SC Court of Appeals

Affidavit And
Motion For Handicap Disability
For Undue Burden

I, Ben Robert Stewart, 223006 am a prisoner in S.C.D.C. and I am mentally ill, on S.S.D. a citizen from Philadelphia, Pa. confined in the Correction Institution it is an undue burden on me to rewrite my pleadings in Court. The obstacles to perform a duty exceeds my capacity of this nature. The SCDC policy mandates this, however, It is excessive to write a brief for Court more than once and an substantial and unjust obstacle. I make this request for my self to be allowed to obtained legal copies for my active cases:

1. A case in U.S. District Court S.C.
2. A case in York County S.C.
3. Four (4) cases in S.C. Court of Appeals, (confirming mental illness see; State v. Stewart, 2012WL10864538 Court of Appeals of S.C. Dec. 12, 2012)),

This request and Motion is being filed by my self however, I'm filing only one motion for the Court to Order for me to be allowed copies of my pleadings (handwritten), And for the Court to forward a copie of this request to the Warden For his approval, respectively.

Based on my mental illness, and the undue burden and substantial obstacles I face, my request is in good faith. Please grant my request,
