

Nov. 2 2013

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

Sir, I am writing concerning my recent explanation brief along with my notice of appeal. I would let the court know that I do not have access to any of the records and would humbly request the court require the state to produce the record on appeal. Further there is no record before the lower court as there has not been a hearing. Also, I have filed a 59(e) with the Florence County Clerk of Court. I am asking about the status of this appeal and would request counsel in the matter.

Lastly, I am asking for direction as of (June 7 2013). The laws changed to permit the court the discretion to award home detention (house arrest) time toward my sentence (§ 24-13-40). I spent 17 months on house arrest home detention. I want to thank you for your thoughtful consideration in this matter.

With kind regards, I am,

Sincerely, yours
