

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

City of Columbia, Respondent,

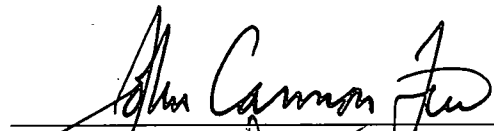

v.

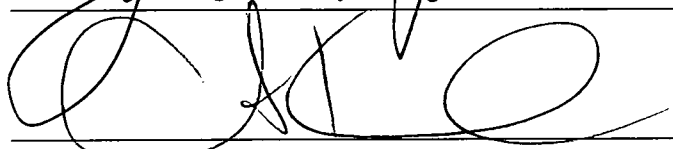

Haiyan Lin, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2013-001862

ORDER

Appellant has filed a "motion to stay appeal," which we construe as a motion to rehear the dismissal of her appeal. Because the underlying orders are form 4 orders, which provide "formal order to follow," the appeal was properly dismissed as not immediately appealable. See Metts v. Mims, 384 S.C. 491, 499, 682 S.E.2d 813, 817 (2009) (holding a Form 4 order that specifies a formal order will follow is not a final order). The Court, therefore, is unable to discover that any material fact or principle of law has been either overlooked or disregarded, and hence, there is no basis for granting a rehearing or reinstating the appeal. Accordingly, the petition is denied.
