Ok. My question is because the UPS packages I sent arrived first at the Court of Appeals and second at Charleston County. That's why I am asking if the documents I sent you will be filed. I know that the right sequence is first with Charleston and second with you.

Thanks,

Cynthia

Good afternoon,

Thank you for your prompt reply. I just spoke with Catherine at Charleston County Common Pleas, and she told me that they received my notice of appeal, clocked it, and it is their basket to be filed.

I noticed that you already received my envelope with the notice, attachments and payment. What is the next step?

Thanks,

Cynthia

Good morning,

You will receive a notice of appeal this morning via UPS regarding the above case.

I'm still within the filing deadline, but because I had pneumonia, I ended up sending the packages to you, the Charleston County Clerk of Court, and the defendant's attorney on the same day.

Your package may arrive a few hours before the one sent to the trial court, and I was wondering if you could please hold it (for a few hours) until the notice is properly filed in Charleston. The UPS tracking number for the envelope sent to you is 1Z2R3F650397261218.

I appreciate your help.

Thanks,

Cynthia Veronese
