Good Morning Emily,

I received the correspondence from the Court of Appeals. I filed this appeal pro se, in my own name, and my attorney did not sign or review any of the appellate documents. My attorney, who is representing me in the trial court, is not representing me in the appellate court case. He will not be drafting any briefs, motions or handling any oral argue. I will be handling the entire appeal process myself.

Please let me know if I need to file something more formal so that the issue outlined in the correspondence is resolved.

Thank you

Robert M. Errato
