Re: Jimmy D. Meggs, Jr. v. State
Appellate Case No. 2013-002216
Lower Court Case No. 2013-CP-21-00874

Dear Mr. Meggs:

This Court has received your notice of appeal, and the case has been assigned the appellate case number that appears above. Please use this number on all future correspondence relating to this matter.

All parties to this matter are advised that all filings must comply with the requirements of Rule 267 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR). The SCACR are available online at www.sccourts.org/courtreg. Additionally, any filings submitted by counsel admitted in South Carolina must include counsel's bar number.

The attention of the parties is directed to the order relating to the inclusion of personal data identifiers and other sensitive information in documents filed with the Supreme Court of South Carolina and the South Carolina Court of Appeals. The order can be found at www.sccourts.org/courtOrders/HTMLFiles/2007-08-13-02.htm. Please note that the responsibility for insuring that information is redacted or sealed as required by this order rests with counsel and the parties. This office will not review filings for redaction or to determine if materials should be sealed.

Since you indicate that a Rule 59 motion has been filed with the circuit court, enclosed is an order dismissing this appeal under Hudson v. Hudson. In light of this dismissal, no action will be taken on your request for counsel in this matter.

Finally, as to your concern about credit for periods of time that you were on house arrest, this office cannot provide any legal advice or assistance. Therefore, I will be unable to respond to your legal question.

Very truly yours,
