William Smith V. State
Appellant case No. 2025-000513
Motion File to Be Place on file
For Admittment Action of Appeal

This Document to show, the South Carolina Dept, parole Release Service is in violation to parole Due process. they Do Not have No kind of Jurisdiction over the action or Dismiss Made By the Marlboro County Solicitor When all 5 charge has Been Dismiss. IF the Solicitor Dismiss all charges that is what it's, they cant speak or hold a person, when Due process is, they have to Deal with, the Jurisdiction of parole of the Crime that, Been Commed, that has a person Sentence, Not on Anything the Solicitor Do on A New charge with no conviction. the parole Dept is IF you Been convicted. there JOB. was to Reinstate my parole, Not, via state Guild line, By placing me Back on Routine parole Because I had Convicted Freedom, was on parole by ear 9 month 20 days and All Evidence use at administration hearing and Final hearing is from the arrest on 8-4-22. that was Dismiss on 1-10-24. (this when I was Supposed to have Been Reinstate, when went Back to the parole Board Fed 28 2024' ~~was~~ was Supposed had Been Reinstate. Not still Being unlawfully held on parole violation, when there no violation. they holding me as if I am guilty when the Solicitor, Dismiss, this mean I am innocent,
