RE: Terrell McCoy v. Attorney General Rutledge Johnson
Appellate Case No. 2025-00013

Dear clerk of Court,

I originally filed this above reference appeal in this court, and this court transferred the case to the court of appeal. The notice of appeal that I sent to this court was filed on May 23, 2025 by the clerk of court. I sent the court of appeals the order denying Rule 59(e) SCRPC motion dated April 25, 2025. With this in mind, the SC court of appeals is sending me letters stating the notice of appeal is out of time. According to Rule 203(b)(1) the timely filing of a Rule 59(e) motion stay the time limit to file the notice of appeal until the Rule 59(e) is resolved. In my case, the judge denied the 59(e) motion April 25, 2025, and I filed the notice of appeal on May 23, 2025 in this court. My notice of appeal is timely. Can this clerk

LEGAL MAIL

Verify that the above reference case was filed May 23, 2025 in this Court, and was transferred to the court of appeals at a later date, and can this clerk review the April 25, 2025 order denying Rule 59(e) motion to verify the notice of appeal is timely, and that i should not be ordered to file a motion for late filing in which the court of appeal, clerk, has ordered me to do. See Exhibit 1.

Can you also fwd me a copy of the letter sent to me by this court back in May or June when my notice of appeal was filed, and also fwd me a copy of the envelope which shows SCDC time stamp as proof the notice of appeal was filed timely.
