MOTION / ■■

IN THE COURT OF APPEALS OF SOUTH CAROLINA
Case No.: 2024-CP-46-01346
Kong Jian Lin, Appellant
v.
Lin Yi Tong (Tony Lin), Respondent

MOTION

COMES NOW the Appellant, Kong Jian Lin, respectfully submitting this Motion before the Court of Appeals of South Carolina, and states as follows:

1. On April 3, 2024, the Appellant filed a civil complaint in York County Court against the Respondent, Lin Yi Tong (Tony Lin).
2. Despite multiple summons issued by the lower court, the Respondent failed to appear in court as required, constituting contempt and violation of court orders.
3. The lower court failed to properly hear the Appellant's evidence and did not schedule hearings regarding the Respondent's violation of summons and compensation for damages.
4. The judgment entered by the lower court was unjust, awarding only $500, which does not reflect the actual damages and harm suffered by the Appellant, including financial loss, health damage, and emotional distress.
5. The Appellant reasonably believes that improper conduct by court staff and law enforcement in York County has obstructed justice, creating bias against the Appellant.

WHEREFORE, the Appellant respectfully requests this Court:
a. To accept this Motion as part of the ongoing appeal;
b. To review the lower court's record and correct errors and omissions;
c. To grant a new hearing, preferably before a jury, so that all evidence and witnesses may be fairly examined;
d. To grant such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Kong Jian Lin (Appellant)
