Subject: Urgent Follow-Up – Transcript Production for Manna v. Sinclair (Appellate Case No. 2025-001313)

RECEIVED
Oct 27 2025
SC Court of Appeals

Dear Ms. Mills,

I am writing to follow up on your message dated September 25, 2025, regarding my transcript request in Manna v. Sinclair (Charleston County Court of Common Pleas, Case No. 2024-CP-10-04530; SC Court of Appeals Case No. 2025-001313).

In that message, you acknowledged that the request, originally assigned to your office on September 5, had been overlooked due to volume, and you assured me it would be expedited into production without requiring a deposit, while maintaining the standard service rate.

As of October 26, I have not received the transcript nor any further updates on its production status.

Because this matter is now under active appeal before the South Carolina Court of Appeals, the timely completion and delivery of the transcript is critical to moving forward with the Record on Appeal. The Court is aware of the production delay and has permitted me to file the transcript late, but I need to provide them with a delivery timeline.

I would greatly appreciate an immediate update on:

- The current status of the transcript production
- A projected completion or delivery date

Thank you for your attention to this important matter. Please feel free to contact me directly with any questions.

Sincerely,

Scott R. Manna

Mr. Manna,

Legal Eagle is in receipt of your transcript request which was assigned to us on 9/5 as a standard service delivery. We became inundated with transcript requests, and this request was overlooked by accident. As such we will move this into production without the required deposit and have it put into our expedited service but extend the standard service rate charge to you upon its completion.

Please let me know if there's anything else we can do to help.

Thanks,

Velvet Mills
