Good morning,

This email serves as an update to the Court of Appeals regarding the status of the transcript requested in this matter. Attached is an email I received moments ago regarding the status of our transcript request, along with my response requesting that they proceed. I will be sure to notify the Court of Appeals if we do not receive the transcript within 60 days unless we are directed to do so sooner. Please let me know if there is anything else the Court of Appeals may need from us.

Thank you!
