RULE 203(B) EXPLANATION

Pursuant to Rule 203(B)(iv), the undersigned asserts that he does not have a good faith basis to believe that any issues are properly before the Court of Appeals, and the undersigned did not object to the sentence or file a motion to reconsider the sentence. The Defendant then contacted an attorney in the Public Defender's Office telling him that he wanted an appeal filed in his case. The undersigned has filed the instant appeal at the request of the Appellant because the Sixth Amendment requires counsel to follow the Appellant's request. See Frazier v. South Carolina, 430 F.3d 696, 706 (4th Cir.2005) ("A defendant has a right to pursue a direct appeal, even if frivolous, which counsel must assist as 'an active advocate on behalf of his client.'") (Quoting Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738, 744 (1967)).

I do solemnly swear that the information reported by me for this application for counsel fees contain a true and full account of all my real and personal estate, debts, credits and effects whatsoever without exception, which I or any person in trust for me have or at the time of my possession had, or am or was in any way respect, entitled to, in possession, remainder or reversion, and that I have not at any time since charges were made against me or before, directly or indirectly sold, leased, assigned, or otherwise disposed of my property or made over in trust for myself or otherwise, other than mentioned herein

I understand that the appointment of counsel creates a claim against the assets and estate of the person who is provided counsel or the parents or legal guardians of a juvenile in the amount equal to the costs of representation less the amount paid to appointed counsel, the public defender office and/or the Commission on Indigent Defense. I understand such claim shall be filed in the Office of the Clerk of Court where I, my child, or ward are assigned counsel, but that the filing of a claim shall not constitute a lien against my real or personal property unless, in the discretion of the Court, part or all of such a claim is reduced to judgment by appropriate Order of the Court, after serving me with at least thirty (30) days notice that judgment will be entered.

I understand that pursuant to §17-3-30(b), I am required to pay a non-refundable $40.00 application fee to the Public Defender's Office for public defender services or other appointed counsel.

I am financially unable to employ counsel and request that counsel be assigned to represent me. I understand that I am entitled to at least 30 days notice before a claim against me may be reduced to judgment, and I do hereby waive the right to such notice.
