Re: Mark A Keys vs. State
Appellate Case No. 2024-002124

My counsel, Wanda H. Cater never served me with a copy of the Petition and Appendix, and furthermore I request new counsel and my issues are still the same as I stated in my P.C.R. appeal. Also, the only thing I received from "counsel" Wanda H. Cater was a South Carolina Department of Corrections INDIGENT/APPELLATE Defense TELEPHONE PRIVILEGE REQUEST FORM!, Letter telling me to be patient, the process is very slow!

Sincerely

14th Admonishment right right to a fair trial
* MARK ANTHONY KEYS

* One issue for the court to consider in the appeal is that the judge overseeing my trial predicated my case, and the trial by stating, affirming, declaring that this trial is happening today with me or without me, when I stated on the record that I was not verse in court room trial proceeding. ~~And~~ she again stated she would walk me through it, asked me my education level, and that I looked like I understood right from wrong, that I was ready and able to take this case to trial.
