Re: Hector Lopez-Vasquez v. Ox Paper Tube & Core Carolina
Appellate Case No. 2024-000294
GWB File No. 8507-804

Dear Ms. Harrison:

I received yesterday the Court's notice scheduling oral argument in this appeal for October 9, 2025. Because of a mistake on my part in failing to update the Court about my schedule, I respectfully request that the oral argument be rescheduled.

On June 6, 2025, the Court advised the parties of potential dates for oral arguments, and I responded that I was available to argue on those dates. Subsequent to those communications, my wife and I learned of our son's class schedule for this fall semester when he is studying abroad in Greece, and in early August we scheduled and paid for a trip to visit him during October 4th to 11th. However, I failed to update the Court about my change in schedule.

I consulted with Appellant's attorneys who do not object to my requests. Again, I sincerely apologize for my error, but I hope that the oral argument can be rescheduled. Thank you for your consideration of this request.

With kind regards, I am

Very truly yours,

GALLIVAN, WHITE & BOYD, P.A.
