1 THE COURT: Yes, sir, Mr. Solicitor.

2 MR. GOLDBERG: May it please the Court, Your Honor.
3 Standing before you is Irshad Muhammad with his attorney,
4 Kris Hines, of the Public Defender's office.

5 Mr. Muhammad was originally indicted on one count of 6 murder on indictment 2009-GS-40-477. He is here before
7 you to plead guilty to the lesser-included offense of 8 voluntary manslaughter.

9 The State and the defense have entered into a
10 negotiated sentence of 30 years on this charge, if Your 11 Honor will accept the plea.

12 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Hines, you represent
13 Irshad Muhammad?

14 MS. HINES: I do, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Have you explained to Mr. Muhammad the 16 charge contained in this document, the possible punishment
17 and his rights, including his constitutional right to a
18 jury trial?

19 MS. HINES: I have, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: In your opinion, does Mr. Muhammad
21 understand the charge, the punishment and his rights?

22 MS. HINES: He does, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: How does he indicate to you he wishes to 24 plead, guilty or not guilty?

25 MS. HINES: Guilty.

1 THE COURT: Do you agree with his decision to plead
2 guilty?

3 MS. HINES: I do.

4 THE COURT: From your investigation of the facts
5 surrounding this case, do you feel that the State could 6 produce sufficient evidence to convince a jury here in
7 Richland County of Mr. Muhammad's guilt beyond a
8 reasonable doubt, and if he were to stand trial on this
9 charge, his conviction would be probable?

10 MS. HINES: I do, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Has Mr. Muhammad been ordered to submit 12 to a mental examination in order to determine his 13 competency to stand trial?

14 MS. HINES: He has, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Do you have originals?

16 MS. HINES: I do.

17 THE COURT: All right. Have you seen them,
18 Solicitor?

19 MR. GOLDBERG: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: We'll make them a part of the record.

21 (WHEREUPON, Court's Exhibit No. 1 was marked for 22 identification only.)

23 THE COURT: Thank you.

24 THE COURT REPORTER: Thank you.

25 THE COURT: You are Irshad Muhammad, is that correct?

1 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: Mr. Muhammad, before I can accept your
3 plea of guilty, it's necessary for me to make sure that
4 you're making this plea freely and voluntarily. To do
5 that, I need to ask you a series of questions.

6 At any point during my questioning of you, if you do
7 not understand anything I say or any words that I use,
8 please stop me. I'll be more than happy to repeat or 9 explain anything I said, Mr. Muhammad.

10 Additionally, I'll be more than happy to stop this
11 plea and allow you as much time as you feel you may need
12 to consult with your lawyer, Ms. Hines. Do you understand
13 that?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

15 THE COURT: How old are you, Mr. Muhammad?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Twenty-one.

17 THE COURT: Twenty-one. How far did you go in 18 school?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Tenth grade.

20 THE COURT: Tenth grade?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

22 THE COURT: What kind of work do you do?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Car wash, shoe store.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Muhammad, have you ever been 25 treated for the abuse of alcohol or for drugs or mental

1 illness?

2 THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.

3 THE COURT: Have you taken any medications, drugs or 4 alcohol in the past 24 hours?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yeah.

6 THE COURT: What have you taken?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Depakote.

8 THE COURT: What?

9 THE DEFENDANT: Depakote.

10 THE COURT: What is that?

11 THE DEFENDANT: It's a mood stabilizer.

12 THE COURT: Is it an antidepressant?

13 THE DEFENDANT: It's not.

14 THE COURT: A mood stabilizer, you describe it as?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Right.

16 THE COURT: Does it affect your ability to know,
17 understand and appreciate what's going on here right now,
18 sir?

19 THE DEFENDANT: No.

20 THE COURT: Do you agree, Ms. Hines, that Mr.
21 Muhammad knows, understands, and appreciates what he's 22 doing here this morning?

23 MS. HINES: I do, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Now, Mr. Muhammad, you heard your lawyer,
25 Ms. Hines, tell me that she has explained to you the

1 charge contained in this indictment, the possible
2 punishment and your rights, including your right to a jury
3 trial, and that you understand these things; is that
4 correct?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: Mr. Muhammad, you're before me on
7 indictment number 2009-477, the State vs. Irshad Muhammad.
8 This is an indictment for murder, but you're here before
9 me today to proffer a plea, that is to actually pled
10 guilty to voluntary manslaughter.

11 Do you understand the charge for voluntary
12 manslaughter?

13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

14 THE COURT: All right. This indictment, Mr.
15 Muhammad, alleges that you did here in Richland County on 16 or about January 8th, 2009, feloniously and willfully kill
17 one Donald Jordan, and that the victim died as a proximate
18 result thereof.

19 Was he shot?

20 MR. GOLDBERG: Yes, sir.

21 THE COURT: Do you understand this allegation, Mr.
22 Muhammad?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

24 THE COURT: You understand this allegation, that you
25 shot and killed Donald Jordan, and this is what you want

1 to plead guilty to; is that correct?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

3 THE COURT: Do you realize that by pleading guilty to 4 voluntary manslaughter, Mr. Muhammad, that you could go to 5 jail for 30 years?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Knowing then, sir, that you could go to
8 prison for 30 years for pleading guilty to this charge, do
9 you still wish to plead guilty to it?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

11 THE COURT: Now, Mr. Muhammad, this is an unusual
12 plea to the extent that it's a negotiated sentence,
13 reduced from murder to manslaughter, for a negotiated
14 sentence of 30 years.

15 Now, I could do only one of two things: I can accept
16 this negotiation after hearing everything and sentence you
17 to the 30 years, or I can't take it at all. Do you
18 understand that?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: I have one of two choices. I can go
21 along with it or not do it, but I can't change it. Do you
22 understand that?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

24 THE COURT: Understanding that, sir, do you still 25 wish to continue and plead guilty?

1 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Now, Mr. Muhammad, when you plead guilty,
3 you have to give up certain basic rights. First of all,
4 you have to give up your right to remain silent. Now,
5 this is your right against self-incrimination, Mr.
6 Muhammad. This is your right to say nothing at all. No
7 one can compel you to come into court and provide evidence
8 or to testify against yourself. Do you understand this,
9 sir?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

11 THE COURT: Secondly, Mr. Muhammad, when you plead
12 guilty, you have to give up your right to a jury trial.
13 That is your right for the jury here in Richland County to 14 decide whether or not you're guilty of this offense beyond
15 a reasonable doubt.

16 A jury would base its decision on whatever evidence
17 the State will introduce at trial against you and also on 18 whatever evidence you and your lawyer, Ms. Hines, may wish
19 to introduce. Now, I emphasize "may wish to introduce",
20 Mr. Muhammad, because in a trial, you'd be presumed
21 innocent. You wouldn't have to prove anything, and you
22 could not be convicted unless the State convinced all 12
23 jurors of your guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

24 The jury's decision would have to be unanimous. All
25 12 would have to agree that you killed Donald Jordan. Do

1 you understand that, sir?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

3 THE COURT: Thirdly, Mr. Muhammad, when you plead
4 guilty, you give up your right to confront and be
5 confronted by the witnesses against you. That is your 6 right to see, hear, and cross-examine any witnesses the 7 State may call to testify against you during a trial.

8 Additionally, Mr. Muhammad, by pleading guilty, you
9 give up your right to subpoena and call witnesses on your 10 own behalf, that is someone may testify for you. Do you
11 understand this, sir?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

13 THE COURT: Now, do you understand these rights that 14 I just mentioned to you, Mr. Muhammad?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: Do you understand, sir, that when you
17 plead guilty, you have to give up these constitutional 18 rights?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: Now, is that what you want to do?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: You want to give up your rights?

23 THE DEFENDANT: (Nods in the affirmative.)

24 THE COURT: Now, you realize you will not receive any 25 jury trial on this charge by pleading guilty to it?

1 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

2 THE COURT: You understand that? And once again, Mr.
3 Muhammad, you're pleading guilty to voluntary
4 manslaughter. It carries up to 30 years in the 5 penitentiary. This is a negotiated sentence or plea,
6 which means I can either give you 30 years or don't take
7 your plea at all.

8 Now, you're giving up all your constitutional rights,
9 Mr. Muhammad. Understanding and realizing what I just 10 said to you, I'll ask you once again, how do you wish to 11 plead to this charge, guilty or not guilty?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Guilty.

13 THE COURT: Do you realize, Mr. Muhammad, that when 14 you plead guilty, you admit the truth of the allegations
15 contained in this indictment against you. That means
16 you're telling me that you shot and killed Donald Jordan.
17 Do you understand that?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

19 THE COURT: I tell you that, Mr. Muhammad, because 20 you may have some defenses to this charge. Of course, I
21 have no way of knowing that, but you need to realize that 22 by pleading guilty here today, you waive -- I mean, you
23 give up any defenses you might have. Do you understand
24 that?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: All right. Now, I additionally tell you
2 that because when you were arrested by the sheriff's
3 department, the Richland County Sheriff's Department, you
4 may have given some type of incriminating statement. It's
5 basically a confession about your guilt, "I shot him." I
6 don't know of any either, but you need to realize that by 7 pleading guilty here today, you waive your right to later
8 on challenge or contest, if you gave any statements,
9 whether or not those statements were taken or obtained
10 from you freely and voluntarily in accordance with your 11 constitutional rights. Do you understand that?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

13 THE COURT: Now, Mr. Muhammad, I'll ask you once
14 again, did you commit this offense?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: So, once again, Mr. Muhammad, you're 17 telling me you're pleading guilty to 2009-477, voluntary
18 manslaughter, because you did, in fact, here in Richland
19 County on or about January 8th, 2009, shoot and kill one
20 Donald Jordan?

21 You're pleading guilty because you shot and killed
22 him; is that correct?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

24 THE COURT: All right. Now, as I understand it, the 25 negotiations are voluntary manslaughter, reduced from

1 murder, 30 years.

2 MR. GOLDBERG: Yes, sir.

3 THE COURT: Anything additionally, Ms. Hines, that
4 needs to be added to the record in connection, any plea
5 negotiation, any recommendation?

6 MS. HINES: No, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: You still wish to continue and plead
8 guilty, Mr. Muhammad?

9 THE DEFENDANT: (Nods in the affirmative.)

10 THE COURT: Now, sir, has anyone promised you
11 anything or has anyone held out any hope of reward in 12 order to get you to plead guilty?

13 THE DEFENDANT: No.

14 THE COURT: Has anyone threatened you or used force
15 to get you to plead guilty?

16 THE DEFENDANT: No.

17 THE COURT: Has anyone used any pressure or 18 intimation to cause you to plead guilty?

19 THE DEFENDANT: No. It's on my own free will.

20 THE COURT: All right. Have you had enough time to 21 make up your mind as to whether or not you want to plead
22 guilty to this?

23 THE DEFENDANT: (Nods in the affirmative.)

24 THE COURT: Are you pleading guilty of your own free
25 will and accord?

1 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: Now, Mr. Muhammad, are you satisfied with 3 the manner in which your lawyer here, Ms. Hines, has 4 advised and represented you on this charge?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

6 THE COURT: You said yes?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yeah.

8 THE COURT: Have you talked with her for as long and 9 as often as you feel it necessary for her to properly
10 represent you?

11 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

12 THE COURT: Do you need any more time to talk to her?

13 THE DEFENDANT: No.

14 THE COURT: Have you understood your talks with her?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Now, Mr. Muhammad, has Ms. Hines done
17 everything she could, in your opinion, to do -- has she 18 done everything you feel that she should do or could do on 19 your behalf in advising and representing you on this 20 charge?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Even more.

22 THE COURT: All right. Has she done anything you
23 feel she should not have done?

24 THE DEFENDANT: No.

25 THE COURT: Are you completely satisfied with her

1 services?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Now, Mr. Muhammad, do you have any
4 complaints against anyone at the Richland County Sheriff's 5 Department?

6 THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.

7 THE COURT: Any complaints against anyone who works
8 here in the solicitor's office?

9 THE DEFENDANT: I would -- I would say on my 10 statement, it said that my intention -- my intention from 11 the beginning was not to -- not to kill him or to hurt
12 him, and in the statement it said that it was a typo.

13 He said that my intention was to shoot the car, raid
14 the car, which I didn't say, but I know these -- you know,
15 what I'm saying, it's hard to say that. It's hard to 16 prove that because I signed it. That's the only thing.
17 Other than that...

18 THE COURT: So there's something in your statement
19 that's not entirely accurate?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Is that what you're telling me? But that 22 doesn't remove the fact that you admit and agree that you
23 shot and killed Donald Jordan?

24 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Okay. And you've got to tell me this.

1 This is why I'm asking you these questions.

2 Now, well, that's the thing about your statement, the
3 police didn't coerce you, didn't beat you?

4 THE DEFENDANT: No.

5 THE COURT: Didn't pressure you or anything like
6 that?

7 THE DEFENDANT: No.

8 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Once again, you don't 9 have any complaints about anyone prosecuting you from the 10 solicitor's office. Now, Mr. Muhammad, have you
11 understood my questions?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Is there anything you want to ask me
14 about what I just went over with you, anything at all?

15 THE DEFENDANT: No.

16 THE COURT: Now, Mr. Muhammad, do you realize that 17 you have the right to appeal this guilty plea or whatever
18 sentence, 30 years, I may impose upon you, but if you're 19 going to appeal, you need to file a Notice of Intent to 20 Appeal within ten days of today's date. Do you understand
21 that?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

23 THE COURT: Now, additionally, Mr. Muhammad, once
24 you're in the Department of Corrections, if you later on 25 feel that you do have some complaint against Ms. Hines,

1 your lawyer, against the sheriff's department, against the
2 solicitor's office, anybody else involved in your case,
3 you need to make those complaints known by filing a Post
4 Conviction Relief application within one year of today's 5 date. Do you understand that?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

7 THE COURT: From the date of your sentence, you have
8 a year to file a P.C.R. Okay. Do you understand that?

9 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

10 THE COURT: Very well, Solicitor. I'll be happy to 11 hear about it.

12 MR. GOLDBERG: Thank you, Your Honor. If it please
13 the Court. This incident took place January 8th, 2009,
14 , here in Richland County.

15 If Your Honor is not aware, Middle Street is located
16 between Shakespeare Road and Two Notch Road, somewhat near 17 the Columbia Mall area. This particular area of Middle 18 Street, there is a mobile home community located in that 19 area.

20 On the night in question, the victim in the case,
21 38-year-old Donald Jordan, along with a female friend of 22 his, a Jennifer Clifton, were headed to that location in 23 order to try to purchase some drugs.

24 I don't believe that Mr. Jordan was that familiar
25 with the area. Ms. Clifton, however, was very familiar

1 with the area. They pulled up at this location,
2 Mr. Jordan was driving. He pulled up into the driveway,
3 despite Ms. Clifton telling him he shouldn't do that.

4 When he did it, an occupant of this particular
5 trailer, Addition (phonetic) Taylor was out in the yard,
6 confronts Mr. Jordan about why he's pulling up in his
7 yard. They have a conversation about this.

8 Mr. Taylor then goes back inside the residence to get
9 some of his family members, his brother Nicholas Clemmons
10 and Jessica Clemmons, some other folks that were inside.
11 They come out of the trailer. They're upset with 12 Mr. Jordan and the female, Ms. Clifton, for pulling into 13 the driveway. There's --

14 THE COURT: Is there a no trespassing sign or 15 something?

16 MR. GOLDBERG: I guess they just weren't happy --

17 THE COURT: All right.

18 MR. GOLDBERG: -- with them bringing attention to 19 their home, I guess.

20 THE COURT: That's fine.

21 MR. GOLDBERG: It's -- I believe their home has 22 somewhat of a reputation for making narcotics available in 23 that area.

24 THE COURT: All right.

25 MR. GOLDBERG: So regardless, the family comes

1 outside, confronts Mr. Jordan about it. They start to get
2 angry. There is a verbal altercation.

3 Mr. Jordan, sensing that this was not a good
4 situation, gets back in his vehicle, starts backing the 5 vehicle out of the driveway. As he's doing so, the 6 members of the family start to surround the car.

7 He is able to back the car out into the street, and
8 right as he's about to pull forward and drive away,
9 according to witness statements, the defendant, Mr.
10 Muhammad, comes up seemingly out of nowhere. A shot is 11 fired. It strikes Mr. Jordan in the upper back area,
12 seemingly right as he steps on the gas pedal.

13 As a result, he drives the car approximately 75 yards
14 down the road and crashes into a tree rather severely.
15 Some of the people who had just confronted him rush down
16 there to help him out of the car.

17 Mr. Muhammad, by all accounts, took off running at 18 that point. They're able to pull Mr. Jordan out of the 19 car. The car caught on fire. Mr. Jordan was not on fire.
20 E.M.S. was notified. They came, picked him up and took 21 him to the hospital. I believe he passed away en route to 22 the hospital.

23 Your Honor, the sheriff's department, Sergeant
24 Barnes, Investigator Gonzales, and also Investigator Gwyn
25 who couldn't be here today worked very hard on this case.

1 Initially, they were given by Addition Taylor who was
2 out in the yard that night, as well as Jennifer Clifton
3 who was in the car with Mr. Jordan, that a fellow named
4 Ira, also known as "New York", was responsible for this 5 crime.

6 As a result of that, they arrested this man named Ira
7 Holloway only to find out later through information
8 provided to them that they had arrested the wrong man and 9 their witnesses have lied to them.

10 To their credit, they continued to work very 11 diligently on the case and were able to gather witness
12 statements from all those at the scene, and come to find
13 out, Mr. Muhammad, who also went by the nickname "New 14 York" was, in fact, the real shooter.

15 A number of the witnesses that they dealt with gave 16 various statements changing their stories several times
17 until ultimately admitting that yes, Mr. Muhammad was the 18 "New York" that was actually the shooter.

19 Had this case gone to trial -- it was scheduled first 20 up next week in front of Judge Cooper. Had it gone to 21 trial, we believe that there could have been a number of 22 potential issues with some of these witnesses and their 23 statements based upon some credibility issues they brought 24 upon themselves, including Mr. Taylor and Ms. Clifton, who 25 back at the sheriff's department were charged with

1 obstruction of justice for the lies that they pulled off
2 at the outset.

4 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

5 (Pause.)

6 MR. GOLDBERG: Your Honor, when they finally did make
7 contact with this defendant, he was advised of his Miranda
8 rights. He waived his rights and did provide a statement,
9 as he indicated, and as he indicated to you earlier, he
10 did admit to firing the gun, did kind of admit it somewhat
11 indicating that it wasn't his intent to harm Mr. Jordan.
12 It was more of an intent to scare him.

13 THE COURT: Scare him, I understand.

14 MR. GOLDBERG: And again, there were some conflicting 15 statements from witnesses at the scene as to how close he 16 was to the car, whether he cocked the weapon or not,
17 things that, you know, could have shown that it was murder
18 or could have shown that it was not murder, depending upon
19 how they testified at trial.

20 Your Honor, Mr. Muhammad has no prior record and at 21 the appropriate time -- the victim's family is in 22 attendance -- I believe they would like to address the 23 Court.

24 THE COURT: All right. That's pretty much how it
25 unfolded, Mr. Muhammad? Is that a fair statement?

2 THE COURT: Do you agree, Ms. Hines?

3 MS. HINES: Yes, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: You, too, Ms. Singletary?

5 MS. SINGELTARY: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: You were first or second chair?

7 MS. SINGELTARY: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Very well. I find that there is a
9 substantial factual basis for your plea, Mr. Muhammad. I
10 further find your decision to plead guilty to be freely
11 and voluntarily, knowingly and intelligently made; that 12 you've had the advice of competent counsel whom you
13 indicate to me you're completely satisfied with.
14 Therefore, I'll accept his plea.

15 Let me back up a little bit. Ms. Singletary helped 16 on this case also. Do you have any complaints against 17 her? She did all she could for you also?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yeah.

19 THE COURT: You don't have --

20 THE DEFENDANT: I don't have any.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Against either Ms. Hines or 22 Ms. Singletary?

23 THE DEFENDANT: No.

24 THE COURT: All right. Now, do you want me to hear
25 from the State, the rest of the State, before I hear from

1 you ladies?

2 (Nods in the affirmative.)

3 THE COURT: All right. I'll be happy to hear from 4 you.

5 MR. GOLDBERG: Thank you, Your Honor. If I may 6 approach briefly, I have a pamphlet here from the family
7 of the deceased, a picture of Mr. Jordan.

8 Your Honor, I believe in the courtroom we have 9 Mr. Jordan's parents, Diane and Donald Jordan, Sr., his 10 sister, Kadiesha (phonetic) Jordan, as well as his fiancée
11 at the time and the mother of his children, Ms. Danielle
12 Greenfield.

13 I believe that Ms. Greenfield would like to address
14 the Court.

15 THE COURT: Ms. Greenfield?

16 FIANCEE: There's one point that I'd like to start
17 with. When Mr. Muhammad murdered Donald, we had just had 18 a daughter less than 36 hours prior, so I was in the 19 hospital where they brought him.

20 The only way they can come tell me that he had been
21 shot was because he had the baby bracelet on his wrist
22 from being there when our daughter was born.

23 My life has drastically changed. After 36 hours
24 after the birth of our daughter, I was still in the 25 hospital. This caused me to lose my home in South

1 Carolina. I have no independent means to continue paying
2 rent without help.

3 My only means of transportation, my car, was totaled,
4 and I was in a position where I now have a two-and-a-half
5 year old son and a newborn who will never know their 6 father other than through pictures and stories that we 7 will tell them.

8 Donald was coming back up to the hospital the next
9 morning because I was being discharged and to sign
10 paperwork for our daughter's birth certificate, and he 11 died before he could do that which left me to have to have 12 a paternity test to prove that he was the father of our 13 daughter he will never know and a son who asks me every 14 night, "Mommy, can daddy come back from heaven and angels?
15 God doesn't need him anymore. He wants to come home and 16 be with me and sissy."

17 He was my best friend and a good father, and nobody 18 is perfect, and he sure wasn't perfect, nor am I, but he 19 did not deserve to take a bullet in the back for 20 absolutely no reason.

21 (Pause.)

22 (Crying.)

23 (Pause.)

24 I relive the events every day and night, what if,
25 could have, should have, would have, and nothing will

1 bring him back.

2 Thirty years from now, Mr. Muhammad will have a
3 chance to walk free, and my kids will never know their 4 father.

5 I will never have a chance to walk down the aisle
6 with the man I loved with every ounce of being, and I have
7 to figure out a way to not let him ruin my life for taking
8 Donald away from me.

9 Thank you.

10 THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am.

11 MR. GOLDBERG: Judge, I don't believe that anybody
12 else from the family wants to address the Court at this 13 time.

14 I would just also like to, at this point, thank the 15 sheriff's department for their hard work on this case
16 considering the information they were given initially.
17 The fact that they had an innocent man in custody, they
18 continued to work the case until they were able to track
19 down Mr. Muhammad, and also, this past Tuesday, I believe,
20 myself and Ms. Garfield and Sergeant Barnes traveled over 21 to Stone Mountain and met with Mr. Jordan and his wife and 22 daughter to discuss this issue in great detail. And we 23 all feel that considering some of the legal issues in this
24 case, that this is an appropriate resolution to it. I
25 think that we're all in agreement on that.

1 I appreciate them taking the time out to listen to us
2 and taking the opportunity to explain all of it to you.

3 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Solicitor.

4 MS. HINES: Thank you, Your Honor, May it please the 5 Court. Mr. Muhammad is, as he told earlier, 21 years old.
6 He also has a young daughter.

7 This is the first trouble that he's been in. Since
8 I've known him, he has shown remorse for this. I do
9 believe that he didn't intend for this result to happen.

10 I believe that he does carry that with him and will 11 carry that with him, the consequences of his actions, and 12 he has from the very beginning of this felt extreme
13 remorse for this incident.

14 I know that Ms. Singletary and the family was in the 15 courtroom earlier today. His mother -- she had to be 16 taken out. She was overcome with emotion and sad, but she 17 would like to address the court on behalf of her.

18 MS. SINGELTARY: Thank you, Your Honor. Ms. Muhammad
19 wanted me to actually, on her behalf, apologize to the 20 victim's family.

21 What she wanted me to relay to the Court is that she
22 knows that this is a tragedy, and that this situation is a
23 lose/lose situation for everyone, that the family will no
24 longer have their son. The kids will no longer have their 25 father, Your Honor.

1 She just wanted to apologize on her son's behalf and
2 just give her condolences to the family, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right.

4 MS. SINGELTARY: She just also wanted the Court to 5 know that with Mr. Muhammad, she never had any problems
6 with him at all; that he was a good child, and that she
7 just wished that none of this had taken place and wished
8 that he was not there at the time of this incident which 9 brought about this tragedy, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: I understand.

11 MS. SINGELTARY: Thank you.

12 THE COURT: Anything further?

13 MS. HINES: Mr. Muhammad would like to address the 14 Court.

15 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

16 THE DEFENDANT: You know, ain't nothing I can say to 17 bring him back. Ain't nothing that I can say that will
18 help anything or anybody. You know, the 30 years I'm 19 going to do, I'll do it day for day. That's just me
20 saying it, free will.

21 Still, I can't bring him back. I must say that it
22 wasn't my intention. I'm dealing with that every day. I
23 know what it's like to not grow up -- to grow up without a 24 father. That's the main thing that hurts me the most is 25 the kids have to suffer because of that.

1 You know, that -- what I'm saying? I was at the
2 wrong place at the wrong time, and I'm dealing with it
3 just like they're dealing with it. You know what I'm 4 saying?

5 I'm sorry, but you know, I pray for y'all every day.
6 I've been praying for y'all every day since I've been in
7 jail. That's the only thing I can say. It's lose/lose.
8 Who is to say what's going to happen to me when we get to 9 prison. Tomorrow is not promised. We just need to thank 10 God that we're still breathing, believe in Him all the 11 same.

12 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Muhammad, I've done a lot
13 of these things over the course of my career, and I've 14 looked at a lot of people in your position. I can tell
15 you, it appears to me you're being sincere.

16 I get the impression that you wish that you could 17 take it back. We all make mistakes, not to this 18 magnitude, but we all have demons that we have to 19 overcome. I hope you find a way to overcome yours, but 20 you've got to start with admitting that you're wrong and 21 seeking some sort of self-redemption. What you've said
22 here today goes a long way to that.

23 Sometimes we can't save our bias, but we always have 24 an option to save our soul. So I wish you the very best
25 in this role, and your family.

1 Sir, indictment 2009-477, the State vs. Irshad
2 Muhammad, the sentence is 30 years. That's negotiated.
3 Good luck to everyone.

4 MR. GOLDBERG: Thank you, Your Honor.

5 MS. HINES: Thank you, Your Honor.

6 MS. SINGELTARY: Thank you, Your Honor.

4. The indictment number or numbers (if known) upon which and the offenses for which sentence was imposed:
(a) J-563892.

5. The date upon which sentence was imposed and the terms of the sentence:
- (a) 2/2/2010
 - (b) Committed to the State Department of Corrections for a term of thirty (30) years.
6. Check whether a finding of guilty was made:
- (a) after a plea of guilty ✓
 - (b) after a plea of not guilty _____
 - (c) after a plea of nolo contendere _____
7. Did you appeal from the judgment of conviction or the imposition of sentence?
No.
8. If you answered "yes" to (7), list:
- (a) the name of each Court to which you appealed:
N/A
 - (b) the result in each such Court to which you appealed:
N/A
 - (c) the date of each such result:
N/A
 - (d) if known, citations of any written opinion or orders entered pursuant to such results:
N/A
9. If you answered "no" to (7), state your reasons for not so appealing:
- (a) Plea counsel improperly informed Applicant about appealing this charge.
 - (b) _____
 - (c) _____
10. State concisely the grounds on which you base your allegation that you are being held in custody unlawfully:
- (a) My conviction or sentence violates United States or South Carolina Constitution because I received ineffective assistance of counsel prior to, during, and after pleading guilty to the above-referenced indictment.

11. State concisely and in the same order the facts which support each of the grounds set out in (10):

- (a) Witness statements were improperly used against me because they were inaccurate, inconsistent, and contradicted one another. This situation was even mentioned by Solicitor Dan Goldberg on the record at my plea agreement. If I would have known those statements could have been suppressed and/or impeached, I would not have pled. If I would have known that those witnesses were not credible because of their felony convictions, I would not have pled. My attorney did not advise me of any of these problems with the witnesses arrayed against me and/or their statements. Therefore, I did not have the effective assistance of counsel regarding this charge.
- (b) This was my first offense and the situation was so overwhelming I was unaware of my surroundings and what was legally taking place. I had no idea of what questions to ask my attorney. I only pled to avoid life in prison because my attorney Ms. Hines told me that I had "no defense." I was also on Depakote, a mood stabilizer and antipsychotic at the time of my plea. I was not thinking clearly and only listening to my attorney and relying on her. I do not believe I was able to understand what was taking place. If my attorney had stopped the plea process and explained the case to me in a manner I could have understood, I would not have pled. Therefore, I did not have the effective assistance of counsel regarding this charge.
- (c) Prior to my plea, while being interrogated, I was suppressed and forced into making my statement. I was mentally attacked while intoxicated, and I was bribed with cigarettes. Furthermore, I was bribed with drinking water and the possibility of seeing my daughter. I was coerced into making my statements after being threatened with additional charges. Had my attorney communicated to me--in a manner that I could have understood--that my statement could have been suppressed, I would not have pled. Therefore, I did not have the effective assistance of counsel regarding this charge.

- (d) My attorney Ms. Hines did not talk to me—in a manner I could have understood—regarding appealing my conviction. Therefore, I did not have the effective assistance of counsel regarding this charge.

12. Prior to this application have you filed with respect to this conviction:

- (a) any petition in a State Court under South Carolina Law? No
 (b) any petition in State or Federal Courts for habeas corpus or post-convictions relief? No
 (c) any petition in the United States Supreme Court for certiorari other than petitions, if any, already specified in (8)? No
 (d) any other petitions, motions or applications in this or any other Court? No

2. Name and location of Court which imposed sentence Richland County Court of General Sessions, 1701 Main Street (P.O. Box 2766), Columbia, South Carolina 29202.
3. Name(s) of co-defendant(s) (if any) Jennifer Ann Clifton, Dacian Tavaer Taylor.

my right to Due Process under the United States and/or South Carolina Constitutions.

11. State concisely and in the same order the facts which support each of the grounds set out in (10):

- (a) Witness statements were improperly used against me because they were inaccurate, inconsistent, and contradicted one another. This situation was even mentioned by Solicitor Dan Goldberg on the record at my plea agreement. If I would have known those statements could have been suppressed and/or impeached, I would not have pled. If I would have known that those witnesses were not credible because of their felony convictions, I would not have pled. My attorney did not advise me of any of these problems with the witnesses arrayed against me and/or their statements. Therefore, I did not have the effective assistance of counsel regarding this charge.
- (b) This was my first offense and the situation was so overwhelming I was unaware of my surroundings and what was legally taking place. I had no idea of what questions to ask my attorney. I only pled to avoid life in prison because my attorney Ms. Hines told me that I had "no defense." I was also on Depakote, a mood stabilizer and antipsychotic at the time of my plea. I was not thinking clearly and only listening to my attorney and relying on her. I did not understand what was taking place. If my attorney had stopped the plea process and explained the case to me in a manner I could have understood, I would not have pled. Therefore, I did not have the effective assistance of counsel regarding this charge.
- (c) Prior to my plea, while being interrogated, I was suppressed and forced into making my statement. I was mentally attacked while intoxicated, and I was bribed with cigarettes. Furthermore, I was bribed with drinking water and the possibility of seeing my daughter. I was coerced into making my statements after being threatened with additional charges. Had my attorney communicated to me--in a manner that I could have understood--that my statement could have been suppressed, I would not have pled. Therefore, I did not have the effective assistance of counsel regarding this charge.

- (d) My attorney Ms. Hines did not talk to me—in a manner I could have understood—regarding appealing my conviction. Therefore, I did not have the effective assistance of counsel regarding this charge.
- (e) My attorney Ms. Hines ordered a competency to stand trial report, which was supposedly attached to the Transcript of the Record for my guilty plea. However, I never had a hearing on the issue of my competency to stand trial. I do not know if Ms. Hines ever requested this hearing. Therefore, I did not have the effective assistance of counsel regarding this charge and I was denied my right to Due Process of Law.

19. State clearly the relief you seek in filing this application:

I am seeking post-conviction relief. I respectfully request that the Court determine that I received ineffective assistance of counsel during my guilty plea, and that the ineffective assistance of counsel led to my making an unknowing and involuntary plea. Further, I respectfully request that the Court determine that I was prejudiced by the ineffective assistance of counsel I received. I respectfully request that the Court grant my application for post-conviction relief and return me to the position I was in prior to making my guilty plea. I respectfully request a new trial.

20. Are you now under sentence from any other court that you have not challenged?

No.

Attached herewith and incorporated herein are the records of the Richland County Clerk of Court regarding the subject conviction(s), the Applicant's records from the South Carolina Department of Corrections, and the guilty plea transcript. The Respondent reserves the right to amend this Return upon receipt of any relevant materials or submit an amended Return to reflect any amended allegations and/or to provide a more detailed procedural history.

III.

For the purposes of this Return, the Respondent interprets each of the Applicant's unspecified allegations to be claims that he received ineffective assistance of counsel. The Respondent contends that the Applicant's trial counsel rendered adequate assistance and provided representation within the range of competence required by attorneys in criminal cases.

In a post-conviction relief action, the Applicant bears the burden of proving the allegations in their application. Butler v. State, 286 S.C. 441, 334 S.E.2d 813 (1985). Where the application alleges ineffective assistance of counsel as a ground for relief, the Applicant must prove that "counsel's conduct so undermined the proper functioning of the adversarial process that the trial cannot be relied upon as having produced a just result." Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668, 104 S.Ct. 2052, 2064, 80 L.Ed.2d 674, 692 (1984); Butler, 334 S.E.2d 813.

The proper measure of performance is whether the attorney provided representation within the range of competence required in criminal cases. The courts presume that counsel rendered adequate assistance and made all significant decisions in the exercise of reasonable professional judgment. Strickland, 466 U.S. 668. The Applicant must overcome this presumption in order to receive relief. Cherry v. State, 300 S.C. 115, 386 S.E.2d 624 (1989).

The reviewing court applies a two-pronged test in evaluating allegations of ineffective assistance of plea counsel. First, the Applicant must prove that counsel's performance was deficient. Under this prong, the court measures an attorney's performance by its "reasonableness under professional norms." Cherry, 300 S.C. at 117, 386 S.E.2d at 625, citing Strickland. Second, counsel's deficient performance must have prejudiced the Applicant such that "there is a reasonable probability that, but for counsel's unprofessional errors, the result of the proceeding would have been different." Cherry, 300 S.C. at 117-18, 386 S.E.2d at 625. With respect to guilty plea counsel, the Applicant must show that there is a reasonable probability that, but for counsel's alleged errors, he would not have pled guilty and would have insisted on going to trial. Hill v. Lockhart, 474 U.S. 52, 106 S.Ct. 366, 88 L.Ed. 2d 203 (1985).

The Respondent submits that the Applicant cannot satisfy either requirement of the Strickland test. However, the allegation of ineffective assistance of counsel probably raises questions of fact that the record does not conclusively refute. Accordingly, the Respondent requests an evidentiary hearing to fully resolve this issue. See Sharper v. State, 279 S.C. 264, 305 S.E.2d 247 (1983).

IV.

Each and every allegation contained within the application not hereinbefore either expressly admitted, qualified or explained is hereby denied. The Respondent therefore requests that this Court convene an evidentiary hearing solely on the issue of ineffective assistance of counsel. As to all other allegations, the Respondent moves for summary dismissal pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-70 on the basis that there is no genuine issue of material fact which would necessitate an evidentiary hearing and that those allegations should be dismissed as a matter of law.

V.

WHEREFORE, having made its Return, the State requests that an evidentiary hearing be held. The Respondent will coordinate with the Applicant's attorney who is, according to the Respondent's file, Charles T. Brooks, III, Esquire regarding when the hearing should be set.³

SEPTEMBER 11, 2013

MR. CORNEY: May it please the Court, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. CORNEY: Your Honor, this is the PCR of Irshad Muhammad, Docket Number 2010-CP-40-8024.

Mr. Muhammad was true-billed indicted at the April 2009 term of the Richland County Grand Jury for murder. He pled guilty February 5th, 2010, before Judge Manning to the lesser included voluntary manslaughter pursuant to negotiations with the State.

As part of those negotiations, he was sentenced to 30 years imprisonment. He did not have a direct appeal, but filed a timely PCR application November 15th, 2010.

He is represented today by Mr. Aaron Hayes on the application, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. HAYES: May it please the Court, Your Honor? Aaron Hayes, here for Applicant, Irshad Muhammad. Also in the courtroom with us today, and we will hear from later, is Mr. Muhammad's mother, Ms. Karima Muhammad.

Your Honor, as a preliminary matter,

1 Mr. Corney and I have stipulated to the
2 admissibility of some exhibits. If I may approach,
3 Your Honor?

4 (Complies.)

5 MR. HAYES: And, for the record, these are
6 Exhibits 1 through 8. And I have premarked them
7 for identification, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: All right.

9 MR. HAYES: But, again, we have stipulated to 10 their admissibility. Should it please the Court?

11 Applicant's Exhibit 1 is Mr. Muhammad's
12 Richland County School District One records.

13 Applicant's Exhibit 2 is Mr. Muhammad's South
14 Carolina Department of Mental Health competency
15 evaluation.

16 Applicant's Exhibit 3 is a copy of Mr.
17 Muhammad's South Carolina Department of Corrections
18 warden record.

19 Applicant's Exhibit 4 is a copy of
20 Mr. Muhammad's South Carolina Department of 21 Corrections central record.

22 Applicant's Exhibit 5 is a copy of
23 Mr. Muhammad's South Carolina Department of
24 Corrections mental and physical health records.

25 Applicant's Exhibit 6 is a copy of

1 Mr. Muhammad's mental health record from the Alvin
2 S. Glenn Detention Center.

3 Applicant's Exhibit 7 is a copy of the South
4 Carolina Law Enforcement Division conviction record
5 for Mr. Ira Holloway.

6 And Applicant's Exhibit 8 is a copy of the 7 South Carolina Law Enforcement Division conviction
8 record for a Mr. Nicholas Clemons.

9 And at this time, Your Honor, and pursuant to 10 our stipulation, I would move those into evidence.

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 MR. HAYES: Thank you, sir.

13 MR. CORNEY: Your Honor, obviously we do
14 stipulate to this and they are without objection.

15 (WHEREUPON, Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 1
16 was marked for identification and
17 received into evidence.)

18 (WHEREUPON, Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 2
19 was marked for identification and
20 received into evidence.)

21 (WHEREUPON, Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 3
22 was marked for identification and
23 received into evidence.)

24 (WHEREUPON, Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 4
25 was marked for identification and

2 (WHEREUPON, Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 5
3 was marked for identification and

5 (WHEREUPON, Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 6
6 was marked for identification and

8 (WHEREUPON, Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 7
9 was marked for identification and

11 (WHEREUPON, Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 8
12 was marked for identification and
13 received into evidence.)

14 MR. HAYES: Your Honor, it is our position
15 that these exhibits in today's testimony will 16 support our allegations that Mr. Muhammad did not 17 have effective assistance of counsel before,
18 during, and after his plea hearing of February 5th,
19 2010.

20 Specifically, before this hearing, it is our 21 position that Mr. Muhammad was not advised of the 22 effect of felony convictions on the credibility of 23 the witnesses arrayed against him, nor was he 24 advised of the effect on the credibility of the 25 witnesses arrayed against him of their conflicting

1 statements offered to the police.

2 Finally, Your Honor, before his plea hearing
3 he was not advised of the possibility that his own
4 inculpatory statement may have been suppressed
5 prior to his plea.

6 During the hearing, Your Honor, it is our
7 position that Mr. Muhammad was unable to comprehend
8 what was happening to him at that hearing and was 9 relying on his attorney to stop the hearing, which 10 did not happen.

11 Finally, Your Honor, Mr. Muhammad was not
12 contacted by or assisted with any direct appeal
13 after his conviction.

14 And then also, Your Honor, I have been in 15 communication with Mr. Corney about this issue, I
16 think we may have to leave the record open today
17 for another possible grounds that we would add to 18 the application. We have been unable to locate an 19 order adjudicating my client competent to stand
20 trial.

21 And as you can see from Applicant's Exhibit
22 Number 2, the mental health evaluation was done,
23 but we have been unable to find the subsequent 24 order adjudicating him competent. And we would 25 request that the record be left open to amend our

1 application to assert that should the evidence
2 provide good a faith basis for that allegation.

3 I don't believe Mr. Corney -- I believe that
4 is our agreement.

5 MR. CORNEY: Based on testimony given today.
6 I mean, at the end I think that is something we can
7 take up if need be, and I have no problem with it
8 if we need it at that point, Your Honor.

9 MR. HAYES: So that is where we are going.
10 And if the Court has no objection, the Applicant
11 will call to the stand Ms. Kris Hines.

12 THE COURT: All right, Ms. Hines.

13 (Witness approaches.)

14 THE COURT: Ms. Hines, do you swear or affirm
15 that you are going to truthfully testify?

16 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Take the stand.

18 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

19 (Witness complies.)

20 KRIS HINES,

21 after being duly sworn, testified as follows:

22 DIRECT EXAMINATION

24 Q Ready, Ms. Hines?

25 A Yes.

1 Q Ms. Hines, would you please state your full name
2 for the record.

3 A Laura Kristine Hines.

4 Q And, Ms. Hines, was Mr. Irshad Muhammad a client of 5 yours in 2009 and 2010?

6 A Yes, he was.

7 Q And what charges were brought against him at that
8 time?

9 A Murder.

10 Q And how was that charge disposed of?

11 A He pled guilty to voluntary manslaughter, a
12 negotiated 30-year sentence.

13 Q And did he do so upon your advice?

14 A It was a decision that he made.

15 Q But did you advise him the plea would be in his
16 best interest in your professional judgment?

17 A I don't recall if I specifically said that or if it
18 was a decision that he made from the beginning of 19 my representation with him. He wanted to plead
20 guilty.

21 Q Okay. And how many times did you visit
22 Mr. Muhammad to discuss his case with him prior to 23 the plea hearing?

24 A Nine.

25 Q And for the record, Ms. Hines, what are you reading

1 from?

2 A My notes.

3 Q And, Ms. Hines, have you reviewed any other
4 information in preparation for this hearing today?

5 A No. I mean, I have looked at the file.

6 Q Okay. So you have reviewed your file?

7 A I have reviewed it, yes.

8 Q Do you recall the names of some of the potential
9 witnesses who may have offered testimony against 10 Mr. Muhammad had this case gone to trial?

11 A Based on my review of the file, I recall some of 12 the names. I don't recall all of them.

13 Q Can you provide us with some of those names?

14 A Jessica Clemons, Nicholas Clemons, Ira Holloway,
15 Mike Griffin, Vernon Davis.

16 Q And of all those witnesses that you just mentioned
17 for us, do you know if some or all of them possess
18 felony convictions?

19 A I know that some of them do. I don't know what
20 their records are, but I know that some of them do
21 have felony convictions. I don't know what they 22 are for.

23 Q Okay. And did you look into that during your 24 investigation and preparation of this case?

25 A Yes, I did.

1 MR. HAYES: Your Honor, may I approach the
2 witness?

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 MR. HAYES: For the record, Your Honor, this
5 is Applicant's Exhibit Number 7.

6 (Complies.)

7 BY MR. HAYES:

8 Q Ms. Hines, I am going to direct your attention to 9 Applicant's Exhibit Number 7.

10 A Okay.

11 Q And please take a moment to review it.

12 A Okay.

13 (Pause.)

14 A Okay.

15 Q And we stipulated -- and I represent that we have 16 stipulated that into evidence, but what does this 17 document appear to be to you?

18 A That is Ira Holloway's rap sheet.

19 Q And did you ever advise Mr. Muhammad in a fashion
20 that he could understand that Mr. Holloway's 21 testimony against him at trial may not have been 22 credible and subject to impeachment because of 23 Mr. Holloway's felony convictions?

24 A I don't know. Specifically, to answer your
25 question, based on what I just reviewed, the result

1 would only be one or two that -- convictions that
2 would be admissible based on the Rules of Evidence.

3 And I'm not sure that Mr. Holloway would have 4 been called to be a witness in this trial because
5 I'm not sure what he had to add. He was actually
6 arrested of this charge prior to Mr. Muhammad
7 because he was identified by witnesses as the 8 shooter. And then later they found out that that 9 was incorrect. So he wasn't present. He wasn't --
10 as far as what information he would have had to add
11 against Mr. Muhammad, I'm not sure that he would 12 have had that much, other than the fact that he was 13 arrested for the charge prior to Mr. Muhammad, 14 prior to the police figuring out who it was.

15 Q But had he testified, would you agree with me that 16 his testimony would have been subject to 17 impeachment based on at least one prior felony
18 conviction?

19 A Yes. Based on at least one of the prior 20 convictions, yes, it would.

21 MR. HAYES: And, for the record, this is
22 Applicant's Exhibit Number 8.

23 A Okay.

24 Q If you will take a moment to review that for me,
25 please.

1 (Pause.)

2 A Okay.

3 Q And, again, I will represent that we have
4 stipulated this into evidence, but I will ask you,
5 what does that document appear to be?

6 A That is Nicholas Clemons' rap sheet.

7 Q Ms. Hines, did you ever advise Mr. Muhammad that
8 Mr. Clemons, had he been called to testify at trial
9 against Mr. Muhammad, that Mr. Clemons' testimony
10 could have been subject to impeachment based on his
11 felony convictions?

12 A I don't recall if I specifically did. During our 13 discussions I believe that I talked about 14 cross-examination and impeachment of witnesses, but 15 I don't know if I specifically discussed
16 Mr. Clemons' rap sheet.

17 Q And what was Mr. Clemons' role, alleged role in the 18 underlying crime?

19 A He was present at the shooting, and he was one of 20 the witnesses that named Mr. Muhammad as the 21 shooter, I believe.

22 Q So is it safe to say that Mr. Clemons would have 23 testified against Mr. Muhammad?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And you don't specifically recall informing

1 Mr. Muhammad that Mr. Clemons' testimony could have
2 been impeached with his felony conviction?

3 A I don't remember if I specifically -- I -- it is my
4 general practice to look at the witness's
5 convictions and to discuss that, but I don't
6 specifically remember whether I did or not.

7 Q Okay. And do you have any specific recollection of 8 doing the same with Mr. Holloway's criminal record
9 that we just discussed?

10 A No.

11 Q And you informed us earlier, Ms. Hines, that you
12 did not advise Mr. Muhammad to plead guilty?

13 A I don't think I put it that way. I think I said
14 that he wanted to plead guilty the entire time.

15 Q Now, if he had indicated an intent to plead guilty,
16 did you inform him that even though he was pleading
17 guilty he may be able to impeach some of the 18 witnesses arrayed against him?

19 A I'm sure that I discussed cross-examination of 20 witnesses. We were prepared for trial. He pled on 21 the eve of trial, so we were prepared for trial.
22 We were -- we had discussed what would happen at
23 trial.

24 Q But you have no specific recollection of Mr.
25 Holloway or Mr. Clemons?

1 A I don't specifically remember. It has been several 2 years.

3 Q I understand. And, Ms. Hines, earlier in your
4 testimony you listed several witnesses that may
5 have been arrayed against Mr. Muhammad at trial.

6 I have some of those. A Michael Griffin?

7 A Right.

8 Q A Jennifer Clifton?

9 A Right.

10 Q A Jessica Clemons?

11 A Okay, yes.

12 Q A Dajuan Taylor?

13 A Uh-huh.

14 Q Did some or all of those witnesses or any other 15 witness to the underlying case, did they ever give 16 conflicting statements?

17 A Yes, they did.

18 Q To the police?

19 A Yes, they did.

20 Q As the police were investigating this case?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Did any of them ever lie to the police during the 23 investigation of this case?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Did you ever advise Mr. Muhammad in a fashion that

1 he could understand that these witnesses may not be
2 credible at trial because of their prior
3 inconsistent statements?

4 A I did talk to him about the inconsistencies and
5 that they may not be credible. I did discuss that
6 with him. Whether he understood, I don't know.

7 Q So you can't be sure he understood your advice on 8 that point?

9 A I don't know --

10 MR. CORNEY: Your Honor, I think that is 11 speculative.

12 THE COURT: That's right.

13 MR. HAYES: Yes, we will withdraw that 14 question.

15 BY MR. HAYES:

16 Q Ms. Hines, did Mr. Muhammad ever provide alleged 17 incriminating statements to the police as they were 18 investigating this matter?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And do you know the circumstances under which those 21 statements were taken?

22 A I would have to consult my notes.

23 Q And feel free to refresh your recollection.

24 A Okay.

25 (Pause.)

1 A What is your question?

2 Q Yes. Do you recall the circumstances under which
3 such alleged incriminating statements were taken?

4 A It was taken several days after the incident at the 5 police station.

6 Q And were you ever made aware of any duress that Mr.
7 Muhammad was put under during that interrogation
8 process?

9 A No.

10 Q Were you ever made --

11 A I don't recall. Not that I recall.

12 Q Were you ever made aware of any alleged 13 intoxication of Mr. Muhammad during that 14 interrogation process?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Were you ever made aware of any alleged Miranda
17 violations that possibly occurred during that
18 interrogation process?

19 A I don't recall.

20 Q Did you ever advise Mr. Muhammad in a fashion that 21 he could understand that this statement could
22 potentially have been suppressed and not used
23 against him at trial?

24 A I don't recall if I did or not. I discussed the 25 use of his statement at trial. I know that I

1 discussed the use of his statement at trial with
2 him. I don't recall telling him that it could be
3 suppressed, but I don't -- I'm not saying that I
4 didn't, but --

5 Q And, just for the record, you never made a motion
6 to suppress the statement before trial?

7 A No, we didn't get to trial, so we didn't do
8 pretrial in the case. He pled before trial. It
9 was scheduled to be called with -- I can't remember
10 if he pled the week before trial or two weeks
11 before trial, but we never got to the point of 12 doing pretrial.

13 Q But you don't recall advising him about suppression
14 of statements?

15 A I recall discussing the statement. I recall
16 discussing issues that we would have at trial. I
17 don't specifically recall advising him about the 18 suppression of --

19 Q Ms. Hines, do you recall the plea hearing wherein 20 Mr. Muhammad was convicted of this crime?

21 A Yes, I do.

22 Q Do you recall how Mr. Muhammad appeared that day?

23 A He was upset. He was crying. He was remorseful.

24 Q Was he speaking clearly?

25 A Yes.

1 Q Did he appear to understand what was happening?

2 A Yes.

3 Q And how do you know that?

4 A That is how he appeared to me.

5 Q Okay. That is your personal knowledge and

6 observation --

7 A Yes.

8 Q -- of Mr. Muhammad? Did you speak with him before
9 the plea?

10 A Yes, I did.

11 Q Did you speak with him afterwards?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And were you -- before the plea, were you aware
14 that Mr. Muhammad was taking medications?

15 A Yes.

16 Q For mental disorders?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Do you know what medications he was taking?

19 A I don't off the top of my head. I would -- I
20 don't.

21 Q And do you know how those medications would have 22 affected him?

23 A Based on talking with him in the meetings that we 24 had prior to the plea, they -- he told me that they 25 helped him, helped him be more clear. That is --

1 Q But you don't recall what medications he was 2 taking?

3 A I don't recall specifically. It may be in my 4 notes. If I had to -- I would imagine it was
5 probably Risperdal.

6 Q But you are -- and, but you are not certain of the 7 effect that that has had on Mr. Muhammad?

8 A I only know what he told me. And what he told me
9 in the meetings that we had was, after he got on 10 the medication, was that it helped him think more
11 clearly.

12 And he had -- at one point during the 13 representation, his mother had called me and 14 said -- was concerned about him being suicidal.
15 And I contacted the mental health people at the 16 jail and had them go check on him and get him seen
17 by a psychiatrist. And after that he was put on 18 the medication. And after that incident happened
19 when I met with him, he told me that it helped him.

20 Q And so is it safe to say, Ms. Hines, that prior to 21 the plea hearing you were aware of his troubled
22 past with respect to mental health?

23 A Yes. That is why I had him evaluated.

24 Q And we'll get to the evaluation.

25 A Okay.

1 Q During the plea hearing, were you actively
2 observing Mr. Muhammad?

3 A Yes.

4 Q At any point during the plea hearing did you
5 consider stopping it because he didn't appear to 6 you to understand what was happening?

7 A No.

8 Q And would you agree with me, Ms. Hines, that Mr.
9 Muhammad was relying on your legal expertise at the 10 plea hearing?

11 A You would have to ask him that.

12 Q I understand. And in your experience as an 13 attorney, do clients typically rely on attorneys
14 for their legal expertise?

15 MR. CORNEY: Your Honor, that is still
16 speculative. That is calling for the Applicant's
17 mindset. These are unnecessary questions that are 18 speculative. She doesn't know what they rely on or 19 don't rely on.

20 MR. HAYES: Withdrawn.

21 BY MR. HAYES:

22 Q Did you ever advise Mr. Muhammad that he had no
23 defense to this charge?

24 A I don't recall. I -- based on --

25 THE COURT: Let me hold those exhibits. You

1 know, y'all don't finish, and then I've got to deal
2 with other people, so I need to -- it won't take me
3 but a minute to read them while y'all are there. I
4 anticipate where you are going.

5 MR. HAYES: Certainly, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: They don't do me any good down
7 there.

8 (Complies.)

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 A I don't recall if I ever said -- used the words, no
11 defense, but based on all of the evidence in the 12 case, I certainly felt that had we gone to trial
13 there was a very strong chance that he would have 14 been convicted of murder.

15 Q In spite of the problems with the witness
16 statements that we have discussed?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And in spite of the problems with Mr. Muhammad's
19 own incriminating statement?

20 A Yes.

21 Q That we just discussed? And did you ever
22 communicate to Mr. Muhammad that he did not 23 necessarily face life in prison if he refused to 24 plea -- to plead on February 5th, 2010?

25 A I told him -- I would have told him that murder

1 carries 30 to life, and it is day-for-day.

2 Q And, Ms. Hines, I believe I have a spare copy -- I
3 think I just handed Exhibit 2 to the Judge -- it is
4 another copy of Exhibit 2.

5 A Uh-huh.

6 Q Review that for me, please?

7 (Pause.)

8 A Okay.

9 Q I'll represent to you that we have stipulated to
10 the admissibility of that exhibit as the pretrial
11 mental health evaluation of Mr. Muhammad, but is it
12 safe to say, Ms. Hines, that you requested a mental 13 health evaluation of Mr. Muhammad?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Before his plea?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Was that pursuant to the procedure set forth
18 generally in the case of State v. Blair?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And after the results of that evaluation came back,
21 did you request a hearing on Mr. Muhammad's
22 competency to stand trial?

23 A No, I didn't.

24 Q Did the Solicitor?

25 A No.

1 Q Did that hearing ever take place?

2 A No.

3 Q Ms. Hines, after the plea, did you ever speak to or 4 communicate with Mr. Muhammad about his right to 5 appeal this conviction?

6 A I don't recall whether I did or not after the plea.
7 I don't remember if that is something that we
8 discussed after -- in holding afterwards or not.

9 Q But you have no specific recollection of speaking
10 to him after the plea about an appeal?

11 A I don't remember. I don't have a recollection of 12 that. I don't remember whether I did or not.

13 Q Ms. Hines, I think that is all the questions I have 14 for you.

15 A Okay.

16 Q Maybe some follow-up after.

17 A Okay.

18 Q So please answer any questions that Mr. Corney may 19 have for you.

20 A Okay.

21 CROSS-EXAMINATION

22 BY MR. CORNEY:

23 Q Ms. Hines, thank you for being here with us today.
24 I know you have been here once before and sat and 25 waited, so thank you for your patience with us.

1 You were appointed on this case to represent
2 Mr. Muhammad?

3 A Yes.

4 Q And was that in your capacity as Assistant Public
5 Defender for Richland County?

6 A Yes.

7 Q For the Fifth Circuit Public Defender's Office?

8 A Yes.

9 Q During your meetings with Mr. Muhammad, did you
10 have the opportunity to review the charges he was 11 facing and his constitutional rights?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And this was a potential life without parole or 14 even potentially death penalty case upon a murder
15 charge, correct?

16 A Um --

17 Q Not that they were seeking the death penalty.

18 A I don't think -- I don't know that there was an
19 aggravating factor for the death penalty, so I
20 don't know that it would have -- it was never 21 really considered for death penalty. It was --
22 with all murder charges, it is 30 to life, and that 23 would be -- if it were life, it would be without 24 parole.

25 Q Okay. So a potential life without parole sentence

1 is all --

2 A Potentially.

3 Q Do you remember being served with that notice of --
4 with a notice of intention to seek life without
5 parole?

6 A No, it is -- no, it is not -- he would not be
7 eligible for life without parole under those life
8 without parole statutes, he would only be -- only
9 because by virtue of the fact that murder carries
10 up to life and in South Carolina that means there
11 is no parole on murder, so it wouldn't be something
12 that they would have -- the State would necessarily 13 have to serve the notice of intention to seek life
14 without parole on a murder charge.

15 Q Right.

16 A It is just that is the potential -- maximum
17 potential sentence.

18 Q Okay. Were you able to discuss with him the -- I
19 guess, the ramifications of a murder charge, the 20 sentence being day-for-day?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Were you able to discuss Mr. Muhammad's version of 23 the facts during your meeting with him?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Your meeting with him. And just to the extent

1 necessary to start to address his allegations in
2 the PCR application, what did he tell you about the
3 facts leading to the charge? And you don't have to
4 divulge any confidential conversations that you
5 don't feel comfortable divulging, but just to the 6 extent necessary to kind of address the issues that 7 were raised.

8 A What he told me about what happened was consistent
9 with the statement that he gave to the police. He
10 did -- he never denied to me being -- having fired
11 the shot.

12 Q Okay. As far as the mental evaluation, you
13 requested that he be evaluated, correct?

14 A Yes, I did.

15 Q Okay. And if you would just tell the Court very 16 briefly about the necessity to have a hearing on 17 that, or your decision not to request a hearing on 18 that once the evaluation came back.

19 A Generally, we -- when we request that somebody be 20 evaluated, we have a question about their mental 21 health, we request that they be evaluated. When we 22 get that evaluation back from the Department of 23 Mental Health and it appears that -- I mean, that 24 they -- the Department of Mental Health in that 25 evaluation said that he was competent to stand

1 trial.

2 Based on my conversations with him, I felt
3 like he understood as well, although I'm not a
4 mental health professional, but the Department of
5 Mental Health, they said he was competent to stand
6 trial, and so I generally don't request a hearing
7 in any case unless -- unless they come back and 8 there is some evidence that they are not competent.

9 Q Okay. And as far as requesting that mental
10 evaluation, was that more based on this information
11 that he had some suicide potential or had 12 threatened suicide, things of that nature?

13 A Yes.

14 Q As opposed to, you know, your belief that he didn't
15 understand what you were talking about?

16 A It was because there was a mental health history.
17 Any time I have a case that is a serious case that
18 is that serious and there is some mental health
19 history, I want to get an evaluation done. And it
20 was because of that mental health history that he
21 had is the reason that I requested the evaluation
22 so that I would have that, just so that a
23 professional, a mental health professional can look
24 at it.

25 Q You never had any concerns with his ability to

1 understand and participate in your conversations
2 about his case?

3 A No.

4 Q Do you remember receiving the discovery file in
5 this action?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Okay. Did you have an opportunity to review that 8 with Mr. Muhammad?

9 A Yes, I did.

10 Q Do you remember any noteworthy items that kind of 11 stick out in your memory of what you may have 12 received as part of that discovery?

13 A There were the statements -- there were a lot of 14 statements from witnesses. There was -- there were 15 pictures. There were crime scene -- there was a
16 crime scene investigation done. I know that there
17 was the autopsy. At one point we -- me and my 18 co-counsel went and tried to, with a yardstick, to 19 try to figure out the angle to make sure that what 20 they were saying happened could have happened that 21 way because of the angle of the trajectory of the 22 bullet, the path that it could have taken is odd.

23 Q Okay. And I believe in the transcript it does
24 mention that there were 18 witness statements that 25 were given. And would you say that is an accurate

1 reflection of the discovery file?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Okay. So Ira Holloway and Nicholas Clemons were
4 the only two witnesses that were giving statements
5 against Mr. Muhammad in this case?

6 A No.

7 Q Okay. And Mr. Muhammad gave a -- at least an 8 inculpatory if not confession to the police
9 regarding the shooting, correct?

10 A Gave a -- yes.

11 Q Inculpatory statement?

12 A Yes, he did.

13 Q And at the plea hearing, Judge Manning actually
14 advised Mr. Muhammad of his ability to challenge
15 that statement at trial and told him that he would 16 be waiving his right to challenge it by pleading
17 guilty, correct?

18 A Yes.

19 Q So even if you didn't advise him, he was advised at 20 the plea hearing? I know you said you couldn't
21 recall whether you discussed that with him.

22 A Yes.

23 Q And that was something that, according to the plea
24 hearing, Mr. Muhammad said he understood and wanted
25 to waive?

1 A Right.

2 Q Now, this case was involving a drug deal, is that
3 your recollection?

4 A Um --

5 Q Or the State was alleging that it was from a drug
6 deal anyway?

7 A The victim, from my recollection of it, the victim
8 was looking for drugs. Whether he was at the right
9 place or whether he pulled into the wrong driveway,
10 I'm not sure. But there was -- that was 11 underlying.

12 Q Okay. But the State didn't shy away from that, at 13 least the plea hearing that was something they 14 pretty readily admitted with their allegation, it
15 was a drug deal, and that was how this thing came 16 to be?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And in your experience when dealing with this kind
19 of crime stemming from a drug deal, would you say
20 that it is unlikely that the witnesses have 21 criminal backgrounds?

22 A They usually have criminal backgrounds.

23 Q And that was something that you I think testified
24 that you had -- at least started to look into or 25 were looking into with all these witnesses that

1 were noticed as State witnesses?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Something that you would have brought out in trial
4 as these witnesses were called?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Regarding Ira Holloway, I know you touched on it
7 briefly, but Holloway was actually somebody
8 arrested initially for the shooting?

9 A Yes.

10 Q Is that correct?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And that was because some of the witnesses had 13 identified him as the shooter?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Okay. So if the State would have called him at 16 trial, that would have been something you could 17 have brought out, he was initially pointed at as 18 the shooter, correct?

19 A Yes.

20 Q With that in mind, do you think it was likely the 21 State was going to put him on the stand during
22 trial?

23 A I don't think it would be likely they would have 24 called him.

25 Q And that was due to some confusion of a nickname,

1 is that -- I think it is referenced in the
2 transcript as to why Ira Holloway was pointed as
3 the shooter as opposed to Mr. Muhammad?

4 A Yes. They said it was New York. And then there
5 were -- turned out --

6 Q Okay. Now, with regard to --

7 A -- identifying different New Yorks.

8 Q I'm sorry. I apologize. As far as Mr. Muhammad
9 being on medication, that was something that was 10 brought up at the plea hearing as well, correct?

11 A I believe so.

12 Q Okay. And the record will reflect if you don't 13 remember, but the judge actually asked him about 14 that medication, whether it affected his ability to 15 understand, correct?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And Mr. Muhammad said it didn't affect his -- any 18 ability to understand or comprehend what was going
19 on that day, correct?

20 A Right.

21 Q And as far as this plea offer coming in to a
22 voluntary manslaughter versus a murder, I think we 23 touched on earlier that murder is a day-for-day
24 sentence, correct?

25 A Yes.

1 Q Voluntary manslaughter, is that a day-for-day
2 sentence?

3 A No, it is not.

4 Q Is that what we call a -- what people refer to as 5 an 85 percent sentence?

6 A Yes, it is.

7 Q As a no parole offense?

8 A Right.

9 Q Okay. Is that something you were able to discuss
10 with Mr. Muhammad, the benefit of taking a
11 voluntary manslaughter versus a murder charge?

12 A Yes.

13 Q For a plea offer?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Did he seem to understand that?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Were you prepared to go to trial at the time that 18 this matter was pled out?

19 A Yes. And do you think you adequately advised
20 Mr. Muhammad of the consequences of accepting a 21 plea regarding waiving his rights to trial and what 22 accompanied the trial?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Do you think you gave him all the information and 25 advice necessary to make an informed and

1 intelligent decision as to whether to plead?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Okay. And specifically, just to backstep for a
4 minute, do you think that Mr. Muhammad was aware of 5 the ability to challenge witness statements at 6 trial?

7 A Yes.

8 Q And do you think that he was aware that by pleading
9 he would be waiving your ability to do that?

10 A Yes.

11 Q And ultimately whose decision was it to enter this 12 plea?

13 A It was his.

14 MR. CORNEY: Beg the Court's indulgence just 15 one moment, Your Honor.

16 (Pause.)

17 MR. CORNEY: I believe that is all the 18 questions I have.

19 THE COURT: All right.

20 MR. CORNEY: Thank you.

21 MR. HAYES: Just a few follow-up, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

24 BY MR. HAYES:

25 Q Ms. Hines, I believe you just testified that you

1 are under the impression that Mr. Muhammad was
2 aware that witness statements could have been
3 challenged at trial, is that correct?

4 A I believe that he was, yes.

5 Q But you don't recall specifically speaking to him
6 about Mr. Holloway or Mr. Clemons?

7 A I spoke to him about Mr. Holloway and Mr. Clemons.
8 I did speak with him about each and every witness
9 when I went through the discovery with him. I
10 think that earlier you asked whether I -- I think
11 you phrased the question differently. But, no, I
12 did talk to him about Mr. Holloway and Mr. Clemons.

13 Q And I believe you testified that he was aware that 14 his statement could have been suppressed?

15 A I believe that he was. Well, I -- that his 16 statement could be suppressed?

17 Q Right?

18 A I don't believe that he -- I don't know.

19 Q Thank you. Ms. Hines.

20 MR. HAYES: No further questions, Your Honor.

21 MR. CORNEY: Just one follow-up, Judge.

22 THE COURT: All right.

23 RECROSS-EXAMINATION

24 BY MR. CORNEY:

25 Q Even without the testimony of Ira Holloway or

1 Nicholas -- I'm blanking on the last name right
2 now.

3 A Clemons.

4 Q Clemons. Nicholas Clemons. Do you believe there
5 were additional -- there were enough or sufficient
6 additional witnesses, witness statements given,
7 that this still would have been a tough case to 8 overcome for Mr. Muhammad?

9 A Yes.

10 MR. CORNEY: That's all I have. Thank you.

11 THE COURT: All right, you can step down.

12 (Witness steps down.)

13 MR. HAYES: Your Honor, at this time the 14 Applicant calls to the stand Karima Muhammad.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 (Witness approaches.)

17 THE COURT: Do you swear or affirm that you
18 are going to truthfully testify?

19 THE WITNESS: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 THE COURT REPORTER: Would you spell your 22 first name?

23 THE WITNESS: K-A-R-I-M(as in Mary)-A.

24 THE COURT REPORTER: Thank you.

25 KARIMA A. MUHAMMAD,

1 after being duly sworn, testified as follows:

3 BY MR. HAYES:

4 Q And, Ms. Muhammad, could you state your full name
5 for the record, please?

6 A Karima Ametullah Muhammad.

7 Q And what is your occupation?

8 A I'm a mediator.

9 Q Mediator in?

10 A Civil and family disputes.

11 THE COURT: I can't hear her. She needs to 12 slide to the microphone.

13 A I'm sorry. I'm a mediator, civil and family
14 disputes.

15 Q Here in Columbia?

16 A Here in Columbia.

17 Q And what is your relationship to Mr. Irshad
18 Muhammad?

19 A Mother.

20 Q And how old is Mr. Muhammad?

21 A Twenty-three.

22 Q And have you personally observed indications of 23 mental illness in your son?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And how has that illness manifested itself?

1 A Manifested in him hearing voices, seeing things
2 that aren't there, feeling that he needs to protect
3 people. Just at times very irrational behavior.

4 Q And how long has he been dealing with these 5 problems?

6 A Since Headstart.

7 Q And what do you mean by that?

8 A He went to Headstart. He had his first episode
9 with the schoolteacher calling me and saying that 10 we probably need to find out what is going on with 11 him.

12 Q And about what age was that?

13 A Three.

14 Q And has he had problems continuously from then 15 until now?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Let's talk specifically about the date of 18 Mr. Muhammad's plea in this case. Do you remember
19 that day?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Did you see Irshad before the plea?

22 A I saw him in the courtroom, yes.

23 Q Before the hearing started?

24 A Yes. I was waiting for it to get started. Yes.

25 Q And then did you see him during the first part of

1 the plea when it got started?

2 A Yes.

3 Q How did he appear to you during the plea hearing?

4 A Upset, confused. He kept looking at me to see if I
5 was all right. Kind of wasn't -- just kind of out
6 of it.

7 Q Were you able to stay during the entirety of the 8 plea hearing?

9 A No.

10 Q And why did you have to leave?

11 A It was very difficult. It is still very difficult.

12 Q I understand.

13 A I didn't leave the building, I stepped outside.
14 And the attorney told me that it was okay, that 15 they will handle it from there. And I was so upset
16 that it would have caused a disruption of the 17 proceedings, and so I waited out on the bench.

18 Q And, Ms. Muhammad, in your opinion and based on 19 your perception of Mr. Muhammad at the hearing, do
20 you think he understood what was happening to him?

21 A I think he didn't understand. I think he was going
22 along with what he was told. The plea was actually
23 the day before the trial. That morning I got a
24 call to come to court, that he was offering a plea,
25 because he felt -- because so-called evidence and

1 the witnesses that he would not have won his case.

2 Q And I think that is all I have for you,
3 Ms. Muhammad. I appreciate you being here today.
4 And please answer any questions Mr. Corney may 5 have.

7 BY MR. CORNEY:

8 Q Ms. Muhammad, with all due respect, you are not a
9 psychologist, are you?

10 A No, I'm not.

11 Q And you don't have a background in medical -- as a
12 doctor or any medical training?

13 A I don't have any medical training, but I have been
14 in dispute and resolution services for 20 years.
15 Human services, I have a masters in human services,
16 social services. I don't have a medical 17 background, no.

18 Q And I mean that with respect. I don't mean to 19 insinuate that you are any way, you know, changing
20 testimony or anything.

21 Did you have an opportunity to look at the 22 forensic analysis and the evaluation report that 23 was issued after your son was evaluated?

24 A No, I did not.

25 Q Did not. Okay.

1 MR. CORNEY: I believe that is all the
2 questions I have, Your Honor. Thank you.

3 MR. HAYES: No further questions for this
4 witness, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: You can step down.

6 (Witness steps down.)

7 MR. HAYES: And, Your Honor, at this time we
8 would call the Applicant, Irshad Muhammad.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 (Witness approaches.)

11 THE COURT: Mr. Muhammad, do you affirm that 12 you are going to truthfully testify?

13 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 IRSHAD MUHAMMAD,
16 after being duly sworn, testified as follows:

17 DIRECT EXAMINATION

18 BY MR. HAYES:

19 Q Mr. Muhammad, can you state your full name for the 20 record, please?

21 A My name is Irshad Ibrahim Muhammad.

22 Q And where are you currently incarcerated, Mr.
23 Muhammad?

24 A McCormick Correctional Institution.

25 Q And on what charge?

- 1 A Voluntary manslaughter.
- 2 Q And what is your sentence, Mr. Muhammad?
- 3 A 30 years, 85 percent.
- 4 Q And how were you convicted of this charge?
- 5 A What do you mean?
- 6 Q Did you plead guilty to this charge? Did you go to
- 7 trial?
- 8 A I pled guilty.
- 9 Q And who was your attorney?
- 10 A Ms. Kris Hines.
- 11 Q Mr. Muhammad, I believe -- were you in the
- 12 courtroom for Ms. Hines' testimony?
- 13 A Yes.
- 14 Q Just now?
- 15 A Yes.
- 16 Q And did she list some of the witnesses who may have
- 17 testified against you at trial?
- 18 A Yes, but not all of them.
- 19 Q Okay. And did she list Mr. Ira Holloway as someone
- 20 who may have testified against you at trial?
- 21 A Yes.
- 22 Q Did she list Nicholas Clemons as someone who may
- 23 have testified against you at trial?
- 24 A Yes.
- 25 Q Are you aware now that these witnesses have felony

1 convictions that could have been used against their
2 testimony at trial?

3 A Yes, sir.

4 THE COURT: You know, I think you keep
5 mischaracterizing that, don't you? I mean, it
6 comes out when you deal in situations like that.
7 It doesn't discount their testimony, it is just
8 something the jury can consider, they have a
9 criminal record.

10 MR. HAYES: Yes, Your Honor. And just one of 11 our --

12 THE COURT: They had -- apparently -- I have 13 read the transcript and I have read all your 14 exhibits at this point. There were plenty of 15 witnesses who would have said he did it. You can 16 say, but this witness says he did it, but he's got 17 a criminal record. That just comes in. That is 18 just evidence in the case. And we, being judges,
19 instruct the jury that the fact that a person has a
20 criminal record can be considered if they feel that 21 it impacts on their credibility. That is all. It
22 doesn't discredit. The whole time you have just 23 been implying that they could bring it out and that
24 just does that testimony out. No, it is just one
25 of the factors that a jury considers.

1 MR. HAYES: Yes, Your Honor. We're just
2 attempting to prove our primary allegation, that
3 Mr. Muhammad was not informed of that particular
4 part of trial procedure because he would have
5 insisted upon his jury trial right.

6 THE COURT: I understand. Unless everybody
7 that testified that he is the one -- unless he has 8 somebody that says he didn't do the shooting, he is 9 going to lose anyway, but go ahead.

10 BY MR. HAYES:

11 Q Mr. Muhammad, did Ms. Hines ever inform you that 12 some of these witnesses would have had diminished
13 credibility at trial?

14 A No.

15 Q Would you have pled guilty had you known that some 16 of the witnesses against you may have been able to 17 be impeached at trial?

18 A No.

19 Q And are you aware, Mr. Muhammad, that some or all
20 of the witnesses against you gave conflicting
21 statements to the police?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And did Ms. Hines advise you that that would have 24 affected their credibility -- could have affected
25 their credibility at trial?

1 A No.

2 Q And would you have pled guilty had you known that
3 those witnesses may have had diminished credibility
4 at trial?

5 A No. In fact, I would have went ahead and proceeded
6 and go to trial.

7 Q Mr. Muhammad, did you understand what was happening
8 at your plea proceeding?

9 A Not really.

10 Q Were you relying on your lawyer to stop the plea
11 proceeding?

12 A I was relying on her to guide me and to direct me
13 and advise me to the best of her abilities, 14 professional.

15 Q And did she stop the plea proceeding?

16 A No.

17 Q And the plea went forward?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Mr. Muhammad, what medications were you on at the 20 plea hearing?

21 A Depakote.

22 Q And how did Depakote make you feel?

23 A Like hell. Like the world is coming to an end.

24 Q Did it affect your ability to understand what was 25 happening?

1 A I knew what was happening, but what she advised me
2 to do before going up for the hearing, she just
3 told me just go with whatever they were saying,
4 because I done signed a plea for 30 years,
5 85 percent. There is nothing else to do.

6 So when I seen my mother, and my mother was 7 having a hard time, you know, that really hurt me,
8 you know what I'm saying.

9 So I was just agreeing, just get it over with.
10 Because she was saying that, bottom line, it is 11 over with. You have no other defense. There is 12 nothing we can do. You done signed it on the 13 dotted line. There is nothing else to do.

14 Q But you did not really understand the ramifications
15 of that decision?

16 A No.

17 Q And I believe you just testified to this, but did
18 Ms. Hines advise you at some point before trial
19 that you had no defense to this case?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And that affected your decision somewhat?

22 A Yes.

23 Q If she had stopped the plea and explained some of 24 the defenses that you had to this charge, would you
25 have pled guilty?

1 A No.

2 Q And were you under the impression that you had to
3 plead guilty or otherwise you would face life in 4 prison?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And you felt that was -- you felt those were your
7 only two options?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And did that impression come from Ms. Hines and her
10 advice?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And, Mr. Muhammad, did you supply the police with 13 an allegedly incriminating statement while they 14 were investigating this case?

15 A Yes. In fact, they forced me into confessing.
16 They said if I was to confess that they would not 17 charge the witnesses with accessory to murder, they 18 would release the prior -- Ira Holloway, they would 19 release him from being arrested for murder, they 20 would release him, they would not charge the 21 witnesses with accessory to murder, they would give 22 me a pack of cigarettes, they would give me some 23 water, they would bring my baby mother and my 24 daughter to the jail so I could see them and
25 guarantee her safety and be home before I knew it

1 and not go up with the charge of murder. But,
2 instead, manslaughter.

3 Q And were you intoxicated at the time of your
4 interrogation?

5 A Highly.

6 Q And did you inform your lawyer of any of this
7 information?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Did she ever advise you that there was a
10 possibility your statement could have been 11 suppressed at trial?

12 A No.

13 Q Would you have pled had you known that your 14 statement could have been suppressed?

15 A No.

16 Q Mr. Muhammad, did you ever speak to Ms. Hines after 17 the plea?

18 A No.

19 Q Did she contact you at any time after the plea to 20 assist you in filing an appeal?

21 A Not at all.

22 Q And, Mr. Muhammad, did Ms. Hines give you any legal 23 advice we haven't talked about today, or have we 24 pretty much covered it?

25 A Pretty much covered it all.

1 MR. HAYES: Court's indulgence, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Sure.

3 A I'd like to add, what she was saying as far as the 4 two witness or the two statements, well, the two
5 witnesses they were talking about, Ira Holloway and
6 Nicholas Clemons, those weren't just the statements
7 that were conflicting. You had Jennifer Clifton
8 would have said that she was accusing Ira Holloway
9 of raping her, in fact, for a trade for some crack
10 cocaine. And that is why she had said that he did
11 it. So there was a lot of statements that were 12 very, very conflicting and saying as who really did
13 it or who didn't do it or how they did it or how it
14 happened or where it happened or when it happened
15 or how it happened.

16 Q And Ms. Hines didn't advise you that any of that 17 would have affected their credibility at trial --
18 could have affected their credibility at trial?

19 A Not at all.

20 Q And you would not have pled guilty had she advised
21 you those witnesses you just discussed could have 22 been potentially discredited at trial?

23 A Not at all.

24 Q And one last question, Mr. Muhammad, or one last
25 series of questions. You had a mental health

1 evaluation on your competency to stand trial?

2 A Yes.

3 Q But that never went to a hearing, did it?

4 A What you mean?

5 Q Did you ever have --

6 A Explain.

7 Q -- a hearing on the issue of your competency to 8 stand trial --

9 A No.

10 Q -- before a judge?

11 A No.

12 Q Thank you, Mr. Muhammad.

13 A You're welcome.

14 Q I believe that is all I have. Please answer any 15 questions Mr. Corney has for you.

16 CROSS-EXAMINATION

17 BY MR. CORNEY:

18 Q Mr. Muhammad, have you had an opportunity to see
19 that mental health evaluation that your attorney
20 introduced earlier? Have you had the opportunity 21 to see that --

22 A The documents?

23 Q -- mental health evaluation?

24 A The documents?

25 Q Yes, Exhibit Number 2 that was introduced, I

1 believe it is.

2 A My lawyer came to see me and let me look over it,
3 breeze through it.

4 Q Okay. So you have looked at it before?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Do you remember in there where it says that that
7 psychiatrist or psychologist, the person doing the 8 evaluation, believed that your statements about
9 hallucinations and hearing voices were more
10 consistent with somebody faking it? Do you
11 remember --

12 A No, I don't recall that.

13 Q All right. If it says it in there, though, you 14 wouldn't contest it is in there? If it says it is 15 in there, it does?

16 A I mean, as long as I can see it and prove that that 17 is in there, then, yes, I agree with it.

18 Q And it is before the judge.

19 A Yes.

20 Q At your plea hearing, Judge Manning was pretty
21 clear with you that this was a negotiated sentence.
22 And I think he specifically told you the two
23 options were for him to accept your plea and give 24 you 30 years or not accept the plea all together.
25 And you said you wanted him to accept the plea,

1 correct?

2 A (Nods affirmatively.)

3 Q So you knew right when you walked in that door you
4 were going to get 30 years if that plea went
5 through that day, correct?

6 A That's -- yes. The prior day I signed -- I signed
7 the paper for 30 years, 85. So I was advised that
8 all we was doing was going through the procedure
9 and making it final and just go ahead and agree
10 with what the judge was saying so we can go ahead
11 and get it over with.

12 Q So you could get that 30 years and get out of there
13 and not get a life sentence on murder, correct?

14 A That's what she advised me.

15 Q And the judge also advised you that by pleading
16 guilty you were going to give up your right to 17 confront the witnesses that were going to be 18 presented by the State against you?

19 A After looking -- after examining it after the fact,
20 I have known that, but during the time I wasn't --
21 I wasn't here -- I wasn't there really. Like I
22 say, I was just agreeing with what they were 23 saying. I wasn't even hearing what they were 24 saying. I have never seen my mother like that, so
25 I was --

1 Q You told the judge you were on Depakote that day,
2 didn't you, at the plea hearing?

3 A Yes.

4 Q All right. And the judge specifically asked you if 5 that was going to interfere at all with your
6 ability to understand, and you said it wouldn't,
7 right?

8 A Yes.

9 Q All right. It was just a mood stabilizer, that it
10 wasn't going to affect your ability to know,
11 understand, or appreciate what was going on,
12 correct?

13 A Yes.

14 Q All right. The judge also advised you that you
15 were going to give up any potential defenses you
16 had by pleading guilty, and you said you wanted to 17 do it anyway?

18 A Uh-huh. I already -- like I said, I was advised
19 that we already signed the plea agreement and we 20 were just going through the procedure to make it
21 final, so --

22 Q Okay. And at the plea hearing the judge also went 23 through your statement and said, I don't know if 24 you have given any statements at all, saying -- I
25 think he says right there on Page 12, any

1 statements basically confessing about your guilt.
2 Says, I don't know if you have done that, but by
3 pleading guilty you understand that you are giving
4 up your right to challenge that statement. And you
5 said you wanted to do that, correct?

6 A Correct.

7 Q And you admitted that you did shoot the victim in 8 this case, correct?

9 A I did that before.

10 Q Okay. So when you willingly admit that you shot
11 this victim and killed him, what outcome did you
12 want other than a voluntary manslaughter charge?

13 A A fair trial.

14 Q And what was your hope in getting a fair trial, to 15 get acquitted on this when you freely admitted you
16 shot this victim?

17 A Fair trial. A fair trial is a fair trial. To 18 gather up the evidence that is against me and 19 gather the evidence that is not against me and put 20 them in the middle and see how it come out, whether
21 I would have had a better chance or whether it
22 would have had a different outcome or whatever.
23 But had she told me -- had she informed me or 24 properly informed me and advised me properly about 25 the suppressing of the statements and the

1 incrimination due to my own statement against
2 myself, I would have went ahead and went to trial
3 instead of pleading guilty because, I mean, I'm
4 fighting for my life. I have never been in no
5 trouble. I don't know what is going on at the 6 time. I have no legal history. I have no criminal
7 background whatsoever. So I was depending on her
8 for her advice, her representation.

9 Q Okay. When the Court asked you if you believe that
10 Ms. Hines had done everything she should have done
11 and everything you wanted her to do, you didn't 12 just say, yes, sir, you said, even more, she has 13 done even more?

14 A Yes. Because at the time, like I said, I was 15 advised -- the things that she was advising me on,
16 she was telling me that we had no type of defense,
17 if you don't take these 30 years, 85 percent, you
18 will get life next week, so I advise you to take
19 this plea if you don't want to get life.

20 So me, not having knowledge of the law at the 21 time, I went ahead and took her advice and I went
22 through it. But after the fact, after the appeal
23 phase and I proceeded with the PCR phase, I seen
24 and went over the documents and noticed that, so
25 that is why I'm here today.

1 Q Okay. And just one last question. At the end of
2 this plea, Ms. Hines wasn't going to be the one at
3 the Department of Corrections, was she? I mean, it
4 was you on the line?

5 A Can you repeat that?

6 Q At the end of this plea, Ms. Hines wasn't going to
7 the Department of Corrections, was she? I mean, it
8 was you on the line? It was your plea, correct?

9 A Yes, but she is my adviser.

10 MR. CORNEY: No further questions, Your Honor.

11 A I am depending on her.

12 MR. HAYES: No follow-up, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Muhammad, you can step
14 down.

15 (Witness steps down.)

16 MR. HAYES: Your Honor, I believe that is all
17 our witnesses and exhibits. Just a brief closing
18 statement, should it please the Court?

19 THE COURT: Sure.

20 MR. HAYES: At this time I would commend
21 Exhibit 1 through 6 to the Court as corroboration
22 of Mr. Muhammad's trouble of mental health history
23 to corroborate the testimony that you heard today
24 from Ms. Muhammad and Mr. Muhammad himself.

25 And, Your Honor, in sum, I think the evidence

1 produced today indicates that my client did not
2 have the effective assistance of counsel during the
3 investigation of this case and his ultimate plea,
4 and that that ineffective assistance prejudiced my
5 client in that he would insist upon his right to go
6 to trial as opposed to taking the plea.

7 It is our position that he was not adequately
8 advised about the credibility of witnesses and how 9 witnesses can be impeached at trial, specifically
10 with their felony convictions and their conflicting 11 statements.

12 Your Honor, I certainly understand that juries
13 can weigh evidence. We are simply maintaining that 14 had Mr. Muhammad understood from his lawyer that 15 these witnesses' testimony may not have been 16 airtight, he would have insisted on his rights to 17 go to trial.

18 We also believe he received ineffective
19 assistance of counsel concerning his own
20 incriminating statement and believe that had his 21 attorney informed him that statement may have been 22 able to be suppressed at trial, he would have 23 insisted on trial as opposed to pleading.

24 And, Your Honor --

25 THE COURT: Does he understand that even if

1 the statement was suppressed -- and you really
2 haven't presented evidence for me to say that it
3 would have, other than what he says. I mean, you
4 know, you need to call in all the officers, and so
5 forth, to testify about what happened before I can
6 make an informative opinion on that. But even were
7 it suppressed, if he testifies they can ask him
8 about it, the statement, as you well know. I don't 9 know whether you told him that.

10 And so his options are not to testify or to 11 testify. And they ask him about that statement
12 even if it is suppressed.

13 MR. HAYES: Yes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: And I have heard nothing of any 15 defense that he possibly has other than going to 16 trial for whatever reason. I don't know.

17 MR. HAYES: Your Honor, we just maintain that 18 had Ms. Hines' advice to Mr. Muhammad included some 19 of these elements of trial procedure, that Mr.
20 Muhammad would have insisted on going to trial as 21 opposed to taking the plea.

22 You know, we just don't believe that he was 23 adequately informed about a criminal trial, you
24 know, on the witness statements and his own
25 statement and how those were once the trial starts.

1 And finally, Your Honor, as you heard the
2 testimony today, we would argue that Mr. Muhammad
3 didn't understand the hearing process as it was 4 happening because of the medications he was on.
5 And that is the testimony you heard from 6 Mr. Muhammad himself and Ms. Muhammad.

7 THE COURT: The problem with that is that he
8 tells the judge he understands. And he is very,
9 very articulate throughout the whole thing. In his
10 brief statement to the Court, he -- you can read
11 it, I have read it -- he apologizes to the family,
12 he knows he can't bring the victim back. Somebody
13 that is not -- you know, that is off their rocker,
14 they don't say things like that.

15 MR. HAYES: And, yes, Your Honor, we would
16 just commend for your consideration the testimony
17 you heard today from Mr. Muhammad and his mother on 18 that issue.

19 THE COURT: Well, I went through all those 20 exhibits you handed me. And the competency to 21 stand trial report shows that he was competent, as 22 I read it, unless there is something I missed. I
23 mean, it said he, you know, had been taking drugs
24 his whole life, more or less, but that he actually
25 communicated at a level above his education system.

1 MR. HAYES: And, yes, Your Honor, a few things
2 about that evaluation. Number One, it was several
3 months before the plea. I believe that was done in 4 September of 2009. The plea was February of 2010.

5 And then also, Your Honor, there is a
6 procedural issue that Mr. Corney and I have agreed
7 to leave the record open --

8 THE COURT: I understand you are going to do
9 that. I'm just talking about the reports that I
10 read and his previous reports that you introduced.

11 MR. HAYES: Yes, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: I'm certainly not saying he didn't 13 have some problems. His mother testified he had 14 problems. He testified he had problems. And the 15 report indicated he had problems. I mean, he at 16 some point indicated some suicidal tendencies, and 17 so forth. I mean, I read all that. I recognize he
18 had some problems. And I have not read the report
19 that was made right before trial, because it was 20 not presented and we are going to hold the record
21 open for that.

22 MR. HAYES: And then lastly, Your Honor, we 23 would note that my client was not contacted or 24 assisted with an appeal and was not able to timely
25 file a direct appeal as a result, and he would -- I

1 believe he would have done so had he been contacted
2 about filing a direct appeal.

3 THE COURT: I understand, but he was -- the
4 judge told him he had ten days, but the attorney
5 did not follow up on it.

6 MR. HAYES: That's our position, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: I understand. But as you have
8 been through these, this is an absolute clear
9 record. I mean, what happens on these, they appeal
10 and they say, you have got some problem, take it to 11 post-conviction relief, so that is --

12 MR. HAYES: Yes, Your Honor, but I would --

13 THE COURT: Chances are if he wants to take it
14 up, he was not -- and I am not ruling, but it
15 sounds like he was not advised of that.

16 MR. HAYES: Yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: That would be -- he could have an 18 appeal, but it is about as clean a record as you
19 can get.

20 MR. CORNEY: Well, Your Honor -- and I don't
21 know if he is finished. I don't want to interrupt.
22 Under Roe v. Flores-Ortega, from the United States
23 Supreme Court, about duty to advise of direct
24 appeal, and under Weathers v. State, from the South
25 Carolina Supreme Court, from a guilty plea there is

1 no active duty for an attorney to advise of a right
2 to appeal.

3 THE COURT: I understand. I am not ruling.
4 I'm just saying --

5 MR. CORNEY: I just wanted to make sure.

6 THE COURT: -- even if I rule that way --

7 MR. CORNEY: Sure, okay. Thank you, Your 8 Honor.

9 THE COURT: -- on a clean record, you just 10 don't win on appeal. There is nothing I saw in the 11 record, not that I'm infallible, that an Appellate
12 Court would reverse the plea on, because they don't 13 have the testimony that I had today. That wouldn't 14 even be there.

15 All right.

16 MR. HAYES: Yes, Your Honor. And just finally 17 for the record on this issue that we're going to 18 leave open, I would cite the Court the case of 19 State v. Blair, 275 S.C. 529.

20 On the face of Exhibit 2 it mentions that it
21 is a mental health evaluation ordered pursuant to 22 the case of State v. Blair, which requires a
23 subsequent hearing on the issue of competency to 24 stand trial.

25 And, Your Honor, I don't -- I haven't seen any

1 evidence of an order to that effect or the tran --

2 THE COURT: That is why we are leaving the
3 record open on that.

4 MR. HAYES: Thank you, Your Honor.

5 MR. CORNEY: Your Honor, just briefly in that 6 regard.

7 At the beginning I said, you know, subject to 8 the testimony I was agreeable to leave the record
9 open.

10 At this point in time I would oppose leaving
11 the record open in that regard. I think the 12 testimony reflects there was no hearing held.
13 Ms. Hines clearly testified there was no hearing
14 held, because the issue was withdrawn based on the 15 evaluation that was returned finding him competent.
16 There was no need to have a hearing. And there was 17 no order entered because it wasn't an issue raised
18 by Defense counsel. That was a -- she was -- made
19 a reasonable decision it wasn't deficient in that 20 regard after she received an evaluation saying he 21 was competent. So I don't think there is any need
22 to leave the record open because there is nothing
23 to supplement the record with. She withdrew the 24 motion. There is no order out there. And there is 25 no record out there of a hearing because there was

1 no hearing.

2 THE COURT: He can still put the order in.

3 MR. HAYES: Yes, Your Honor. I read State v.
4 Blair differently. I believe that the hearing is
5 mandatory and can't be waived.

6 MR. CORNEY: If they raised the issue of 7 competency, which she wasn't raising. She had 8 withdrew the issue.

9 THE COURT: We'll address all that after you
10 get the report. The report might say he was 11 incompetent, for all I know.

12 MR. HAYES: The report is that Exhibit 2, Your 13 Honor. We're saying there was no subsequent 14 follow-up order and hearing.

15 THE COURT: Well, there is no need to do it
16 because it is stipulated there was none, right?

17 MR. CORNEY: That is my understanding from Ms.
18 Hines' testimony is there is none. And that is 19 because the issue was withdrawn. Yes, there is a
20 need for a Blair hearing when the issue is raised.
21 She withdrew the issue once the evaluation came
22 back. And she was not deficient in withdrawing
23 that issue because it was a reasonable decision
24 based on the evaluation she received.

25 THE COURT: You can brief that if you want.

1 Y'all can prepare some proposed orders and we'll
2 deal with it.

3 MR. CORNEY: Your Honor, if I may, just very
4 briefly on the appellate issue, just to make sure I
5 get it on the record. I know I discussed it. If I
6 may?

7 I just wanted to put on the record, under Roe
8 v. Flores-Ortega, counsel doesn't have an active
9 duty to advise Defendant of their right to appeal
10 from a guilty plea absent something preserved for 11 appeal or some reason to think that the Applicant
12 would want to appeal. This was a negotiated plea.
13 There was no reason for Ms. Hines to think that 14 Mr. Muhammad wanted to appeal a negotiated plea
15 where he walked in the door knowing he was going to 16 get 30 years.

17 THE COURT: I understand.

18 MR. CORNEY: Weathers v. State, from the South
19 Carolina Supreme Court, supports that same
20 proposition, that she had no active duty to inform 21 a guilty plea Defendant of his right to appeal.

22 I just want to put that on the record. I
23 appreciate your patience.

24 Thank you.

25 THE COURT: That is what the law says. I was

1 just pointing out to him, even if he had an appeal,
2 nothing in the record is reversible.

3 MR. CORNEY: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: His only chance was at PCR. There
5 you go.

6 MR. HAYES: And just finally, Your Honor, in 7 light of the evidence presented today and the 8 prejudice to my client, we would request that you
9 grant this application and grant my client a new
10 trial.

11 THE COURT: Well, you can prepare, both of 12 y'all, proposed orders, and I'll review it in a
13 little more detail.

14 MR. CORNEY: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 MR. HAYES: Thank you, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: I don't need the exhibits. I have 17 already read them.

18 (WHEREUPON, the proceedings were concluded.)

Rule 45, South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedures, Parts (c) and (d):

(c) Protection of Persons Subject to Subpoenas.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and a reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial. A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena for production of books, papers and documents without a deposition shall provide to another party copies of documents so produced upon written request. The party requesting copies shall pay the reasonable costs of reproduction.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d) (2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy the materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time in the court that issued the subpoena for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued, or regarding a subpoena commanding appearance at a deposition, or production or inspection directed to a non-party, the court in the county where the non-party resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, shall quash or modify the subpoena if it:

- I. fails to allow reasonable time for compliance; or
- II. requires a person who is not a party nor an officer, director or managing agent of a party, nor a general partner of a partnership that is a party, to travel more than 50 miles from the county where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c)(3)(B)(ii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held; or
- III. requires disclosure of privileged or otherwise protected matter and no exception or waiver applies; or
- IV. subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena:

- I. requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or
- II. requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or
- III. requires a person who is not a party nor an officer, director or managing agent of a party, nor a general partner of a partnership that is a party, to incur substantial expense to travel from the county where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person,

the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) Duties in Responding to Subpoena.

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

COMPETENCY TO STAND TRIAL REPORT:

DATE OF EVALUATION: September 9, 2009

DMH EXAMINERS: Michael Cross, M.D.
Marthe Williams, LISW-CP

OTHERS PRESENT: Kris Hines, Esq.

OPINION OF COMPETENCY TO STAND TRIAL: Yes

IDENTIFYING INFORMATION: Irshad Muhammad is a 21-year-old African-American male seen pursuant to a court order from the Richland County Court of General Sessions. This court order directed an evaluation of the defendant's competency to stand trial pursuant to State v. Blair, 275 S.C. 529, 273 S.E. 2d 536 (1981) and S.C. Code Ann. §44-23-410 (1976). He is charged with Murder.

The basis for the order specifies he "is receiving mental health treatment at the Alvin S. Glenn Detention Center and had received mental health treatment in the past. The attorney is concerned about his mental capacity."

STATEMENT OF NONCONFIDENTIALITY: Mr. Muhammad was notified of and appreciated the nature, purpose, and lack of confidentiality for any statements that he might make. He read a rights acknowledgement well. He signed and dated this acknowledgement and agreed to proceed.

DISPOSITION: The defendant returned to the Alvin S. Glenn Detention Center at the end of the interview.

Detention Center records were pending at the time of this report. We reserve the right to amend this report should new information warrant.

PAST PSYCHIATRIC HISTORY: Mr. Muhammad reported he was diagnosed with Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder when he was around nine years old. He took Ritalin® for a year but it only seemed to increase his level of restlessness and irritability. He denied other mental health services before his recent detention at the Alvin S. Glenn Detention Center. He reported his mood was poor following his arrest and was prescribed Zoloft. He reported his mood improvement.

When queried, Mr. Muhammad endorsed periods of "hearing things and seeing things." He reported them as "ghosts" or "demons". He provided vague and atypical details. Some reports were clichéd, more consistent with those who might be exaggerating or fabricating such experiences. If genuinely experienced, they it is possible it may have been the direct or indirect (e.g. sleep disturbance) product of illicit substance use. If not, it may indicate secondary gain motives. Given these symptoms did not warrant clinical attention before his arrest, a genuine psychotic disorder appeared unlikely.

PAST MEDICAL HISTORY: He reported being healthy most of his life. He reported someone broke his right jaw in a fight, requiring surgical intervention.

PAST SUBSTANCE USE HISTORY: He reported significant cannabis and cocaine consumption. He started consuming cannabis as a teenager. He reported a quarter to a half ounce of cannabis daily before his arrest. Six months before his arrest, he denied cocaine consumption. Before that, he endorsed daily consumption of a half ounce of powdered cocaine. He endorsed brief experimentation with divertible prescription medications such as Xanax® and Seroquel®. He consumes alcohol but denied criteria for abuse or dependence. Based on the available information, it appears that he meets the diagnostic criteria for Cannabis Abuse and Cocaine Abuse.

SOCIAL HISTORY: He was born in New York. He reported that he is the third child out of five. He claimed his mother is a Sudanese immigrant. (However, his mother reported she was born in the United States.) He reported being raised as a Muslim. He claimed he was teased at school for wearing a kufi (the head covering traditionally worn by people of African decent). He spent his first ten years living in the Staten Island, N.Y. area before his mother moved to South Carolina. Then, he spent his school years in South Carolina and his summers in New York. He had behavioral problems in school, such as cursing, opposition, and fighting that resulted in being suspended. He reported placement into a contained classroom due to his behaviors rather than a learning disability. In the 10th grade, he was expelled for fighting. He was charged and went to Family Court. He had Pretrial Intervention. He had a positive drug screen for cannabis so had mandatory drug testing. He did not return to school. He worked in a shoe store stocking shelves and then in a carwash. He has a 1-year-old daughter. He had plans to marry and complete his high school equivalency exam before his arrest. He denied subsequent legal issues. He reported socializing with friends. He denied a gang affiliation. At present, there is insufficient collateral data evidencing the pervasive behaviors necessary to diagnose a personality disorder.

MENTAL STATUS EXAM: Mr. Muhammad appeared his stated age. He had a slight beard around his chin. His grooming and hygiene appeared adequate. He dressed normally in a detention center uniform. He appeared open and honest to most questions but self-protective in others. He maintained good eye contact. He was linear, logical, and goal directed. There was no evidence of a thought content disorder. He was oriented to person, place, time, and situation. His short and long-term memory was good. He concentrated well evidenced by spelling world forwards and backwards. He abstracted well evidenced by his interpretation of proverbs and similarities. He appropriately solved a dangerous hypothetical situation. His fund of knowledge appeared fair.

He was articulate. His use of language appeared better than his level of education. Overall, his intelligence appeared to be in the average range. He denied current suicidal or homicidal ideas although he had some when first arrested. As noted, he endorsed atypical auditory and visual hallucinations that did not appear to reflect a genuine psychotic illness. He reported his mood was 8 out of 10 (with 10 being the best).

He reported six hours of sleep daily. While his eating cycle is interrupted for Ramadan, his appetite remains good.

DIAGNOSTIC IMPRESSION:

AXIS I: Cannabis Abuse
Cocaine Abuse

AXIS II: Deferred

AXIS III: No Acute Diagnosis

OPINION REGARDING COMPETENCY TO STAND TRIAL: Mr. Muhammad named his charge of Murder. He stated murder involves "malice" and "aforethought" in everyday terms. He named possible sentences such as 30 years, life, or the death penalty if convicted. He easily and accurately named the roles of defense attorneys, solicitors, judges, and juries. He needed some education about the consequences of a hung jury. He discussed the pleas commonly used by defendants and the mechanics of a plea bargaining process. He could discuss the decisions involved in accepting or rejecting a plea offer. It is our opinion that he is capable of accepting or rejecting a plea offer in his case. He could appreciate the importance of proper courtroom conduct. He described the importance of evidence and the witnesses in determining guilt or innocence and provided examples of each. He solved a hypothetical involving a lying witness. He expressed a rational desired outcome for his case. There was no evidence of a delusional thought process. The evidence does not suggest Mr. Muhammad lacks the capacity to rationally and factually understand the legal proceedings against him or to assist in his defense.

DNA NOTICE & PAYMENT PROCEDURES

South Carolina law requires that individuals who have been convicted of certain offenses must provide a blood sample from which DNA may be obtained. Recent changes have been made to this law and this notice indicates how this law applies to you. Section 23-3-620 of the S.C. Code of Laws lists the offenses that require the submission of a sample. You have been convicted of one of the offenses listed in Section 23-3-620, and an appropriate individual will be taking a sample from you from which DNA may be obtained. Under Section 23-3-670 of the S.C. Code of Laws, a person who must provide a sample from which DNA may be obtained must also pay a processing fee of $250. Therefore, you must pay SCDC $250. If you do not have the funds necessary to pay this processing fee, SCDC is authorized by section 23-3-670 of the S.C. Code of Laws to take certain steps to collect the $250 fee from you. Under this law, SCDC will deduct or withhold certain monies that you earn as a result of work you perform or which have otherwise been deposited in to your E.H. Cooper account, until you have met your responsibility regarding the $250 processing fee.

After your blood sample has been provided you may file an inmate grievance if you believe that the law should not apply to you because of your commitment offense, or if you object to any actions taken by SCDC regarding the processing fee. To receive information about filing an inmate grievance you should contact your institutional grievance coordinator. The following options are available to inmates when making payments regarding DNA samples.

1. COOPER TRUST FUND: Inmates may choose to pay the full fee of $250 now to avoid automatic fee deductions from his/her pay. An inmate must authorize SCDC to deduct $250 from his/her Cooper Trust Fund account by completing SCDC Form 15-1, "Cooper Trust Fund Withdrawal", directing the funds be made payable to SCDC for DNA Fee. No payment for less than $50 will be accepted unless the amount equals the remaining fee balance.
2. DIRECT PAYMENT: In order to avoid automatic deductions and by-pass the Cooper Trust Fund, an inmate may have the fee of $250 paid by a non-incarcerated individual utilizing the EXACT instructions available from your institutional mailroom. NOTE: By utilizing this method, money will not be sent to the Cooper Trust Fund.
3. AUTOMATED PAYMENT DEDUCTIONS FROM PAY: If you fail to utilize option #1 or #2 above, the SCDC will automatically deduct the $250 from available funds, if the law applies to you.

Inmate Pay: Monies paid to inmates through the SCDC inmate pay program will be deducted for payment of the fee as follows. Inmates paid more than $5 for the biweekly inmate pay period will have 5% of inmate pay deducted for the DNA fee.

Prison Industries Private Sector Enhancement & Community Services Work Release Programs: Monies paid to inmates participating in these programs will be deducted for payment of the fee. 5% of monies paid will be deducted for the fee, if available, after other mandatory deductions have been taken.

E.H. Cooper Deposits: Inmate receiving deposits into their E.H. Cooper Trust Fund will have 5% of those deposits retained to pay for DNA fees.

My signature acknowledges that I have read the above and fully understand what is expected and required of me.

SICK CALL PROCEDURES

Nursing sick call will be conducted on a daily basis on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays. For inmates housed in general population, sick call starts at 4:30 a.m. For inmates housed in SMU, sick call starts at 7:00 a.m. Inmates in SMU who have signed up for sick call should remain in their cells rather than going out for Recreation.

For inmates housed in general population, a sign up sheet for sick call will be available at the Officer's desk in the dorm between 8:30 p.m. and 9:00 p.m. Inmates who have signed up on the list will be seen in Sick Call the following day. Each dorm will be called to report to Medical for sick call the following morning.

Inmates housed in SMU should complete a Request to Staff Member Form for Medical stating his medical complaint. The Request Form should be given to an Officer who then will put the Request in the Medical Box in SMU. These requests are picked up by a Nurse at approximately 9:00 p.m. each night prior to sick call.

Sick call is intended for all medical problems, emergency dental problems, and mental health problems. Once you are seen in sick call, proper referrals will be done at that time (Doctor, Mental Health, Dental). Any emergency that is considered to be life-threatening will be addressed by Medical Personnel immediately.

POST OPERATIVE CARE FOLLOWING ORAL SURGERY

Proper care following oral surgical procedures is important to hasten recovery and prevent complications. Please read and follow the instructions carefully.

1. Bed-rest the day of surgery is advised, particularly if intravenous medications were used. You should elevate your head 30-40% (2-3 pillows). You should not drive while taking narcotic pain medication or engage in any strenuous activity for 48 hours following surgery.
2. Change gauze every hour after surgery three to four times, then discontinue. The gauze may be removed to take medications, liquids and/or food.
3. Some bleeding is to be expected. Spitting will cause bleeding to persist. If persistent bleeding occurs, rinse your mouth with ice water and place a moistened tea bag over the bleeding area and bite down firmly for one (1) hour. Repeat if necessary.
4. Take your prescribed pain medication before the local anesthesia (numbness) wears off. A long acting local anesthetic may be used on the lower jaw, so the lower lip may be numb up to 24 hours. Pain medications should be taken as prescribed the day of surgery. For mild discomfort use Ibuprofen (Advil or Motrin) or Tylenol if unable to take Ibuprofen.
5. DO NOT: use a straw for drinking, smoke or use any tobacco product, drink carbonated or alcoholic beverages for 48 hours following surgery. This creates excessive bleeding and may complicate and delay recovery.
6. Begin diet with cold, clear liquids (iced tea, apple juice, etc...) and advance to cold soft diet (jello, yogurt, puddings, etc...). On the day of surgery, keep temperatures at a luke warm level or cooler and avoid foods that are harder than scrambled eggs, pasta, etc.... Advance your diet to normal the day after surgery as tolerated.
7. Tooth brushing can be started on the day of surgery. Warm salt-water rinses should be started 24 hours after the surgery. Add a one (1) teaspoon of salt to an 8-ounce glass of warm water for rinsing. This is especially important after meals. Rinse with warm salt water at least four (4) times a day.
8. Swelling and pain are to be expected and some bruising may also occur. An ice bag or zip lock freezer bag filled with ice, wrapped in a towel should be applied to the face one-half hour on and one-half hour off for the first day of surgery until the patient goes to bed for good. Moist heat may be applied to the involved area beginning 24 hours after surgery.
9. You will need to schedule a postoperative appointment approximately one (1) week following the surgery. Please call the office to arrange this appointment, if it has not already been set up.
10. If you have any problems or questions, please call: (803) 957-6113 or (803) 796-5791.

If you anticipate the need for medication over the weekend please call the office prior to noon on Friday. Please note that it is office policy that no medications will be prescribed after hours or on the weekend because of non-patients trying to obtain drugs illegally.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter comes before the Court by way of an Application for Post-Conviction Relief filed November 15, 2010. An evidentiary hearing into the matter was convened on Tuesday, September 11, 2012, at the Richland County Courthouse. The Applicant was present at the hearing with counsel, Aaron J. Hayes, Esquire. The Respondent was represented by Robert D. Corney of the South Carolina Attorney General's Office.

At the hearing, Applicant testified on his own behalf. Also testifying was Applicant's former plea counsel, Kris Hines, Esquire (hereafter "counsel"), and Applicant's mother, Karima Muhammad. This Court also had before it a copy of the transcript of the proceedings against Applicant, the records of the Richland County Clerk of Court, and Applicant's records from the South Carolina Department of Corrections.

The records before this Court indicate that Applicant is presently confined in the South Carolina Department of Corrections pursuant to orders of commitment of the Richland County Clerk of Court. Applicant was true bill indicted at the April 2009 term of the Richland County Grand Jury for Murder (2009-GS-40-0477). Kris Hines, Esquire, represented Applicant on the charge. On February 5, 2010, Applicant appeared before The Honorable L. Casey Manning where he pled guilty to the lesser included Voluntary Manslaughter pursuant to negotiations and was sentenced to thirty (30) years imprisonment. Applicant did not appeal the plea or sentence.

In the current application, Applicant alleged he is being held in custody unlawfully for the following reasons:

10. State concisely the grounds on which you base your allegation that you are being held in custody unlawfully:
 - (a) Ineffective Insufficient Counsel
 - (b) _____
 - (c) _____
11. State concisely and in the same order the facts which support each of the grounds set out in (10):
 - (a) My Attorney Failed to advise me of the use of my
 - (b) statement in trial.
 - (c) _____

Applicant thereafter filed an amended application dated August 23, 2012, in which he added the following allegations:

10. State concisely the grounds on which you base your allegation that you are being held in custody unlawfully:
 - (a) My conviction or sentence violates United States or South Carolina Constitution because I received ineffective assistance of counsel prior to, during, and after pleading guilty to the above-reasoned indictment.
11. State concisely and in the same order the facts which support each of the grounds set out in (10):
 - (a) Witness statements were improperly used against me because they were inaccurate, inconsistent, and contradicted one another. This situation was even mentioned by Solicitor Dan Goldberg on the record at my plea agreement. If I would have known those statements could have been suppressed and/or impeached, I would not have pled. If I would have known that those witnesses were not credible because of their felony convictions, I would not have pled. My attorney did not advise me of any of these problems with the witnesses arranged against me and/or their statements. Therefore, I did not have the effective assistance of counsel regarding this charge.

- (b) This was my first offense and the situation was so overwhelming I was unaware of my surroundings and what was legally taking place. I had no idea of what questions to ask my attorney. I only pled to avoid life in prison because my attorney Ms. Hines told me that I had "no defense." I was also on Depakote, a mood stabilizer and antipsychotic at the time of my plea. I was not thinking clearly and only listening to my attorney and relying on her. I do not believe I was able to understand what was taking place. If my attorney had stopped the plea process and explained the case to me in a manner I could have understood, I would not have pled. Therefore, I did not have the effective assistance of counsel regarding this charge.
- (c) Prior to my plea, while being interrogated, I was suppressed and forced into making my statement. I was mentally attacked while incarcerated, and I was bribed with cigarettes. Furthermore, I was bribed with drinking water and the possibility of seeing my daughter. I was coerced into making my statements after being threatened with additional charges. Had my attorney communicated to me—in a manner that I could have understood—that my statement could have been suppressed, I would not have pled. Therefore, I did not have the effective assistance of counsel regarding this charge.
- (d) My attorney Ms. Hines did not talk to me—in a manner I could have understood—regarding appealing my conviction. Therefore, I did not have the effective assistance of counsel regarding this charge.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

This Court has had the opportunity to review the record in its entirety and has heard the arguments presented by both parties at the evidentiary hearing. Set forth below are the relevant findings of facts and conclusions of law as required pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. §17-27-80 (1985).

In a post-conviction relief action, the Applicant has the burden of proving the allegations in the application. Rule 71.1(e), SCRCP; Butler v. State, 286 S.C. 441, 334 S.E.2d 813 (1985). Where ineffective assistance of counsel is alleged as a ground for relief, the Applicant must prove that "counsel's conduct so undermined the proper functioning of the adversarial process that the trial cannot be relied upon as having produced a just result." Strickland v. Washington,

The proper measure of performance is whether the attorney provided representation within the range of competence required in criminal cases. Courts presume that counsel rendered adequate assistance and made all significant decisions in the exercise of reasonable professional judgment. Butler, 286 S.C. 441, 334 S.E.2d 813 (1985). The Applicant must overcome this presumption to receive relief. Cherry v. State, 300 S.C. 115, 386 S.E.2d 624 (1989).

Courts use a two-pronged test in evaluating allegations of ineffective assistance of counsel. First, the Applicant must prove that counsel's performance was deficient. Under this prong, attorney performance is measured by its "reasonableness under professional norms." Cherry, 300 S.C. at 117, 385 S.E.2d at 625 (citing Strickland). Second, counsel's deficient performance must have prejudiced the Applicant such that "there is a reasonable probability that, but for counsel's unprofessional errors, the result of the proceeding would have been different." Cherry, 300 S.C. at 117-18, 386 S.E.2d at 625.

Ineffective Assistance of Counsel

At the PCR hearing, Applicant alleged his guilty plea was entered involuntarily as a result of counsel's ineffectiveness in several regards. Specifically, Applicant alleged counsel failed to advise him of the ability to impeach the credibility of witnesses against him at trial where those witnesses had prior criminal convictions, and failed to advise Applicant of the ability to raise a motion to suppress the inculpatory statement he provided to police.

Applicant testified some of the witnesses against him at trial had given conflicting statements to police and, had he known about those conflicting accounts, he would not have pled guilty. He went on to say the police forced him into giving an incriminating statement through promises they never followed through with. Applicant alleged he was relying on counsel to guide and represent him in his best interests, but she failed to do so. On cross-examination, Applicant conceded he had pled guilty as part of a negotiated plea offer from the State and knew he would receive a thirty (30) year sentence upon entry of his plea before he ever entered the courtroom for the plea hearing that day. He also said he was aware that by pleading, he was waiving his right to jury trial where he could challenge the evidence against him.

Counsel testified she represented Applicant in her capacity as an Assistant Public Defender for Richland County. She noted that from the outset of her representation, Applicant maintained he wanted to plead guilty to the charge and not proceed to trial, which slightly affected the route that she chose to take in preparing the case. She went on to say she met with Applicant numerous times prior to the plea, during which she was able to review with Applicant his constitutional rights and the charges he was facing, as well as the discovery materials received from the State. Counsel also reviewed the witness statements with Applicant and the testimony she anticipated each witness would present at trial based on those statements. She said she wasn't sure whether she "specifically" advised Applicant of her ability to impeach Ira Holloway at trial, but did review cross-examination tactics and impeachment with Applicant on the other alleged witnesses. She noted that Ira Holloway only had one or two convictions that would have been admissible for impeachment at trial, and it was unlikely that Holloway would be called as a witness by the State as he had no involvement in the case whatsoever other than having been the person initially arrested by police as the suspect they were looking for. Holloway was thereafter released and deemed to have no involvement in the current charges.

Counsel said she was aware that some of the witnesses did have prior felony convictions which she had looked into while preparing the case, but was unable to remember the specific charges or whether she reviewed the particular charges on their "rap sheets" with Applicant. She did, however, review the witnesses' inconsistent statements to police with Applicant and explained how those statements could be used for impeachment at trial. Counsel noted there were roughly eighteen (18) witness statements part of the discovery file, and said therefore even without the testimony of Holloway or several other witnesses, there was still plenty of evidence for a jury to convict Applicant of the charges. She also noted that if the State presented Holloway at trial, it likely would have been beneficial to the defense in calling reasonable doubt into the juror's minds as he was the individual originally identified as the shooter in the killing that Applicant was ultimately arrested/charged for.

Regarding Applicant's inculpatory statement to police, counsel recalled it was taken several days after the incident at the police station and that she believed he may have been intoxicated during the interrogation, but did not recall Applicant ever telling her about coercion or duress rendering the statement involuntary. She said she reviewed the statement with Applicant and her ability to challenge it at trial based on his alleged intoxication, which he seemed to understand; she also noted that the plea court advised Applicant during the plea hearing of his right to challenge the statement, which Applicant said he wished to waive by pleading guilty. Counsel also noted she believed Applicant was fully aware that by pleading he was waiving his right to challenge/impeach the witnesses' statements against him at trial.

In the end, counsel said, she believed she gave Applicant all the advice and information necessary to make a voluntary and informed decision whether to plead guilty or proceed to trial, after which Applicant ultimately made the independent decision to plead under a beneficial plea offer from the State.

Based on a thorough review of the record in conjunction with the testimony provided at the PCR hearing, this Court finds Applicant's allegations to be without merit. First, this Court finds counsel's testimony to be credible on these particular issues, while conversely finding Applicant's testimony to not be credible as to his discussions with counsel. Counsel reviewed the witness statements in depth with Applicant, undertook a reasonable investigation in the criminal background of those witnesses, and explained to Applicant her ability to call those witnesses' credibility into question through impeachment on cross-examination at trial. While she may or may not have reviewed that information regarding Ira Holloway with Applicant specifically, Holloway was unlikely to be called by the State at trial due to his limited role in the crime and the defense's ability to call reasonable doubt into question as to the identity of the shooter through cross-examination of Holloway; therefore, counsel was not deficient in this regard. Applicant was fully advised and aware that by pleading guilty, he would waive the ability to challenge any and all statements at trial, but made the informed and voluntary decision to do so in order to accept the benefit of an advantageous plea offer from the state. Accordingly, this Court finds Applicant has failed to support his claim that counsel's performance was objectively unreasonable in this regard.

Further, Applicant has failed to convince this Court that, but for counsel's alleged deficiency in this regard, he would not have accepted the advantageous negotiated plea offer extended by the state, but rather would have gone to trial to face the plethora of evidence against him, especially in light of a potential life without parole sentence on the table.

Additionally, this Court finds counsel was not ineffective regarding the ability to challenge Applicant's statement at trial either. Counsel fully informed Applicant of the ability to challenge the inculpatory statement to police at trial, which he knowingly chose to waive by pleading guilty. Counsel's credible testimony reflects she would have raised such a suppression motion at trial had the matter proceeded, but it was Applicant's own informed and independent decision that precluded her from doing so. Therefore, counsel was not deficient in this regard. This Court further finds Applicant failed to carry his burden in proving resulting prejudice in this regard as he failed to convince this Court that, but for counsel's purported deficiency, he would have foregone the advantageous plea offer extended by the State to proceed to trial where he could challenge the statement in a pre-trial motion to suppress. There was very strong evidence against Applicant to convict him of the crimes at trial, from which he would have faced a mandatory minimum "day for day" sentence of thirty (30) years rather than an eighty-five percent (85%) maximum thirty year sentence as he received with negotiations. With the entirety of the record considered, this Court finds no reasonable likelihood Applicant would have insisted on proceeding to trial to challenge the charges but-for counsel's alleged deficiency.

Finally, Applicant failed to present any credible evidence to prove that, had such a motion to suppress been argued in pre-trial, there is a reasonable likelihood that it would have been granted by the trial judge. "The process for determining whether a statement is voluntarily made is two-fold; requiring a determination by both the trial court and the jury." State v. Carmack, 388 S.C. 190, 199, 694 S.E.2d 224, 229 (Ct. App. 2010), citing State v. Miller, 375 S.C. 370, 652 S.E.2d 444 (Ct. App. 2007). "In order for the issue to be submitted to the jury, the State must prove to the trial court, by preponderance of the evidence, that the statement was freely and voluntarily given." Id. "The fact that one is intoxicated at the time of a confession is made does not necessarily render him incapable of comprehending the meaning and effect of his words[;] [t]herefore, proof that an accused was intoxicated at the time he made a confession does not render the statement inadmissible as a matter of law, unless the accused's intoxication was such that he did not realize what he was saying." State v. Saxon, 261 S.C. 523, 201 S.E.2d 114 (1973). This Court finds that based on the record and testimony presented, Applicant has failed to carry his burden in proving such was the case, as Applicant's incredible testimony was the only evidence presented to support the assertion that the motion would have been successful.

Failure to Request Hearing Pursuant to Blair v. State

Applicant additionally alleged counsel was ineffective for failing to request a competency hearing be convened before the trial judge pursuant to State v. Blair, 275 S.C. 529, 273 S.E.2d 536 (1981).

Applicant testified he was taking Depakote at the time of his guilty plea as a prescribed mood stabilizer, which he alleged made him feel "like hell", "like the world was coming to an end". He stated he was confused on the day of the plea, but entered the plea because he was instructed to do so by counsel. On cross-examination, Applicant conceded he told the plea judge he was on Depakote at the time of the plea and said it did not affect his ability to understand what he was doing at the time.

Applicant's mother, Karima Muhammad (hereafter "Ms. Muhammad") testified at the hearing as well. Ms. Muhammad is a mediator in civil and family disputes. She testified she was aware Applicant had been suffering from some mental health issues prior to his plea, including hearing voices and seeing hallucinations. She went on to say she was unable to stay at the entirety of the plea hearing, but believed Applicant appeared upset and confused during the hearing, and said he kept looking back at her.

Counsel testified she was aware Applicant was taking a prescription mood stabilizer at the time of the guilty plea, but Applicant had told her the medication helped him to understand things more clearly. Counsel said she requested Applicant be evaluated by the South Carolina Department of Mental Health ("SCDMH") after receiving a call from Applicant's mother that Applicant was having suicidal thoughts. Counsel noted this call occurred before Applicant was on the medication. She went on to say she had previously seen Applicant's medical records and believed those, in conjunction with the suicidal thoughts, warranted an evaluation for "mental capacity" out of an abundance of caution. Counsel testified she never had any real concerns about Applicant's ability to comprehend and participate in their conversations about his case. She finished by saying she did not request a hearing on Applicant's competence pursuant to State v. Blair as she was not concerned with his competence based on her discussions with him and the evaluation results were clear that Applicant was fully competent.

This Court finds counsel was not ineffective in this regard. First, counsel's performance was not objectively unreasonable in opting to waive the Blair hearing based on her interactions with Applicant and her review of the evaluation report issued by SCDMH. Counsel's credible testimony on the subject revealed she had little doubt Applicant was competent to stand trial, but requested an evaluation due to Applicant's alleged suicidal thoughts anyway. Counsel's extensive discussions with Applicant were sufficient to convince her Applicant fully comprehended their discussions and was aware of what he was doing by pleading guilty. See for example Lee v. State, 396 S.C. 314, 721 S.E.2d 442 (Ct. App. 2011) (counsel not deemed deficient for failing to request competency evaluation for defendant where her discussions with defendant never raised any suspicions that defendant was incompetent). Therefore, this Court finds counsel's performance was not objectively unreasonable in failing to further pursue the issue by requesting the hearing. Additionally, this Court finds Applicant's testimony on his inability to understand the proceeding to be not credible based upon the plea transcript in which Applicant gave clear, appropriate and rational answers to the plea judge's questions.

Further, this Court finds Applicant has failed to sufficiently establish resulting prejudice. "[I]n proving Strickland prejudice within the context of counsel's failure to fully investigate the petitioner's mental capacity, 'the [petitioner] need only show a reasonable probability that he was either insane [at the time the crime was committed] or incompetent at the time of the plea.' Matthews v. State, 358 S.C. 456, 459, 596 S.E.2d 49, 51 (2004); quoting Jeter v. State, 308 S.C. 230, 232, 417 S.E.2d 594, 595 – 596 (1992). A criminal defendant is competent to enter his guilty plea if "the accused [has] sufficient capability to consult with his lawyer with a reasonable degree of rational understanding and [has] a rational as well as a factual understanding of the proceeding against him." Jeter, supra. While the issue here is counsel's failure to request a Blair hearing be conducted rather than a pure failure to investigate claim, the standard to be applied for evaluating resulting prejudice remains very similar. In reviewing the record, testimony and packet of documentation made part of the record at the PCR hearing by Applicant, this Court finds no such reasonable probability has been established by Applicant; in fact, the record and credible testimony presented conclusively convince this Court Applicant was entirely competent at the time of his plea and had a full factual understanding of the proceedings against him after participating in sufficient discussions with counsel. Therefore, this Court finds Applicant has failed to prove resulting prejudice as, had such a hearing been held, there is no reasonable likelihood the Court would have found Applicant incompetent to enter the plea.

Failure to File Direct Appeal

Applicant finally alleged counsel was ineffective for failing to advise him of the right to appeal the plea within ten (10) days of the plea hearing. Specifically, Applicant testified he never spoke with counsel again after the plea hearing and was never advised of his right to appeal. Counsel agreed with this testimony, saying she never discussed a direct appeal with Applicant.

This Court finds the allegation to be without merit. The United States Supreme Court has held counsel has a constitutionally-imposed duty to consult with a defendant about an appeal when there is reason to think either (1) that a rational defendant would want to appeal, or (2) that this particular defendant reasonably demonstrated to counsel that he was interested in appealing. Roe v. Flores-Ortega, 528 U.S. 470, 120 S.Ct. 1029 (2000). The South Carolina Supreme Court has interpreted this standard as it applies to appeals from guilty pleas, saying:

“...absent extraordinary circumstances, there is no constitutional requirement that a defendant be informed of the right to appeal from a guilty plea... The bare assertion that a defendant was not advised of appellate rights is insufficient to grant relief. Instead, there must be proof that extraordinary circumstances exist such that the defendant should have been advised of the right to appeal.”

Weathers v. State, 319 S.C. 59, 459 S.E.2 838 (S.C. 1995); see also Roe v. Flores-Ortega, 528 U.S. 470, 120 S.Ct. 1029 (U.S. 2000.) Applicant has not alleged he requested counsel file an appeal, rather only that he was not advised of his right to appeal. In fact, the undisputed testimony is Applicant and counsel “never discussed” an appeal; therefore, it is clear Applicant did not affirmatively request such be filed. Applicant failed to establish any “extraordinary circumstances” that would warrant this Court finding counsel “had reason to believe” Applicant wanted an appeal, especially in light of the Applicant’s plea being pursuant to negotiations. Therefore, this allegation must be denied and dismissed as counsel is under no duty to actively advise a defendant of the right to appeal a guilty plea absent extraordinary circumstances.

CONCLUSION

Based on all the foregoing, this Court finds and concludes that the Applicant has not established any constitutional violations or deprivations that would require this court to grant his application. Therefore, this application for post conviction relief must be denied and dismissed with prejudice.

Except as discussed above, this Court finds Applicant failed to raise all additional allegations previously set forth in the application at the hearing and has, thereby, made a voluntary and intentional waiver of them. A waiver is a voluntary and intentional abandonment or relinquishment of a known right. Janasik v. Fairway Oaks Villas Horizontal Property Regime, 307 S.C. 339, 415 S.E.2d 384 (1992). A waiver may be express or implied. "An implied waiver results from acts and conduct of the party against whom the doctrine is invoked from which an intentional relinquishment of a right is reasonably inferable." Lyles v. BMI, Inc., 292 S.C. 153, 158-59, 355 S.E.2d 282 (Ct. App. 1987). The Applicant's failure to address these issues at the hearing indicates a voluntary and intentional relinquishment of his right to do so. Therefore, any and all remaining allegations are denied and dismissed.

This Court notes Applicant must file and serve a notice of appeal within thirty (30) days from the receipt by counsel of written notice of entry of judgment to secure the appropriate appellate review. See Rule 203, SCACR. Pursuant to Austin v. State, 305 S.C. 453 (1991), an Applicant has a right to an appellate counsel's assistance in seeking review of the denial of PCR. Rule 71.1(g), SCRCP, provides that if the applicant wishes to seek appellate review, PCR counsel must serve and file a Notice of Appeal on the Applicant's behalf. Your attention is directed to South Carolina Appellate Court Rule 243 for appropriate procedures for appeal.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. That the Application for Post-Conviction Relief must be denied and dismissed with prejudice; and
2. The Applicant must be remanded to the custody of the Respondent.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED this 1 day of Feb, 2013.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER OF DISMISSAL

2013 MAR 12 AM 11:26
 JESSIE W. MCBRIDE
 C.P. & G.S.

THIS MATTER COMES BEFORE THE COURT upon Applicant's Motion to Alter or Amend the Order of Dismissal in this matter, signed by the Court on February 1, 2013 and filed on February 6, 2013. Specifically, Applicant has brought to the Court's attention that the Order of Dismissal states that it disposes of Applicant's Amended Application for Post-Conviction Relief, (filed August 29, 2012), as well as Applicant's original Application (filed November 15, 2010). The Order, however, does not mention Applicant's Second Amended Application for Post-Conviction Relief, filed with Court on October 3, 2012. Since this Order of Dismissal rules upon (and denies) all issues raised in Applicant's Second Amended Application for Post-Conviction Relief, the Court hereby orders that the Order of Dismissal is AMENDED to reflect that it rules upon all applications for post conviction relief filed by Applicant in the case bearing Civil Action No. 2010-CP-40-8024, including the Second Amended Application for Post-Conviction Relief. This Supplemental Order of Dismissal constitutes the Court's Final Order in this matter.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
