SC Court of Appeals Appellate Case No. 2025-001265

{ Motion For Bail

{ Pending Appeal

I, John Dial, make this motion for bail pending appeal and ask this Honorable Court to take the following into consideration:

- 1.) Defendant has never failed to appear for any previous court appearances
- 2.) Defendant has lived in Columbia his entire life and has four children and two grandchildren who needs his help and support
- 3.) The Defendant has appealed his conviction and sentence and said appeal is not for dilatory purposes. Rather, the Defendant has presented numerous issues in his motion for a New Trial which he has raised in appeal. It is respectfully submitted that these issues present substantial questions of law and fact likely to result in a reversal of his conviction or in an order for a new trial or resentencing.
- 4.) Defendant poses no danger to the community. Victim even stated at the end of trial that she is not afraid of him.
- 5.) Defendant's life is in danger in SCDC for previously being an informant for law enforcement.

6.) Defendant has already been assaulted and waiting on treatment for an shoulder injury.

WHEREFORE; based on the forgoing, this Honorable Court is respectfully urged to admit the Defendant to bail pending a resolution of post-trial matters filed in this case and, if necessary, pending appeal to the Supreme Court.

Respectfully Submitted:

John Dial
