v.

Appeal From Charleston County

MOTION TO DISMISS APPEAL OR, IN THE ALTERNATIVE, MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Respondent, Florence Heyward Davis, appearing pro se, respectfully moves this Court to dismiss the appeal with prejudice. As fully detailed in Respondent's Brief, Appellant's claims are not preserved for appellate review, rely on inadmissible speculation, and involve matters properly within the jurisdiction of the probate court. Further, Appellant has misrepresented material facts to the Court, including his claimed medical condition, and has repeatedly failed to properly prosecute his claims despite multiple opportunities. Under these circumstances, dismissal with prejudice is warranted.

In the alternative, should the Court decline to dismiss the appeal at this time, Respondent respectfully requests a 30-day extension of time to supplement or amend her Respondent's Brief. This request is made in good faith and not for the purpose of delay.

Respectfully submitted this 26 day of August, 2025.
