Dear Ms. Bridenback,

As Mr. Carroll noted in his email below, we have been in court with Judge Brown in Greenville this afternoon, and I have not had a chance to review the court's proposed submission/report in detail. To the extent my clients have concerns with any points made in the report, we will note them to the Supreme Court with a copy to her honor.

Respectfully,

From Chief Justice Toal:

Dear Counsel,

I am enclosing a copy of the draft of my First Report to the Supreme Court of South Carolina which I intend to send out this afternoon at 5:00 PM. Please give me any comments you have by 4:00 PM. I have also determined that the first week of the August term should be reserved for the potential use of the parties in the case remaining in the August Block. I also want to give you adequate to make you filings on the motions in Tibbs. Therefore, I am setting the hearing to begin August 11, 2025, and I am also setting a briefing schedule on the motions. A copy of the notice of the hearing and the briefing schedule is also attached. It will be filed in Tibbs at 5:00 PM unless I hear some strong reason to change.

With my kindest personal regards,
