SC Court of Appeals

Re: Joan C. Macatee, et al. v. Innes T. Mather, as Personal Representative of the Estate of Michael R. Macatee, et al.
Appellate Case No. 2025-000558

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

The parties are continuing to work toward perfecting a settlement. They ask for the Court's patience as they work through getting the necessary consents, agreements, and filings in place. It is anticipated that the matter may need to be remanded to the probate court for the purpose of effectuating the settlement given the status of several of the parties. For this reason, the parties request that this matter remain held in abeyance while they work through these logistics. A status report will be provided every thirty days to keep the Court apprised of any developments. In the event it appears that a settlement is not likely to be forthcoming, the parties will apprise the Court of that as well.

Sincerely yours,

HAYNSWORTH SINKLER BOYD, P.A.
