Re: The State v. Russell L. Walker
Appellate Case No. 2024-000643

Dear Mr. Walker:

This Court received numerous letters from you regarding your appeal. This appeal is currently being reviewed by the Court and is being processed in the normal fashion. It is difficult to predict when a case will be decided on by the Court due to many variables that affect the decision-making process of any given matter. Once a decision has been made, we will send a copy of our decision to you and counsel.

Because you are still represented by counsel, we are returning all correspondence to you. See Miller v. State, 388 S.C. 347, 347, 697 S.E.2d 527, 527 (2010) ("Since there is no right to 'hybrid representation' that is partially pro se and partially by counsel, substantive documents, with the exception of motions to relieve counsel, filed pro se by a person represented by counsel are not to be accepted unless submitted by counsel.").

Very truly yours,

CLERK
