S.C. SUPREME COURT

Appeal From York County
Court of General Sessions
Honorable R. Keith Kelly, Circuit Court Judge

Case No. 2025-000197

The State,

V.

Respondent,

Londell Lashun Alston,

Appellant,

Motion to Reassign Case to Supreme Court

The appellant, Londell L. Alston, moves the Supreme Court for an order reassigning the above-captioned appeal to the Supreme Court for all purposes. The grounds for this motion are that the above appeal involves an issue of significant public interest in a conviction obtained without the presentment of a grand jury, which appellants indictments are stamped True Bill and signed by a foreperson as stated on indictments on 10/26/2023. Appellant has documentation from the General Sessions Case History that provides proof that no Grand Jury of the County of York convened on 10/26/2023. There is also documentation to validate no extension was granted due to the solicitor's delay in presenting the indictments to the Grand Jury as permitted within 90 days as stated in "Rule 3" Disposition of an arrest warrant," and a legal principle of major importance in that, is a Fourteenth Amendment violation of appellants due process.
