Third-Party Defendants.

Pursuant to the Supreme Court's Order of Remand, dated June 26, 2025, in which the Court asked that I submit monthly reports as to my progress in addressing the directives from the Court contained in its Remand Order, this will constitute my Third Report.

On August 28, 2025, I received the final filings of proposed orders and five different third-party defendant objections to proposed orders submitted in connection with the August 12, 2025 hearing I conducted in the remanded Tibbs matter. All of these filings relate to the third-party matter of Cape v. Anglo-American, which is a part of the Tibbs case on remand and a source of the issues involving the challenge by third-party defendants to the Cape receiverships. There are multitudinous competing proposals regarding my August 13, 2025 letter announcement of my proposed rulings for matters heard in that hearing regarding the validity of the receivership and other issues raised (letter attached to my previous Report). The Cape matter is scheduled for trial on October 20, 2025, pursuant to a previous order. A pre-trial hearing in the third-party action was previously set for the week of October 6, 2025. Yesterday, I filed the attached notice of pre-trial hearing and agenda in the Cape matter, which involved twelve separate motions for hearing in the pre-trial concerning contentions of the third-party defendants. I believe it is prudent to wait until October 6, 2025, at the pre-trial hearing to address issues regarding the resolution of the previous order. I will be set for trial, but I will also explore requiring mediation in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,
