegations contained in these paragraphs and in Paragraph 68 (which cites The Physician's Desk Reference) contain opinions that require expert testimony. See Rule 701 & 702. Moreover, the statements are hearsay. See Rule 802, SCRE.² Therefore, they are inadmissible and should be stricken from the Complaint.

² Plaintiff's Complaint alleges The Physician's Desk Reference is a “commercial publication,” presumably contending that it falls within the Rule 803(17) exception to hearsay. Multiple courts

G. Paragraphs 83-90 – References to Non-Binding Arbitration to Which Neither Plaintiff nor Defendants Carter and Davis were Parties

Paragraphs 83 through 90 reference an inter-company arbitration between three different insurance companies. Plaintiff and Defendants Carter and Davis were not parties to that arbitration. They were not given an opportunity to appear in the arbitration, and the arbitration is not binding on them. Put simply, the arbitration is a wholly separate legal dispute subject to different evidentiary rules, submitted by different parties, and not subject to the benefits of a jury trial. Therefore, the arbitration is not admissible in this case. This would be no different from a party citing a jury finding in a separate case between different parties. What one finder of fact did in another venue with different evidentiary rules and when Defendants Carter and Davis had no opportunity to appear and defend is simply not relevant and cannot serve as evidence in this case. Moreover, the allegations reference insurance, which is impermissible in this personal injury action. Therefore, these Paragraphs should be stricken.

IV. Motion to Dismiss or, in the Alternative, Motion to Sever.

Plaintiff asserts causes of action against three insurance companies.³ The only insurance defendant to which any factual allegations are alleged is Nationwide. Although Plaintiff fails to have held that The Physician's Desk Reference is not a "commercial publication" within the scope of the Rule 803(17) hearsay exception. See People v. Hard, 342 P.3d 572, 578 (Colo. Ct. App. 2014) (listing courts that have questioned the reliability of The Physicians' Desk Reference); Garvey v. O'Donoghue, 530 A.2d 1141, 1145 (D.C. 1987) (holding the Physicians' Desk Reference inadmissible under Fed. R. Evid. 803(17) because the publication contains not only factual statements, but also "directions, opinions, suggestions, and recommendations"); Kahanek v. Rogers, 12 S.W.3d 501, 504 (Tex. App. 1999) (holding the Physicians' Desk Reference inadmissible under Texas' market reports exception because the publication goes beyond objective information and extends to items on which learned professionals may disagree in good faith); In re Richardson-Merrell, Inc. Bendectin Products Liab. Litig., 624 F. Supp. 1212, 1232 (S.D. Ohio 1985) (holding excerpts from the Physicians' Desk Reference did not fall within the commercial publications exception of Fed. R. Evid. 803(17)), aff'd, 857 F.2d 290 (6th Cir. 1988).

³ Although Plaintiff names Interinsurance of the Automobile Club and Trustguard Insurance, the Complaint does not allege any facts against those two defendants. Therefore, they should be clearly articulate her claim against Nationwide, she appears to be alleging that Nationwide failed to properly handle her third-party claim. However, South Carolina law is well established that a third-party claimant has no standing to assert a bad faith claim against a liability insurer. See Kleckley v. Northwestern Nat'l Cas. Co., 338 S.C. 131, 135, 526 S.E.2d 218, 219 (2000) (“This Court and the Court of Appeals have repeatedly denied actions for bad faith refusal to pay claims to third parties who are not named insured.”). In Kleckley, the Supreme Court held a third-party claimant – such as Plaintiff here – does not have standing to pursue a cause of action against the liability insurer.⁴ Id. at 137, 526 S.E.2d at 221.

Plaintiff lacks standing to assert a claim against Carter and Dennis’ insurance carrier, Nationwide. Therefore, the Complaint fails to state a cause of action against Nationwide and should be dismissed pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6).

In the event the Court does not dismiss the claims against the insurance carriers, then Defendants Carter and Davis move to sever the claims asserted against the insurance defendants from the claims asserted against Carter and Davis. Rule 21 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure gives the Court discretion to drop parties or sever claims to proceed separately “at any stage of the action and on such terms as are just.” Rule 21, SCRPC. As discussed above in Part dismissed pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6), SCRPC for failure to state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

⁴ Plaintiff’s Complaint cites several provisions from the South Carolina Claims Practices Act. However, the Court of Appeals has held that the Claims Practices Act does not create a private right of action, and only creates an administrative remedy. See Swinton v. Chub & Son, Inc., 283 S.C. 11, 14-15 320 S.E.2d 495, 496-97 (Ct. App. 1984).

III.D., “the Supreme Court has been meticulous in keeping the issue of insurance coverage away from the jury.” Norris, 315 S.C. at 182, 432 S.E.2d at 493.

Trying the claims against the liability insurers before the same fact finder as the personal injury claims against Defendants Carter and Davis would be highly prejudicial. It will be impossible for the finder of fact to ignore the existence of insurance when considering the claims against Carter and Davis. Severing the two causes of action pursuant to Rule 21 remedies this problem. See Palmetto Health Alliance v. South Carolina Elec. & Gas Co., 2012 WL 12089247 (S.C. Com. Pl. June 28, 2012) (Kinard, J) (severing claims under Rule 21, SCRCF to avoid potential prejudice of injecting existence of liability insurance into dispute). As Judge Kinard noted in Palmetto Health Alliance, allowing the two causes of action to go forward together “presents a thorny thicket of potential prejudice and inefficiency” and “Rules 20 and 21 . . . vest this Court with broad discretion to prevent just this sort of situation from going forward.” Id. at *3.

For the above-stated reasons, Plaintiff’s claims against the insurance defendants should be dismissed for failure to state a claim. However, if the actions are allowed to proceed, then they should be severed from the actions against Carter and Davis and given separate case numbers. Severance is the only way to avoid undue prejudice against Carter and Davis.

CONCLUSION

For the above-stated reasons, the above-captioned case should be dismissed. The damages alleged in this case appear to overlap damages asserted in the pending Circuit Court action and involve the same set of facts. Therefore, the case should be dismissed pursuant to Rule 12(b)(8), SCRCF. If the case is not dismissed in its entirety, then the case against Richard Davis should be dismissed because it is undisputed that Kevin Carter – the driver of the accident vehicle – was the owner of the vehicle. Because Carter owned the vehicle, Davis could not owe a duty to prevent Carter from driving Carter's own vehicle.

If the case is not dismissed, then numerous paragraphs should be stricken from the Complaint. The paragraphs contain private, personal identifying information, immaterial allegations, inadmissible hearsay, reference to liability insurance, inadmissible expert opinions, and reference police reports that are inadmissible as a matter of South Carolina statutory law. The prejudicial nature of the allegations greatly outweighs any probative benefits of the allegations. Therefore, the Paragraphs should be stricken from the Complaint.

Lastly, the claims against the insurance defendants should be dismissed. Plaintiff alleges no facts against two of the three insurers. As to Nationwide, Plaintiff appears to be asserting a third-party claim, which has been rejected by the South Carolina Supreme Court and Court of Appeals. Therefore, Plaintiff fails to state a claim against any of the insurance defendants. If the claims against the insurance defendants are allowed to proceed, then those claims should be severed from the claims against Defendants Carter and Davis to avoid undue prejudice.

This motion will be supported by such affidavits, memorandum of law, and other exhibits that may be provided to the Court ahead of or at the hearing on the Motion.

Respectfully submitted,

CLERK OF COURT
JESSE CO S.C.

You will please take notice that the Defendants Kevin Carter and Richard Davis, by and through their undersigned counsel, will move before the Presiding Judge of the Chester County Court of Common Pleas at the Chester County Courthouse at 10:00 a.m. on the tenth (10th) day after service hereof, or as soon thereafter as counsel may be heard for an Order on the following grounds:

I. Rule 12(b)(6) Motion to Dismiss.

Defendants Carter and Davis move to dismiss Plaintiffs' following claims:

A. All Causes of Action as to Defendant Richard Davis.

The Complaint only references Richard Davis in one paragraph, stating "The Defendants Kevin Carter and Richard Davis reside in Iredell County, North Carolina." (Compl. ¶ 2). The Complaint does not allege Richard Davis was involved in the automobile collision. Pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6), SCRCP, a Complaint should be dismissed if it fails "to state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.” Rule 12(b)(6), SCRCP. Because the Complaint alleges no factual allegations against Defendant Richard Davis, he should be dismissed.

Moreover, Richard Davis is a citizen and resident of the State of North Carolina. The Complaint does not allege any actions that Richard Davis took in this State. Therefore, this Court lacks personal jurisdiction over him and he should be dismissed pursuant to Rule 12(b)(2), SCRCP.

B. Fraud, Fraudulent Inducement, and Deceit.

The Second, Third, and Fourteenth causes of action purport to assert claims for fraud, fraudulent inducement, and deceit, respectively. (Comp. pp. 4-5 & 8). The Complaint does not assert any factual allegations to support any of these causes of action. Rather, it merely attempts to assert the basic elements of each cause of action. Rule 9(b) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure applies a heightened pleading requirement for allegations of fraud or mistake, stating “In all averments of fraud or mistake, the circumstances constituting fraud or mistake shall be stated with particularity.” Rule 9(b), SCRCP. Plaintiffs fail to allege any necessary facts to support their claims.

To establish fraud, Plaintiff must allege specific facts showing: “(1) a representation of fact; (2) its falsity; (3) its materiality; (4) either knowledge of its falsity or a reckless disregard for its truth or falsity; (5) intent that the representation be acted upon; (6) the hearer’s ignorance of its falsity; (7) the hearer’s reliance on its truth; (8) the hearer’s right to rely thereon; and (9) the hearer’s consequent and proximate injury.” Schnellman v. Roettger, 373 S.C. 379, 382, 645 S.E.2d 239, 240 (2007). The Complaint bears no facts of a false statement made by Richard Davis or Kevin Carter, no reliance on any such statement, and no consequent damage – not to mention all of the other necessary elements. Put simply, the Complaint is devoid of any factual allegations to support the fraud and deceit claims, much less the specific factual allegations required by Rule 9(b). Therefore, these causes of action should be dismissed.

C. All Other Causes of Action with the Exception of Negligence.

Like the fraud and deceit causes of action, Plaintiffs merely allege the legal elements of various other causes of action (Causes Four through Thirteen and Fifteen through Eighteen).¹ Rule 8(a) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure states that a pleading setting forth a cause of action "shall contain . . . a short and plain statement of the facts showing the pleader is entitled to relief." Rule 8(a), SCRPC. In reviewing a motion to dismiss pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6), the Court's analysis is limited solely to the Complaint itself, and no other documents may be considered. See Woodell by Allen v. Marion School Dist. One, 307 S.C. 297, 298, 414 S.E.2d 794, 794 (Ct. App. 1992). Moreover, "A trial court must dismiss a claim pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, if the pleadings, when taken in the light most favorable to the plaintiff, fail to allege sufficient facts to constitute a cause of action." Trancik v. USAA Ins. Co., 354 S.C. 549, 552, 581 S.E.2d 858, 860 (Ct. App. 2003).

Plaintiffs must allege facts supporting each element of the causes of action asserted in the Complaint. They have failed to do so. Admittedly, the Complaint alleges sufficient facts to create a cause of action for negligence between Plaintiff Heidi Gersten and Defendant Kevin Carter. However, the Complaint alleges no facts that would support the other causes of action enumerated in the Complaint. Therefore, all causes of action with the exception of Gersten's negligence claim should be dismissed pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6).

¹ Several of these causes of action fail to even allege the basic legal elements of the causes.

D. Plaintiffs Ivanka Ayoub and Daniel Hubbard's Causes of Action for Loss of Consortium.

Although not clearly alleged, Plaintiffs Hubbard and Ayoub appear to assert causes of action for loss of consortium. Plaintiff Hubbard, Heidi Gersten's brother, alleges he "was unable to work for a period and, accordingly, lost wages in an amount to be determined by proof at trial." (Compl. ¶ 101). The Complaint does not allege Hubbard was personally involved in the accident, and it appears Hubbard claims he was unable to work because he was caring for Plaintiff Gersten after the accident.

Likewise, Plaintiff Ayoub, Gersten's mother, is not alleged to have been involved in the accident. Paragraph 103 of the Complaint alleged, "The Plaintiff Ivanka Ayoub suffers, among other things, loss of consortium." (Compl. ¶ 103). Therefore, it appears Plaintiffs Hubbard and Ayoub attempt to assert claims for loss of filial consortium. However, South Carolina does not recognize claims for loss of filial consortium.

Our Supreme Court has refused to recognize a cause of action in tort for filial loss of consortium. See Doe v. Greenville County School Dist., 375 S.C. 63, 70, 651 S.E.2d 305, 308 (2007) ("Accordingly, in the absence of some action from the legislature, this Court has no authority upon which it could rely in finding that South Carolina law recognizes claims for loss of filial consortium."² South Carolina does recognize loss of spousal consortium, but that cause of action was expressly recognized by the South Carolina General Assembly. See S.C. Code Ann. § 15-75-20. Our Supreme Court has held the absence of a similar statutory cause of action for filial

loss of consortium indicates the General Assembly did not intend to recognize such causes of action. See Doe v. Greenville County School Dist., 375 S.C. at 69, 651 S.E.2d at 308.

South Carolina does not recognize claims for loss of filial consortium. Therefore, the causes of action asserted by Hubbard and Ayoub should be dismissed in their entirety.

II. Motion to Strike.

In the alternative, the Defendants move to strike various paragraphs of the Plaintiffs' claim. Pursuant to Rule 43(g), a party may read his or her pleadings to the jury. Rule 43(g), SCRCP. Therefore, matters that are otherwise inadmissible should be stricken from a complaint. Furthermore, Rule 12(f) authorizes the Court to strike "from any pleading any insufficient defense or any redundant, immaterial, impertinent or scandalous matter." Rule 12(f), SCRCP. Defendants' move to strike the following Paragraphs of the Complaint:

A. Paragraph 27 – Allegation Regarding Criminal Charges.

Paragraphs 27 of the Complaint references or alleges that Kevin Carter has been charged with certain criminal offenses. "The results of a criminal suit may not normally be used as evidence in a purely, civil suit involving the same facts" and "whether a police officer decided to ticket someone is not admissible." McKissick v. J.F. Cleckley & Co., 325 S.C. 327, 350 n.5, 479 S.E.2d 67, 79 n.5 (Ct. App. 1996). Kevin Carter has not been convicted of any of the charges alleged in the Complaint. Therefore, the fact of the charges is inadmissible and should be stricken from the pleadings.

B. Paragraphs 5-7 and 17-19 – Allegations Containing Reference to the Existence of Insurance.

Paragraphs 5 through 7 and 17 through 19 all reference the existence of insurance. The law is well established that the existence of insurance is inadmissible in a tort suit. See Rule 411,

SCRE. Justice Woods explained the highly prejudicial nature of such reference to liability insurance in a personal injury action:

There can be no doubt on the bench or at the bar that, in an action . . . to recover damages for personal injury, both reason and authority forbid bringing into evidence or argument the fact that defendant is protected by . . . liability insurance. Such evidence or argument has a manifest and strong tendency to carry the jury away from the real issue and to lead them to regard carelessly the legal rights of the defendant on the ground that some one else will have to pay the verdict.

Horsford v. Carolina Glass Co., 92 S.C. 236, 75 S.E. 533, 541 (1912). “[O]ur courts have consistently held the existence and contents of a defendant’s liability insurance policy may not be disclosed to the jury.” Landry v. Hilton Head Plantation Property Owners Ass’n, Inc., 317 S.C. 200, 206, 452 S.E.2d 619, 622 (Ct. App. 1994). See also Dunn v. Charleston Coca-Cola Bottling Co., 311 S.C. 43, 45, 426 S.E.2d 756, 757 (1993) (“The long-established rule of our decisions is that the fact that a Defendant is protected from liability in an action for damages by insurance shall not be made known to the jury.”) (quotation omitted); Norris v. Ferre, 315 S.C. 179, 182, 432 S.E.2d 491, 493 (Ct. App. 1993) (“Furthermore, the Supreme Court has been meticulous in keeping the issue of insurance coverage away from the jury.”).

The existence of insurance is inadmissible in an action against Carter or Davis for personal injuries. Therefore, the allegations contained in the above-referenced paragraphs should be stricken as being immaterial, inadmissible, and prejudicial.

III. Motion to Dismiss or, in the Alternative, Motion to Sever.

Plaintiffs appear to assert causes of action against three insurance companies and against one or more insurance adjusters.³ Plaintiffs fail to articulate their claims against the insurance carriers or to assert any facts to support a cause of action. To the extent they seek to assert third-party claims against liability insurers, they lack standing to do so. See Kleckley v. Northwestern Nat'l Cas. Co., 338 S.C. 131, 135, 526 S.E.2d 218, 219 (2000) ("This Court and the Court of Appeals have repeatedly denied actions for bad faith refusal to pay claims to third parties who are not named insured."). In Kleckley, the Supreme Court held a third-party claimant – such as Plaintiff here – does not have standing to pursue a cause of action against the liability insurer.⁴ Id. at 137, 526 S.E.2d at 221.

Even if Plaintiffs had standing to assert claims against one or more of the Insurance Defendants, the Complaint does not allege any factual allegations against the Insurance Defendants. Therefore, the Complaint fails to satisfy Rule 8(a) and should be dismissed for failure to state a claim. See Rule 12(b)(6), SCRPC.

In the event the Court does not dismiss the claims against the Insurance Defendants, then Defendants Carter and Davis move to sever the claims asserted against the insurance defendants from the claims asserted against Carter and Davis. Rule 21 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil

³ Plaintiffs name Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company, Interinsurance Exchange of the Automobile Club and Trustguard Insurance Company as defendants. They also name Joseph Tirbovich – an adjuster with Nationwide – and John Ammendola – the president and CEO of Grange Insurance. In this motion, these defendants are referred to collectively as the "Insurance Defendants."

⁴ Plaintiff's Complaint cites several provisions from the South Carolina Claims Practices Act. However, the Court of Appeals has held that the Claims Practices Act does not create a private right of action, and only creates an administrative remedy. See Swinton v. Chub & Son, Inc., 283 S.C. 11, 14-15 320 S.E.2d 495, 496-97 (Ct. App. 1984).

Procedure gives the Court discretion to drop parties or sever claims to proceed separately “at any stage of the action and on such terms as are just.” Rule 21, SCRPC. As discussed above in Part III.D., “the Supreme Court has been meticulous in keeping the issue of insurance coverage away from the jury.” Norris, 315 S.C. at 182, 432 S.E.2d at 493.

Trying the claims against the Insurance Defendants before the same fact finder as the personal injury claims against Defendants Carter and Davis would be highly prejudicial. It will be impossible for the finder of fact to ignore the existence of insurance when considering the claims against Carter and Davis. Severing the two causes of action pursuant to Rule 21 remedies this problem. See Palmetto Health Alliance v. South Carolina Elec. & Gas Co., 2012 WL 12089247 (S.C. Com. Pl. June 28, 2012) (Kinard, J) (severing claims under Rule 21, SCRPC to avoid potential prejudice of injecting existence of liability insurance into dispute). As Judge Kinard noted in Palmetto Health Alliance, allowing the two causes of action to go forward together “presents a thorny thicket of potential prejudice and inefficiency” and “Rules 20 and 21 . . . vest this Court with broad discretion to prevent just this sort of situation from going forward.” Id. at *3.

For the above-stated reasons, Plaintiffs’ claims against the Insurance Defendants should be dismissed for failure to state a claim. However, if the actions are allowed to proceed, then they should be severed from the actions against Carter and Davis and given separate case numbers. Severance is the only way to avoid undue prejudice against Carter and Davis.

CONCLUSION

For the above-stated reasons, the above-captioned case should be dismissed in its entirety with the exception of Heidi Gersten’s claim against Kevin Carter for negligence. Plaintiffs allege no facts to support a cause of action against Defendant Davis. In fact, the only factual allegations in the Complaint assert a claim against Defendant Carter only. Therefore, all of the other name defendants should be dismissed. Moreover, the Complaint does not allege any facts against Defendant Carter that would support a cause of action for the various enumerate causes of action set forth in the Complaint with the exception of the negligence action.

If the case is not dismissed, then certain paragraphs should be stricken from the Complaint. The paragraphs contain reference to liability insurance and reference criminal charges that are inadmissible. The prejudicial nature of the allegations greatly outweighs any probative benefits of the allegations. Therefore, the Paragraphs should be stricken from the Complaint.

Lastly, the claims against the Insurance Defendants should be dismissed. Plaintiffs allege no facts against the Insurance Defendants. Therefore, Plaintiffs fail to state a claim against any of the Insurance Defendants. If the claims against the Insurance Defendants are allowed to proceed, then those claims should be severed from the claims against Defendants Carter and Davis to avoid undue prejudice.

This motion will be supported by such affidavits, memorandum of law, and other exhibits that may be provided to the Court ahead of or at the hearing on the Motion.

MEMORANDUM OF AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT OF RESPONDENTS KEVIN CARTER'S AND RICHARD DAVIS' MOTION TO DISMISS

Appellants attempted to appeal three orders from the Chester County Court of Common Pleas. However, the operative Notice of Appeal in this case was untimely filed with the Court of Appeals and clerk of the lower court. Therefore, Respondents Carter and Davis respectfully request that this Court grant their Motion to Dismiss the Appeal with prejudice as it pertains to them.

BACKGROUND

In early 2018, Appellant Heidi Gersten filed two actions in the Chester County Court of Common Pleas. On February 21, 2018, Gersten filed a Summons and Claim for Property Damage seeking arbitration in case number 2018-CP-12-00074 alleging damages resulting from an automobile accident. (Ex. A, Summons and Claim, Heidi Gersten v. Kevin Carter, Richard Davis, Nationwide Mutual Ins. Co., Interinsurance of the Automobile Club, Trustguard Ins., 2018-CP-12-00074). On March 16, 2018, Appellants Heidi Gersten and Ivanka Ayoub and Daniel Hubbard¹ filed a Summons and Complaint alleging damages arising out of the same automobile accident. (Ex. B, Summons and Complaint, Heidi Gersten, Ivanka Ayoub, Daniel Hubbard v. Kevin Carter, Richard Davis, Joseph Tirhovich, Nationwide Mutual insurance Company, Interinsurance Exchange of the Automobile Club, John Ammendola, Trustguard Insurance Company, SC Dep't of Public Safety, Blackwell, GMC, Chevrolet, Unknown John Does, 2018-CP-12-00117).

Respondents Kevin Carter and Richard Davis filed Motions to Dismiss or, in the Alternative, Motions to Strike and Sever in both cases on April 16, 2018. On April 26, 2018, the Chief Administrative Judge of Chester County entered a Form 4 Order consolidating the two cases. The various other defendants also filed Motions to Dismiss the case, and a hearing was held on September 5, 2018. On September 18, 2018, the Honorable John C. Hayes, III, entered an order granting Richard Davis's Motion to Dismiss in full and granting Kevin Carter's Motion to Dismiss in part. (Ex. C, Order Granting Defendants Kevin Carter's and Richard Davis' Motion to Dismiss). On September 19, 2018, counsel for Respondents Carter and Davis placed copies of the Order in the mail to Gersten, Ayoub, and Hubbard. (Affidavit of Facts).

Nineteen days later,² on October 8, 2018, Appellants Gersten and Ayoub filed a Motion to Alter or Amend the judgment regarding the April 26, 2018 consolidation Order and the ¹ Daniel Hubbard did not sign the Notices of Appeal. Therefore, he is not an appellant in this action, and the dismissal as to him is now final.

² Respondents reserve the right to argue that the motion to reconsider was untimely.

September 5, 2018 Order.³ The Court denied this Motion by a Form 4 Order on October 16, 2018.

On October 22, 2018, Respondents received a Notice of Appeal, purporting to appeal the September 18, 2018 Order (hereinafter the “First Notice of Appeal”).⁴ However, Appellants never filed the First Notice of Appeal with the Court of Appeals or the Circuit Court.

On November 21, 2018, Respondents received another Notice of Appeal, appealing the orders from April 26, 2018, September 18, 2018, and October 16, 2018 (hereinafter the “Second Notice of Appeal”).⁵ Appellants filed the Second Notice of Appeal with the Court of Appeals by fax on November 27, 2018 – more than 30 days after entry of the Order denying the Motion to Alter or Amend and more than 10 days after serving the Second Notice of Appeal.⁶ Appellant filed the Second Notice of Appeal with the clerk of the lower court on November 29, 2018.

ARGUMENT

The South Carolina Appellate Court Rules require appellants to serve a Notice of Appeal on Respondents within 30 days of receipt of written notice of entry of the order they seek to appeal. Rule 203(b)(1), SCACR. Then, from the date of service, appellants have an additional 10 days to file their Notice of Appeal with the Court of Appeals and the clerk of the lower court.

³ There is no “September 5, 2018 Order.” Rather, the Motions hearing occurred on September 5, 2018, and the Court issued its Orders regarding the various Motions on September 18, 2018. Thus, although both of Appellants’ Notices of Appeal and all their filings with the Court refer to the “September 5, 2018 Order,” Respondents interpret this to mean the September 18, 2018 Order.

⁴ The First Notice of Appeal is attached hereto as Exhibit D.

⁵ The Second Notice of Appeal received by Respondents is attached hereto as Exhibit E.

⁶ Attached as Exhibit F is the Second Notice of Appeal with the date received by the Court of Appeals noted as November 27, 2018.

Rule 203(d)(1)(B), SCACR. If the appeal is not timely filed, the appeal “shall be dismissed.”

Rule 203(d)(3), SCACR.

I. The Second Notice of Appeal was untimely filed with the Court.

Appellants did not timely file their Second Notice of Appeal with this Court or the clerk of the lower court.⁷ South Carolina Appellate Court Rules require appellants to file their Notice of Appeal with the Court of Appeals and the clerk of the Circuit Court within ten days of serving the Notice upon Respondents. Rule 203(d)(1)(B), SCACR. The clock for filing the Second Notice of Appeal began to run on November 15, 2018, when Appellants served the notice on Respondents.⁸ Therefore, Appellants had ten days from November 15, 2018 to file the Second Notice of Appeal with the Court of Appeals and the Circuit Court. Because the tenth day after November 15, 2018 fell on Sunday, November 25, 2018, Appellants were required to file their Second Notice of Appeal with this Court and the Circuit Court by November 26, 2018. Rules 203(d)(1)(B) and 263(a), SCACR.

Appellants missed the deadline and did not file their Second Notice of Appeal with this Court until November 27, 2018 and the Circuit Court until November 29, 2018.⁹ Although ⁷ As noted above, Appellants never filed the First Notice of Appeal. Therefore, the first Notice of Appeal is moot, and the only question before the Court on this Motion is whether the Second Notice of Appeal was timely served and filed.

⁸ Respondents reserve the right to argue, upon later motion, the timeliness of the service of the Second Notice of Appeal as it pertains to the April 26, 2018 and September 18, 2018 Orders.

⁹ The Court of Appeals has two copies of the Second Notice of Appeal with two different stamped dates of receipt. The first, attached hereto as Exhibit F, includes a fax cover sheet and a note handwritten by Appellant Gersten indicating Appellants’ desire that the faxed Second Notice of Appeal be filed. The note also indicates that Appellants had placed in the mail on November 26, 2018 a hard copy of the Second Notice of Appeal, expected to arrive at the Court of Appeals on November 29, 2018. Accordingly, the second copy of the Second Notice of Appeal on file with the Court, and attached hereto as Exhibit G, is dated as received by the Court of Appeals on November 29, 2018.

Appellants attempted to file the notice via facsimile and via mail, neither copy was timely filed. Appellants had until November 26, 2018 to file the Notice, but the faxed copy was not transmitted to or received by this Court until November 27, 2018. Although Appellant Gersten sent a handwritten note with the facsimile indicating that the hard copy was placed in the mail on the deadline of November 26, 2018, the South Carolina Supreme Court has repeatedly held that mailing does not constitute filing. See, e.g., In re Estate of Cretzmeyer, 365 S.C. 12, 14, 615 S.E.2d 116, 116 (2005) (holding that probate ruling was not timely appealed even though appellant placed her notice of appeal in the mail the day after entry of the order); Gary v. State, 347 S.C. 627, 629, 557 S.E.2d 662, 663 (2001) (“It is clear under South Carolina law that mailing does not constitute filing.”). A Notice of Appeal “is filed when delivered to and received by the proper officer.” Gary, supra. Appellants did not timely file their Second Notice of Appeal because the Court of Appeals did not receive the Second Notice of Appeal until – at the earliest – November 27, 2018, and the Circuit Court did not receive the Second Notice of Appeal until November 29, 2018.

Rule 203 states, “If the notice of appeal is not timely filed or the filing fee is not paid in full, the appeal shall be dismissed, and shall not be reinstated except as provided by Rule 260.” Rule 203(d)(3), SCACR. Therefore, the Court should dismiss the appeal in its entirety as it pertains to Respondents.

CONCLUSION

Appellants’ Second Notice of Appeal was not timely filed with this Court. Accordingly, this Court should grant Respondents’ Motion to Dismiss Appellants’ appeal, with prejudice, for failure to comply with the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

MOTION TO COMPEL OR, IN THE ALTERNATIVE, MOTION TO DISMISS
FOR FAILURE TO PROSECUTE

TO: HEIDI GERSTEN, PRO SE, AND TO IVANKA AYOUB, PRO SE:

YOU WILL PLEASE TAKE NOTICE, that the Defendant Kevin Carter, by his undersigned attorney, will move before the Presiding Judge of the Chester County Court of Common Pleas on the tenth (10th) day after service hereof, or as soon thereafter as counsel may be heard, for an Order pursuant to Rule 37 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, compelling the Plaintiffs to answer Defendant's First Set of Interrogatories and First Set of Requests for Production served upon the Plaintiffs Heidi Gersten and Ivanka Ayoub and to provide dates for depositions or, in the alternative, an Order pursuant to Rules 37 and 41(b) dismissing this action pursuant due to the Plaintiffs' failure to prosecute this action.

SUMMARY

Plaintiffs filed this action in the early part of 2018. Plaintiffs initially named a number of other Defendants, all of whom were subsequently dismissed in a series of Orders entered by this Court entered in September of 2018.

Plaintiffs Ivanka Ayoub and Heidi Gersten filed a Notice of Appeal to the South Carolina

Court of Appeals and the Court of Appeals ultimately dismissed the Appeal on May 14, 2019 as a result of Plaintiffs' repeated failure to comply with Court Orders.

Plaintiffs then filed a Petition for Writ of Certiorari to the South Carolina Supreme Court which was also denied. The Remittitur to this Court followed.

On June 29, 2020, Defendant Kevin Carter served his first set of Interrogatories and Requests for Production on Plaintiffs. (Attached as Exhibit 1). Pursuant to Rules 33 and 34, SCRCP, Plaintiffs were required to respond to those discovery requests by July 29, 2020. As of the date of this filing, no responses have been provided to date, and no extensions have been requested.

On August 13, 2020, counsel for Kevin Carter sent letters to Plaintiffs asking that they provide responses to the discovery within ten (10) days and also asking for a list of available days in September to take Plaintiffs' depositions. (Attached as Exhibit 2). Ten days have passed, and Plaintiffs have neither provided the requested discovery responses nor provided dates of availability for their depositions.

ARGUMENT

A. Motion to Compel

Rule 37, SCRCP, provides:

If a deponent fails to answer a question propounded or submitted under Rule 30 . . . or a party fails to answer an interrogatory submitted under Rule 33, or if a party, in response to requests for inspection submitted under Rule 34, fails to respond . . . the discovering party may move for an order compelling an answer, . . . or an order compelling inspection in accordance with the request."

Rule 37(a)(2), SCRCP. When a party fails to respond to discovery served in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 37(d) permits the Court to enter an order compelling product, "striking out pleadings . . . or dismissing the action or proceeding or any part thereof." See Rule 37(b)(2)(C), SCRCP.

Defendant has properly served Plaintiffs by mail as evidenced by the attached Interrogatories and Requests for Production and accompanying Certificate of Service. More than thirty days have passed, and Plaintiffs have not responded to the discovery. Therefore, Defendant Kevin Carter respectfully asks for entry of an Order compelling responses to the discovery or, in the alternative, an Order striking the Plaintiffs' Complaint pursuant to the remedies permitted by Rule 37(d).

Defendant Carter has also asked for dates for Plaintiffs' depositions. Therefore, Defendant also requests an Order compelling Plaintiffs to provide dates of availability to sit for the depositions.

B. Motion to Dismiss for Failure to Prosecute

"The Plaintiff has the burden of prosecuting her action, and the Trial Court may properly dismiss an action for Plaintiff's unreasonable neglect in proceeding with her cause." McComas v. Ross, 368 SC 59, 62, 626 S.E.2nd 902, 904 (Ct. App. 2006) (citations omitted)". Dismissal of cases for failure to prosecute are "imposed to maintain the orderly disposition of cases in the face of repeated warnings to the offending party or multiple opportunities to proceed with trial, and only then upon a finding of unreasonable neglect." Id. "In granting dismissal for failure to prosecute, there must be some showing of indifference to the rights of the Defendant." Id. (citation omitted).

Plaintiffs' appeal before the Court of Appeals was dismissed due to Plaintiffs' repeated failure to comply with orders of the Court of Appeals. Once again, Plaintiffs are now before this Court failing to comply with the Rules of Civil Procedure by not responding to discovery requests and failing to provide dates for their depositions. Defendant has been required to participate in a lawsuit since the beginning of 2018, including litigating the matter on appeal before the Court of Appeals and Supreme Court. Plaintiffs' failure to respond to written discovery, to provide deposition dates, or to otherwise pursue the prosecution of this action justifies entry of an Order dismissing this case as authorized by both Rule 41 and Rule 37.

Rule 41(b) authorizes the Court to dismiss a case involuntarily “for failure of the plaintiff to prosecute or to comply with these rules or any order of the Court...” Rule 41(b), SCRCP. Plaintiffs cannot file a lawsuit and thereby chain a Defendant to a civil action without any apparent intent or effort to prosecute the case. Rule 41(b) is designed to give this Court discretion to dismiss a case and relieve a defendant when it becomes apparent that a plaintiff has failed to comply with this Court’s orders and is taking no steps to prosecute an action. This is that time.

Moreover, Rule 37 authorizes the Court to strike Plaintiffs’ Complaint for their failure to comply with discovery requests. Rule 37(e) and Rule 37(b)(2)(C), SCRCP. Plaintiffs have been served with discovery requests, have received reminders from counsel for Defendant, and continue to fail to respond. Thus, Rule 37 authorizes this Court to dismiss the case for Plaintiffs’ failure to comply with the Rules of Civil Procedure.

Plaintiffs have disregarded the orders of the Court of Appeals and this Court’s Rules of Civil Procedure by failing to respond to discovery requests served by Defendant and failing to provide deposition dates. Plaintiffs’ willful disregard of the Rules of Civil Procedure make it apparent that Plaintiffs have no intention of prosecuting this matter. Therefore, this action should be dismissed for failure to prosecute.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, Defendant respectfully requests that the Court grant its Motion and either enter an Order compelling Plaintiffs to respond to the written discovery requests and to provide dates for depositions or, in the alternative, enter an Order striking Plaintiffs’ Complaint and dismissing this action pursuant to Rule 37(d), SCRCP, and Rule 41(b), SCRCP. This Motion is supported by the arguments contained herein and the supporting documentation attached as Exhibits hereto.

Good day to you, Mr. Sawyer. I hope this email finds you well.

Unfortunately, I am not.

I left you a voicemail on Tuesday, July 26, 2022 regarding a continuance for today.

The attached document has been sent to Honorable Judge Hayes. It further explains my position.

I would like you and I to agree to emails as a form of service as recently approved by the South Carolina Supreme Court.

I would like your approval of a continuance of today's hearing for the reasons set in the attached paperwork.

We can amiably get this case prepared for trial. We have always had friendly interactions.

I need a few weeks to recover.

Thank you for your kind consideration.

Respectfully,

Heidi Gersten

Mr. Sawyer, I'm surprised that you feel this way and disappointed in your response that is misleading. There were continuances filed by the Plaintiffs, however, not ever ruled on or granted in the trial court. Any cancellation of hearings in the trial Court was always made by the trial Court; something the Plaintiffs have no control over. The Appellate Court is complex. Any continuance granted in that Court was found to be worthy. The years that have passed in between was due to Covid-19; something the Plaintiffs also had no control over, just as I have no control over my bowels. It saddens me to know that you would prefer that I proceed soaked in urine and feces.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE, now come the Plaintiffs Heidi Gersten and Ivanka Ayoub (now deceased) with this EMERGENCY and respectfully object to the scheduled telephonic hearing of July 28, 2022, and move this Court for an Order of continuance of the above said scheduled hearing beyond the scheduled date of July 28, 2022, no sooner than sixty (60) days after and in support of same, state the following grounds:

1. July 19, 2022, the Plaintiff Heidi Gersten received an email from Rachel Johnson, Common Pleas Clerk, Chester County Clerk of Court regarding a virtual hearing scheduled for July 28, 2022, even though the Plaintiffs have not ever consented to receiving service of court documents by email. (Exhibit A)

2. The case was listed as 2018-CP-12-00117 Gersten v Carter, which is not the correct names of plaintiffs and defendants in this matter, in addition to not including case #2018-AP-12-00074. (Exhibit A)
3. It had no list of what motions would be heard on the said date. (Exhibit A)
4. An example of a previous written notice of hearing from the Chester County Clerk of Court in this matter listed the motions that would be heard, in addition to naming the correct plaintiffs and defendants and was mailed to the Plaintiff's address listed on court documents in the case file with attached proof of service. (Exhibit B)
5. May 6, 2022, the South Carolina Supreme Court issued an order, 2022-05-06-04 RE: Service by E-Mail in the Trial Courts, Appellate Case No. 2022-000029. (Exhibit C)
6. It states in part (d) E-Mail Service By and On Self-Represented Litigants. A self-represented litigant who is not a lawyer admitted to practice in this state may consent in writing to be served by e-mail and designate a correct e-mail address for service. A lawyer may consent in writing to accept service by e-mail from a self-represented litigant.
7. The Plaintiffs may consent to being served under the condition that all Defendants in this case agree in writing to accept service by e-mail from the Plaintiffs.
8. The Plaintiff Gersten is paralyzed as a result of a collision with one of the named Defendants, Kevin Carter.

9. Secondary complications to being paralyzed are pressure wounds.
10. The Plaintiff Gersten suffers from an extraordinary pressure wound located on her left buttocks, that prevents her from sitting down very long without further injury to it, since near the beginning of being paralyzed in 2015. (Exhibit D)
11. Through the years, the Plaintiff Gersten has participated in numerous medical and homeopathic treatments on her journey to get this deadly life-threatening illness of a pressure wound to close. It heals better when she stays off of it, which requires her laying on the opposite side. She's mostly bedridden because of it. It is hard to imagine staying in one position for as many years as she has.
12. March 13, 2020, President Trump announced a state of emergency in regard to the novel coronavirus, a.k.a. Covid-19. Everyone was affected differently because of it.
13. Near the end of 2020, The Plaintiff Gersten managed to finally get the wound to close and weeks later, she was assaulted in the lobby of an apartment building she lived in, in Florida, thus, the start of a separate ongoing legal action in addition to the instant matter in Chester County, South Carolina, and the reopening of her wound that to this day has not closed.
14. In December of 2020, the Plaintiffs received notice of another court date in Chester County. (Exhibit B) It was canceled by the Court.
15. The Plaintiff Gersten became aware that another court date and judge was being sought sometime in June of 2022.
16. Sometime before July 18, 2022, the Plaintiff Gersten ripped her wound open more than it was through transferring into her wheelchair. In order for the wound to heal properly, she should not sit on it for more than an hour at a time.

(Exhibits 1, 2)

17. July 18, 2022, the Defendant Gersten participated in a telephonic Florida hearing.
18. July 21, 2022, the Plaintiff Gersten attended an in-person scheduled mediation on another matter in another state that lasted 4 ½ hours, which was not anticipated by her, causing her wound further injury.
19. July 26, 2022, the Defendant Gersten began to feel lightheaded and sick, experiencing 'hot flashes' and severe back and leg pain because of her wound. She is always seeking different help with it because nothing seems to heal it completely, other than laying on one side, endlessly, until it closes.
20. The Defendant Gersten has no caregiver, assistant, or aid.
21. Under South Carolina law, the Defendant Gersten is a 'vulnerable adult'. "[A] person eighteen years of age or older who has a physical or mental condition which substantially impairs the person from adequately providing for his or her own care or protection...
22. The Defendant Gersten is competent.
23. The Defendant Gersten is a qualified individual of and protected under the Americans with Disabilities Act ('ADA'). The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) requires that reasonable accommodations be provided on request to qualified persons with disabilities in order that they might fully participate in court programs, services, activities, and benefits: and it is presumed that the intent of the judiciary is to comply fully with the ADA, to assure equity, fairness, and full participation in the judicial system for persons with disabilities, and to facilitate provision of reasonable accommodations when requested by qualified persons with disabilities

24. Pursuant to Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act, Courts will make reasonable modifications in policies, practices, and procedures. Title II of the ADA permits reasonable modification requests. Put simply, all law, rules, orders, statutes, procedures, practices, policies, contracts, as an example, can be modified to accommodate the Defendant Gersten, due to her disability of being paralyzed.

25. July 26, 2022, after realizing that her usual symptoms, occurring since the beginning of being paralyzed and developing an illness of a pressure wound, the Plaintiff Gersten called the Defendant Carter's attorney Wesley Sawyers to find out how he would feel about a continuance. She got a voice mail and left a message.

26. July 27, 2022, the Plaintiff Gersten began to feel nauseous, and her stomach felt like she was getting sick, something she experiences periodically ever since being paralyzed. Later after laying down in an attempt to feel better, she began to have a diarrhea explosion that lasted for hours. As she was relieving her bowels, she realized that there was no way she could participate in a court hearing under these conditions. She began to take pictures to document what she was going through because she knew that getting a continuance is at a judge's discretion.

After years of time had gone by between the last hearing in this case, she thought that she may not be believed. As graphic as it is to show, the Defendant Gersten found it important to prove that she was not making this up. Without an aid, caregiver, or assistant, it is beyond words to describe what she goes through at times. Bathing in her own urine and feces, as she attempts to clean herself, all the while the explosions of diarrhea continuously flow. She must then make sure that her wound remains clean, as she cares for it simultaneously. It is exhausting, to say the least. Writing this document has taken over five (5) hours to produce. The mess from this last episode is everywhere and will take her days to clean. The smell is enough to knock her out. She will need to wash linens, scrub the floor, wipe down her wheelchair, clean her body, and take out the trash. Sounds simple to an able-bodied person. If she lived in South Carolina, she would ask the Court for some help. (Exhibits 3, 4, 5)

27. As a good faith offering, she will attend the scheduled hearing to orally follow up on this continuance, however, she will not be able to have a meaningful discussion under the conditions previously mentioned. It is now 4:20 a.m. and the Defendant Gersten feels dirty, gross, and is in so much pain, as she found it more important to get this paperwork finished and then served than to finish cleaning or tending to her wound since her last diarrhea episode.
28. For the previous reasons, a continuance should be granted.
29. The Defendant Carter will not be prejudiced.

30. The Plaintiff Gersten suggests that the Defendant Carter's attorney communicate with her and agree to being served through email for ease of the claim.
31. The Plaintiff Gersten would like to set another hearing on the Plaintiffs' motions, which there are more than listed in the Court's email sent to her on July 26, 2022, again without her written consent of service
32. All named defendants are required to attend any hearing on her motions because they are listed parties to the action. To do otherwise, would be considered an ex parte hearing.
33. This request and/or motion for continuance is not made for purposes of delay.
34. A trial date has not been set yet.
35. If granted, this would be the first continuance granted to the Plaintiffs.
36. With the recent 'virtual' or 'telephonic' hearings being used by the courts, as an ADA reasonable accommodation request, which has been granted numerous times in Florida courts, the Defendant Gersten would like an agreement that motion hearings will be set up one at a time. This would make the hearings shorter and less complex, as well as keep the case moving, in addition to the Defendant Gersten staying off of her pressure wound.
37. The clarification that the Defendant Gersten would like to be made is procedural.
- A. Is she permitted to efile as a non-attorney?
  - B. If yes, what is the process?
  - C. When serving documents to Judge Hayes' email, is that that the same as filing?
  - D. Is emailing to the Chester County Clerk of Courts the same as filing?

38. Permitting the Defendant Gersten to file online is another Americans with Disabilities reasonable modification request.

39. If an affidavit is required to be made in support by the Defendant Gersten, kindly let her know and give her a reasonable opportunity to produce one.

FORE THE FOREGOING REASONS, AN ORDER OF A CONTINUANCE OF THE HEARING OF JULY 28, 2022, SHOULD BE GRANTED AND A NEW HEARING SCHEDULED NOT LESS THAN SIXTY (60) DAYS BE SET IN THE INTEREST OF JUSTICE AND TO PREVENT ITS MISCARRIAGE.

Respectfully submitted,

DATED: July 28, 2022

Service by EMail in the Trial Courts

Appellate Case No. 2022-000029

2022-05-06-04

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

RE: Service by E-Mail in the Trial Courts

Appellate Case No. 2022-000029

ORDER

a) Purpose. Pursuant to Rule 613 of the South Carolina Appellate Courts Rules (SCACR), the Supreme Court may promulgate an order setting forth permissible methods of electronic service in the trial courts, including by e-mail.<sup>1</sup> The purpose of this order is to provide a uniform rule for service by e-mail in the various trial courts of this state.

(b) E-Mail as Additional Method of Service. In addition to the methods of service that may be provided for in the rules governing service of pleadings and other papers in the circuit, family, probate, and summary courts of this state, pleadings and other papers may be served by e-mail pursuant to the provisions of this order.

(c) E-Mail Service on Lawyers. A lawyer admitted to practice law in this state may serve a pleading or other paper on another lawyer admitted to practice law in this state by e-mail using that lawyer's primary e-mail address listed in the Attorney Information System (AIS). The primary e-mail address for a lawyer admitted in South Carolina can be accessed utilizing the Attorney Information Search at: <https://www.sccourts.org/attorneys/dspSearchAttorneys.cfm>. Lawyers are reminded of their obligation under Rule 410(g) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR) to ensure their AIS information is current and accurate at all times.

(d) E-Mail Service By and On Self-Represented Litigants. A self-represented litigant who is not a lawyer admitted to practice in this state may consent in writing to be served by e-mail and designate a correct e-mail address for service. A lawyer may consent in writing to accept service by e-mail from a self-represented litigant.

(e) Requirements for Service. In all cases:

(1) E-mail service under this order is intended for the service of pleadings and other papers subsequent to the initiation of a case, and may not be used for the service of a summons and complaint, subpoena, or other pleading or document required to be personally served under any rule of court. However, this provision does not prohibit a party from consenting to accept such service by e-mail or other electronic means.

(2) Pleadings and papers served by e-mail must be sent as an attachment in Adobe Acrobat portable document format (.pdf) unless otherwise agreed by the parties. In the absence of consent, a party serving a document may not utilize another file format or a file-sharing service for e-mail service.

(3) Service by e-mail under this order is complete upon transmission of the e-mail. If the serving party learns the e-mail did not reach the intended recipient(s), the party shall immediately provide a copy of the pleading or paper by other means set forth in the applicable court rule, together with evidence of the prior attempt at service by e-mail.

(4) E-Mail service under this order may not be utilized for documents that are required to be E-Filed in accordance with Section 2 of the South Carolina Electronic Filing Policies and Guidelines, except as to parties that are not authorized E-Fileers. Lawyers are reminded that the E-Filing System automatically serves parties that have appeared in a case, and the Notice of Electronic Filing (NEF) indicates which parties have been served.

(5) In any action governed by the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure (SCRCP), computation of the time for a response after service by e-mail is governed by Rule 6, SCRCP. In accordance with Rule 6(e), SCRCP, service by e-mail will be treated the same as service by U.S. Mail for purposes of determining the time to respond; therefore, five days shall be added to the prescribed period to respond from the date of transmission of the e-mail serving the document.

(6) For attorneys admitted pro hac vice, service on the associated South Carolina lawyer under this method of service shall be construed as service on the pro hac vice attorney; if appropriate, it is the responsibility of the associated lawyer to provide a copy to the pro hac vice attorney.

(f) Proof of Service. Any proof of service of a document that is served by e-mail shall include a copy of the sent e-mail with the proof of service, affidavit of service, or certificate of service for that document.

<sup>1</sup> The Supreme Court similarly permits service by electronic means in matters governed by the SCACR in accordance with 262(c)(3), SCACR, which states that, in addition to service by delivery or via U.S. mail, a party may also serve a copy by electronic means in a manner specified by order of the Supreme Court.

MOTION TO DISMISS CLAIMS OF IVANKA AYOUB

TO: HEIDI GERSTEN, PRO SE, AND TO IVANKA AYOUB, PRO SE:

YOU WILL PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT, the Defendant Kevin Carter, by his undersigned attorney, will move before the Presiding Judge of the Chester County Court of Common Pleas on the tenth (10th) day after service hereof, or as soon thereafter as counsel may be heard, for an order pursuant to Rule 25 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure dismissing the claims of Ivanka Ayoub due to the failure of any party to move for substitution on behalf of her estate within a reasonable time after her death. The basis for this Motion is set forth below.

PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

As the Court is aware, this consolidated action began as two separate proceedings arising out of an automobile collision that took place on or about March 19, 2015. On or about February 21, 2018, Plaintiff Heidi Gersten filed a Summons and Claim for Property Damage under the property damage arbitration statute. Ivanka Ayoub was not listed on the Summons or the Claim.

Plaintiff Heidi Gersten filed the pending personal injury action on March 16, 2018. Ivanka Ayoub is listed as a plaintiff on the caption. Although Ayoub did not sign the Summons, the Complaint purports to bear her signature. As to Ayoub, the March 16, 2018 Complaint attempted to assert a cause of action for loss of filial consortium, among numerous other claims. The March 16, 2018 Complaint named numerous additional defendants.

On March 27, 2018 – after the statute of limitations expired – Plaintiffs filed a First Amended Claim for Property Damage Verified, which purported to add Ivanka Ayoub as a plaintiff to the property damage arbitration claim.

On April 26, 2018, the Honorable Brian M. Gibbons entered a Form 4 Order consolidating the two cases and placing them on the Common Pleas docket. (April 26, 2018, Order). On May 8, 2018, Plaintiffs Gersten and Ayoub moved to alter or amend the April 26, 2018 Order.

Kevin Carter and various other defendants filed motions to dismiss, among other motions. On September 19, 2018, the Honorable John C. Hayes, III, entered an Order dismissing all claims against Defendant Richard Davis and dismissing Ayoub's loss of consortium claim against Defendant Carter. (September 19, 2018 Order, p. 5). As a result of the September 19, 2018 Order, Ayoub's only remaining claim was one for property damage against Defendant Carter. (September 19, 2018 Order, p. 7, ¶ 4). The Circuit Court withheld ruling on the statute of limitations issue and noted that Carter could file a separate motion on that issue in the future.<sup>1</sup> Through a series of other orders, the Circuit Court dismissed all the other named defendants and dismissed all claims of Plaintiff Daniel Hubbard.

Plaintiffs Gersten and Ayoub moved to alter or amend the Circuit Court's various dismissal orders.<sup>2</sup> On October 16, 2018, the Court entered a Form 4 Order, denying the motions to reconsider

<sup>2</sup> The Motion to Reconsider identified a September 5, 2018 order. The hearing on the various motions took place on September 5, 2018. At the end of the hearing, Judge John Hayes indicated how he intended to rule and requested proposed orders. No written order was entered on September 5, 2018.

the “September 5, 2018” order. Plaintiffs Gersten and Ayoub then appealed. Their appeal was ultimately dismissed for failure to comply with orders from the Court of Appeals. The Court of Appeals denied a motion to reinstate or to rehear, and the Supreme Court ultimately denied Plaintiffs’ Petition for Writ of Certiorari.

After the case was remanded to this Court, Defendant Carter served written discovery on Ayoub and Gersten. On August 26, 2020, when Plaintiffs failed to respond to the discovery requests and failed to respond to follow up letters, Defendant filed a Motion to Compel or, in the Alternative, Motion to Dismiss for Failure to Prosecute. That Motion was scheduled to be heard on July 28, 2022.

On July 28, 2022, the Court held a hearing via WebEx.<sup>3</sup> During the hearing, Plaintiff Gersten stated that Ivanka Ayoub passed away on or about January 11, 2022. Ms. Gersten is Ivanka Ayoub’s daughter. Counsel for the undersigned has been unable to locate an obituary to confirm this date, but he has no reason to dispute the information provided by Ms. Ayoub’s daughter.

ARGUMENT

Under Rule 25, SCRCP, when a party dies and the party’s claim is not extinguished by her death, then “[i]f substitution is not made within a reasonable time, the action may be dismissed as to the deceased person.” Rule 25(a)(1), SCRCP; see Hillman v. Pinion, 347 S.C. 253, 258, 554 S.E.2d 427, 430 (Ct. App. 2001) (“[R]ule [25] specifically provides for the dismissal of a deceased party where substitution of the proper parties does not occur within a reasonable amount of time.”) (emphasis in original). “Rule 25(a)(1) is substantially the same as Federal Rule 25(a). In the Federal Rule the motion for substitution is to be made within 90 days after notice of death is suggested upon

---

<sup>3</sup> Shortly before the hearing, Plaintiff Heidi Gersten submitted an “Emergency Notice of Objection to and Request/or Motion for Order for Continuance of Scheduled Telephonic Hearing.” The Court granted Plaintiff Gersten’s Motion for Continuance, and the pending motions have been rescheduled to be heard on August 18, 2022.

the record. This Rule substitutes ‘a reasonable time’ after such knowledge is obtained.” Notes, Rule 25, SCRCp.

The standard under the Federal Rule for a timely motion to substitute is 90 days. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 25. As of the filing of this Motion, more than 180 days have passed since Ms. Ayoub’s death – twice the time set forth in the Federal Rule – and no one has moved to be substituted. Therefore, substitution has not occurred “within a reasonable time,” and dismissal is proper.

WHEREFORE, for the reasons set forth above, in addition to the reasons raised in Defendant Kevin Carter’s prior Motion to Compel or, in the Alternative, Motion to Dismiss, Defendant Kevin Carter respectfully requests that this Court grant his Motion to Dismiss Plaintiff Ivanka Ayoub’s claim pursuant to Rule 25(a)(1), SCRCp.

CLERK OF COURT
 CHESTER CO S.C.
 2018 AUG 22 PM 4:10

Now come Plaintiffs Heidi Gersten, Ivanka Ayoub, Daniel Hubbard, pursuant to SCRPC Rule 40 that permits this response, with this timely objection and opposition, pursuant to SCRPC Rule 15, to the designation of File No: 2018-CP-12-00117 to the Nonjury Docket and its scheduled court date of September 5, 2018 as well as being subjected to trial on September 5, 2018 and move this Court for an Order transferring File No: 2018-CP-12-00117 to the appropriate Docket and out of the Nonjury Docket and striking the fore-mentioned court date or in the alternative a motion for continuance of the said court date for the Nonjury related issues only and not for trial or arbitration and a scheduling order for an arbitration for File No:
 2018-AP-12-00074 pursuant to Title 38, Chapter 77, Article 7 of the South

Carolina Code of Laws.

The reasons for these objections, oppositions and motions are stated in the attached Memorandum In Support.

Respectfully submitted,

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF MOTIONS TO TRANSFER TO THE APPROPRIATE
DOCKET, TO STRIKE COURT DATE OF SEPTEMBER 5, 2018 AND PLAINTIFFS'
OBJECTION AND OPPOSITION TO SAID COURT DATE AND NONJURY TRIAL ROSTER DESIGNATION

Statement of Facts

The arbitration for property damage, File No: 2018-AP-12-00074, due to a motor vehicle incident was filed pursuant to Title 38, Chapter 77, Article 7 of the South Carolina Code of Laws on February 21, 2018 and 2018-CP-12-00117 was filed with a Demand for Jury Trial on March 19, 2018.

August 13, 2018, the Plaintiffs' learned about the 'Notice of Case Scheduling' dated August 7, 2018 via U.S.P.S. mail stamped August 8, 2018.

This notice designates that the Roster ID: 94 – CP is listed as Non-Jury. Plaintiffs are unaware of what GS Non-Jury means and do not understand its notation.

In this said notice, it states that, "ALL cases on this Roster are subject to trial."

The Plaintiffs hereby object to the designation of Nonjury of File No: 2018-CP-12-00117 as this action was filed with a Demand for Jury Trial. This matter is not ripe for trial. There are plenty of issues of material fact left to settle.

The Plaintiffs seek a continuance should the court not grant their other motions or sustain their objections for the following reasons.

Law and Argument

SCRCP Rule 40(d)(1) states in part, "Agreement or Objection. No earlier than 180 days after the date the case was filed, any party may file and serve upon all other parties a Request to Transfer that case from the General Docket to the Jury Trial Roster..."

This action was filed on March 19, 2018 and 180 days after this date is September 12, 2018. The fore-mentioned court date of September 5 is 7 days premature of this rule's requirement of days before a case may be transferred to the Jury Trial Roster.

No request to transfer has been made by any party in this action.

Due to the numerous defendants, Defendants have been timely served at different dates, the last being July 15, 2018.

Discovery has not been completed.

Plaintiffs still have time to serve and file an amended complaint pursuant to SCRCP Rule 15(a), which states in part, "A party may amend his pleading once as a matter of course at any time before or within 30 days after a responsive pleading is served..."

SCRCP Rule 40(b) states in part, "...A case may not be called for trial until it has been transferred to the Jury Trial Roster. Trial shall be had no earlier than 30 days from the date the case first appears on the Jury Trial Roster..."

SCRCP Rule 40(c) states in part, "Transfer to Jury Trial Roster by Agreement. A case may be moved from the General Docket to the Jury Trial Roster at any time by agreement of all counsel of record..."

SCRCP Rule 40(d)(1) states in part, "Agreement or Objection. No earlier than 180 days after the date the case was filed, any party may file and serve upon all other parties a Request to Transfer that case from the General Docket to the Jury Trial Roster..."

This action was filed on March 19, 2018 and 180 days after this date is September 12, 2018. The fore-mentioned court date of September 5 is 7 days premature of this rule's requirement of days before a case may be transferred to the Jury Trial Roster.

No request to transfer has been made by any party in this action.

This is a timely filing of the Plaintiffs' position to object to this above-mentioned hearing date.

SCRCP Rule 40(d)(1)(b) states in part, "If any party files an Objection to Transfer, the case may not be transferred to the Jury Trial Roster within 9 months of filing of the complaint..."

Since the Plaintiffs are hereby objecting to this scheduled court date of September 5, 2018 pursuant to SCRCP Rule 40(d)(1)(b), this matter may not be transferred to the Jury Trial Roster before December 14, 2018.

Due to the Plaintiff Heidi Gersten's pressure wound worsening and the anticipated 9 hour travel time in either direction from Florida to South Carolina, along with the challenge of securing someone to transport her under such short notice to make plans as she is paralyzed as the result of the said incident and Plaintiff Ivanka Ayoub is also disabled and they are relevant with first-hand knowledge of the March 19, 2015, a continuance is proper for them to have adequate time to prepare and subpoena witnesses and documents, etc. for the arbitration of File No: 2018-AP-12-00074 should the court issue a scheduling order.

In the absence of a designation as jury or nonjury, the matter is placed on the Nonjury Docket, subject to a motion to transfer.

The Plaintiffs do not consent to this file No: 2018-CP-000117 being placed on the Court's Nonjury Roster.

The Plaintiffs do not consent to trial on September 5, 2018.

The Plaintiffs do not consent to arbitration on September 5, 2018.

The Plaintiffs agree to motions only hearing as it appears that the granting of arbitration is subject the outcome of the motions.

This is not created to cause delay but in the interest and furtherance of justice.

CONCLUSION

For the above-stated reasons File No: 2018-CP-12-00117 should be transferred out of the Nonjury Docket and into the Appropriate Docket, the court date of September 5, 2018 should be stricken or a continuance granted.

TO THE HONORABLE SOUTH CAROLINA COURT OF APPEALS:

NOW COMES, Heidi Gersten, Ivanka Ayoub, Daniel Hubbard ('Appellants') and respectfully move this Court, pursuant to Rules 240 and 263, SCACR, for an extension of time to file their initial brief in this court. The reasons for this motion are set forth in the attached Memorandum in Support.

Respectfully submitted,

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO EXTEND TIME TO FILE PLAINTIFF/APPELLANT'S INITIAL BRIEF

As grounds therefore, the Appellants show the following good cause:

1. The Appellants brief is currently due to be filed on December 17, 2018.
2. The Appellant Gersten was paralyzed as a result of the collision in controversy in this matter. She has no caregiver or physical help with daily functions like bowel movements, bathing, eating and other regular activities able-bodied people perform. She lives under extraordinary circumstances.
3. The Appellant Ayoub is also disabled and unable to give proper care for her daughter,
4. the Appellant Gersten.
5. The Appellant Hubbard is located over 1000 miles away from his sister, the Appellant Gersten, and is unable to give proper care for her.
6. Despite the extraordinary circumstances the Appellant Gersten lives with, she has been diligently working on this appeal and has already prepared a significant part of the Appellant's brief however this appeal has been disrupted by the fact that on Thanksgiving, November 22, 2018, the wheel to her manual wheelchair fell off while she was sitting in it. It took hours of her crawling to her bed dragging the broken wheelchair with her to "jimmy" it well enough for her to slowly get to her computer, located across the room, to order a replacement, which took several days to receive and was not to her liking once it arrived, as it is challenging to order the proper wheelchair on-line without "test driving" it first. She is currently in the process of repairing the one that broke, using the new uncomfortable one in the meantime, waiting for the parts to come in for the broken one.

7. The Appellant Gersten also has a pressure wound on her left butt cheek the size of a quarter which prevents her from sitting up for more than a few hours at a time.
8. The Appellants are not South Carolina residents.
9. This may be considered excusable neglect.
10. The Doctrine of Equitable Tolling as well as Title II of the American Disabilities Act permit this Court to grant an extension of time for such axiomatic situations.
11. The due date of this brief comes at a time around major holidays.
12. This request is not unheard of.
13. This request is made before the expiration of the time the brief is due.
14. The Appellants prefer not to have to file a Motion for Reinstatement, which would more than likely be granted given the extraordinary circumstances and good cause shown.
15. RULE 263, SCACR, TIME(b) Extending and Diminishing Time Prescribed by These Rules. The time prescribed by these Rules for performing any act except the time for serving the notice of appeal under Rules 203 and 243 may be extended or shortened by the appellate court, or by any judge or justice thereof. The time prescribed by these Rules for performing any act or taking any action may not be extended by agreement of the parties.
16. Unlike the case of WADE V. GORE, 151 S.E. 470 (S.C. 1930), the Appellants are requesting this extension before the expiration of the date the brief is due.
17. The South Carolina Supreme Court recently adopted this doctrine. HOOPER V. EBENEZER SR. SERVS. & REHAB. CTR., 386 S.C. 108, 687 S.E.2D 29 (2009). The court explained the doctrine of equitable tolling may be applied to toll the running of the statute of limitations “to serve the ends of justice where technical forfeitures would unjustifiably prevent a trial on the merits.” Id. at 115, 687 S.E.2D AT 32. The court explained:

THE EQUITABLE POWER OF A COURT IS NOT BOUND BY CAST-IRON RULES BUT EXISTS TO DO FAIRNESS AND IS FLEXIBLE AND ADAPTABLE TO PARTICULAR EXIGENCIES SO THAT RELIEF WILL BE GRANTED WHEN, IN VIEW OF ALL THE CIRCUMSTANCES, TO DENY IT WOULD PERMIT ONE PARTY TO SUFFER A GROSS WRONG AT THE HANDS OF THE OTHER. EQUITABLE TOLLING MAY BE APPLIED WHERE IT IS JUSTIFIED UNDER ALL THE CIRCUMSTANCES.

If the Doctrine of Equitable Tolling may be applied to the Statute of Limitations, surely it can be applied to an extension of time to file a brief, such as in this matter.

THEREFORE, having shown good cause, the Appellants respectfully request and move the Court for an extension of time to, and including, February 15, 2018; an extension of sixty (60) days from the date of December 17, 2018, to allow enough time to correctly and competently complete the Appellant’s Brief.

This motion is not made to cause undue delay. It is made in the furtherance of justice and to prevent its miscarriage.

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE APPELLANTS'
CORRECTION TO COURT NOTED DEFICIENCIES IN RETURN ALONG WITH AMMEDED RETURN

TO THE HONORABLE SOUTH CAROLINA COURT OF APPEALS:

NOW COMES, Heidi Gersten, Ivanka Ayoub, ('Appellants') and respectfully move this Court, pursuant to Rules 240 and 263, SCACR, for an extension of time to file their correction to the Court's noted deficiencies in their timely filed Return to the Respondent Interinsurance Exchange of the Automobile Club ('AAA')'s Motion to Dismiss along with their Ammeded

Return in this court. The reasons for this motion are set forth in the attached Memorandum in Support.

Respectfully submitted,

DATED: February 4, 2019

Appellants Heidi Gersten & Ivanka Ayoub
1438 W. Lantana Rd. #330

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO EXTEND TIME TO FILE APPELLANTS' CORRECTION TO COURT NOTED DEFICIENCIES IN RETURN ALONG WITH AMMENDED RETURN

As grounds therefore, the Appellants show the following good cause:

1. The Appellants received a letter from the Court dated January 25, 2019 on February 4, 2019 instructing a mandatory list of corrections to be made to their Return of the Respondent AAA's Motion to Dismiss.
2. The Appellants did not receive an appellate case number until after the Return was filed.
3. The appellate case number that Respondent AAA listed in their Motion to Dismiss is incorrect however the Appellants are unaware of a similar notice to cure served on them by the Court as sent to the Appellants for this same reason.
4. The original Return filed by the Appellants was timely due to the fact that the Respondent AAA had not provided the proper court filing fees at the initial time of serving and filing their Motion to Dismiss. The Court sent them a ten (10) day letter to cure this defect which was corrected by the Respondent AAA on January 2019. The Appellants based their due date of their Return from the date of perfection and not from the improperly filed date.
5. The Appellant Gersten was paralyzed as a result of the collision in controversy in this matter. She has no caregiver or physical help with daily functions like bowel movements, bathing, eating and other regular activities able-bodied people perform. She lives under extraordinary circumstances.
6. The Appellant Ayoub is also disabled and unable to give proper care for her daughter, the Appellant Gersten.
7. Despite the extraordinary circumstances the Appellant Gersten lives with, she has been diligently working on this appeal with Appellant Ayoub. Given that the notice for correction was received on the tenth day of the 10 days allowed to cure, the Appellants request an additional ten (10) days to comply, which would be February 14, 2019.

8. The Appellant Gersten also has a pressure wound on her left buttocks the size of a quarter which prevents her from sitting up for more than a few hours at a time.
9. The Appellants are not South Carolina residents.
10. This may be considered excusable neglect.
11. The Doctrine of Equitable Tolling as well as Title II of the American Disabilities Act permit this Court to grant an extension of time for such axiomatic situations.
12. This request is not unheard of.
13. This request is made before the expiration of the time due.
14. The Appellants prefer not to file a Motion for Reinstatement, which would more than likely be granted given the extraordinary circumstances and good cause shown.
15. RULE 263, SCACR, TIME(b) Extending and Diminishing Time Prescribed by These Rules. The time prescribed by these Rules for performing any act except the time for serving the notice of appeal under Rules 203 and 243 may be extended or shortened by the appellate court, or by any judge or justice thereof. The time prescribed by these Rules for performing any act or taking any action may not be extended by agreement of the parties.
16. Unlike the case of WADE V. GORE, 151 S.E. 470 (S.C. 1930), the Appellants are requesting this extension before the expiration of the date due.
17. The South Carolina Supreme Court recently adopted this doctrine. HOOPER V. EBENEZER SR. SERVS. & REHAB. CTR., 386 S.C. 108, 687 S.E.2D 29 (2009). The court explained the doctrine of equitable tolling may be applied to toll the running of the statute of limitations "to serve the ends of justice where technical forfeitures would unjustifiably prevent a trial on the merits." Id. at 115, 687 S.E.2D AT 32. The court explained:

THE EQUITABLE POWER OF A COURT IS NOT BOUND BY CAST-IRON RULES BUT EXISTS TO DO FAIRNESS AND IS FLEXIBLE AND ADAPTABLE TO PARTICULAR EXIGENCIES SO THAT RELIEF WILL BE GRANTED WHEN, IN VIEW OF ALL THE CIRCUMSTANCES, TO DENY IT WOULD PERMIT ONE PARTY TO SUFFER A GROSS WRONG AT THE HANDS OF THE OTHER. EQUITABLE TOLLING MAY BE APPLIED WHERE IT IS JUSTIFIED UNDER ALL THE CIRCUMSTANCES

If the Doctrine of Equitable Tolling may be applied to the Statute of Limitations, surely it can be applied to an extension of time to file corrections to deficiencies, such as in this matter.

THHEREFORE, having shown good cause, the Appellants respectfully request and move the Court for an extension of time to, and including, February 14, 2019; an extension of ten (10) days from the date of December 25, 2019, to allow enough time to correctly and competently complete the Court's instructions.

This motion is not made to cause undue delay. It is made in the furtherance of justice and to prevent its miscarriage.

Respectfully submitted this 4th day of February 2019.

Appellants

The Appellants, Heidi Gersten, Ivanka Ayoub ('Appellants') move this Court for an acceptance of this document as timely and for a denial of the Motion to Dismiss served and filed by the Respondent Interinsurance of the Exchange of the Automobile Club ('Respondent AAA') and perfected on January 7, 2019. Due to insufficient funds submitted by Respondent AAA at its filing and its later correction as per request of this Court's Deputy Clerk, V. Claire Allen ('D.C.'), in a letter dated January 4, 2019, tolling the deadline for the Appellants' response to January 17, 2019.

For these reasons, this Amended Return and/or Objection and/or Opposition and/or Response is therefore timely served and filed according to SCARP, as well as its original for the previously stated reasons. The Appellants hereby move this Court to accept this document as timely.

NOTE: Added to this amended motion since the date of its original creation, D.C., sent a letter dated January 25, 2019, to the Appellants to cure 3 (three) deficiencies, made in opinion against the Appellants' objections, regarding the original version of this timely filed motion. The said letter is interpreted by the Appellants to be defined as;

1. Remove the Appellant Daniel Hubbard's written name from the caption of the motion and further reference to him as an Appellant;
2. The above case number is incorrect however even the said letter states the case number written on the original and this amended version of this document to be the same as written by the Appellants.

NOTE: To the date of this document, the Respondent AAA, in truth and fact, has the incorrect case number on their motion to dismiss however were not instructed by D.C. to correct this error creating prejudice against the Appellants for being instructed to correct an accurate written case number, while the Respondent AAA has not been instructed to correct its incorrect listing of the case number.

3. The Appellants documents are inaccurately determined to be untimely. The Appellants original filing was timely for the reasons previously stated. The Appellants have enclosed $50.00 in court fees against their objection.

The Appellants urge the Court to allow proper communication between the deciding judges of this appeal and the Appellants, as their arguments are not without merit.

The Respondent AAA has grossly misrepresented the record of the Court in its effort to persuade the Court to grant its Motion for Dismissal of Appeal. Respondent AAA asserts 3 (three) grounds for dismissal on page 2 (two) of its Motion for Dismissal of Appeal.

1. The Appellant Daniel Hubbard has not filed or served a Notice of Appeal.
  - A. The Appellants deny the truth of this allegation. Appellant Hubbard's signature is missing. The Court ought to permit an opportunity to correct this as the Court permitted the Respondent AAA to correct its error in submitting the improper court filing fee for said motion. To do otherwise demonstrates prejudice against the Appellants by the Court.
2. The Appellants Gersten and Ayoub have failed to prosecute their appeal by failing to comply with the Appellate Court rules.
  - A. The Appellants deny the truth of this allegation. The Appellants have complied with the Appellate Court rules.
3. The Appellants have not served or filed a notice of Appeal from the Order below dismissing all causes of action against Respondent AAA.
  - A. The Appellants deny the truth of this allegation. The Appellants timely served and filed a notice of Appeal as stated by the Appellate Court rules.

The Appellants' argument will be more fully addressed in the attached Memorandum of Points and Authorities in Support of their objections/or opposition and response.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT OF DENIAL OF DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO DISMISS

I. INTRODUCTION

The Claimant Heidi Gersten filed a complaint for Arbitration # 2018-AP-12-00074 with this Court on February 21, 2018 pursuant to Title 38, Chapter 77, Article 7 of the South Carolina Code of Laws. This is a cause of action to resolve property damage arising out of a motor vehicle collision that occurred in Chester County, South Carolina on March 19, 2015 between the Claimant Heidi Gersten and the Defendant Kevin Carter. The Claimant Ivanka Ayoub is the owner of the Chevrolet Mark III 1500 LX Conversion Van totaled in said collision.

On March 26, 2018, the Defendant Exchange was served the Summons and Claim for Property Damage, the First Amended Claim for Property Damage Verified along with Verification of Heidi Gersten attached with Exhibits A-L and Claimants First Set of Admissions, Interrogatories and Request for Production with attached Exhibits A-G via certified mail pursuant to Rule 4(d)(8), SCRCP through the SC Dept. of Insurance as the agent for service of process.

On April 24, 2018 Attorney Reynolds Williams (S.C. Bar #006153) filed with this Court on behalf of the Defendant Exchange : Notice of Motion and Motion to Dismiss, and served the Claimants.

The Defendant is mistaken in its presentation to the Court for the following reasons:

II. LAW AND ARGUMENT

The Defendant Exchange lists five (5) grounds for their motion.

1. THE ARBITRATION PANEL FOR CHESTER COUNTY LACKS JURISDICTION OVER THE SUBJECT MATTER.

The Claimants deny that the Arbitration Panel of Chester County, South Carolina lacks jurisdiction over the subject matter in controversy.

This is an Alternative Dispute Resolution matter.

Title 38, Chapter 77, Article 7 of the South Carolina Code of Laws SECTION 38-77-730. Request for arbitration; no formal pleading and process; arbitration docket; filing of claim; service of summons to defendant.

(a) Any person who is a party to the disputed property damage liability claim may submit his claim for determination through arbitration. No formal pleading or process is required. The clerk of court of each county shall prepare and keep an arbitration docket and set the cases thereon for arbitration as provided by law for the settling of cases in the court of common pleas.

The above stated law permits the Claimants to redress their grievances in this manner. Arbitration is available without either party waiving their right to a jury trial under standard civil procedure. This arbitration setting is geared for non-attorneys and numerous attorneys place advocacy on their websites for the fairness and understanding of individuals presenting their own matters directly to the arbitrators in this setting.

This procedure is inviolate in bridging the gap between the public and governmental entities. Since it is illegal for attorneys to take property damage claims on contingency under South Carolina law, the five-dollar fee affords the ability to redress grievances and be heard in a court of law and record for this type of subject matter.

It states in Title 38, Chapter 77, Article 7 of the South Carolina Code of Laws SECTION 38-77-710 ...Process and procedure must be as summary and simple as may be reasonable and may provide for the taking of evidence in the form of reports, statements, or itemized bills or in any other manner without the procedural and evidentiary limitations which pertain in jury trials. The court may provide for the taking of depositions of a witness within or without the State.

Subject matter is defined as:

Term refers to court's power to hear and determine cases of the general class or category to which proceedings in question belong; the power to deal with the general subject involved in the action. Standard Oil Co. v. MontecatiniEdis on S. p. A., D.C.Del., 342 F.Supp. 125, 129.

Power of a particular court to hear the type of case that is then before it. Alfaro v. Meagher, 27 Ill.App.3d 292, 326N.E.2d 545, 548. Term refers to jurisdiction of court over class of cases to which particular case belongs, Ferree v. Ferree, 285 Ky. 825, 149 S.W.2d 719, 721; jurisdiction over the nature of the cause of action and relief sought, MidCity Bank & Trust Co. v. Myers, 343 Pa. 465, 23 A.2d 420, 423;

Black's Law Dictionary. HENRY CAMPBELL BLACK, M. A. 1990.

The Arbitration Panel of Chester County has the authority to hear this type of case or controversy the Claimants initiated in its court.

The Claimants are requesting arbitration for property damages arising out of a motor vehicle collision pursuant to Title 38, Chapter 77, Article 7 of the South Carolina code of Laws.

SECTION 38-77-710 states in part, "The court of common pleas, or any inferior courts having concurrent jurisdiction, in and for each county, shall by order of reference appoint an attorney or attorneys to hear and determine, by arbitration, property damage liability claims arising out of motor vehicle collisions or accidents and to award actual and punitive damages..."

Let's examine the meaning of "property damage liability claims". According to Black's Law Dictionary the word "liability" is, "The state of being bound or obliged in law or justice to do, pay, or make good something; legal responsibility." Wood v. Currey, 57 Cal. 209; McElfresh v. Kirkendall, 36 Iowa, 225; Bengé v. Bowling, 100 Ky. 575, 51 S. W. 151; Joslin v. New Jersey Car-Spring Co., 36 N. J. Law, 145.

Liability is the state of being responsible for something, especially by law.

2. THE ARBITRATION PANEL AND COURTS OF SOUTH CAROLINA LACK JURISDICTION OVER THE PERSON OF THE MOVING DEFENDANT

The Claimants deny that the Arbitration Panel and Courts of South Carolina lack jurisdiction over the person of the moving Defendant.

South Carolina Long-Arm Statute S.C. Code Ann. § 36-2-803 § 36-2-803. Personal jurisdiction based upon conduct. (1) A court may exercise personal jurisdiction over a person who acts directly or by an agent as to a cause of action arising from the person's (a) transacting any business in this State; (b) contracting to supply services or things in the State; (c) commission of a tortious act in whole or in part in this State; (d) causing tortious injury or death in this State by an act or omission outside this State if he regularly does or solicits business, or engages in any other persistent course of conduct, or derives substantial revenue from goods used or consumed or services rendered, in this State; or (e) having an interest in, using, or possessing real property in this State; or (f) contracting to insure any person, property or risk located within this State at the time of contracting; or (g) entry into a contract to be performed in whole or in part by either party in this State; or (h) production, manufacture, or distribution of goods with the reasonable expectation that those goods are to be used or consumed in this State and are so used or consumed. (2) When jurisdiction over a person is based solely upon this section, only a cause of action arising from acts enumerated in this section may be asserted against him, and such action, if brought in this State, shall not be subject to the provisions of § 15-7-100 (3).

3. VENUE IN THE ARBITRATION PANEL OF CHESTER COUNTY IS IMPROPER AND INCONVENIENT

The Claimants deny that the venue in the Arbitration Panel of Chester County is improper and inconvenient.

Chester County, South Carolina is where the most substantial part of the cause of action arose therefore the venue is proper.

The venue statute, S.C. Code Ann. § 15-7-30, states in part that, "...a civil action tried pursuant to this section must be brought and tried in the county in which the most substantial part of the alleged act or omission giving rise to the cause of action occurred."

Venue is the place or geographical location of trial. Dove v. Gold Kist, Inc., 314 S.C. 235, 238, 442 S.E.2d 598, 600 (1994); see also In re Asbestosis Cases, 276 S.C. 579, 581, 281 S.E.2d 112, 115 (1981) (noting that "venue" refers to the county where the action should be brought).

4. THE CLAIM FAILS TO STATE FACTS CONSTITUTING A CAUSE OF ACTION.

The Claimants deny that the claim fails to state facts constituting a cause of action.

The liability of the Defendant is at issue. The arbitration statute that this claim is brought under allows any party to the disputed property damage liability claim, which the Claimants are, to submit their claim for determination through arbitration. The statute makes no distinction as to specifics in defining property damage liability. It is commonly accepted that the word liability is synonymous with responsibility. The Claimant Gersten obtained property damage insurance through the Defendant and was insured at the time of said collision. Therefore the Defendant is liable or responsible to pay their portion of the damages. In the event that this Court still maintains that this is outside of the scope of arbitration, the matter must be preserved and placed into a separate filing with a new case number preserving the timely commencement in the action and the Claimants given the opportunity to amend its pleadings accordingly in all fairness of judicial due process of law.

5. THE LIABILITY OF KEVIN CARTER IS RES JUDICATA BY VIRTUE OF CHESTER COUNTY DOCKET NO. A099-05470-16-00.

The Claimants deny that the liability of the Defendant Kevin Carter is res judicata by virtue of Chester County Docket No. A099-05470-16-00. There is no record in Chester County with said numbers. This is the number to an arbitration ruling initiated by the Defendant Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company on behalf of the Defendants Kevin Carter and Richard Davis against the Defendants Trustgard Insurance Co. and Exchange on behalf of the Claimants. It was decided that NO LIABILITY was determined against the Claimants therefore the liability of the Claimants not the Defendant Kevin Carter is res judicata.

This statement made by the Defendant Exchange is factually untrue.

III. CONCLUSION

Rule 3(a)(2), SCRCF, and S.C. Code § 15-3-20(B) permit 120 days from the date of filing for the service of process to be perfected therefore the Defendants motions are premature and must be denied if the Court determines service has not been perfected.

The Arbitration for Property Damages Case No. 2018-AP-12-00074 is a separate claim from the Bodily Injury and Personal Injuries Case No. 2018-CP-12-00117 and must remain as filed. There is just cause for the Court to deny the Defendants' Rule 12(b)(8), SCRCF, Motion to Dismiss.

There are First Amendment rights violations of the U.S. Constitution in striking words of the Claimants against their objection.

Should the Court grant the Defendants' Motion to Strike, the Claimants hereby request a continuance or extension of time to reply to subparts A-G of Part III of the Defendants Motion to Strike pursuant to:

Rule 6 (b), SCRCF, Enlargement. When by these rules or by notice given thereunder or by order of court an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the time may be extended by written agreement of counsel for an additional period not exceeding the original time provided in these rules, or the court for cause shown may at any time in its discretion (1) with or without written motion or notice order the period enlarged if request therefor is made before the expiration of the period as originally prescribed or extended...

The Claimants have no objection to the Defendants being severed from the remaining Defendants if it pleases the court, although a legal determination explaining the specific reasons for doing so is requested should this happen.

For the fore-mentioned reasons, the Claimants move this Court for an order denying the Defendants Motion to Dismiss. Should the said motions or part of them be granted, the Claimants move this Court for a continuance or extension of time to reply.

The Claimants' Objection and Opposition is supported by this Memorandum everything in the case file in this matter, minutes of the court and other evidence that may be submitted prior to or at the oral hearing on said Motions, including but not limited to oral argument.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT OF CLAIMANT'S MOTION TO ALTER OR AMEND A JUDGMENT OR RELIEF
FROM JUDGMENT OR ORDER

I. INTRODUCTION

The Claimant Heidi Gersten filed a claim for Arbitration # 2018-AP-12-00074 with this Court on February 21, 2018 pursuant to Title 38, Chapter 77, Article 7 of the South Carolina Code of Laws. This is a cause of action to resolve property damages arising out of a motor vehicle collision that occurred in Chester County, South Carolina on March 19, 2015 between the Claimant Heidi Gersten and the Defendant Kevin Carter. The Claimant Ivanka Ayoub is the owner of the Chevrolet Mark III 1500 LX Conversion Van totaled in said collision.

Between March 17, 2018 and March 26, 2018, the Defendants were served the Summons and Claim for Property Damage, the First Amended Claim for Property Damage Verified along with Verification of Heidi Gersten attached with Exhibits A-L and Claimants First Set of Admissions, Interrogatories and Request for Production with attached Exhibits A-G via certified mail pursuant to Rule 4(d)(8), SCRPC.

On March 16, 2018, the Plaintiffs Heidi Gersten, Ivanka Ayoub, Daniel Hubbard filed a civil action # 2018-CP-12-00117 for bodily injury and personal injury arising out of the same incident. Process of service has not been perfected on the defendants in this said case as it has been in the arbitration matter. The Plaintiffs have until July 13, 2018 to perfect timely service of the Summons and Complaint.

On April 26, 2018, Honorable Circuit Judge Gibbons made an order that, "This matter is outside the scope of an arbitration. This matter shall be placed on the regular Common Pleas docket for process. This case shall be consolidated with case number 2018-CP-12-00117." And vice versa.

The Order and Judgment is void for the following reasons:

II. LAW AND ARGUMENT

This is an Alternative Dispute Resolution matter.

Title 38, Chapter 77, Article 7 of the South Carolina Code of Laws SECTION 38-77-730. Request for arbitration; no formal pleading and process; arbitration docket; filing of claim; service of summons to defendant.

(a) Any person who is a party to the disputed property damage liability claim may submit his claim for determination through arbitration. No formal pleading or process is required. The clerk of court of each county shall prepare and keep an arbitration docket and set the cases thereon for arbitration as provided by law for the settling of cases in the court of common pleas.

The above stated law permits the Claimants to redress their grievances in this manner. Arbitration is available without either party waiving their right to a jury trial under standard civil procedure. This arbitration setting is geared for non-attorneys and numerous attorneys place advocacy on their websites for the fairness and understanding of individuals presenting their own matters directly to the arbitrators in this setting.

This procedure is inviolate in bridging the gap between the public and governmental entities. Since it is illegal for attorneys to take property damage claims on contingency under South Carolina law, the five-dollar fee affords the ability to redress grievances and be heard in a court of law and record for this type of subject matter.

It states in Title 38, Chapter 77, Article 7 of the South Carolina Code of Laws SECTION 38-77-710 ...Process and procedure must be as summary and simple as may be reasonable and may provide for the taking of evidence in the form of reports, statements, or itemized bills or in any other manner without the procedural and evidentiary limitations which pertain in jury trials. The court may provide for the taking of depositions of a witness within or without the State.

Rule 60(b)(4), SCRCP, allows relief from an order to be granted on the grounds that the order is void. A void order is one rendered in the absence of proper due process or jurisdiction. Universal Benefits, Inc. v. McKinney, 349 S.C. 179, 561 S.E.2d 659 (Ct. App. 2002). "An elementary and fundamental requirement of due process in any proceeding which is to be accorded finality is notice reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections." Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306, 70 S. Ct. 652 (1950). Such notice must give the parties a reasonable time to make their appearance and "[t]he means employed must be such as one desirous of actually informing the absentee might reasonably adopt to accomplish it." Id.

The Claimants were not given an opportunity to present their objections nor were they notified of a hearing regarding the Court's decision therefore violating their due process of law rights under the U.S. Constitution. In essence, the arbitration was dismissed. The Claimants object. The phrase due process embodies society's basic notions of legal fairness. The Fourteenth Amendment limits the power of state (and local) governments. Fair procedures do help prevent arbitrary, unreasonable decisions. At a minimum, due process means that a person who will be affected by a government decision must be given notice of what government plans to do and have a chance to comment on the action. (quoted from lincoln.edu)

Perhaps there was confusion as to the Claimants' intention. It would prejudice the Claimants and give them an unfair advantage if these two court filings were merged. The two court filings are distinct and separate. One pertains to property damages and liability only. There are different parties, although some are the same. The Claimants have perfected Process of Service in the arbitration matter and have not perfected it in the civil matter. To combine the two would cause an unusual circumstance of uncertainty and chaos to all parties involved for a variety of reasons. The Claimants have followed the rules laid out in South Carolina laws for this process and their filings and service are timely. They were not expected to have procedural and evidentiary limitations. The Claimants urge this Court to reconsider its order and grant this motion to alter or amend this judgment or relief from the judgment or order. If it pleases this Court, the Claimants suggest placing the defendants in the arbitration action into a civil action separate from the existing one and give it a new case file number. This would eliminate any due process violations and allow the Claimants in the arbitration to retain their process of service efforts in tact while proceeding in a regular Common Pleas process as the Plaintiffs and avoiding unnecessary confusion for all litigants involved.

III. CONCLUSION

The Arbitration for Property Damages Case No. 2018-AP-12-00074 is a separate claim from the Bodily Injury and Personal Injuries Case No. 2018-CP-12-00117 and must remain as filed or at least remain separated or severed.

There are due process of law rights violations of the Fourteenth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution in ending the arbitration without fair notice to the Claimants and without allowing them an opportunity to be heard with their objections. Rule 3(a)(2), SCRCP, and S.C. Code § 15-3-20(B) permit 120 days from the date of filing for the service of process to be perfected and combining the two would upset the balance since the arbitration matter has perfected service and the civil action has not. Should the Court be firm with its decision, then the two matters must remain separate or severed and proceed as two different filings bifurcated.

This request by no means prejudices the Defendants. It is made in the interest of justice and to prevent its miscarriage. For the ease of everyone involved in this matter, the Claimants request the Court to set the oral hearing on this motion to be set at least 30 days in advance and suggest scheduling the defendant's motions together and arbitration thereafter on the same day assigned should it be determined proper. The Claimants live in Florida and are disabled. The Claimant Gersten is paralyzed.

For the fore-mentioned reasons, the Claimants move this Court for an order to alter or amend a judgment or relief from judgment or order made by Honorable Circuit Judge Brian M. Gibbons on April 26, 2018 to resume arbitration or transfer the file to a new case file separate from civil action # 2018-CP-12-00117.

The Claimants' Motion is supported by this Memorandum, everything in the case file in this matter, minutes of the court, applicable laws and other evidence that may be submitted prior to or at the oral hearing on said motion, including but not limited to oral argument.

Respectfully submitted,

The Order and Judgment is void for the following reasons:

II. LAW AND ARGUMENT

This is an Alternative Dispute Resolution matter.

Title 38, Chapter 77, Article 7 of the South Carolina Code of Laws SECTION 38-77-730. Request for arbitration; no formal pleading and process; arbitration docket; filing of claim; service of summons to defendant.

(a) Any person who is a party to the disputed property damage liability claim may submit his claim for determination through arbitration. No formal pleading or process is required. The court may provide for the taking of depositions of a witness within or without the State.

Rule 60(b)(4), SCRPC, allows relief from an order to be granted on the grounds that the order is void. A void order is one rendered in the absence of proper due process or jurisdiction. Universal Benefits, Inc. v. McKinney, 349 S.C. 179, 561 S.E.2d 659 (Ct. Perhaps there was confusion as to the Claimants' intention. It would prejudice the Claimants and give them an unfair advantage if these two court filings were

This would eliminate any due process violations and allow the Claimants in the arbitration to retain their process of service efforts in tact while proceeding in a regular Common Pleas process as the Plaintiffs and avoiding unnecessary confusion for all litigants involved.

The combining of the 2 matters violates Rule 12 of the SC ADR Rules.

Honorable Judge Gibbons erred by requiring the Claimants to elect between remedies.

Election of remedies involves a choice between different forms of redress afforded by law for the same injury or different forms of proceeding on the same cause of action. It is the act of choosing between inconsistent remedies allowed by law on the same set of facts. Its purpose is to prevent double recovery for a single wrong. Thompson v Watts, 281 S.C. 504, 316 S.E. 2d 393 (1984). Election of remedies is not applicable where there are two separate causes of action, each based on different facts. Jones v. Winn-Dixie Greenville, 318 S.C. 171, 456 S.E. 2d 429 (Ct. App. 1995).

On September 5, 2018 a hearing in front of Honorable John Hayes was had. Attorneys for the Defendants were there and the Plaintiffs Heidi Gersten and Ivanka Ayoub. The only one in the entire courtroom with first-hand knowledge of all of the events that occurred on the said date in controversy and the events that transpired after due to this occurrence is Plaintiff Heidi Gersten. The Plaintiff Ivanka Ayoub has some first-hand knowledge. All of the attorneys for the defendants offered hearsay evidence. The Plaintiff Daniel Hubbard was not in attendance for good cause that was not permitted to be introduced at said hearing.

The Claimants of the File No: 2018-AP-12-00074 served, filed and paid for a motion to alter or amend a judgment or relief from a judgment or order back in May of 2018 which to this date has not been ruled on. When the Plaintiff Heidi Gersten brought it to the Court's attention, Judge Hayes said, "...take it up with the Appellate Court..."

The Plaintiffs also served, filed and paid for a motion to strike the said hearing date that was also not ruled on. I urge the Court to reconsider this as the Plaintiff Heidi Gersten was and is still dealing with a deadly pressure wound, a secondary condition of being paralyzed as the result of the Defendant Carter's gross negligence. The Plaintiff Gersten made mention of the extreme hardship she endured to arrive at said court hearing of September 5, 2018. Exhibits 1 and 2 illustrate the said pressure wound. The morning of the said court date, the Plaintiff Heidi Gersten had an extreme outburst of diarrhea that caused her to be very ill. She endured 5 sets of fireman and paramedics to lift her in and out of the SUV she was transported in over 10 hours in one direction from Florida. Exhibit 3 and 4 illustrates the paramedics lifting her out of the SUV in front of the Chester Courthouse the morning of the September 5, 2018 hearing. Exhibits 5 and 6 illustrate public lifts made by fireman. Perhaps Honorable Judge Hayes is unaware of the severity of the situation.

Although, the Plaintiffs timely served, filed and paid for a motion to strike the court date as according to SCRCP rules state that this hearing was premature as well as all of the defendants' motions to dismiss, the hearing proceeded over the Plaintiffs' objections without any inquiry of the Court as to the health status of the Plaintiff Gersten who endured extreme agony of pain sitting on her life threatening pressure wound. Public policy would view this as cruel and unusual punishment.

The Plaintiffs also timely served, filed and paid for a motion to transfer the file to the proper roster which was also not addressed nor ruled on.

The Plaintiff Gersten suggested an opportunity to remedy all arguments the Defendants attorneys raised some of which were not facts in evidence, misleading, misrepresented, false, and simply untrue hearsay. The Plaintiffs had timely submitted an amended complaint under the SCRCP which allowed one as a matter of course, and at the time of the said hearing none of the defendants had answered it. "One and done" has never been the courts policy. For this reason alone, all of the orders made by Honorable Judge Hayes are void. There are other reasons that the orders are invalid, which include the prejudice aimed at the Plaintiffs for not having an opportunity to review the proposed orders for accuracy which common sense will tell one that is standard in fairness. Many of the documents, such as claimed by Attorney Reynolds for summary judgment were not received by the Plaintiffs, and were merely stated without allowing the Plaintiffs to examine and/or authenticate, let alone shown directly to the judge. The Plaintiff Gersten objected to numerous statements that the Defendants attorneys made. Not one of the Defendant's attorneys objected to anything she had to say.

Much of what Honorable Judge Hayes said was inaudible and the Plaintiff Gersten asked numerous times to repeat what was said and an attempt for the microphone to be adjusted to allow her to hear what the judge was saying was made. Honorable Judge Hayes said that the hearing, "...was like a tennis match..."

Upon reading and reviewing the proposed orders that were signed the same day received by Honorable Judge Hayes, some of which were obtained on line and not through proper service, there are multiple errors of inaccuracies and facts that are inaccurate. The simple point of perfecting service has been made on all defendants and an offer of proof was made at the said hearing however Honorable Judge Hayes refused to let the Plaintiff Gersten submit that evidence to the court.

The misrepresentation of the Defendants' Attorneys combined leaves room for a whole new set of causes of actions, including fraud on the court.

Since the commencement of this action, the Defendant Trustgard has sent the Defendant Ivanka Ayoub a check issued in her name for the amount of $3196.00. This was written 5 days after the Plaintiff Heidi Gersten communicated to the Defendants Trustgard and Ammendola's Attorney Mr. Dworjanyn. A copy of the letter sent to Mr. Dworjanyn is attached as Exhibit 7 along with a copy of the said check as Exhibit 8. This alone proves that the Defendant Trustgard owes money to her. This is one reason that Defendants Trustgard and Ammendola must not be dismissed as defendants in this action. Mr Dworjanyyn has not been earnest and has mislead the Court with facts of this dispute. The check issued but not cashed to the Plaintiff Ivanka Ayoub on April 18, 2018 is not the correct value of settlement. The Defendant Trustgard has not paid the UIM contracted and paid for by the Plaintiffs Ayoub and Gersten. The Defendant Interinsurance of the Automobile Club has not paid the UIM contracted and paid for by the Plaintiff Gersten. The Defendants Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company and Tirbovich made oral contracts with the Plaintiff Gersten that have been breached.

A writ of mandamus was also served, filed and paid for back in May of 2018 however was not ruled on.

Honorable Judge Hayes ordered all defendants to have their proposed orders to him by the end of the day. None of the defendants followed this order.

The rule that loss of an injured child's companionship is not recoverable is based on the outdated perception that children, like servants, are nothing more than economic assets to their parents. This master-servant analogy no longer holds true. Rather than being valued merely for their services or earning capacity, children are valued for the love, affection, companionship and society they offer their parents. The Government offers no compelling reason to retain a rule that, under today's standards, simply appears unjust. The loss of a child's companionship and society is one of the primary losses that the parent of a severely injured child must endure.

A parent has the right to sue for loss of her child's consortium at common law, a right preserved under the South Carolina Tort Claims Act, Webb v. Southern Ry. Co., supra.

The court is not precluded from recognizing such a right of action simply because the legislature has not acted to create such a right.

The South Carolina Tort Claims Act ("TCA") addresses the circumstances under which a governmental entity is liable for tortious conduct of its employees. The TCA states that "a governmental entity (is) liable for (its) torts in the same manner and to the same extent as a private individual under like circumstances, subject to the limitations upon liability and damages, and exemptions from liability and damages, contained herein." S.C. Code Ann. 15-78-40 (2005). "...except where the responsibility or duty is exercised in a grossly negligent manner."

Gross negligence is defined as "the failure to exercise slight care." Steinke v. South Carolina Dep't of Labor, Licensing and Regulation, 336 S.C. 373, 395, 520 S.E.2d 142, 153 (1999). It has also been defined as "the intentional, conscious failure to do something which it is incumbent upon one to do or the doing of a thing intentionally that one ought not to do." Id. Gross negligence "is a relative term, and means the absence of care that is necessary under the circumstances." Id.

Defendant Blackwell failed to report the collision to the South Carolina Accident Reconstruction Team (M.A.I.T.) knowing that he was untrained and not qualified to write an accurate report that all insurance companies including the listed defendants rely on when assessing damages and liability. It took Plaintiff Gersten over 3 years to have the inaccurate report amended. Plaintiff Gersten did not learn of the Defendant Blackwell's failure of duty until Prosecutor Marc Gore of the Magistrate's Court informed her on or about September of 2016, which is well within the statute of limitations for bringing this action forward.

The Plaintiffs are vindicating their rights and would like the wrongs made right, especially the Plaintiff Heidi Gersten would like to be made whole again.

III. CONCLUSION

The Arbitration for Property Damages Case No. 2018-AP-12-00074 is a separate claim from the Bodily Injury and Personal Injuries Case No. 2018-CP-12-00117 and must remain as filed or at least remain separated or severed.

There are due process of law rights violations of the Fourteenth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution in ending the arbitration without fair notice to the Claimants and without allowing them an opportunity to be heard with their objections. Rule 3(a)(2), SCRPC, and S.C. Code § 15-3-20(B) permit 120 days from the date of filing for the service of process to be perfected and combining the two upsets the balance of perfecting service. Should the Court be firm with its decision, then the two matters must remain separate or severed and proceed as two different filings bifurcated.

This request by no means prejudices the Defendants. It is made in the interest of justice and to prevent its miscarriage. For the ease of everyone involved in this matter and due to the Plaintiff Gersten's health issues, specifically her pressure wound, the Claimants and Plaintiffs request the Court to set the oral hearing on this motion to be set at least 7 months in advance and suggest scheduling the defendant's motions together and arbitration thereafter on the same day assigned should it be determined proper. The Claimants live in Florida and are disabled. The Claimant Gersten is paralyzed.

For the fore-mentioned reasons, the Claimants and Plaintiffs move this Court for an order to alter or amend a judgment or relief from judgment or order made by Honorable Circuit Judge Brian M. Gibbons on April 26, 2018 to resume arbitration or transfer the file to a new case file separate from civil action # 2018-CP-12-00117 and for all orders made prematurely by Honorable Judge Hayes, especially the motions to dismiss be declared void or vacated and the defendants ordered to answer the amended complaint.

This is an opportunity for the Court to avoid reversible error and correct the mistakes that have been made perhaps due to lack of communication.

The Claimants' Motion and the Plaintiffs' Motion is supported by this Memorandum, everything in the case file in this matter, minutes of the court, applicable laws and other evidence that may be submitted prior to or at the oral hearing on said motion, including but not limited to oral argument.

Respectfully submitted,

Dear Peter Dworjanyn or To Whom It May Concern:

Good day to you.

In order for me to give you an accurate settlement amount specifically for the Chevrolet Mark III LX 1500 Conversion Van, please answer the following questions.

1. What is Trustguard's offer to Ivanka Ayoub for the total loss of her vehicle?
2. What is Trustguard's position on paying punitive damages for said loss to Ivanka Ayoub?
3. Does Trustguard receive monies it pays to its insured from the at-fault driver's insurance company through subrogation?

(For example, in this matter, whatever monies Trustguard pays Ivanka Ayoub for her total loss vehicle, will it be reimbursed by Nationwide to Trustguard since their insured Kevin Carter is at-fault?

4. Will Trustguard reimburse Ivanka Ayoub for the monies spent to have the said vehicle towed from South Carolina to Ohio?

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On February 14, 2018, the Appellant Gersten overnighed a timely filing for a state legislated arbitration hearing regarding property damage due to a vehicle collision occurring in Chester County on March 19, 2015. She was told months prior that the Court was unfamiliar with this law and she subsequently provided the Court with a copy of the law. This will be more fully explained in the forthcoming Appellants' Brief, as well as the relevance of the March 16, 2018 Civil Court action filed that included different Plaintiffs and Defendants. All defendants have been properly served according to law. Proof is available upon request and will be included in the said Appellants' Brief.

A consolidation ruling was obtained by the Appellants on-line through the Court's website as well as a note from the judge to Appellate Gersten instructing her that she "needs an attorney". The Appellants are unaware of any law that requires a litigant to hire an attorney. For this reason which will also be fully explained in the Appellants' Brief, the Appellants have been prejudiced. A timely Notice of Motion and Plaintiffs' Motion to Alter or Amend a Judgment or Relief from Judgment or Order the alleged consolidation ruling was filed and served on May 8, 2018 and to this date has not been ruled on, as also evidenced by the transcript that the Appellants ordered, paid for and received from the court reporter prior to filing the Notice of Appeal. The Respondent AAA has not offered proof of any ruling made as to the Appellants' motion regarding the April 2018 consolidation ruling which was made without notice to either party to allow an opportunity for objections.

The October 18, 2019 Notice of Appeal was not filed, as the timely Notice of Motion and Plaintiffs' Motion to Alter or Amend a Judgment or Relief from Judgment or Order tolled the time to file it. The November 15, 2018 Notice of Appeal permits the Court jurisdiction to examine this controversy.

The Appellants' ought not be subjected to serving or filing a return to the Respondent AAA's Motion to Dismiss Appeal on the grounds that it did not follow SCACR, which includes, but is not limited to, not having the correct case number listed in the caption on its motion document.

The Respondent AAA repeatedly alleges that the Appellants did not order the transcript, when in truth and fact they did. The Appellants deny the allegation that Respondent AAA makes in stating that the Appellants did not order the transcript.

The Appellants object to the inclusion of the Affidavit of Reynolds Williams (page 4 of the Respondent AAA's Motion to Dismiss Appeal) as evidence on the grounds that it is hearsay and not authenticated. This said Affidavit of Reynolds Williams contains no official state stamp or embossing to validate that it is genuine or a true certified document, it simply isn't properly notarized. The Affidavit of Reynolds Williams is not based on first-hand personal knowledge nor does it claim to be. The dates of the service it claims or alleges are inaccurate. One only has to examine pages 23-28 of the said motion to learn that Mr. Reynolds claims that AAA was served a Notice of Appeal on October 19, 2018, when indeed, it was served on October 18, 2018. Mr. Reynolds claims that he was served another Notice of Appeal on November 19, 2018, when indeed he was served on November 15, 2018.

The Supreme Court of South Carolina has ruled that an email will start the clock for a Notice of Appeal. Respondent AAA emailed the Appellants on September 18, 2018 the alleged Court's Order in controversy. Please note that pleadings are not notices.

Page 5 of the Respondent AAA's Motion to Dismiss Appeal Table of Contents is inaccurate as it lists the Notice of Appeal Served on Respondent's attorney as October 19, 2019 (page 23) when in truth and fact it was October 18, 2018. It also incorrectly lists the Notice of Appeal

Served on Respondent's attorney (page 26) as November 19, 2018 when in truth and fact it was November 15, 2018.

The Appellants object to the attached alleged order from page 6-14 of the Respondent AAA's Motion to Dismiss Appeal as evidence as there is no judge's signature. To say that the signature is unimportant demonstrates an extreme bias against the Appellants. The attached order has numerous inaccuracies that will be addressed in the Appellants' brief, explaining fully the reasons and/or grounds for their objections.

Pages 16-19 of the Respondent AAA's Motion to Dismiss Appeal are a part of the Appellants' timely filed Notice of Motion and Plaintiffs' Motion to Alter or Amend a Judgment or Relief from Judgment or Order. Appellants have included the complete motion for the Court's review.

NOTE: This was arbitrarily ruled on and denied without oral hearing or legal determination as to where the Court based its decision from. The filing of this motion tolled the time to file a Notice of Appeal according to SCACR rules. Another Motion to Alter or Amend A Judgment or Relief from Judgment or Order was timely served and filed and a ruling has not been made on it.

Included with these documents is the unsigned copy of the order of Honorable John C. Hayes III which states, "As to the order of September 5, 2018, Plaintiff's motion of October 8, 2018 is denied without a hearing. Said order does not violate plaintiffs' due process rights under the Constitution of the United States or South Carolina." The Plaintiffs are unclear as to which order the judge is referencing on September 5, 2018 as many were alleged to have been made and referenced in the Plaintiffs' timely motion. There is no legal determination made. Also the clock for serving a timely motion for appeal is uncertain as there are rulings that have not been made at the lower court. If anything, this appeal may be premature.

NOTE: An amended complaint was served before the Honorable Judge Hayes allegedly signed any orders.

Page 20 of the Respondent AAA's Motion to Dismiss Appeal is a document not signed by a judge and the Appellants object to its inclusion as evidence as on its face it is hearsay evidence. This said document that purports to be an order fails to give the basis or grounds for the decision claimed to be made.

Electronic Filing also known as E-filing is unconstitutional when it can only be accessed by attorneys and not accessed by non-attorneys, prejudicing and preventing the Plaintiffs/Appellants from benefiting from the convenience and cost-efficiency it provides, which includes but is not limited to costs incurred for making copies and mailing documents to parties and the Court. This self-evident bias in favor of attorneys creates an unnecessary burden on the Plaintiffs/Appellants. Appellants object to E-filing.

Page 22 of the Respondent AAA's Motion to Dismiss Appeal has no signature of the judge. Without a signature, this is hearsay evidence and must be stricken from the record.

On page 31 of the Respondent AAA's Motion to Dismiss Appeal, the Respondent AAA accurately states that the date of the Notice of Appeal is October 18, 2018. Any further discussion of this Notice of Appeal is moot as it is not the subject of the Appeal before the Court today.

On page 32 of the Respondent AAA's Motion to Dismiss Appeal, it admits that this Appeal is timely and properly before the Court however the April 26, 2018 is not 'long passed' the time to file as it was not received by the Appellants, it was obtained on the Court's internet website and the timely Notice of Motion and Plaintiffs' Motion to Alter or Amend a Judgment or Relief from Judgment or Order has not been ruled on as of the date of this objection. The Appellants are unaware of any orders made on September 18, 2018 as the The Respondent AAA also states that there were orders made on September 18, 2018 by the Court on page 32 of its Motion to Dismiss Appeal .

For these reasons, and the reasons to be submitted in the forthcoming Appellants' Brief, the Court has jurisdiction as the Notice of Appeal was timely served and filed per SCACR rules.

Respectfully submitted this 14th day of February 2019,

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE AND SERVE APPELLANTS' RETURN OF RESPONDENTS CARTER AND DAVIS' MOTION TO DISMISS AND TO COMPLY WITH COURT'S NOTED REQUESTS

TO THE HONORABLE SOUTH CAROLINA COURT OF APPEALS:

NOW COMES, Heidi Gersten, Ivanka Ayoub, ('Appellants') and respectfully move this Court, pursuant to Rules 240 and 263, SCACR, for an extension of time to serve and file their return of the Respondents Carter and Davis' Motion to Dismiss Appeal and to comply with the Court's noted requests in their timely response to the Court's letter dated February 15, 2019.

The reasons for this motion are set forth in the attached Memorandum in Support.

Respectfully submitted,

DATED: February 25, 2019

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT OF THEIR MOTION TO EXTEND TIME TO SERVE AND FILE APPELLANTS' RETURN OF THE RESPONDENTS
CARTER AND DAVIS' MOTION TO DISMISS APPEAL AND TO COMPLY WITH THE COURT'S NOTED REQUESTS IN THEIR TIMELY RESPONSE TO THE COURT'S LETTER DATED FEBRUARY 15, 2019.

As grounds therefore, the Appellants show the following good cause:

1. The Appellants received a letter from the Court dated February 15, 2019 on February 23, 2019 instructing a mandatory list of requests to be made including a request to serve and file a return to the motion to dismiss however did not specify which motion to dismiss it was referring to. There are two (2) motions to dismiss pending in this matter. The request has been satisfied as far as a return to the Respondent AAA's Motion to Dismiss served and filed on February 14, 2019, one (1) day before the Court's letter was sent. As far as, the motion to dismiss filed by the Respondents Carter and Davis on January 31, 2019, and received by the Appellants on February 13, 2019, additional time is needed to perfect the Appellants' Return.
2. The appellate case number that Respondents Carter and Davis listed in their Motion to Dismiss is incorrect however the Appellants are unaware of a similar notice to cure served on them by the Court as sent to the Appellants for this same reason.
3. The Court's letter dated February 15, 2019 also requests specific individual dates for when the Appellants received written notice of entry of each of the separate orders on appeal.
4. The Appellants motion for reconsideration was timely made in the circuit court pursuant to Rules 59 and 60, SCRCP, and the Appellants require additional time to properly and accurately prove this.

5. The Appellant Gersten was paralyzed as a result of the collision in controversy in this matter. She has no caregiver or physical help with daily functions like bowel movements, bathing, eating and other regular activities able-bodied people perform. She lives under extraordinary circumstances.
6. The Appellant Ayoub is also disabled and unable to give proper care for her daughter, the Appellant Gersten.
7. Despite the extraordinary circumstances the Appellant Gersten lives with, she has been diligently working on this appeal with Appellant Ayoub. Given that the Court's notice for was received on the eighth day of the ten (10) days allowed to satisfy the requests, the Appellants request an additional ten (10) days to comply, which would be March 7, 2019.
8. The Appellant Gersten also has a pressure wound on her left buttocks the size of a quarter which prevents her from sitting up for more than a few hours at a time.
9. The Appellants are not South Carolina residents.
10. This may be considered excusable neglect.
11. The Doctrine of Equitable Tolling as well as Title II of the American Disabilities Act permit this Court to grant an extension of time for such axiomatic situations.
12. This request is not unheard of.
13. This request is made before the expiration of the time due.
14. The Appellants prefer not to file a Motion for Reinstatement, which would more than likely be granted given the extraordinary circumstances and good cause shown.
15. RULE 263, SCACR, TIME(b) Extending and Diminishing Time Prescribed by These Rules. The time prescribed by these Rules for performing any act except the time for serving the notice of appeal under Rules 203 and 243 may be extended or shortened

by the appellate court, or by any judge or justice thereof. The time prescribed by these Rules for performing any act or taking any action may not be extended by agreement of the parties.

16. Unlike the case of WADE V. GORE, 151 S.E. 470 (S.C. 1930), the Appellants are requesting this extension before the expiration of the date due.

17. The South Carolina Supreme Court recently adopted this doctrine. HOOPER V. EBENEZER SR. SERVS. & REHAB. CTR., 386 S.C. 108, 687 S.E.2D 29 (2009). The court explained the doctrine of equitable tolling may be applied to toll the running of the statute of limitations “to serve the ends of justice where technical forfeitures would unjustifiably prevent a trial on the merits.” Id. at 115, 687 S.E.2D AT 32. The court explained:

THE EQUITABLE POWER OF A COURT IS NOT BOUND BY CAST-IRON RULES BUT EXISTS TO DO FAIRNESS AND IS FLEXIBLE AND ADAPTABLE TO PARTICULAR EXIGENCIES SO THAT RELIEF WILL BE GRANTED WHEN, IN VIEW OF ALL THE CIRCUMSTANCES, TO DENY IT WOULD PERMIT ONE PARTY TO SUFFER A GROSS WRONG AT THE HANDS OF THE OTHER. EQUITABLE TOLLING MAY BE APPLIED WHERE IT IS JUSTIFIED UNDER ALL THE CIRCUMSTANCES.

If the Doctrine of Equitable Tolling may be applied to the Statute of Limitations, surely it can be applied to an extension of time to file corrections to deficiencies, such as in this matter.

THEREFORE, having shown good cause, the Appellants respectfully request and move the Court for an extension of time to, and including, February 14, 2019; an extension of ten (10) days from the date of December 25, 2019, to allow enough time to correctly and competently complete the Court's instructions.

This motion is not made to cause undue delay. It is made in the furtherance of justice and to prevent its miscarriage.

Respectfully submitted this 25th day of February 2019.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE APPELLANTS' AMENDED RETURN OF RESPONDENT
CARTER AND DAVIS' MOTION TO DISMISS ALONG WITH A MORE DETAILED RESPONSE TO THIS COURT'S LETTER DATED FEBRUARY 2019

As grounds therefore, the Appellants show the following good cause:

1. The Appellants received a letter from the Court dated February 15, on February 21, 2019 instructing a mandatory list of answers and a return to be made.
2. In immediate response, the Appellants noted that a motion for an extension of time was made and paid for in the amount of $50.00.
3. This said letter from the Court did not specify which motion to dismiss it was referring to, as there are two (2) pending in this Court, that the Appellants are aware of.
4. This said letter from the Court may be deemed satisfied in part, as a day before its inception, Appellants served and filed a return to the Respondent Interinsurance Exchange of the Automobile Club.
5. The appellate case number that Respondents Carter and Davis listed in their Motion to Dismiss is incorrect however the Appellants are unaware of a similar notice to cure served on them by the Court as sent to the Appellants for this same reason.
6. The Appellant Gersten was paralyzed as a result of the collision in controversy in this matter. She has no caregiver or physical help with daily functions like bowel movements, bathing, eating and other regular activities able-bodied people perform. She lives under extraordinary circumstances.
7. The Appellant Ayoub is also disabled and unable to give proper care for her daughter, the Appellant Gersten.
8. Despite the extraordinary circumstances the Appellant Gersten lives with, she has been diligently working on this appeal with Appellant Ayoub. Given that the Respondents Carter and Davis' return is 64 unpaginated pages and there are numerous inaccuracies, the Appellants request an additional ten (10) days to comply, which would be March 17, 2019.

9. The Appellant Gersten also has a pressure wound on her left buttocks the size of a quarter which prevents her from sitting up for more than a few hours at a time.
10. The Appellants are not South Carolina residents.
11. This may be considered excusable neglect.
12. The Doctrine of Equitable Tolling as well as Title II of the American Disabilities Act permit this Court to grant an extension of time for such axiomatic situations.
13. This request is not unheard of.
14. This request is made before the expiration of the time due.
15. The Appellants prefer not to file a Motion for Reinstatement, which would more than likely be granted given the extraordinary circumstances and good cause shown.
16. RULE 263, SCACR, TIME(b) Extending and Diminishing Time Prescribed by These Rules. The time prescribed by these Rules for performing any act except the time for serving the notice of appeal under Rules 203 and 243 may be extended or shortened by the appellate court, or by any judge or justice thereof. The time prescribed by these Rules for performing any act or taking any action may not be extended by agreement of the parties.
17. Unlike the case of WADE V. GORE, 151 S.E. 470 (S.C. 1930), the Appellants are requesting this extension before the expiration of the date due.
18. The South Carolina Supreme Court recently adopted this doctrine. HOOPER V.

EBENEZER SR. SERVS. & REHAB. CTR., 386 S.C. 108, 687 S.E.2D 29 (2009). The court explained the doctrine of equitable tolling may be applied to toll the running of the statute of limitations “to serve the ends of justice where technical forfeitures would unjustifiably prevent a trial on the merits.” Id. at 115, 687 S.E.2D AT 32. The court explained:

THE EQUITABLE POWER OF A COURT IS NOT BOUND BY CAST-IRON RULES BUT EXISTS TO DO FAIRNESS AND IS FLEXIBLE AND ADAPTABLE TO PARTICULAR EXIGENCIES SO THAT RELIEF WILL BE GRANTED WHEN, IN VIEW OF ALL THE CIRCUMSTANCES, TO DENY IT WOULD PERMIT ONE PARTY TO SUFFER A GROSS WRONG AT THE HANDS OF THE OTHER. EQUITABLE TOLLING MAY BE APPLIED WHERE IT IS JUSTIFIED UNDER ALL THE CIRCUMSTANCES.

If the Doctrine of Equitable Tolling may be applied to the Statute of Limitations, surely it can be applied to an extension of time to file corrections to deficiencies, such as in this matter.

THEREFORE, having shown good cause, the Appellants respectfully request and move the Court for an extension of time to, and including, MARCH 7, 2019; an extension of ten (10) days from the date of MARCH 7, 2019, to allow enough time to correctly and competently complete the Court’s instructions.

This motion is not made to cause undue delay. It is made in the furtherance of justice and to prevent its miscarriage.

Respectfully submitted this 7th day of MARCH, 2019.

The Appellants, Heidi Gersten, Ivanka Ayoub ('Appellants') move this Court for an acceptance of this document as timely and for a denial of the Motion to Dismiss served and filed by the Respondents Kevin Carter and Richard Davis ('Respondents Carter and Davis') on January 31, 2019 and received on February 13, 2019. A Motion for an extension to serve and file the Appellants return was made on February 14, 2019. Due to insufficient amount of time to accurately perfect the return to the Respondents Carter and Davis' 64 unpaginated pages of their motion to dismiss, coupled with their disabilities, the Appellants require more time to amend this return.

This Return had no chance to comply with rules regarding its timeliness since it was received 13 days after the date of the motion.

The Appellants hereby move this Court to accept this document as timely.

The Respondents Carter and Davis' sole argument is based on the allegation that the Appellants' Notice of Appeal is untimely. The letter to the Court dated March 7, 2019, included, should shed some light.

The Appellants' argument will be more fully addressed in the attached Memorandum of Points and Authorities in Support..

Respectfully submitted this 7th day of March 2019,

Plaintiffs/Appellants

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On February 14, 2018, the Appellant Gersten overnighted a timely filing for a state legislated arbitration hearing regarding property damage due to a vehicle collision occurring in Chester County on March 19, 2015. She was told months prior that the Court was unfamiliar with this law and she subsequently provided the Court with a copy of the law. This will be more fully explained in the forthcoming Appellants' Brief, as well as the relevance of the March 16, 2018 Civil Court action filed that included different Plaintiffs and Defendants. All defendants have been properly served according to law. Proof is available upon request and will be included in the said Appellants' Brief.

A consolidation ruling was obtained by the Appellants on-line through the Court's website as well as a note from the judge to Appellate Gersten instructing her that she "needs an attorney". The Appellants are unaware of any law that requires a litigant to hire an attorney. For this reason which will also be fully explained in the Appellants' Brief, the Appellants have been prejudiced. A timely Notice of Motion and Plaintiffs' Motion to Alter or Amend a Judgment or Relief from Judgment or Order the alleged consolidation ruling was timely filed and served and to this date has not been ruled on, as also evidenced by the transcript that the Appellants ordered, paid for and received from the court reporter prior to filing the Notice of Appeal. The Respondents Carter and Davis have not offered proof of any ruling made as to the Appellants' motion regarding the April 2018 consolidation ruling which was made without notice to either party to allow an opportunity for objections.

The November 15, 2018 Notice of Appeal permits the Court jurisdiction to examine this controversy.

The Appellants' ought not be subjected to serving or filing a return to the Respondents Carter and Davis' Motion to Dismiss Appeal on the grounds that it did not follow SCACR, which includes, but is not limited to, not having the correct case number listed in the caption on its motion document.

The Respondents Carter and Davis' sole argument revolves around their accusation that the Appellants Notice of Appeal was untimely, when in truth and fact it is timely. The Appellants deny the allegation that Respondents Carter and Davis' AAA make in stating that the Appellants did not timely serve and file a Notice of Appeal.

The Appellants object to the inclusion of the Affidavit of Wesley Sawyer as evidence on the grounds that it is hearsay and not authenticated. This said Affidavit of Wesley Sawyer contains no official state stamp or embossing to validate that it is genuine or a true certified document, it simply isn't properly notarized. The Affidavit of Wesley Sawyer is not based on first-hand personal knowledge nor does it claim to be.

The Appellants request more time to Amend this motion. Ten (10) days from March 7, 2019 would be March 17, 2019, to sufficiently and adequately address the multiple errors made by the Respondents Carter and Davis. This return is made in a good faith effort to comply with the previously underestimated motion for extension of time.

NOTE: This was arbitrarily ruled on and denied without oral hearing or legal determination as to where the Court based its decision from. The filing of this motion tolled the time to file a Notice of Appeal according to SCACR rules. Another Motion to Alter or Amend A Judgment or Relief from Judgment or Order was timely served and filed and a ruling has not been made on it.

Included with these documents is the only signed order the Appellants have received. Please refer to the letter to the Court dated March 7, 2019.

Also the clock for serving a timely motion for appeal is uncertain as there are rulings that have not been made at the lower court. If anything, this appeal may be premature.

NOTE: An amended complaint was served before the Honorable Judge Hayes allegedly signed any orders.

For these reasons, and the reasons to be submitted in the forthcoming Appellants' Brief, the Court has jurisdiction as the Notice of Appeal was timely served and filed per SCACR rules.

Respectfully submitted this 7th day of March 2019,

1. I am the Appellant herein, and have read the foregoing Motion for Extension of Time to Amend Appellants' Return to the Respondents Kevin Carter and Richard Davis' Motion to Dismiss Appeal, which includes all pages attached, and know the contents thereof, that the same is true of my own knowledge, except as matters therein stated to be alleged on information and belief; and to those matters, I believe them to be true.
2. The facts stated herein are personally known to me and I have first-hand knowledge thereof and to those facts that are in addition stated are based on information and belief.
3. If called upon to do so, I would and could competently testify to hereto under oath in a court of law operating under the laws of the State of South Carolina and the United States Constitution.
4. The Appellants served and filed on March 7, 2019, a Return to Respondents Carter and Davis' Motion to Dismiss Appeal and Motion for the Court to Dismiss Appeal and Motion for the Court to Accept This Document as Timely With or Without Leave of Court in anticipation that the requested extension of time to amend it would be on March 27, 2019.
5. Unfortunately during these 10 days I was extremely ill and had an unusually painful menstrual cycle followed by the learning of the passing of my father, which created an additional hardship to my already overwhelming daily life, due to being paralyzed.
6. It may be hard to imagine for some, the enormous amount of effort it takes to do simple things that able-bodied people can do, such as use a toilet.
7. I live under extraordinary circumstances.
8. According to the SCACR, the Appellants should not be subjected to serving and filing a return when the Respondents Carter and Davis' Motion to Dismiss does not have the correct case number, along with the burden of sorting through 64 unpaginated pages.
9. The date the Notice of Appeal was timely served and filed on Respondents Kevin Carter and Richard Davis was November 15, 2018.

10. I was paralyzed as a result of the collision in controversy with the Respondent Kevin Carter and the Respondent Richard Davis co-owned the vehicle involved.
11. It is unfair to hold me to the same standards as able-bodied people.
12. The American Disabilities Act applies to and protects me.
13. Title II of the American Disabilities Act permits modifications to court rules to accommodate my situation due to my disability.
14. The Doctrine of Equitable Tolling may also be applied to my circumstances.
15. I am without a caregiver.
16. I urge the Court to allow an additional 5 days, which would be March 23, 2019, to complete an accurate amended Return of the Appellants to the Motion to Dismiss Appeal made by the Respondents Kevin Carter and Richard Davis. Let the merits of the upcoming brief shine a light on the facts of this matter.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On March 7, 2019, the Appellants requested an additional 10 days to serve and file an amended return to the Respondents Carter and Davis' Motion to Dismiss Appeal. March 18, 2019 would be the due date on this request however for the reasons fully explained in the Appellant Heidi Gersten's Affidavit, good cause is shown for an additional 5 days to complete the Appellants' Return.

Ten (10) days from March 18, 2019 would be March 23, 2019, to sufficiently and adequately address the multiple errors made by the Respondents Carter and Davis. This return is made in a good faith effort to comply with the previously underestimated motion for extension of time and is permitted by Rule 263(b), SCACR.

For these reasons, the reasons in the attached Affidavit of Heidi Gersten and the reasons to be submitted in the forthcoming Appellants' Amended Return and the Appellants' Brief, the Court has jurisdiction as the Notice of Appeal was timely served and filed per SCACR rules.

SS:

HEIDI GERSTEN, BEING FIRST DULY CAUTIONED AND SWORN
DEPOSES AND STATES AS FOLLOWS:

1. I am the Appellant herein, and have read the foregoing Motion for Extension of Time to Amend Appellants' Return to the Respondents Kevin Carter and Richard Davis' Motion to Dismiss Appeal, which includes all pages attached, and know the contents thereof, that the same is true of my own knowledge, except as matters therein stated to be alleged on information and belief; and to those matters, I believe them to be true.
2. The facts stated herein are personally known to me and I have first-hand knowledge thereof and to those facts that are in addition stated are based on information and belief.
3. If called upon to do so, I would and could competently testify to hereto under oath in a court of law operating under the laws of the State of South Carolina and the United States Constitution.
4. The Appellants served and filed on March 7, 2019 and attached a U.S.P.S. money order in the amount of $50.00 payable to the SC Clerk of Court of Appeals, a Return to Respondents Carter and Davis' Motion to Dismiss Appeal and Motion for the Court to Dismiss Appeal and Motion for the Court to Accept This Document as Timely With or Without Leave of Court in anticipation that the requested extension of time to amend it would be on March 17, 2019.
5. Unfortunately during those ten (10) days I was extremely ill and had an unusually painful menstrual cycle followed by the learning of the passing of my father, which created an additional hardship to my already overwhelming daily life, due to being paralyzed.
6. The Appellants served and filed another extension on March 18, 2019 requesting five (5) additional days, as the tenth day was Sunday, March 17, 2019 from the previous request and attached a U.S.P.S. money order in the amount of $50.00 payable to the SC Clerk of Court of Appeals.
7. The Appellants are now requesting an additional ten (10) days from March 25, 2019, as five (5) days from March 18, 2019 is March 23, 2019, which was a Saturday, bringing us to today, March 25, 2019 and ten (10) days from today is April 4, 2019.

8. During this last five (5) days, my computer crashed, causing me to be unable to obtain stored information and print documents.
9. The Appellants are now requesting an additional ten (10) days from April 4, 2019, which is April 14, 2019.
10. During these last ten (10) days, my computer was fixed, permitting me to obtain stored information and print documents however other unexpected events occurred that prevented the anticipated return of the Defendants Kevin Carter and Richard Davis' Motion to Dismiss Appeal.
11. I had an unexpected visit from a good friend, who once was a marine, and when he learned I hadn't had a bath or a shower for 7 months, proceeded to place me into the tub, which I was in for nearly 3 hours, experiencing horrors and joys simultaneously as I was excited to wash myself clean however frightened by how crooked my body had become due to the lack of affordable care required for me to have the fundamental basics of living, such as eating and other things taken for granted as able-bodied beings.
12. My friend also observed the reasons why I could not get into the tub or even use a shower chair and transfer in on my own like I had in other situations.
13. I gave permission to my friend to remove the toilet so I may have room to wheel myself next to the tub, which took several days.
14. My manual wheelchair has been fixed from when the wheel fell off while I was sitting in it on Thanksgiving and I'm using it inside now after being without it for over 3 months.
15. I had food poisoning, which resulted in diarrhea explosions that took me days to clean up, coupled with a migraine from hell.
16. It may be hard to imagine for some, the enormous amount of effort it takes to do simple things that able-bodied people can do, such as use a toilet.
17. I live under extraordinary circumstances.
18. After 7 months or more of living without a caregiver, I interviewed several caregivers recently however the best qualified happened to be a convicted child molester.
19. I'm currently still without a caregiver.
20. A good day starts when I haven't urinated on myself and surprisingly those popular "Depends" don't always work as well as advertised, it all depends on the flow of the urine.

21. According to the SCACR, the Appellants should not be subjected to serving and filing a return when the Respondents Carter and Davis' Motion to Dismiss does not have the correct case number, along with the burden of sorting through 64 un-paginated pages.
22. The date the Notice of Appeal was timely served and filed on Respondents Kevin Carter and Richard Davis was November 15, 2018.
23. The motions for reconsideration were timely filed according to court rules.
24. Now that I have use of my computer, I'm unable to provide accurate information.
25. I was paralyzed as a result of the collision in controversy with the Respondent Kevin Carter and the Respondent Richard Davis co-owned the vehicle involved.
26. It is unfair to hold me to the same standards as able-bodied people.
27. The American Disabilities Act, An agency of the US Department of Justice Civil Rights Division, applies to and protects me.
28. Title II of the American Disabilities Act permits modifications to court rules to accommodate my situation due to my disability.
29. The Doctrine of Equitable Tolling may also be applied to my circumstances.
30. I urge the Court to allow an additional ten (10) days, which would be April 14, 2019, to complete an accurate amended Return of the Appellants to the Motion to Dismiss Appeal made by the Respondents Kevin Carter and Richard Davis in light of the good cause shown.
31. This extension is not for the purpose of delaying. It is for the furtherance of justice and to prevent its miscarriage.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On March 7, 2019, the Appellants requested an additional ten (10) days to serve and file an amended return to the Respondents Carter and Davis' Motion to Dismiss Appeal. On March 18, 2019 the Appellants, requested an additional 5 days. On March 25, 2019, the Appellants requested an additional ten (10) days. 6. The Appellants served and filed another extension on March 18, 2019 requesting five (5) additional days, as the tenth day was Sunday, March 17, 2019 from the previous request and attached a U.S.P.S. money order in the amount of $50.00 payable to the SC Clerk of Court of Appeals.
7. The Appellants requested an additional ten (10) days from March 25, 2019, as five (5) days from March 18, 2019 is March 23, 2019, which was a Saturday, bringing it to, March 25, 2019 and ten (10) days from then is April 4, 2019.

8. During those last five (5) days, my computer crashed, causing me to be unable to obtain stored information and print documents.
9. The Appellants requested an additional ten (10) days from April 4, 2019, which is April 14, 2019, which is a Sunday, permitting Monday, April 15, 2019 to be the service and filing deadline of the request.
10. During these last ten (10) days, my computer was fixed, permitting me to obtain stored information and print documents however other unexpected events occurred that prevented the anticipated return of the Defendants Kevin Carter and Richard Davis' Motion to Dismiss Appeal.
11. I had an unexpected visit from a good friend, who once was a Marine, and when he learned I hadn't had a bath or a shower for 7 months, proceeded to place me into the tub, which I was in for nearly 3 hours, experiencing horrors and joys simultaneously as I was excited to wash myself clean however frightened by how crooked my body had become due to the lack of affordable care required for me to have the fundamental basics of living, such as eating and other things taken for granted as able-bodied beings.
12. My friend also observed the reasons why I could not get into the tub or even use a shower chair and transfer in on my own like I had in other situations.
13. I gave permission to my friend to remove the toilet so I may have room to wheel myself next to the tub, which took several days.
14. My manual wheelchair has been fixed from when the wheel fell off while I was sitting in it on Thanksgiving and I'm using it inside now after being without it for over 3 months.
15. I had food poisoning, which resulted in diarrhea explosions that took me days to clean up, coupled with a migraine from hell.
16. It may be hard to imagine for some, the enormous amount of effort it takes to do simple things that able-bodied people can do, such as use a toilet.
17. I live under extraordinary circumstances.
18. After 7 months or more of living without a caregiver, I interviewed several caregivers recently however the best qualified happened to be a convicted child molester.
19. I'm currently still without a caregiver.
20. A good day starts when I haven't urinated on myself and surprisingly those popular "Depends" don't always work as well as advertised, it all depends on the flow of the urine.

21. Another 10 days is required to finish the hundreds of copies of documents and information required to prove that this appeal indeed is timely.
22. Included in these documents will be proof that:
- A. April 26, 2018 - Unsigned order(s), Judge Gibbons
  - B. May 8, 2018 - Claimants' served and filed notice of motion and motion to alter or amend a judgment or relief from judgment of order pursuant to Rules 59(e), 60(4), SCRCP, and request for oral hearing.
  - C. August 25, 2018 - Claimants served and filed an amended with or without leave motion to alter or amend a judgment or relief from judgment or order pursuant to Rules 59(e), 60(4), SCRCP, and request for oral hearing.
  - D. September 5, 2018 - Oral hearing with Judge Hayes.
  - E. September 17, 2018 - Claimants/Plaintiffs served and filed second amended complaint and demand for jury trial with leave.
  - F. September 18, 2018 - Unsigned order(s), Judge Hayes
  - G. October 1, 2018 - Plaintiffs served and filed notice of motion and motion to alter or amend a judgment or relief from judgment or order pursuant to Rules 52, 59(e), 60(4), SCRCP, and request for oral hearing plus exhibits 1-9.
  - H. October 16, 2018 - Unsigned order(s), Judge Gibbons
  - I. November 15, 2018 - Appellants notice of appeal
23. Appellants' motions were not ruled on and orders were not made.
24. Given the complexity of this matter, with numerous respondents and excessive documents to deal with, there is good cause shown for additional time to provide the information that will prove the Appellants' timeliness in serving and filing the notice of appeal.
25. According to the SCACR, the Appellants should not be subjected to serving and filing a return when the Respondents Carter and Davis' Motion to Dismiss does not have the correct case number, along with the burden of sorting through 64 un-paginated pages.
26. The date the Notice of Appeal was timely served and filed on Respondents Kevin Carter and Richard Davis was November 15, 2018.
27. The motions for reconsideration were timely filed according to court rules.
28. The Appellants are hereby requesting an additional ten (10) days to accurately and understandably present proof to the timeliness of this appeal, which is now April 25, 2019.

29. I was paralyzed as a result of the collision in controversy with the Respondent Kevin Carter and the Respondent Richard Davis co-owned the vehicle involved.
30. It is unfair to hold me to the same standards as able-bodied people.
31. The American Disabilities Act, An agency of the US Department of Justice Civil Rights Division, applies to and protects me.
32. Title II of the American Disabilities Act permits modifications to court rules to accommodate my situation due to my disability.
33. The Doctrine of Equitable Tolling may also be applied to my circumstances.
34. I urge the Court to allow an additional ten (10) days, which would be April 25, 2019, to complete an accurate amended Return of the Appellants to the Motion to Dismiss Appeal made by the Respondents Kevin Carter and Richard Davis in light of the good cause shown.
35. This extension is not for the purpose of delaying. It is for the furtherance of justice and to prevent its miscarriage.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On March 7, 2019, the Appellants requested an additional ten (10) days to serve and file an amended return to the Respondents Carter and Davis' Motion to Dismiss Appeal. On March 18, 2019 the Appellants, requested an additional 5 days. On March 25, 2019, the Appellants requested an additional ten (10) days. On April 4, 2019, the Appellants requested an additional ten (10) days. Now for good cause shown, an additional ten (10) days is required to complete the Appellants' Return.

Ten (10) days from April 15, 2019 would be April 25, 2019, to sufficiently and adequately address the multiple errors made by the Respondents Carter and Davis. This return is made in a good faith effort to comply with the previously underestimated motion for extension of time and is permitted by Rule 263(b), SCACR.

For these reasons, the reasons in the attached Affidavit of Heidi Gersten and the reasons to be submitted in the forthcoming Appellants' Amended Return and the Appellants' Brief, the Court has jurisdiction as the Notice of Appeal was timely served and filed per SCACR rules.

The Appellants, Heidi Gersten, Ivanka Ayoub ('Appellants') move this Court for an order to accept this amended return of the Respondents Kevin Carter and Richard Davis' (Respondents') motion to dismiss appeal as timely and combine it with a motion for reinstatement and/or a petition for rehearing of the motions to dismiss, along with leave of court, if necessary, as the crux of the matter is about proving timeliness in regards to the Notice of Appeal and the Court's jurisdiction, taking into strong consideration Appellant Gersten's extraordinary circumstances and extreme hardships suffered as a result of the Respondents' gross negligence, pursuant to Rules 263(b), 260(a) and 221, SCACR, Equitable Tolling and Title II of the American Disabilities Act on the grounds of good cause shown as evidenced by the attached Affidavit of Heidi Gersten and Timeline of Events with Law and Arguments That Include a Memorandum of Points and Authorities That Prove Timeliness of Appellants' Notice of Appeal.

The Appellants' argument will be more fully addressed in the attached Memorandum of Points and Authorities in Support and Timeline.

Respectfully submitted this 29th day of May 2019,

Appellants

STATE OF FLORIDA,

SS:

COUNTY OF PALM BEACH,

HEIDI GERSTEN, BEING FIRST DULY CAUTIONED AND SWORN
DEPOSES AND STATES AS FOLLOWS:

1. I am the Appellant herein, and have read the foregoing APPELLANTS' AMENDED RETURN TO RESPONDENTS CARTER AND DAVIS' MOTION TO DISMISS APPEAL AND AFFIDAVIT OF HEIDI GERSTEN TO BE COMBINED WITH MOTIONS TO REINSTATE APPEAL AND/OR PETITION FOR REHEARING OF MOTION TO DISMISS MADE BY RESPONDENTS INTERINSURANCE EXCHANGE OF THE AUTOMOBILE CLUB, KEVIN CARTER AND RICHARD DAVIS WITH LEAVE TO AMEND OR MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO SERVE AND FILE MOTION TO REINSTATE APPEAL AND/OR PETITION FOR REHEARING, which includes all pages attached, and know the contents thereof, that the same is true of my own knowledge, except as matters therein stated to be alleged on information and belief; and to those matters, I believe them to be true.
2. The facts stated herein are personally known to me and I have first-hand direct knowledge thereof and to those facts that are in addition stated are based on information and belief.
3. If called upon to do so, I would and could competently testify to hereto under oath in a court of law operating under the laws of the State of South Carolina and the United States Constitution.
4. The Appellants served and filed motions to extend time to amend their return to Kevin Carter and Richard Davis' motion to dismiss appeal on March 7, 18, 25, and April 5, 15, 25, 2019 and would have requested an additional extension on May 6, 2019, except due to mitigating circumstances, there were heavy thunderstorms that day that prevented the deadline from being met. (Exhibit 1)
5. I sat in my wheelchair with the paperwork that I was ready to turn in to comply with the 'motion for extension to file' rules when I heard the strike of thunder and looked outside and saw that it was raining heavily, with the sky very dark. With a heavy heart, I knew I would not be able to wheel to the post office and UPS store that day. I took a screenshot of the weather report that day at the time I was leaving. (Exhibit 1)
6. I became aware of the order dated May 2, 2019 on May 16, 2019, after I learned that the iPad I recently got was able to access the Court's website. I read said order online and in a good faith effort to comply under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, SCACR, these motions and documents are being submitted. Prior to getting the iPad, I was unable to access the Court's website from my over 10 year old incompatible computer.

7. Had there not been thunderstorms on May 6, 2019, I would have been able to ride in my wheelchair to the post office and UPS store and the May 2, 2019 order would have been partially complied with as some of the information requested was in the documents that were anticipated to be served and filed that day. A new motion was being composed when the May 2nd and 14th 2019 orders were learned of.
8. In a frenzy to comply with the rules, a draft was written for a petition for rehearing and Henrietta from You've Been Served, LLC, processing service was contacted. I explained to her that the only way to have the documents received by May 17th, less than 24hrs of learning of the order, was to get the documents to her via computer and have her go in person to file them. I would not have been able to sign them since I don't have the technology to sign and then scan into my computer and office stores were closed at that hour. She brought up the fact that even if I could, she would only be bringing in a copy and not an original. Therefore, there was no real chance to comply with the order in such a short amount of time learning of it a day before its deadline nor correct the numerous errors that may be contained in it due to the very limited time to complete what is necessary to have it received by the Court within fifteen (15) days from the date of the order to prevent a remittitur being sent to the lower court or administrative tribunal in accordance with Rule 221, SCACR. Hiring a process server to file in person appeared to be the only option at that point.
9. The petition for rehearing of the motion may be combined with the motion for reinstatement as they stem from the same issues.
10. I would also suggest that the Appellants' Return for the Respondents Kevin Carter and Richard Davis' motion to dismiss be combined when taking things under consideration since its' sole argument within the numerous unpaginated pages (against court rules) that are well over sixty (60) in count revolves around the sole issue of timeliness, as well as listing an incorrect case number. Without page numbers, it has been challenging to say the least to address the issues at hand by referencing the documents.
11. The Affidavit of Wesley B. Sawyer is hearsay and he does not state nor allege to have first-hand personal knowledge of the facts or events in controversy. The said affidavit has no stamp or embossment from a notary therefore is not an official document. It's not certified.
12. The Respondents Carter and Davis' Motion to Dismiss fails to list orders.

13. I called the Appellate Court on May 17, 2019 and spoke to Shelby who informed me that it wasn't necessary to do a petition for rehearing on the May 2, 2019 order however the May 14, 2019 triggered the time to do a motion to reinstate within 15 days being Wednesday, May 29, 2019.
14. In addition to being paralyzed, having an open phase 4 pressure wound on my left buttocks, phase 1 pressure wound on my right buttocks, living without a caregiver, litigating multiple lawsuits in multiple states without an attorney, having been the victim of numerous crimes, participating in a criminal pretrial conference as a subpoenaed victim, and the learning of the passing of my father under the cause of action of tortious interference with a dead body, I was summoned as a juror for May 13, 2019, all this year. (Exhibit 3) (Proof of any this is available upon request.) (The wound picture is in the Appellants' Objection and/or Opposition and Response to Respondent Interinsurance Exchange of the Automobile Club's Motion to Dismiss Appeal as Exhibit 3, page 31 and received by the Court on January 23, 2019)
15. Leave of court should be administered in favor of justice. There is plenty of good cause shown.
16. Patience is a judicial canon. I require much patience. What seems like plenty of time to an able body is a fraction of the time it takes me to do simple things. It took 7 months before I was finally able to get my bathroom accommodated to where I am now able to shower independently, to give an example of the amount of time it took to be at a standard of living that most people take for granted.
17. This is an effort to show the Court that the Appellants take this matter seriously and are diligently attempting to comply with the rules. The American Disabilities Act permit modifying court rules to accommodate me due to my disabilities and remains undefeated when an action has been brought forward under Title II. Appellants prefer not to file a federal complaint. Time is of the essence however health is an issue to take into consideration.
18. Words do not describe the horror of being unable to care for myself at my standards since this collision. I was the one who took care of others and demonstrated an unprecedented amount of courage, strength, wisdom, knowledge, compassion, forth righteousness, tenacity, candor, intuition, empathy, endurance and love in my family however perhaps I lacked gratitude for myself. I took for granted the amazing person that I am.
19. Judge Zamore was the first public authority I faced through this process who infused me with inner solidity, repeating to me as I looked into his eyes, "You are worthy!" My whole life, no one has ever said those words to me. I'm happy that he stood behind a red, white and blue flag. He understood my pain. Yet he is bound by these words on paper, called law. I will find the right combination and when I do, I will unlock the key to my therapy and simple pleasure of pursuing every remedy available to me in order to obtain control of my body. I will walk again!

20. Judge Underwood was the first judge to issue an order in favor of granting me a continuance to a court date I received notice of a day before a holiday weekend last year, giving me three days to find a ride as a paralyzed person who hadn't left her bed in months and travel over 800 miles in one direction to attend. She declared me a victim and so did Judge Zamore. I called the clerk and wrote an objection to Respondent/Defendant Kevin Carter's acceptance of a plea offer to reduce his DUI charge, which in truth and fact, qualifies to be a felony charge as a DUI with great bodily injury. It's no surprise he took the offer of a $440 fine and reckless driving in front of my eyes. This game of lucky breaks because someone knows how to manipulate the law better is unbelievable. My entire experience of how challenging it is to get help to be made whole again is history in the making.
21. This process has taught me to be indifferent.
22. It may be hard to imagine for some, the enormous amount of effort it takes to do simple things that able-bodied people can do, such as use a toilet.
23. I live under extraordinary circumstances and with extreme hardships.
24. Attached to this affidavit is a 5 page document labeled TIMELINE OF EVENTS WITH LAW AND ARGUMENTS THAT INCLUDE A MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES THAT PROVE TIMELINESS OF APPELLANTS' NOTICE OF APPEAL that prove: (EXHIBIT 3)

- P. November 21, 2018 - Court Received By Fax- Notice of Appeal (pg. )

- Q. November 21, 2018 - Received - Respondents Carter and Davis Return Receipt, Green Card (pg. )

- R. November 27, 2018 - Filed - Notice of Appeal (pg. )

- S. January 15, 2019 - Order - Honorable Judge Gibbons (pg. )
(Note: Only order signed in ink in this matter.)

(Note: Due to time restraints and the enormous amount of effort to produce and attach the previously listed documents, an amended version with leave of court will be provided in the future. This is an attempt to provide as much of the information as can be done given the circumstances.)

25. Appellants' motions were not ruled on and orders were not made. This will be fully explained in the Appellants' upcoming brief.

26. The Appellants and Respondents are required to comply with the rules of SCRCP.

27. Note that under South Carolina's rules (SCRCP), service of motions is required on defendants however certified mail return with return receipt is not.

SCRCP 5 (1) Same: How Made.... Service by mail is complete upon mailing of all pleadings and papers subsequent to service of the original summons and complaint.

28. Note that under South Carolina's rules (SCRCP), proof of service, for the summons and complaint, is required to be filed and it further indicates that other paperwork that must be served, must also be filed with the court however there is no requirement of a certificate of service for such subsequent paperwork. Service by mail is complete upon mailing of all pleadings and papers subsequent to service of the original summons and complaint.

SCRCP 5(d) Filing. All papers required to be served upon a party except as provided in Rule 26(g)(1), shall be filed with the court within five (5) days after service thereof. The summons and complaint shall be filed before service. Proof of service shall be filed within ten (10) days after service of the summons and complaint. Upon failure to serve the summons and complaint, the action may be dismissed by the court on the court's own initiative or upon application of any party. Upon failure of a party to file other pleadings, motions, or papers, the court may permit filing or proceed as though the same had not been served.

29. Given the complexity of this matter, with numerous respondents and excessive documents to deal with, in addition to the extreme hardship and extraordinary circumstances Appellant Gersten lives with, there is good cause shown for additional time to provide the information that will prove the Appellants' timeliness in serving and filing the notice of appeal.

30. According to the SCACR, the Appellants should not be subjected to serving and filing a return when the Respondents Carter and Davis' Motion to Dismiss does not have the correct case number, along with the burden of sorting through 64 un-paginated pages. In addition, there is a litany of information nonrelated to the issue at hand therefore will be saved for the Appellants' brief. The only pertinent issue currently is proving timeliness of the Appellants' Notice of Appeal.

31. The date the Notice of Appeal was timely served and filed on Respondents Kevin Carter and Richard Davis was November 15, 2018. Proof of service was attached to said Notice of Appeal for the court's filing.
32. The motions for reconsideration were timely filed according to court rules.
33. The Appellants are hereby reserving the right to amend this return should additional information be necessary.
34. I was paralyzed as a result of the collision in controversy with the Respondent Kevin Carter and the Respondent Richard Davis co-owned the vehicle involved.
35. It is unfair to hold me to the same standards as able-bodied people.
36. The American Disabilities Act, An agency of the US Department of Justice Civil Rights Division, applies to and protects me.
37. Title II of the American Disabilities Act permits modifications to court rules to accommodate my situation due to my disability.
38. The Doctrine of Equitable Tolling may also be applied to my circumstances.
39. I urge the Court to permit this APPELLANTS' AMENDED RETURN TO RESPONDENTS CARTER AND DAVIS' MOTION TO DISMISS APPEAL AND AFFIDAVIT OF HEIDI GERSTEN TO BE COMBINED WITH MOTIONS TO REINSTATE APPEAL AND/OR PETITION FOR REHEARING OF MOTION TO DISMISS MADE BY RESPONDENTS INTERINSURANCE EXCHANGE OF THE AUTOMOBILE CLUB, KEVIN CARTER AND RICHARD DAVIS WITH LEAVE TO AMEND OR MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO SERVE AND FILE MOTION TO REINSTATE APPEAL AND/OR PETITION FOR REHEARING to be considered in light of the good cause shown.
40. Rule 263(b), SCACR, permits extensions of time in this type of situation. It states in part, "Extending and Diminishing Time Prescribed by These rules. THE TIME PRESCRIBED BY THESE RULES FOR PERFORMING ANY ACT EXCEPT THE TIME FOR SERVING THE NOTICE OF APPEAL UNDER RULES 203 AND 243 MAY BE EXTENDED OR SHORTENED BY THE APPELLATE COURT, OR BY ANY JUDGE OR JUSTICE THEREOF."
41. These extensions were not for the purpose of delaying. For the furtherance of justice and to prevent its miscarriage, this appeal must be reinstated and the Appellants be permitted to move forward on its merits.
42. To be so strict on a date on the calendar causes the merits of the actions to be replaced as the primary purpose of litigation. The brief cover must be "red or read?"

43. I can only do so much in a given day. I'm paralyzed without a caregiver.
44. I authenticate the documents submitted in this paperwork as true and accurate copies.
45. The Return to the Respondent Interinsurance Exchange of the Automobile Club was served and filed on January 17, 2019 and file stamped January 23, 2019.

TIMELINE OF EVENTS WITH LAW AND ARGUMENTS THAT INCLUDE A MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES THAT PROVE TIMELINESS OF
APPELLANTS' NOTICE OF APPEAL

Appellants received and/or obtained written notice of entry of each of the following separate orders on appeal.

| ORDER DATE | FILE DATE | JUDGE                                                                | DATE OBTAINED                       | DATE RECEIVED |
|------------|-----------|----------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|---------------|
| 04/26/18   | 04/26/18  | Judge Gibbons(ConsolidationOrder)(Subjectof this Appeal) | 05/05/18 - On-lineCourt Website | N/A           |

(NOTE: Pursuant to SCRCP, a timely Motion to Alter or Amend a Judgment or Order was served on the Respondents (Defendants) on May 6, 2018 and filed on May 8, 2018, pursuant to Rule 59(e), SCRCP, which requires that a motion to alter or amend be "served not later than 10 days after receipt of written notice of the entry of the order."

This rule does not preclude the motion from being served prior to or earlier than
'receipt'.

According to the interpretation of these rules, the said May 8th motion is timely as it has been served prior to 'receipt', and would apply if the Appellants were to serve and file it as of today's date since they have not 'received' a written notice of the entry of the order being challenged. It was 'obtained' online via the Court's Website.

(Perhaps the time may be ripe in presenting the Highest Court with a certified question in regards to whether or not initiating a case search on the Court's website and reading pleadings, orders, judgments or other documents constitutes "receiving" written notice or written notice of entry of judgments or orders or any other service of process. Does 'obtaining' documents online complete service in the process of active or inactive litigation? Is an uncertified or certified document online form found online create service on the litigant seeking the information?)

Similar to defendant litigants learning of an action being filed in the courthouse and within hours of the filing by plaintiff litigants, the defendant litigants obtain copies of the documents either from making copies that are online or going to the courthouse and requesting them in person. Does either of those two scenarios constitute service according to SCRCP rules?

(Perhaps, when these laws were written, modern technology wasn't in mind and with the advent of the computer, times have changed and this is something that ought to be addressed. Otherwise you end up with laws, like in Ohio, where the Supreme Court has ruled that both parties may actively participate in litigation, have a trial, and then one party proves that according to the rules, service was not perfected and everything is void. This logic defies common sense. There comes a point where the rules cannot dictate logic. In order to comply with rules, they must be self-evident and in plain English and not ambiguous. The Appellants did follow the letter of the law as well as the spirit.)

The filing was made in person on May 8, 2018 by the Appellant/Claimant/Plaintiff Gersten, at the Chester Courthouse, minutes prior to the Respondent/Defendant Carter's sentencing in front of Judge Zamore, in Magistrate's Court. Deputy Clerk Atkinson was instructed and agreed to provide a copy to Judge Gibbons, pursuant to Rule 59(g), SCRCF, which requires that a party filing a Rule 59 motion "shall provide" a copy of the motion to the judge within 10 days of filing. The Appellant Gersten traveled from Florida with her pressure wound, by vehicle with friends to attend the hearing she was subpoenaed to by Judge Underwood, invoking her Victim's rights under the SC Victim's Constitution as a witness.)

(ALSO, NOTE: There is no requirement of a certificate of service or proof of service to be filed with the court under SCRCF for anything other than the summons and complaint. Service is complete upon mailing, as in "regular mail". There is no requirement to certify or do registered mail in SCRCF.) [Perhaps this is ripe for a certified question as to whether or not certificates of service are required.]

Court Website

(NOTE: Appellants have not received this order in the mail nor email nor any other method of service as provided by SCRCF nor was permitted to review it in the proposed form for accuracy or objections. The issue at hand is moot since it did not affect any part of this matter, so no need to address it in depth other than to make note that it was not served on Appellants/Plaintiffs and used as an example of the course of conduct.)

(ALSO, NOTE: Appellants served "Second Amended Complaint and Demand For Jury Trial With Leave on Respondent/Defendants on September 17, 2018 and overnighted for filing on and received on September 24, 2018, under the mailbox rule, and file stamped on September 25, 2018.) (The pleadings were not closed on the premature hearing of September 5, 2018 in front of Judge Hayes for a variety of reasons including, but not limited to, a timely amended complaint that was served on the Respondent/Defendants and not answered at the time of the said hearing. All of this will be further explained in the forthcoming brief, which will focus on the merits and not timeliness. This is an attempt to satisfy the timeliness requirements although the American Disabilities Act Title II and Equitable Tolling excuse these restrictions and permit law to accommodate the Appellants and modify rules due to their disabilities.)

(NOTE: Appellants' Notice of Appeal has a typo error and should reflect the correct receipt of this order as September 19, 2018 if e-mails apply to non-attorneys as valid service, possibly another certified question to conclude, either way, the Notice of Motion and Plaintiffs' Motion to Alter or Amend a judgment or Relief from Judgment or Order was timely served on October 1, 2018 and filed on October 8, 2018 according to SCACR, thus, tolling the time to serve and file the Notice of Appeal.)

(NOTE that the Appellants did not actually receive the clerk's order until 2 (two) days after its instructions to comply with its requests, causing it to be impossible, save for a nunc-pro-tunc, to follow with respect. Regardless, it says "...absent extraordinary circumstances." There are plenty of extraordinary, mitigating and extenuating circumstances. The Appellants are unaware of the authority of clerks of court to issue orders. Is this their duty?. It appears to be void on its face. Judges issue orders. With all due respect, this will be addressed in the future.)

(NOTE that the Appellants did not actually receive the judge's order, presuming that it was indeed a judge who signed this order as the last name is not legible and there is no printed legible version for the Appellants to ascertain its signor, until the day its instructions to comply were given, which was the same day. The first name "James" is legible and when the Court's website is accessed, one can see that there is a judge James Lockemy however is uncertain if this is who signed this order or someone else. Again, with all due respect, the Appellants are doing what they can to follow orders and obey the law.)

Note that the Appellant Gersten called the Court and spoke with Shelby who informed her that this order did not trigger a motion to reinstate or petition for rehearing, which subsequently caused an order filed on May 14, 2019 issued by a clerk with illegible handwriting and no printed name. As said before, the Appellants question or challenge the authority for clerks to issue orders. One of a judge's duty is to issue orders. The Appellants are unaware of any rule except for Rule 260 (a) Involuntary Dismissal and Reinstatement, SCACR, which states, "Whenever it appears that an appellant or a petitioner has failed to comply with the requirements of these Rules, the clerk shall issue an order of dismissal, which shall have the same force and effect as an order of the appellate court. A case shall not be reinstated except by leave of the court, upon good cause shown, after notice to all parties. The clerk shall remit the case to the lower court or administrative tribunal in accordance with Rule 221 unless a motion to reinstate the appeal has been actually received by the court within fifteen (15) days of filing of the order of dismissal (the day of filing excluded). The Appellant Gersten spoke with case manager Elizabeth about a fax being permitted as being "received" by the court. The Appellants will also overnight this for an expected delivery date of May 29, 2019, which would be timely. Becky also affirmed that faxes and overnight deliveries are file-stamped the same day received.

(NOTE: The Appellants have not received written notice of entry of this order and learned about it on 05/16/19 after searching case records and in a good faith effort are attempting to comply.)

Given the extraordinary, mitigating and extenuating circumstances, the Appellants move this Court for an Order granting their motion for reinstatement and/or petition for rehearing of motion to dismiss and acceptance of their Return of Respondent Kevin Carter and Richard Davis' Motion to Dismiss as timely.

(Note that now that the Appellant Gersten is finally able to shower independently and has an iPad that is capable of accessing the Court website, it will be easier for the Appellants to stay more up-to-date with court matters.)

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT OF CLAIMANT'S MOTION TO ALTER OR AMEND A JUDGMENT OR RELIEF
FROM JUDGMENT OR ORDER

I. INTRODUCTION

The Claimant Heidi Gersten filed a claim for Arbitration # 2018-AP-12-00074 with this Court on February 21, 2018 pursuant to Title 38, Chapter 77, Article 7 of the South Carolina Code of Laws. This is a cause of action to resolve property damages arising out of a motor vehicle collision that occurred in Chester County, South Carolina on March 19, 2015 between the Claimant Heidi Gersten and the Defendant Kevin Carter. The Claimant Ivanka Ayoub is the owner of the Chevrolet Mark III 1500 LX Conversion Van totaled in said collision.

Between March 17, 2018 and March 26, 2018, the Defendants were served the Summons and Claim for Property Damage, the First Amended Claim for Property Damage Verified along with Verification of Heidi Gersten attached with Exhibits A-L and Claimants First Set of Admissions, Interrogatories and Request for Production with attached Exhibits A-G via certified mail pursuant to Rule 4(d)(8), SCRPC.

On March 16, 2018, the Plaintiffs Heidi Gersten, Ivanka Ayoub, Daniel Hubbard filed a civil action # 2018-CP-12-00117 for bodily injury and personal injury arising out of the same incident. Process of service has not been perfected on the defendants in this said case as it has been in the arbitration matter. The Plaintiffs have until July 13, 2018 to perfect timely service of the Summons and Complaint.

On April 26, 2018, Honorable Circuit Judge Gibbons made an order that, "This matter is outside the scope of an arbitration. This matter shall be placed on the regular Common Pleas docket for process. This case shall be consolidated with case number 2018-CP-12-00117." And vice versa.

The Order and Judgment is void for the following reasons:

II. LAW AND ARGUMENT

This is an Alternative Dispute Resolution matter.

Title 38, Chapter 77, Article 7 of the South Carolina Code of Laws SECTION 38-77-730. Request for arbitration; no formal pleading and process; arbitration docket; filing of claim; service of summons to defendant.

(a) Any person who is a party to the disputed property damage liability claim may submit his claim for determination through arbitration. No formal pleading or process is required. The clerk of court of each county shall prepare and keep an arbitration docket and set the cases thereon for arbitration as provided by law for the settling of cases in the court of common pleas.

The above stated law permits the Claimants to redress their grievances in this manner. Arbitration is available without either party waiving their right to a jury trial under standard civil procedure. This arbitration setting is geared for non-attorneys and numerous attorneys place advocacy on their websites for the fairness and understanding of individuals presenting their own matters directly to the arbitrators in this setting.

This procedure is inviolate in bridging the gap between the public and governmental entities. Since it is illegal for attorneys to take property damage claims on contingency under South Carolina law, the five-dollar fee affords the ability to redress grievances and be heard in a court of law and record for this type of subject matter.

It states in Title 38, Chapter 77, Article 7 of the South Carolina Code of Laws SECTION 38-77-710 ...Process and procedure must be as summary and simple as may be reasonable and may provide for the taking of evidence in the form of reports, statements, or itemized bills or in any other manner without

the procedural and evidentiary limitations which pertain in jury trials. The court may provide for the taking of depositions of a witness within or without the State.

Rule 60(b)(4), SCRCp, allows relief from an order to be granted on the grounds that the order is void. A void order is one rendered in the absence of proper due process or jurisdiction. Universal Benefits, Inc. v. McKinney, 349 S.C. 179, 561 S.E.2d 659 (Ct. App. 2002). "An elementary and fundamental requirement of due process in any proceeding which is to be accorded finality is notice reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections." Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306, 70 S. Ct. 652 (1950). Such notice must give the parties a reasonable time to make their appearance and "[t]he means employed must be such as one desirous of actually informing the absentee might reasonably adopt to accomplish it." Id.

The Claimants were not given an opportunity to present their objections nor were they notified of a hearing regarding the Court's decision therefore violating their due process of law rights under the U.S. Constitution. In essence, the arbitration was dismissed. The Claimants object. The phrase due process embodies society's basic notions of legal fairness. The Fourteenth Amendment limits the power of state (and local) governments. Fair procedures do help prevent arbitrary, unreasonable decisions. At a minimum, due process means that a person who will be affected by a government decision must be given notice of what government plans to do and have a chance to comment on the action. (quoted from lincoln.edu)

Perhaps there was confusion as to the Claimants' intention. It would prejudice the Claimants and give them an unfair advantage if these two court filings were merged. The two court filings are distinct and separate. One pertains to property damages and liability only. There are different parties, although some are the same. The Claimants have perfected Process of Service in the arbitration matter and have not perfected it in the civil matter. To combine the two would cause an unusual circumstance of uncertainty and chaos to all parties involved for a variety of reasons. The Claimants have followed the rules laid out in South Carolina laws for this process and their filings and service are timely. They were not expected to have procedural and evidentiary limitations. The Claimants urge this Court to reconsider its order and grant this motion to alter or amend this judgment or relief from the judgment or order. If it pleases this Court, the Claimants suggest placing the defendants in the arbitration action into a civil action separate from the existing one and give it a new case file number. This would eliminate any due process violations and allow the Claimants in the arbitration to retain their process of service efforts in tact while proceeding in a regular Common Pleas process as the Plaintiffs and avoiding unnecessary confusion for all litigants involved.

III. CONCLUSION

The Arbitration for Property Damages Case No. 2018-AP-12-00074 is a separate claim from the Bodily Injury and Personal Injuries Case No. 2018-CP-12-00117 and must remain as filed or at least remain separated or severed.

There are due process of law rights violations of the Fourteenth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution in ending the arbitration without fair notice to the Claimants and without allowing them an opportunity to be heard with their objections. Rule 3(a)(2), SCRCF, and S.C. Code § 15-3-20(B) permit 120 days from the date of filing for the service of process to be perfected and combining the two would upset the balance since the arbitration matter has perfected service and the civil action has not. Should the Court be firm with its decision, then the two matters must remain separate or severed and proceed as two different filings bifurcated.

This request by no means prejudices the Defendants. It is made in the interest of justice and to prevent its miscarriage. For the ease of everyone involved in this matter, the Claimants request the Court to set the oral hearing on this motion to be set at least 30 days in advance and suggest scheduling the defendant's motions together and arbitration thereafter on the same day assigned should it be determined proper. The Claimants live in Florida and are disabled. The Claimant Gersten is paralyzed.

For the fore-mentioned reasons, the Claimants move this Court for an order to alter or amend a judgment or relief from judgment or order made by Honorable Circuit Judge Brian M. Gibbons on April 26, 2018 to resume arbitration or transfer the file to a new case file separate from civil action # 2018-CP-12-00117.

The Claimants' Motion is supported by this Memorandum, everything in the case file in this matter, minutes of the court, applicable laws and other evidence that may be submitted prior to or at the oral hearing on said motion, including but not limited to oral argument.

Respectfully submitted,

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Appellants requested additional time to serve and file an amended return to the Respondents Carter and Davis' motion to dismiss appeal numerous times for good cause shown to sufficiently and adequately address the multiple errors made by the Respondents Carter and Davis. The return made in a good faith effort to comply with the previously underestimated calculations for extensions of time due to the Appellants, especially Appellant Gersten's, extraordinary circumstances and is permitted by RULE 263(B), SCACR, EQUITABLE TOLLING and TITLE II OF THE AMERICAN DISABILITIES ACT.

On May 16, 2019, the Appellants learned of the orders dated May 2, 2019 and May 14, 2019 on-line on the Court's Website. They did not 'receive' them from the mail or from an email or from personal service. In a good faith effort to comply, this motion is being made which is combined as a Return and/or Motion for Reinstatement and/or Petition for Rehearing. It is being made under duress in an attempt to follow the rules laid out in SCACR. To prevent the miscarriage of justice, these documents are being overnighted as well as faxed to the Court, as they are to be received by the Court within fifteen (15) days of the date of the filing of the orders. The May 14, 2019 order stems from the alleged non-compliance of the order of May 2, 2019 which is the subject of this motion(s). It is suggested to permit the Appellants to amend this motion in light of the good cause shown for not receiving the order in time to fully comply.

For these reasons, the reasons in the attached Affidavit of Heidi Gersten and all documents in the Court file and the Appellants' forthcoming Brief, . . . the Court has jurisdiction as the Notice of Appeal was timely served and filed per SCACR rules.

The Petitioners, Heidi Gersten, Ivanka Ayoub move this court for an extension of time to serve and file a Petition for Writ of Certiorari and accompanying Appendix.

The Petition for Writ of Certiorari and Appendix is due on August 29, 2019 in said case number to be served and filed however due to Petitioner Gersten's extreme hardships suffered from being paralyzed as a result of the controversy in action, an extension of no more than twenty (20) days is requested and is necessary to file and serve the petition and appendix. By the undersigned's calculations, this would extend the deadline for filing and serving the petition and accompanying appendix to September 18, 2019, with a grant.

This is not made to cause unnecessary delay. This is made in an attempt to follow the rules. This Court's Order No: 2014-07-16-01 permits this extension, as well as SCACR 263(b), Title II of the American Disabilities Act and Equitable Tolling.

NOV 07 2019

The Petitioners, Heidi Gersten, Ivanka Ayoub move this court for an extension of time to serve and file a Reply.

The Reply is due on November 4, 2019 (10 days from the Defendants' joined return claimed to have been served on October 23, 2019, making November 2, 2019 the actual due date however that was a Saturday which carries over to the next business day of Monday, November 4, 2019) in said case, to be served and filed however due to Petitioner Gersten's illness of her left buttock's wound reopening due to extensive aggravated sitting in pursuit of complying with the law and other pending litigation case loads outside of this suit before you, in addition to her already extreme hardships suffered from being paralyzed as a result of the controversy in action, an extension of no more than seven (7) days is requested and is necessary to file and serve the reply. By the undersigned's calculations, this would extend the deadline for filing and serving the reply to November 11, 2019, with a grant.

This is not made to cause unnecessary delay. This is made in an attempt to follow the rules. This Court's Order No: 2014-07-16-01 permits this extension, as well as SCACR 263(b), Title II of the American Disabilities Act and Equitable Tolling.

This Court permitted an amended petition for writ of certiorari to be served and filed in Case No: 2017-002402, The State v. Damyon Cotton and no one who participated was paralyzed with the appearance of insurmountable handicaps as in this case. On behalf of Honorable Chief Justice Donald W. Beatty, Honorable Associate Justice Kaye Gorenflo Hearn, Honorable Associate Justice John Cannon

Few and Honorable Associate Justice George C. James, Honorable Associate Justice John W. Kittredge stated that, " ...We always enjoy someone coming for the first time." He commended the attorneys for their preparation and presentations. This is the Petitioners first time before this Court.

This Court graciously granted an extension of time to serve and file the petition for writ of certiorari in this case with an additional six (6) days above the requested twenty (20) days.

The extra days are to submit a prepared and well thought-out reply to the overwhelming number of misrepresented facts and allegations that primarily revolve around timeliness and first-impression public policy issues that will be addressed with precision and clarity in the forthcoming reply with a grant.

In the spirit of fairness and positive public perception of this Court's authority to make independent decisions, a grant of the seven (7) days is reasonable under the circumstances presented.

Respectfully submitted,

CLERK OF COURT
CHESTER CO S.C.

To All Concerned:

Good day to you!

This is a cover sheet to give instructions on the filing of my motion. I learned of a court hearing scheduled on January 13, 2013, at 9:30 a.m. on December 28, 2020. (Exhibit A)

Unfortunately, I became a victim of numerous crimes, including assault, abuse and exploitation of a disabled person, that began sometime during the summer of 2020.

After being assaulted on December 3, 2020, I found myself in the Palm Beach County, Florida courthouse and in the middle of an investigation.

I am writing this brief letter to inform you of this and to let you know that I intend on picking up where we left off, as soon as this issue is resolved. I anticipate a trial by jury to be had before springtime, as courts here move much faster. The next Florida scheduled hearing is January 5, 2021. (Exhibit B)

This is not an attempt to delay unnecessarily. History has shown that due diligence has been applied all of these years. I'm in a time restraint to get this out to the Court timely, as I comprehend that motions are timely at least 10 days prior to hearing, which lands on Sunday, January 3, 2020 and counting backwards, the next non holiday, nonweekend day is today. This is an effort to follow the rules and there is good cause for this continuance.

In an effort to prevent a miscarriage of justice, especially to preserve the public's view of the integrity of the judiciary, a continuance until the legal issues in Florida are resolved is worthy of a grant. The video of the assault is available upon request as it was captured in its entirety.

Please file stamp my copies of this motion and return them in the enclosed postage paid envelope provided. Thank you. Let 2021 be a much better year for all of us.

Thank you so much for your help. I am available if my understanding of any of this is incorrect or if you have any questions.

Respectfully submitted,

---

Heidi Gersten
