Re: Brief delivery extension request

I, Victoria Joy Stevens, Plaintiff in Appellate case #001237, request extension on delivery of my Initial Plaintiff's Brief. I had called before delivery of transcripts, and upon receipt. I was told sixty days, while researching the how to of preparing said brief, I came across directive for a 30-day deadline. I immediately called and verified this. 30 days pass on Tuesday; I will not have this ready by Tuesday.

I am limited, dangerously, on funds due to the subject matter of this case. Therefore, I am proceeding Pro Se. The matter I am appealing is construction work to larger bathroom to accommodate mobility devices. Said work could have killed me had I used it. Since severe trauma in an MVA 3/20/90, I have undergone four knee replacements, and one right hip replacement. I must use mobility devices. Getting into and safely using the bath I tried to replace is difficult. I am the type of woman who you will see sans makeup or hair done, then without a bath. It takes me hours upon hours to bathe, presently. I am also financially broke from this debacle. I ask you please extend this delivery until the 25th of September. I apologize profusely, but the obstacles I face prohibit timeliness. Just as me not having my Juris Doctorate makes the procedures required for this Brief necessity to research. Thank you. I remain,

Yours truly,

Victoria Joy Stevens
