October 30th, 2013

Dear Mrs. Kitchings,

I'm writing this letter to simply inquire and notify you that today, October 30, 2013, I recieved in the mail a letter from you regarding Appellate Case No. 2013-002277 (Lower Court Case No. 2013-ALJ-04-0476-AP) that enlisted the rules I must follow in this appeal. Being that this is my third (3rd) appeal filed with this court, I was also expecting the sheet listing some type of deficiencies with the rules sheet but there was none enclosed.

I'm assuming that since you did not notify me of any deficiencies with case No. 2013-002277, I'm all good to go forward with my Appellant's Initial Brief & designation of matter? Until otherwise notified, I will go forth with my Appellant's Initial Brief & designation of matter. If anything changes please contact me at my address.

Very Truly yours,
Mr. Michael D. Groins
