I hope you are aware that on page page 5 of the order the judge acknowledge that I could appeal this order within 14 days and that is what I'm going to do because in this order it's a lot of non truth and I will be pointing them out so before you try to do something slick remember 14 days to appeal. I've already contacted the Court of Appeals and have sent them a copy of the order this morning. Please feel free to respond back to this if you like Morgan R Dunn. Will be forwarding a copy of this email to the Court of Appeals

Thank You
