4. On May 29, 2025, the circuit court entered an order acknowledging my cancer diagnosis and medical incapacity after review of my medical records, consistent with my sworn affidavit and testimony.
5. Since that time, my cancer has not resolved. I remain under active medical care.
6. In September 2025, my treating physician has advised me that I should pursue additional chemotherapy treatment due to recurrence risk.
7. At all relevant times, my inability to comply with the trial court's contempt order was genuine and remains ongoing.
8. Leaving the contempt order intact continues to cause collateral harm to my reputation, professional standing, and financial well-being, despite the trial court's concession that my medical incapacity is real.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NOT!
