1 BY MR. WHITE:

2 Q Chief, that's all I have got for you. Please answer
3 any questions from defense.

4 THE COURT: Any further, Mr. Wilson?

5 MR. WILSON: Just one question, Judge.

6 FURTHER RECROSS-EXAMINATION

7 BY MR. WILSON:

8 Q This is my last question. The expert you just said,
9 when he got on the stand, you heard him testify before
10 this jury under oath that he put the call on hold, and it
11 was a 57-second call, and that the call continued. That's 12 what he said; correct?

13 A I believe -- to my understanding, I believe so, yes, 14 sir.

15 Q Thank you.

16 A I believe.

17 MR. WILSON: Thank you. No further questions.

18 THE COURT: Thank you, Chief Edwards. You can step
19 down.

20 Mr. White?

21 MR. WHITE: Thank you, Judge. At this time, the 22 State would rest.

23 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen. At 24 this time, you have heard the State's case. There are 25 matters of law at this point in the trial that we have to

1 take up, obviously, outside the presence of the jury.
2 Given the time of the day, we're going to stay here and
3 work on those matters of law. Going to go ahead and 4 release you for the day.

5 We're going to ask you to come back -- I'm going to 6 ask you to be here at 9:30 in the morning. We're going to 7 resume the trial at 9:30 in the morning and work on the 8 remainder of the trial at that time.

9 Thank you again for your time, your patience, your 10 attention. We'll see you tomorrow morning. Please don't 11 discuss this case until I tell you it's okay to do so.
12 Thank you so much.

13 (The jury exited the courtroom at 4:35 p.m.)

14 THE COURT: All right. Do we need a break before we 15 continue this afternoon?

16 MR. WHITE: Whatever you want to do, Judge.

17 THE COURT: Basically, I mean, we don't -- I at 18 least want to talk to the defendant this afternoon about 19 his choice to testify. Certainly don't need an answer
20 today. But -- and I'd also like to hear your -- any 21 motions you might have if you think you have got time to 22 argue them this afternoon.

23 MR. WILSON: Judge, I'm ready to go forward with the 24 motions. If the Court's ready and the State's ready, I'm 25 ready to go forward.

1 THE COURT: All right. Be happy to hear from you.

2 MOTIONS/MATTERS OF LAW

3 MR. WILSON: Thank you, Judge.

4 Obviously, this is a case that's built on heavy
5 circumstantial evidence as well as a witness who gets up
6 and tries to tenuously connect a .45 weapon in this man's 7 hand.

8 Here's the issue that I have: Corpus delicti, under 9 the law for years, has said that they have to establish 10 the elements of the crime. One, corpus delicti is not 11 just that a crime occurred. Corpus delicti is that this 12 defendant -- this person committed said crime.

13 They have no evidence whatsoever to suggest that he 14 was in the vehicle, and, in fact, they have every piece of 15 evidence from the DNA which suggests that he wasn't in the 16 vehicle. And the pathologist gets up and testifies that, 17 not only there was soot, but the soot may have been 18 covered the stippling, which means the person had to be in 19 the car to fire the weapon.

20 On top of that, obviously, I'm going to renew my 21 objection to all this Cellebrite stuff. But in my 22 opinion, the Cellebrite technology shows that there's not 23 enough time for that crime to have committed by this 24 defendant because he's on the cell phone at the time they 25 suggest that this guy was killed.

1           The other issue that I have, Judge, is that, in this
2 case right now, if you're talking about malice
3 aforethought, the only malice that I have heard is from a
4 witness who says that he told her he didn't like gay
5 people. And there's been nothing in the record to suggest 6 that Mr. DeShawn -- I apologize -- I apologize to the 7 family -- that Mr. Rashad Jones is a homosexual. As a
8 matter of fact, everything the detective found out was 9 that he likes women. And there ain't nothing wrong with 10 the man going out and doing what he wants to do, but he 11 did it with a lot of people, and, obviously, he was at 12 this park quite a bit based on what the detective -- or,
13 excuse me, Chief Edwards found out through his 14 investigation.

15           So where is the malice? That's the other part.

16           Now, putting the gun in his hand, no one, in 17 December, says he had a .45 and shot this man in the head,
18 other than her, who didn't even know him at the time.

19           And then I asked her on the stand: Can you describe
20 the gun? No. Have you ever seen him with a gun? No.
21 What did he always carry? He always carried a .38 caliber
22 weapon.

23           Now, if it was a .38 caliber weapon, I'd probably be 24 sitting down right now, because there would be nothing to 25 talk about.

1           That evidence is so tenuous and circumstantial, the
2 courts have said in numerous cases that that sort of case
3 should never go to a jury. It is wrong. It's 4 unconstitutional. Because he has a right not to be 5 exposed to a jury verdict that could be wrong. That is 6 the issue here.

7           If they found even a hair of his in the car, then 8 we'd be having no arguments. If they found him with the 9 weapon, I'd be having no arguments. If they even found
10 him with this guy's cell phone, I'd be having no
11 arguments. None of that stuff was found in there. None
12 of the guy's money or the blood was found on him.

13           I have never seen a case like this where I have all
14 this cell phone information, which, honestly, retorts
15 their own theory. That's the issue.

16           I would ask the Court for directed verdict. I
17 understand that directed verdict is not given easily. I
18 understand in the light most favorable to the State that 19 the Court could deny this.

20           I will say this again on the record, Judge: Because 21 of that search warrant, because it is invalid, in my legal 22 opinion, because of the Gibbs case, because of State v.
23 Jones, State v. Williams, State v. Davis, as well as the 24 other cases that I have cited for the record, these cases
25 are the thing that we put in place to protect the rights

1 of the actual defendants.

2 And they can call it grandstanding. They can call
3 it whatever they want to. My job is to protect my 4 client's interest. That's my job. It ain't personal. I
5 don't take any of this personal.

6 But what I do do is try to understand the law and 7 how it affects my client and his ability to try to protect 8 himself from something that is absolutely, positively
9 wrong, in my opinion.

10 I think it's an unconstitutional search. I have 11 discussed that with him. He doesn't understand all the 12 legalese of this. I get that. But my job is to do that.

13 And my staff and I honestly believe, in this 14 particular case, they have failed to meet their burden,
15 you know, of bringing all of the elements of corpus
16 delecti to connect him to the crime.

17 I'm going around the street right now -- if I go
18 down the street and he says, "Hey, look, we're going to 19 stop Ralph, and he's got a cell phone," and somebody dies
20 at 301 Diner and I'm there in that area, doesn't mean I
21 committed the crime. That's not corpus delecti.

22 The quintessential question is this: Even if I got 23 on the dead guy's watch -- law school question. If I've 24 got on the dead guy's watch, that is not corpus delecti.
25 Corpus delecti is the elements. Malice aforethought,

1 killed the person, and you put the gun in his hand.

2 Tell me one person at the time who says he had a .45
3 and that he got in that car and that he shot this man.
4 Show me a video. Show me anything. Not a person who is 5 saying later on, "Oh, he said he did it, and says he might 6 have a .45 at Daddy's."

7 You know, it's just -- I understand the judge is 8 going to do what the judge is going to do, and you know I
9 respect the Court. We're ready to go forward tomorrow,
10 but this is, again, how I feel, Judge.

11 THE COURT: I understand --

12 MR. WILSON: Oh, I'm sorry, I'm sorry. Thank you
13 very much. I apologize, Your Honor.

14 "The 'corroboration rule' requires that 15 extra-judicial confessions of a defendant" -- and this is 16 not of the defendant. She's saying this, but "The 17 'corroboration rule' requires that extra-judicial 18 confession of a defendant be corroborated by proof aliunde
19 of corpus delicti." That means extrinsic of the corpus 20 delicti.

21 So that obligation is found in State v. Osborne.
22 There needs to be sufficient evidence to go to a jury to 23 serve to corroborate the defendant's extra-judicial 24 statements.

25 In this case, he didn't make a confession to the

1 police. She got up and said what she said, that he said
2 it. Thank you, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: I understand.

4 Mr. White?

5 MR. WHITE: Judge, I think there's more than enough
6 circumstantial evidence to submit it to this jury. I'd be 7 happy to go over it, but Your Honor's heard it.

8 THE COURT: And as we know, the standard here as to 9 directed verdict is not the weight of the evidence. It's 10 the existence of the evidence. And while you make very 11 good points, Mr. Wilson, and a tremendous amount of this 12 evidence is absolutely circumstantial, the law draws no
13 distinction between direct and circumstantial evidence,
14 and the jury can use it as they see fit, and they are the 15 determiner of the facts.

16 And at this stage, you know, I have to decide 17 whether or not there is any evidence, even a scintilla of 18 evidence, that would support the defeat of a summary
19 judgment motion or a directed verdict motion that we have 20 here.

21 And while I understand your arguments, I mean,
22 there's evidence in this record that exists, that mandates
23 that I deny, respectfully, your directed verdict motion.

24 MR. WILSON: Yes, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: So that's going to be that. Okay?

1 MR. WILSON: Yes, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Now, Mr. Brayboy, would you stand up
3 please, sir.

4 DEFENDANT'S RIGHTS

5 THE COURT: Would you raise your right hand.

6 ANTONIO BRAYBOY,
7 after having been duly sworn, was examined and 8 testified to as follows:

9 THE COURT: Thank you, sir. And you can put your 10 hand down.

11 Now, you understand that this is a trial that you're 12 on for these charges. You understand that; right?

13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: All right, sir. And do you understand
15 that the State has the burden of proof in this case? In 16 other words, the Constitution doesn't mandate that you put 17 up any defense whatsoever or that you testify at all. You
18 have the absolute right to remain silent. Do you 19 understand that?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. But I also want you to also 22 understand that you have the absolute constitutional right
23 to present any defenses that you might have and to testify
24 in this trial if you want to. Do you understand that?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

1           THE COURT: All right, sir. And do you understand
2 that, if you decide to testify -- and, basically, that 3 decision as to whether or not you testify has to be your 4 decision. You can certainly get the advice of your 5 attorneys and their staff and whoever you might seek 6 advice from as to whether or not you should testify, but 7 the decision as to whether or not you testify, the actual 8 testimony that you decide to give or not give has to be 9 your decision. Do you understand that?

10          THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

11          THE COURT: All right, sir. And do you understand 12 that if you do decide to take the stand and testify in 13 this case, that you'll be treated as any other witness
14 that would be that's come before you and testified in this 15 trial? Do you understand that?

16          THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

17          THE COURT: And I don't know if you have a criminal 18 history or not, but if you do and it fits within the rules
19 and the law as to being admissible, if you decide to 20 testify, then the jury may hear about that or about your 21 criminal history, if one exists. Do you understand that?

22          THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

23          THE COURT: All right, sir. Do you have any 24 questions at all about your right to testify?

25          THE DEFENDANT: No, Your Honor.

1           THE COURT: All right. And I'll be happy to give
2 you the remainder of today and tonight and tomorrow
3 morning until we begin this trial to decide whether or not 4 you want to testify. If you already know that answer and 5 you'd like to share it with the Court, certainly we'll 6 hear it now. It doesn't matter. Okay?

7           So, Mr. Wilson, do you know if he intends to 8 testify?

9           MR. WILSON: Judge, we're going to go -- we have 10 some work to do, some things we're going to work on 11 tonight and just see where we're going to go tomorrow.
12 There are a few things I want to clean up that I think I
13 can with some retort witnesses, but I'm going to discuss 14 that with Mr. Brayboy tonight. And if Your Honor could 15 give me just until the morning.

16          THE COURT: Absolutely.

17          MR. WILSON: I will definitely let the Court know in 18 the morning what we're going to do.

19          THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much.

20          MR. WILSON: Yes, Your Honor.

21          THE COURT: All right. We'll be here -- I mean, 22 I'll be here around 9:00 in the morning, but if there's 23 anything we need to place on the record in the morning,
24 then we'll plan to do that around 9:15.

25          MR. WILSON: Yes, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Anything before we adjourn for the day?

2 MR. WHITE: No, sir, Judge.

3 MR. WILSON: Nothing from the defense, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Thank y'all.

5 MR. WILSON: Thank you, Your Honor.

6 MR. WHITE: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 (Pause in the proceedings.)

8 BENCH CONFERENCE

9 (The following bench conference was held at the 10 bench and outside the hearing of the jury and others:)

11 MR. WILSON: Again, this ain't personal. The 12 comments from the prosecutor do not help, with the 13 grandstanding. But the family has been staring me down
14 every day. And now, I'm getting stares in the hallway
15 when I walk out to lunch. I'm asking you to admonish
16 them. You know, I'm not asking you to admonish counsel
17 because, I think, got a little bit heated. We all do in 18 trials.

19 MR. WHITE: Yeah, I apologize, Ralph.

20 MR. WILSON: But, brother, it ain't personal.
21 You're a great lawyer. I'm just trying to protect my 22 client. But I don't want them threatening me or my staff.

23 THE COURT: No, I understand.

24 MR. WHITE: I don't want that either. I mean, you
25 can admonish them. I'll admonish them. I mean, I didn't

1 realize it was going on.

2 MR. WILSON: They do it every day. When I went out
3 to lunch today, they stood there, staring at me getting in 4 my car, and then looked back at me. And then the one boy,
5 the friend, Allen, I mean, he's -- like he wanted to fight
6 me. And I'm not up here for that. I'm just trying to do
7 my job.

8 THE COURT: I understand.

9 Do you want me to address them in the courtroom?

10 MR. WILSON: Not in front of the jury.

11 THE COURT: Oh, I know that.

12 MR. WILSON: Yes, sir.

13 THE COURT: Do you want the solicitor to talk to 14 them?

15 MR. WILSON: I think the solicitor can talk to them.

16 THE COURT: See that takes care of it?

17 MR. WILSON: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: Well, then, in the morning, you need to 19 have that conversation.

20 MR. WHITE: That's no problem. I didn't know it was 21 going on. I'll make sure.

22 THE COURT: Yeah, I heard some kind of noise from 23 them.

24 MR. WHITE: There was a comment. There were some 25 other comments being made, too, about -- and then when I

1 went in the hall, there was another negative -- real
2 negative comment. I just walking and kept my head down.
3 And I don't try to -- you know, this is as bad as I have 4 seen it since I've been trying these cases.

5 THE COURT: Well, Mr. White, when you speak to them,
6 you can tell them that there will be zero tolerance for 7 any of that.

8 MR. WHITE: I gotcha.

9 THE COURT: If I see any of it or if there's 10 complaint from it, then they won't be in this courtroom or 11 this courthouse.

12 MR. WHITE: I gotcha. Yes, sir. There's no
13 problem.

14 MR. WILSON: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 (The trial recessed at 4:50 p.m.)

16 * * * *

17 THURSDAY, JULY 20, 2023

18 (The trial resumed at 9:30 a.m.)

19 THE COURT: Good morning.

20 MR. WILSON: Good morning, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. Where do we stand as far as 22 the defense is concerned?

23 MOTIONS/MATTERS OF LAW

24 MR. WILSON: Judge, I think we need to approach.

25 THE COURT: Do you want it on the record?

1 MR. WILSON: On the record, Judge.

2 BENCH CONFERENCE

3 (The following bench conference was outside the 4 hearing of the jury and others:)

5 MR. WILSON: This morning, I get a document from 6 Solicitor White where, I guess, Jade Roy received a
7 message from SkipTheGames last night now with an email for 8 my client. Obviously, if they try to put it in at this
9 point in time, after they have rested, I'm going to claim 10 trial by ambush because, again, it was not given to us in 11 discovery.

12 The other issue is, too, is that we're ready to rest
13 and go forward with closing arguments, Your Honor.

14 MR. WHITE: And I have a motion to make on that, if 15 we could just to put it on the record.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 [Open court resumes as follows:]

18 MR. WHITE: Judge, as Mr. Wilson stated, he is 19 correct. After yesterday's testimony, when Lieutenant Roy 20 was questioned about the email situation with that ad, he 21 didn't realize that that was going to be an issue. He 22 went straight home and started researching that issue and 23 sent a request to SkipTheGames, and they sent back a 24 certified business record, Judge. And I'll hand it up so
25 you can take a look at it.

1 THE COURT: Do you want to make it a Court's
2 exhibit?

3 MR. WHITE: Yeah, that would be fantastic, Judge.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Wilson?

5 COURT REPORTER: This is State's or Court's --

6 THE COURT: It's a Court's exhibit.

7 (Court's Exhibit No. 2, Email from SkipTheGames to 8 Jade Roy, was marked for identification and received into 9 the record.)

10 THE COURT: Mr. Wilson --

11 MR. WILSON: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: I mean, do you take exception with that?

13 MR. WILSON: Judge, I do. The State has rested its 14 case.

15 THE COURT: I understand. Certainly this isn't 16 going into evidence. He's making an argument and for the 17 record, you know, if somebody wants to look at it.

18 MR. WILSON: Yes, Your Honor.

19 MR. WHITE: And Judge, so Lieutenant Roy went home
20 yesterday and sent the URL attached to that ad to 21 SkipTheGames. They sent back information and certified 22 business record that the email associated with that URL is 23 brayboy.antonio89@yahoo.com. Sign-up date: December
24 19, 2019. And then, on December 30th, 2019, the user
25 erased that phone number from the account.

1 Judge, we are making a motion to reopen. And I just 2 received that information. I was not withholding it. You
3 can see on the email chain when it was sent. I wasn't
4 made aware of it, and I don't think that Lieutenant Roy
5 did this in any bad faith. I think he was just trying to 6 get to the bottom of it because he was questioned about 7 the email on the stand.

8 Judge, the case law, in regards to motion to reopen,
9 places it in the sound discretion of the trial court. And 10 that's been upheld, State v. Green, State v. Humphrey, and 11 State v. Hammond. The decision to permit the State to 12 reopen its case and present evidence lies within the sound
13 discretion of the trial court. State v. Green, State v.
14 Humphrey, State v. Harrison, all upheld the trial court's 15 decision to reopen. And it's most often associated when 16 the information is needed to prove an element of the 17 charge.

18 And here certainly this goes to identity, it goes to 19 motive. And I believe, in Mr. Wilson's directed verdict
20 motion, he said I didn't have any of that because we 21 couldn't prove that this was his email. So I think it
22 does go to the element of the offense.

23 And I do apologize for giving it to him -- to the 24 Court and to defense like this, but, you know, this is 25 kind of how it landed in my lap. And I don't think that

1 the jury should be precluded from hearing it just because 2 it just came to the State's attention. It's not like I
3 have been holding it.

4 And I don't -- unless the defense would have made an
5 issue about it, you know, I don't think Lieutenant Roy
6 would have gone home and taken a look at it. They made
7 such a big deal on cross about the email not being able to 8 link him -- and they made a big deal about it with 9 Investigator Clark. And because that placed an issue, I
10 believe that that prompted Lieutenant Roy to go ahead and 11 request that information.

12 Judge, the case will not be prejudiced. The jury --
13 I mean, they won't know the difference if I come back out 14 here and put another witness on the stand, who is on the 15 way from Columbia now. And I'd ask that you grant the 16 motion to reopen the case just for that specific purpose
17 to put this item into evidence.

18 THE COURT: All right. Well, there's a couple of 19 things here, and to be in conformity with my earlier
20 rulings in this matter, one of the reasons I ruled as I
21 did -- and I thought I put it on the record pretty
22 clearly -- the information that was found on the internet,
23 you know -- and it was testified to and there was evidence
24 of by way of a URL and the testimony from Lieutenant Roy
25 and also Investigator Clark -- was that they basically

1 used a search engine and it turned up this ad that had a
2 phone number on it that appeared to be the same as what 3 they have identified the defendant's phone number to have 4 been, and it was close in connection with this crime that 5 occurred. In other words, it was ten days from when this 6 ad was posted to when this murder took place.

7 I thought I made it extremely clear that I would 8 allow, you know, the limited question, follow-up, that,
9 you know, SkipTheGames couldn't confirm this at all. But 10 that was as far as we were going to go. Now, it went a 11 little further than that, but there was no objection on 12 the record.

13 I think this information now certainly gets into,
14 you know, having to have somebody from SkipTheGames here.
15 You know, prior to this, you know -- and all I let in was 16 the fact that there was a search and that this came up,
17 and, you know, whether or not it was credible or not,
18 whether or not it was real or not is a jury issue to 19 determine what they believe.

20 Now -- so, at this point, the State has rested.
21 Certainly, this is information directly from -- and I
22 believe there's been testimony this is an international 23 company or web site that's not even hosted here in the 24 United States. You know, that would be personal -- or 25 that would be -- certainly the email link to some account

1 would be information that would be stored by the web site
2 as it's being purported here today, and then we get into
3 all sorts of issues as to authenticity, and, you know,
4 having the need to have somebody from that web site here
5 to get into that.

6 And, at this point in the trial -- I mean, I don't 7 even know that that's a possibility, and I think that 8 would be prejudicial. So I'm not going to -- we're not 9 going to get into that.

10 MR. WHITE: I understand, Judge, and I appreciate
11 you entertaining my motion.

12 And my apologies to Defense for turning that over --

13 THE COURT: Well, I mean, it is what it is. I
14 understand that. I mean, I understand when you got it
15 too. I mean, certainly this isn't a brand new situation, 16 so...

17 MR. WHITE: Thank you, Judge. I appreciate it.

18 THE COURT: Mr. Wilson, is there anything you'd like 19 to put on the record?

20 MR. WILSON: Nothing, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. So, Mr. Brayboy, have you
22 had an opportunity to decide whether or not you were going
23 to testify in this matter?

24 THE WITNESS: No, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: You're not going to testify in this

1 matter?

2 THE DEFENDANT: No, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: And is that your decision?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, sir.

6 JURY CHARGE CONFERENCE

7 THE COURT: All right. I have a proposed charge
8 here. Let's go through it. And certainly, I'm open to 9 arguments or whatever you might have.

10 So, basically, I have the general post-trial charge
11 that tells them, you know, generally what we tell them to 12 expect and that you're going to hear the closing arguments
13 and the charge on the law.

14 Then I have charge, arrest, indictment's not 15 evidence, that charge. Presumption of innocence.
16 Reasonable doubt. Direct and circumstantial evidence.
17 Credibility of witnesses. Expert witness. Failure of the 18 defendant to testify. Criminal intent.

19 And then I have -- well, the charge of murder. And 20 then the only one that I don't have present here -- I'm 21 going to have to run and get it -- would be the commission
22 of the -- the possession of a weapon during the commission
23 of a violent crime.

24 I have also got copies of the proposed jury verdict
25 form. Do y'all want to take a look at that?

1 (Counsel review the verdict form.)

2 MR. WHITE: Looks good to me, Judge.

3 MR. WILSON: Looks fine, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: While I'm getting this other charge
5 here, would y'all want to take a look at this charge?

6 MR. WILSON: Judge, we would just ask the Court to 7 add -- because I think there is a small inference that,
8 again, while we don't believe that the murder took place
9 around the time that he was in that area, we're asking 10 that the judge charge mere presence because they're 11 claiming that he was pinged in the area at the time that 12 this young man was allegedly killed. That's their theory.

13 And if we believe that he's in the area, obviously,
14 mere presence is going to be something that -- that he's 15 allowed under the law to argue if he's saying, "Look, I
16 didn't do the murder. Even if he did die at that time, it
17 wasn't me, even if I was in the area."

18 And they clearly say that he is pinged in the area
19 at 1:26 a.m. in the morning, Judge.

20 THE COURT: What's the State's position?

21 MR. WHITE: I don't think it's a mere presence case,
22 and I think that's evidence by the cell phones traveling
23 back towards Lake City in the same direction. I don't 24 think this charge is what these facts contemplate. I
25 would ask for it not to be charged.

1           THE COURT: I recognize the fact that, generally,
2 when we charge mere presence charge, it's because somebody
3 might have been present at the time and place of the crime
4 that's been committed. But I also understand the 5 defense's request.

6           I don't know that it would be prejudicial to either
7 side. I mean, certainly, I think it's more obvious than 8 anything that just because, you know, these two people are 9 in close geographical location -- I mean, the evidence
10 doesn't say that they were ever definitively together.
11 Certainly, it's circumstantial, and it could be drawn from 12 those circumstances or inferred from those circumstances.
13 I'll take a look at it when I get the other charge real
14 quick, and I'll come out and let you know.

16          MR. WHITE: Thank you, Judge.

17          THE COURT: All right. We'll be at recess for just 18 a few minutes.

19          (A recess was taken from 9:43 a.m. to 9:55 a.m.)

20          MS. ANDERSON: Your Honor, can we approach?

21          THE COURT: Sure.

22                               BENCH CONFERENCE

23          (The following discussion occurred at the bench and 24 outside the hearing of the jury and others.)

25          MS. ANDERSON: I apologize for missing this earlier.

1 Mr. Wilson did talk with Mr. White. We're asking for a
2 charge of inadmissible evidence. There was that portion 3 with the alibi testimony that you told the jury to 4 disregard.

5 MR. WHITE: I think you covered it when you told 6 them to disregard it, Judge. You overruled -- or 7 sustained the objection.

8 THE COURT: Yeah. Part of my charge says that, if 9 there was anything to be stricken from the record, then
10 you should disregard that. I think that covers it.

11 [Open court resumes as follows:]

12 THE COURT: I've looked at the mere presence charge.
13 Like I said, it has language in it that seems like it
14 might be confusing if I charged it, the language being,
15 you know, the mere association with the person who commits 16 a crime does not make a defendant an accomplice or an 17 aider and abetter of the person committing the crime.

18 I just think it's always been geared towards 19 somebody that was certainly at the scene of a crime when 20 it occurred, and I don't know -- I don't know that our 21 facts fit that situation or that -- an inference of our 22 facts would fit that situation. Certainly you can argue
23 it, but I think it would be more confusing than 24 beneficial.

25 MR. WILSON: Yes, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: All right. Is there any objections to 2 the proposed charge?

3 MR. WHITE: Not on behalf of the State, Judge.

4 MR. WILSON: Judge, just to mere presence, but other
5 than that, I'm good, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Okay. I understand.

7 All right. So when we bring the jury out, I'll 8 recognize the defense, allow you to rest. And are y'all
9 going to be ready to go straight into closing arguments at 10 that time?

11 MR. WHITE: Yes, sir, Judge.

12 MR. WILSON: I think the State will be going, Judge.

13 THE COURT: If we can have the jury, please.

14 MR. WHITE: And, Judge, will you charge last?

15 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

16 MR. WILSON: Your Honor, but --

17 THE COURT: Hang on one second.

18 MR. WILSON: Just to be clear on the record, the 19 defense, obviously, didn't put anything in.

20 THE COURT: Right.

21 MR. WILSON: So I think, by rule, we get to go last.

22 THE COURT: So the State will close in full, Defense 23 closes in full.

25 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

1 MR. WILSON: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: Thank you.

3 (The jury entered the courtroom at 10:01 a.m.)

4 THE COURT: Good morning, ladies and gentlemen.

5 Thank you for being back here on time this morning. We 6 have been working, I promise you. But, anyway, at this 7 point in time, we're going to recognize the defense for 8 their case.

9 MR. WILSON: Your Honor, at this time, the defense
10 would rest, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right. Ladies and gentlemen, the 12 parties have presented the evidence in this case. It's 13 now time for the attorneys to make their closing
14 arguments. The arguments of the attorneys are not 15 evidence in this case. Their statements and arguments are 16 meant to help you understand what the evidence is in this 17 case and apply the law to the evidence.

18 Now, you should disregard any remark, statement, or 19 argument which is not supported by the evidence in this 20 case that was presented during the trial or the law that I
21 will explain to you after the arguments. All right. So
22 please give your close attention to the State of South
23 Carolina.

24 CLOSING ARGUMENT ON BEHALF OF THE STATE

25 MR. WHITE: We have all hidden parts of ourselves.

1 We've all had secrets. I think we have all, at some
2 point, had skeletons in our closet, but hopefully, at no
3 time, did those things place you in proximity to a
4 predator, to a killer. Because that's the danger of 5 hiding yourself in the dark. Because that's where evil
6 lurks, ladies and gentlemen. And make no mistake about
7 it, that when Rashad Jones made the unfortunate decision
8 to go on SkipTheGames and text a man he never met before,
9 evil was waiting on him.

10 You heard a couple of witnesses. Rashad Jones, nice
11 guy, loving father. Beloved son. Great job. Employees 12 loved him. Didn't have an enemy in the world. He did, he 13 just didn't know it yet. Because on that site was a man
14 who hated homosexuals. He had an enemy. He just didn't 15 know it yet.

16 But when he pulled up to that park, that enemy was 17 waiting for him and killed him for no other reason than he 18 was angry that he got tricked and he wanted to take it out
19 on the homosexual that tricked him. So let's call this 20 what it is, ladies and gentlemen. This is murder.
21 Cold-blooded murder.

22 And murder is defined as the willful, felonious
23 killing of a human being with malice aforethought, that 24 malice being either expressed or implied. Malice is 25 defined as hatred or ill-will, wrongful intent to injure

1 another person. Malice does not necessarily mean ill-will 2 toward the individual injured but signifies, rather,
3 depraved or wicked spirit intent on doing wrong. Malice
4 may be conceived at the very moment that the act occurs.

5 Malice here, ladies and gentlemen, is that he hates
6 homosexuals, and when he pulls that gun out and he fires
7 that bullet at Rashad Jones's head, he has malice in his 8 heart.

9 It can be expressed malice or implied malice, ladies
10 and gentlemen. Expressed malice is the deliberate
11 intention to unlawfully take the life of another. Implied
12 malice with circumstances demonstrate a wanton or reckless 13 disregard for human life. And it all started on 14 SkipTheGames.com, December 19th, 2019. Nine days before
15 this murder.

16 And how do we know? That's the defendant's cell
17 phone number right there: (704) 777-8982. Law
18 enforcement does a search warrant on that number. The 19 subscriber information comes back to Antonio Brayboy.

20 Ladies and gentlemen, he posted this. And you can 21 see, it's got identifying information on it. Florence,
22 South Carolina. December 9th, 2019. And you can see
23 there's significant contacts.

24 And this is important, ladies and gentlemen. Law
25 enforcement executed search warrants on both phones prior

1 to 7:53 p.m. on December 27th, shortly after Rashad Jones
2 goes to the ATM and gets $180 cash out. He and the 3 defendant are communicating. Before that, there had been 4 no contact between the two whatsoever.

5 Now, I'm going to say this several times throughout 6 this closing. I'm going to say it until I'm blue in the 7 face, until y'all are tired of me saying it. Okay? But 8 if there's one thing I want you to take away from this,
9 ladies and gentlemen, it's this: There is not enough
10 coincidence in this world. Okay? You're going to hear me
11 say it. There is not enough coincidence in this world.

12 11:52 p.m., they're still talking. 12:16 a.m., 13 still communicating. December 28th, that's into the 14 morning hours. Friday has now turned into Saturday.
15 They're still communicating at 1:26 a.m. The last phone
16 call that the victim in this case makes is to Antonio
17 Brayboy, the very last call.

18 And here's a map overview. And you can see it here, 19 ladies and gentlemen. This is the home of the victim in 20 this case, Rashad. This is the home of the defendant.
21 This is the murder scene. And you can see it in that 22 expert testimony, those cell phone hits, those tower hits.
23 They start to move towards each other.

24 The victim moves into Florence, and then he starts
25 at the same time as the defendant is, moving towards the

1 incident location. I don't know if you have ever been out
2 here to Greenwood Athletic Park. There's not a lot of 3 traffic out there, especially not at 1:26, 2 a.m. in the 4 morning on a Friday/Saturday morning, couple of days --
5 few days after Christmas when it's cold out and 6 everybody's inside bundled up. There's not a lot of 7 traffic. But what do we see? The two of them converging
8 here.

9 And this is the timeline. And you can see it,
10 ladies and gentlemen, that GPS that was on Rashad Jones's
11 vehicle. It shows him -- at 5:09 p.m., he's at Mullins.
12 He's at his house right here.

13 At 7:53, he texts the defendant.

14 11:26, he's at East Godbold Street in Marion, so
15 right here, which is the tobacco shop in Marion over 16 there. He stops there.

17 11:52, there's a call that go -- doesn't connect to 18 the defendant's number.

19 At 11:52, they do connect. Five-second phone call.

20 And you can see, ladies and gentlemen, where they 21 are when that first phone call comes through in the early
22 morning hours of Saturday, 12:16 a.m. The defendant's
23 pinging down here, and the victim is pinging down here.
24 You can see the red -- the little red triangle at the top,
25 that's where the victim is pinging, and the blue triangle

1 down here, the defendant is pinging. They're starting to 2 move towards each other.

3 And here's the timeline. That 12:44 a.m. phone
4 call, that's the one that hits on those towers. A minute
5 and 7 seconds. 704 number calls the victim. The 6 defendant calls the victim.

7 And then, at 12:28 in the morning, okay, the morning
8 that the victim is murdered, the defendant and the 9 victim -- defendant calls the victim, they talk for 53
10 minutes. 53 minutes. An hour-long conversation. I don't 11 know many people that I have an hour-long conversation
12 with. I just don't. But the defendant and the victim,
13 minutes before the murder, are talking for an hour-long 14 conversation. And that would carry -- and that would 15 mean, doing the math, the call would end at 1:21:40 in the 16 morning. That's when they stopped talking.

17 And all the while, they're moving closer to one
18 another. The defendant is moving up towards the incident
19 location. You can see him pinging here in the blue. He's 20 moved from down here to here to right here, moving closer
21 as they are talking on the phone for an hour.

22 The victim is pinging here. And you can see that 23 1:21 phone call and then that 1:26 phone call. Now, we 24 asked the expert about it, and he said definitively -- he 25 looked at those records. What's happening here is, at

1 1:21, the defendant makes a phone call that lasts 37
2 minutes, but he puts that call on hold to answer the 3 victim's number. I only put a call on hold when the other
4 call is more important. I don't know about you. That's 5 what I do.

6 And what do we ask him? I mean, I can't tell you
7 what's going on for that remainder of that call. Okay? I
8 can't. Could it be that he forgot that he had the other
9 person on hold and the other person is still waiting? I
10 don't know. But it doesn't change a thing. I do know
11 that. It doesn't change a thing that, at 1:26 in the 12 morning, after an hour-long phone call that ended five 13 minutes before, they talk again for 57 seconds. And here,
14 are the pings on that 12:28 phone call. Defendant here
15 and the victim is here. That 12:28 call initiates that 16 set of pings.

17 And, here, now this is zoomed in. It looks like 18 we're still dealing with the same difference, but it's 19 zoomed in. He's moving up towards the incident location,
20 and the victim is moving down.

21 And now, the defendant -- and this is important -- 22 at 12:44, he is pinging down here. Okay? I want you to 23 really pay attention to this. This is an important part 24 of the story. He's pinging here. And then, at 1:21, he 25 pings off this tower.

1           And the -- what the expert said -- and it's hard to 2 kind of wrap your mind around that, but when he says the 3 tower is facing away, it has nothing to do with the 4 direction that the victim or defendant may be going. It
5 has everything to do with the angle that's facing out from 6 the tower. Okay?

7           So he is here, and then he pings on this tower right
8 here.

9           Next one. And then the next one.

10          And if you look, as he's going, ladies and 11 gentlemen, what he's doing is he's on the back road. He 12 is going down Claussen. Okay? If you look at this tower
13 and you have ever ridden out there --

14          Madam Clerk, can you erase that red mark that I just 15 accidentally put on the screen, please?

16          THE CLERK: Yes.

17          MR. WHITE: Thank you.

18          If you have ever been out here and go down this 19 highway and you take a left on Claussen, there's a little 20 auto sales place, and you can see it clear as day the 21 tower. And if you go down Claussen and you take a left
22 onto Pamplico Highway, you will go down Claussen, take a
23 left on Pamplico Highway, and you turn to go back towards 24 the incident location, you will ping on this tower, which 25 is facing away from the scene. Do you see that? Do you

1 see what I'm saying?

2 It's not that he's facing away from the scene. It's 3 that he's pinging as he's coming to the scene, and the 4 tower just happens to be facing that way. That's 5 important. He's pinging off of this tower when he's 6 coming down Claussen, and then, as soon as he makes the 7 turn, it pings off this tower. They're right on top of 8 each other.

9 And I'm going to say it again; y'all are going to be 10 tired of it. There is not enough coincidence in this 11 world. There is not.

12 Two people talking for an hour that ends at 1:21 in 13 the morning, five minutes later, they are pinging this 14 close to each other. If you have ever been here, it takes 15 about -- from the time you turn on Claussen and turn left
16 on Pamplico to get right here, it takes about 15 seconds.
17 Okay?

18 It's the defendant's turn. Mr. Wilson is a good
19 attorney. A good defense attorney will poke holes and try
20 to confuse you. That's what they do. Okay? Can't fault
21 him for doing his job. But what I'm saying is, when he 22 gets up here and he tries to poke holes and confuse you,
23 you remember what I told you and remember what this shows.
24 Because this does not lie.

25 And at 1:26 in the morning, a phone call is made

1 from the defendant -- or, excuse me, from the victim to 2 the defendant. At that time, the victim is at the 3 incident location, and the defendant is turning off of 4 Claussen onto Pamplico. They just talked for an hour, now
5 they have talked for a minute, and they're that close to 6 each other. If you don't believe that these two people
7 met up, then stick around after this; I've got some 8 oceanfront property I want to sell you. And I mean it.

9 And then, at 1:33, the GPS locator information on 10 the vehicle shows that the victim arrives at the incident
11 location. But remember what the nice lady from Pee Dee
12 Auto Sales said: It only connects three minutes or only 13 registers to stop three minutes after the car comes to a 14 stop. So this is misleading. It's really 1:30 in the 15 morning when the victim arrives at the incident location.
16 1:30 a.m. All right?

17 So let me back up. 1:21, they hang up from talking
18 an hour. 1:26, they're that close to each other. 1:30, 19 the victim arrives. There's not enough coincidence in 20 this world.

21 2:17, the defendant's phone is calling -- oh, and by 22 the way, this call is the last call the defendant ever
23 makes from this phone. Ever. And at 2:17, the defendant
24 is back in Lake City.

25 And this is important. This is the victim's phone.

1 Although no more calls go out from the victim's phone --
2 okay? -- at 1:26, the victim never uses his phone again
3 after that, yet his phone is found right here on the way
4 back to Lake City. Okay?

5 They come together after talking for an hour. Five
6 minutes elapse, and they both arrive in the same exact
7 area. They talk for another minute. And then the 8 victim's phone, which was never recovered, last pings on 9 the way back to Lake City.

10 And that's that call there. And let me tell you
11 something: I asked Chief Edwards how long does it take?
12 35 minutes. I said, Well, would it surprise you if I told 13 you I put it in MapQuest, and it said 28 minutes? He 14 said, "No, that wouldn't surprise me a bit."

15 All right. 28 minutes from the incident location
16 back to his home in Lake City. Okay? But this is 2:00 in 17 the morning. If you rode out there right now, I bet you
18 wouldn't see much traffic. If you rode this route right
19 now, you wouldn't get much traffic. 2:00 in the morning,
20 the weekend after Christmas, freezing cold outside? I bet
21 there was not a soul on that road. And if you had just 22 committed murder, I would imagine you wouldn't be driving
23 the speed limit. Okay?

24 But be that as it may, he still had -- if the victim
25 arrives at 1:30, he has 47 minutes to kill him and get

1 back to Lake City, more than enough time if you drive
2 slow.

3 And what did Ms. Cooper say, Asia Cooper? She said
4 it was fast. Says he got in with his hoodie on, hands in 5 his pockets, and popped him while he was talking.

6 And there's the last -- that 2:17 call that places
7 the defendant back in Lake City. All right? That was a
8 quick trip, wasn't it? That was a quick trip for the 9 defendant to drive all the way here, down Claussen Road,
10 right by incident location, and then come right back,
11 passing by where the victim's cell phone last pings.

12 And you can see the car -- the victim's vehicle -- 13 and this is Pamplico Highway right here, ladies and 14 gentlemen. And right up here -- I mean, if you have ever
15 ridden it, I mean, right up here is Claussen. It's real
16 close. And that tower is just like -- I mean, you know
17 it's, like, here.

18 So you're coming down Claussen, take a left, it
19 would ping off that tower as you go right in here. And 20 then the victim drives -- parks in right here, leaving 21 enough room for a vehicle to pull here, get out, get in 22 the car.

23 And let me tell you something: You know, I said in 24 my opening that some ways that you cannot get DNA is not 25 have -- you have gloves on your hand or have a mask on. I

1 was just offering examples. I don't know if he had a mask
2 on. And what I should have done is let Catherine Leisy,
3 the expert, testify. And what she said, more eloquently
4 than I can, is that barriers prevent DNA from being
5 transferred. Okay? Like when you dress in cold weather
6 gear, when you've got a hoodie on and you've got gloves on 7 and you've got pants on and your hoodie's pulled up.
8 Those are barriers to DNA transfer. All right?

9 And if you're expecting to meet someone for sex, 10 okay, it's cold outside, you wouldn't think anything of 11 the person pulling up and getting out wearing the things
12 that he was wearing, especially if you have been talking 13 to him for an hour. You wouldn't be thinking that your 14 life was about to end in a matter of moments. That's 15 exactly what happened.

16 Defendant gets in this vehicle. And while he's 17 talking -- I mean, you can see his hands. There were no
18 defensive wounds whatsoever. He's relaxed. He's waiting
19 for somebody he's been talking to for an hour that he met
20 on an escort site. And he didn't hesitate to shoot him
21 right in his head.

22 And this cash right here, $40, it was found, as the 23 chief testified, it was tucked away. It was hidden. They 24 had to kind of dig for it. My dad does that; he kind of 25 hides money in his wallet for a rainy day, he says. And

1     that's what happened here.

2             But let me ask you something: On that Friday, the
3     victim goes to the ATM and gets $180 cash out. Where's
4     the rest of that money? The money you would have to pay
5     an escort and have it on the center console when they 6     arrived. The money he would be expecting to receive.
7     Money, if he got blood on it and realized it after he fled
8     the scene, he would have to destroy it. And that's what 9     Asia Cooper said, isn't it?

10            Asia Cooper. She works as a CNA, Certified Nursing
11     Assistant. A great job. She moonlights as an Uber
12     driver. She's a hard worker. And they want to paint her
13     as an angry ex. She didn't seem angry to me at all.

14            And think about this, ladies and gentlemen. Think 15     about this, please. Imagine what would have to be true if 16     you want to believe the story they're selling, that an 17     angry ex -- all right, hang with me -- an angry ex was so 18     mad at a former lover that they randomly searched on the 19     internet and found a random murder. Okay? Because that's 20     what they're implying. Found a random murder and then
21     somehow dug more and found specific things that occurred 22     that were not available to the public somehow, okay, and 23     then it just so happens that the victim that they randomly
24     pulled off the internet was in contact with the defendant,
25     and the phones were pinging right beside each other.

1           There is not enough coincidence in this world.

2           There is not.

3           And what do they just say, that Brayboy meets Rashad
4           Jones on an escort web site. Okay? And I asked the 5           chief, I said, "Did you ever share that with anybody?" I
6           said, "In fact, when did the family first learn of that?"
7           Last Friday. I know because I was there. This evidence
8           had not been disclosed to anyone, including these folks 9           over here. They just heard it. But she knew it. How 10          would she have known it? How?

11          Says Jones pretends to be a woman. That's specific.
12          That made Rashad mad when he found out it wasn't a
13          woman -- or, excuse me, Brayboy mad when he found out
14          Rashad wasn't a woman.

15          Agrees to meet at a place that is dark with no
16          cameras. I mean, this place -- every witness testified 17          this place is dark with no cameras. I mean, that's a very 18          specific detail. Why would investigators even disclose
19          that detail? You know? Why would that detail even come
20          up? It's because it didn't.

21          Drives to the recreation park. She knew that. Gets 22          in car wearing a hoodie with his hands in his pockets,
23          while Rashad is talking, shoots him in the head. Knew 24          where he was shot. Again, another detail only known by 25          investigators.

1           The fact -- mistakenly, I usually turn this away
2           from the family, and I apologize; I forgot to do it this 3           time. That scene -- that crime scene where they saw, that 4           was probably the first time they had seen where he had 5           been shot. But yet, she knew it.

6           Takes Rashad's cell phone, some cash, and shell
7           casing. Now, I'll admit, the cell phone is the only thing 8           that investigators shared with the family, because they 9           had to figure out, well, did he have a cell phone? That's 10          all they knew. How can you account for the rest of it?
11          There's no shell casing recovered.

12          And speaking of shell casing, she says she saw him
13          with hollow point bullets. And what did the firearms
14          specialist say? That the bullet that killed Rashad Jones
15          was a hollow point bullet, and it came from a .45 caliber
16          handgun. And what did she also say? That he told her he 17          had access to a .45 caliber gun. Come on. There is not 18          enough coincidence in the world.

19          Drives back towards Lake City. That's what she 20          said. Disposes of Rashad's cell phone on the way back.
21          How else would she know that?

22          At some point, destroys money because there's blood
23          on it. Says he did it because he hates homosexuals. Asia
24          says that Brayboy was constantly talking about his hatred
25          for homosexuals. And then there's that .45 caliber

1 handgun. And she says how it came up originally is that 2 he's constantly kind of eluding to it. You know? What
3 did she say, that he said, you know, "I did something that 4 I could serve some time on." Okay. And then later on,
5 you know, "I did some bad stuff."

6 And then, finally, he shows her the article. And 7 I'm sure she was like, "What?" And then he tells and 8 confides all this to her.

9 And they want to say, well, you blocked him on -- or 10 you blocked him -- or he blocked you on Snapchat. I don't 11 know what that's got to do with anything. But you know
12 what they asked her -- and I loved her response. Did you 13 hear it? They said, "Well, why did he do that?" And she 14 said, "I don't know. You'd have to ask him. Why don't 15 you ask him about it?"

16 There is not enough coincidence in this world.

17 Ladies and gentlemen, the evidence only points one
18 way, and it's circumstantial evidence, but it's 19 overwhelming. You know? In every case, you don't have an 20 eyewitness. Okay? In every case, you don't have DNA.
21 But I tell you what, in every case, you don't have this 22 grade of cell phone evidence. All right? And you don't 23 have a witness who says the defendant told me everything.

24 There's only one way this can lay, and Mr. Wilson is 25 going to get up here and tell you it lays a different way

1 because of stuff that doesn't matter. And when he does --
2 and he's great at it -- when he does, you don't forget
3 what I have told you and laid out here because that is the 4 fact. All right?

5 As people say in our office sometimes, the defense
6 likes to get you to focus on the string bean hanging off
7 the plate and doesn't want you to pay attention to the 8 meat and the potatoes. And that's what he's doing. Okay?
9 But you don't forget the meat and the potatoes of this 10 case, and those are defendant posted an ad for sex on 11 SkipTheGames.com, December 19, 2019, nine days before the 12 murder.

13 Friday, the 27th, the defendant -- or victim, excuse
14 me, gets $180 cash out of the ATM. At 7:00 that day, for 15 the first time ever, the two of them begin corresponding.
16 They correspond throughout the night into the early
17 morning hours, and then they speak for an hour-long
18 conversation as their phones begin to converge right here.

19 And then both cell phones, despite the victim being 20 dead at this point -- both cell phones travel back south
21 towards the defendant's residence. And Asia Cooper
22 corroborates it all without having any knowledge. Despite 23 what they want you to believe, she corroborates it all.

24 And you know what? It's not that she corroborates
25 it all; the defendant corroborates it all. Don't forget

1 that. It's not her saying it happened. It's her saying
2 he said it happened.

3 We all have secrets. You know? We have all had 4 things that we hide. Skeletons in our closet. Sometimes
5 those things can lead to predators.

6 Now, Rashad Jones worked hard, has a good family who 7 loves him. He left behind a young son. And don't you
8 forget that.

9 In a second, I have got to do something that's hard
10 to do, especially for me. I have got to sit down here
11 with the family, and I have got to wait and let the 12 defense poke holes and try to confuse you. But when 13 they're doing that -- and he's good at it -- you don't 14 forget the cell phone evidence, Asia Cooper, and how these 15 two individuals met. Don't forget the meat and the 16 potatoes.

17 A man died that night who did not deserve it. A man 18 with his whole life in front of him. And he died at the 19 hands of this man because he hated who he thought he was.
20 And that is murder. Thank you.

21 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Wilson?

22 MR. WILSON: Your Honor, if it please the Court, 23 Judge?

25 MR. WILSON: Court's indulgence, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

2 MR. WILSON: I don't know if this is going to -- we
3 had this folded up, so I don't know if it's going to stay
4 unfolded. I pray that it does.

5 MR. WHITE: Judge -- I'm sorry, Mr. Wilson. I
6 believe the jury is trying to get the bailiff's attention.
7 I apologize.

8 THE COURT: Oh, I'm sorry.

9 THE BAILIFF: Water?

10 JUROR: She feels sick.

11 THE BAILIFF: One of the jurors is feeling sick.

12 THE COURT: All right. I tell you what: We'll take 13 a short break and let Mr. Wilson set up.

14 Please don't discuss this matter at this time.
15 Okay?

16 (The jury exited the courtroom at 10:38 a.m.).

17 THE COURT: All right. We'll be at recess for just 18 a moment.

19 While everybody is in here, let me -- ma'am, before
20 you leave -- let me just tell you, during these closing
21 arguments and the charge on the law, I'm going to go ahead
22 and instruct the bailiffs not to allow anybody in and out
23 of this courtroom during this process. Okay? So if 24 you're in, you're in; if you're out, you're out. Nobody 25 is coming and leaving. Okay?

1           You're welcome to go now, but when we resume, that
2 will be the case. Okay? Thank you.

3           (A recess was taken from 10:39 a.m. to 10:57 a.m.)

4                           JUROR ISSUE

5           THE COURT: All right. Can the attorneys approach?

6           COURT REPORTER: Want this on the record?

7           THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

8                           BENCH CONFERENCE

9           (The following bench conference was held outside of 10 the hearing of the jury and others:)

11           THE COURT: So, out of an abundance of caution, I
12 asked the bailiff to bring that juror out of the jury room
13 because I wasn't sure if it was, like, an illness. I
14 asked her a few questions, and she said it's some sort of 15 panic disorder that she deals with, and when she saw the 16 pictures, it caused her to get upset.

17           I asked her if she felt like she could continue or 18 not. She says she thought she could. But, you know, I
19 don't know if she's being truthful or if there's something
20 else that happened. I don't know.

21           MR. WILSON: My concern, obviously, Judge, is the 22 prejudice. These pictures are bad. That's my concern, 23 that she is prejudiced by the pictures. The pictures are 24 bad. Obviously, it doesn't go to my client's guilt --

25           THE COURT: Oh, I understand.

1 MR. WILSON: -- because they're prejudicial.

2 THE COURT: You know, certainly we have another
3 alternate. I mean, she said she thought she could go
4 forward in the case.

5 There is also -- I think there were some people that
6 entered the courtroom that I haven't seen this week here
7 before. I don't know if it influenced this episode or I
8 don't know.

9 MR. WHITE: I wouldn't know.

10 THE COURT: I understand. You know, is there any 11 consensus as how you want to move forward?

12 MR. WILSON: I just ask that she be removed. If 13 she's having a panic attack right after his closing
14 argument, I'd ask that she be removed from the jury panel,
15 and we replace her with the alternate. She obviously 16 can't handle this material.

17 MR. WHITE: My only concern is that with removing 18 her, how that would influence the other jurors. That's my 19 only concern. I don't know what effect that would have 20 one way or the other, but that would be my only concern.

21 THE COURT: Well, I mean, as far as I know, you
22 know, we removed her from the jury out of an abundance of 23 caution because I didn't want her to have, like, the flu
24 or something.

25 MR. WILSON: But if she's claiming now to have a

1 panic attack, the jurors have seen that. My concern is 2 how --

3 THE COURT: Well, the jury doesn't know.

4 MR. WILSON: Okay.

5 THE COURT: As far as I know. Because they 6 separated her when I asked her that.

7 MR. WHITE: Can you give me a minute to confer with 8 my co-counsel on this, Judge?

9 THE COURT: Sure. And I'll just tell you, if 10 there's one side that wants to remove her, I'm probably 11 inclined to do that, just based on the circumstances.

12 Do you want to confer?

13 MR. WHITE: Yeah, just one second.

14 (Co-counsel conferring off the record.)

15 [Open court resumes as follows:]

16 MR. WHITE: Judge, I mean, I think -- you know, she 17 says she can continue. I don't think she's expressed
18 anything --

19 THE COURT: I tell you what, let's come forward.

20 MR. WHITE: Yes, sir.

21 BENCH CONFERENCE

22 (The following bench conference was held outside the 23 hearing of the jury and others:)

24 MR. WHITE: Obviously, I'll leave it in your 25 discretion. I don't think she's expressed anything that

1 would -- I mean, she says she can continue to go forward.
2 So I ask that she stay on. I don't think she's got 3 anything that's going to spread to the other jurors, but 4 I'll leave it in your discretion, Judge.

5 MR. WILSON: It is, in my opinion, at this juncture
6 -- because normally what happens -- the reason that the 7 defense wants to go last right behind the prosecution, is 8 we didn't put up a case and have less arguments.

9 Closing has been interrupted. So if she is now
10 interrupting my closing and it's affecting our case, if 11 she stays on this jury pool, I'm going to ask for a 12 mistrial. She can't stay. I mean, it's just -- it's 13 clear that she can't handle this material, and it's 14 prejudiced, obviously, because of the pictures, and that's 15 upsetting her. That can sway a jury. It's just 16 dangerous.

17 MR. WHITE: Thank you, Judge.

18 THE COURT: All right. We'll remove her.

19 (Juror No. 85, Rakeia Harrell, excused from 20 service.)

21 [Open court resumes as follows:]

22 THE COURT: Mr. Johnny, will you come here for a
23 second, please?

24 Will you, please, bring me the 12 people minus the 25 lady that got sick? Take -- just keep her separated.

1 Bring me the rest of the jurors.

2 THE BAILIFF: Okay.

3 (Pause in the proceedings.)

4 (The jury entered the courtroom at 11:03 a.m.)

5 THE COURT: All right. Ladies and gentlemen -- or,
6 actually, Juror No. 74 -- is that you? Yes, sir. Please
7 understand that you're now installed as a member of this 8 jury panel. Okay?

9 JUROR NO. 74: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Please pay close attention as everybody
11 has been, and we're going to recognize Mr. Wilson for his 12 closing argument.

13 MR. WILSON: If it please the Court, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

15 CLOSING ARGUMENT ON BEHALF OF THE DEFENDANT

16 MR. WILSON: Good afternoon or good morning, should 17 I say, ladies and gentlemen. How are y'all doing this 18 morning?

19 This is not an easy case. Okay? It's not easy to 20 look at these pictures. It's not easy to hear that 21 somebody lost their family. It's not easy to hear
22 somebody lost their father. It ain't easy to hear that 23 somebody lost their son that they love. I am not telling 24 you that. Okay?

25 Yesterday, during trial, Solicitor White said

1 something that blew me away. He said, you know, "Hey,
2 after Mr. Wilson is done grandstanding." And I tell you,
3 I have been practicing for years -- years, and I love this 4 job. Love this job. Okay? My job is to defend my 5 client. Whether you like, you know, my strategy, whether 6 you like -- whether you like the justice system, that's 7 not the issue. I have a right to defend my client. Okay?

8 Mr. Brayboy is telling you he is innocent. Not that 9 he's just not guilty. He's saying, "I'm innocent of this 10 crime." And while the victim and his family deserve
11 justice, the law also has to be followed in this case.
12 That's where I come in. No different from anybody else
13 goes to work and does their job. Anything I do, it ain't 14 personal. This is my job. This is what we do day in and 15 day out.

16 And while sometimes I believe that we, as lawyers, 17 get jaded and insensitive because we see this all the 18 time, we see evidence all the time, Solicitor White and I
19 both see this all the time, things can get heated. I
20 respect the system of justice. I respect this Court. I
21 respect this jury.

22 When I was in law school -- and I know Mr. White had 23 the same similar experience and we all do -- most of us
24 are broke, and I was broke. And I had the privilege --
25 doing really well in some classes, and they let me teach

1 some courses for this ABA, which is the American Bar
2 Association, and they also let me teach for the Student
3 Bar Association. And I taught secure transactions, I
4 taught criminal law, and I taught contract law.

5 Criminal law requires something that's called corpus
6 delecti. That is the body of the crime. The elements.
7 Okay?

8 And I talked to you earlier. I told you in this 9 case, if they can put the gun in his hand and him in that 10 car, convict him. That's what I told you. And I meant
11 every word of it.

12 Coincidences. Let me go ahead and kill this now.
13 The prosecutor, during his closing argument, said
14 coincidences, coincidences. In life, just like everything
15 else we do, coincidences happen. There are times when you
16 and I have been places where things have happened, and we 17 have had nothing to do with it. There are times I could 18 be driving down the road, car accident happens. I had 19 nothing to do with it, but I saw it. There are times when 20 I can be driving down the road, and I might see a man
21 running from KFC. I don't know what just happened.

22 What we have to look at is the evidence. I have a
23 big question for the jury. I have a big question for the 24 State, one they didn't answer. They had every opportunity
25 -- and they had Rashad Jones's phone records. Ask

1     yourself why they didn't produce any information to you
2     about him and his communications on SkipTheGames. They 3     had his phone. Why do you think they didn't introduce any 4     records of him communicating with anybody on SkipTheGames?

5             Their allegation is they told you he met Antonio
6     Brayboy on SkipTheGames. That's how they said he met him.
7     So if he met him on SkipTheGames and they had his cell
8     phone information, which they got -- they dumped his 9     entire cell phone, by that meaning they got all his 10    information -- why didn't you see anything about him
11    communicating with Mr. Brayboy from them? Because that's 12    where they met. Because they couldn't have met anywhere
13    else.

14            Another question I want you to ask yourself: If 15    Asia Cooper is telling the truth -- and seriously think
16    about this -- she said in her statement to Chief Edwards
17    -- and on the stand -- that Rashad Jones was pretending to 18    be a girl. She said that. Right? That was her
19    testimony.

20            If they talked on the phone for 53 minutes, as the 21    State's pointed out, and talked multiple times that night,
22    everybody in here knows that a man's voice is a man's 23    voice and a woman's voice is a woman's voice. They didn't 24    bring you one text message where Mr. Rashad Jones says to 25    Mr. Brayboy, [high-pitched voice] "I'm looking for just a

1 good time tonight." Not one text message saying. Not one
2 text message saying I am a female and I'm interested in 3 you. They were on the phone talking. For 53 minutes. We 4 don't deny that.

5 So if he's pretending to be a girl -- and this was a
6 six-foot-one big, rugged man, but he's pretending to be a 7 woman?

8 Also, if he had homosexual tendencies, where are the 9 witnesses? All his friends, family got up and testified.
10 You saw them. Not one of them said he ever liked men.
11 Not one. And they had his phone records. And so, if he 12 was on other web sites looking for men or on SkipTheGames
13 looking for men, they would absolutely, positively have 14 put it on the stand or you would have seen it on this 15 monitor. He wasn't looking for men. He was looking for 16 women. His friend, Mr. Thomas, got up and testified, even 17 though he didn't want to tell me the truth, but at least 18 admitted that, "Yeah, he told me one time he went down
19 there and he got a girl to give him oral sex for $20."

20 But when I got Chief Edwards on the stand, Chief
21 Edwards says, "Yes, he told me he frequented that park,
22 and that's where he would meet up with girls, take them
23 home."

24 You can't avoid the issue of why the lies occurred.
25 And I tell you something else, if you believe for a second

1 that as a family member of a murder victim that you're not
2 getting information, there are tons of ways to get
3 information from the police department. One, the 4 coroner's report is a public document. Nobody wants to 5 talk about that. It is a public document. And I have 6 been involved in many-a-hundred murder cases over the 7 years, and the family gets massive amounts of information.
8 Do you know why? Because they deserve it. They want it.
9 And also, they give the information out.

10 And I asked Chief Edwards this, on the phone, they 11 give it out because they also want the cooperation of the 12 family.

13 If you think they didn't know that cell phone was 14 missing, that this was a .45 caliber bullet a year later, 15 I have got a used car I'll sell you on the moon. They 16 knew that information.

17 And it wasn't until this boyfriend came along with 18 Asia Cooper who had connections in Florence -- because I
19 asked her on the stand -- you saw me -- you saw her
20 reaction, and says, "No." I said, "Ma'am, does he not 21 have family and friends down there?" Finally admitted
22 that he does.

23 And I said, "Did he have a reason not to like 24 Mr. Brayboy, personal reason?" No.

25 Chief Edwards says, from his notes, "Yes, the

1 boyfriend didn't like him for his own personal reasons."

2 Every situation in this case smells bad. But I told
3 you in the beginning, look at the forensics. I told you,
4 look at the forensics. Because so many lies have been
5 told, so many people who want a conviction. This ain't
6 about justice anymore. I have seen cases about justice.
7 This is about trying to convict a man that they believe
8 committed a murder at 1:26 in the morning. That's what 9 this is now about.

10 I asked Chief Edwards on the stand, "Please tell me
11 why you didn't arrest him when you had his phone records
12 and y'all said y'all were clocking him from here to there 13 with the cell phone information and he was the last..."

14 And, finally, he admitted on the stand: They didn't 15 have probable cause. Without who? Without Asia Cooper, 16 who then comes in and tells you, not only does she know he 17 has a bald head, not only did she tell you that she did
18 research, but she also then tells you what? That he had a
19 beanie -- or a hoodie on. She never told Chief Edwards
20 that. But she met with law enforcement, met with that 21 boyfriend, and then met again with the prosecutor's
22 office.

23 And they're saying that we made a lot of the fact
24 that Mr. Brayboy, by her own testimony, blocked her on 25 Snapchat. And you're asking me, "Mr. Wilson, why is that

1 important?" That is extremely important. He cut her off.
2 And I'm being more than frank with you. After having sex
3 with her for a long time, for some months, he decided he 4 didn't want anything else to do with her. He cut her off.

5 Let's talk about the crime scene. At this crime
6 scene, the State wants you to believe that this man, who
7 you have been, I'm sure, looking at, seeing, know how tall
8 he is, know how big he is -- you can see him; it's plain
9 and clear -- that he was able to somehow get Rashad Jones
10 comfortable enough in his car, a man who even his friends
11 said loved women, to somehow unzip his pants, have his 12 hand next to his crouch area, the other hand next to his 13 side, and then get him in the car, gloves on, mask on,
14 whatever he wants to say, while he's on the telephone, and 15 shoot him.

16 The crime scene was secured. All right? The 17 officers got up and told you that. That's the first thing
18 they did. And the Mitchells did not go into the car.
19 They said that.

20 And if you notice, honestly -- and the judge will
21 tell you this and I know you know this already but the law
22 is this: You have a right to look at these witnesses.
23 Look at how the Mitchells testified. No passion, no
24 prejudice. They told the facts.

25 Look at how the pathologist testified. He was one

1 of the most matter-of-fact witnesses you could ever find.
2 No passion, no prejudice.

3 The ballistics expert from SLED; no passion, no
4 prejudice, didn't care about one side or the other. Just 5 told the story about what they found.

6 And I told you in this case it was going to be 7 important to look at the forensics. They secured that 8 vehicle. Mitchells said, "Look, hey, we didn't want to go
9 in the vehicle. We didn't want to touch the vehicle. We 10 called the police, wasn't sure what was going on." They 11 come out. They secure it. They then swipe it down. They 12 take swabs from inside the car. They take swabs from 13 multiple places inside this vehicle. And in most murder
14 cases, I may have three or four swabs. There were ten
15 swabs in this case. Ten.

16 Not one swab -- and they were counting on this --
17 they came -- the police and the State went to him, had him
18 open his mouth, swab inside for his DNA to give a standard
19 for SLED for analysis. Because they knew he was their 20 killer. They knew this. They said, "Hey, we know you've 21 got to be our guy. Let's get the buccal swab done," 22 because he was the one that did this because we are 23 tracking his cell phone records. He's the last person who 24 talked to him. Who else could have done this?

25 Who else could have done this? Why would somebody

1 else have done this? Why would somebody else have done
2 this? Why would somebody have done this?

3 And when you talk about reasonable doubt, there is 4 massive amounts of it in this case. And I'm going to 5 break it down for you because it's important.

6 The law does not say that you have got to have some 7 sort of suspicion that you might think he may have done
8 this, or just sound so bad and the pictures are so bad and 9 this man is dead, and he's got a son. That is not the 10 law. The law says you have to find him guilty beyond a 11 reasonable doubt.

12 Let me give you the first reasonable doubt: This 13 condom. The lengths they were willing to go to in trial
14 to get you to believe that a park, where children play
15 baseball and basketball and people walk around every 16 single day, that it was arbitrary; that this was some 17 condom that was just left beside this man's car even 18 though they knew there was another condom wrapper inside
19 the car that was identical to the one that was found on 20 the ground.

21 These witnesses belong to the State. And even when 22 you ask them these questions -- you saw them on the stand.
23 I asked Chief Edwards, who is a good man. I'm going to 24 put that out there right -- he's a good man. But he's 25 also an arm of the State. And I asked him a question, and

1 he was very slow to answer, but he told the truth. I
2 said, "Could there have been somebody else out there?"
3 And you heard what he said: "Could have been."

4 Let me give you a theory here. I don't know what 5 Mr. Rashad Jones's fetishes was. And the prosecution is 6 right about one thing: Everybody's got a secret life.
7 And I've told you in the beginning; public life, private
8 life, secret life. Some people like ménage à trois. I
9 wasn't joking when I said that. Some men like to see
10 other men and women having sex.

11 I don't know what his thing was. What I do know is 12 this: That that condom had DNA on it that didn't belong
13 to either Rashad Jones or Mr. Brayboy, who they say was 14 out there trying to solicit sex.

15 There's the first reasonable doubt. Who do you
16 think was out there that day? Let me get this. I'm going 17 to play devil's advocate for a moment. Mr. Brayboy, who 18 was on a phone call for 37 minutes, puts that call on 19 hold, gets a condom he's already prepared, that the same
20 brand is inside the victim's car, puts it next to the door
21 then goes in the car, shoots him, takes his money, takes 22 his cell phone, goes away from the scene. Let me throw
23 his cell phone out now. Let me go home at 2:17. Does 24 that make sense that there was no one else there?

25 The other swabs. The smear that their crime

1 scene expert told you about -- and I asked him on the 2 stand, "What would cause that?" Transfer. They swabbed
3 that. No DNA. They swabbed the headrest. No DNA. They 4 even swabbed the outside of the condom wrapper. No DNA.
5 Let me rephrase that: They didn't find Mr. Brayboy's DNA
6 anywhere in that vehicle. Nowhere on the condom. Nowhere
7 on Mr. Rashad Jones.

8 And then there was an allude to, "Okay, well, maybe
9 he was standing outside the vehicle when he shot the gun.
10 That's why there was no DNA." And what did the 11 pathologist tell you to kill that complete argument?
12 Because that's one of the things he said during the trial.
13 You remember. The prosecutor said that. Could he have 14 been standing outside that car, fired that weapon? He 15 said there was so much stippling and soot that it had to 16 be within a foot, which means the killer was inside that 17 vehicle. He was inside the car. He was inside the 18 vehicle. And whoever it was, he was comfortable enough
19 with that person or persons to let his guard down. Both 20 of them said there was no sign of a struggle. None.
21 None.

22 Let's talk about all these phone tracking they're 23 talking about. Let me show you what's already been marked
24 as an exhibit in this case. Let's talk about this.

25 Let me give you our theory of what we believe

1 happened based on what I know because, again, I represent
2 the defendant in this matter. This is Rashad.

3 MR. WHITE: Judge, may we approach?

4 MR. WILSON: Wow. Judge...

5 BENCH CONFERENCE

6 (The following bench conference was held outside the
7 hearing of the jury and others.)

8 THE COURT: He hasn't said anything --

9 COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry; I can't hear.

10 THE COURT: -- what he's going to say. So we're 11 going to continue. If you have an objection, you may make 12 it.

13 [Open court resumes:]

14 MR. WILSON: The lengths they will go through to not 15 allow you to know what's really going on is amazing to me.
16 It is truly amazing. It is frustration on their parts.
17 And you need to listen to what I'm saying because this is 18 important. Okay?

19 You heard the actual expert on the stand. He says
20 that he believed at the time -- and the prosecutor said
21 something other than that. He told -- you heard him --
22 that he's heading away from Mr. Jones at this time.
23 That's what he says. I'm not making this up. You heard
24 the expert yourself. Okay?

25 If you'll look right here, that's Claussen Road.

1 Claussen Road, you can turn right or left right there
2 where he is. The phone calls that were being made, let's
3 talk about that. Because we're going to go up to this 4 time of 1:26 a.m., and I want you to follow me on this.

5 At 12:05 -- and this is in the phone records. This
6 has already been entered by the State already. 12:05,
7 Brayboy, my client, makes a call to this 917 number.
8 Mr. Jones is still alive. We know that because he's still 9 calling.

10 12:16, he calls Mr. Brayboy. Jones does.

11 12:18, Mr. Brayboy again calls 917 again. Same
12 number. He's focused on this. Jones is focused on him.

13 At 12:24, Brayboy calls this number.

14 At 12:28 a.m., Jones calls Brayboy, and that's when 15 they talk for 53 minutes until 1:21. Until 1:21. They 16 get off the phone at that point in time.

17 Then you have intermediate calls coming in that were 18 three seconds on hold, but they're not going to say he 19 didn't get back on the phone and talk to Mr. Jones, but 20 here, at 12:47, Brayboy then calls this number again.
21 57 seconds.

22 And at 1:21, when their call ends, he immediately
23 calls this number again and then talks to them for 24 37 minutes.

25 The phone -- excuse me -- the car registered a

1 cutoff, a stop, okay, at 1:33 a.m.

2 At 1:26, he's already here. Seven minutes later,
3 while Mr. Brayboy is on the phone, that's when Jones cuts
4 his vehicle off. That's when he cuts the vehicle off at 5 that time.

6 Mr. Brayboy is still on the phone until 1:58 a.m.
7 And by that time, he's close to home. By that time, he's 8 close to home.

9 And then, on the stand, on direct examination, when 10 the lady from Pee Dee Auto got up and testified for 11 Mr. White -- she said, a vehicle registers a stop after 12 two or three minutes. I want you to go back and look at 13 those records. They are extremely important, ladies and 14 gentlemen. No matter how trivial they make them sound, 15 they're not trivial.

16 The vehicle registers at that time. 9:01 a.m.,
17 another stop.

18 And when she talked to Solicitor White, she said,
19 "Well, every two or three minutes, you know, when it's 20 stopped, it will register again." Okay?

21 Look at the picture of where the keys are when 22 Mr. Brayboy -- excuse me -- Mr. Jones is in the car. He 23 puts the keys in the ignition.

24 At 9:01, during this stop is when we believe he puts 25 those keys in the ignition. That's why there's action.

1 These GPS trackers do not act by themselves. And the lady
2 that was up there is not an expert. She works for the 3 auto sales company. That's her job. But you heard her
4 say this: "Oh, you and I talked already."

5 The solicitor got back up, when I mentioned the 6 9:01, got back up and questioned her again, "Well, didn't 7 we talk about this already?"

8 "Yeah, we talked. You and I talked."

9 They never talked to me.

10 And I'm telling you, 9:01, it registers. And guess
11 what? Look at the records, when you get back there, it 12 doesn't register again any other time after that until 13 later on, on the 29th when the police have the vehicle.

14 So you have a registration of GPS saying the vehicle 15 is turned off at 1:33 a.m.; then, a few hours later, it is 16 registering another stop.

17 They have made a lot of the fact that these phones
18 are traveling together. And I pointed this out to you
19 during trial. There were no slides presented to you
20 showing you that there was a corresponding time frame
21 slide by slide, frame by frame of these phones traveling.
22 That is not true. Look at the slides. They're in 23 evidence. They don't show it to you because it does not 24 exist. If it did exist, you would see it up there, I
25 promise you.

1           You think this prosecutor isn't smart? He said the 2 same thing about me I'm going to say about him. This man
3 is a good prosecutor, and he's an even better team leader.
4 They're good lawyers. And they are trained to do one
5 thing: Convict people.

6           I know because my father prosecuted for years up in 7 Horry County, in Georgetown. That's what they're trained
8 to do. But the evidence in this case does not show malice
9 because I don't -- there's no evidence that shows he was a
10 homosexual. It does not show that he committed a murder
11 because there's no evidence he got in that car with a gun
12 and killed anybody.

13           And I don't know who else was out there with 14 Mr. Rashad Jones. I have no clue. The DNA is all over 15 the car, I can tell you that. The DNA is on the wrapper, 16 and the DNA is on that condom. I don't know if he got in 17 the car with somebody else, went away from the scene with 18 somebody else. I do know that they alleged that his phone 19 moved. Nobody contests that. Nobody contests that at 20 all. The question is how it got there.

21           And when I asked the cell phone expert to tell me
22 how this -- he didn't want to see it. People, we know how 23 things move. You're either walking, riding a bike, flying
24 somewhere, or riding in a vehicle. That's it. And that's 25 simple. That is simple.

1           And whoever he met online or whoever was there that 2 night with him having sexual relations or having a sexual
3 fit or whatever was going on with the condom or the rest
4 of the stuff in the car, I don't know, and I can't tell 5 you that.

6           But the prosecutor said something that should catch
7 your attention and should bother you about reasonable
8 doubt, because he said to you himself during his closing,
9 "I can't tell you what he was doing for that 37 minutes
10 he's on that phone call." He says what he knows is that 11 he says he put him on hold. Well, we all take phone calls
12 and put people on hold. Not a person in this world ain't
13 ever put somebody on hold.

14           But if you know how cell phones work, as soon as 15 that call is over, you're clicking back over to the other
16 side. That's how they work.

17           The rule of law is this: They have to prove him
18 guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. That doesn't mean your 19 gut instinct. That doesn't mean that you are pissed off
20 about the pictures or you're upset about the fact that 21 this man is missing and that he's gone from his family.
22 It has nothing to do with the law. It's about evidence.
23 And they have got to put that gun in his hand. They have 24 got to put that gun in his hand on December 28th. They 25 have to put him in that vehicle at that time and then let

1 you have the evidence to find him guilty. Because if you
2 have reasonable doubt, no matter what your gut tells you,
3 no matter what you think about the pictures, no matter
4 what you think about my client's looks or how he behaves
5 or what he acts like or what you think about me, it
6 doesn't matter. The law says you have to find him not 7 guilty. That's the law. And we live and die by that.
8 And I believe it. That's justice.

9 There are too many unknowns in this case. Too many.
10 And you sat through all of it.

11 The judge is going to tell you this -- and I'm going 12 to go ahead and tell you now -- you can't hold it against 13 the defendant that he didn't testify. It's 14 unconstitutional. And I'll be honest with you, in this 15 case, he didn't need to testify. It wasn't necessary.

16 When you look at this evidence and you ask yourself
17 a question, could someone else have killed this man, is it 18 possible -- because they didn't have any other car or 19 footage or any other cell phones to look at, but you have 20 the DNA which tells you somebody else was at the scene.
21 Somebody else was there with him at a time when the 22 vehicle has a hit at 9:01 a.m. You can't get around that 23 forensic evidence.

24 And I don't care what you say about this man, but I
25 can tell you right now, he ain't no super brave criminal

1 that can get into a vehicle, kill somebody, make all this
2 evidence up, make phone calls, these same women, who he's 3 calling at 9 -- excuse me -- 10,000 times trying to get in 4 touch and talking to. Can't make that up.

5 They both had an interest in one thing, and that was 6 sleeping with women that night.

7 Mr. Brayboy is home by 2:00, 2:17. And contrary to 8 what the prosecutor told you -- and you look at the phone
9 records -- there is a stack -- where did my phone
10 records -- there's a stack of phone calls made after the 11 28th for Mr. Brayboy. Look at them. He told you that's 12 the last call -- look at his phone records. There are a 13 stack of phone calls he continued to make with this phone.
14 Stack of them.

15 Malice aforethought, killing a person feloniously,
16 that's the law. You have to find him not guilty -- if you
17 don't have proof beyond a reasonable doubt, you must find
18 him not guilty. There's no doubt about that. Possession 19 of a weapon, there's not one person in this room who 20 testified in front of you who said that night he had a
21 weapon. Not one person. Think about that. Not one piece 22 of evidence shows you he had a gun that night.

23 You want to say Asia Cooper? He didn't meet her
24 until January of next year, and they didn't really start
25 talking until July. She can't put a gun in his hand that

1 night. Not one person says it. And this is about
2 evidence. Not one person says he was in that vehicle that
3 night. Not one person says it.

4 But they want you to believe it because it's their 5 theory from the beginning and they went through a lot of 6 trouble to make sure that this man faced trial. The State
7 can charge you with a crime, they can arrest you, they can 8 hold you in jail. They can do a lot to you. But what 9 they can't do is they cannot get past the jury. That's 10 why we impanel jurors, individuals who understand things
11 about life, circumstances, everything that goes on. And 12 the judge is going to tell you about this later on.
13 That's why we have a jury system. Because you can't give 14 all power like this to one individual to make a
15 determination about who is guilty and who is not.

16 He has every right to be presumed innocent until 17 guilty, until he's found guilty by competent evidence
18 beyond a reasonable doubt.

19 And the last thing I want to tell you is this: In 20 our system of justice, we have several levels of justice, 21 all right, when it comes down to review. Scintilla, which 22 is the smallest amount of evidence you need in a case.
23 Scintilla is the size of what we call a mustard seed. It 24 keeps going up and up and up until you get to clear and 25 convincing evidence.

1           And then you go above, and then you get to beyond a
2 reasonable doubt, which is at the very top of our justice
3 system. And that is how difficult it is, how heavy the 4 burden is for the State.

5           The defense has no burden in this case. We don't 6 have to prove anything. But I can tell you this: Based 7 on this evidence, we have proven to you he's not only not 8 guilty; he's innocent of every single charge they have 9 charged him with. And I'm asking you to come back with a
10 verdict of not guilty because, again, there's too much
11 reasonable doubt about what happened in this particular
12 case.

13           Thank you so very much.

JURY CHARGE

15           THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen. I
16 remind you that, during this trial, you and I have had 17 certain duties to perform and as trial judge, it's my 18 responsibility to preside over the trial of this case, and 19 I have also had the duty to rule on the admissibility of 20 the evidence that's been offered during this case.

21           So you are to consider only the evidence that's 22 before you, and if there was any testimony or statements
23 ordered stricken from the record during this trial, you
24 must disregard that testimony or statement.

25           You are to consider only the testimony which has

1     been presented from this witness stand and any exhibits
2     which have been made part of the record in this case and 3     any stipulations of counsel.

4             I have the additional duty now to charge you the law
5     that's applicable in this case, and it's your duty as 6     jurors to accept the law as I give it to you now and apply
7     it to the facts as you find them. If you think you have 8     any idea as to what the law is or what the law should be 9     and it doesn't agree with what I tell you the law is, you
10    must forget that idea because you're sworn to accept the 11    law and apply it exactly as I give it to you now.

12            In every case tried in this court before a jury, the 13    jury becomes the sole and exclusive judges of the facts.
14    A trial judge can't comment on or make any statement about 15    the fact in a case, and since you are the sole judges of 16    the facts, do not think by anything that I have said or 17    done during the trial that I have any opinions about the 18    facts in this case because the law simply does not allow 19    me to have any opinion about the facts in this case.

20            Ladies and gentlemen, I remind you that the fact
21    that this defendant was arrested, charged, and indicted in 22    this case is not evidence in this case and cannot be 23    considered by you as evidence of guilt in this case, nor 24    does it create any presumption or inference of guilt.
25    It's simply a document that's the formal written

1 instrument which contains the charges made against this
2 defendant and it's the formal document by which this case
3 is brought into this court.

4 Ladies and gentlemen, the defendant's pled not 5 guilty to this indictment, and the plea puts the burden on 6 the State to prove the defendant guilty. A person charged 7 with committing a criminal offense in South Carolina is 8 never required to prove himself innocent. I charge that 9 it's an important rule of the law that the defendant in a 10 criminal trial, no matter what the seriousness of the 11 charges may be, will always be presumed to be innocent of 12 the crimes for which the indictment was issued unless 13 guilt has been proven by evidence satisfying you, the 14 jury, of guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

15 This presumption of innocence does not end when you
16 begin your deliberation, but it accompanies the defendant
17 throughout the trial until you reach a verdict of guilt
18 based on the evidence satisfying you of that guilt, again,
19 beyond a reasonable doubt.

20 The presumption of innocence is like a robe of 21 righteousness placed about the shoulders of the defendant,
22 which remains with the defendant until it's been stripped 23 from the defendant by evidence, again, satisfying you, the 24 jury, of the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

25 The presumption of innocence is not merely a legal

1 theory, it's not just a legal phrase. It's the 2 substantial right to which every defendant's entitled to 3 unless you, the jury, again, are satisfied from the 4 evidence of the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable
5 doubt.

6 What is a reasonable doubt? A reasonable doubt is 7 the kind of doubt that would cause a reasonable person to 8 hesitate to act. The State has the burden of proving the 9 defendant beyond a reasonable doubt -- the State has the 10 burden of proving the defendant guilty beyond a reasonable
11 doubt. Some of you may have served as jurors in civil 12 cases where you were told that it's only necessary to 13 prove that a fact is more likely than not, such as by the 14 greater weight or the preponderance of the evidence, but 15 in criminal cases, the State's proof must be more powerful
16 than that. It must be beyond a reasonable doubt.

17 Proof beyond a reasonable doubt is proof that leaves 18 you firmly convinced of the defendant's guilt. There are 19 very few things in this world that we know with absolute
20 certainty, and in criminal cases, the law does not require 21 proof that overcomes every possible doubt. If, based on 22 your consideration of the evidence, you're firmly
23 convinced that the defendant is guilty of the crime
24 charged, then you must find the defendant guilty. If, on 25 the other hand, you think there's a real possibility that

1 the defendant is not guilty, you must give the defendant
2 the benefit of the doubt and find him not guilty.

3 Ladies and gentlemen, there's two types of evidence
4 which are generally presented during a trial: We have 5 direct evidence and circumstantial evidence. Direct 6 evidence is the testimony of a person who claims to have 7 actual knowledge of a fact, such as an eyewitness.
8 Circumstantial evidence is proof of a chain of facts and 9 circumstances indicating the existence of a fact. The law
10 makes absolutely no distinction between the weight or 11 value given to either direct or circumstantial evidence
12 nor is there a greater degree of certainty that requires
13 circumstantial evidence than that of direct evidence.

14 You should weigh all the evidence in this case, and 15 after weighing all the evidence, if you're not convinced
16 of the guilt of the defendant beyond a reasonable doubt,
17 you must find the defendant not guilty.

18 Necessarily, you must determine the credibility of 19 the witnesses who have testified in this case.
20 Credibility simply means the believability. It becomes 21 your duty as jurors to analyze and evaluate the evidence 22 and determine which evidence convinces you of its 23 accuracy.

24 In determining the believability of a witness who 25 has testified in this case, you can believe one witness

1 over several witnesses, several witnesses over one
2 witness; you may believe part of the testimony of a
3 witness and reject the remaining part of the testimony of 4 that same witness. You might believe the testimony of a
5 witness in its entirety or reject the testimony of a
6 witness in its entirety. You may consider whether any 7 witness has exhibited to you any interest, bias,
8 prejudice, or any other motive to testify in this case.
9 You may also consider the appearance and manner of a
10 witness while the witness testified on the witness stand.

11 Ordinarily, the Rules of Evidence do not permit
12 witnesses to testify to their opinions or conclusions. An 13 exception to this rule exists for witnesses we call expert
14 witnesses, a witness who, by education and experience, has 15 become some expert in some art, science, profession, or 16 calling may state their opinion as to relevant and 17 material matter in which the witness claims to be an 18 expert and may also state the reasons that they base their 19 opinions on.

20 You should consider any expert opinion received in 21 evidence in this case, and like any other evidence, give 22 it the weight you think it deserves. If you decide that 23 the opinion of an expert witness is not based on 24 sufficient education and experience or if you conclude 25 that the reasons given in support of the opinion are not

1 sound or that the opinion is outweighed by other evidence,
2 you can disregard that opinion entirely. An expert
3 witness's testimony is to be given no greater weight than 4 that of other witnesses simply because that witness is an 5 expert.

6 Further, you're not required to accept an expert's
7 opinion even though it might not be contradicted.

8 I instruct you and emphasize that the fact that the 9 defendant did not testify in this case is not a factor to 10 be considered by you in any way in your deliberations.
11 And in your consideration on the question of the guilt or 12 the innocence of the defendant, it must not be considered
13 by you in any manner whatsoever.

14 A defendant has a constitutional right to remain
15 silent. An assertion of this right must not be considered
16 by you in your deliberations. So I repeat: Under your 17 oath, you are to draw no conclusion whatsoever from the 18 fact that the defendant did not testify in this case. The 19 fact that this defendant did not testify should not even 20 be discussed in your jury room.

21 The burden of proof, as I have stated to you, is on 22 the State of South Carolina. The defendant is not 23 required to prove his innocence, and the burden of proof
24 remains on the State to prove guilt beyond a reasonable
25 doubt.

1           In order to establish criminal liability, the 2 criminal intent is required. For example, the mental
3 state required to be proven by the State for a particular
4 crime might be purpose, intent, knowledge, recklessness,
5 or criminal negligence. Criminal intent must be proven by 6 the State beyond a reasonable doubt. Criminal intent is 7 always a matter that must be determined by the jury from 8 the circumstances surrounding the situation.

9           There is no way to prove intent to a mathematical
10 certainty. There is no way medical science can dissect a 11 person's brain and determine what that person had in mind.
12 So the law says that criminal intent may be inferred from 13 the circumstances shown to have existed. This is how you
14 make a determination of whether or not the element
15 requiring intent was present. It is not necessary to 16 establish intent by direct and positive evidence, but 17 intent may be established by inference in the same way of 18 any other fact, by taking into consideration the acts of 19 the parties and all the other facts and circumstances of 20 the case.

21           Criminal intent a mental state. It's a conscious
22 wrongdoing. It is up to you to determine what the 23 defendant intended to do based on the circumstances shown
24 to have existed. Criminal intent can arise from an action
25 or a failure to act and may arise from negligence,

1 reckless, or an indifference to duty or to the 2 consequences that is considered by the law to be the 3 equivalent of criminal intent.

4 Now, ladies and gentlemen, the defendant is charged
5 with murder. The State must prove beyond a reasonable
6 doubt that the defendant killed another person with malice
7 aforethought. Malice is hatred, ill will, or hostility
8 towards another person. It is the intentional doing of a 9 wrongful act without just cause or excuse and with an 10 intent to inflict an injury or under circumstances that 11 the law will infer an evil intent.

12 Malice aforethought does not require that malice
13 exists for any particular time before the act is 14 committed, but malice must exist in the mind of the 15 defendant just before and at the time that the act is 16 committed. Therefore, there must be a combination of the 17 previous evil intent and the act.

18 Malice aforethought may be expressed or inferred.
19 These terms "expressed" and "inferred" do not mean 20 different kinds of malice but merely the manner in which 21 the malice may be shown to exist. That is either by 22 direct evidence or by inference from the facts and 23 circumstances which are proved in the case.

24 Expressed malice is shown when the person speaks
25 words or which express hatred or ill will for another or

1 when the person prepared beforehand to do the act which
2 was later accomplished. For example, lying in wait for a
3 person or any other act of preparation going to show that 4 the deed was within the defendant's minds will be 5 expressed malice.

6 Malice may be inferred from conduct showing a total
7 disregard for human life. If facts are proved beyond a
8 reasonable doubt sufficient to raise an inference of 9 malice to your satisfaction, the inference will be simply 10 an evidentiary fact to be considered by you, along with 11 the other evidence in this case, and you may give it the 12 weight that you decide it should receive.

13 The defendant is also charged with possession of a 14 weapon during the commission of a violent crime. The 15 State must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the 16 defendant was in possession of a firearm during the 17 commission of a violent crime. A firearm means any 18 machine gun, automatic rifle, revolver, pistol, or any 19 weapon which will or is designed to or may be readily
20 converted to expel a projectile.

21 In order to find the defendant guilty of possession
22 of a weapon during the commission of a violent crime, you
23 must first find the defendant guilty of committing a 24 violent crime.

25 As a matter of law, ladies and gentlemen, I will

1 tell you that murder is a violent crime in the State of 2 South Carolina. The State must prove beyond a reasonable
3 doubt that a weapon further advanced or helped in the 4 commission of the crime.

5 Now, ladies and gentlemen, the verdict in this 6 case -- in other words, your decision in this case must be 7 unanimous. In other words, that means that all 12 of you
8 have to agree on your verdict.

9 And Mr. Merritt, you were selected as the 10 foreperson; is that right?

11 JUROR NO. 117: Yes, sir.

12 THE COURT: All right, sir. This is the verdict
13 form. It's got two questions. The very first question is 14 whether or not the defendant is guilty or not guilty of 15 murder.

16 Now, I'll tell you, if you find the defendant guilty
17 or not guilty, it's completely up to the jury. It has to 18 be unanimous. The fact that "guilty" or "not guilty"
19 comes first on the verdict form has no bearing; one has to 20 come before the other. It makes no difference.

21 If the defendant is found guilty of murder, then you
22 would answer the question as to whether or not the 23 defendant would be guilty of possession of a weapon during 24 the commission of a violent crime.

25 If the defendant is not guilty of murder, then you

1 wouldn't -- then you couldn't find him guilty of 2 possession of a weapon during the commission of a violent
3 crime. Do you understand that?

4 JUROR NO. 117: Mm-hmm.

5 THE COURT: All right. If there's any questions
6 during the deliberations in this case, then, Mr. Merritt,
7 you would be the one that would initiate that question.
8 If you could just pass a note to the bailiff, and we can 9 take that up. Okay? There may be some things that we can 10 answer; there may be some things that we can't answer.
11 All right?

12 I appreciate everybody's time, patience, and 13 service. You are the 12 members that will now decide this 14 case. I'm going to ask that you go to your jury room at 15 this time, but please understand: Do not start
16 deliberations at this time. You still cannot talk about 17 this case. It's only going to be momentarily, but we have 18 to make sure that there's no matters of law that need to 19 be taken up. We also have to collect the evidence in this 20 case and give it to you so that you can use that evidence
21 in your deliberations. That usually takes just a few 22 minutes. And when the bailiff brings you the evidence in 23 this case and the verdict form, then you can then begin
24 your deliberations. Okay?

25 Thank you so much for your service, and the bailiff

1 will be with you shortly. Okay?

2 (The jury exited the courtroom at 11:57 a.m.)

3 THE COURT: All right. Are there any objections to 4 the charge from the State?

5 MR. WHITE: No, sir, Judge.

6 THE COURT: Any from the defendant?

7 MR. WILSON: Your Honor, just previous mere
8 presence, Your Honor. That's it.

9 THE COURT: I understand.

10 All right. Will the attorneys please gather the 11 evidence, make sure that what's in evidence goes back and 12 what's not in evidence does not?

13 (The jury begins deliberations 12:01 p.m.)

14 THE COURT: We'll be at recess until we hear
15 anything from the jury.

16 (A recess was taken from 12:01 p.m. to 12:19 p.m.)

17 JURY QUESTION

18 THE COURT: All right. I hope I didn't invite any 19 questions, but...

20 Can we make this a Court's exhibit?

21 COURT REPORTER: Sure. Court's Exhibit No. 3.

22 THE COURT: Thank you.

23 (Court's Exhibit No. 3, Juror Question, was marked
24 for identification and received into the record.)

25 THE COURT: So we have a question from the jury.

1 It's a little confusing, but it says, "Can we listen to
2 the interview between Asia Cooper..."

3 So it says, "Can we listen to the interview between 4 Asia Cooper and her testimony?" So I don't know if that 5 means they want to hear her testimony or if that means
6 they think that there might be an interview that was 7 recorded.

8 MR. WHITE: I think, at one point, Mr. Wilson did
9 turn to me and ask if the interview was in evidence, and 10 that might be -- and I thought that might be coming 11 because of that comment. So I would ask, Judge, to 12 instruct them this way, that: "You heard testimony from 13 the stand. You have to assess the testimony from the 14 stand. But if you would like to hear her testimony again,
15 we can certainly play that back for you."

16 MR. WILSON: Judge, I believe her testimony from -- 17 if I'm hearing him correctly, I think what he's saying is 18 play her testimony back from the record on the stand. But 19 her interview with Edwards is not in evidence. I think 20 we're on the same page, if I'm understanding what he's 21 saying. I have no problem with them playing her statement
22 back, her testimony.

23 THE COURT: What I generally do is I will write my 24 response on this note and send it back to them.

25 MR. WILSON: Yes, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: And I'll let you know what it is.

2 Does anybody take the position on me replying that 3 any other interview she may have given is not into 4 evidence in this case?

5 MR. WHITE: That's right, Judge.

6 MR. WILSON: The -- my thing is this: There was an
7 interview. All right? Detective Edwards talked about it.
8 There's a recording of it, but it's not in evidence.

9 THE COURT: I know.

10 MR. WILSON: So I just want to make it clear that I
11 don't want the jury to believe that I lied about the 12 interview taking place, but it's not in evidence. That 13 particular interview is not in evidence. I just want the 14 Court to make that clear because I don't want them to --

15 THE COURT: All right. So I'll fashion a response
16 that says, "We can replay her testimony that she gave in 17 court, but any interview that she gave is not into 18 evidence."

19 MR. WILSON: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: Is there any objection to "her interview
21 with law enforcement was not entered into evidence and 22 can't be" --

23 MR. WILSON: No objection to that, Judge.

24 MR. WHITE: I think that kind of shifts it too far
25 on me. You know, I don't want it to be bias in any form.

1 But, I mean, I think -- I think that goes a little too far
2 the other way. They're going to wonder why I didn't move
3 it into evidence, and the fact is, I couldn't move it into 4 an evidence unless there was an extrinsic evidence issue.

5 So I don't want them to place the burden on me and 6 say, "Well, if the State didn't move it into evidence,
7 we're going to hold it against them." And I think that's 8 a very real possibility here. I didn't bring up entering 9 into it evidence, so I don't want it to look bad on the 10 State. I think something just kind of generic here would 11 be more appropriate, in my opinion.

12 THE COURT: I mean, that's what I'm trying to 13 arrive.

14 MR. WHITE: Yes, sir. I would suggest just 15 something super generic. The -- "Any interview that may 16 have occurred in this case is not to be considered by you, 17 but you can" --

18 MR. WILSON: Judge...

19 THE COURT: We're just talking, Mr. Wilson.

20 MR. WHITE: Yeah, that's good. That's good.

21 (Co-counsel conferring off the record.)

22 MR. WHITE: That's good. Some experience here. I
23 think stating that, "You have already heard all -- all the 24 evidence that you have is available to you, but if you
25 want to hear the testimony back, we can certainly play

1     that back for you." And then that doesn't mention -- you
2     know, I think that's fair.

3             MR. WILSON: Judge, if we do that, then --
4     obviously, I know where the questions are going. Okay?
5     This question --

6             THE COURT: Well, I mean, this is confusing. I
7     mean, it says, "Interview and testimony."

8             MR. WILSON: Right. Well, if they're referring to 9     my asking about the time frame -- because I had the 10    transcript of the interview. And so if they're referring 11    to what I put in the record -- and I was asking about the 12    interview because it happened. We have it. Obviously, I
13    didn't put it in for my own reasons, but they don't know
14    that. And they don't know it exists.

15            I don't want them to say Mr. Wilson lied about the 16    interview. The interview exists and that's a fact. The 17    State knows that. But the State doesn't have to put it
18    in, but, you know, to go back and tell them, "Look, you 19    know, that's all the evidence there is," it almost 20    prejudices the defendant because it looks like I was lying 21    to the jury. I'm not lying to the jury when I say there's 22    an interview that she has with Chief Edwards. You know?

23            But, again, I don't want the State to be prejudiced
24    either. If we can fashion something that says, "Look, you
25    know, the existence of evidence, you know, may or may not

1 be" or something like that, but not anything which 2 suggests that we said that and it didn't occur, because
3 that statement they want to put in saying, "Well, hey, you
4 know, just something generic," it implies that there is 5 some sort of lie going on that I told the jury. And there
6 is no lie about what I said.

7 THE COURT: No, I understand.

8 MR. WHITE: And I don't think that that comment
9 would steer them to the conclusion on either side if we 10 just say, "All you have back there at your disposal, all
11 the evidence that's been entered in this case. If you'd 12 like to hear the testimony, we can certainly do that for 13 you."

14 MR. WILSON: Judge, they know there's an interview.
15 They know there's one. They're asking about it. And so,
16 again, if the Court can just let them know, "Look, there
17 was an interview; however, the State doesn't have to enter
18 it into evidence and the defense doesn't have to enter it.
19 It's not into evidence. You have to consider what's on 20 the stand." That's fair to both sides. Neither one of us
21 have an obligation to put it in.

22 MR. WHITE: But, ultimately, it's my burden. And I
23 am of the opinion I don't think they would have this
24 question if Mr. Wilson wouldn't have turned to our table
25 and said, "Have you put the interview into evidence?"

1           And I saw a few of them kind of look, and I was,
2           like, "Oh, here..."

3           And I told Roxane yesterday, I said, "That question
4           is coming," and here we are.

5           MR. WILSON: They still have the question, because I
6           put the timestamp of what he said and when they said it in 7           the actual record. I did it on purpose, because, again,
8           it's still evidence. I can still talk about. I can still 9           allude to it, because it happened between her and law
10          enforcement, and they gave it to us.

11          MR. WHITE: I know, but I think, under the rules, I
12          don't think -- and also the statement is -- it talks about 13          the Williamsburg murder. I mean, that's the whole thing.

14          THE COURT: I understand. I mean, nothing that 15          we're arguing about changes the fact that it was mentioned
16          in testimony and it was not introduced into evidence --

17          MR. WHITE: Right.

18          THE COURT: -- for whatever reason. You know? All
19          we're trying to do is fashion a response to this question, 20          and we're really speculating because we don't really 21          understand exactly what the question even means.

22          If you'd like to come look at this question, then 23          you'll understand what I'm saying. It's not written very 24          well. Take a look at this and then see if that changes
25          your mind.

1 Did you have something, Madam Clerk?

2 THE CLERK: I just got their food.

3 THE COURT: Oh, well, we're going to have to take a
4 break then. I'm just kidding.

5 MR. WHITE: I think that's perfect.

6 THE COURT: Well, I wasn't finished yet.

7 MR. WHITE: Oh, well --

8 THE COURT: I was asking you to read the question.

9 MR. WILSON: They're talking about the interview.
10 They're talking about the actual conversation she had with 11 law enforcement. That's my interpretation.

12 THE COURT: But also it says "testimony."

13 MR. WILSON: I don't know what that means. I don't 14 know what that means, because there's nothing else -- I
15 don't know. I don't know. Maybe they're talking about 16 testimony.

17 MR. WHITE: Could be. So then I like what you have 18 got right there. That looks good. It leaves it out of 19 it. "If you want to hear it back, we'll play it."

20 MR. WILSON: As long as that's what they're asking.
21 If they come back with another question --

22 THE COURT: I can only assume if they -- if that 23 doesn't answer their question, they'll ask again.

24 MR. WILSON: Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

25 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

1 I think I heard her say lunch is here, so we'll have
2 to take a lunch break. I'm just kidding. We'll be 3 available.

4 MR. WILSON: Thank you, Judge. We're at recess?

5 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

6 MR. WILSON: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 (Recess taken from 12:29 p.m. to 1:12 p.m.)

8 JURY QUESTION

9 THE COURT: All right. We have another note from 10 the jury. We'll make it a court reporter -- I mean, a
11 Court's exhibit. Can't make it a court reporter.

12 COURT REPORTER: Court's No. 4.

13 (Court's Exhibit No. 4, Juror Question/Note, was 14 marked for identification and received into the record.)

15 THE COURT: And it's requesting -- it says, "We need 16 her testimony in court replayed." I'm assuming that's 17 Asia Cooper. And I believe the court reporter has that 18 ready to go. Is there any objection to replaying that 19 testimony?

20 MR. WHITE: Not on behalf of the State, Judge.

21 MR. WILSON: Not on behalf of the defendant, Your 22 Honor.

23 THE COURT: All right. May we have the jury, 24 please?

25 (The jury entered the courtroom at 1:23 p.m.)

1 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Merritt, I understand
2 that the jury would like to hear the testimony of Asia
3 Cooper; is that right?

4 JUROR NO. 117: Yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: We'll play that now. Thank you.

6 (Court testimony of Asia Cooper was replayed for the 7 jury.)

8 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen. That
9 concludes the testimony of Asia Cooper. We'd ask that you
10 go back and continue to deliberate. Thank you.

11 (The jury exited the courtroom at 1:45 p.m.)

12 THE COURT: All right. Anything before we go back
13 into recess?

14 MR. WHITE: Not from the State, Judge.

15 MR. WILSON: Nothing from the defense, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

17 (A recess was taken from 1:45 p.m. to 3:52 p.m.)

18 COURT REPORTER: Court's No. 5 marked.

19 (Court's Exhibit No. 5, Jury Question, was marked 20 for identification and received into the record.)

21 JURY QUESTION

22 THE COURT: All right. We have another question.
23 Got everybody?

24 MR. WILSON: Yes, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: They want to listen to the pathologist's

1 testimony. I don't think it was very long, but we'll 2 bring them out, if there's no objection, and listen to the 3 pathologist.

4 MR. WHITE: Sounds good, Judge.

5 MR. WILSON: No objection, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: If we can have the jury.

7 COURT REPORTER: And just for the record, that's 8 Dr. Batalis?

9 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

10 And I tell you what, before we -- I don't know. We 11 might have a few of the deputies just step outside. I
12 don't want to intimidate the jury or anything.

13 MR. WHITE: Yeah, that's a good idea.

14 THE COURT: We'll be all right. We're not expecting
15 a verdict right now. So if y'all just -- appreciate it.

16 (The jury entered the courtroom at 3:54 p.m.)

17 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Merritt, the jury wishes
18 to hear the testimony of the pathologist?

19 JUROR NO. 117: Yes.

20 THE COURT: All right.

21 (Court testimony of Dr. Batalis replayed for the 22 jury.)

23 THE COURT: Again, we'd ask you to go back and 24 continue your deliberations. Thank you so much for your 25 service.

1 (The jury exited the courtroom at 4:05 p.m.)

2 (Recess was taken from 4:06 p.m. to 4:20 p.m.)

3 VERDICT

4 THE COURT: And I understand we have a verdict. Do
5 we have everybody here that we need?

6 MR. WILSON: Yes, Your Honor.

7 MR. WHITE: Yes, sir, Judge.

8 THE COURT: To those of you who are in the 9 courtroom, please understand that there will be no
10 reaction whatsoever to this verdict. If you don't think
11 you can comply with not reacting to whatever the verdict
12 might be, then I would advise you to probably go ahead and 13 leave the courtroom at this time, because these deputies 14 are here; they're going to take you into custody if 15 anybody reacts to this verdict whatsoever. Do we 16 understand? I'll give you an opportunity right now if you
17 don't think you need to be here.

18 All right. Can we have the jury, please?

19 (The jury entered the courtroom at 4:28 p.m.)

20 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Merritt, has the jury
21 reached a verdict?

22 JUROR NO. 117: Yes, sir.

23 THE COURT: And is that verdict unanimous, all 12
24 people agree?

25 JUROR NO. 117: Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

2 Madam Clerk, can you publish the verdict?

3 THE CLERK: State of South Carolina, County of 4 Florence, in the Court of General Sessions, Twelfth
5 Judicial Circuit, Indictment No. 2021-GS-21507 and 508,
6 State of South Carolina versus Antonio Denon Brayboy, as 7 to the charge of murder, we, the jury, unanimously find
8 the defendant guilty. As to the possession of a weapon
9 during the commission of a violent crime, we, the jury,
10 unanimously find the defendant guilty.

11 Signed, Jeremiah Merritt, Foreperson, dated July 20
12 of 2023.

13 Members of the jury, if this is your verdict, please
14 raise your right hand.

15 (All jurors raised their right hand.)

16 THE CLERK: That's everyone, Judge.

17 THE COURT: All right. Is there anything from 18 either side before we release the jury?

19 MR. WHITE: Nothing on behalf of the State, Judge.
20 My apologies.

21 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Wilson?

22 MR. WILSON: Your Honor, nothing from the defense.
23 Obviously, the judge is aware.

24 THE COURT: I understand.

25 All right, ladies and gentlemen. Thank you for your

1 service this week. This ends your service. Certainly you
2 have earned an exemption, if you wish to use that in the 3 future in the event that you get subpoenaed back for jury
4 service in the next three years. All I can tell you is 5 thank you. I know that it's been a long week. You have 6 been here and done everything that we have asked of you
7 and you have paid close attention, and you have served
8 just as anybody should and could, and we appreciate that.

9 Again, you'll receive a check or however they might 10 pay you. Please, again -- it's not for what your time is 11 worth, but it's just what's already set. We certainly 12 can't pay you for what your time is worth.

13 What we'll do next is we will sentence the defendant
14 for these crimes that he has been convicted of. You're 15 more than welcome to stay. You're more than welcome to 16 go. That's up to you. We're going to ask that everybody
17 remain seated while you make your decision. If you'd like 18 to go, you can just go out this way, and the bailiffs will 19 take care of you, make sure you get what you need.

20 And we, again, appreciate your service. If you'd 21 like to stay, just remain seated. All right?

22 So we'll be at ease for just a moment.

23 Mr. White, would you like to approach?

24 MR. WHITE: Yes, sir.

25 (Pause in the proceedings.)

1 THE COURT: All right. Are the parties ready for
2 sentencing?

3 MR. WHITE: Yes, sir, Judge.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Wilson?

5 MR. WILSON: Ready for motions as well, Judge,
6 before sentencing, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: All right. Be happy to hear from you.

8 MOTIONS/MATTERS OF LAW

9 MR. WILSON: Judge, obviously, the jury was in for 10 four hours, had several questions, and I'm going to be 11 frank with the Court. Going back to pretrial motions, I
12 made it very clear on the record that I believed that the 13 search warrant that was obtained by law enforcement for 14 his phone number lacked probable cause at the time.
15 Again, they didn't know this defendant, they didn't know
16 who he was. They had no whatsoever determination or even 17 in the warrant suggested that he had committed a crime.

18 Once they got his number and they did the search
19 warrant, Your Honor is aware that we made the case of 20 State v. Gibbs, which we believe applies in this matter;
21 State v. Jones, which we believe applies in this matter;
22 and we believe that fruit of the poisonous tree would 23 apply throughout the evidence that was derived from those 24 records from the cell phone.

25 Additionally, Judge, we believe that this verdict

1 came after the jury asked the question about wanting to
2 see the pathologist, and on that, I'm going to ask for a
3 new trial based on the issues, obviously, that we put 4 before the Court.

5 This was a highly circumstantial case, as Your Honor
6 pointed out outside the presence of the jury. But at this 7 point in time, it doesn't matter; he's been convicted and 8 we understand that. But this was a highly circumstantial
9 case based on, in fact, evidence that was, one, illegally
10 obtained, but also, then, extremely weak, Judge.

11 There was no evidence whatsoever that this young 12 man, on this night in question, possessed a weapon and 13 then shot this man. There was none.

14 The only evidence they had in their possession,
15 Judge, was going to be the actual cell tower information
16 saying he was close by. We asked for a charge for the 17 jury for mere presence. Your Honor declined to do so.
18 And, again, I think that, again, that is another issue for 19 a new trial.

20 You know, he obviously has a right at this point in 21 time to ask for a judgment notwithstanding -- excuse me, a 22 judgment acquittal from the Court. I understand that the 23 Court is probably going to deny that, but I have to ask 24 for it, Your Honor. In light of the fact also that the 25 evidence related to the weapon possession was so far

1 removed from the case itself, from the date of the alleged
2 murder. That information, in my opinion, that testimony
3 was so tenuous, and I explained to the Court my position
4 on that matter, that I believed that there are reliability
5 issues when it comes down to that. 902 -- excuse me, 701,
6 902 Rules of Evidence that I think would apply, not just 7 to that evidence but also other evidence related to her
8 testimony and inconsistent statements that she gave on the 9 stand, Judge, as well.

10 So we would move, at this point in time for a new 11 trial nisi, and we'd also ask the Court to consider a 12 judgment of acquittal. Should the Court deny that, then,
13 obviously, we're going to go ahead and put it on notice
14 right now for his intent to appeal, Your Honor, based on 15 the record.

16 THE COURT: And I understand your arguments and your 17 motions. You know, certainly, I have already ruled on a
18 number of those issues during and throughout this trial.
19 I stand by my rulings. I reaffirm my rulings, and I
20 respectfully deny your motions at this time.

21 MR. WILSON: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Is there anything further before we 23 proceed to sentencing?

24 MR. WILSON: Briefly, Judge. Give me one second.

25 THE COURT: All right.

1           (Mr. Wilson confers with the defendant off the 2 record.)

3           MR. WILSON: Your Honor, just one last thing.

4           THE COURT: Yes, sir.

5           MR. WILSON: Just for the record, I'm going to -- 6 obviously, understanding that, you know, he's been 7 convicted, obviously, renew all our objections for 8 pretrial. And then one additional issue as well. Some of 9 the issues with switching out jurors at trial, I'm going 10 to -- obviously going to put on the record at this time my 11 concern for the interruption in closing arguments for the 12 defendant at this point in time, Judge, and put that on 13 the record as well. I understand the Court's position on 14 that. We had this discussion, I understand, but I'm going 15 to put that on the record as well, Judge, for him and his 16 protection.

17          THE COURT: No, I understand. No problem.

18          MR. WILSON: And other than that, Your Honor, we're 19 prepared to go forward with sentencing.

20          THE COURT: All right. And just for the record, the 21 record speaks for itself. I think all of that transaction
22 was on the record. You know, the actions that were taken
23 by the Court were in agreement by the parties, and I think
24 they were appropriate. There's been no mistrial motion
25 made. So that's where I stand as far as that motion goes.

1           At this time, we'd hear from the State.

2           MR. WHITE: Thank you, Judge. You know, there are
3 several reasons why I believe that this case deserves a
4 life sentence, and I'll start with Antonio Brayboy's
5 criminal history.

6           In 2002, he's charged with a criminal domestic 7 violence of a high and aggravated nature.

8           2006, simple assault and battery.

9           2007, a shoplifting and a resisting arrest. Later
10 on in 2007, he's actually charged with murder, Judge, and 11 criminal conspiracy. That case shows no disposition.

12           2010, he is charged with assault with concealed 13 weapon, pleads guilty, and received in the Department of 14 Corrections on accessory after the fact to a felony A, B, 15 or C, and assault and battery in the second degree.

16           2017, he is convicted of distribution cocaine first,
17 Judge, and then 2017, related to that charge, he was 18 placed on probation. That sentence was suspended -- seven 19 years suspended to five years' probation. If my math is 20 correct, he would have been on probation at the time of 21 this murder.

22           Judge, not only that, as it stands right now, he is 23 the primary suspect on a murder out of Williamsburg County
24 with similar facts, similar circumstances, and potentially 25 similar motive.

1 Judge, the reason, you know, that -- I think Your
2 Honor is well aware that that statement from Asia Cooper,
3 one reason why we couldn't get into all of that is because 4 it was also being investigated and associated with that 5 Williamsburg murder.

6 So this is someone who has shown a consistent
7 predisposition for violence. And whether it's 30 years,
8 40 years, 60 years, if you give him light at the end of 9 the tunnel, he will kill again. And I think that, in and 10 of itself, is deserving of a life sentence.

11 But perhaps more than that, Judge, setting all that 12 aside, you see in this courtroom people who loved Rashad
13 Jones. And he leaves behind a young son, he leaves behind
14 a mother, father, sister, cousins, co-workers, friends
15 that cared about him deeply. And he is gone for no other
16 reason than for misplaced hatred, and for that reason, I
17 would ask that you grant a life sentence in this case.
18 And I'd ask you to hear from one of the family members in 19 respect to sentencing.

20 THE COURT: I'd be happy to hear from the family
21 member.

22 MS. FLYNN: Good afternoon.

23 THE COURT: Please give us your name for the record.

24 MS. FLYNN: Can y'all hear me?

25 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

1 MS. FLYNN: My name is Annette Nicole Flynn. I'm 2 binded by love into this family as a cousin, friend, and
3 former classmate of Rashad Maurice Jones.

4 Rashad Maurice Jones, a self-disciplined,
5 respectable, well-mannered, intellectual, dependable,
6 hard-working provider, protector, humorous, gentle giant.
7 Those are just a few of the words, Your Honor, that can
8 describe our beloved Rashad Maurice Jones. Son, brother,
9 cousin, nephew, uncle, father, friend, and a real-life
10 super hero were some of the others.

11 And just for the record, a super hero is defined as 12 a fictional character with superhuman power, such as 13 Batman.

14 While Antonio Denon Brayboy is more so a
15 manipulator, selfish, demonic villain, such as The Joker.
16 The monster who murdered our beloved Rashad, with no
17 remorse, through such a hateful, violent act, his son
18 Ramere is now fatherless and in the custody of his mother.

19 The separation has been a strain on the family being 20 able to maintain a relationship with -- who was a grandson
21 to his parents, my kids, God-brother, nephew, and so much 22 more.

23 We often wonder if his mother plays with him until 24 he tires out and if she tucks in him at night as his dad
25 would. We wonder if he feels the same and protected as he

1 did with his dad. We wonder if he is being well taken
2 care of and when we will see him again --

3 THE COURT: Excuse me. I think we need to see if 4 there needs to be attention to --

5 MS. FLYNN: This murder took not only his father
6 from us but from his son as well. Rashad's parents lost
7 just not a child but their sole provider, the man of their 8 home.

9 His mother, Vivian, who has been taking care of her
10 disabled husband all these years has had to return back to 11 work full time to provide for her family, leaving her 12 disabled husband, James, at home to care for himself while 13 she works a full-time job.

14 His brother, Nathaniel, and sisters, Dana and 15 Whitney, lost their big brother and first friend. As 16 close-knit as we are, I can't even phantom [sic] the 17 feelings and pain they have endured. I just witnessed it.

18 His niece and nephews lost their only uncle.
19 Derrick lost his co-worker, cousin, who was more so his 20 brother, and best friend being an only child.

21 I pray I've proven to Derrick in the last 12
22 years --

23 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to have to -- I'm 24 sorry, but I don't know what's going on with this 25 defendant, if there's an emergency. What's the situation?

1 (Pause in the proceedings.)

2 THE DEPUTY: Your Honor, can we take him downstairs
3 or call EMS or how do you want to --

4 THE COURT: I don't know if you need to call EMS.
5 I'm leaving that up to you. He's in your custody.

6 THE DEPUTY: Right. We're calling them now.

7 THE COURT: Okay?

8 MR. WILSON: May I speak to him, Judge?

9 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

10 (Mr. Wilson speaking to the defendant off the 11 record.)

12 THE COURT: At this time, I'm going to ask everybody
13 that's not law enforcement or related to this case to go
14 ahead and leave the courtroom. We'll tell you when we're 15 going to resume this hearing. Okay?

16 And, ladies and gentlemen of the jury, I apologize
17 for this situation. You're free to go. I appreciate your 18 service. Okay?

19 (Mr. Wilson speaking to the defendant off the 20 record.)

21 THE COURT: I tell you what we're going to do: I'm 22 going to take a short recess. We're going to see what EMS
23 says and then we'll continue.

24 MR. WHITE: Yes, sir, Judge.

25 (A recess was taken from 4:48 p.m. to 5:06 p.m.)

1           THE COURT: All right. Is the State ready to 2 proceed?

3           MR. WHITE: Judge, I think we have said our piece
4 and you heard from the family, and I think I echo the 5 sentiments of the family when I asked for a life sentence
6 in this case, Judge.

7           THE COURT: And there's no other members of the 8 family that need to speak?

9           MS. FLYNN: I wanted to finish what I had to say.

10          THE COURT: We'll hear you.

11          MS. FLYNN: I pray I've proven to Derrick in the 12 last 12 years I not just stand behind him but beside him;
13 that, if he ever needs me, I'll always be a shoulder he 14 can lean on and only wish I could make all this go away.

15                I know who and what Rashad was to him, and that made 16 him mean just as much to me, if not more. Whenever 17 Derrick and Rashad were -- wherever Derrick and Rashad
18 were, I was there also, especially before any of us had 19 any children. As a matter of fact, Rashad was the one who 20 dropped us off at the hospital and picked us up when we 21 had our first child, with no car.

22                Again, a superhero. Always to the rescue, very 23 dependable. When we couldn't count on no one else, we 24 knew we could always count on Rashad, even for a laugh.

25                This is only a small glimpse of how this has

1 affected his most immediate family. Imagine what all the 2 others go through. Rashad's legacy was built off love,
3 kindness, and laughter, which is more important than 4 Antonio's for us to allow him to get away with his
5 actions. We prayed for this day.

6 This entire family standing behind me, including
7 myself, are much stronger than the malice and evil Antonio
8 represents. Faith, hope, unconditional love, and 9 togetherness are just a few characteristics that the Jones
10 family's foundation is built upon. Those are the valuable
11 traits that have helped us get through this very difficult
12 time. Some days, we smile, remembering the good days and 13 time we had with Rashad. Other days are just as hard as 14 the first day we heard of his death, or as hard as this 15 week has been, as we shed tears wishing he was here.

16 His aunt described this trial as poking at an open
17 wound because, without justice, we could not properly
18 heal. While the murderer still gets to maintain some sort
19 of relationship with his loved ones, even behind the walls
20 via phone, tablet, mail, etc., we still grieve our beloved
21 Shawn (ph), as we lovely refer to him, and have to visit
22 him at a cemetery, celebrate his memory with balloon
23 releases, and carry him with us by putting his face on a
24 T-shirt and in our memory.

25 We came together this week sacrificing time, money,

1 and so much more in hopes for closure through justice that
2 will bring a sense of safety, comfort, and peace of mind
3 knowing Antonio will never commit another selfish,
4 violent, hateful act of crime.

5 We have no empathy for a person such as himself. We 6 believe his existence is a waste of space in today's 7 society.

8 Judge, the family is kindly requesting -- but I'm 9 begging of you -- to give Antonio Denon Brayboy the 10 highest lawful punishment for this type of crime. With 11 all due disrespect to the defendant, our hopes are that he 12 will suffer just as much anguish, pain, and hurt as we 13 have and that the death of our beloved Rashad Maurice
14 Jones and any other of his victims haunt him for the rest
15 of the days of worthless life and even thereafter.

16 Maybe then we, the Jones family, can move forward in 17 the grieving process and ask God to deliver us from the 18 bitterness, hate, and anger that we feel. Maybe one day
19 we will be able to forgive him, as God has forgiven us, so 20 we don't harbor these negative emotions the rest of our 21 lives; that our hearts will be clear when our day comes;
22 that maybe one day we will be united with our beloved
23 Rashad Maurice Jones.

24 THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am.

25 All right. Is there anything further from the

1 State?

2 MR. WHITE: No, sir, Judge.

3 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Wilson?

4 MR. WILSON: Your Honor, if it pleases the Court,
5 Judge. I was going to speak on behalf of Mr. Brayboy.

6 Obviously, the Court understands his condition,
7 understands the gravity. I have talked with him,
8 explained to him -- and I want to put this on the 9 record -- the laws. We have had fruitful conversations
10 about what could possibly happen in this case.

11 Again, he is declaring his innocence. He, through 12 me, is saying to the Court again that he's innocent. He's 13 also saying through me, again, that, obviously, he's going
14 to file his appeal with the Court of Appeals.

15 I respect this Court. I respect the process. I
16 respect the jury's decision and their service. I do
17 believe, as an attorney, that he has a right to do what's 18 necessary for himself, to protect himself.

19 And I also want to say this on his behalf so that 20 the family understands, you know, again, it is tragic. No
21 one is saying it's not, and no one is saying Mr. Brayboy
22 is not sitting here telling you that it's not tragic. The 23 issue here for him, Your Honor -- and I know the judge is 24 going to sentence him, and I know harshly, based on his 25 record -- he is not a perfect person. He is not coming

1 into this court saying he's perfect. What he said was, "I
2 am not guilty. I'm innocent."

3 The jury has found him guilty, again, and he
4 understands that he's got to deal with that. I have 5 talked with him, explained to him, and I told him I was 6 going to say this on the record, you know, obviously,
7 that, you know, it's a situation where the jury came back
8 and said, "Hey, you're guilty." And that's our system of 9 justice, and you have to deal with that. You have to deal
10 with the Court's decision, and then you move on with the 11 process. And he will do that.

12 Obviously, it's tragic what happened with Mr. Jones.
13 And it is a bad case and a bad crime. But, again, I have 14 had a number of conversations with this client. He's not 15 a bright -- bright, bright person. I'm not going to sit 16 here and tell you he is. But he depends on us, our staff,
17 and he also has told me the same story from the beginning 18 since I represented him and started going through his 19 evidence.

20 He is 34 years old. He has a family who loves him.
21 We have been talking to them. They couldn't afford to 22 come back and forth to Florence. They're not a wealthy
23 family. And to put it on the record, so the Court knows, 24 they did not pay me a lot of money to represent him in 25 this matter. I took this case because I looked at the

1 evidence and saw what it was, took this case understanding
2 what the search warrant was and what the police did to 3 him, and my intent is to continue to represent him through 4 the Court of Appeals process, and I told him that. And he
5 wanted me to put it on the record so he would understand 6 that.

7 You know, so my contention is that, again, he is 8 telling the Court he's still innocent. He is asking me to 9 file the motion for reconsideration for a new trial. I
10 understand the Court is going to probably deny that, but 11 I'm still going to do everything I can to protect his 12 legal rights in the long run.

13 Having said that, Judge, he is prepared to be 14 sentenced by the Court today. I think that life, in this 15 case, is a harsh sentence. Life without parole in South
16 Carolina is LWOP. That is day-for-day, the rest of your 17 life.

18 And I understand the family is saying that he is not 19 redeemable. I will say this: In light of the fact that 20 the evidence in this case was so tenuous and weak, I think 21 that giving a life sentence in this matter is wrong.

22 But I do know that the Court has its obligation to 23 punish and to render a decision based on that sentence, 24 based on what the jury found him guilty of, which was,
25 obviously, murder as well as a charge for possession of a

1 weapon during a violent offense.

2 You know, at this point in time, normally, I would
3 ask for mercy. That's what he wants me to do. I'm asking
4 for mercy from the Court for him. And, again, obviously,
5 there's not going to be an allocution because he is still 6 maintaining he's innocent, Judge.

7 THE COURT: Does your client wish to address the 8 Court?

9 THE DEFENDANT: I did not kill Rashad.

10 And I apologize for what happened to y'all, the 11 family members. It shouldn't have happened. But I didn't 12 do it.

13 THE COURT: Thank you, sir.

14 Is there anything further, Mr. Wilson?

15 MR. WILSON: Your Honor, nothing further, Judge.

16 THE COURT: Mr. White, is there anything from the 17 State?

18 MR. WHITE: No, sir, Judge.

19 SENTENCING

20 THE COURT: All right. On Indictment No.
21 2021-GS-21-02508 for the offense of murder, you're
22 committed to the State Department of Corrections for a
23 term of 50 years.

24 On the Indictment 2021-GS-21-02507 for the 25 possession of a weapon during a violent crime, you're

1 committed to the State Department of Corrections for a
2 term of five years. That's to run consecutive to your 3 murder sentence.

4 Good luck to you, sir.

5 MR. WHITE: Thank you, Judge.

6 THE COURT: All right. Is there anything further
7 from the State?

8 MR. WHITE: Nothing from the State, Judge.

9 THE COURT: Anything from the defense?

10 MR. WILSON: Your Honor, just the ruling on our 11 motion for consideration so we can file a Notice of 12 Intent.

13 THE COURT: All right. So you're making your motion
14 at this time?

15 MR. WILSON: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: All right. The Court is going to 17 respectfully deny your motion to reconsider.

18 MR. WILSON: Thank you.

19 MR. WHITE: Thank you, Your Honor.

REASON FOR AFFIANT'S BELIEF THAT THE PROPERTY SOUGHT IS ON THE SUBJECT PREMISES

On December 29, 2019, around 1:30 a.m., the Florence County Sheriff's Office responded to 2711 Pamplico Highway, Florence, S.C. also known as Greenwood Athletic Park located within the jurisdiction of Florence County concerning a suspicious vehicle complaint. Deputies responded to make contact with the vehicle one 2003 GMC Yukon (SC Tag NPK425) concerning this incident. Deputies observed a black male individual in the driver seat appeared to be sleeping. Upon approach deputies discovered the male individual was unresponsive and bleeding from the left side of his head area prompting them to call for EMS. The Florence County Coroner's Office was notified along with investigators with the Sheriff's Office to respond to the scene. Upon further investigation it appeared the male victim sustained a gunshot wound to his head area. Investigators were able to identify the deceased victim, Rshashad Maurice Jones, of Mullins, South Carolina. During the course of the investigation the Mr. Jones' personal cell phone made contact with the listed number (1-704-777-8982) several times around the time of his death. Investigators have reason to believe the subscriber information along with the cell phone records contain vital information to assist with this ongoing investigation. (FCSO Case # 2019-12-0678)

Hello Jade Roy,

Here is what I have on this user (i have also attached a certificate of records) (i have no login log as we store logins for 12 months)

email: brayboy.antonio89@yahoo.com sign up: Dec 19 2019
phone:

(no phone in account profile)

Dec 30 2019 07:11:09 AM CST User erased their phone number 704 777 8982

I have also attached a list of posts that this account has posted along with the date / time / ip address each was posted.

Both the login logs and the Post logs now record device id and user agent (as of May 25, 2023). The device ID is an internal marking of the device used to login or post (eg: the phone and browser combination), in the future we hope to use this to be able to search for related accounts, but right now it is of not much use to you.

The user agent is shown as it will give you more information about the device being used to make the posts and may help you.

SCHEDULING POST NOTE

Some people "schedule" their posts. For example, at 1pm, they will schedule a post for 9pm that same day (or a few days in advance). We record the ip address at the time that scheduling is made. In the post logs, this shows up in the columns "Date Ad Scheduled, Time Ad Scheduled (local time where ad is posted). If the user has not scheduled a post, and just posts "now" then these columns are blank. If the user schedules a post and you are going to the phone company or using this as proof, use THIS time, and not the post time and date, because this is the time when the user was actually on the site performing the action.

Both the ip address log and the post list now contain port numbers, however port numbers are only valid between May 26, 2020 and July 13, 2020.

Our DDOS provider doesn't pass on the port numbers between the user and themselves, but the port number between the ddos provider and us. We apologize for this, but there is nothing we can do about it due to the fact our site is constantly attacked and we need this service.

There are different time zones used in the different logs due to the nature of our database; the time zones are listed at the top of each column. Please pay careful attention to the zone when issuing your court order.

ALSO: We have noted that our DDOS provider seems to pass IPV6 addresses much more often than our server detects by itself. Depending on the mobile phone or internet provider, the IPV6 addresses may not be shared to the extent that IPV4 addresses are, so you may not need port numbers to verify subscriber information if our logs show IPV6 addresses.

An IPV4 address looks something like this: 99.203.56.37

An IPV6 address looks something like this: 2607:fb90:b088:11f4:c884:c798:8a16:f1e8

If you see an IPV6 address beginning with ::ffff:, that's an ipv4 address translated/mapped to ipv6 space and that is probably not sufficient for user identification with an internet provider.

Additional Info. For AT&T Mobile Phone Customers, sometimes their IPV6 address will look like this: 2600:387:2:803::90

2600:387:2:80f::c1

These are shared (NATed) IPV6 addresses that AT&T sometimes uses, unfortunately it will be difficult to get subscriber information for these addresses.

We are a free site so I have no billing information for you.

I hope this information helps you in your case, please let me know if I have missed anything. Also please let me know when/if i should inactivate this account and delete the posts associated with it.

Note one option that we have done in the past is make the user's current and future ads invisible, and if they keep on making new posts I can send you an update of the ads based on your request (please remind me by sending me an email when you would like an update).
To be clear, I don't have the ability to monitor an account for new postings, but if you send me an email in the future I will check the account.

By invisible I mean they will not show up in the ad listings to anyone viewing them, but the actual links will be active. We have found that this sometimes can aid in locating people as if we delete the ads and inactivate the accounts these people typically either just open new accounts or go open accounts at other sites. Sometimes the user will notice and inquire with us, sometimes they will not. If they do inquire I will ask you for instructions as to what you would like me to do/say.

Only read the below if the account is older than 30/8/20, otherwise this is the end of my email

Port numbers are invalid when we are under DDOS attack and running through a reverse proxy DDOS protection service. Current Dates we have done that: (DD/MM/YY format). (This is because the reverse proxy stands between us and the client, and though the reverse proxy passes us the ip client data, they do not pass port data, so we record the port number of the reverse proxy service - unfortunately there is nothing we can do about this)

13/7/20 - 20/7/20 10:30am GMT + 2 (CEST)

RECORD ON APPEAL 0627

1. Background

The South Carolina Law Enforcement Division (SLED) Information and Intelligence Center (SCIIC) was requested by 12th Circuit Solicitor's Office to analyze cell phone records for (843)-289-9100 and (704)-777-8982 ("target cell phones"). The target cell phones are believed to be associated with Murder Investigation that began December 28th, 2019.

2. Methodology

An analysis was performed on the call detail records obtained for the target cell phone. The call detail records documented the interaction of the network to and from the target cell phone. In addition, the records documented the cell tower and cell sector ("cell site") which served the cell phone during this activity. Used in conjunction, the call detail records and a list of cell site locations illustrate an approximate location of the target cell phone when they initiated contact with the network.

2.1 Cell Site Locations

Cell sites in existence during the time of the incident were input into mapping software using latitude/longitude coordinates of the cell sites provided by the service provider(s). The cell sites associated with the target cell phone(s), were located utilizing the mapping software and the plotted cell site data.

4. Conclusions

A historical cell site analysis was performed on the call detail records for the target cell phone. The methods detailed in Sections 2 and 2.1 were used to produce the attached historical cell site analysis maps.
